NEW ORLEANS – Tookie Brown has been named the Sun Belt Conference Men's Basketball Player of the Week, the league announced today.

The senior earns the honor for the sixth time in his career and second time this season.

Brown averaged 22.5 points, seven rebounds and 3.5 assists in a 2-0 week for the Eagles as GS extended its win streak to four contests and moved into a tie for second place in the league standings.

He shot 57 percent from the field, making 3 of 4 from 3-point land, and shot 82 percent from the free-throw line. The only player in Sun Belt history with over 2,000 points and 500 assists, Brown ranks sixth on the conference career scoring list and is ninth among active players in NCAA Division I scoring.

GS controls its own destiny in its goal of obtaining one of the top-2 seeds in the upcoming Sun Belt Tournament. The Eagles finish the regular season with three straight home games, starting Thursday as Little Rock visits Statesboro. Tipoff is set for 7 p.m. in Hanner Fieldhouse.
