MILL RAY

"Plant less cotton" is an old injunction. We all have heard it before. Very often it is a prelude to a bumper crop.

Miss Ada Miller, who has been teaching school at Marlow for a good long time, spent last Sunday with her parents.

Mr. Slater Hodges has a full school at New Hope church.

Miss Tillman, of Marlow, spent last week with relatives and friends around Mill Ray.

Last Saturday was a red letter day for Charlie Newton—a gal.

Bob Miller has just returned from the north, where he went on business.

Keller Hodges, who are glad to say, is improving, although he is still very feeble.

PARISH

Mr. E. M. Durden has gone to Mississippi on a business trip.

Miss Terah and Myrtle Turner visited Excelsior Sunday.

We are glad to report that Mrs. J. L. Floyd who has been sick several weeks is improving.

Mrs. E. M. Durden is visiting in Savannah this week.

The Durden Lumber Co. is moving their mill to Graymont.

Mr. Henry Stoue visited Coratia Sunday.

The Right Name is DeWitt.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures eczema and itchy skin, burns, boils, bruises, piles and all skin diseases.

E. K. Zickelose, Adolph, W. Va. says: "My little daughter had white swelling so bad that piece after piece of bone worked out of her leg. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her."

It is the most wonderful healing salve in the world. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

HUBERT

One of the most enjoyable features of the week was the candy pulling, given at the home of Mrs. J. F. Hagan on Wednesday night. Quite a large crowd of young people gathered early in the evening, and were entertained by the hostess in her usual hospitable manner. The event part of the evening was devoted to games and music, and then came the announcement that the candy was ready to be pulled, when there was a rush to the dining room. Soon it was all finished and then came the eating stage, which was by far the most interesting to some. The candy was quite a success, being both white and platable. More games were enjoyed and then the merry crowd dispersed, each with a package of candy.

The young people of this place attended a box supper at Stilson Friday night and had a fine time. Mrs. Young R. Porter, of Emerson, N. C., together with her daughter, Vivian, is spending some time with Mrs. E. H. Robertson at this place.

Mr. B. E. Procter, of Brooklet, was the guest of Mr. J. K. Forbes on Friday last.

Messrs. Barnhill, Brown and Procter, of Stilson, have been pleasant visitors in Hubert this week.

We are glad to report that Mrs. J. L. Floyd who has been sick several weeks is improving.

Mrs. E. M. Durden is visiting in Savannah this week.

The Durden Lumber Co. is moving their mill to Graymont.

Mr. Henry Stoue visited Coratia Sunday.

BROOKLET.

The Easter program rendered by the Sunday school classes at the Methodist church Sunday night was very appropriate for the occasion and entertaining to the large audience that filled the church.

Rev. Mr. Crumpler requests that we announce that on next Sunday, April 30, he will preach an Easter sermon at the M. E. church at Brooklet and earnestly request the entire community to be present.

Miss Myrtle Robinson entertained her friends Monday night with a delightful Easter program at home.

The Statesboro team was rather too strong for the Brooklet boys last Saturday; they defeated Brooklet by a score of 14 to 5.

One of the visitors' team sustained a severe sprained ankle, otherwise it was a pretty game throughout. It is very encouraging to players to have a good number of their friends accompany them, as did Statesboro last Saturday, and we were glad to welcome them to our young city.

Miss Mary Proctor entertained her little friends Saturday afternoon with an Easter egg hunt, after which refreshments were served.

Quite a number of Brookletites attended court this week, and while in the Hub took a look at the "Wolffpant" in the Simmons Co. window.

Miss Bell Poor, of Enal, visited friends in Brooklet Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. C. W. Strickland, of Savannah, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jack Lee.

Miss Annie Faughan of Darien visited her mother and sister in Brooklet Sunday.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by all druggists.

CLITO

We are glad to report that the cool spell did but little damage to the crops.

We are glad to say Mrs. I. T. Newcome, who has been sick with pneumonia, is rapidly improving.

Miss Sophie Barr of Portal has been visiting in our community for the past week.

Mr. Bob Findley and mother of Pulaski visited friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Parnell Emmitt was the guest of Miss Essie and Minnie Ford last week.

Mr. S. G. Steward has just completed a new store.

The Easter picking at Beaver Pond school, under the management of Miss Emmitt, was a success, and enjoyed very much by those present.

Miss Mary Ford of this place is conducting a flourishing school at this place.

Prim.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.

"Mothers buy it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for lagrippe," say Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be produced for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by all druggists.

STILSON R. F. D. NO. 2.

Life's Tragedy is Told By Note On River Bank.

"Most miserable man on earth, Launium. You will find my body in creek near bridge. Tell her she is the cause. Goodbye."

Atlanta, May 2.—At Bolton, where Peachtree creek empties into the Chattahoochee river, the above note was found on a stone, held in place by a small rock.

It is the only clew the police have to what they believe is another of life's tragedies.

So far there is no idea as to who the suicide is.

The note was handed to Captain Moon, of the Atlanta police force, by a man who found it at Bolton. The man could give Captain Moon no additional information.

What makes this untangling of the mystery more intricate for the police is the fact that while the suicide tells where to look for his body he did not indicate under which bridge to search for his corpse. There are two bridges at the place and both run across Peachtree creek near where it empties into the river.

SUGGESTS THE RACES.

On the back of the piece of paper on which the note is written appears the name "George Root, New Orleans, La.," printed in good size black type.

Below the name are spaces left blank opposite the printed words: "Amount,"

"Entry,"

"Name of horse."

At the bottom is printed these words:

"Two dollars will be charged for making all bets."

George Root's is one of the best known turf exchanges of the smaller class of New Orleans' gambling places. This place makes a specialty of placing bets on commission for turf followers.

The robbers hastily gathered up all the money exposed by the explosion and started on a run just as the first of the awakened villagers reached the scene. Other residents quickly came up, but in the meantime the invaders were making good their escape, firing as they went.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., "scribing his fearful race with death, as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest of life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was the effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed by W. H. Ellis' drug store; price 50 cents.

Five at Parish

On Saturday afternoon about sunset the dwelling of Mr. Eli Beasley of Parish was discovered to be on fire. Prompt assistance was given to the household goods but the building was destroyed. The building was the property of Mr. Bedford Parish and was not insured, neither was the household and kitchen furniture. The origin of the fire is unknown.

A Good Suggestion

Mr. C. B. Wainwright of Lemon City, Fla., has written the manufacturer that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pain in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drunk. "That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by all druggists.

Chinese Are Trying to Hold the Ships.

Washington, May 2.—China has informed the United States that she is using every effort to prevent the departure from her waters of the Russian cruiser Askold and the Russian torpedo boat destroyer now interned at Shanghai.

The communication from Pekin was transmitted to the State Department today by the Chinese minister, and will be communicated to the Japanese legation by Acting Secretary Loomis, to whom the Japanese minister expressed concern about the reported preparations for sea which were said to be in progress aboard the Russian warships.

Infant's Death at Clito

On Monday night at 8 o'clock the two-year-old little girl of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Talton, of Clito, died after a short illness. Up to a short time before its death the parents had strong hope that its life might be spared them, but toward nightfall the little one took a turn for the worse.

The remains were interred in the family burial grounds at Robert's mill, about three miles north of Statesboro, on Tuesday. Rev. T. J. Cobb preached the funeral sermon.

Let Common Sense Decide

Do you honestly believe that coffee sold loose (in bulk), exposed to dust, germs and insects, passing through many hands (some of them not over-clean), "blended," you don't know how or by whom, is fit for your use? Of course you don't. But is another story. The green berries, selected by keen judges at the plantation, are skillfully roasted at our factories, where precautions you will find in no other coffee are taken to secure perfect cleanliness, flavor, strength and uniformity. From the time the coffee leaves the factory no hand touches it till it is opened in your kitchen.

Volleys Were Fired into the Easter Crowds Without Cause—Many Women and Children Were Victims of Bullet Storm.

Nearly one hundred persons were killed or wounded in disturbances in various quarters of Warsaw, Russian Poland, Monday. The troops apparently were uncontrollable and violated all orders to act with moderation. They fired into crowds of demonstrators, and workmen, in retaliation, resorted to the use of firearms and bombs. Many women and children are among the dead and dying. Warsaw approached a reign of terror Monday night; the city presented a most gloomy aspect and the temper of the entire community augurs ill.

SCHOLARLY SUNDAY SERMON BY THE REV. DR. JOHN LOVE, JR.

UNPROVOKED BUTCHERY

Volleys Were Fired into the Easter Crowds Without Cause—Many Women and Children Were Victims of Bullet Storm.

Entered at the post office at Statesboro as 2nd class matter.

Statesboro, Ga. Friday, May 3, 1903

Published Tuesdays and Fridays by THE STATESBORO NEWS PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Roosevelt is still shooting bears out in the wilds of Colorado.

Augusta claims to be father-in-law to all the candidates for Governor.

The big brigade are now making a gallant fight against General Green.

School closing season is close at hand, and the orators will have their say.

We fear Larry Gantt will have to go back to Carolina and leave the Smith boom dead.

It is impossible to start a boom for a candidate during the crop season, and we advise them to be quiet till harvest time.

The Forest Blade asks. Who will go to congress from the First when Uncle Rufe deliberately quits? Opinion as usual is divided but the straw seems to point to Lonnie Brannen, Kinch Overstreet or Alf Herrington. Brother, these are good men especially, Lonnie Brannen—Lyons Progress.

Deadly Cigarette.

Several states have already passed laws against the sale of cigarettes. It is against the law in Georgia to sell or give cigarettes or cigarette paper to boys under twenty-one years of age. It is said that some store keepers in Statesboro give away paper to boys, and if this be so, they had better hold up. No father wants his boy to be a cigarette fiend, and such dealers will be prosecuted. Nothing will ruin a man or boy quicker than the deadly cigarette, and boys must be protected from the evil habit. Let every fellow who sells or gives one, or the paper, to a boy, be prosecuted.

In Memoriam.

On Dec. 8th last it pleased Almighty God in his providence, to remove from us our brother, David C. Proctor.

It is a pleasure to know that Brother Proctor's last years were his best years, inasmuch as it was noticeable that as he grew older he grew more and more like his savior, and fell before the scepter of time as the full ripe corn.

Brother Proctor was born in Emanuel county on March 29th, 1831, and lived out his allotted time, being nearly seventy-three years of age at the time of his departure.

At the age of twenty-nine he was married to Miss Elizabeth Riggs, who, with eight of the children, survive him.

In the year 1858, shortly after the organization of the Baptist church in Statesboro, he united himself with them and on September 22nd of that year was baptized by Rev. W. M. Cowart; from which time he took a lively interest in the church matters, which interest, intensified as the years went by.

In his death the church lost a faithful member, one who was ever in his place, and we miss him. May the Great Head of the church comfort his aged companion and keep her until she shall join him in the land of sweet deliverance.

Resolved, that we extend our sympathies to the bereaved ones, and that this memorial be published in our town papers.

Respectfully submitted, T. A. Olmstead, W. C. Parker, J. L. Mathews, J. W. Olliff, J. L. Coleman.

Approved in conference May 1, 1903. T. A. Olmstead, C. C.

In Memoriam of Mrs. B. W. Darsey.

A tribute of love to my dear aunt, Mrs. B. W. Darsey, who passed through the pearly gates on the night of Feb. 8th, 1903.

There is so much of comfort that can come to those who have a sorrow like unto ours for "we sorrow not as those without hope."

While we miss the gentle presence of our loved one in our daily pilgrimage, yet we cannot but feel that her spirit hovers near us when we least think of her.

While the kindly hands and willing feet will no longer minister to our physical well-being, or go on errands of mercy to her fellow-creatures, yet who can tell but that her sweet spirit is interceding with her Maker for the wayward ones of earth.

And while we who loved her, can never again do anything to lessen earthly pain, yet we are content, for we are persuaded that she no longer needs our ministrations.

There are those who go through this life as the flashing meteor—brilliant scintillating. There are others that are like the "star of evening"—not so showy, but shining with a clear steady light. Such was this life.

There are no brilliant deeds to record for her, but of the quieter virtues, her life was replete.

She was a faithful wife, and a mother whose pleasures was law. In all she was devoted and self-sacrificing, and noble qualities will dwell in our hearts until we are permitted to clasp her dear hands in the Beautiful Beyond.

A. D. B. Seabrook, Ga. Apr. 29th, 1903.

Mistrial In Nan Patterson's Case.

The jury in the great murder trial of Nan Patterson, charged with the murder of a man named Young in New York, has made a mistrial for the second time. The case has attracted a great deal of attention, owing only to the fact that The Associated Press has taken it up in a sensational manner, and dished it out to their newspaper patrons.

There are hundreds of just as important murder cases that are passed practically unnoticed every year.

This may be the end of the case. It is very unlikely that the prosecution will make another fight to convict the actress. Then all murder cases grow weaker after a mistrial.

The City Court.

The May term of the city court was in session for only a short while on Wednesday, and only a few cases were disposed of, none of which was of public importance. The session was short on account of the busy season among the farmers.

About That "Typographical Error!"

We are always very careful about making an assertion, and will not make one that we cannot substantiate. We desire to recall some facts to show that we were correct in saying that our manager, L. C. Glisson, is "the originator of every Advance in the cold drink business in Statesboro for the last five years."

He was the first man to serve ice cream at the soda fountain; he was the first one to serve a variety of ice creams; he was the first to serve ice cream soda; the first to serve fruit with drinks and ice cream. Milk shakes sold at 10 cents until he started in the drink business; he reduced them to 5 cents the first thing. He was in the lead in furnishing tables and chairs for the comfort of customers, and first in numerous other innovations—new drinks in great variety—at great expense of advertising, etc.

We not only have the best qualified soda water man to superintend our soda water business, but when it is all in, which will be in a few days, we will have the most elegant, neatest, most sanitary and best equipped soda fountain in this part of the state. However, you do not drink the fountain—it is the quality of the drinks that counts. You will be impressed with the quality of our drinks.

Remember, our tumblers are not abbreviated—we serve a full-size drink.

BROOKLET.

The 5th Sunday in April will go down in history as one of the happiest days of our genial H. K. Thayer. The stork visited his home and left a twelve pound boy.

Miss Mamie Hiers, of Hubert, was the guest of Mrs. P. H. Crumpler Saturday and Sunday. Mr. C. E. Broughton's shingle mill is running regularly now and he is cutting 25,000 yprass shingles per day. His mill is located at the Robinson crossing of the S & S rail road, one mile south of town.

Mr. Milton Smith and wife and Mrs. J. L. Lane left Monday for Telfair county. They will spend fifteen days at the McElven Mineral springs.

Miss Rosalie Corson, of Hubert, with her cheerful smiles and affable disposition was a pleasant visitor to our town Saturday and Sunday.

The home of Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Crumpler was thrown open Friday night to the young people of Brooklet and a very pleasant social evening was spent. The principle features of entertainment was either a recitation or song from each one present. The sweetest song of all was that by Mrs. Crumpler. Those in attendance from a distance were Misses Hiers and Corson of Hubert.

Dr. H. K. Thayer sold 100 acres of land Monday near town to Mr. C. C. Newman of Ludovic. Mr. Newman will build a handsome house here this summer and move to Brooklet. We extend to him and family a cordial welcome.

Messrs. J. W. Robertson and N. J. Wilson have bought from Mr. W. C. Parker his stock of merchandise in Brooklet. While we are sorry to lose Mr. Parker from our list of Merchants, we welcome the new firm and wish for them much prosperity. Both Mr. Robertson and Wilson are well known and liked in and around Brooklet, each of them are experienced merchants and we feel safe in saying that their patrons will find them courteous and appreciative. They will increase their present stock and handle a general line of merchandise in the brick store formerly occupied by Mr. Parker.

The crops around Brooklet are the prettiest we ever saw at this season of the year. Quite a crowd from Brooklet attended the show in Statesboro on Saturday.

Rev. P. H. Crumpler will preach at the Methodist church Sunday night. His Easter sermon at Harmony was a beautiful production and in the night we heard him in Brooklet.

We are authorized to announce that Elder E. W. Powell, of Excalibur will preach at Lanes church the 1st Sunday in May at eleven o'clock, and at Brooklet Methodist church in the afternoon at 4:30.

Strictly Genuine. Most of the patent medicine testimonials are probably genuine. The following notice recently appeared in the Atchison (Kan.) Globe: "Joe Tack, a well known engineer, running on the Missouri Pacific between Wichita, Kansas, lately appeared in a big one, with a picture, and when he was in this office today, we asked him about it. He says he had terrible pains in his stomach, and thought he had cancer. His druggist recommended Kodol and he says it cured him. He recommended it to others, who were also cured. 'Kodol Dyspepsia Cure' digests what you eat and cures all stomach troubles. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

LAND FOR SALE. I have about thirty acres of good land in and near the corporate limits of the town of Statesboro that I will sell. This is good land and desirably located. N. V. B. POSS.

Saved By Dynamite

Sometimes a flaming fire is saved by dynamiting space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cown hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake at night. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which cured her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her."

Letter to J. I. Brannen.

Dear Sir: Fortchouco, so much, near, so much, all the way between. Just so with paint. Devote lead-and-zinc is the porthouse. Nobody wants the neck; the between, some say, is good enough for them.

But Devote lead-and-zinc is not more, than between. Lead-and-zinc is between; it is the old-fashion paint. But zinc has come in. Zinc toughens white lead; Devote lead-and-zinc is the paint that wears twice as long as lead-and-zinc.

Mr. John N. Dettie, Fair Haven, N. Y., writes:

"Mr. Charles Hollenbeck, of this place, painted his house three years ago with Devote lead-and-zinc; his father painted at the same time with lead-and-zinc. Today the son's house looks as well as the day it was painted, while the father's house has all chalked off and needs painting very badly. The father says he will paint with Devote next time."

Yours truly,
F. W. Devote & Co.

C. B. GRINER MAKES REPLY.

Mr. Editor:

Never was I more surprised than when I read the little article of Mr. L. C. Glisson in your Friday's paper, when he so emphatically denied ever selling his rights to do business, or being under any obligations whatever to any one to do business of any kind in Statesboro.

BLACK SPOT IN THE SON.

In behalf of myself and several others I will be obliged to brand his denial as false—false that will not stand the least of investigation—false that may do for some folks to live by, but false that will not do for anyone to die by.

Stop and think. When you made that wild-goose chase to the far west, over the contention and the better judgement of your younger brother, and you landed in the metropolis of that rich land—St. Louis—there spent three long months reaping the rich reward of your skill and knowledge as originator of all refreshments.

Then what happened? You know better than I can tell, but just to remind you: How about that little letter that found its way to the people who had gone for three long months without refreshments, as they had lost the originator and none other would do, bridge the news that the old originator would soon return?

Sure enough, in a few days he appeared and came straight to me and wanted to know if I would sell back to him. I refused. You then asked me to assist you in getting work. As a friend I spoke to one of the largest merchants in our town in your behalf. Later you came to me with the news that you were figuring with Dr. Lively with a view of buying his drug store, but as you had sold your right to me to sell refreshments, etc., as you remembered then, (but you have now forgotten) you said you would not buy his business unless I would consent for you to sell refreshments.

I objected, and consequently you did not trade. (Black spot in the son) but accepted a position with the Blitch Co.

During your stay with them Mr. Turner offered to furnish the money for you and he to do a mercantile business; and you must have told him about your obligation, as he came up town to see me, and talked to my partner about what you had told him.

Now where is the falsehood?

You later came back to me and offered to buy my business and I refused to sell. Then you said that would relieve you of your obligations. If it did I will say no more, but I will leave it for the honest folks of our town to say whether or not that would blot out your obligations.

I still could not believe that you would sit flat down on your word, but I was later told that you was to leave on the next Monday to New York to purchase a large stock of racket store goods.

I sent for you, which you will remember, and on Friday night you came in my store and I asked you if the reports were true, you told me they were true and that you would leave Monday. I asked you to sit down and let me repeat our agreement, and if I vary one hair's breadth from the whole truth please correct me for I may be mistaken, though I knew I was not.

I said, did you not tell me when I bought your stock of goods and gave you 20 per cent. more than the adjusters said it was worth that when you left here you would burn the bridge behind you and sell me all of your advertised business?

I asked, did you not say that if you ever came to this town again it would be on a short visit?

I asked, did you not say that you would give me this in black and white? My reply was, if your word is not good your paper would not be. I said in comparison, looks are made for honest folks, rogues break them.

I asked, did you not tell me that you would never do business of any kind in Statesboro again?

I asked, do you expect to remain in St. Louis? His answer was, if I don't I will go farther West. To all these questions he answered yes; but can't I change my mind? I said yes you can, but you will not change your obligations when you do.

"Time to speak, time to keep silence." If you ever expected to do business in Statesboro you ought to have kept silent last July when you were selling your business and future interest and now would have been time for you to speak, but you did your talking last year and now is your time to keep silent unless you learn better how to keep from contradicting your own statements.

Now in conclusion I will say, that I am the one who circulated the report that I had bought your right, and told it in good faith; based my statement on his word and would have been willing at the time to have bet, had I been a betting man, any amount that no man could have induced you to have gone back on your word after I had taken it in preference to writing. But don't understand me to say that you have broken these obligations. I have not said that; I only say that you have denied making any. If you have broken them I have not been able to catch you. Your obligations were not to do business in Statesboro again—nothing said about trying to do it.

In regards to that wonderful originator, he would have you believe that he was the first to touch the panting lips of crying children with ice cream. Bless my time, our grave yards are spotted with little mounds where gray headed women are asleep who made ice cream for their children long before Statesboro or St. Louis ever was blessed with an originator.

If you did not sell me your rights, please answer the following questions:

First. Why did you come around to see me when you were figuring with Dr. Lively, and ask me if I would object to you selling refreshments; said you had sold your rights to me? I objected. Consequently, you did not trade with Dr. Lively. The public knows that.

Second. If you did not tell Mr. Turner you were under obligations to me, why did he come up to see me and my partner? Be careful, you will call somebody a liar who you did not intend.

Third. Why did you acknowledge all these things to me and say you had changed your mind?

Fourth. Why did you tell me if I did not accept your money and sell back to you, that that would relieve you of your obligations? Be careful, your partner knows you said that.

Now in answer to all these questions I would advise you to take your time or you might make as big a mistake as you did in last Friday's paper; deny something that I, my friends, you and your friends, all know is true. I know there are times to keep silence, but a man should always speak the truth when it is his time to speak.

An Elaborate Wedding.

One of the swiftest weddings that has taken place in this community in some time was that of Mr. Adolphus Smith to Mrs. Fannie Atkins, which occurred at the home of the bride about three miles from Statesboro, on Sunday morning, just as outlined by the News in its Friday's issue.

At an early hour the people from all that community began to gather, and by ten o'clock, the hour set for the nuptial knot to be fastened, the house was packed to its utmost capacity. The yard, too, was full, which, in itself, attested the popularity of the bride and groom. Exactly as the clock tolled the hour Mr. Smith led to the altar his blushing bride, and the two were made one by Rev. T. J. Cobb, who was master of the ceremony. They were preceded to the altar by the following two young couples who acted as best man and brides maids: Mr. Thomas Deal and Miss Stella Lee, Mr. Dalton Woods and Miss Zada Deal.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white silk and carried a bouquet of white roses.

After the ceremony the young couple was followed by a host of friends to Friendship church. After services the home of the bride was the scene of one of the finest wedding dinners seen in this section for some time.

The News extends congratulations.

Did Preacher Hang His Wife?

Louisville, Ky., May 5.—Rev. U. G. Sutherland, formerly pastor of the Park Christian church at New Albany, Ind., was arrested today at Silver Grove, Ind., on a warrant charging him with the murder of his wife. Last October the body of Mrs. Sutherland was found hanging from a tree in her home and it was supposed to be a case of suicide.

Mrs. Sutherland's father, however, laid information before a grand jury recently charging Rev. Mr. Sutherland with her murder and the arrest followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland had not lived together for some time prior to the time when the body was found.

Communicated.

Statesboro, Ga. May 8, 1905.

Mr. Editor:

The week's meeting of the Statesboro Primitive Baptist church began yesterday. Elder Bussay, of Columbus, Ga., preached at 11 o'clock a. m. to a large and attentive congregation with good effect. Elder A. V. Simms, of Valdosta, occupied the pulpit at 8 p. m. I do believe they are holy men of God to whom He has given wisdom to speak of the way and plan of salvation. They are highly esteemed in their own country.

We cordially and with affection invite our brethren, sisters and friends to meet with us. We fell assured we are going to have a glorious meeting.

Passes Away.

Mr. A. M. Ethridge, an old and highly respected citizen of Bulloch county, passed peacefully away to the Great Beyond one day last week. The deceased was a victim of paralysis.

With a Shoe String She Ends Her Life.

New York, May 5.—Mamie Van Ranst, an unmarried daughter of O. W. Van Ranst, a publisher who died last fall in his home on West Eighty Fourth street, was found dead in a small flat at No. 148 St. Nicholas avenue, which she had occupied since her father's death. She had strangled herself with a shoe-string. The deed was apparently done several days ago, for when the flat was forced open a pet bull terrier belonging to the woman was found to be almost dead from lack of food.

They found the body stretched on the parlor floor, the face swollen and the body discolored.

The pet dog ran towards them as they entered and fell exhausted. It had evidently tried to alarm the neighbors during its long vigil with its dead mistress, for the fur-nitures was upset and the bed clothes were torn to ribbons.

Two Negroes to Die on Gallows.

Birmingham, Ala., May 5.—A News special from Decatur says that the jury in the case of John Collier, colored, charged with the murder of Miss Belle Bloodworth, returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree today and fixed punishment at death.

Harvey Smith, colored, was convicted of the same crime and given a life sentence on Tuesday.

The trials of both negroes were held under military guard to prevent mob violence.

Will Jackson, colored, convicted of the murder of Sanitary Officer Steele, is now being held and will remain until executed.

First Hanging in 30 Years.

Newman, Ga., May 5.—After thanking the sheriff and jailor for their kind treatment and saying, "Farewell, my white friends," Greely Phillips, a negro, was hanged here today. Great crowds were about the jail and place of execution, but only a few persons witnessed the hanging. It was the first legal execution in this county in thirty years.

It should always be kept in the house ready for instant use, for a cold can be cured in much less time when promptly treated. For sale by All Druggists.

Atlanta, Ga., May 5.—Requisition papers for Marc S. Potter, former cashier of the Daviess bank, who is charged with defaulting with $24,000 of the funds of that institution, were issued Thursday afternoon by Gov. Terrell. Thomas Hewitt, a detective of Savannah, whose work located Potter at work for a trust company in Los Angeles, was named to go after Potter. He expects to have the missing cashier back in Savannah inside of two weeks.

Potter is not only charged with the embezzlement of the funds of the bank, but is charged with forgery and larceny after trust. He fled from Georgia and went to the City of Mexico, finally returning to Los Angeles, where he was arrested and is now in jail. The officials of the Daviess bank, who offered $1,000 for his arrest, will prosecute him to the fullest extent of the law when he is returned to the state.

THROUGH TO SAVANNAH.

The Savannah & Statesboro Train Will Start May 14.

On and after next Sunday, May 14th, the Savannah & Statesboro railway will operate passenger coaches through to Savannah. In addition to the regular passenger coaches, the train will carry freight cars through to Savannah the same day they are loaded, and this will afford shippers the opportunity of getting their products into the city early in the morning when they can dispose of them and return home the same day.

The train will leave Statesboro about six o'clock in the morning and return about six in the evening, and will give the people of Statesboro and along the line almost the entire day in Savannah. We understand that connections will be made at Cuyler for the trains on the Seaboard, and enable passengers to go up or down that road, and this will no doubt add considerably to the passenger business.

President J. Randolph Anderson says he proposes to give the people of Statesboro and all the points on the line benefits of a first class passenger and freight service, and Superintendent H. B. Grimsbaw is doing valuable work along these lines, and is keeping the road bed in fine condition, and the trains move exactly on time.

Residence Was Burned.

Mr. Joseph J. Huske, who resides at Exceisor, had the misfortune to lose his residence and most of his furniture by fire last Friday.

The house caught from the kitchen, while dinner was being prepared, and before any assistance could arrive, the fire had made such headway that it could not be stopped, and only a few of the household goods were saved. Mr. Huske had insurance of one thousand dollars on his dwelling and furniture, which will go toward recouping his losses.
