PROTECT WOODS FROM FIRE

LEARNING BY DOING
Then the whining schoolboy, with his satchel
And shining morning face, creeping like snail
Unwilling to school. — Shakespeare.

Tomorrow brings to an end the happy vacation days when school boy and school girl alike forgot all he and she learned during the previous months of school.

We learn by doing... say our great educators, not by listening. Your children play music, draw pictures, cultivate flowers and vegetables, work in machine shops, build bridges, cook food and eat it together, bank their own money, travel, worship, sew up their clothes, they LIVE every minute a full, well rounded life.

Their teachers look upon them as people, and they know that their attitude toward religion, art, work, play, moral standards is the most important phase of any true education.

TO SELL STATESBORO TO TRAVELLERS

When you are traveling and are in a strange town, who is the first person you think of to ask your way about? More times than not it is the policeman.

This being the case, is it not true then, that your first impression of the town is given you by the way that policeman receives your questioning?

If you have had any experience with the patrolmen of the State Patrol, the first thing that strikes you is the appearance of these men and the courtesy with which they approach you.

More and more out of town people are passing through Statesboro. A favorable impression made upon these people will reap benefits. An officer of the manner of Georgia's State Patrolmen, stationed at the center of town could do more to sell Statesboro to travellers than any other single attraction.

HOT WEATHER

Atlanta, of recent days, seems to have suffered from heat more than in a number of years. Regardless of the official thermometer readings, the summer sun has apparently been more oppressive, more discomfort-producing than in a long, long time.

It may be more oppressive than usual. But whether this be true or not there is one remedy for personal discomfort more effective than any other yet suggested.

That is, don't think about it. Every time an individual grouches about how hot it is, every time one feels the emotion of self-pity just so much harder does it become to bear.

lessly as possible. Drink a reasonable amount of cooling liquids. Wear white clothes, loose, not restricting. And, above all, think of other things besides the weather.

YOU GUYS WOULDN'T HURT THIS GIRL?

Today my daughter who is seven years old, started to school as usual. She wore a dark blue dress with a white collar. She had on black shoes and wore blue gloves.

Tonight we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sits in front of her—the girl with yellow curls—and the boy across the aisle who makes funny faces.

You guys wouldn't hurt her, would you? You see I'm her daddy. When her doll is broken or her finger it cut, or her head gets bumped I can fix it—but when she starts to school, when she walks across the street, then she's in your hands.

She's a nice kid. She can run like a deer and darts about like a chipmunk. She likes to ride horses and swim and hike with me on Sunday afternoons.

WE WONDER...

If the city votes the bond issues scheduled if street name signs could not be included in the work to be done in the public improvement program.

Why our police court records show no traffic cases. Is it that Statesboro is the traffic Utopia of Georgia, no speeding, no running through stop streets, everybody with lights.

If all the housewives in Statesboro who have cooks have had them furnish a health certificate from the Health Commissioner.

If the number of bicycle enthusiasts who ride their bicycles at night have thought of the danger to which they expose themselves when they ride the streets without lights.

If something could not be done about some of our alleys. Surely our City Fathers are aware of the conditions which exist on some of these streets.

How much would it cost to repair the hole in the sidewalk by the Confederate Monument on North Main St.

What strangers must think of our city upon being stopped by police for turning right on the red light, when they are used to driving in cities which permit right turns on the red light.

Why a large monkey wrench and sledge hammer had to be used on the up-town fire hydrants to get them turned on so that the system might be flushed by the firemen at their practice, recently.

All's Fair..

And still the thermometer soars— Would you put a welcome like this over your threshold now? "Come in the evening or come in the morning— Come when you're looked for, or come without warning; Kisses and welcome you'll find here before you, And the oftener you come the more I'll adore you."

Or would you make up one like this and put it in a conspicuous place? If you come in the evening or come in the morning You'd best bring your dinner, now take my warning Or frowns and scowls you'll find here before you For 100 in the shade won't make me adore you.

But to that group going to St. Simon's the weather is made to order for they will find comfort from the sizzling heat in the surf. Maybe it will help us endure the heat, and speaking of winter reminds me of a cute story I heard recently about a certain interesting triangle. It seems that a young admirer gave his girl friend a radio, last Christmas, the other arm of the triangle comes across with a canary bird in a beautiful cage and looking askance at the radio, the young fellow said, "I have trained him to sing every time you turn on the radio," and the canary bravely does its best to drown out the radio.

Prof. Sherman says we really must have a new gymnasium. He has dismantled the old grammar school auditorium and there will be no more games up there. Luck to you, Mr. Sherman we hope you get it.

Statesboro people looked mighty good on the screen, and now that Harry Akins and Fay Foy were selected as King and Queen of the movie, our guess is that they will soon be tripping off to Hollywood.

Will Macon look like he was used to that sort of thing. Anyway, it was a good piece of work and we enjoyed it. It will soon be time for all the clubs to get into action, Jane Cone at the helm of the Woman's club.

Ethel Rushing martalling forces for the P. T. A. and all other groups the U. D. C. and A. L. A. The Music Club, The Cottillion Club, the Hospital Auxiliary. Very few people realize the work and energy required to direct these organizations, and many others fail to appreciate the great service they are rendering their city when they steer a club through a successful year.

Women in rallies, veteran campaigners appealing to the public, radios full of oratory and promises, badges and parades. We say we don't like those things, but we do like the excitement gets in our blood and we watch for results as keenly as we would watch a Derby day entry. And with much more at stake.

The "March of Time" picture was especially interesting this week at the Georgia theater, because in the story of the young doctor we came to his problems—and we saw offered as a plan to relieve the doctors and hospitals of the heavy burden of charity patients they are called on to serve—a plan of "Hospital Insurance" such as an interested group are striving to put into practice here in town.

Aftermath of the Circus—A group of youngsters on Savannah Avenue staged an amateur circus Friday afternoon and when the young promoters split their profits they were richer by a nickel. Charles Groover was manager and his troupe artists were John Ford Mays, Foy Olliff, Ernest Brannen, Buck Mosley and John Olliff Groover. The most interested spectator was little Frank Williams. See you next winter. As Ever, JANE.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. H. D. Anderson was hostess at a lovely dinner party on Saturday evening at her home on Zettermeyer Avenue complimenting her daughter, Carol, on her birthday. The living room and music room were effectively decorated with coral vines and other summer flowers, pink being the predominant color used.

In the dining room a color motif of green and white was accentuated in the use of white dahlias and fern used in a silver bowl on the center of the dining table. Burning green and white tapers interspersed in the centerpiece of flowers gave additional beauty to the decorative scheme. Three-branched candelabra at each end of the table held green and white tapers. Places were marked with green and white handpainted cards. A four-course dinner was served after which the beautifully embossed birthday cake was brought in on a silver waiter, and placed before Miss Anderson.

Covers were laid for: Carol Anderson, Sara Mooney, Aline Whiteside, Cecile Brannen, Carolyn Blitch, Elizabeth DeLoach, Hlanche Anderson, Mrs. J. C. Hines and Mrs. Ralph Howard.

NEVILS NEWS MISS MAUDE WHITE

A fruited punch and pound cake. Bon Bons were served. This club will meet only one more time this summer, and this meeting will be given to the annual picnic. The club made plans for this picnic last Saturday, each child present will pay 5c for refreshments. Games of various kinds and contests are being planned. It promises to be one of the most successful picnics ever given for this club. Every member is urged to be present and enjoy the fun.

Mrs. Hughes did some of the most perfect reading of negro dialect which added to the realistic aspects of "Uncle Remus and the little boy." Each child present was so charmed with these stories and the imagination so great that they felt they were the little boy sitting on the chopping block, listening directly to this aged old negro man himself, because of the realistic presentation of this able speaker, Mrs. Hughes.

This club has had some very worth while experiences this summer in story-telling but the "Uncle Remus" story teller will certainly occupy a large space in the memory field of each child.

THE COMMUNITY SINGING CLUB OF NEVILS IS STEADILY INCREASING IN ENROLLMENT. Last Friday night was one of the best meetings we've had. Mr. Dewey Fordham, a real singing school man, was present and rendered a beautiful solo "Traveling On", besides leading the class in several good numbers. Many professional leaders from Savannah and Statesboro, Daisy and many other nearby towns are expected to be with us. This program each Friday night, beginning at 8:30 and running until 10:15 consists of class singing with solo features of quartets, duets, solos and etc. If there is a good quartet that would like to present several numbers at some of these meetings you are cordially invited to attend. Everybody, the entire public, is invited to come enjoy one hour and 45 minutes of good singing. Remember the time. Each Friday night 8:30. Be sure to come and be on time.

To Our Friends

News from all sections of the State indicate a sweeping victory on the first ballot. Do not, however, become overconfident. You must remember that our opponents have powerful resources and financial backing supporting them. Their supply of money is unlimited. Keep up your active work until the last vote is counted.

We ask that you see your registrars in the various counties and get some Talmadge supporters in every precinct to aid in holding the polls.

Organize our friends to use their cars on election day to take all Talmadge supporters to the polls. We cannot pay you for this work—even pay your expenses, but my father will repay you by six years of real service in the Senate. Go to the polls early, as soon as they open, and stay there and work all day long and we will be grateful from the depths of our hearts.

We are badly in need of campaign funds and whatever you can send us whether great or small will be deeply appreciated. HERMAN TALMADGE Campaign Manager.

TALMADGE'S Legions pushing on to victory. Voters turning to Talmadge 80 per cent strong, due to the fact George has no platform, except big business. Don't let that little hand full of George supporters around the court house mislead you. They are on the government pay roll, Talmadge.
