IVANHOE.

We hear from Hubert occasionally, why not give Ivanhoe a space in the News.

Mr. Frank Warnock who has been ill with pneumonia is slowly improving we are glad to state.

Mrs. Sallie Purvis, of Eldora, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Wright of this place on Saturday.

Our school at Ivanhoe academy is progressing nicely under the skillful management of our accomplished teacher, Miss Mattie Cone. We have an enrollment of thirty-eight pupils. Our county school commissioner paid us a visit one day last week, and made a splendid talk to the children. We are glad to know he was well pleased with the work that is being accomplished here. He said that the Ivanhoe school was one of the most wide awake schools that he had yet visited. That speaks well for our teacher and pupils. We hope to have him call again.

Mr. J. M. Martin who has been confined to his room for several days is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Griner returned from Clito Sunday, where they have been visiting Mrs. Griner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson.

Mr. I. G. Lanier, of Argyle, was a pleasant visitor at the home of Mr. J. W. Wright one day this week.

City Court In Session.

The regular monthly session of the city court has been holding this week. There was only two criminal cases tried, one that of the State vs. T. H. Burns, charged with riot resulted in a mistrial, this is the second mistrial we have seen in this same case. Another case was that of the State vs. Henry Smith, colored, charged with cheating and swindling, he was acquitted.

There were no litigated civil cases tried at all. The session was a fairly tame one, nothing sensational developing.

A Novel Introduction.

Dr. Howard Co. Make a Special Price.
The Dr. Howard Company have entered into an arrangement with W. H. Ellis drug store, by which a special introductory offer will be made of 25 cents on the 50 cent size of their celebrated specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia.

This medicine is a new discovery for the cure of all diseases of the stomach and bowels. It not only gives quick relief; it makes permanent cures. So remarkably successful has Dr. Howard's specific been in curing constipation, dyspepsia and all forms of liver trouble, that W. H. Ellis will return the price paid in every case where it does not give relief.

The old-fashioned idea of doing with mineral waters, cathartic pills or harsh purgative will soon be a thing of the past. The best physicians are prescribing Dr. Howard's specific, both because it is so remarkable a medicine and on account of the small dose that is needed.

Headaches, coated tongue, dizziness, gas on the stomach, specks before the eyes, constipation and all forms of malarkia and liver trouble are soon cured by this scientific medicine.

TO BE SURE you are making no mistake, the proprietors of the WORLD'S greatest Throat and Lung Remedy offer you a trial bottle free through their advertised Druggist in your town. FOR CURING A COUGH OR A COLD there's nothing half as good as Bulloch Represented On State Committee.

Mr. J. R. Miller, of The Statesboro News has been appointed one of the three members of the state executive committee of the southern Cotton Growers' association.

When the list came out it was published as Augustus Miller, of Bulloch. Hon. Martin V. Calvin, a member of the committee, informs us that it was the man who carried "The Handsome Bulloch County Fair Exhibit" who was appointed, and not remembering the initials at the time, the name went out wrong. There is no one in Bulloch by the name of Augustus Miller that we know of.

The other two members of the committee are, Hon. W. W. Bush, of Calhoun county, and Hon. W. L. Peek, of Rockdale county.

Appointments

Elder H. Temples, Lord willing, will fill the following appointments:

Monday after 2nd Sunday in April at The Lake; Tuesday following, Lower Lotts Creek; Wednesday, Ephesus; Thursday, Rest; Friday, DeLoaches; Saturday and 8rd Sunday, Upper Black Creek; Monday, Middleground.

He will be dependent upon the brethren for conveyance.

By The Tonic Route

The pills that act as a tonic, and not as a drastic purge, are DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure headache, constipation, biliousness, etc. Early Risers are small, easy to take and easy to act—a safe pill. Mack Hamilton, hotel clerk at Valley City, N. D. says: "Two bottles cured me of chronic constipation." Sold by W. H. Ellis.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miller Dead.

On Friday last at the home of her son, Mr. F. M. Miller, about eight miles from town, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, one of Bulloch's oldest women, passed quietly to her reward.

The deceased was 70 odd years of age, and it is thought that her age had a great deal to do with her death. The remains were interred at Macedonia cemetery on Saturday afternoon by the side of many other ancestors who had gone before. Rev. T. J. Cobb conducted the funeral services. There was a large crowd out.

The deceased was the mother of Rev. J. J. Miller and Mr. F. M. Miller, Mrs. Jasper N. Woods, and Mrs. Levy Newton, all of this county. She leaves a large number of friends and relatives to mourn her loss.

Killing at Pulaski

Bud Parish, colored, was killed by a negro by the name of Newton on Saturday afternoon in a row at Pulaski. It seems that the brother of Newton had been in a row with the Parish negroes the night before, and he was mistaken next day for the same man, and the row was started anew. Both negroes had guns, but Newton got the drop on Parish and shot him down. Then the Newton negro turned to run; he was pursued by a half dozen or more of other negroes who fired at him as he went. After chasing him for about a mile he was lost but came up yesterday and surrendered. It is claimed that when he shot he did so in self defense.

Little Girl Burned

Bairbridge, Ga., March 8.—Olive, the three-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Harrell, was burned to death here this afternoon. The little girl was playing with a box of matches, which she ignited in some manner, and before help could reach her the flames had burned her face and body frightfully. The little one lingered in agony for several hours, dying about dusk this afternoon.

Mrs. E. A. Harrell, the child's grandmother, was badly burned about the hand in attempting to put out the flames. She reached the little girl too late to save her. The accident occurred in the rear of Mr. Harrell's home. The affair has prostrated the family, and shocked the entire city.

$1,400 00
STOLEN!

The above amount of money was stolen from a prominent citizen at Abbeville, Ga. He had collected the money and instead of putting the same in a bank he carried it home and put in a trunk. The hinges were taken off of his trunk while he was up town and the money stolen.

So many people living in the country make this fearful mistake. The safest and most reliable place to keep your money is in your home bank, where you can always get it, and when you want it.

Pulaski to Be Incorporated

Steps are being taken to incorporate the town of Pulaski, and put the place under the protection of a municipal government. A list is being gotten up asking for this end.

After Twenty Years.

Twenty years ago, Mr. James Donaldson, one of Bulloch's oldest and most highly respected citizens living near Register, lost $25 in paper money. He had been playing in the peach orchard the day he lost it, and consequently, the ground was all scratched up to find the lost money, but a most thorough search failed to reveal its whereabouts, and it was given up as lost.

One day last week Mr. Donaldson took down an old bible that was given him by his mother years ago, one that had not been used for the reason that there was another family bible in the house. He opened its pages and the $25 bills dropped out. They had been there for all these years where he had placed them and forgotten it.

Saw Mill Burned.

On Saturday the saw mill of Messrs. Proctor & Burns, between Stillson and Hubert was burned. The property is a total loss, just how much we failed to learn. It is understood that they will rebuild at once.

Chloroform the Old Men

Recently Dr. Osier, an expert on matters connected with the brain and an authority on many other subjects, was quoted in the papers as having expressed the opinion that a man ceased to be useful after he passed his fortieth birthday, and that all men over sixty should be chloroformed. This reported assertion created much interest and many papers made a vigorous reply. This caused Dr. Osier to make the following corrections:

"I have been so misquoted in the papers that I should like to make the following statement: 'First—I did not state that men at 60 should be chloroformed. That was the point in the novel to which I referred, and on which the plot hinged.

"Second—Nothing in the criticisms have shaken my conviction that the telling work of the world has been done and is done by men under 40 years of age. The exceptions which have been given only illustrate the rule.

"Third—It would be for the general good if men at 60 were relieved from active work. We should miss the energies of some young old men, but on the whole it would be of the greatest service to the sexagenarians themselves.

It looks very much to us as if this discussion will convince nobody. Dr. Osier may be right, but who will believe him? What man over 40 will consent to be called a back number and what man over 60 will agree that he is out of date?

Dr. Osier should go to England and stay there—Courier-Dispatch.

D. C. Procter

I want to say something about
"Uncle Dave Procter," because he was my friend and I was his. I missed the paper and just now had a letter telling me he passed over the River on December 8, 1904, age 78.

He belonged to the type that is passing so rapidly away, the plain, candid, hospitable, sincere old-fashioned man.
The first time I ever went to States-boro to preach, about 1878, "Uncle Dave" met and took me to his home,
showed me every kindness and attention and on through the years he was always the same man to me. He was one of the charter members of the Statesboro Baptist church, and though not rich in this world's goods he did what he could, was generally in his place, and while others changed he remained to the last, and with his aged companion was about the last of the charter members. I was his pastor during three different periods and he was always kind and true to me and the interests of religion. He loved the old story and his face is indelibly photographed on my memory as he would sit listening, silent and tearful
in his joy.

It would require a volume of good recollections to relate all memory recalls of him. When I was crippled in 1900, "Uncle Dave" came to see me often than any one except the doctor, and I learned to look for him, was glad when he came, and when he left. He said so many times, "I love you and am sorry for you and long to help you." And he did help me.
Bless the memory of the dear old
man.

I was much in his home, saw his younger children grow to manhood and womanhood, married one or more of them, visited them in sickness and preached to them. How anxious he was for the salvation of every one and often asked me to pray for them. I trust that the old man's earnest desire for the salvation of all his children will be realized if it has not been already.

They are passing. As I read the News from week to week it tells me of old friends crossing over. "Man that is born of woman is of few days and full of trouble. He cometh forth like a flower and is cut down; he fleeth like a shadow and continueth not." Soon
all of us will be on the other side.
Hope heads ahead to a brighter, better world.

We commend the bereaved family to the God of all comforts and pray the Lord to guide and comfort them.

Italian Laborers In South. Savannah News.

While it isn't a fact that the introduction of Italian laborers
throughout Georgia has passed the experimental stage, as imited in an Augusta dispatch, it seems that those laborers give satisfaction in Griffin where quite a large number of them have been employed by a contracting firm.
It may be that Italians are employed in other parts of the state.
If so, the fact has not been reported to the newspapers.

We have no doubt that gradually Italian laborers will migrate to this and other Southern states in the country districts the negro laborer doesn't seem to be giving satisfaction. He is becoming too unreliable. He isn't ready to work when he is wanted and too often he is missing just at the time when the need of him is greatest.

Italians are making their way
into South Carolina and Alabama, according to recent reports. For several years they have been settling in Louisiana, some of them being well-to-do farmers in that state. Italian immigration, once turned towards the South the probabilities are it will steadily increase in volume.

A question is, does the South
particularly care for Italian immigrants? Are there not immigrants of other nationalities she would rather have? These are questions that should be considered. Will the German and Scandinavian settle where the Italian does? Italians from some sections of Italy make excellent citizens. Those from other parts are likely to remain laborers all their lives, or return to their native country as soon as they have accumulated a few hundred dollars.

The coming of these Italian laborers should be notification to the negro that if he doesn't become staidier, more reliable and thrifty he will have to migrate to some other section of the country. The Italian will run him out. The Italians have run the negro out of very many occupations at the North and they will do the same thing here in the South unless the negro becomes more worthy of the place he occupies.

Impoverished soil, like impover-

If your blood is impoverished

Two Verdicts

She was a woman, worn and thin,
Whom the world condemned for a single sin;
They cast her out of the kings' high-
way.
And passed her by as they went to pray
He was a man, and more to blame,
But the world spared him a breath of
shame,
Beneath his feet he saw her lie,
But raised his head and passed her by,
They were the people who went to
pray,
At the temple of God on a holy day,
They scorned the woman, forgave the
man;
It were ever thus since the world began.
Time passed on and the woman died—
On the Cross of shame she was crucified.
But the world was stern and would not
yield,
And they buried her in the Potter's
field.
The man died too, and they buried him
In a casket of cloth with a silver rim,
And said, as they turned from his
grave away,
"We have buried an honest man today."

stood face to face to inquire their fate.

IMPOVERISHED SOIL

Impoverished soil, like impoverished blood, needs a proper fertilizer. A chemist by analyzing the soil can tell you what fertilizer to use for different products.

If your blood is impoverished
your doctor will tell you what you need to fertilize it and give it the rich, red corpuscles that are lacking in it. It may be you need a tonic, but more likely you need a concentrated fat food, and fat is the element lacking
in your system.

Two Verdicts

She was a woman, worn and thin,
Whom the world condemned for a sin-
gle sin;
They cast her out of the kings' high-
way.
And passed her by as they went to pray
He was a man, and more to blame,
But the world spared him a breath of
shame,
Beneath his feet he saw her lie,
But raised his head and passed her by,
They were the people who went to
pray,
At the temple of God on a holy day,
They scorned the woman, forgave the
man;
It were ever thus since the world began.
Time passed on and the woman died—
On the Cross of shame she was crucified.
But the world was stern and would not
yield,
And they buried her in the Potter's
field.
The man died too, and they buried him
In a casket of cloth with a silver rim,
And said, as they turned from his
grave away,
"We have buried an honest man to-
day."

Two mortals knocked at heaven's gate
stood face to face to inquire their fate.
One said, "I have sinned with earthly signs.
But she a pardon from love divine.
Oh, ye who judge 'twixt virtue and vice."

Which think you, entered to Paradise?
Not he whom the world had said would win.
For a woman alone was ushered in.

Nature has poured forth her treasures in abundance, and upon the outcome of the harvest, the products of the farms, the forests, the fisheries and the mines is reared the structure of existing prosperity. Estimated at a total of nearly six billion dollars, there is small wonder when the chief contributors toward this great wealth, the harvests, yielded up their reckoning that recuperation in commercial and financial departments should have been accelerated.

Careful readers of the newspapers have not failed to observe the work of the agents of justice and to note how busy they have been in many parts of the country. The numerous accounts of serious violations of the statutes, not only in this Republic but in other nationalities, seem to indicate more than the average list of felonies—civilized people. It is possible that the publication of such a list of crimes in some measure due to improved methods of gathering and reporting the facts. But that by no means explains the whole criminal record. The year 1934 was not a season of widespread distress in America or Europe, although the Russian war with Japan has undoubtedly caused a great deal of misery and suffering. But the operations of criminals have been far-reaching, and the number of lives cut short by the pistol or the knife has been amazingly large.

WESTPOINT'S CADET DEBTORS

THEY PAY THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS AFTER GRADUATION.

Trusted For Four Years by a Jeweler, a Grocer, a Photographer and a Hotel Keeper in New York—Only Security is the Army Man's Word of Honor.

HERE is a small group of New York business men who will collect next summer an annual unsecured debt of several thousand dollars with as little difficulty as though the payment had been guaranteed by the signatures of every banker in Wall Street. The debtors are the members of the class of 1935 in the United States Military Academy at West Point. They owe the money principally for jewelry, confectionery, photographic work, and hotel bills. The pay after graduation credit system at the Point is as well established as the rest of the Academy's iron-bound and better known customs. Few, if any, of next June's class will emerge from their four years of toil free from debt, and the financial confidence their creditors have reposed in them has been practically unlimited. They could order whatever they liked, and some of them are "in for" as much as $500 or $700 apiece.

The result is that the "good spenders" will see their equipment funds wiped away immediately after graduation day. This fund is the accumulation of small monthly sums retained by Academy authorities from the cadets' salaries. It should aggregate about $300, which is intended to give the newly made army officer a start in the way of uniforms and incidental necessities. Fortunately the officer finds the same ease as the cadet in obtaining credit, so that the swamping of his fund simply prolongs his period of indebtedness. Whereas he owed money to New York photographers, hotel men and sweetmeat dealers before graduation, he afterwards owes it to the jeweler.

A well-known jewelry house, a big grocery firm, an uptown hotel proprietor, and a photographer are the most regular creditors of the cadets. From the jewelry store the embryo soldiers buy Christmas and wedding presents and the like.

"Enclosed find my visiting card," a cadet writes to the firm. "Please ship to me a suitable gift, costing $—." Sometimes he furnishes to the jeweler a more elaborate description of the person for whom the gift is intended—maybe his sweetheart in a far-off State, or his sister or his mother. The firm has a man who has studied the cadet's letters later what has been sent. The amount is placed on his account for settlement after he graduates. He should die or should be expelled, or for any reason should fail to "make good," his classmates club together to pay his bill, however large or small it may be. The merchant knows his money is sure to come.

"Do you have to pay interest?" a cadet was asked last week. "Oh, no," was the reply. "They charge us nothing for everything, so as to avoid the trouble of calculating interest."

From the grocery establishment, which carries candies and fruit as a side line, the cadets receive frequent shipments, especially during the summer camping time. "What do you do with the sweets? Are they for girls to the girls?" was inquired.

"Not a bit," said the cadet. "The girls who come to West Point give us candy by the pound. These candy boxes we get from New York are additional. Of course, it's against the rules for us to receive packages of any sort or money in letters. The grocer's ship the candies to a man we know in Highland Falls, which is a mile below West Point. The boxes are hauled up to us in a wagon and smuggled into camp or barracks."

THE PHOTOGRAPH ACCOUNT. If a young woman were to spend as much for photographs as does a West Point cadet, she would be open to the charge of extreme vanity. But the cadets have no vanity. They are the folks at home, calling for pictures of him and his uniform every little while. His young women friends—and he has many of them if he is a cadet of the usual calibre—are making similar demands, and there are scores of others. The result is that the New York camera man reaps a harvest of debts, which, like those of the other dealers, are as certain of payment as they are unsecured. The cadet never signs a note. There is a rumor that a recent cadet once attempted to build up a clientele at the academy and demanded written promises to pay, and that the cadets, indignant at the reflection on their honor, refused to sign. But the young men step in testing through New York during their frequent furloughs. For years the cadets have had a free rein there, getting whatever the house afforded without restriction as to cost. They register, eat, drink, occupy the best rooms available, use theatre tickets bought with money advanced by the house—all with no thought of paying until years or months afterward.

For the first time they begin to figure up their debts when the last year is well under way. About this time, for instance, the graduates-to-be of next June are acquiring a knowledge as to "where they will stand." "Possibly four or five men in our class," said one of them the other day.

One of the Green Kids. As the cadets to their high-spirited and animated discussion, there was a great crawling of necks among the other passengers, says the New York Sun. But the hush the voices became plainly audible to everybody.

"Your parrot may be a better talker than mine, although I don't believe it," said one of the women, with an air of presenting the final clinching argument in her own favor, "but you'll have to admit that mine has the most beautiful coloring."

A Gentleman has written to the press to say that the question in algebra set at a recent examination for cavalry officers and mounted as absurdly difficult in its way unreasonable, for it has been solved at the first attempt by a six-year-old school-girl. But our recollection is that all that was said was that it was absurdly difficult for cavalry candidates.—Punch.

DISLODGING SLAVS

Japs are Busy Driving Russians Into Mukden.

Renewal of Labor Outbreaks Threatened in St. Petersburg—Anarchy, Reigns in Moscow.

SUCCESSION OF VICTORIES

Mikado's Forces Capture Large Quantities of Stores While Driving the Enemy from Many Positions.

Advices received in Tokio from headquarters of the Japanese armies in Manchuria show that the Japanese activity on the extreme right continues. That wing is pressing forward and is dislodging the Russians. A dispatch from the front says: "Our troops in King King (Yendao) direction are occupying Tsing Ho-chong (Taishan) and surrounding the enemy northward. We captured large quantities of provisions at Tsing Ho-chong."

"Our force at Henshan is gradually dislodging the enemy from its position 13 miles northeast of Henshan and from another position 10 miles west of the first. Our force has pressed the enemy northward of the Shaihe river and has occupied Sunmuopai, Tiaochihutan and Sunmuopai, three miles north of Wajiao mountain."

"The enemy has many field and heavy siege guns on either side of the railroad heretofore unused and is now shelling us."

A dispatch from Tokio to The London Daily Telegraph states that the Japanese are endeavoring to force a decisive battle in Manchuria, but that it is feared General Kuropatkin will retreat, fighting a rear-guard action. Reports from the Shaihe river indicate, says the same correspondent, that the Russian morale is seriously impaired and there are numerous voluntary surrenders, not only of Poles and Jews, but of recently arrived European troops. They relate that rumors are current in the army that General Kuropatkin has been recalled and knowledge of the internal troubles in Russia causes a deep depression in the army.

Reports are current at Tokio, but not confirmed officially, that the Japanese have occupied Sakhalin. Chinese arriving in Niochwang from Mukden report that the Japanese have advanced almost to Mukden. The Russians having been reinforced have recaptured several positions out of which they had been driven. The battle is still raging.

DEADLY POISON IN MEDICINE.

Stuff Taken by Mrs. Stanford Heavily Charged With Strychnine. The receipt Thursday by the acting chief of police of San Francisco of a cablegram from High Sheriff Henry of Honolulu, stating that there were no less than 682 grains of strychnine in the bottle of bicarbonate of soda from which Mrs. Jane Stanford took a dose shortly before her death has aroused the whole detective force of San Francisco, and every effort is being made to discover who placed the poison in the medicine.

The bottle containing the bicarbonate of soda and its death poison originally was purchased in Australia, but, according to Miss Berner, Mrs. Stanford's private secretary, and the maid, May Hunt, the bottle was refilled in San Francisco at a local drug store. Dr. W. G. Stevens, a medical expert, made this positive statement: "Six hundred and sixty-two grains of strychnine easily would kill 602 persons. The maximum dose administered is only 1-15th of a grain, while the average is 1-40th of a grain."

The apparent absence of a plausible motive for such a crime baffles Mrs. Stanford's acquaintances, as well as the detectives. Revenge or any other factor are not regarded as possible motives of the question, and nothing has been shown to indicate that the victim obtained an expected inheritance could have prompted the deed.

Mrs. Stanford did not leave so large an estate as was supposed, for during her life she deeded the property she inherited from her husband to the regents of Stanford university, to be held in trust for that institution after her death.

READY TO RETREAT

Kuropatkin Tells Czar That Ground is Untenable.

Age are Delivering Crushing Blows on Every Side and Utter Disaster Seems in Store for the Great White Czar's Forces.

A St. Petersburg special, under date of February 23, is as follows: It is learned from a high source that General Kuropatkin considers his position on the Shaihe river to be menaced to such an extent by General Kurita's success on the left flank as to necessitate the immediate withdrawal of his army to the Tsa-Pass and has so advised Emperor Nicholas. No confirmation of this is obtainable in military circles here, where it is pointed out that, with the Japanese pressing the whole Russian line, such an operation must almost inevitably end in a disaster of the first magnitude.

Fighting Along Whole Line. A Mukden dispatch says: Fighting is in progress along the whole line. The Japanese attacking everywhere. All attacks Tuesday morning were beaten back, and the Russians made counter attacks at many places. On the right flank the Russians occupied the village of Botatzi, which is close to Sandiapi, and from that position burst head grenades across the intervening ravine into the Japanese trenches in Sandiapi, causing heavy loss and great disorder.

The Russians have seized the head of the bridge across the Shaihe river in the center of the Japanese lines as assisted by artillery firing of particular energy from Puttloff hill and Novgorod hill. Ten determined attacks opposite Yanshi-Tung and west of Vansput were all repulsed with heavy loss. The situation on the Russian left flank is unchanged as compared with Monday evening.

The seizure of the railroad bridge across the Shaihe river was the occasion of a sharp combat. The Russians succeeded in surprising the Japanese guard guards and after being reinforced beat off all attempts of the Japanese to regain it.

The Japanese are using heavy artillery in the bombardment of Puttloff hill and Novgorod hill, and this is believed to be preliminary to an attempt to storm them.

MRS. CODY ON WITNESS STAND. Wife of "Buffalo Bill" Denies Charges of Husband in Divorce Case. At Plattville, Neb., Tuesday, Mrs. Louise Cody took the witness stand in defense of her character and good name, which has been assailed by W. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) in his petition for divorce. Mrs. Cody emphatically denied that she had ever attempted to poison her husband, or that she had administered "dragon's blood" or any other poison for the purpose of getting control over him.

The hearing was held behind closed doors in the law offices of Mrs. Cody's attorneys.

HAY DECORATION BARRED. Secretary of State Cannot Receive the Order of Legion of Honor. In the senate Thursday Mr. Cullom reported a bill from the committee on foreign relations authorizing Secretary Hay of the state department to accept the decoration of the grand cross of the national order of the Legion of Honor tendered him through the state department by the government of the French republic. Mr. Cullom objected, and no response was made to the question. This ended the matter.

RECEIVED. Fertilizer Manufacturers Facing a Serious Situation. The wholesale reduction in the use of fertilizer by cotton planters, says a Huntsville, Ala., dispatch, makes a serious situation for the manufacturers, and many of them will have to close down. It is not possible for the factories to sell as much as 75 per cent of the usual amount sold to cotton planters. Many country merchants are fighting the movement of the planters to reduce their cotton crop this season.

PARTING SHOT AT JUDGE

A Ringing Echo of Impeachment Proceedings Heard in the House of Representatives.

A Washington dispatch says: The house, at Wednesday night's session, passed the general deficiency appropriation bill, the last of the great supply measures to be acted upon. The total amount carried is $31,234,078.

The temper of the house regarding the Swayne impeachment verdict was shown when amendments were attached to the bill restricting the senatorial day limit for expenses of United States judges so that expenditure above two dollars a day shall be certified upon proper vouchers, with the further proviso that in case a judge presents a false claim for expenses he shall be fined not less than $100 and imprisoned for not less than ten days.

Mr. Maynard of Virginia offered an amendment increasing the salary of the president to $75,000 per annum, and that of the vice president to $15,000 per annum, and providing on retirement of the president a salary of $25,000 per annum, but a point of order against it by Mr. Baker of New York was sustained by the chair.

An amendment by Mr. Sherman of New York to appropriate $150,000 for mileage for senators, members of the delegations for attending the second session of the O'Neil case.

After Messrs. Littlefield of Maine, De Armond of Missouri and Gudge of North Carolina had spoken in opposition, the amendment was adopted. The conference report on the military academy bill was passed and other appropriation bills adopted by the senate were sent to conference.

When the mileage amendment to the general deficiency bill was reported to the house Mr. Underwood of Alabama demanded a separate vote. The amendment on division was agreed to, 62 to 46. Mr. Underwood demanded a separate vote, but Mr. McHenry's amendment insisted that there was no quorum and the roll accordingly was called, the vote being taken on the amendment at the same time. By a vote of 90 to 50 the amendment was agreed to and a point of order was sustained.

The vote was the same on the second and third articles, being similar articles, resulting in each case 32 guilty and 50 not guilty.

The fourth article related to Judge Swayne's use of the private car of the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West railroad company. The vote resulted guilty 15, not guilty 35.

The fifth charge was similar to the fourth, and the vote was the same as the vote on the fourth.

The sixth article charged Judge Swayne with non-residence in the district. The vote was guilty 31, not guilty 51.

The vote was the same on the second and third articles except the votes of two senators who were absent.

The seventh article was similar to the sixth and the vote was guilty 19, not guilty 65.

The eighth article related to the contempt case of E. T. Davis—guilty 21, not guilty 51.

On the ninth article the vote was guilty 31, not guilty 51.

Article 10 related to the contempt case of Rimon Holden and the vote was guilty 11, not guilty 51.

Article 11 was similar to article 10 and the vote was the same.

On the twelfth and last article, which was the contempt case of O'Neil, the vote was guilty 35, not guilty 47.

SWAYNE ACQUITTED

Not a Single Count Against Him is Sustained.

VOTE ON PARTISAN LINE

Politics Played Extensive Part in Decision of the Case—Large Favorable Vote Was a Surprise to Attorneys of the Judge.

A Washington special says: By practically a partisan vote Judge Charles Swayne of Florida was acquitted by the senate court of impeachment, Monday, of the charges brought against him by the house of representatives. While political lines were not strictly drawn on any of the counts of the impeachment, the great majority of the republican senators voted not guilty on all the counts. Nobody who has watched the progress of the case has doubted that this would be the result. On the private car charges, a number of senators who had voted guilty on other charges voted not guilty. While they regarded Judge Swayne's actions in these matters wrong and reprehensible, they did not consider them sufficiently grave to warrant impeachment. As noted in the detailed statement given below, there were several republicans who voted guilty on most of the counts, the highest number being in that bearing on the O'Neil case.

Now that the case has been brought to an end, it can be said that two influences undoubtedly operated very strongly in Judge Swayne's behalf. One of these was political. Because the judge is a republican a number of republicans conscientiously or unconsciously permitted themselves to look on the case against him as in a sense political. The other reason was that in certain strong corporate influences which have undoubtedly been exerting themselves in his behalf. The campaign made by these influences has not of course been an open one, but it has been exerted to stir stirring up the partisan feeling referred to; it has been far-reaching.

The voting began on the first article, which charged Swayne with certifying a false claim for expenses. The vote was guilty 33, not guilty 49.

The vote on the second and third articles, being similar articles, resulted in each case 32 guilty and 50 not guilty.

The fourth article related to Judge Swayne's use of the private car of the Jacksonville, Tampa and Key West railroad company. The vote resulted guilty 15, not guilty 35.

The fifth charge was similar to the fourth, and the vote was the same as the vote on the fourth.

The sixth article charged Judge Swayne with non-residence in the district. The vote was guilty 31, not guilty 51.

The vote was the same on the second and third articles except the votes of two senators who were absent.

The seventh article was similar to the sixth and the vote was guilty 19, not guilty 65.

The eighth article related to the contempt case of E. T. Davis—guilty 21, not guilty 51.

On the ninth article the vote was guilty 31, not guilty 51.

Article 10 related to the contempt case of Rimon Holden and the vote was guilty 11, not guilty 51.

Article 11 was similar to article 10 and the vote was the same.

On the twelfth and last article, which was the contempt case of O'Neil, the vote was guilty 35, not guilty 47.

This acquitted Judge Swayne of all charges.

There was not a moment when the president could not, had he chosen, have sent nominations to the senate. It was in session to receive any nominations or messages he might communicate. There was no "recess" with in the letter or spirit of the constitution and therefore there was no right to issue commissions and adjourn the officers commencing in office.

The theory of constructive recess constitutes a heavy draft upon the imagination, for it solves a constructive ending of one session, a constructive beginning of another and a constructive recess between the two.

Under the law as construed by the judiciary committee the nomination had failed and a recess appointment could not be made.

THE WELL READ MAN

From San Francisco Bulletin.

Let him who pretends to be a master of English letters say whether he has read the prose works of Milton and of Dryden.

Has he first-hand knowledge of the Elizabethan dramatists other than Shakespeare? Has he really perused all of Edmund Spenser's poetry.

What does he know, from his own reading, of the "Advancement of Learning?" Has he read of Sir Thomas Browne's prose and John Donne's poetry? And the great pulpit orators, Jeremy Taylor, Fuller, South and Barrow,

Can he truthfully testify that he knows all of Swift, Johnson and Burke, all of Bishop Berkeley, Daniel Defoe; the novels of Richardson, Fielding, Smollette
and Sterne; the histories of Hume, Robertson and Gibbon, and also Hume's philosophical essays; the prose of Coleridge, Wordsworth's
"Excursions," all of Shelly, Jane Austen's, Maria Eglesworth's and Dickens's novels? These are English classics, books which no gentleman's library should be without, and with the contents of which a well read man ought to be acquainted.

friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses

VOL. 5, NO. 1

To Organize Fire Company

Steps have been taken to organize a volunteer fire company in Statesboro. Mr. C. M. Cummings, who is active in this particular,
has just returned from Denver where he was sent by the city government to look at their system
and has recommended the purchase of a water reel like the one in use there.

A meeting will be called at the court house in a few days, to organize the company. Our young men will be given an opportunity to show what they can do in case of fire in town. Our water pressure has been tested and it is found that we have a 150 pressure, one that will throw a stream of water over the top of the steeple on the court house which is the tallest structure in the city. This will be convenient in case of fire.
You never need these things until some one has fire, then the chances are that you will need it mightily bad.

Also be it resolved; that a copy
of these resolutions be preserved
in our records, and that a copy be
sent to one of our daily papers,
and one or possibly two of our religious papers with a request that
they publish the same.

And in conclusion, be it also resolved; that we do humbly ask
that a copy of these resolutions be preserved by his parents as a
token of our love and fellowship
towards our absent brother.

A Baraca Tribute of Respect

Whereas, we who were privileged to labor with him in the Baraca
class, and who have profited by his diligence as treasurer of our class, do hereby resolve:

That we do hereby grasp the opportunity of expressing our appreciation for his services.

Be it also resolved; that in view of the mysteriousness of the fact that such a true and promising young life should be taken from our midst we do humbly bow and reverently say, "Thy will be done, Oh God."

Also be it resolved; that a copy
of these resolutions be preserved
in our records, and that a copy be
sent to one of our daily papers,
and one or possibly two of our religious papers with a request that
they publish the same.

And in conclusion, be it also re-
solved; that we do humbly ask
that a copy of these resolutions be
preserved by his parents as a
token of our love and fellowship
towards our absent brother.
