our prompt attention.

Our Blessedness.

I'd been thinking of Mary and Martha In their Bethany home, far away;
And I said with a sigh, half of envy, "How wonderfully blessed were they!"
For, in fancy, I saw the picture Of that humble, but happy home;
And heard the sweet voice of Mary Say "Martha, the Master has come!"
And I thought of the holy rapture Their welcome for him would contain,
And how sweet it would seem to the Master, Borne down with earth's sorrows and pain.
And while the housewife, Martha, Hastened to bring him meat, Mary would come with water,
And bathe the weary feet.
And as long as he might linger Near the shelter of their roof, In tender, grateful service Their love would have its proof.
And I said, "oh! Lord, were the service mine
Thus to minister unto Thee, No weariness my feet should know, Such joy would the service be."
But now, Thee reigning a King,
At the Father's right hand, on high,
And needest not the ministrations Of one so unworthy as I.
And while I rejoice that for Thee is past This earth, with its dark Calvary, I often feel that I've no way to prove My heart's gratitude unto Thee.
Then came to my mind those beautiful words Enfolded in sweet mystery, As you minister unto the least of mine,
You will minister unto me.
And then I exclaimed, "ah, blessed indeed,
Were those sisters of fair Bethany, But now I can see, in the light of these words
How much more blessed are we.
For while the dear Lord, in his busy earthly life,
But seldom could pass their way,
To us he has given the privilege Of serving him every day.
Mrs. A. B. Wade.

HUBERT

The Macdonell Sunday school will celebrate Easter with a few appropriate exercises in the church on that day. The Easter offering is to be used in ceiling the church.

The usual services at Fellowship church Saturday and Sunday by the pastor, Rev. T. J. Cobb.
Mr. Doak O. Proctor of Brook-let, spent Saturday with friends here. He brought along his camera and took quite a number of pictures. He took a picture of the school and several pictures of other people and views. We hope the pictures of the couple out-driving will be good, otherwise we fear Mr. Proctor will not be allowed to return to Hubert with his camera.

Mr. John Watson returned home from the Atlanta dental college last Saturday to the delight of his many friends.
Mr. John W. Williams, of Ada-belle, was a pleasant visitor to our town this week.

Mrs. J. B. Dixon, J. D. Mc-Lean, M. J. Bowen and Dr. W. D.
Kennedy took in the Boer War exhibit in Savannah last week.

dirt from where he expects to build a nice office.

Mr. W. L. Jones visited his brother at Hagan last Sunday.

Quite a number of the folks attended city court at Statesboro

Dr. J. A. Jones, of Summit, was on our streets one day this week.

On last Friday evening a party of the Metter boys and girls were invited to take supper at Mr. J.
Everitt's on their way to the public debate at Excelsior. The party reached there about dark, had only a short time to stay, but was entertained royally. The parlor was beautifully decorated with the most fragrant flowers. Nice music was furnished by a number of the party; soon we were asked in to supper, and on reaching the dining room found the table loaded with choice eatables. Shortly the crowd had assembled at the school house to witness the discussion of the subject, Resolved: That the United States was not justifiable in defending the Cubans.
It was a hot contest on both sides and the speeches were both very interesting and instructive.

The Sulphur Springs about three miles from town is becoming quite noted. This property belongs to J. T. Trappell, W. J. Willie and W. B. Trappell, who are preparing to improve them. They are having the water analyzed and hope to be able to publish the analysis in a short time. The water of this spring has already proven of great value. The people have visited the springs from a distance, used the waters, and found them to be famous for their medical qualities.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular

"Mothers buy it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for lagrippe," say Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be produced for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by all druggists.

The government in South Ausrather hard on bunny to be fenced off the earth.

Cheated Death
Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E.
H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had kidney trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nervous trouble, and kept them constan-ly on hand, since, as I find they were no equal." H. W. H. Ellis guarantees them at 50c.

Doctors Are Powerless to Combat With Meningitis

New York, April 7.—Seventeen deaths from cerebro-spinal meningitis were reported during Thursday in Greater New York, making a total for the week, thus far, of 82.
An average of 25 developing cases have been reported daily. A new treatment is being tried at Bellevue hospital. It consists of drawing off the fluid from the spinal canal. This is being done every other day and greatly relieves the patient. By the use of ice bags they are then kept in good condition and with little pain.

"The only question is," said one of the hospital staff, "whether we are getting all the discharge from the canal. We are not able to tell because there is no X-Ray strong enough to determine without the fluid is clogged in the brain.
It is believed that in the advanced cases it does clog up."

"This treatment reduces the temperature almost to normal, thus affording us an excellent opportunity for working. We have found no drugs will have any salutary effect on the disease.
It is interesting to note that the meningococci of the bacilli of spinal meningitis are so similar to the germs of another disease, that it is difficult to tell the two apart. The meningococci have the appearance of the bacilli of bacteria, but if it were split in the middle and opened out so that the two hemispheres would form a circle. We have found nothing yet with which to kill the germ."

"At Bellevue is a lad who has been there three weeks. An eminent surgeon who is studying the disease trephined the boy's skull and drew off the fluid which causes the trouble. This patient is still living and shows improvement."

The close analogy to an incurable distemper peculiar to dogs has suggested a new field of inquiry.
Stray cats and dogs are now under suspicion.

Allen Is Straightening Up.
We understand that John Allen, whose arrest was recorded in these columns some time ago on account of some domestic troubles, has about arranged a settlement with his wife, and that the terms of the settlement are that the property is to be divided.

Allen owned two or three good farms, and aside from a weakness he has along the lines which caused his arrest, is a good citizen.
He has decided to do better after this and divide up his property with his family. We learn that deeds to that effect have been executed. We have not learned if the suit for divorce will be dismissed.

Davis-Moek
On Sunday night Mr. Ernest Moek and Miss Susie Davis called at the home of Rev. T. J. Cobb on South Main street and requested that the knot be tied that would make them one for the balance of their lives. Mr. Cobb being of an accommodating disposition soon caused their cup of joy to run clear over to the brim. The young couple went their way rejoicing.

The groom is a son of Mr. G. H.
Moek of our city, and has just returned from school at Nashville, Tennessee. The bride is one of the popular young ladies of the Harville neighborhood, and has a large number of friends and admirers.

Mrs. O. J. Martin Dead
On Sunday after an illness of some time at her home near Harville, Mrs. O. J. Martin passed over the River. The deceased leaves a husband and several chilren and a large number of friends and relatives to mourn her loss.
The interment was held at the family burial grounds on yesterday afternoon.

The News extends its sympathy to the bereaved husband and family in their sad loss.

Mothers Begging for Bread at the Palace
St Petersburg, April 7.—The efforts of the chief of police to smother the political agitation has led them even to invade the cemeteries in their search for evidence of treason.

It has become the practice of students to place on the graves of the comrades who were active or who suffered in the cause of freedom verses bound with ribbon on which political sentiments are inscribed. The police now makes nocturnal visits to the cemeteries in search for these treasonable mottos, which are promptly com-fiscated. But being ignorant, the policemen make curious mistakes.
The other day a harmless inscription in Greek simply expressive of sympathy was seized and on Wednesday a red ribbon interpreted by the police as a revolutionary emblem which was not only cut off but created so much alarm that a general order was sent out to all vendors of mortuary wares prescribing the sale of red ribbons.

The stories of sufferings on the part of the widows, wives and families of soldiers at the front are attracting general attention and the public demands government aid for the sufferers. In many places the fund is not sufficient and the papers are filled with pathetic accounts of starving mothers and children begging the streets.

The Nono Novgorod, the palace of the governor, was besieged by a crowd of hungry women with babies in their arms, crying for bread. The governor informed the women that he would appoint a committee to investigate the situation. His reply aroused the ire of the local press.

The Vidomosti says:
"Always the eternal committee and while it is investigating the women and children will starve." M. Poledosteff's position, that of procurator general of the holy synod, will be abolished if the patriarchate is re-established and Antonious, the metropolitan of St. Petersburg, the highest archbishop, will become patriarch.
Under the new press regulations, the papers are not permitted to publish anything affecting the emperor and imperial family without the consent of the court censorship. The imperial chancellery has formally requested the Kobko commission which is revising the press regulations to include this restriction, and such a request the commission regards as being equivalent to an imperial order.

A Malleious Lie.
Please allow me space in your paper to vindicate myself against a slanderous report that is being circulated over the county by one John Ellis of Fly post office, to the effect that I have been trying to hire him to steal cotton for me.
Now the above report is a lie of the blackest dye, perpetrated and peddled by said John Ellis to injure the character of myself and family, and I defy him to prove to the contrary.
J. W. Whitaker,
Blich, Ga.

Wedding.
Mr. Gordon Riggs of Register, and Miss Noma Norace will be joined in the bonds of holy matrimony on the fourth Sunday in April. The wedding will take place at Lots Creek church.
The church will be decorated with brides roses, cut flowers and ferns. We wish them joy over life's seas.

Reached Home to Die.

Our readers will remember an account of the home-coming of Mr. J. G. Newsome, as reported in these columns about three weeks ago. Newsome had arrived home after an absence of 56 years from the land which gave him birth.
When he arrived he expressed a desire to live out the balance of his days in his native land. And it turned out that his remaining days were few. About a week ago he took sick at the home of Mr.
J. G. Brannen, where he had been given a home. Several offers were made to furnish him with a physician, but he always replied that he did not want one, he would soon be better. His condition grew worse, and on Saturday a physician was called over his protest and it was found that he was then in a sinking condition, and the old fellow passed away on Saturday night.

On Sunday he was buried at Bethlehem church cemetery, in three-quarters of a mile of where he first saw the light of day 61 years ago.

Mr. Newsome had lived in Louisiana for several years and after the war he moved to Illinois, where it seems that he lost all trace of his relatives, except that he remembered his mother having told him where he was born.

When the shadows of old age began to creep over the old fellow, and being without family—having never married—the vicious of the land of his childhood rose up before him. He expressed a desire to turn his footsteps this way, but, after living 61 years, was without means to pay his way to Georgia.

Kind friends in his Illinois home made up a purse sufficient to bring him here, and on his arrival here kind friends who had known his family, or had heard of it, gave him home and shelter administered to his wants in his last days.

After his death thirty-five cents was found in his purse, which, in all probability, represented the total savings of his sixty-one years in life. A new suit of burial clothes and a neat coffin was prepared for the old fellow and he was laid to rest on Sunday.

Found Bank in Fine Shape.
Mr. J. K. McDonald, National Bank examiner, was in the city on Saturday and made a thorough inspection of the condition of the First National Bank of this city.
After he had finished his task Mr.
McDonald took occasion to compliment the officials of the bank in the highest terms. He thought that for a bank of only four months old the showing made by the First National was one that his friends have reason to look on with a considerable degree of satisfaction. The First National bank is one of the solid institutions of Statesboro.

Messrs. R. Simmons and W. T.
Smith returned from Murreboro, Tenn. on Friday where they went to attend the big horse sale.

The pastor will be assisted by his son, Dr. George N. MacDonald, and Rev. Mr. Rosser of the North Georgia Conference.

Special Religious Services.
The pastor of the Methodist church has appointed special services to be held during the week to pray for the revival of the work of God in the church and community. Services will be held every afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and 7:45 at night. All christian people interested in this cause, and the public generally are invited to attend these services.

McDonald took occasion to com-
tions of Statesboro.

The indications are that there will be a big naval battle between the fleets of Russia and Japan soon; in fact, it is hourly expected.
Both nations have been mobilizing their fleets for a death grapple on water. The world will watch the battle with a great deal of interest.
Upon its result depends the early ending of the war in the far East.

Growth of Ideas

Several years ago when sensible men like Bryan, Watson and others began the crusade for the rights of the common people, they were regarded as long haired cranks and lunatics by the men who control, and had their hands on the throats of all the public utilities of the country, and their opposition was re-echoed by every little agent and worshiper of corporate greed.

They swore by all the powers that government had nothing to do with the business of so called private individuals, and that it was nothing but rank paternalism. Of course corporate greed won in the elections of McKinley and his successors, but the ideas that were sown broadcast over the country began to take root in all the political parties, and only last week the great city of Chicago voted to take charge of their street railways, and take them out of the hands of private monopoly, and run them in the interest of all the people rather than in the interest of a handful of Wall street shysters who have grown to be multi-millionaires on the interest on watered stocks and bonds.

The truth of the business is that the people have been robbed under the cover afforded the giant monopolies until they are gradually waking up to the fact, and there are men now living who will see all the public utility properties like the street railways, steam railroads, gas, electric light, telegraph, telephone and all like public companies operated by and in the interest of the people. This may be paternal, and populist, but a people who have seen and watched the growth of the giant monopolies, run in the interest of a few men who have waxed fat by unlawful tribute taken from the public, are not always going to submit, and the day of the Morgans, and Rockefellers are drawing to a conclusion.

President Handicaps Peace Possibilities.

(Augusta Chronicle.)

Although the prospects of an early conclusion of peace between Russia and Japan have not seemed particularly bright of late, the discussion of possible terms has not abated, and seemingly there exist a general opinion to the effect that the question of indemnity will prove the rock on which negotiations will most likely split.
There appears, also, to be a prevalent idea that the longer the war lasts the harder will be the conditions—like the price of the books of the Cuman sibil—that Japan will exact, in the shape, probably, of and ever increasing indemnity.

The object of the latter, as everyone is aware, is simply to reimburse the victor for the expenses of the conflict, but it appears that it has never been expected save when the conqueror held territory of the conquered as security for its payment, the yielding up of which to its original owner is supposed to constitute the consideration. (Russia, it is true, also argues that she has never paid an indemnity, but to that the obvious reply, is that she is not the one in this instance to appeal to self-constituted custom.)

The precedent in regard to prior occupation, however, is one of more weight, judging by the various expressions on the subject, although it must be patent to every one that it is based upon a fictitious contention. And with such reversion as preestablished usage regarded by diplomats and statesmen that it is seriously insisted that it would preclude Japan from demanding an indemnity at this moment.

For at present the Japanese troops occupy no territory that could be made to serve as collateral. They are in possession of a large extent of country that was formerly held by Russia, but indemnity or no indemnity, certainly has no idea of returning a foot of it to the czar. The war, instead, has been waged for the avowed purpose of loosening his grip on Korea and maritime Manchuria, and moreover, a portion of the ground now in the hands of the Mikado's men would have once been ceded to Japan by treaty with China but for the interference of Germany and Russia.
The Japanese, therefore, may be said to have more recovered their own than to have driven the Russians from their rightful possessions.

Another palpable inconsistency to this objection of Russia's to the paying of an indemnity, is that it was her refusal to evacuate Manchuria that virtually precipitated hostilities, and yet now it is claimed that Japan does not occupy Russian soil, although she occupies Manchuria. If Russia had no right to Manchuria, then she is responsible—self confessed—ly for the whole bloody conflict.

In some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion is very rapid. For this reason we put up a fifty-cent size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies conditions the gain is slower—health cannot be built up in a day.

In such cases Scott's and might with justice be pen-amount paid be called an indemnity

However, peace has not yet been declared, and if the Japane-Vladivostok, they will probably be in possession of plenty of Ruswell—by the time that a protocol

But how much simpler and more honest it would be to refrain from hair-splitting and fictitious pre-that victory counts for more than precedent and that "indemnity" is really recompense?

Mothers, Under Two Needs.

BY MISS LULA WARNOCK,
BROOKLYN SCHOOL, REIDAY, APRIL 7, '05

FIRST—THE MOTHER'S OPPORTUNITY Mothers, you are the devotedly appointed teachers and guides of your children, and any attempt to free yourself from your duty is in direct opposition to the will of God. If you neglect them the consequences are swift and sure—and how fearful they are! Let them broken-hearted mothers tell you how bowed in sorrow and anguish over their lost sons; who, neglecting them in childhood, have at last seen them dead to every manly virtue.

Let me say to you who still have the opportunity to do so: Train your children—whether boys or girls—to usefulness. Give them something to do. As soon as they can walk teach them to do all they can to help you.
Spend most of your time with your young children; sleep near them; let them tell you all their troubles. Give them the good-night kiss as you tuck the covers around them, let them eat at the table with father and mother, read, talk, play, walk with them; be their companion and guide in all things and at all times. Don't be in haste to send them to school, but teach them at home. "Too busy?" Oral instructions can be given them while you are doing your work and for a while will be of much more benefit than hours of study. As soon as they want playmates so that they have those of their own age, who have been well cared for at home and are truthful. Let them play in or near the house, that you may observe the character of their intercourse. Never send children to school to get rid of the care or trouble of them at home, but when the right time comes let them see that it is wholly for their good that you part with them. Always allow them to tell you all that has happened to interest them while away from home.
Never think anything which affects the happiness of your children—too small a matter to claim your attention.
Use every means in your power to win and retain their confidence. It is a source of great comfort to the innocent child to tell all its troubles to mother. And do you always lend a willing ear, rather than to chatter them against any wrong impression they may have against people or circumstances? And know you that as soon as your children cease to tell you all these things, they have chosen other confidants, and therein lie the dangers of the future. Observe this: If on which your son may be wrecked at last. I charge you to set watch upon it. Be jealous of the first sign that he is not opening all of his heart to you.
Boys who are thus cared for and trained more to please and amuse than to please their mother, are more likely at home than away from home. They are thus saved from temptation. But if they are neglected until they arrive at the age when they would wish to go out evenings, there is small hope you can have any influence over them.
"The power of prevention" is worth much more than "the power of cure."

When boys know their society is valued at home, and that all its pleasures are marred by their absence, they will willingly stay at home. If they can have something to occupy their time, "Our beloved Grady's love for his mother was a beautiful thing. He visited her Christmas week—the last week he spent on earth—and he said: "I don't think I ever felt happier than when I reached the little home of my mother. I got into when girls are known to conceal their feelings from their mothers that they become targets for shafts of scandal. Innocent thoughts are always condemned by mothers, who know they were wronged to mistakes when they were young.
And a girl will never do anything very culpable if she is sure to have no secret from her mother. Many a woman now looks back upon her past life and sees if she had been compelled to tell her mother of all that occurred to her she would have escaped sin and sorrow."

Let us open our hearts to our mothers; they are our safest and surest guides, and it is so sweet to our mothers to know that we believe in them, and we should think how we may make them old age happy. They are dim-sighted. Do we lead them gently? Their ears are dull. Do we repeat painful, quarrelsome, do we soothe them?
Feeble, do we make them feel in the way? Love to tell the stories of their show no response or sympathy? How many years did they listen to our prattle. God gave us grace and wisdom to so care for and cherish our mothers, that we would not have regretted added to our grief when he calls them home.

SECOND—THE CHILD'S OPPORTUNITY
We will pass lightly over the period of childhood—that period of the formation of character—and dwell upon the son's and daughter's opportunity of repaying mother for some of the care bestowed upon us when we were young to think or act for ourselves. I for we will tell for the sake of our duty along this line. Parents lean upon children, and especially their sons, much earlier in life than either of them imagine. Their love is a constant inspiration. Material aid is good, but it is as good, but it is not that sustaining power which the loving, sympathetic heart bestows. The mother's heart craves an occasional kiss from her big son, the support of his useful arm. The little stentions and kindly courtesies of life, smooth down so many of its asperities and make the journey less wearisome. You think she has outgrown those weakcesses and follies, and is content with the use of it, but you are mistaken. Every little offer of attention, your escort to church, or concert, or for a quiet walk, brings back the youth of her heart. Her cheeks glow, her eyes sparkle with pleasure, and, O! how proud she is of her son.

My son, are you a sweeter of life?
You may disappoint the ambitions of your parents, may be unable to distinguish yourselves as they fondly hoped, but let none of these things move you from a determination to be a son of whose moral character they need never be ashamed. Begin early in life to cultivate a habit of thoughtfulness and considerations for others, especially those whom you are commanded to honor. Some one has beautifully written to the boys in the following manner: Of all the love affairs in the world none can surpass the true love of a big boy for his mother. It is pure, noble, honorable in the highest degree to both. I do not mean merely a dutiful affection; I mean a love that makes the boy gallant and courteous to his mother, saying to every plainly that he is fairly in love with her. Next to the husband nothing so crowns a woman's life with honor as this love, this devotion of her son to her; and I never yet knew a mother who said "I began by falling in love with my mother." Any boy may fall in love with a pretty-faced girl, and the man who is gallant with the girl may cruelly neglect the wife. But the boy who is in love with his mother in her middle age is a true knight, will love his wife as much in the "sere leaved" autumn as he did in the "daisied" springtime.

And, girls, let me beg you to love your mothers. A girl's best friend is her mother. Get into when girls are
ed to mistakes when they were young.
And a girl will never do anything very
culpable if she is sure to have no secret from her mother. Many a wom-
sorrow."

Facts About Japan
By Burton Holmes.
Japan has nearly 60,000,000 people, more than half as many as the United States.

The word "Mikado" signifies something like "the Sacred Gate" or "the Sublime Porte."

The name of Crown Prince is Yoshi Hito.
European dress is worn at all court functions.

Rice is the common food of the common people.

Sixty cents a day is now good pay for unskilled labor in Japan.
Ten years ago it was six cents.

Japan has very few millionaires and practically no multi-millionaires.

Tokio is a hundred years older than St. Petersburg.

On the Japanese stage male actors play the female roles.

There is only one Japanese actress—Mme. Sada Yacco.

Japanese dead are buried in a squatting posture, chin upon knees.

The Japanese people, even the poor, travel much in their own country.

Modern Japanese coins and bank notes bear legends in English as well as in Japanese.

The average Japanese is better hated than the average Britisher.

Wrinkles are poetically termed by the Japanese "waves of old age."

Kissing and shaking hands are rarely practiced in Japan.

Japanese mothers do not kiss their children, though they press the lips to the forehead or cheek of a very young baby.

Sewing on buttons is not a wife-ly duty in Japan—there are no buttons.

All of the food served at a Japanese banquet is a guest and not consumed by him at the time it is taken to his home by the servants of his host.

Japanese chop-sticks are delivered to the guest in a decorated envelope. The two sticks, already shaped, from one long shape piece of wood and broken apart by the guest.

The Danger Signal
There are evidences that the farmers of Georgia have purchased a large amount of commercial fertilizers this year for use in the planting of cotton, notwithstanding the hard fight that has been made for acreage reduction, and which fight is still being waged with great energy and faithfulness, not only in Georgia but throughout the entire cotton belt.

According to reports large quantities of guano have been bought also by the planters of Alabama, South Carolina, and other states.

The natural presumption is that the bulk of the fertilizers was for cotton, though some of it may have been used for small grain.

The danger signal has been hoisted at the headquarters of the Southern Cotton Association in Atlanta. The assertion is made in official circles that Georgia is not far behind Alabama in the matter of fertilizers, and attention is called to the fact that huge quantities of fertilizers are being used throughout the state.

Commissioner of Agriculture O. B.
Stevens has issued an official statement showing the exact amount of fertilizers sold in the state this year. The Southern Cotton Association thinks it well for the farmers to take notice and look out carefully about the reduction of their acreage.

The department of Agriculture gives out the following comparative statement of sales of tags: It has been the custom of the department of Agriculture in former years to make up a tabulated statement of sales of tags about the first of June, but on account of the present conditions and the anxiety shown among all classes of our citizens in Georgia to get this information up to the first day of April, I have thought proper to give out a full statement from the beginning of the season, October 1st up to April 1st.

We sold during last season, commencing October 1st, 1903, up to April 1st, 1904, of fertilizer tags 5,808,455; cotton seed meal tags 1,640,100, making a total of 7,448, 555.

For the season of 1904-1905, commencing October 1st, 1904, up to April 1st, 1905, we have sold 5,808,955 fertilizer tags and 1,417, 720 cotton seed meal tags, making a total of 7,226,675.

A ton of fertilizer requires ten tags, and a ton of cotton seed meal requires twenty tags.

According to the above figures there have been sold in Georgia 71,480 more fertilizer tags this season than last season, and 112, 440 more cotton seed meal tags

Baltic Fleet Sails Through Tight Place.

St. Petersburg, April 9.—2:40 A. M.—There was great rejoicing last night at the Admiralty, Yacht and other naval clubs over Vice Admiral Rojstrensky's having successfully navigated the gateway of the China sea without encountering the Japanese.

The admiralty realizes that Rojstrensky faces great odds owing to the immense superiority of the Japanese cruisers and torpedo boats, and reliance in his success is based upon seven battleships which he can oppose Togo's four, while it is thought unlikely that the Vladivostok squadron will attempt a junction with the Baltic fleet.

The danger of the fleet being beset by the warships of the deep in the narrow waters which divide the breastwork of islands of the Malay archipelago and the possible damage to the big ships, so precious in the coming encounter with Vice Admiral Togo's fleet, was so great that some of the naval experts actually favored a route around Australia.

The credit for the strategem by which the feat was accomplished, the Associated Press learns, belongs solely to Vice Admiral Rojstrensky, who accurately judged that as the Malacca straits was the most practicable as well as the most direct route, the Japanese would calculate that he would not dare try to force a passage there. Besides this, Rojstrensky planned a strategem to deceive the Japanese, with the secret of which only two men in St. Petersburg were entrusted, by directing the Russian admiralty to follow the collars which were to follow him in rendezvous in Sunda strait, 500 miles southward of Singapore, feeling sure that the Japanese intelligence department would be equal, as it probably was, to the task of ascertaining the destination of Rojstrensky, and thereby not only throw the Japanese off the scent, but officially deceived his own admiralty, where the news of the fleet having passed Singapore probably created quite as much surprise as it did in the marine department at Tokio.

Several colliers were actually dispatched to the rendezvous and many already fallen into the hands of the Japanese; but Rojstrensky deliberately sacrificed them as pawns in a bigger game. That the ruse worked is apparent from the fact that Rojstrensky did not meet a single Japanese ship in the passage of straits of Malacca, while dispatches from Batavia tell of Sunda, Bali, Lombok, Flores and other straits to the southward being crowded with Japanese torpedo boats guarding the passages. The belief of the admiralty is that Togo is waiting

Prospect of State Fair Brightest in Many Years.

(Atlanta News.)

In view of the fact that seven-tenths of the fair grounds have already been cleared, the prospect of the fair is bright, and at least ten others are strong probabilities, it is deemed necessary for the city park board and the Atlanta fair committee to make a joint visit to the fair grounds.

The two boards will meet at the main entrance of Piedmont Park Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to go over the grounds, inspect the buildings and see what is necessary to put everything in first-class condition for the fair next October. Most of the buildings will need repairing, and the grounds will require work.

The counties that have already entered are Bartow, Cobb, Gwinnett, Coweta, Campbell, Rockdale, Newton, Houston, Laurens, Twiggs, Dodge, Bulloch, Camden, Brooks, Worth and one other which is not quite ready to be announced.

The following counties seem strong probabilities: Floyd, Polk, Wilkes, Green, Morgan, Schley, Colquett, Coffee, Troup and Lowndes.

Frank Weldon, secretary and general manager of the fair association, is more than pleased at the outlook. This morning in his Equitable offices he said to a News man:

"Already we have seventeen counties assured as exhibitors. The most we have ever had at any previous fair has been thirteen. I feel assured that there will be several others; in fact all those we have marked as 'probable' may be counted as certainities."

"Applications for space, both from local and foreign exhibitors are coming in every day now, through the opening of the fair is six months away. I believe this will be one of the best and most successful fairs in the history of Atlanta."

Mr. Weldon says there will be practical demonstrations of farming on the grounds. Several half and quarter acre lots will be marked off, and crops of peas, cotton, etc., planted. It is proposed to show the practical utilization of nitrogen-fixing bacteria, a substance discovered and patented by a scientist in the United States department of agriculture. Peas will be inoculated with the material and a square planted. On an adjoining square peas not treated with the bacteria will be planted. This will show the value of the substance without question.

About Rheumatism.
There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by all druggists.

It's hard for a woman to make herself believe that the man who pays all his house bills, promptly and can't do any more, is as good a husband as the man who doesn't but who brings his wife home a bunch of flowers every Saturday night.

Opening Up Drug Store.

Dr. J. M. McElveen was in the city on Saturday and paid us a call. The doctor has just completed one of the prettiest little drug stores at Brooklet to be seen in any town in this section of the state. He is putting in an up-to-date line of pure drugs, medicines and fancy goods. That the business will be profitable to its owner and a source of great accommodation to Brooklet and community goes without saying.

Attempt to Lynch Three.

Memphis, Tenn., April 4.—A special to the News-Scimitar from Fulton, Ky., says:

A mob twice attempted to force the jail here last night in an effort to lynch three negroes who are charged with shooting Officer Baker.

Mayor Wall, member of city council and prominent citizens defended the prisoners and defeated the mob. The negroes will be taken to Hickman for safe keeping.

The report has been circulated that they were lynched, but this was a mistake.

In a schoolroom the first primary grade was listening to the teacher reading a description of Columbus' first voyage to America says the Boston Herald. The history was written in words of one syllable.

The teacher reads: "Queen Isabel sold her gems to help Columbus."

"Now children," she said, "who can tell me what gems are?"

Instantly Robert sprang to his feet, his hand waving frantically and his eyes flashing.

"Well, Robert," she said. "Biscuits!" yelled Robert.

The farmer should feel proud of his profession, as it is one of the most useful and necessary occupations. He does not sit on the ragged edge of doubt as to the permanency of his position. No master has a mortgage on his labor or his products. He is a king among men, and his home is the abode of contentment. He studies the laws of nature and derives maintenance from the bounteous stores. When times are hard, and laborers are clamoring work, he has plenty of business to occupy his time.

Serious Stomach Trouble Cure.
I was troubled with a distress in my stomach, sour stomach and vomiting spells, and can truthfully say that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me. Mrs. T. V. Williams, Kalamazoo, Mich. MURDER IN SCREVEN COUNTY

Mr. M. L. Parker, a Prominent Farmer and Merchant, Shot from Ambush--Bud Sasser Arrested

Sylvania, Ga., April 10.—Mr. M. L. Parker, of Olney, Ga., was shot and almost instantly killed last night about 11 o'clock. He lived only about two hours. His wife and two small children were in the room when the tragedy occurred, but the person doing the shooting was not seen by them.

Mr. Parker was preparing to retire when without any warning, the murderer fired a load of buck shot through the window penetrating Mr. Parker in the hips. The doctor came a few minutes before he died but could render no aid.

The family are at a loss to know who committed the deed, as he was on friendly terms with everybody in the community. Mr. Parker was a large planter, and also a merchant. He had just come from his store, and was getting ready to retire when he was shot.

His relatives and friends will use every effort in their power to apprehend the guilty party, but at this time no particular person is suspected.

We understand that Bud Sasser, a well known white man, has been arrested charged with the crime. Sasser, it is said, had been working for Mr. Parker, and they had had some trouble of a domestic nature. A son of Parker was visiting in Statesboro when he got the news of the tragedy.

This bids fair to become one of the biggest murder trials Scriven has had in a long time.

Forget About Your Stomach.

If your digestion is bad the vital organs of your body are not fed and nourished as they should be. They grow weak and invite disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, cures indigestion and all stomach troubles. You forget you have a stomach from the very day you begin taking it. This is because it gets a rest—recuperates and gradually grows so strong and healthy that it troubles you no more. E. L. Babcock, Amherst, Minn., says: "I have taken a great many remedies for indigestion but have found nothing equal to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." Kodol digests what you eat, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, belching, heartburn and all stomach troubles. Its preparation is the result of many years of research. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

Wash is a well known character both around Statesboro and Blitch. He served a term in Sing Sing for perjury, sent up from the United States court in Savannah, a few years ago.

Frigitful Suffering Relieved.
Suffering frigitfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, G. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes, "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at W. H. Ellis' drug store, guaranteed.

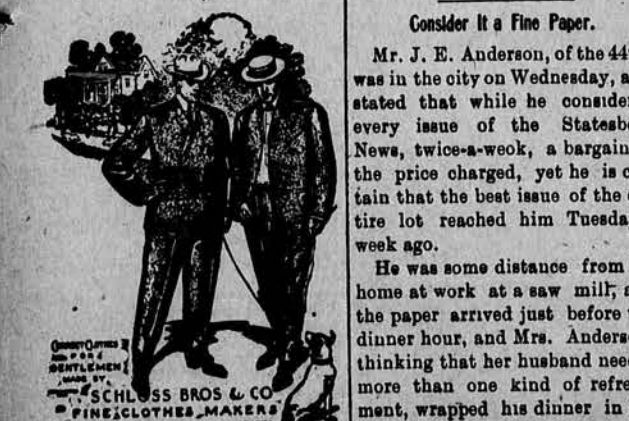

Consider it a Fine Paper.
Mr. J. E. Anderson, of the 44th, was in the city on Wednesday, and stated that while he considered every issue of the Statesboro News, twice-a-week, a bargain at the price charged, yet he is certain that the best issue of the entire lot reached him Tuesday a week ago.

He was some distance from his home at work at a saw mill, and the paper arrived just before the dinner hour, and Mrs. Anderson, thinking that her husband needed more than one kind of refreshment, wrapped his dinner in the paper and sent it together to him at the mill. Someone told him that his paper had arrived; he opened it, and a large slice of ham, a biscuit and some sweet potatoes rolled out.

Mr. Anderson decided that he had decided to go ourselves on better and was sending out a ham sandwich with each issue. He thinks that issue altogether was a fine one.

Dr. Broughton Coming.

It has been previously announced in these columns that Dr. Len G. Broughton, the famous preacher, lecturer, author, organizer, and reformer, would lecture to us on the night of the 27th, but information has recently been received to the effect that it would be more convenient for him to lecture on Tuesday night, the 28th. He will lecture in the auditorium and will give us one of his choicest subjects, viz: "Christian Citizenship vs the Reign of the Demagogue."

It is needless for us to add anything concerning Dr. Broughton's power, when such a man as Sam Jones characterizes him as a man weighing 140 pounds—185 pounds back bone, five pounds hair.

PROCTOR—DENMARK.

One of the surprise marriages in Statesboro was that of Mr. Lafayette T. Denmark and Miss Eva Proctor, which occurred on Wednesday night. The young couple called at the residence of Rev. T. J. Cobb and requested that the nuptial knot be tied good and strong. Rev. Cobb by reason of much experience along this line, did his best and joined the happy young couple together for good or bad until death shall part them.

Both of the contracting parties have many friends in Statesboro and the county where they are well known. Both have been handling the yard stick behind the counters of the J. G. Blitch Co., and it seems that there were other and more important questions discussed than the simple price of calico, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Denmark are now at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gross, on South Main street, where they will board for the present.

Obstetrical Death.
Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had kidney trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electro-Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and kept them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal." W. H. Ellis guarantees them at 60c.
