Reflections of a Bachelor.

You can make a girl believe she has curly hair by saying so. Either a woman carries her money in her stocking or on her back.

A man need never have too much spare cash for his own good if he will only get engaged. One good thing about being married is that you will not have any more trouble of that kind till you do it again.

A Heavy Load

To lift that load off the stomach take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It digests what you eat. Sour stomach, belching, gas on stomach and all disorders of the stomach that are curable, are instantly relieved and permanently cured by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. N. P. Storer, a druggist 207 Main Street, New Britain, Conn., says: "Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is giving such universal satisfaction and is so surely becoming the positive relief and subsequent cure for this distressing ailment, I feel that I am always sure to satisfy and gratify my customers by recommending it to them. I will write this to show how well the medicine is spoken of here." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was discovered after years of scientific experiments and will positively cure all stomach troubles. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

How He Recognized Him

"I sho' seen Marse Tom's ghost las' night," said the old family servant.

"How did you know it was his ghost?"

"Kaze it stood right over in de co'ner whar de empty jimmyjohn wuz."

"Did it say anything?"

"No, sah; but it looked lak it wanted to say: 'Tom you ole black raskill,—hez you done dranked up all my liker?'"

Herb W. Edwards Injured.

Herb W. Edwards of Des Moines, Iowa, got a fall on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. "The next day," he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared." A woman has high regard for the man who accepts her advice pleasantly.

Tell a woman she has a stylish appearance and you become a person of consequence in her view.

Ask a woman to go to church, and she wonders if her attire will stand critical inspection.

Praise a woman's hat and she at once seeks a mirror.

WATCH THE WHITE STAR BUGGY

If you could come out to the factory and watch us make a "White Star Buggy" and see with what discriminating care every item (and there are many of them) enters into the composition of a completed vehicle, you would readily understand how easy it is for us to make so many claims of superiority. Besides the highest quality, strength, durability, and unobtrusive design, we make still another claim that the "White Star Buggy" is the lightest running vehicle made. National Bank Now Open for Business

The National Bank of Statesboro has opened for business. While they are still in temporary quarters at the office of The Simmons Co., they are doing some business in the way of opening up their books and making other preparations to begin work, which they hope to do in the stand now occupied by the Sea Island bank on January the first. President Brooks Simmons is getting everything in shape to do first class banking business. Cashier J. E. McCroan is on hand and has already taken hold.

Judge Speer Attacks Lynching in Georgia.

Savannah, Nov. 28.—Judge Emory Speer, of the United States district court, in charging the grand jury of that body today referred at great length to what he characterized as the lawlessness existing in all sections of the country. He spoke particularly of the recent outrages at Statesboro which is in his jurisdiction and suggested that the better class of whites and blacks in the south should hold conferences looking to the enforcement of law and the punishment of the guilty. He severely criticized the Georgia law, which prevents the judge who hears a case from expressing an opinion as to the facts brought out.

As to the prevalence of crime Judge Speer compared the large cities of the country with those in Europe to the detriment of the former.

Head About to Burst From Severe Bilious Attack.

"I had a severe bilious attack and felt like my head was about to burst when I got hold of a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I took a dose of them after supper and the next day felt like a new man and have been feeling happy ever since," says Mr. J. W. Smith of Jullif, Texas. For bilious, stomach troubles and constipation these Tablets have no equal. Price 25 cents. For sale by all druggists.

Primary Passes Off Quietly.

The municipal primary passed off in an unusually quiet manner on Wednesday. The polls were held open from 8 o'clock to 4 in the afternoon. The election box was in the ordinary office and was held by Judge E. D. Holland and Messrs. W. N. Hall and J. T. Mikell. There were 95 votes cast and the result was as follows:

For Mayor: G. S. JOHNSTON.
For Councilmen: J. G. BLITCH, W. H. SIMMONS, A. J. FRANKLIN, J. H. DONALDSON, W. G. RAINES.

Early in the morning a ticket was printed with the above names on it and it was voted straight with only a few exceptions.

There were a number of scattering complimentary votes, but as none of the gentlemen who were voted for were candidates we will not give the number of these votes. The regular election will be held tomorrow.

Should Get Better Insurance Rates

We have been told heretofore that the reason that our insurance rate was so high, was that we had no water works or other appliances for fighting fire. Now that our water work system is about completed, one which will be equal that of any city this size, our overburdened insurance payers naturally turn to the subject and ask: "What kind of a rate are they going to give us now?" We understand that there will be a general readjustment of fire insurance rates soon, and that we can expect some reduction from the present tariff.

The amount of money taken out of this city for fire insurance during a year is getting to be quite an item, one over which we should give some attention now, and see that we are given the same showing that other cities in our class are accorded.

New Railroad Gets Charter.

Macon, Ga., Nov. 28.—A special to the Telegraph from Atlanta, says: Secretary of State Cook today granted an application for charter for the Savannah, Statesboro, and Northern railway company. The company is to be capitalized at $5,000,000 divided into shares of the value of $100 each. Of this sum $1,800,000 is to be common stock and $1,200,000 preferred stock and the general offices of the Savannah, Statesboro and Northern railway company are to be located in Savannah. The company was chartered for a period of one hundred and one years with the privilege of renewal under the law. The length of the line is to be about 100 miles, and its general direction follows:

From Statesboro to Louisville, northwest; from Louisville to Thomson, a little north of west; from Thomson to Washington, northwest; from Washington to Athens, northwest.

The line when completed will run through sections of Bulloch, Emanuel, Burke, Jefferson, Glascock, Warren, Wilkes, Oglethorpe, Clark and McDuffie counties in the state of Georgia.

The petitioners whose names are signed to the application for the charter are as follows: W. H. Lynn, of New York; Cecil Gabbett, J. A. Brannen, J. G. Blitch, J. W. Olliff, R. Simmons, W. B. Martin, W. C. Parker, S. C. Groover, S. L. Moore, J. F. Brannen, W. T. Smith, J. H. Donaldson, and B. T. Outland, of Statesboro, and J. S. Franklin, of Port, Georgia.

$1,400.00 STOLEN!

The above amount of money was stolen from a prominent citizen at Abbeville, Ga. He had collected the money and instead of putting the same in a bank he carried it home and put in a trunk. The hinges were taken off of his trunk while he was up town and the money stolen.

So many people living in the country make this fearful mistake. The safest and most reliable place to keep your money is in your home bank, where you can always get it, and when you want it.

Statesboro's Great Cotton Market.

In order to find out the true greatness of the Statesboro cotton market, a man has to go away from town and hear the folks talk in the adjoining counties. The New man made a short trip over on the Seaboard the other day, we found the people of Claxton, Hagan and all towns on the Seaboard Air Line talking of shipping their cotton to Statesboro instead of Savannah. Some of them have tried our market this season already and say they got much better results on sea island cotton than they did in Savannah. One man at Claxton stated that he had shipped a hundred bales to Savannah, and if the Register & Glennville railroad had been completed into Claxton in time as it will be in the next few days, he would have shipped every bale of it to this place. He was satisfied that he would have saved money by doing so.

Other men in his town had done so and got better prices for their cotton than he had. He thought that with the completion of the R. & G. to Claxton that practically all the cotton from that section of Tattal would come to Statesboro.

Mr. James T. Lee Dead.

On Tuesday at his home five miles east of this place, after a long illness with cancer, Mr. James T. Lee breathed his last. The deceased was one of Bulloch's most solid and substantial citizens, and in his death the community suffers a distinct loss. He was a prominent member of the Primitive Baptist church and was a true man in every respect. The remains were interred at the East Side cemetery in Statesboro on yesterday.

Attention Subscribers

The publishers of The News are sending out cards to all who are due us for subscription. These amounts are all small, but we need them to pay our expenses with, and we ask all those who get them to take the trouble to call when they come to town and settle or send it in to us by mail. We are putting out a twice-a-week paper—one of the few county papers in Georgia who give their subscribers a twice-a-week paper at the price of a once-a-week—hence we must have money for every one of them that we send out, so don't neglect to attend to this matter at once.

Meeting Was Postponed

The meeting of the directors of the Savannah and Statesboro Railroad Co., which was to have been held in Savannah on Tuesday, was postponed until some time in the near future. Mr. Gabbett has gone to New York to look after the road's proposed extension. A charter was obtained in Atlanta on Monday and now all seems to be ready to take up another line of the work. Mr. Gabbett is expected back in a few days when some new developments are expected.

INSULTING RETORT

Mississippi Governor Spurns Compliment of Roosevelt.

HIS ACTION CONDEMNED

President Praised State's Exhibit and Building at World's Fair, and Vardaman's Marks Scathing Reply.

Quite the biggest sensation of the year was stirred up in Jackson, Miss., Wednesday afternoon when the following telegram was given out by the governor:

"St. Louis, November 27, 1904.—Hon. James K. Vardaman, Governor of Mississippi, Jackson, Miss.—The president's visit to the exposition yesterday was greatly enjoyed by himself and appreciated by the exposition management, and the people, who welcomed him in large numbers.

"He saw and admired the Mississippi building and expressed great satisfaction at the participation of your state.

DAVID R. FRANCIS, "President."

Governor Vardaman replied as follows:

"Hon. David R. Francis, President of World's Fair Commission, St. Louis, Mo.—Your courteous message informing me that the president saw and admired the Mississippi building and expressed great satisfaction at the state's participation in the fair has been received. I thank you for this information. It is of course, gratifying to the people of Mississippi to know that the president has seen and admired the present exhibition of the United States. Doubtless the president's admiration of the Mississippi building is due to his admiration of Jefferson Davis, of whose home it is a replica, and to congratulate you on the management of the greatest exposition the world has ever known.

"JAMES K. VARDAMAN."

Both the daily papers of Jackson, which are democratic, condemn the telegram of Governor Vardaman.

The news says: "The people of Mississippi expect more of their governor than a display of small petty hatred. They expect him to be a broad-minded man, who in every regulation of life will meet courtesy by courtesy."

The Clarion Ledger says: "Governor Vardaman has made the mistake of mixing politics, sectional feeling and personal dislikes with state, national and business affairs, when he made a sarcastic reply that will be quoted from Maine to California, from New Orleans to Kalamazoo, to the injury and discredit of the great state of Mississippi."

A large number of telegrams from prominent citizens of Jackson have been sent to President Francis, of the world's fair, expressing their hearty approval of the language and spirit of the Vardaman telegram, and thanking President Roosevelt for his kind expressions.

Entered at the post office at Statesboro as 2nd class matter

Statesboro, Ga., Friday, Dec. 9 1904

Statesboro still leads the world on sea island cotton receipts.

Clear up new lands, build wire fencing, grade our public roads, is now the duty of our people.

The statements of the banks in Bulloch show that we have in deposits of cash, over one-quarter of a million of dollars.

It looks like the surplus in the cotton crop will go into mules and red wheel buggies this season in Bulloch county.

Judge Speer's charge to the Grand Jury in Savannah was able, sensible and eloquent. He did well not to try to override the laws of the state, and to attempt jurisdiction where he had none. We congratulate him on his good southern sense.

The harping critic, in places like Savannah, delights to throw off on Bulloch about lynching. We trust those Pharisees will look after their own community, where gambling, Sunday desecration, murder, fraudulent elections, and ballot stealing, and other crimes are rampant. The county wants no advice from such roosters as to how to run their business.

Out in Colorado they still remember Gov-elect Douglas, who, when a young man, conducted a cobbler shop in Golden, says the Boston Record. His shop was in a little wooden shack which stood about where the Crawford House is now located, and his fellow-townsmen little dreamed that "Will" Douglas would one day be among the leading shoe manufacturers of the world, to say nothing of becoming chief executive of the old Bay State.

Former Senator George E. Edmunds recently visited one of the mountain hamlets in Vermont where he had not been for many years. Despite the fact that it was near a railroad, it appeared not to have increased in size or changed a whit in thirty years. "What's your population now?" the senator asked the local hotel keeper. "Oh, something between 1,900 and 1,400." "Why, the place used to have nearly 2,000 didn't it?" "Yep, that's so." "Tain't so big as 'twas." "Well, I guess babies arnet born here very frequently, are they?" "Oh, 'bout once."

Killed The Negro Whom He Went To Arrest

Americus, Ga., Nov. 80.—William Jordan, a negro under indictment for burglary, was instantly killed near Americus this morning by H. C. Boss, a deputized officer sent to arrest him. Jordan made stubborn resistance and seized an ax, but before he could strike Boss, the officer drove his knife into Jordan's jugular, killing him instantly. The officer was then attacked by the wife and son of the negro killed, one wielding the ax and the other a club, but finally eluded them and left the scene. The killing, while regretted, was wholly justifiable.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. E. Beall of Beall, Miss. has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by W. H. Ellis Druggist. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

SUMMONS ISSUED; THEN RECALLED.
(Savannah News)

Only by the narrowest margin did the present United States grand jury escape being compelled to pass upon the guilt or innocence of certain persons alleged to have been implicated in the Statesboro lynching.

Though not intended as an order of the grand jurors to look into the Bulloch county affair, the charge of Judge Speer was construed by some to be a gentle hint to "get busy" and look into the matter. Steps looking to that end were at once taken.

The matter was looked at in its different lights and at last a ground was found on which it was believed the government could take cognizance of the burning and attempt to punish the persons participating in it. Preparations were then started to secure the needed witnesses to establish the case against those to be accused.

Subpoenas were issued, though just how many was not learned. These were handed to a deputy marshal, one of those "seek and find" personages needed by the United States. His instructions were to take the late train on Monday night for Bulloch county, descend upon the persons named in the official summons, and bring them to the court room in time for the session yesterday afternoon of the grand jury.

STUMBLED ON A SNAG. Things looked cheerful for the government and somewhat gloomy for any who might have been on the anxious bench, when the information leaked out as to what was under way. Then there was a hurried consultation of statute books, a quick review of supreme court decisions, and the deputy marshal was gently informed that he should postpone his projected trip.

In the opinion of those who were consulted there was no clause under which the men could be indicted, even if proof of their complicity in the lynching was afforded. No federal prisoners were molested, no government officers were attacked, and no United States property damaged. Even that very elastic "due process of law" clause, which is construed to fit almost anything, could not hold here, as it is leveled at states and not individuals.

The subpoenas were then laid away in a final resting place and an effort made to hush up all the rumors of what had taken place. This effort failed, however, and it gradually became known that some steps had been taken.

AFTER THE INFORMATION. When the public announcement was made yesterday morning through the Morning News that the Statesboro affair had been considered, there was "something doing" among the court officials and attaches. Nearly every one had a theory as to who gave forth the information and all manner of suspicions were aired.

Even the grand jurors are rumored to have taken a hand in this investigation and each member was closely questioned. As far as can be learned, however, the informant has not yet been discovered. For a time denials of the facts were heard, but these were dropped later, and there was tacit admission that the rumor had truth in it. Later in the day the suppression of the subpoena was learned. An effort was made last night to learn on what grounds the matter had been brought up and on the strength of which the summons were issued, but without avail. All that could be learned was that a decision of the supreme court was clearly against the United States having jurisdiction and that therefore the matter was dropped.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, under the Methodist regime, the pastorate of our beloved brother and pastor, Rev. Whitley Langston, is now at an end, and his connection with our church must terminate at the ensuing annual conference, by virtue of the Methodist statute of pastoral limitation;

Now, therefore, be it resolved, by the official members of the Statesboro Methodist church, embracing both the old and newly elected boards of stewards, in joint session gathered, that:

First. We, as officials of this church, do congratulate both Brother Langston and the church upon the zealous and faithful service that he has rendered through these four years of toil among us, and we congratulate both him and ourselves upon the remarkable advances the church has made under his ministry and leadership. In this connection we are happy to mention the increase of membership, the increased attendance and general interest in the church, the unity of our membership, the flourishing condition of the various auxiliaries and societies of the church, the building of our commodious and well-appointed house of worship, the notable stand taken by the church under his leadership from time to time against the liquor troubles and other forms of evil that have occasionally menaced us, and last and most all we congratulate him and the church upon the exemplary Christian life that he has lived among us, combatting sin and evil at every point, yielding nothing to the enemies of the Kingdom, and with faithfulness counselling and teaching the people in the ways of righteousness.

Second. We regret that Brother and Sister Langston must leave us, but in their going they carry with them the love and esteem, the well wishes, and the prayers of the people in Statesboro, among whom they have so faithfully labored.

Third. We pray that the good work so faithfully begun under his pastorate here may grow and flourish, and that the seed sown may spring up into an abundant harvest, to the glory of the Lord, in whose name he has so usefully ministered.

Fourth. We wish him God-speed in his new field of labor, wherever it may please the bishop and cabinet, under God's direction, so bid him go for another year, and we cordially commend him and his faithful Christian wife to the church and people to whom he shall be sent.

Fifth. We desire that a copy of these resolutions be presented to Brother Langston, that another copy be sent to the chairman of the board of stewards of the church to which Brother Langston shall be assigned, and that a copy be likewise sent to each of the local papers with request to publish.

Passed by unanimous vote, November 28, 1904.
J. A. FULCHER, Chairman.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of a grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Egleson and Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, adding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip. These tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold attack of the grip. For sale by all druggists."

To Warn the People
Of My Territory.

When you buy a sewing machine, buy the best. It cost but little more and gives better satisfaction and does it five times as long. The Singer has no competition in quality.

If what I say of the Singer machine is not true I will make the finder of as good a machine as the Singer a present of a nice machine. Remember I repair all makes of machines and know what I am talking about. If your machine don't work when I repair it, it cost you nothing. Don't be deceived, listen to the song of the Singer.

Congressional Returns.

Macon News. Just as there were more votes cast in different states for the Democratic candidates for governors than were voted for the Democratic presidential candidates, so in Georgia the consolidated vote for the Democratic candidates for congress was larger than was cast for the Parker and Davis electors. The congressional vote was 94,898, with three counties yet to be heard from, namely, Cherokee and Rabun, in the Ninth district, and Columbia in the Tenth district. The vote for the Democratic presidential ticket in Georgia was 88,881.

Answer This Question, Boys.

Mr. Editor: I see that the stock law is being agitated. I suppose they mean no fence law. Now, I don't propose to take sides either for or against, but will simply ask one question which I want some one to answer through the columns of your paper, and if a satisfactory answer is given I will have no more to say.

We all know that farmers plant peas, pinders and obfus to fatten their hogs, and it is necessary to turn them in the fields in the fall of the year. We can't afford to fatten from the barn altogether. Now the question is this: Suppose we had the no fence law, and when you get up some morning you should find forty or fifty head of your neighbor's hogs in your potato patch, and your potatoes rooted up and your cane "chawed" up, and as you look down side the branch you see another bunch of hogs in your pinder field, have you got religion enough to keep you from "cussing"? You know that it is wrong to cuss, and if you cuss it might cause some one else to cuss which would be mighty bad. The governor might call out the military, but there isn't enough of them in the state to keep the hogs separate in this one county, unless they display better military tactics than they do at a lynching.

Respectfully sub mitted,
B. W. D.

SHORT STATES

HIS PLATFORM.

Augusta, Nov. 29.—(Special.) Hon. Boykin Wright, in a statement made this afternoon, announces his position on some of the important state issues.

He does not announce for governor, but says he prefers to put off the formal announcement for a year or so, until he finds out how his candidacy would be viewed and exactly on what issue the people would like to have the campaign pitched. In the course of a long definition of his position he says:

"I, in common with a great many other conservative citizens, have some deep convictions on the subject of corporate interference in politics.

"I believe in state control of corporations and not corporate control of the state. If, as has often and so vehemently been charged, great railroad systems come into our state and seek by themselves or through their agents to select our representatives and other high public officials, I believe that the best interests of the people and of the railroad alike will suffer and that such interference on the part of the railroads and other corporations in the politics of our state begets a feeling of antagonism for railroad corporations that should not exist, so long as such corporations remain in their legitimate sphere.

"On the other hand, I would be untrue to my state and to my own solemn convictions if I did not say that when these powerful corporations go outside of their legitimate business and seek to control either the legislative, executive, or judicial departments of our government the strong arm of the people should be raised to restrain them.

"At any rate, these are my views, and I want more time to find out how the people feel on this subject, and if they agree with me, whether they think I, or one of the other of my competitors, is in a better position to represent their views on the question.

"TAKE MONEY FOR CAMPAIGN.

"Again, it is said that it takes a great deal of money to make a modern up to date campaign for high office; enough, I am told, to greatly impair the fortune of the average man in my class.

"If it should become necessary for me to spend such an amount, this itself would put me out of the race, for I have not the money myself and would not receive it, or any part of it, from any railroad or other corporation, even to be governor.

"Then there is still another thing I am waiting to find out. Four years ago some very distinguished Georgians, when some of my friends were trying to make me announce for governor, asked me to wait, and said they would give me their support for governor four years hence.

"I want little more time to see what fruits those promises have born, or will probably bear, in the approaching campaign. I want to give them ample time and do not desire to appear either impetunate or distrustful.

"Then, again, I want to see how effective will be this movement to sell off my candidacy with the aid of certain people who have made much to fight the democratic party to every turn and to oppose and nullify every democrat who has dared to defend his party against such onslaught.

"The know it has been a favorite device of certain leading politicians for many years, to express regret that I would not be an available candidate because of the opposition it might incite among those in the party who have been former populists.

"I have never said much on the subject nor complained at all, but recently I have been investigating the question a little, and am rapidly reaching the conclusion that those timid democrats have been doing both the restored populist and myself injustice in thinking that they are still harboring the animosities of ten years ago, when the white people of the state unhappily divided into warring factions.

"I have come to the conclusion that this sentiment is nothing but a political fake, over 90 per cent of the populists of Richmond county voluntarily voted for me for the legislature and against my competitors in a race in which every effort was made to revive their prejudices against me, it failed, here at home.

"I want more time to find out if it will not fail elsewhere for the same reason.

"Those populist who have come back into the democratic party voted for me because they knew I had been earnest and consistent ever since the war between the Democrats and populists ceased in my efforts to eliminate the negro and unite the whites in a democratic white primary to maintain white supremacy.

"They know that I demanded they should be permitted to return to the democratic party without apology and without lowering the colors of their honest convictions, and that ever since then I have stood by them and defended them in the enjoyment of every political right inside the party.

"But I want to see if this little effort to prejudice my candidacy with them will be more effective in other sections of the state than here at home, so far I have considered the white democratic primary system so long and so successfully in vogue in Georgia as the best and fairest means to that end, but if the effort now being made to again divide the white people of this state prove successful and as a result of this disastrous policy the negro is again thrust into our politics as a balance of power to decide the difference between our white citizens. Then I am in favor of adopting still other means to eliminate him altogether."

No More Suffering

If you are troubled with indigestion get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and see how quickly it will cure you. Geo. A. Thomson, of Spencer, Ia., says: "Have had dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few bottles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it. Have doctored with local physicians and also at Chicago, and even went to Norway with hopes of getting some relief, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I heartily recommend it. Every person suffering with indigestion or dyspepsia should use it." Sold by W. H. Ellis.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve," writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for piles, cuts and burns for years and can recommend it to be the best salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as it is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my neck for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for over two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without leaving a scar. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

White Man's Word

Against Four Negroes

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 30.—William H. Slaughter, Jr., charged with the murder of G. F. Sander, was discharged by Acting Police Court Judge Wilson at the examining trial today. The court said no witness had denied Slaughter's statement that he had been struck first by Sander. He said the testimony of Slaughter, a reputable citizen, was of greater weight than that of four negroes, who testified that Slaughter had kicked Sander after the latter had fallen.

Judge Wilson said that he did not think a jury would find the defendant guilty.

On Thanksgiving day Messrs. Jack and Jim Waters and Berry A. Davis joined Mr. Chas. Lester in a deer hunt near Byrds bridge on Black creek.

Mr. John McNeil was in town Saturday wearing an unusually bright smile; a bounding boy in his home.

Four solid cars of freight left our port Saturday, but then that is quite usual for Brooklet.

The young folks had a surprise party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Warnock Thanksgiving night, and although it was unexpected and a complete surprise, the Misses Warnock entertained them beautifully and served delicious refreshments.

Miss Rosalie Carson, principal of the Hubert high school was the guest of Mrs. B. E. Proctor Saturday and Sunday. Miss Carson is an unusually attractive and intelligent lady and an ardent admirer of the Bulloch county people.

The Gypsy camps on the western suburbs of the city is quite a drawing card for horse traders. They have better stock than is usually found in the camps.

On his trip to St. Louis Friday President Roosevelt at Denison, Ohio, was presented with a live coon for good luck. It is to be supposed that it had four legs.

Mr. Tom Waters, of Jay, was trading in our town Saturday. Like many of our substantial farmers he knows where to get his money's worth.

Prof. I. T. Davis, of Statesboro, began a singing school at Corinth church Monday with a good attendance.

Mrs. J. W. Rogers, of Grimshaw, is quite ill with lagrippe.

FOR LETTERS OF DISMISSION.

Georgia, Bulloch County.

Whereas, S. S. and S. F. Sanders, executors of Mrs. Caroline E. Sanders, represent to the court in their petition, duly filed and entered on record, that they have fully administered Mrs. Caroline E. A Certain Cure For Croup

When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is no preparation that can at any time be depended upon. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail, viz: Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. M. F. Compson of Market, Texas, says of it, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it always gives prompt relief." For sale by All Druggists.

STRAYED.

From my place near Echo, Ga., last March, one good size white and brown spotted bull, marked as follows: Crop and round hole in one ear, and crop and half crop in the other. Will appreciate any information as to his whereabouts. This Nov. 10, 1904.

ST. LOUIS FAIR AT AN END.

St. Louis, Dec. 1.—The Louisiana Purchase Exposition has ended. The stupendous and magnificent exposition whose tendrils of interest have extended into every portion of the civilized world, and even into aboriginal recesses, bringing within the gates of St. Louis millions of visitors from throughout the entire world, has run its course and now passes into history as probably having comprised the representative collection of the resources, industries, art, peoples and customs of the world ever assembled.

The best order has been maintained throughout; there have been a few fires but all were of small moment, with the exception of the destruction of the house of Hoo-Hoo and the partial destruction of the Missouri building recently. The former was immediately rebuilt. No loss of life has occurred during the exposition from accidents. St. Louis has professed her most gracious hospitality to the world and it has been accepted.

THE FAIR A SUCCESS.

Throng of visitors have poured in to attend the exposition with the expectation of being pleased and satisfied. They have departed amazed and gratified. The opinion has been expressed at all times, on all sides and without reserve that the Louisiana Purchase exposition has been a success.

The man probably the most prominently known in connection with the world's fair is the president, David R. Francis, and it was deemed fitting that the final day should be designated as "Francis Day" in his honor.

"This exposition has been the work of my life," said President Francis. "It has consumed my time for the past four years but every hour has been an hour of pleasure to me. I have exhausted my stock of adjectives in trying to describe this fair. It is as difficult to do it justice as it is to plant the lily.

The closing exercises were held at the base of the Louisiana Purchase monument in the plaza of St. Louis, where were held seven months ago the exercises that formally opened the gates to the world. The principal speeches delivered were by Governor Dockery of Missouri and President Francis.

A NEW ERA.

President Francis in his address spoke of the lasting influence of the fair which "marks a new epoch in the intellectual and industrial advancement of the world, and the dawn of a new era in the international relations of governments and people." In conclusion he said:

"May this enterprise with which we have been connected for nearly seven years past bring into still closer brotherhood all the nations and the peoples who have participated in it. May it deepen our patriotism. May it strengthen our love for a benign providence that smiles upon us."

Promptly at four o'clock all the great exhibit palaces were closed and visitors were excluded. In the palace of agriculture onslaughts were made on some of the exhibits where the settings were composed of straw and fragile material and for a time general demolition was threatened, but prompt action in effecting a general ejection put a stop to the threatened turmoil. As the night drew on throngs concentrated the main avenues to view for the last time the magnificent electric illumination. One solid stream of humanity swept through
