H. H. Britt Writes Open Letter On Present School Crisis

An Open Letter to Bulloch County

School Patrons and Friends: As a rule, calamities come upon us unawares. Not knowing of their approach we are usually unprepared for them and the results are disastrous.

Right now we are about to enter another critical period in regard to the public schools. We know this is coming and being forewarned we ought to be forearmed. The state Department of Education has promised funds for only four months this year instead of the seven as provided by law. In Bulloch county this four months' term ends at Christmas. What shall we do about it?

Do we want the schools to close? Do we want the teachers to work without pay? Do we want the parents and friends of education in Bulloch county to dig down and provide this extra money as we did last spring? Did you know that the private term last year cost us patrons more than $10,000 cash? And this doesn't include the additional thousands of dollars which the teachers lost in salary cuts and shortened terms.

All of this was purely and simply an additional tax upon us all. And what a heavy tax it was! The annual state school tax paid in our county is approximately $21,000. This is only twice the amount we paid to keep the schools open six or seven weeks.

It is an indisputable fact that for us and for most counties in the state it is a matter of wisdom and sound economy for us to pay state tax and have state supported schools. For every school tax dollar paid into the state treasury last year by Bulloch county tax payers, we received $13 in return. Just suppose that the $10,100 cash raised to operate the private term last spring had been paid to the state in the same way as other taxes. Our proportionate return would have been $131,300—enough to have kept all county schools open with full faculties for six months.

Records from the state auditor's office reveal the fact that the five large city counties in the state pay 50 per cent of the ad valorem tax money into the state treasury and 80 per cent of the total tax money. Consequently, the other counties receive more revenue from the state than they pay in taxes.

State legislature members from these large city counties have not opposed the levy of additional taxes to support the full seven months' school term. If they are willing to pay 80 per cent of the taxes, why should the poorer counties object so strenuously when they are repaid ten, thirteen and twenty fold?

Other sections of the state are waking up to the dire need of getting something done about the situation. Last week a mass meeting of interested citizens of DeKalb county adopted resolutions asking the legislature to meet and pass a 2 per cent sales tax. This week the Troup county grand jury very aptly described the present condition of the schools as a "disgrace to the intelligence of the state."

What the children of Georgia need is not a four months' state supported school term, nor even a seven months' term, but a full nine months term financed entirely by the state.

It would be much less expensive that way. All of the children in all parts of the state deserve equal educational opportunities. This can be provided only by a full nine months' term maintained by standard teacher qualifications with a uniform salary schedule throughout the state. Parents and friends of education in Bulloch county and Georgia, what do you want: educated children, contented and efficient and fully-paid teachers? Or do you want an ignorant and ill-disciplined generation to follow you, taught by disgruntled, unpaid and poorly prepared teachers? The best teacher in the state can't possibly do her best when she is forced to pinch pennies and wonder when, if ever, she will receive her next salary check.

Who is to blame for the present school troubles? I heartily agree with Col. Edgar B. Dunlap, Gainesville lawyer, who spoke to the American Legion Post in Quitman November 10 when he said "we, the people, are to blame." He described the system as "odious," and further declared that as a result, "all Georgia children are underprivileged."

Let us all wake up! H. H. BRITT, President, Bulloch County Education Association.

Six Candidates Qualify In City Election

Thursday night of last week at the qualifying deadline, seven candidates had qualified for the city election to be held December 2 to elect three members of the City Council.

Those to qualify were Barney Averitt, J. Gilbert Cone, Dr. Glenn Jennings, Dr. J. C. Lane, B. B. Morris and Z. Whitehurst. Two of the present members of the City Council, Arthur Howard and Dean Anderson, are not seeking re-election. Mr. John Everett is running to succeed himself. Saturday morning of last week Mr. Whitehurst announced his withdrawal from the race.

According to Mr. Glenn Bland, City Clerk, more than 900 names are on the unrevoked registration lists. Mr. Bland states that this number will be reduced when the list is revised.

According to the City Charter "all persons who have been bona fide residents of Statesboro for twelve months before the day of election, who, before registering as hereinafter required, have paid all taxes of every description legally imposed and who are not in the authorities of Statesboro who shall have been duly registered, as hereinafter provided and who shall be qualified to vote for members of the General Assembly, shall be qualified electors."

For the fruit of time of our toil; For what'er we have fought for; Whether born of the brain or the soil Be the meed we have sought for; For the gifts we have had from His hand Who is Lord of the living, Let there ring through the length of the land A Thanksgiving! Thanksgiving! —Clinton Scollard.

T C Meets Armstrong On Turkey Day

The Armstrong Geeches of Savannah will be the guests of the Georgia Teachers College Blue Tide Thanksgiving Day on the College Athletic Field. The game is scheduled to get under way at 2:30 p. m.

The annual game which pits these traditional rivals against one another promises to be a thriller. The two previous engagements between these two teams have resulted in a win for each. Thursday's game will likely decide who will go ahead in the running.

On paper, Armstrong is not so formidable this year. The team at the beginning of the season was inexperienced. However, with the experience gained in five games they have already played, they can be depended upon to furnish their usual tough opposition.

The Profs, bearing a few bruises sustained in the Appalachian Teachers game are in good shape. Their running attack and block-tackle has been much better than usual in practice the past week. Langley, Hamil, Davis, Smith have shown up good. Parker is in his usual stride.

The Armstrong team is in possibly the best condition of the season. They present a heavy and alert line. Pinckney and Ray, guards, and Miller, right tackle, are stalwarts in the line. Hart at halfback and McCall at fullback have been gaining ground consistently all season.

- The probable line-up: Teachers: P... Parker, Bentley... E... Paschal, Ihley... T... Smith, Glass... G... Pafford, Pinckney... T... Horne, Miller... G... Robertson, Gordon... G... Langley, DeLoach... QB... Rountree, Hart... HB... Cox, Finney... HB... Cason, McCall... FB... Barnes

Thursday Nov. 30

The Harvest Home Festival program is completed and final decorations are being made for the thousands that will attend the celebration. The festival will be held November 30. During the morning a farmers and homemakers school will be held. Starting at 10 a. m. farmers will assemble in the Shepard's tobacco warehouse and divide into groups to study the various phases of livestock production, corn, cotton, tobacco and truck crops under the direction of research workers from the Coastal Plains Experiment Station.

The specialists who will conduct the school are B. L. Southwell, animal husbandman, H. S. Garrison, agronomist, J. M. Carr, tobacco expert, and Otis Woodard, horticulturist.

The homemakers will, at this time, be attending a cooking school under the direction of Mrs. Katharine Lanier, extension food preservation and utilization specialist.

At 1 p. m. the musical program under the direction of Ronald J. Nell, head of the music department at Georgia Teachers College, will start with all attending in mass. The Statesboro high school band and chorus, the college quartet, the College Music Club, the college chorus, the Statesboro Music Club and the Metter Community Choral Club will form a mass choir of more than 200 voices for certain numbers and to lead the community singing. The Rotary Club, Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce, United Georgia Farmers, Woman's Club, Business Girls' Club, the churches of Statesboro, the Georgia Teachers College, the Statesboro high school and others are cooperating to make this occasion possible.

Henderson of the college is chairman of the educational part of the program. S. Hanner is chairman of the decorating committee, and Harry W. Smith and Kermit Carr are financial chairman.

There's a man near Camilla who is literally raising cane. In fact, this farmer, a Mr. F. C. Davis, brought in four stalks to pay for his newspaper subscription, and found it necessary to turn them longways to get them through the door. The paper's employees, who are still munching on the stalks, vouch to the fact that they measure at least eight feet.

YOUNG PEOPLE OF BAPTIST CHURCH TO HAVE SPECIAL SERVICE Thursday morning, November 23, at 7:30 the young people of the Statesboro Baptist church are sponsoring a Sunrise Thanksgiving Service in the educational building. A special invitation is issued to all.

Mr. Smith expressed the belief that if the farmers knew more about the marketing quotas a more intelligent vote would be cast on December 9.

This Week's Sentence Sermon

Let us give thanks to God upon Thanksgiving Day. Nature is beautiful and fellowmen are dear, and duty is close beside us, and God is over us and in us.

Today Is Thanksgiving

For the festival of Thanksgiving today, though an American institution and a matter of proclamation on the part of the administration, is a thing that goes deeper than its national significance.

To us individually, Thanksgiving signifies a reunion of kinsfolk under the natal roof, at the hearthstone, which is the hearstone, and this reunion is for a joyous discussion of especially good cheer and a gentle re-welding of the old association of consanguinity.

Let us give Thanks.

Lets Take It Easy

There is something about the sounding of a fire alarm which gets us all. When it goes off we all revert to our childhood and tear out behind the fire truck to the fire.

Now, in all seriousness, is there any need for us to be at the fire? Our presence there is of no help to the firemen, and oftentimes may prove a hindrance.

We are of the opinion that there is an ordinance requiring every car driver on the streets to pull over to the curb and stop wherever he finds himself at the time the alarm is sounded.

Our being there a few minutes early won't make it any easier on the firemen, and if we get there late we can't be blamed if the fire completely destroys whatever is burning.

So let's take it easy when the alarm is sounded. We may save a life or we may prevent an auto crash.

Today, Thursday, November 23, will be cooler (THANKSGIVING). Friday, November 24, will be snow. Saturday, November 25, will be rain.

STATESBORO AND Bulloch county really are in for a month of politics. Seven candidates in the city council race, and twenty-one candidates (Friday, November 17) for the county primary on December 19.

SEVERAL OF THE races are waxing hot and furious.

It is quite different from the one four years ago when five candidates ran without any opposition. In February, 1936, none of the following had any opposition: J. E. McCran, for ordinary; F. I. Williams, for clerk; F. W. Hodges, for chairman of the board of county commissioners; H. P. Womack, for county school superintendent; and W. W. DeLoach, for tax collector.

FROM THE LYNDON (Kansas) Herald.—"It is just too bad that an "I" slipped over into the "d" channel on the linotype machine while Editor Runyan was setting type for the church news last week. It was especially bad because Editor Runyan is new in town. Don't know whether Mr. Runyan hastily took a trip or holed up in the cyclone cellar, but we hasten to assure the good people of Quenemo that he did not mean it. It was just one of those things. What the darned linotype made his Quenemo News say was, that "a Sunday school board meeting was held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. King."

DID YOU KNOW that carbon monoxide can enter a car in several ways while driving? It may come through the floor from a leak in the exhaust line or from a faulty muffler or it may enter the windows from a truck or bus ahead if the distance is too short.

FIRESIDE HEALTH CHAT

By DR. O. F. WHITMAN, County Health Commissioner. THERE ARE certain age periods in which we are susceptible to certain diseases. These could be classified as dangerous periods in the life of an individual.

Of course, the first danger period lasts from birth until the age of 7 or 8 years. In this period occur many of the infectious diseases of childhood and in this age group we account for a large number of deaths.

The next zone of danger is in the 15-25 years age group. It is to this group that our attention is called at this time, for the reason that there are a number of dangerous diseases which are more prevalent here than in any other group.

The first of the dangerous diseases which we must fight against, especially at this time, is tuberculosis. The majority of the people suffering from this disease either contracted the infection during this age period, or manifested the ill effects of the disease if it was contracted earlier in life.

The majority of the people suffering from this disease either contracted the infection during this age period, or manifested the ill effects of the disease if it was contracted earlier in life.

For protection against tuberculosis it is wise to have regular examinations. The person who has been exposed to active tuberculosis in the family or in anyone closely related should be examined oftener than once a year.

Also in this period is a rapid rise in deaths from heart disease, probably because at this time many children are entering into competitive athletics, or they are just beginning work, including those doing manual labor.

It is easy to understand, if we take a moment to think, that there is an increase in the number of accidents occurring during this age period. It is at this time that the law of our state permits automobile driver's licenses to be issued, yet at this age we do not have the discretion of the older person in driving automobiles.

A very large percentage of venereal disease is contracted between the ages of 18 and 25 years. It is only by personal control, personal hygiene, and moral habits that venereal disease can be brought under control.

Hospital Service Subscription Contracts To Be Offered Next Week

Will Be Non-Profit Local Organization

Beginning next week the Bulloch County Hospital Service, Incorporated, will offer for sale subscription contracts for hospital service.

More than a year ago a group of local community leaders began working on a group hospitalization plan to be offered to citizens of this county. The plan is entirely non-profit and all the work done by those interested in it, we are sure, is anticipated that all the selling will be done by volunteer community groups.

In order that the people of Statesboro and Bulloch county may become familiar with the terms of the contract and the benefits offered in it, we are printing on this page the contract in full.

FOLK DANCING The high school girls enjoy folk dancing, which we have three times a week. We dance under the direction of Miss Meg Gunter.

Some of the dances we have been taught are the Dutch and Norwegian Mountain March, Badge Nevada, Ole Dan Tucker, Children's Polka, Little Man in a Fix, We learned a new dance Wednesday: Come Let Us Be Cheerful. This dance is liked by everyone.

Miss Gunter has taught us the polka step to Beer Barrel Polka, and we think that nothing can beat it. Several groups have taken the music to the same song and worked out some excellent steps to this popular tune.

LITERATURE CLASS GOES DRAMATIC

A few finishing their study of poetry, the senior literature class began its study of the drama and early English plays and playscripts. English literature started declining after the death of Shakespeare, therefore, the class will only take the drama up until Shakespeare's death.

Parts are being tried out for now to see who will play the various characters in Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice. Plans are being made as to whether or not the class shall present the play when they have worked it up.

Members of the literature class are very interested in the drama. Notebooks and friezes have been suggested and started on by members of the class. There is a possibility that this play will be presented before the entire student body after it has been worked out as it should be, to do credit to Shakespeare.

"During the winter season, there is usually less farm work to do than at any other time of the year," the agent pointed out. "This time can be utilized to great advantage by making necessary repairs around the farm, such as stopping leaks in buildings, constructing and repairing fences and cleaning off ditch banks and other similar areas."

Mr. Dyer reminded farmers that now is an excellent time to contract terraces on land where needed. It is also well to repair old terraces and clean out terrace outlets, in order to prevent damage from winter rains, he said.

CHARLIE HOWARD COMPLIMENTED WITH BIRTHDAY DINNER

A delightful social event of Friday evening was the surprise birthday dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Howard for their son, Charlie, at their home on South Main street.

The Thanksgiving season was reflected in the decorations and table appointments. A three-course dinner was served with turkey as the main course. The favors were miniature turkeys. Yellow and white chrysanthemums were artistically arranged throughout the home.

After dinner the guests played bridge. Prizes were won by A. J. Bowyer who received cigarettes, and Mrs. R. L. Cone, Jr., who was given pottery. Mrs. R. L. Cone, a recent bride, was also remembered by the hostess with a crystal gift matching her pattern.

All's Fair...

What would you do if you were a State Patrol man and after chasing a car for miles you overtook one of Statesboro's most charming matrons and as you pulled alongside she gave you the full benefit of those lovely blue eyes?

The matron, clad in a nifty suit, when asked for her license, said "It's home in a dresser drawer," and laughingly told him he'd have to come home with her. Well, he just said, "Lady, be careful..."

What young groom got all mixed up about the date for Charlie Howard's Surprise Birthday dinner and barged in a day early for dinner?

A few days ago I was amazed and incredulous. After calling No. 181 in the telephone book, a strange voice answered. "Who is this speaking?" I inquired. "This is Roosevelt," but after a brief pause the voice went on, "If'n'ya wants to speak wid Mrs. Braswell she's at the show..."

And Dot Darby is getting married Friday evening at a church wedding. The bridesmaids from Statesboro are Gladys Thayer, Mary Sue Akins, Bobbie Smith, and Sara Remington. They are all wearing frocks designed alike of blue tulle with hoop skirts and low off-the-shoulder sweetheart necklines and ribbons in their hair. Just know the wedding group will be lovely.

As ever, Jane.

Gainesborough, Merlele Kennedy with her golden bil worn with fashionable fall costumes my attention was claimed by a bridge cover. It was white with drawn work about an inch wide. It car-molish black frock was very attractive, but though surrounded by ried me back to the time when every correct parlor had a center table with claw feet and was covered with a white cloth with drawn work similar to the pattern on the bridge cover. The cover in question belonged to Lillian Braswell and was made by her grandmother.

So the "pretty teacher" — I quote a young school boy — is being dated up quite frequently these days.

Frank Williams had a marvelous trip to Atlanta on the train. Which is quite an adventure for a small boy these days—and as an added thrill he slept in a berth on the way up. He bought presents for "Omie" and "Jerry" but forgot to buy his mother something.

And Dot Darby is getting married Friday evening at a church wedding. The bridesmaids from Statesboro are Gladys Thayer, Mary Sue Akins, Bobbie Smith, and Sara Remington. They are all wearing frocks designed alike of blue tulle with hoop skirts and low off-the-shoulder sweetheart necklines and ribbons in their hair. Just know the wedding group will be lovely.

As ever, Jane.

Bob And Betty Return To Statesboro To Live

Do you remember Bob and Betty Who got married here last year? Well, they've returned now with their baby And it's a perfect dear.

Of course the AUTHUR HOWARD LUMBER CO. Supplied the materials for their home. You'll note the best built in every line Were selected for this poem.

GROOVER & JOHNSTON wrote INSURANCE On their cozy little nest. GROOVER & JOHNSTON were selected 'Cause their service is the best.

Bob and Betty save at the BULLOCH COUNTY BANK. 2 1/2% is what they pay. Other investments may look rosy But here's the safest way.

They buy all their drugs at the CITY DRUG CO. 'Cause it's their favorite drug store. They're sure of pure and safe drugs there, And they don't cost a penny more.

Bob went down to the AVERITT BROS. AUTO CO. And bought a 1940 PONTIAC the other day He says it beats all cars he's owned In every single way.

They buy all their foods from the K & K GROCERY 'Cause it's a home-owned store. This insures their getting quality And their money buys much more.

Bob goes to WYLEY NESMITH'S SERVICE STATION For ATLANTIC oil and ATLANTIC tires When it comes to making cars perform There's nothing in its class.

At MINKOVITZ DEPT. STORE Betty bought Some lovely silk dresses and a coat for fall See MINKOVITZ styles and prices Their values beat them all.

The lovely GEORGIA THEATRE Is their favorite picture show It shows big pictures just as soon As cities do, you know.

You will remember H. W. SMITH JEWELRY STORE Sold Bob the wedding ring and solitaire. You should see the lovely diamonds And other rings down there.

ALFRED DORMAN & CO. WHOLESALE GROCERY We call to your attention They've been serving STATESBORO and vicinity for many a year And they're worthy of our mention.

The MUNRO STUDIO takes pictures Of their baby every year STATESBORO is fortunate in having So good a studio here.

Bob has a dandy little farm. He's a successful farmer, too. He buys all his stock feed from BRADLEY & CONE. As most good farmers do.

SMITH BROS. IMPLEMENT CO. sold Bob a John Deere Tractor At very moderate price. Once you buy farm machinery from SMITH BROS. You are sure to do it twice.

BRANNEN-THAYER make MEMORIALS Of granite and marble, too. And at BRANNEN-THAYER'S you are sure to see Patterns that are new.

Cement burial vaults are modern And by far the nicest way. BOB HAGAN'S BURIAL VAULT CO. is ready To fill orders right away.

Before real cold weather comes The UPCHURCH GARAGE will check Bob's car Yours, too, probably has some defects But you don't know what they are.

They always keep SUN-CREST ORANGE & NU-GRAPE In bottles on their ice. When it comes to treating friends who call There is nothing quite so nice.

If it is hardware you are needing W. C. AKINS & SON HARDWARE would appreciate your trade. They'll give you lower prices On merchandise of higher grade.

If Betty wants to entertain At luncheon, bridge or tea She'll do it at the attractive JAECKEL HOTEL. It is the smartest thing, you see.

There'll be a lot of wet weather soon. Better check up on your roof. Then get in touch with M. F. ALDERMAN ROOFING CO. They'll make it weather proof.

Now, Bob is a classy dresser And always looks real swell. The THACKSTON DRY CLEANERS do his cleaning. That's why he looks so well.

The World's Fair Is In New York. . . .

But at FINE'S we have a

"World of Fair Fashions"

When in Savannah it will be our pleasure to have you come in and see a most complete selection of Children, Misses and Women's Fashions—modestly priced.

Fine's of Savannah

15 W. Broughton St. Savannah

THE BULLOCH LIVESTOCK CO. Deals in stock of every kind. And for fair and square dealing. It's the best place that you'll find.

Bob always goes to the WESTERN AUTO ASSOCIATE STORE For parts for his car. The WESTERN ASSOCIATE PARTS last longer And cost you less by far.

No noisy patent ice machine Supplies this county's ice. They buy their's from the CITY ICE & COAL CO. In big blocks pure and nice.

You remember the JONES FLORIST Supplied the bride's bouquet. Other florist don't arrange their flowers This firm's artistic way.

There is one important STATESBORO business firm We must mention in this poem. And that's the thoroughly up-to-date LANIER'S MORTUARY'S funeral home.

They buy choice liquors from ALTMAN'S To serve to friends who call. They patronize ALTMAN'S LIQUOR STORE 'Cause his prices beat them all.

Every week, once or twice, B.H.V. serves a meal of fish At JONES HOFGES CO., she purchases Just anything they wish.

No home can look its nicest Without the proper light. Have A. J. SHELTON re-wire yours And know that it is done right.

A RCA VICTOR RADIO at the BLITCH RADIO SHOP Bob and Betty are going to get. Before you buy a radio. Be sure to see this set.

Bob won't get up to answer the TELEPHONE. He's an awful sleepy head. He had the STATESBORO TELEPHONE CO. put an extension Right beside his bed.

COTTON plays an important part in building CONCRETE ROADS
ABOUT ten million pounds of cotton is used annually by the cement industry for sacking cement. Heavy cotton mats are used now for curing freshly placed concrete, protecting it from the sun while hardening. 1,200,000 sq. yds. of these heavy mats have been used in the last few years. Concrete road construction offers a vast market for your cotton and besides concrete is the real low cost road, superior in durability, safety and economy. U. S. Route 80 through Statesboro needs to be modernized and paved with concrete. PORTLAND CEMENT ASSOCIATION Hunt Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

FOURTH GRADE
We are looking forward to Thanksgiving for we know when Thanksgiving comes Christmas is near. We read stories about the Pilgrims. We drew pictures of turkeys. STUDENT COUNCIL NEWS
The Student Council met Monday, November 20. When the by-laws of the council went into effect the results were startling. Members were brought throwing paper on the school before the council to be tried. Throwing paper on the school grounds and in the school building seems to be the rule broken most frequently. New deputies were elected to enforce these by-laws. All new deputies will have to be sworn in to hold office. Several new rules were made concerning the music room.

THE BUSY BEES CLUB
The Busy Bees held their regular club meeting Wednesday, November 15, in the Home Economics room. Hospital Committee And Trustees Meet
The Bulloch County Hospital Advisory Committee, appointed by the October Term Grand Jury, together with the members of the County Board of Commissioners, met with the Board of Trustees of the hospital at its regular meeting held recently. The members of the Advisory Committee are: E. A. Denmark, C. M. Graham, C. I. Wynn, J. A. Banks, and Marlee Parrish. Mr. Graham was unable to attend the meeting. The Committee met with the board of trustees to inspect the hospital, its physical equipment, together with its operation and management. They found that the hospital is one of the best equipped hospitals of its size in this section. They learned that it is fully approved by the American Medical Association, and that it is now up for approval by the American College of Surgeons. It was pointed out that the hospital, under its present management, is now operating on a self-paying basis and has a cash surplus with which to meet future contingencies. The first eight months after the hospital was opened it operated at a loss and incurred a heavy indebtedness, according to the records of the institution. The committee learned that this indebtedness has been paid in full. The committee is expected to make its report to the next session of the Grand Jury. During the meeting the members of the committee were shown letters from members of the medical profession expressing their appreciation for the excellent service being given them and their patients at the hospital.
