STATESBORO PAYS HIGHER PRICES

The tobacco grower watches sales on various markets closely, and he is hard to fool when it comes to prices. When he realizes one market is selling tobacco higher, than another he begins to patronize the higher market. Statesboro is a growing market. A growing market is a high market. Statesboro pays higher prices.

Statesboro leads the State in Average Per Pound for All Tobacoo Sold on All Markets in Georgia last week.

This is because Statesboro has the most progressive, and efficient set of warehouse men in the state, the Fastest set of auctioneers in the state, a keen set of buyers who know their tobacco and The Greatest Group of Tobacco Growers in the World.

R. E. "Bob" Sheppard, Manager
E. M. Catlin, Assistant Manager

Sheppard said 1,614 pounds for 13.25 cents making a good average of 87.7c which indicated that prices paid and sold with Sheppard are always more than in other cities. You have accused our store with having less money than other stores in Georgia. These figures are absolutely correct for they were inflationary in your interest. We will be happy to make your local crop with Sheppard's Warehouse Sales Manager in Georgia.
