STATESBORO - After studying weather forecasts and consulting with local meteorologists, the 2021 Georgia Southern Blue-White Spring Game, presented by Southern Exchange and Georgia National Guard, has been moved to Friday night, April 23 at 7:30 p.m. at Allen E. Paulson Stadium due to the potential forecasted inclement weather on Saturday.

The department monitored forecasts all week, weighed multiple rescheduling options, rebooked broadcasting avenues and re-secured college officials before making the change.

The game will still be streamed on ESPN+ and will be on 106.5 FM in the Statesboro area, as well as audio on GSEagles.com.

Other events planned around the weekend are also affected:

- The Statesboro-Bulloch County Eagle Club Tour – Friday, April 23 at 5:30 p.m. | Paulson Stadium

This event is still a GO as part of Friday's festivities

- Track & Field GS Spring Classic – Saturday

This event has been CANCELED

- Southern Smoke BBQ Cook-Off - Saturday

This event has been POSTPONED to a later day and time

- Eagle Walk - Saturday

This event has been CANCELED

- EAA's $10,000 Reverse Raffle & Auction – Saturday, April 24 at 6 p.m. | Hanner Fieldhouse

This event is still a GO, but will now be in Hanner Fieldhouse
