MR. AND MRS. HOWELL SEWELL MAJOR AND MRS. LOUIS THOMPSON FETED AT MANY LOVELY SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Howell Sewell were genial hosts Friday evening as they kept 'Open House' for their friends. Lovely Christmas decorations and the face covered table in the dining room centered with a cup punch bowl surrounded with cups each bearing attractive place cards, were evidences of Mrs. Sewell's original and exquisite taste. Platters of sandwiches, candies and bon bons were placed at each end of the table and guests informally helped themselves. Those enjoying the delightful occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Groover, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Donaldson, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Arundel, Dr. and Mrs. John Mooney, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Bowen, Dr. Baker Lee, Miss Dorothy Brannen, Miss Mary Allen Edge, Miss Elizabeth Harrier, Leodel Coleman and Miss Brooks Grimes, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Franklin, Mrs. Sidney Smith assisted the hosts.

FORD OFFERS TWO NEW CARS and keeps their PRICES LOW. Right - the Standard Tudor Sedan 60 or 65 horsepower. Below - the De Luxe Ford Sedan 65 horsepower.

THERE are two new Ford cars for 1938—the De Luxe and the Standard—differing in appearance, appointments and price—but built on the same dependable Ford chassis. Both bring you the basic advantages of a V-type 8-cylinder power-plant—smooth performance and compact design. The De Luxe Ford has the 85-horsepower engine. The Standard Ford provides a choice of 85 or 60 horsepower. Both new cars are economical to operate. The Standard, with thrifty "60" engine, costs less to run than any other Ford car ever built. And both new cars are priced low. Low price, like economy, is a Ford tradition. Ford founded the low-price field 30 years ago and keeps Ford prices low. The De Luxe Ford costs slightly more than the Standard Ford, but provides more style with extra room in the closed sedans. Both cars, in proportion to price, represent unusual values. Both are built to the same high standard of mechanical excellence. There's a dealer near you.

Blue Mold Train To Be In Statesboro On Friday, January 21

"BLUE MOLD SPECIAL" IS SPONSORED BY EXTENSION SERVICE, THE COASTAL PLAIN EXPERIMENT STATION AND THE G. & F. RAILROAD.

The schedule of the special exhibit train that will operate through South Georgia to demonstrate the new, inexpensive chemical spray to combat blue mold in tobacco beds was announced in Athens this week by Director Agricultural Extension Service Walter S. Brown, of the Gevie. The "Blue Mold Special" sponsored by the Extension Service, the Coastal Plain Experiment Station, and the Georgia and Florida railroad, will start from Valdosta, where the first demonstration will be given at 1 p. m. Monday, January 17. Other scheduled demonstration stops are: Moultrie, 10 a. m., Tuesday, January 18. Adel, 2 p. m., Tuesday, January 18. Nashville, 9 a. m., Wednesday, January 19. Douglas, 2 p. m., Wednesday, January 19. Hazlehurst, 10 a. m., Thursday, January 20. Vidalia, 3 p. m., Thursday, January 20. Statesboro, 2 p. m., Friday, January 21.

W. E. Aycock, agricultural agent for the Georgia and Florida railroad, will be in charge of a special program at Valdosta, January 17, that will launch the train on its educational mission. Director S. H. Starr, of the Coastal Plain Experiment station, Extension Director Brown and Dr. J. G. Gaines, the Coastal Plain Experiment station plant pathologist who developed the coprol formula, are among those who will speak on the Valdosta program. Doctor Gaines and S. B. Fenne, Extension Service plant pathologist, will conduct the demonstration at the eight tobacco market locations where the train is scheduled to stop. Other agricultural and railroad officials, including J. P. Belvin, commercial agent for the Georgia and Florida railroad will be aboard the train.

Blue mold is a disease which attacks often killing the entire plant. The leaves of seedlings in plant beds, spray prepared by Doctor Gaines is not a cure but is a preventative measure. It contains red copper oxide, lathane spreader, cottonseed oil and water. The estimated number of sows farrowing in 1937 fall pig crop in Georgia amounted to 130,000, or 13% less than the 149,000 farrowing in the fall of 1936, according to the Georgia Crop Reporting Service. The number of pigs saved was 762,000 as fall—a 9% decrease—and the average number of pigs per litter was 5.86 against 6.00. For the spring of 1937, farrowings were estimated at 1755,000 and the pig crop 1,010,000 head. Breeding intentions reported in December indicate about 161,000 sows to farrow in the spring of 1938. This figure, if realized, would be a decrease of 8% from 1937 spring farrowings. There were 162 one-variety cotton communities in Georgia last year, according to E. C. Westbrook, cotton specialist for the Georgia Agricultural extension service. These one-variety communities had 18,750 farmers or members who planted 303,505 acres and produced 175,885 bales of cotton. The extra profit from the cotton produced in one variety communities amounted to $6.20 per acre. Part of this came from increased yields and part from higher prices. FARM BRIEFS By WHITNEY THARIN. Uncle Jim Says. It's a whole lot cheaper to grow your own work stock in Georgia than it is to buy it, if you have plenty of feed and good pasture. The County Home Demonstration Council of Mitchell county opened a co-operative growers' market at Camilla last May and since that time more than $1,600 worth of home-grown products have been sold. More than 150 farm women have sold produce on the market since it opened. Mrs. W. M. Faircloth, the market manager, said that the best-selling products are poultry and dairy products, fresh and canned vegetables, and cakes and other cooked foods. Miss Ella Foy, county home demonstration agent, the Camilla Ladies Club, the American Legion, and local bankers are giving assistance to the project. Early reports of intentions to plant indicate that at least 17,000 acres in Georgia will be planted to

Auro Drivers Must Apply For License By Saturday Midnight

APPLICATIONS DATED LATER THAN THIS DATE WILL BE CONSIDERED AS "NEW DRIVERS" AND WILL REQUIRE EXAMINATION.

Drivers license application blanks postmarked later than midnight Saturday, January 15th, will be considered as coming from "new drivers" and all new drivers must stand an examination before getting a license to drive in Georgia. This announcement was made by Commissioner of Public Safety, Phil Brewster, early this week. The Commissioner emphasized that there will be "absolutely no further extension of time. Motorist have had four and a half months in which to get licenses and January 15th is absolutely the last day." Meanwhile thousands of applications flooded the department box number 1741 and clerks worked overtime to get licenses issued as quickly as possible. Georgia was the 43rd state to enact a drivers license law and her act is patterned after those of other states. It provides for a minimum fine of $50.00 or six months in jail for anyone driving a vehicle on the highways of the state without a license. It also provides that anyone driving with another person's license shall be punished to the same extent and that the lender of the license is also subject to the fine and imprisonment. Licenses cost only fifty cents a year but are bought for a two year period. Application blanks are available at sheriff's offices, filling stations, and other centrally located points in every community. All patrol headquarters and cars have blank. No one is authorized to accept a license or money for a license in the department's name. All license applications must be mailed to box 1741 Atlanta or taken to room 135 in the state capitol. Commissioner Brewster said there are 2,143 unclaimed licenses in the department that were mailed to addresses given but returned unclaimed. He urged anyone who has waited more than two weeks after sending an application and not received any word to write a letter or postcard to the department giving correct address, license applications are photographed to eliminate chances of mistake in addressing.

Mr. Rush Burton, the enterprising editor of The Lenoira Times, is planning to issue a special edition of his weekly newspaper that will contain 21 editorials the paper has carried on the value of soil conservation work. The editorials have attracted wide attention. Mr. Burton received a letter from President Roosevelt congratulating him on the excellence of his work. The special edition is expected to be issued in about six weeks. On fields which have rusted in the past and where low-potash, complete fertilizers have been used at planting, the North Carolina Experiment station reported an increase in yield, weight per boll, weight of seed, lint index, fiber strength and in the percentage of strong fibers. Where cotton rust was prevented, the North Carolina experiment station reported an increase in yield, weight per boll, weight of seed, lint index, fiber strength and in the percentage of strong fibers. So often we are given a message of remembrance to be taken home to members of the family and yet how seldom do we deliver it. We might even say we met the person but forget entirely that he wishes to be remembered to anyone in particular. Try to carry these little messages to their destination. It makes everyone glad to know that you are thinking about him.

"UNCLE BOB" SMITH & FAMILY BELIEVE IN USING PLENTY OF POTASH! Mrs. Smith's Record-breaking Yield. Speaking of his wife's record-breaking 1936 yield, Uncle Bob said: "Mrs. Smith planted Coker's Cleve-wilt No. 4 seed and used 1,450 pounds of fertilizer per acre, 300 pounds of which was NV MURIATE OF POTASH. She used some nitrogen as a top-dresser and the remainder of the fertilizer before planting, putting it down in three bands. She sure made me keep a close eye on that patch of cotton. For years I used 6% POTASH in my regular cotton fertilizer, but Clemson College said I was short on potash, so I started using 10% POTASH. I made larger yields and the 10% POTASH completely prevented Rust."

Potash Stops Rust and Starts Profits. Producing good yields of cotton seems to run in the Smith family. Jake Smith, of Johnston, S. C., son of Uncle Bob and Mrs. Smith, says this about his 1937 crop: "I made three bales per acre but didn't pick but two. The boll weevil got the other one. Daddy used a lot of potash so I followed him. Counting all the potash my cotton received, it adds up to 300 pounds of MURIATE OF POTASH per acre. If you were to put this in 500 pounds of fertilizer the potash would be 30%. The old slogan is right—POTASH STOPS RUST!"

IT WILL PAY YOU TO USE MORE NV POTASH. SELECT FERTILIZER CONTAINING 8 TO 10% NV POTASH, OR TOP-DRESS WITH NV MURIATE, OR NV KAINIT, OR A NITROGEN-POTASH TOP-DRESSER CONTAINING GENUINE NV POTASH. N. V. POTASH EXPORT MY., Inc., Hurt Building, ATLANTA • Royster Building, NORFOLK

IS IT WORTH A NICKLE

Bulloch county has been given a quota of $1,300 to raise to be contribute to the National Foundation for Fighting Infantile Paralysis. The quota has been set to be raised on January 29, President Roosevelt's birthday. If every person in Bulloch county contributed one five-cent piece this quota would be filled.

The Bulloch county committee for the celebration of the President's Birthday is directing the campaign in this county. This committee met this week and have begun plans for that event.

The money raised during the President's Birthday Celebration, all over the country, will all go to the new national foundation, with the hope and belief that sufficient funds will be raised to properly endow it and to assure continuance of its important work against the dread disease of infantile paralysis.

The foundation program has been broadly decided under four divisions. The first is concerned with scientific research, with the hope of discovering preventatives and cure for the disease which has, so far, proved one of the most puzzling problems in the history of medical science.

The second effort of the new foundation will be by rendering aid to all communities where the disease appears, with the purpose of checking its spread before it reaches epidemic proportions.

Thirdly, the foundation will see that proper treatment and care is provided for all sufferers from the disease. The fourth purpose is to furnish money to maintain orthopedic centers, hospitals and clinics which are striving to restore health and strength to paralysis victims.

It is estimated that there are today 600,000 victims of infantile paralysis in the United States, maimed and crippled in greater or less degree, for life. This number is constantly increasing. It is the belief of scientists that this increase in the disease will continue unless all organizations such as the proposed new national foundation can bring it under control.

President Roosevelt has dedicated his birthday, in perpetuity, to aid the new foundation. Through these annual birthday parties, by helping provide the needed funds for the national foundation.

In addition to the parties planned by the Bulloch county committee on the birthday night, there will be a "button week," sponsored by the school and the women's clubs of the state, giving the school children a chance to do their part.

Georgia is President Roosevelt's "second home." It was at Warm Springs, where the "Little White House" is located, that organized against infantile paralysis received its first momentum. The Warm Springs Foundation has saved many lives and brought new hope to hundreds of men, women and children who have contracted the disease.

TOMORROW IS THE DAY

Tomorrow, January 15 is the dead line for two musts:
GET YOUR CITY AUTO REGISTRATION TAG.
GET YOUR DRIVERS LICENSE.
It is also the final day on which application under the Bankhead-Jones Tenant Farm Act may be filed.

THE TEN BEST PICTURES

In a recent poll to select the "Ten Best pictures" of the year the movie critics of leading newspapers and magazines picked THE LIFE OF EMILE ZOLA as the Number 1 movie of 1937. Next in order came THE GOOD EARTH, CAPTAINS COURAGEOUS, LOST HORIZON, A STAR IS BORN, ROMEO AND JULIET, STAGE DOOR, DEAD END, WINTERSET and THE AWFUL TRUTH. Number 1 actor is Paul Muni, the star of the first and second "best pictures."

It is worthy of note that the "Ten best Pictures" all but STAGE DOOR and THE AWFUL TRUTH have been shown at our local theatre. This fact speaks well of the management in their attempt to furnish Statesboro and Bulloch county with worthwhile movies.

HOMERULE

There is now before the house of the Georgia General Assembly, awaiting action, a bill known as the "Burgin home rule bill." It has been approved by the senate. The bill is the work of Senator Joe Burgin, of Buena Vista. It provides that strictly local matters may be decided by the counties themselves, thus relieving the legislature of the tremendous burden of "local bills," which clutter the calendar at every session. In reviewing the number of amendments voted on in the general election on June eighth of last year we find that of the twenty-six, sixteen were of a strictly "local" nature. Their interest was localized in the counties and cities concerned, yet we were supposed to vote on them.

When these "local bills" come up before the legislature they are passed automatically when the representatives from that particular county agree and request their enactment.

The passage of the "Burgin home rule bill" would bring to each county the responsibility of working out its own problems and the administration of its own affairs, where it properly belongs. It would result in a great saving of time and would reduce the confusion which now makes the legislative burden so heavy. And there can be no doubt that it would simplify the affairs of each county.

ELECTRICITY ADDS TO FARM INCOME

Electricity in the far mhome means more than just having a light by which to read. In many farm homes where electricity has been run, the farmers are selling more than enough extra produce to pay the electric bill. With an electric refrigerator, almost all perishables are being saved for some use.

A typical case is of a new user of electricity in his home. His home is wired with three convenient outlets and eight drop cords with lights. The total cost of wiring was about $25. His bill the first month and seven days was $3.10, and only $2.60 for each of the second and third months. Extra buttermilk sales alone amount to almost twice as much as the electric bill.

This farmer's refrigerator enables him to sell from $10 to $14 worth of butter, and about $27 worth of eggs and dairy products each month.

After this farmer's family had used the electric lights for a while, they turned them off one night and brought out the old kerosene lamps. Until then this family had not realized that a kerosene lamp could make such a little light.

With the coming of rural electrification this rural citizen now enjoys all the comforts enjoyed by the citizens of Statesboro and in addition he possesses all the joys of the country which no town, no matter how small, contains.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE PASTIME

In a recent survey made by Fortune magazine it was learned that listening to the radio is America's favorite pastime, with going to the movies a close second. Reading came third and hunting and fishing fourth.

The favorite radio program proved to be the Jell-o program and the favorite radio performer Jack Benny. Charlie McCarthy ranked tenth. Book Carter and Lowell Thomas came second and third. All of which proves something.

Recently a daily newspaper attempted to run without a society page, but soon had to put it back in. Subscribers with children off at school had no way of knowing when their boys were home.

CLIPONREKA CULLINGS

By Your Roaming Reporter

Hot Springs, Ark., U. S. A. I have made it 40,002. However I guess Dear Waiting World: we shouldn't have counted for we were well under way before daylight the morning paper says it's January facing more fact that would be 8th, and the bath house impresario found in both the Atlantic & Pacific. That day will go down in our personal history as THE DAY IT RAINED. As we kissed Meridian good bye by a slow drizzle was falling, but before many minutes it was drizzling and it wasn't slow. It simply spilled all day and kept spilling to within seventy miles of Hot Springs and if you think that sight of the sun as you drove into Pine Bluff, Arkansas, didn't delight our tired eyes, you've got another thing coming.

After Meridian we drove through Jackson, another lovely city, filled with beautiful parks and fine buildings . . . but the ever-present rain kept us from enjoying anything but the rapidly revolving speedometer. Naturally your reporter had more eyes for agricultural efforts than for anything else ("except the gals," says Shrimp) but there wasn't anything of an agricultural nature that was worth a second look on that ride of the Mississippi. Now after we reached Vicksburg and swung across that magnificent bridge onto this side of that undesirable stream it began to drizzle. It began to drizzle. As we swung into Vicksburg a heavy fog hung low over the river and it seemed that we were to be disappointed, but just as we turned to go out on the bluff to the mile long steel bridge the fog lifted and "thar she lay" . . . the mighty father of waters, whose unbroken stream was something over three-fourths of a mile from bank to bank and over which a bridge carries a railroad bridge in addition to several lines of vehicular traffic. It is seven years old and is a piece of engineering work of note. Just as we got across, an I. C. freight train rambled along beside us and we got a first thrill playing along beside it for the next twenty miles where we were to turn directly north up the valley while it went on to Shreveport.

But I'm not going to tell you about that Mississippi valley this afternoon . . . it's too long a story. And I'm going to save some other impressions of Arkansas to season the valley story and if you are good little boys and girls maybe I can get time off from this routine of bathing and tell you more about this wonderful country (that ain't one-tenth part as good as Bulloch) by next printing time. You know I haven't done much travelling but what little I have done has made me all the firmer in my belief that "Be it ever so humble, still there is no place like home" . . . and of course that means Bulloch.

Shrimp, tell Marshall to turn on the hot water, I'm coming!

Adios,
Rambling Reporter.

A mattress that Sam Northeast must have made added greatly to our night's comfort and we awoke at 5:00 the next morning to find the V-8 ready to sing another sweet song. Right here we want to make some passing comment about Meridian. If there is among our vast number of readers any one who has not visited Meridian, then hasten to do so. It seems to be the hurriest-by to a most beautiful city, has splendid hotels, fine restaurants and several of the nicest ones we have ever met. We made inquiries of several corner policemen as to the directions and so forth and found them most pleasant and accommodating. (The policeman and his handling of the passers of a city make a lasting impression . . . for good . . . OR BAD.) And by the way Meridian is a GROWING city. When we got in Wednesday night it was a city of 30,000, for our hotel porter said so, and overnight it grew to a city of 40,000 . . . no less . . . for our filing station told us so, the next morning. And this didn't count these wayward souls which would

At The Churches

THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

C. M. COALSON, Minister

Nathaniel Hawthorne in the classic Mosses From an Old Manse tells a great story entitled "The Intelligence Office." A mysterious man came to a city and set up an office for the recovery of lost things. He proposed to find for people anything they had lost. This office was besieged night and day with people seeking to recover something which had been lost.

Some came who wanted to recover ordinary things which any of us are likely to lose; others desired to regain more difficult things, more elusive and hard to be restored; One man came seeking his lost innocence, another was looking for the lost feeling of joy in the morning. One woman came seeking to recover a lost name.

The record book of this intelligence office, says Hawthorne, where all the freaks of life, hearts, aspirations of deep hearts, desperate longings of miserably hearts, and evil prayers of perverted hearts, are set down, would be curious reading were it possible to obtain it for publication. What a parable of life!

Now in the Bible the world's "lost" appear often. Lost possessions, lost sheep, lost son, lost hopes, lost faith, lost souls or lives. What horrible memories! What pitiful cries that word "lost" called out our minds!

Well, there was something very much like that Intelligence office in the world at one time and the person who had charge of that office is still with us to recover the things we have lost. When he was here he went out seeking people and offering to recover for them the most valuable things which they had lost or deliberately thrown away. It is interesting and profitable to follow him along and see this Great Recoverer at work. We shall do just that Sunday morning. Come with us.

Professor Ronald Neil at the organ console will direct a chorus of fifty voices from the college in the special music Sunday morning.

The subject Sunday evening will be "I Am Thine," emphasizing the assurance of the Christian.

TO BE HERE JANUARY 21

A "Blue Mold Special" demonstration on car which is being operated by the Georgia and Florida railroad in cooperation with the Agricultural Extension Service and the Coastal Plain Experiment Station will be in Statesboro at 2 p. m., Friday, January 21.

Dr. J. G. Gaines from the experiment station, who found the present practical control for blue mold, will be with the train and give the demonstration.

Bulloch county tobacco growers are urged to attend this demonstration. Blue mold caused considerable delay in procuring plants in 1937 and in many cases prevented farmers from planting any tobacco. This control eliminates the necessity of having excess yards in the plant bed and thereby reduces the expense of preparing and planting this excess that has heretofore been practiced.

FEDERAL INSPECTORS INSPECT COUNTY POST ROADS TUESDAY

On Tuesday, January 11, federal engineers made an inspection on the post roads from Brooklet, Denmark and Nevils.

The survey on the Brooklet to Nevils road, 10.66 miles has been completed and the first letting will cover 5.7 miles from Brooklet to near Shelly Waters.

If the surveys are approved as set up, the letting will be made as soon as all the right-of-ways have been secured and advertising completed.

SOCIETY

ESTER LEE BARNES HAS SCAVENGER HUNT

A party affording much merriment and genuine enjoyment was the Scavenger Hunt given by Estier Lee Barnes at her home on Savannah Avenue. A clever list that would have taxed the ingenuity of Philo Vance was handed each group with the instructions that the articles should be found on Savannah Avenue and side streets. Those comprising the group that won first prize were Mary Frances Goover, Harold Waters, Mary Beverly Newton, Robert Morris, Robert Lanier, Sara Alice Bradley. In the group winning second prize were: Basil Jones, Eloise Northcutt, Betty Hitt and Parrish Blitch. These prizes were drawn from a box of mixed articles. Mrs. L. F. Daulton, assisted Mrs. Barnes in serving hot tea, sandwiches and cake. Others present were Robert Groover, Margaret Helen Tillman, Lamar Akin, John Olliff Groover, Annie Laurie Johnson, Mary Virginia Groover, Zack Smith, Bolton Braswell, Joyce Smith, Priscilla Cromartie, John Darley, John Egbert Jones, Betty Jean Cone.

Dorothy Remington, Neal Burn, Frances Martin, Buddy Barnes, Catharine Rowe, Albert Shuman, Julia Ann Turner, Carmen Stewart, Paul Kennon, Inman Foy, and Bernard Morris.

IVEY-MOCK

Of interest to their many friends here was the marriage Sunday, January 9, of Miss Mary Sue Ivey and Jesse Wade Mock. The marriage was performed by Judge Reams Ruching at his home on Bulloch street. The bride was becomingly attired in a tan triple sheer crepe with brown accessories.

Mrs. Mock is the daughter of Mrs. R. P. Knight of this city and was a member of the junior class of the Statesboro High School. Mr. Mock is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wale Mock who lives near Statesboro, and is a student at the South Georgia Teachers College. The couple will make their home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mock left for a wedding trip to Oconee after the ceremony.

ALL'S FAIR—It seems that at the Cottillon Club's Christmas party, Santa made an extra effort to bring each member what they needed most. Ruth for some time had been down on her luck (at bridge) so Santa brought her a horse shoe. When Lavinia entertained the Three O'Clocks last week in walked Ruth with that huge emblem of luck hanging to her pocketbook, and believe it or not, she was chief runner-up to the prize. Warning to pedestrians—Move over when you see Ruth coming or you may get hit with that horse shoe.

Two 1938 Ford V-8 Cars Displayed

TWO distinct lines of Ford V-8 cars are now being displayed in dealer showrooms. One is a newly-styled standard Ford line in three body types, the other is a de luxe Ford line in eight body types. The de luxe Tudor sedan is pictured above. The de luxe sedans are larger in appearance, with longer hood and sweeping lines. The de luxe cars are powered with either the 55 or the 60 horsepower engines. Newly-styled interiors are pictured at right. New instrument panel has instrument group front driver, grille panel has instrument installation in center, flanked by engine controls and cigar lighter, and glove compartment at right. In the de luxe cars, the compartment for radio speaker installation is in the compartment door, and a clock is recessed in the compartment door.

Blue Devils Whip Brooklet Quintet In "Block and Tackle" Cage Game

Will Play Savannah High Tonight In Armory At 7:30; Metter Saturday Night

Last Wednesday night Statesboro defeated Brooklet for the second straight time in a return game with them here. The two teams played a good brand of football, consisting of the fact that they played on a hardwood floor and without the usual football regalia.

The Blue Devils completely outplayed Brooklet. Their defense was much tighter and their shooting completely over-shadowed that of Brooklet's. Although Thomas Hill and Bule of Brooklet were breaking up a good many passes that the Blue Devils were throwing.

John Smith, playing superbly throughout the entire game until he was put out on fouls, was the spark plug of the Statesboro squad. Smith repeatedly sank long shots and time and after time was snatching the ball away from the Brooklet boys' hands.

Both teams' defense were much better than their offense. Brooklet tried to break in towards the goal consistently, but Statesboro was always there to stop them. In the first half Statesboro, besides shooting long shots and with John Smith and Street Kenyon doing most of the shooting, gained a comfortable lead at the half.

But in the second half the offense changed. Statesboro began breaking in towards the basket with Robert Hodges and Emerson Anderson breaking in the clear, under the basket several times, Big Federick "Drake" Rowley could not find the basket in the first half but in the second half he found the range and was backing up shots consistently.

This is the second time that Statesboro has defeated Brooklet this season. The fact that Brooklet always has a first class basketball squad and that Statesboro has already defeated them twice should be enough evidence to the fans that Statesboro has one of the best basketball teams in this section.

STATESBORO TO PLAY SAVANNAH TONIGHT The Statesboro Blue Devils will step in deep water tonight when they take the hardwood floor against the Savannah High School Varsity basketball team.

It is estimated that there are today 600,000 victims of infantile paralysis in the United States and crippled, in greater or less degree, for life. This number is constantly increasing. It is the belief of scientists that this increase in the disease will continue unless an organization such as the proposed new national foundation can bring it under control.

President Roosevelt has dedicated his birthday, in perpetuity, to aid the new foundation. Through these annual birthday parties the people of America may join in the fight against the disease, by providing the needed funds for the national foundation.

By concentrating all funds in this one organization it is believed the work against the disease may be more efficiently and more successfully carried on. There are, of course, people in Georgia who will not have opportunity to contribute even as much as one nickel to the splendid cause.

Georgia is President Roosevelt's "second home." It was at Warm Springs, where the "Little White House" is located, that organized war against infantile paralysis received its first momentum.

Georgia, by all logic, should show the way to the rest of the nation in raising the President's Birthday Fund for the financing of the new national foundation, as it is the only state in the United States which is striving to restore health and strength to paralyzed victims.

YOUNG FARMERS CLUB TO HOLD JANUARY MEETING SATURDAY

The young farmers club organized recently in the county will hold its January meeting Saturday at 2 p. m. Joe Hodges, president of the club, announced.

These young farmers have practically all filed an application for one of the farms to be purchased under the new program. However, those that have not filed an application will be given a chance to do so at the meeting, January 15 is the final date for filing these applications.

SAVANNAH TONIGHT

The length of the side of the Great Pyramid at Gizeh is 746 feet. Before the outer covering of limestone was removed, the length was 450 feet; originally it was about 491 feet.

Is It Worth A Nickel?

If every person in Georgia contributed one five-cent piece to the National Foundation for Fighting Infantile Paralysis, this state's quota would be filled in full. The quota has been set to be raised on January 29, President Roosevelt's birthday.

The money raised during the President's Birthday celebration, all over the country, will all go to the new national foundation, with the hope and belief that sufficient funds will be raised to properly endow it and to assure continuance of its important work against the dread disease of infantile paralysis.

The Foundation program has been broadly divided under four divisions. The first is concerned with scientific research, with the hope of discovering preventative and cure for the disease which has, so far, proved one of the most puzzling problems in the history of medical science.

The second effort of the new foundation will be by reaching out to all communities where the disease appears, with the purpose of checking its spread before it reaches epidemic proportions.

Thirdly, the foundation will see that proper treatment and care is provided for all sufferers from the disease. The fourth purpose is to furnish money to maintain orthopedic centers, hospitals and clinics which are striving to restore health and strength to paralyzed victims.

It is estimated that there are today 600,000 victims of infantile paralysis in the United States and crippled, in greater or less degree, for life. This number is constantly increasing.

Formal exercises were held on the campus of the South Georgia Teachers College Monday morning as construction was begun on two new buildings, making a total of four projects now underway on the college campus, total approximately $185,000.

The three judges will begin to function as soon as the counties have filed their claims with the Constitution last night by midnight January 25.

On December 27 of 1937 The Constitution announced its $7,500 Progressive Government Awards for 1937. The cash awards are offered to the 13 Georgia counties making the greatest improvements in their governmental conditions in the year 1937. The purpose of the awards is to extend and intensify progress in better government, to stimulate state-wide interest on the part of the public in governmental affairs and to give recognition to improvements in county governmental conditions in the state's 150 counties.

According to the plans for the awards 13 counties will share the prizes. The first award will be $3,000; second, $1,000; third, $500, and in addition there will be a $250 award to a county in each of the state's 10 congressional districts.

Sole basis for the competition is improvement in county government bringing the greatest benefits to the citizens of the county for 1937, and no matter how small a county or how modest its income, every county is on an equal footing.

In addition to receiving the cash awards, winning counties will get state-wide and national advertising for having the best governments in Georgia for the year 1937.

Backed by civic organizations, leading citizens and county officials, the commissioners are busy compiling lists of accomplishments of their governments.

Bulloch Leads State With Most Hogs For 1937

SHOWS 80,000 HOGS AND 20,000 HEAD OF CATTLE IN COUNTY. PREDICTS 40,000 ACRES FOR COTTON IN 1938.

The annual report made by Byron Dyer, county agent, shows that Bulloch county can claim the leadership in diversification in the state. Highlights of the report include a hog and cattle census showing 80,000 hogs and 20,000 head of cattle in the county today, despite the sale of more than 30,000 hogs and 2,500 head of cattle during the past year.

Mr. Dyer's predictions for 1938, based on a county-wide survey, indicated approximately 40,000 acres will be planted to cotton this year, a reduction of 6,000 acres from the 1937 total.

2,000,000 POUNDS OF TOBACCO The 1937 annual report shows that 45,000 acres were planted in cotton, 2,000,000 pounds of tobacco were made, 2,000 acres of sweet potatoes were planted, 3,000 acres of soybeans, 200 acres of sweet potatoes planted for the market, 1,500 acres were planted in commercial vegetables, 500 acres of corn, besides the other crops such as sugar cane, watermelons, strawberries and pears. 150 farmers planted peanuts for the market.

There are 427,500 acres in Bulloch county with 3,293 farms. The average farm contains 108 acres with about 40 acres in cultivation. The report discloses that though tractors are fast taking the place of mules in the county, there are still 5,900 mules in Bulloch.

About 25,000 acres in the county have been put into permanent pasture and the county agent is working on a program which calls for 75,000 acres for permanent pastures. During the past year 15,000 acres were set out in pine seedlings. The report shows that 25 farmers sold pulp wood and that about 300 long cords were cut. Over 800 trees and shrubs were planted on school campuses and community centers.

4-H CLUB WORK The report of the 4-H Club work was an item in the report. Of the 286 boys starting out on projects 120 finished. Beef cattle projects cleared more money than any other 4-H club project, with 354 animals selling for $32,000.

There are 12-4-H Clubs actively operating. The plans for Bulloch county for 1938 indicate that there will be 40,000 acres of cotton, 2,000,000 pounds of tobacco, planted. There will be 45,000 dairy cattle as the big crop along with the many other cash crops and the crops grown for home use.

E. L. Donaldson, Bulloch County Farmer Dies

The funeral of E. L. Donaldson, Bulloch county farmer, who died in Savannah hospital Saturday morning after a brief illness, took place at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the Savannah residence, 818 East Thirty-fourth street, and at 3 o'clock at the Red Hill cemetery near Pembroke. Burial was held at the church cemetery.

Mr. Donaldson was a native of Bulloch county, and for many years operated a farm near Neville. He came to Savannah to undergo treatment for his fatal illness.

Honorary pallbearers were Dr. C. E. Stapleton, Allen Proctor, J. E. Futch, Olin Nesmith and A. L. Davis.

Work is already underway on two projects on the college campus, a residence hall for women costing $60,000, which was begun before Christmas, and a waterworks system costing $15,000. With the work which was begun Monday added the total amount of construction on the four projects runs to approximately $185,000. These buildings were made possible through the cooperation of the State of Georgia and the
