A SOLDIER HAS TO KNOW HIS BEANS

A few days ago I was talking to a soldier about his life in the service. He was telling me how he had been in the service for some time now and how much he liked it. He said that he had learned a lot about himself and how to handle new situations. He also said that he had learned a lot about the other soldiers in his unit and how they worked together as a team.

The soldier then went on to say that he had been given the opportunity to earn some money while he was in the service. He said that he had been given a job as a cook and that he was able to make a lot of friends through this job. He also said that he had learned a lot about the importance of teamwork and how it can make a difference in life.

It is true that many young men and women join the military to earn a living or to make friends. But it is also true that many young men and women join the military to make a difference in the world. The military is a place where you can learn a lot about yourself and how to handle new situations. It is a place where you can learn about the importance of teamwork and how it can make a difference in life.

The soldier then went on to say that he had learned a lot about the importance of discipline and how it can make a difference in life. He said that he had learned that discipline is the key to success and that it is something that you need to have in order to be successful in the military.

The soldier then went on to say that he had learned a lot about the importance of communication and how it can make a difference in life. He said that communication is the key to success and that it is something that you need to have in order to be successful in the military.

The soldier then went on to say that he had learned a lot about the importance of leadership and how it can make a difference in life. He said that leadership is the key to success and that it is something that you need to have in order to be successful in the military.

The soldier then went on to say that he had learned a lot about the importance of hard work and how it can make a difference in life. He said that hard work is the key to success and that it is something that you need to have in order to be successful in the military.
