E. A. And H. Z. Smith Purchase Jaeckel Hotel

Jack Burrey Leases Hotel And Will Come Here To Operate It
Monday afternoon the Jaeckel Hotel, one of Georgia's best known hotels and a landmark in Statesboro changed hands when E. A. Smith and Horace Smith purchased the building from W. H. Sharpe. Jack Burrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. D. A. Burney, became the lessee and operator.
Jack Burrey, who graduated from the Citadel at Charleston in June, has had quite a bit of experience in hotel management and will be in charge of the hotel.
Mr. and Mrs. Burrey, who will assist their son, Jack, are well known throughout the state and are recognized as high-class hotel people. They are returning to Statesboro after an absence of ten years. Recently they have been in charge of the Pierce Hotel in Swainsboro. Prior to that time they operated the Jaeckel Hotel here.
The purchase price was not revealed.
New Project Started In Rural Electrification
The work of the Excelsior Electric Membership Corporation in electrifying Bulloch, Candler and Evans counties is moving forward rapidly.
Recently, 32 miles of wire was strung in five days bringing the total mileage to 248 of the 308 miles planned.
Work is already under way on another project to include 187.5 additional miles. Two crews of engineers are now staking out the right-of-ways. Julian Tillman, the contractor on the original project will do the work for the new project.
It was learned that of the original project there is a surplus of funds to provide an additional 25 miles.
It was announced that anyone in Bulloch county wishing to tie in on the line in this county may see Byron Dyer.
J. R. Vaughan of Metter is president of the Excelsior Electric Membership Corporation, J. Floyd Nevils of Bulloch county is the vice president and J. Arthur Floyd is secretary. Cleo E. Myles is project supervisor.
Rotarians Urged To Learn Art Of Visiting
E. N. Uphaw Speaks At Regular Rotary Meeting
Mr. E. N. Uphaw, Assistant Manager of the Savannah office of the Prudential Insurance Company of America was the guest speaker at the Rotary Club meeting here Monday.
Mr. Uphaw in his talk stated that it is his opinion that people today have forgotten how to play together. He pointed out that community play has returned; but that there is too much supervision to give it the old time freedom. Mr. Uphaw went on to say that "we of today have lost the art of visiting," adding that to go visiting does not mean "going to your neighbor's home and sitting down and immediately get out the bridge table and begin dealing the cards, but it means talking with each other, visiting each other."
Among the other things that Mr. Uphaw pointed out that we have lost is the art of civility and emotion in religion.
Mr. Uphaw teaches a class of men at the Baptist Church in Savannah and is heard at intervals over the radio there.
The Jaeckel Hotel was built in 1905 by the late Austin Franklin. The hotel was built on the property owned by Mr. Olliff Investment Company.
The hotel began as the Statesboro Hotel Corporation with G. Jaeckel president, in 1904. It was capitalized at $15,000. There were 140 stockholders and all were Bulloch county citizens, except two. These two were F. A. Wjide and A. N. Davis, both of Savannah.
Some of the stockholders who are still living are: Josh Zetterower, R. F. Donaldson Sr., W. G. Raines, R. Lee Moore, J. L. Math, Lewis, F. N. Griggs, Albert Deal, Others who are dead were: Jim Coleman, W. H. Kennedy, S. F. Olliff, E. L. Smith, Gordon Blitch, and others.
Mr. Jaekel operated the hotel until about 1912 when it was leased

4-H Club And FFA Boys Help In Stock Show

Valuable Cash Prizes Offered For All Classes
Statesboro and Bulloch county's third annual Fat Stock Show and Sale will be held here tomorrow, March 17.
With the Bulloch county 4-H club and the Future Farmers of America cooperating in this year's show and sale it is expected to attract state-wide attention. All buyers from Georgia, Florida, S. C., Tennessee, Virginia, Alabama, N. C., and Kentucky, will be on hand for the sale. The show is to be held from 11 to 1 o'clock on Friday and the third annual sale will begin at two o'clock.
The show and sale will be held at the Statesboro Livestock Commission Company, operated by F. C. Parker and Son. Cattle must be in the barn by 10:30 o'clock in order to show for prizes. The following prizes have been offered: A class heavyweight, (800 pounds and up), first $15; second $10; third $5; B class, lightweights (under 800 pounds), first $15, second $10; third $5; C class, carload (15 steers), first $25, second $10; and third $5; D class, carload (15 steers), first $25, second $10; and third $5; D class, 4-H club or FFA calf, silver loving cup for first prize, second $10; and third $5; E class, to youngest boy making a good showing with his calf, $5; Besides the loving cup, a total of $120 will be offered in cash prizes.
Bulloch county has led Georgia in hog production for several years and has been among the top cattle counties. The increased activity in cattle, livestock shows, will go far towards this year's fat stock show and sale at one of the outstanding shows in the state.
STATESBORO ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION SUBMITS FINANCIAL STATEMENT
At a meeting of the Statesboro Athletic Association held here recently a financial statement was submitted. This statement is published on the editorial page of this week's Herald.
The Statesboro Athletic Association built the football field and lighted it for the use of the Statesboro High School. It was built with funds raised by a number of men in the city who organized themselves as the Statesboro Athletic Association. It has proven an asset to the city and at the same time is proving self-liquidating.
The only thing about work that a lot of folks like is getting out of it.

Jaycees Host At Inter-city Meeting Friday

Banquet At T. C. To Be Followed By Dance
Tomorrow night the Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce is to host to the Coastal Empire Jaycees at a banquet in the dining hall of the Teachers College. More than 200 guests are expected from Vidalia, Swainsboro and Mt. Vernon, Alley and Metter.
Mr. Paul Franklin, Jr., secretary of the club, announced that some of the out-of-town guests who will be at the speakers table include John G. Kennedy of Savannah, James N. McBride, General Agricultural Agent of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, and Miss L. Lane Jr., of Savannah.
At the last meeting of the organization eight new members were elected into the club, which now brings the membership to about thirty five.
The occasion is a meeting of the Inter-city league of the Coastal Empire Jaycees of which Statesboro is a member. Josh Lanier, president of the Statesboro organization is secretary of the Inter City League.
The representatives of the other cities will be led into Statesboro by a State Police escort.

First Prize To Be $500 Or All Expense European Tour; 2nd, $200 Or World's Fair Tour

Jaycees Name Roy Green Boy Scout Master
Mr. Josh Lanier, president of the Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce announced today that Mr. Roy Green has been named Scout Master of the troop of Boy Scouts to be sponsored by the Statesboro Jaycees. Leodel Coleman was named to work with Mr. Green as an assistant Scout Master.
Other assistants will be named at a later date and will be named at the age of 12 who are interested in joining the Boy Scouts and would like to belong to his troop, being sponsored by the Jaycees.
He asks that they meet with him at the courthouse tonight (Thursday night) at eight o'clock. He added that any parents who are interested are cordially invited to come with their boys.
Interest is running high in the reorganization of the local council, since a district council has been set up here with Mr. Byron Dyer as Commissioner. A Scout official out of Savannah will help Mr. Dyer with the local district.
WHO WILL BE THE FIRST TO ENTER
If you are one of the first to get started you will have advantage of your friends who are "thinking it over." So many persons will pay their subscription to the first one who asks them. More votes are given for subscriptions turned in the first week. The attractive prizes are to be awarded to the contestants having the most votes.
This is emphatically not a beauty competition nor a contest in which one has to be lucky in order to succeed. It is merely an opportunity to make your time (or any part of it) pay big dividends. You cannot lose.
THIS COMPETITION IS DIFFERENT
Many persons reading this announcement will think, "I would enjoy collecting for The Bulloch Herald, and receive the cash each week, according to my work, as winning either the $500 or $200 cash, but I am afraid there may be some unfairness in the campaign department." The rules of this drive are different from most competitions of this kind. Each worker is permitted to select his own judge to have complete charge of all subscriptions and votes collected during the entire last period of the campaign. All our subscription records from the beginning of the drive until the end are open to all the contestants and their friends after the campaign has closed. Each worker assists the campaign manager in counting the votes when they are turned in to the Campaign Department twice a week.
INFORMATION AND ASSISTANCE
So that everyone entering this subscription drive will be given every possible assistance, a campaign department will be placed in the office of The Bulloch Herald and an experienced manager, Mrs. J. Roy McGinty, of Calhoun, will be in charge of this campaign. Mrs. McGinty is an experienced newspaper woman and we are sure that all participants will be pleased with the way the subscription drive is managed.
This liberal offer is worth investigating. We will gladly give full information without any obligation on your part. You do not know what you can do until you try. If you work for one week and decide to quit—you are paid 20 per cent cash commission of subscription money you collect. Why not win $500 and some of the other attractive prizes that can be had.

Large advertisement for Potash fertilizer. Text: 'Your Agricultural Authorities Recommend 3-10-10 for TOBACCO. The Official Recommendation for tobacco on average Georgia soils is 3-10-10 TOBACCO FERTILIZER at 800 to 900 pounds per acre at planting, plus a potash side-dressing equal to 100 to 200 pounds of Sulphate of Potash per acre. The side-dressing should be applied within 20 days after transplanting in the field. Authorities state that experiments indicate that the acre value of tobacco may be materially increased by additional potash. According to a recent change in Georgia fertilizer laws, the nitrogen in fertilizer analyses is now expressed as nitrogen instead of ammonia. This means that fertilizers are stronger from a growth standpoint. Fertilizer containing too high a proportion of nitrogen produces rough, bony tobacco. Avoid this by selecting a fertilizer mixture in which the nitrogen has been well-balanced with potash. Experiments and the experience of thousands of farmers prove that it pays to give tobacco a lot more potash than it received in the past. Give your tobacco more NV POTASH this year. Your Fertilizer Man can supply you with 3-10-10 TOBACCO FERTILIZER for use at planting and NV SULPHATE OF POTASH for side-dressing. Potash Pays! Some farmers never know what fine tobacco their land will produce because they never try using enough NV POTASH. Tobacco removes from the soil more potash than both nitrogen and phosphoric acid combined. When it receives the same low-potash fertilizer year after year, yields and quality suffer and many things are blamed. This is often simply due to potash starvation. Are you sure your tobacco gets enough NV POTASH? Many farmers have been content with their crops until they tried using more NV POTASH. NV POTASH EXPORT MY, INC. HURT BUILDING, ATLANTA, GEORGIA'

MAKE SURE YOUR FERTILIZER CONTAINS AT LEAST 10% POTASH

Jaeckel Hotel Host To Many Famous People Since It Was Built In 1905

When the Jaeckel Hotel changed hands this week one of the city's oldest landmarks became the property of Mr. E. A. Smith and Horace Z. Smith.
The Jaeckel Hotel was built in 1905 by the late Austin Franklin. The hotel was built on the property owned by Mr. Olliff Investment Company.
The hotel began as the Statesboro Hotel Corporation with G. Jaeckel president, in 1904. It was capitalized at $15,000. There were 140 stockholders and all were Bulloch county citizens, except two. These two were F. A. Wjide and A. N. Davis, both of Savannah.
Some of the stockholders who are still living are: Josh Zetterower, R. F. Donaldson Sr., W. G. Raines, R. Lee Moore, J. L. Math, Lewis, F. N. Griggs, Albert Deal, Others who are dead were: Jim Coleman, W. H. Kennedy, S. F. Olliff, E. L. Smith, Gordon Blitch, and others.
Mr. Jaekel operated the hotel until about 1912 when it was leased to R. L. Pascal who came here from Florida. Mr. Pascal operated the hotel until 1907. It was in 1912 that Mr. W. H. Sharpe purchased the hotel from Mr. J. A. Brannen and Mr. Cecil Brannen, who built it up from the other shareholders. Mr. Sharpe acquired the property at the expiration of the charter of the hotel.
He succeeded in securing every outstanding stock certificate except one which was destroyed. These certificates are attached to their original stubs in the stock books and constitute the title to the property. This stock book together with the original certificates are now in the possession of Mr. E. A. Smith and Mr. Horace Smith which gives them the best title possible to the property.
Mr. E. C. Rogers leased the hotel from Mr. Sharpe in 1922 and operated it until 1928 at which time Mr. D. A. Burrey leased it. Mr. Burrey operated it until 1930. Mr. J. Lev Martin, now in Savannah, took over the operation of the Jaeckel when Mr. Burrey left and was there until 1934 at which time Mr. Sharpe, himself, took over the management of the hotel, until Monday of this week.
Mr. Sharpe, in reminiscing over the life of the hotel, after the transfer of the property recalls that the Jaeckel has been hosts to many famous people among them were Henry Ford and Cornelius Vanderbilt. Mr. Ford with a party of eleven had lunch at the hotel in the spring of 1935.
Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt and a part of four spent the night there in 1936. Mr. Sharpe estimates that in the 35 years the hotel has been here, more than 175,000 guests registered on its books. Mr. Sharpe adds that John Fringle, the Jaeckel hotel's head waiter has been there for twenty two years.
Mr. and Mrs. Burrey say that it is like coming back home to be here. They add that the policy of the Jaeckel will continue to be to give its guests the best that can be had.

The "Weekly Play" Plan In Brief

The object of this big "WEEKLY PAY" drive is two-fold. Primarily to increase the already large subscription list of this newspaper; to collect arrears and advance subscription payments from present or old subscribers, and at the same time to afford the live-wire energetic men and women of this territory an opportunity to profit in a BIG WAY through their spare time during the next few weeks. So it is a plan that works both ways, and to the ultimate good of all concerned.

Let us be understood at the very outset that this is not a "Beauty" or "Popularity" contest, but a strictly legitimate, competitive proposition for enterprising men and women, and one into which no element of chance enters. Each active participant will receive a pay check every Friday afternoon. One feature of this drive is the fact that "Everybody Wins." There will be no losers.

How To Enter

Clip the entry coupon appearing below; fill in your name and address, mail or deliver to the Campaign Manager of The Bulloch Herald. This coupon entitles you or the person whom you may wish to enter, to 25,000 Extra Votes--if with one subscription 150,000 votes additional.

For further information come to the Bulloch Herald and have the Campaign Manager explain full details, without any obligation on your part.

Early Start Means A Profitable Finish!

The advantages of an early start are manifest. This "weekly pay" drive is of such short duration that immediate action is necessary for success. Orders taken during the early part of the campaign carry the MAXIMUM number of votes. Then, too, the first in the field will undoubtedly get the easy subscriptions, while those who put off entering until a later date will have to take what is left.

Don't lose valuable time "Waiting to see what the other fellow is going to do," but pitch right in and show the "other fellow" how to do it!

Rules And Regulations

- 1. No salaried employee of this newspaper is eligible to enter this competition. This does not apply to country correspondents. 2. Any other reputable man or woman, residing in this city or surrounding territory is eligible to enter the campaign and compete for the awards and be paid according to their collections. 3. The winners of the awards will be decided by their votes, said votes being represented by cash collections and coupons clipped from the papers. 4. Each participant in this campaign is paid 20 per cent of all collections for new and renewal subscriptions each. You may make your total earnings what you wish. Campaign closes May 20. 5. Participants in this campaign are not confined to their own town or community in which to secure votes, but may take orders anywhere in this section; or, for that matter, anywhere in the state or United States. 6. Cash must accompany all orders where votes are desired. Workers will be allowed to collect back subscriptions and renewals as well as entirely new subscriptions, and votes will be issued on all. 7. Votes are not transferable. Workers cannot withdraw in favor of another worker. Should a worker withdraw from the race, his or her votes will be cancelled. Votes on such transferred subscriptions will be subject to disqualification at the discretion of the management. 8. Any collusion on the part of workers to nullify competition or any other combination formed to the detriment of workers of this newspaper, will not be tolerated. Any participant taking part in such combination stands liable to forfeit all right to a prize or commission. 9. All votes issued on ballots may be held in reserve and cast at the discretion of workers of this newspaper. The free vote coupons appearing from time to time in the paper must be cast before the expiration date appearing thereon. 10. In the event of a tie for any one of the awards, a prize identical of value will be given each tying participant. 11. Participants in this campaign are authorized agents of this newspaper, but it is understood and agreed that they will be responsible for all moneys collected and will remit such amounts in full on regular report days to the campaign department. 12. In case of typographical or other error it is understood that neither the publisher nor campaign manager shall be held responsible except to make the necessary correction upon discovery of same. 13. Candidates who remain ACTIVE (turning in two Subscriptions each report day) to the finish and fail to win one of the prizes offered will be paid 10 per cent of his, or her earnings. 14. To insure absolute fairness in the awarding of prizes, the race will be brought to a close under a sealed ballot box. Each in this campaign. The judges have complete charge of the campaign during the last period. 15. This newspaper reserves the right to award special prizes, or allow extended subscriptions, for the benefit of all candidates, also to include advertising and job printing, if so desired, and if for any reason it is necessary to conclude the campaign before the close of the first period, it is distinctly understood that same may be done by paying to each contestant twenty-five per cent of any moneys collected for subscriptions on or before that date. 16. It is understood and agreed that the winners of the major awards will consider the weekly pay checks in the light of an "advance" which are refundable upon presentation of the prizes and before accepting the first and second and third prizes. 17. Each contestant making a cash report on Tuesdays and Fridays during the campaign will be given 10,000 EXTRA VOTES. 18. Everyone should take a peep into the library. Some marvelous work has been done. It looks much more pleasing and is more convenient.

There are approximately three hundred new books. About two hundred and fifty of these books came from the public library in Newark, N. J. Fifty were renovated by the Bulloch County Library.

Harry E. Snead of Missouri, has been appointed assistant chief of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. In his new capacity Mr. Reed will assist in the administration of all marketing research, service and regulatory work, including the Federal State crop and livestock estimating service, the nation-wide market news service, the farm products standardization and inspection services, and the administration of various Federal laws pertaining to the marketing of farm products.

The 1939 AAA Farm Program is a continuation of the 1938 program. It is based, as was the 1938 program, on the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938. It gives farmers an opportunity to work together to conserve and build the soil resources of the Nation and to help keep production in line with demand.

City folks usually take the electric current in their homes for granted. If they buy a new electric appliance, they just plug it in and that's all there is to it. But the folks out in the country who are getting electricity for the first time—and there are thousands of them in Georgia—have to plan their wiring to fit their home and farm needs.

Machine For Treating Seed Easily Handbuilt

Farmer with only a few bushels of seed to treat will find it convenient to put the seed with the required amount of Crescen in an old calcium arsenate can and roll this slowly on the ground for several minutes.

For the Mixing Container: A 50 gallon steel oil drum which may be purchased from almost any garage or hardware store.

For the Drum and Head: One half of one of the sawhorse bearings, two washers should be placed over the axle at the crank end and held in place by cotter pins passing through holes drilled in the axle.

For the Door: A piece of 1 inch board 6 inches wide and about 17 1/2 inches long; 1 semi-circular piece of board 1 inch thick which has the same length as the diameter of the barrel (about 17 1/2 in.) and is 1 inch wider than one half the diameter of the barrel, or about 10 inches; 1 pair of 8 inch strap hinges; 14 1/2 inch carriage bolts about 2 inches long.

The Drum and Head: One half of one of the sawhorse bearings, two washers should be placed over the axle at the crank end and held in place by cotter pins passing through holes drilled in the axle.

For the Mixing or Baffle Board: A strip of wood 1 inch thick, 6 inches wide and of the proper length to fit snugly against the sides of the barrel (probably of 17 1/2 inches wide) is bolted to the remaining half of the head so that about 1 inch of the edge of the steel head extends beyond the board toward the opening.

The Mixing Board: The mixing board is placed across the inside of the drum about two-thirds of the way back from the opening and at right angles to the straight side of the door. The board is held in place by screws or nails passing through the side of the drum into the ends of the board.

The axle and crank: The axle should pass diagonally through the drum and be anchored to the axle by being welded to it. It is possible to have this welding done at an auto repair shop, bolt the axle to the drum by passing bolts through holes drilled through the drum and axle.

$800,000 FARM MORTGAGE Sought in GA. SENATE

ATLANTA — A measure which would create an Atlanta Produce Market Authority to pave the way for construction in Atlanta of the projected million dollar farmers' market, perhaps on the state-owned tract on Sylvan Road and Murphy Avenue, is being studied by the Senate state of republic committee.

The bill was introduced by Senator Dixon Smith, of Columbus. The bill calls for a commission of five, to include the Commissioner of Agriculture and director of the Agricultural Extension Service. The Governor would be given authority to name for a six year term one member from a list of three supplied by those operating stores at the market. He would name another member for a four year term from a list of three supplied by farmers occupying stalls at the market, and it would name the fifth member for a two year term from a list of three nominees supplied by the Mayor of Atlanta.

The authority would be empowered to issue $600,000 bonds, bearing 4 1/2 per cent interest. Revenues in excess of the bonds would be utilized in construction of additional markets in the Atlanta area.

One Act Plays To Be Presented By High School Dramatic Club

According to Miss Eleanor Moses, head of the Statesboro High School Speech Department, the annual one-act play contest to be presented on March 23 at eight o'clock in the high school auditorium, promises to be one of the outstanding dramatic events of the year. The purpose of the contest is to select the play which will be entered in the district play meet to be held in Graymont-Summit on Friday, April 7.

The three plays to be presented will offer the public a wide variety of entertainment. "Will You Marry Me?", a comedy of contrast is in three scenes: The time of the first scene is 1780, the second is in the days of Queen Victoria, the third, 1939.

"This Daddy Generation," deals with the romantic problem of a young girl in the year 1840. Martha Hodges as Selma Stebbins does a very good job of outwitting her two aunts, Missouri (Betty Jean Cose), May (Annie Laurie Johnson) and the maid, Betty, (Katherine Hodges).

"The Contest Play" very realistically portrays the trials and tribulations of any harassed dramatic coach trying to get her cast ready to present a play in the district one-act play meet. Helen Rouse as Miss Barr, the teacher, sheds many a bitter tear in her efforts to have her cast—(Margaret Brown, Katherine Alice Smallwood, Frank Farr, Robert Lanier and Betty Jean Cose)—ready at the right time. Charles Layton as the stage manager also adds to her troubles.

This evening of plays is sponsored by the Statesboro High School Dramatic Club.

ATLANTA — Declaring that in one regard the income accounts of the railroads are coming more and more to look like those of the late twenties, the Railway Age in a recent editorial said "it is unfortunate, however, that this resemblance is confined to the matter of taxation. Figures recently made available for 1938 show that railway taxes last year averaged $1,463 per mile of railway line in the United States. For the decade ending with 1929 the average was $1,040."

"The tax bills of the railroads present some interesting comparisons," the editorial said. "Railroad mileage today is most closely matched by the mileage in existence in 1909. Yet with approximately the same mileage, railroad taxes were some $280,000,000 greater in 1938 than in 1909. Railway gross earnings in 1938 were most closely matched by those of 1916. Yet railway taxes per mile of line averaged $637 in 1916, compared with $1,463 in 1938."

Lagging is something every good marbler player wants to do correctly. It is a mighty valuable bit of the game.

RUDE PLAYERS NOT WANTED

Backspin on Law Gives Big Advantage

Mistakes Should Master This Art If They Hope to Be Champs By TOM TAW

Mistakes who cannot make their laws, shooters or agates stick in the ring cannot hope to become champion of Georgia at the Atlanta Journal Marbles Tournament state finals, Friday and Saturday, May 6 and 7. Sticking in the ring is essential to winning the game.

Shoot accurately, lag well and stick in the ring are three of the important rules a champion must follow. Now and then a law accidentally will stick in the ring, but the mister who wins, sticks sticks consistently.

The National Marbles Tournament Headquarters has prepared the following illustrated article and apply it painstakingly. Here it is: "To start an English shot right, the shooting hand must be at perfect ease and in no way cramped when in the proper position nature."

MRS. WILLS CHAMP'S MENTOR Mrs. L. A. Wills, principal of Howell School, near Alpharetta, is one of the most enthusiastic marblers in Georgia.

Education, which has sponsored the forum movement for the past five months. Additional features of the program will include the following: 1. A survey of the needs and resources in the field of adult civic education. 2. To plan, organize and conduct conference of educational leaders in different parts of the state to explore the possibilities of organizing school-managed public affairs education for adults.

Bill Gives Jerry Lesson On How to Shoot Marbles

Illustrations Show How to Play Journal Tourney's Official Game By WILL WINN

Ringer, the marbles game made popular by the first national marbles tournament sixteen years ago, and used in all Atlanta Journal marbles tournaments, today is practically the only marbles game being played. It is always played for "fair," never for "keeps."

Bill knocks down a marble and crumples another, but his shooter, instead of spinning to a stop, follows the marble out of the ring. So Bill's turn has ended and Jerry prepares to shoot. He has Bill hit a marble, and both marbles and his shooter remain at the center of the ring.

Figure 2. Bill has won the lag, and he is knocking down a marble and crumples another, but his shooter, instead of spinning to a stop, follows the marble out of the ring. So Bill's turn has ended and Jerry prepares to shoot.

Figure 3. Bill has shot a marble from the ring. His shooter has remained in the ring, so he is entitled to another shot. He knuckles down to shoot from the point at which his shooter has stopped.

Figure 4. Bill has knocked a marble from the ring (Fig. 3) so he continues to play. However, his shooter remains in the ring, so he may shoot again. However, if his shooter is not allowed to enter the ring line.

Figure 5. Here we see Bill knuckling down for that second shot. He knocks out a marble and crumples another, but his shooter, instead of spinning to a stop, follows the marble out of the ring.

Figure 6. Jerry knuckles down. He may shoot from any point on the circle, but chooses a spot farthest from the marble near the ring's edge. A more skillful player would have selected the opposite side of the ring, near the "crip," from which to shoot.

Figure 7. Jerry hits a marble, but without enough force to knock it from the ring. His shooter also goes out of the ring. As Jerry did not score, agate becomes Bill's turn.

Figure 8. Bill, a smart marble player, knuckles down a marble nearest the point where the marble stopped. (Fig. 7.) If he hits the marble at the upper angle, it will go out of the ring and his law will ride on up and stop in the center of the circle.

Goodyear Tire Co. Looks For Better Year

An encouraging new year for the south is envisioned by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company in a statement received from President P. W. Litchfield, today by Pound Service Station and In & Out Service Station Goodyear representatives in Statesboro.

Goodyear will consume something more than sixty million pounds of southern grown cotton during the year. It was indicated. This figure is in substantial excess of the company's cotton consumption during 1938.

During the past year Goodyear has made remarkable progress in the development of improved cotton cord and rayon cord tires. These improvements have been in the direction of producing cord for tires which would afford longer tire wear through the resistance to heat.

Already the company's four cotton tire mills in Alabama and Georgia have been converted over to the new type construction and tires produced from this fabric are showing substantially increased mileage over the older type of construction.

In its search for tire cord improvements, the company has developed a new type of rayon cord and Rayovist. This material has been used to a limited extent in the construction of tires for use under extreme conditions.

However, the market for these tires has been distinctly limited due to factors of cost and the fact that a vast majority of trucking operations are not sufficiently severs to warrant their use.

Increased shipments of crude rubber from the Orient into the port of Mobile, Alabama, will be made in 1939 for use in the Goodyear tire factory at Gadsden.

Monowall, Goodyear technical men are continuing the experiments with cotton cord construction looking toward an ultimate process which will meet the most severe requirements.

4-H Boys Ready To Show Cattle

The some 30 head of steers Bulloch's 4-H club boys and girls will show and sell next week are living pictures of these clubbers motto, "Make the best better."

The 1938 calves did not create the entire show at Savannah. Several club boys started the week following that show to finish out steers that would be better will take a better calf to win this year than it did in 1938 and even though Bulloch clubbers have some calves superior to any other calves that have ever been shown in this regional show it is entirely possible that the coveted honor of having the grand champion is still out of these boys and girls' grasp.

CROTALIA SHOWN PROMISE AS FACTOR IN SOIL CONTROL

Jule G. Liddell, state coordinator of the Soil Conservation Service reported in Athens this week that crotalaria has shown much promise as an erosion control plant in field trials on projects areas in both the Piedmont and Coastal Plain sections of Georgia.

As a result of these trials, he said, agronomists are recommending that farmers cooperating in the erosion-control program establish seed patches this year to provide a source of home-grown seed for more extensive plantings.

"In some of the field trials," Mr. Liddell explained, "crotalaria was seeded on oats during the late winter on soil which was not well adapted to annual lespedeza. After the oats were harvested, the crotalaria provided good cover throughout the summer. After frost, the mulch of leaves furnished protection for the soil the following winter."

"The addition of organic matter and nitrogen to the soil when the land is turned for cotton or corn will materially increase the yield of the row crop," he pointed out. "The crotalaria will then re-seed naturally after the last cultivation of the new crop, and will make sufficient growth before the frost to furnish some winter protection for the soil."

"Crotalaria can also be planted in alternate rows with corn. Crotalaria makes seed which, if left on the land, will produce a volunteer crop the following year, after corn or cotton is laid by. The volunteer crop provides good cover but usually does not produce much seed."

Some of the clubbers started with several calves but have been moving them to market during the past few weeks at from $8.50 per hundred to $10.50 per hundred.

Some of the calves will grade good choice to U. S. prime. Only one of the calves sold in 1938 graded prime. The others grade from medium to choice.

Invitation has been received by Statesboro High School to enter the sixth annual Alumni Scholastic Contest of Emory University. The contest will bring $300 scholarships to 20 high school seniors in the Southeast, according to an announcement by Robert F. Whitaker, executive secretary of the Emory Alumni Association.

Awards will be made on a geographical basis. If a winner does not accept the scholarship for his region, it will be offered to the alternate winner.

Last year more than 1,000 high school seniors in eight states took the examination. Participations open to seniors in accredited high schools in Georgia, Alabama, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Mississippi, Tennessee and Virginia.

Methodist Church

Next Sunday morning we will observe Men's Day. We have been observing different days for other departments of Church work, now we propose to magnify the work of the men. Our speaker on this occasion is Dr. C. K. Vilet, of Nashville, Tenn. Dr. Vilet is head of the Stewardship Department of the Methodist church and with headquarters in Nashville. We hope that every Methodist man in Statesboro and vicinity will hear our distinguished visitor. We want the women and girls to come and hear what Mr. Vilet has to say to the men. Of course, our friends of other churches, and of no church affiliations are cordially invited.
