In a double-headed editorial the Brooklyn Daily Eagle says that "millions of Americans again desire to make Grover Cleveland President of the United States."

The Eagle and those who are in sympathy with it do not seem to think that Mr. Bryan's influence counts for much in the Democratic party. They are mistaken. He is still a power in the party, and will have a great deal to do with the making of the next Democratic platform and the naming of the nominee for President.

A new man must be put forward as the leader, and a platform adopted upon which all Democrats can stand. Of course, it is going to be a difficult task to find such a man and to make such a platform. But we believe that it is possible to find the man and make the platform.

Mr. C. A. Wilson was in Statesboro looking after some business matters. In the afternoon while preparing to get in his buggy, he expressed to Mr. R. F. Lester, who was with him, that he was feeling rather badly, and in less than a minutes time Mr. Wilson fell to the side walk, and for some time his condition was quite serious.

The stores have adopted the early closing in order to give the clerks a chance to walk around a little in the afternoon. They close at 6:30 p. m., with the exception of two or three. Parties having business with the merchants will take notice and not wait until too late to do their trading.

Dublin vs Statesboro.

On Thursday afternoon of this week at 3:30 p. m., the Dublin Base Ball Club will play the Statesboro boys a match game at the base ball grounds in South Statesboro.

The challenge came from the Dublin boys, who are coming down in force to "play out" the "Statesboro Nine."

The home boys are in fine trim and will meet the Dublin crowd on the diamond and give them all they are looking for. The game will be quite an interesting one, and a large crowd will doubtless be on hand to whoop 'em up when our boys score a run.

The visitors will be the guests of their Statesboro friends while in the city. They are a clever set of young men, and we are glad to have them come down and have our boys show them how to play ball.

Will Open New Business.

Mr. C. A. Wilson, of Harville, was in the city one day last week and perfected arrangements with Messrs. J. W. Olliff & Co. of this place, whereby he will open a large stock of Dry Goods, Shoes, Clothing, Groceries and general merchandise at his place near Harville.

Mr. Wilson will buy through Messrs. Olliff & Co. and have the advantage of prices bought in large quantities, and therefore will be able to sell goods as cheap as they can be sold anywhere. He is a business man of long experience, and his friends and the public generally are pleased to know that he has re-entered the mercantile business. Surrounding his place is one of the best sections in Bulloch, and we see no reason why he should not get his share of the trade. He assures the public that their patronage will be appreciated, and their wants looked after with care and dispatch.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. LeGrande, of Gainesville, Fla. have been visiting the parents of the latter, Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Green of Excelsior during the week. They also visited in Statesboro on yesterday. They returned home this morning.

Revival at Baptist Church.

The Baptists are conducting a revival service this week. Pastor McLemore is assisted by Rev. Mr. Shelton, pastor of the Baptist church at Chester, S. C. Mr. Shelton has delivered some excellent sermons and the people seem to be much impressed with him. Owing to the bad weather there has not as yet been as large an attendance as expected, but it is expected that from now on the interest in the meeting will grow. Mr. Shelton will be with us until Friday night. These services are held each day, morning, afternoon and night.

A Stroke of Heartfailure.

On last Thursday afternoon, Mr. C. A. Wilson was in Statesboro looking after some business matters. In the afternoon while preparing to get in his buggy, he expressed to Mr. R. F. Lester, who was with him, that he was feeling rather badly, and in less than a minutes time Mr. Wilson fell to the side walk, and for some time his condition was quite serious. A physician was summoned and Mr. Wilson was taken to the home of his brother Mr. J. W. Wilson, where he remained until Saturday, where he was sufficiently recovered so as to be able to be carried home. Mr. Wilson has a large number of friends who are pleased to know that he is now well again.

Mr. B. Kitchens of the upper section of the county was in the city yesterday with two bales of sea island cotton and a lot of wool. This is the kind of a load of produce to bring to market. Mr. Joseph Fletcher is with Messrs. B. B. Stokes Bros. of Rosewood, Fla. He writes back that he is very much pleased with his new location.

GRAND OPENING.

Statesboro Ice Mfg. Co. Starts Thursday.

Next Thursday at 4 P. M. the wheels will begin to turn, and the machines will begin to make ice at the plant of the Statesboro Ice Manufacturing Co. near the S & S depot.

Manager George respectfully invites the people of the town and country to turn out on that evening and see the start. An invitation is extended to the ladies to come and see how ice is made by machinery. A fine artesian well is furnishing plenty of water out of which the ice is made.

Mr. J. F. Fields left last week to prospect in the vicinity of Waycross.

We understand that The City Ice Co. have decided not to put in any machinery for the manufacture of ice this season, but will wait until another season to do so.

Mr. F. E. Fields took in the Baptist Convention in Savannah during the week.

SHIP US Spring Chickens AND EGGS.

They are in demand and prices are good. We make prompt returns. HOTCHKISS & NEVILL, SAVANNAH, GEORGIA.

The Statesboro Ice Mfg. Co. are turning out their first charge of ice to-day. The charge consists of ten tons which is the first artificial or manufactured ice ever made in Statesboro.

The Savannah Press in netting the visitors to the Baptist Convention, said that Rev. J. S. McLemore of our town was very much like John C. Calhoun. Read the new adv. of the Foros Food Co., in this issue. Statesboro seems to be afflicted with a base ball boom just now.

Mrs. J. C. Trapnell Passed Away Saturday Night.

Mrs. Minna Trapnell died at her home near Metter on Saturday night.

Mrs. Trapnell's death was a severe shock to the community, although she had not been enjoying the best of health, yet her death was not expected. She had started to visit her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Youmans at Adrian. She was at the depot waiting for the train. She suffered a stroke of heart failure, and was taken to her home a mile or so away, where she passed quietly away about midnight. The funeral was conducted by Elder C. B. Spivey at Lake church on Monday in the presence of a large crowd of sorrowing friends and relatives.

The deceased was a sister of Messrs. J. C. and J. M. Jones, of this place.

Death At Clito.

On Sunday at his home at Clito, Mr. Whalin died after an illness extending over several weeks. We failed to learn any further particulars of the death.

Ask For Warren's Place Before His Body Was Cold.

Governor Terrell received two shocks yesterday. One was when he was notified of the horrible death of Major J. W. Warren, the secretary of the executive department; the other was when thirty minutes later he received two telephone messages at the mansion from two different parties asking that they be given the position which was held by the Major.

To say that the governor was horrified, expresses it mildly. Although he has been in politics for many years, has associated and mingled with politicians of all sorts, he never knew before that people were so grasping. It goes without saying that neither of the applicants will get the place. Neither will anybody else who applied for it before the funeral of Major Warren is held. Governor Chandler adhered strictly to that rule while he was in office and Governor Terrell will do the same.—Atlanta Journal.

Stormy May.

A north-east shower began last Thursday, and continued up until Monday. At Savannah the wind blew almost a gale, and here in Bulloch, it was strong enough to blow down the oat crop. Such weather in May is almost without precedent. It seems that nature has sipped a cog, and April and May took the place of February and March.

Miss Daisy Averitt, a beautiful and accomplished young lady of Statesboro is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. O. Strickland north of the village.—Bryan Enterprise.

Miss Cora Hendrix, a charming young lady of Bulloch county, has been visiting relatives in and around Graymont.—WireGrass Blade.

Mr. W. J. Strickland is in our town this week. We learn that Mr. Strickland will leave for New Orleans about the 19th inst, where he will spend quite a while. His daughters, Misses Hobie and Opelia, who are attending college at Lucy Cobb Institute, in Athens Ga., will return and spend the time with their brother, Dr. J. O. Strickland of this place during their father's stay in New Orleans.—Bryan Enterprise.

Mr. D. P. Averitt, a prominent business man of Statesboro, visited his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Strickland Saturday.—Bryan Enterprise. A Texas editor wants to know what would be thought of men if they had their pantaloons made a foot or so too long and then went about holding them up. We suppose there would be a few more rubber necks than there are now, answers the Rome Tribune. A rural editor in Illinois observes: "We prefer living in a small town where the people will sympathize with you in trouble, and if you haven't any trouble they will hunt some up for you." Hartford Post: "A man who hangs around the street corners spitting tobacco juice and lodging his hands in his pockets has no moral license to rail at men who have got rich by hustling." Miss Minnie Franklin and brother of Bulloch county spent Monday night last in Dublin, guests of the family of Col. T. L. Griner. They were on their way to Hawkinsville to attend the Chautauqua.—Courier-Dispatch.

He'd never stop for a friendly smile, but trudged along in his moody style. Till "Force" one day was served to him—since then they call him "Sunny Jim." Force is a better builder than a vacation. SUNDAY IN STATESBORO

Last Sunday morning the writer accompanied by Messrs. Claude Sutton and Louis Proctor, went down to the charming little city of Statesboro on a visit to friends. We arrived there at 8:30 o'clock, and left at 7 p. m. on our return to Swainsboro. Statesboro is enjoying a steady, substantial growth, and all its citizens have the greatest confidence in its future. It is a delightful little city of hospitable people, who ever extend a helping hand to all enterprises and a warm welcome to those going there to reside. It has a commodious college building in which there flourishes a school of several hundred pupils, two handsome brick churches, numerous beautiful residences and many magnificent business blocks. An ice factory has just been completed, and the town recently voted to issue $30,000 worth of bonds for the purpose of establishing a system of electric lights and waterworks. It has two well regulated telephone systems, a Chinese laundry, a bakery a tannery and many other enterprises. Possessing an enterprising and united citizenry and good transportation facilities, and breathing an energetic, refined and moral atmosphere, the attractions of Statesboro are many and its possibilities great.—Blade.

Hagan vs Statesboro.

Statesboro Anticipates Giving Hagan a Lively Ball Game. On Thursday afternoon the Hagan Base Ball Team will come over and play Statesboro. Several of the Hagan boys were over on Sunday and arranged the game. The Hagan team will come on the 8:16 train on Thursday morning and will be the guests of the Statesboro team during their stay in the city. The home boys are in first-class trim. They have just administered to Dublin a most wholesome lesson in ball playing and they will also let Hagan have a dose out of the same bottle on Thursday afternoon. Hagan has a good team, and the boys over there play well but what Statesboro will do for them will be a plenty. A large crowd will go out to witness the game on Thursday afternoon. Statesboro had invited Swainsboro to come down on that date but, in order to give Hagan what she has been hunting, they asked Swainsboro to postpone their trip to another date. We have inaugurated a sunset prayer meeting for men at the Baptist church. Just at sun down, all the men of Statesboro are requested to meet there for a 30 or 40 minute prayer service. J. S. McLemore. The new Methodist church is nearly completed. When finished it will be one of the prettiest houses of worship in Georgia. One, of which, any town or congregation might well feel proud. Mrs. Anna Potter and Miss Lela Wilson returned on Friday from Savannah where they have been visiting for the past month. Mr. A. F. Johnson, who has been working for the E. E. Foy Mfg. Co. at Egypt since March, spent Sunday with the home folks here. He says he likes Egypt very much and will be better satisfied down there now that the News will come to him every week.

Primitive Baptist Meeting

The Primitive Baptist are holding a series of continued meetings at the church in Statesboro this week. The services began on Sunday when the house was packed as its capacity would afford. Elder Bussey of Columbus is assisting Elder Stubbs. The meetings are well attended and some fine sermons have been given. The meeting will last during the balance of the week. Elder W. T. Cleveland arrived last night, and will also assist in the meeting. Dublin Ball Team marched down the hill and then up again. Don't forget that we buy and sell all kinds of country produce. Mr. Willie Robertson's home at Brooklet is taking on some shape now. Don't forget the Excursion to Savannah and Tybee which will be run via the Savannah & Statesboro Railway tomorrow morning. Train leaves 7 o'clock a. m., returning 8:30 p. m. $1.50 Statesboro to Tybee and return. Mr. John I. Lane, of Brooklet, is experimenting with cassava. He planted a lot and had two bunches to come up. The Dr. is also putting in a crop of velvet beans. Miss Celia Brinson has made up a class in elocution. She will teach about three weeks. Mr. D. D. Arden had the misfortune to lose a fine milk cow on yesterday.
