A POEM

With doubt and dismay you are smitten,

You think there is no chance for Why the best books haven't been written, The best race hasn't been run,

The best score hasn't been made yet. The best song hasn't been sung

The best tune hasn't been played

Cheer up, for the world is young

No chance? Why, the world is just eager For things that you ought to create. It's store of true wealth is still meager,

Its needs are incessant and great Don't worry and fret, faint hearted. The chances have just begun. For the best jobs haven't been started.

EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES IN THE NEGRO SCHOOLS

The County Superintendent and Jeanes Supervisor extended hearty seasons Greetings to all school and communities throughout the Bulloch countryside. With a prospective outlook for educational growth, we anticipate a bright and Happy New Year.

Pre-Christmas week marked a busy time at the Willow Hill school. The P.-T. A. presented a social Monday night, December. that was greatly enjoyed by a large gathering. The unique feature was the "Heaven and Hell" program suggested and sponsored by Lois Mills, a member of the faculty. The group representing "Heaven" decorated and arranged a room where heavenly activities were shown and a collation served such as Angel Food Cake, Nectar, Ambrosia, and other suggestive heavenly foods. The room depicting "Hell" was quite lively with swing music, decorative red devils, grotesque figures, fortune telling, games and dancing. The menu served was also suggestive of the region, consisting of hot tea, devil food cake, chili and red hot sandwiches.

The school and community Christmas tree was enjoyed by more than two hundred spectators and friends, December 21. A well planned program was presented by the various groups of the school. The play, "Squire Hawley's Christmas," afforded opportunity for Willie Wyles, a member of the Dramatic Club, to show his rare historic ability. As Squire Haw ley, he brought out the theme of the play which was, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."
All the children, teachers and friends were the recipients of many gifts.

The P.-T. A. is planning a splendid New Year's program at the Willow Hill School, with Rev. W. Holmes as the guest speaker. Inspiring local talent and a jubilee is in store for all.

"The "Willow Hill Clarion," pubished by students of Willow Hill Jr. High, has the distinction of being the first school paper to appear among the colored schools of the county. Its motto is: "Willow Hill, first in the right things; last in the wrong things, and always in the best things." The many sales since its issue, assures the staff of the fine support of the friends and patrons

POPE'S JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL JOTTINGS

In an effort to create community interest along the religious side of life as well as develop an appreciation for the aesthetic, the Pope's Jr. High School plans sponsoring monthly vesper services Their initial program was Sunday, December 17, at 4 o'clock at which time Rev. Holmes was guest speaker. The age old Christmas carols were beautifully rendered by the girls' chorus.

Varied school and community activities of interest sponsored by the pupils, teachers and patrons have included hikes, basket ball games weiner roasts, carnivals popularity contest and the traditional Christmas program.

At the December county group meeting, the school was awarded a colorful set of supplementary readers for the most unique improved drinking water facilities and also a beautiful framed picture for the classroom for being the first school to purchase the large Rosenwald Library set.
