WOMEN AS AUCTIONEERS.

WOMEN AS AUCTIONEERS.

"Speaking of occupations for wemen," said the energetic young person who expends all of her executive ability on the management of one refractory maid and most of her physical strength in dusting her pariot furniture. "Why don't women become anotioneers? Now, there's a profession that many of them were 'Eritainly made for! I think I, for example, would make a very good auctioneer, and I'm sure I'd look as capityating as the fat and baldheaded hutocrats who mount the rosirum at most auction saites. And then think what a commanding position one would have, perched up there, the world at one's feet, queen of all one surveyed.

"With a dainty little silver mounted hammer in hand, with what delight we should be able to knock down 'bargains' to our intimate friends, inveigle our enemies into the purchase of wortheless 'lotas' or derraud them out of the gains' to our intimate friends, inveigle our enemies into the purchase of worthess 'lots' or defraud them out of the possession of coveted articles by overlooking their 'bid' or giving it to a hated rival! Indeed, we ought to be first rate auctioneers. As we are so often 'sold' ourselves, we should have as fikkling as to how to 'sel' others. "Women, as a rule, are so fond of bargains that I feel sure they would shine in disposing of them. Besides, they have such a flow of language, such a mastery over detail, such ready wit, and such marvellous intuition, that, as a matter of fact, they are born wit, and such marvellous intuition, that, as a matter of fact, they are born auctioneers, and it is only through the envy, hatred, malice and uncharitableness of the opposite sex that the dignity of occupying the rostrum has been, so far, denied them.

"Of course, it would have its disadvantages. It would be hard, for instance, to say—"Going, going—gone!" as we saw some charming and artistic bibelot on which we had set our own heart disappear into the dull and unheart disappear into the dull and un-appreciative maw of a wretched Goth, Vandal, Philistine, or parvenue, but the mysteries of 'reserve prices' and prices 'not reaching the reserve' would be an open book to us; we should be able to do battle with the machinations of 'the ring;' and, moreover, we could reflect that the world is full of treas-ures—all 'bargains'—more or less."— New York Commercial Advertiser.

A Match-striking Dog.

A Manayunk man found the other day a number of burnt matches scat-tered on the floor of his parlor. No one in the house had thrown them there. The whole matter was a mys-

there. The whole matter was a mystery.

Two days later the same thing occurred again, this time in the kitchen. Over fifty charred match-sticks lay upon: the carpet, and nobody knew anything about them. It looked as thought a lunatic had been at work.

The following afternoon the man was taking a nap in his study, while his fox-terrier played about the room. A sharp report awakened him, and, looking up, he saw the dog striking a match with his nails. With one paw it held a match-stick firmly on the floor, and it scratched the brimstone head with the nails of the other foot. The little flame and explosion that followed seemed to fill the dog with delight. It went immediately to the table, and brushing off a dozen of the matches that lay there, it was about to renew its tiny fireworks display when the man shouted—

"Get out of there! Do you want to set the house on fire?"

Since then the dog has been kept out of doors.—Philadelphia News.

CAESAR'S FINISH

Caesar was fighting his last battle, when his best friend advanced against "And thou, too, Brutus?" he faltered.

"No, not two," replied that worthy.
"It's three strikes and out!"
Hereupon he inserted his dagger three times in the royal person, while poor Julius, overcome by the attempt-ed humor, fell at the base of Pompey's statue.—New York Herald.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, heating will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circular sear free, F. J. Circust & Co., Foledo, O.

Commends Peruna to All Catarrh Sufferers.

Hon, Lewis E. Johnson is the son of the late Reverdy Johnson, who was United States Senator from Maryland, also Attorney-General under President Johnson and United States Minister to England, and who was regarded as the greatest constitutional lawyer that ever lived.

In a recent letter from 1006 F Street, N. W., Mr. Johnson says:

"No one should longer suffer from catarrh when Peruna is accessible To my knowledge it has caused relief to so many of my friends and acquaintances, that it is humanity to commend its use to all persons suffering with this distressing disorder of the human system."-Lewis E. Johnson.

A Wrong Step.

Mr. Editor:

At the last regelar meeting of the board of education they passed an act, which f complied with, will in some instances prove detrimental to the cause of education. They require all children to attend the nearest school. This is all right provided all teachers were competent to teach any and all branches which the children desire to study, but as the tachers are examined only on the ordinary branches of an English education, many of them are unable to teach any of the advanced studies, consequently those children will be deprived of the privilege of pursuing these advanced studies. I have known more than one instance where children had to attend school several miles from home in order to advance in their studies. The school law of Georgia says that no child can be turned away from a public school-not only in the county, but it can attend any public school in the state, unless this this law has been repealed re-

Much is being said and written of late about the importance of our advanced education, and while this is true and right, it is wrong to throw a barrier across the path of those who are striving to obtain an education which they so earnestly covet.

B. W. Darsey. A J Snell wanted to attended a party but was afraid to do so on account of pains in his stomach, which he feared would grow worse. He sayf, "I was telling my troubles to a lady friend, who said; Chamberlain's Cholic Chol-era and diarrhoea Remedy will put in condition for the party. I bought a bottle and take pleasure in stating that two doses cured me and enabled me to have a good time at the party." Mr Snell is a resident of Summer

Hill N Y. This remedy is for sale by W H Ellis PARISH ITEMS.

As it has been some time since I noticed any thing from Parish, allow me a small space to speak a word for the thriving little town.

Mr. J. Everett and son, we will take a bet that they are doing one of the best business in old Bulloch, having employed one of her best salesmem in the county of Bulloch for clerk along with Mr. J. F. Everett as manager of the business, which we believe would be hard to beat.

Mr. J. B. Parish is selling numerous goods.

W. M. Durden & Co's saw mlll and Morgan Olliff's planing mill keeps us from sleeping over our time at noon and business arouses us at morning.

Dr. G. A. Burch, one of Bulloch's leading physicans has all he can do, and it haven't been long since he couldn't do any

We are glad Mr. John Turner will soon moye to Parish.

We are sorry to say that Mr. Lewis Durden is very ill this week.

Mr. Gus Kirkland has left us

It is reported that Mr. Morgan Olliff will soon move on his farm on Lots Creek.

What's In A Name.

Everything is the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E C De-Witt & Co of Chicago discovered some Witt & Co of Chicago discovered some years ago, how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for truding piles eczema, cuts burns, bruises and all &kin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless, counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's--the genuine.
