Red Cross Call to Service

Statesboro to Observe Day of Prayer Today

The people of statesboro and Bulloch county will hold their first observance of National Day of Prayer and will observe the day of prayer on Friday, Jan. 1, 1942. In compliance with the proclamation issued by the president, unused services will be held at Statesboro Presbyterian church on Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. The service was planned by Rev. R. G. Brooks, pastor of the Presbyterian church, and Rev. B. W. Williams, pastor of the Methodist church, and others in cooperation, representing the clergy of the Presbyterian Episcopal Church.

A representative of the observance committee said that the observance is a part of our national life and that it is an expression of our national patriotism. It is to be noted that our greatest victory will come when we have the confidence of our friends and neighbors. It is to be noted that we have the confidence of our friends and neighbors.

The observance committee includes a report on the observance day and the observance is scheduled for 11 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. The observance day will be held at the Presbyterian church on Thursday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.
