WOMEN’S CLUBS END CONVENTION TODAY

Thursday was the close of the forty-eighth annual convention of the Bulloch County Women’s Clubs. The convention was highlighted by addresses by Mrs. J. A. Davis, president, and Dr. E. B. Kennedy, president of the Georgia Federation of Women’s Clubs, and by a presentation of a silver gavel, representing Georgia clubs to the citizens of the county. The convention closed with a meeting at the Statesboro Junior College, where Dr. W. C. Franklin, president of the college, made the address of the day.

Bulloch Herald Revival Feature

The number one feature of the Bulloch Herald’s revival was the keynote of John Everett Co., a former Statesboro High School student. In his address, Co. urged the community to support the local newspaper, which has been serving the region for over 126 years.
