STATESBORO, Ga. - The GATA Club invites Eagle and Pirate softball alumnae 2019 Softball Alumni Reunion on Saturday, April 13, 2019, in Statesboro, Georgia.

Softball alumnae are invited to enjoy an exciting weekend of softball and catching up with former teammates, coaches, trainers and managers as the Eagles take on Troy University. Following the game on Saturday, alumni will enjoy a post-game social at Baseball's game against Texas State.

Former Georgia Southern and Armstrong softball alumni are eligible to receive one (1) complimentary ticket to each of the softball games against Troy University and can purchase additional family tickets for $3.00 per ticket. The three-game series will begin on Friday, April 12 and wrap up on Sunday, April 14. Details on how to purchase tickets will be provided to alumni once they register for the reunion.

Those interested in attending the reunion should RSVP by Wednesday, April 10, 2019. Alumni in need of a place to stay will have the option to reserve a room with the SpringHill Suites by Marriott hotel upon completion of registration.

Along with the softball alumni reunion, Georgia Southern will also be hosting their 2019 Alumni Weekend. Luncheons, socials and an awards gala are just a few of the activities taking place. For more information visit alumni.georgiasouthern.edu today!

The reunion is open to all former student-athletes, coaches, trainers and managers of softball at either Georgia Southern University or Armstrong State and their families.

The weekend is sponsored in part by the GATA Club. The mission of GATA Club is to provide a platform to "Get Athletes Together Again" as well as re-engage alumni with the Georgia Southern and Armstrong Athletics community through mentoring and networking opportunities and special events. The GATA Club also strives to provide ways for former Athletics Alumni to continue their legacy by supporting current student-athletes academically, athletically and professionally. GATA Club events are open to former student-athletes, coaches, trainers and managers and their families.
