1862. Baldwin 1901.

30 Years of Progress Crowned By
The World's Highest Honors.

The recent victories of the house of Baldwin at the Paris Exposition give to its products a value and prestige not possessed by any other American piano.

The grand Prix awarded the Baldwin Piano is an honor coveted by all the manufacturers of the world, but which has never been bestowed upon any American piano except the Baldwin.

The Silver Medal awarded the Hamilton pianos and organs shows the estimate of the International Jury of these standard instruments.

The fifteen other awards (Gold, Silver and Bronze medals, and honorable mentions) serve to emphasize the GREAT ONE, and show the high value placed upon the details of construction and the inventions embodied in these instruments.

METTER

Mr. J. A. Grubbs, of Jessup, who has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. T. H. Burns, returned home last Tuesday.

Mr. J. E. Cowart and little daughter, Mae, of Summit, spent a few days of this week here visiting friends and relatives.

Dr. J. S. Chambers, of Quincy, was a pleasant caller to town this week.

Mr. W. L. Jones made a flying business trip to Savannah Tuesday.

Mr. Charles Mikell and family left for Horace last Tuesday where they go to make their future home.

Miss Lola Bowen is spending a few days of this week in Statesboro, visiting her aunt, Mrs. Mayvann Lanier.

Misses Eva Groover and Maggie Kennedy, of Emitt, and Tiny Grimes of Statesboro, were guests of the McLean house during the union meeting.

The owners of the Hiawatha Springs about three or four miles west of here on the Canoochee river received the analysis of the waters this week. The ingredients and their per cent are as follows:

Sodium bicarbonate .4808
Potassium bicarbonate .1198
Calcium bicarbonate .2507
Magnesium bicarbonate .0085
Oxide-iron alumina .0080
Sodium chloride .1410
Silica .2890
Organic, volatile matter 1.8418

The water of these springs has already proven to be quite famous for their medicinal qualities. The people have visited these springs from far and near and used the water and found it to be very helpful to them.

Mr. J. T. Wright and wife, of Sharon, was in town Sunday to attend the funeral of their daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. T. Wright.

Saved By Dynamite

Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cown hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake at night. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which cured her, gave her sleep, and finally cured her."

Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and laryngitis. At W. H. Ellis' drug store, price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

A Creeping Death

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Bell plain, Minn., writes that a friend, dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklin's Arctic Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at W. H. Ellis' drug store.

SNAP.

One of the most enjoyable features of the week was an ice cream supper at the home of Mrs. Ida Horton on Saturday.

Miss Leola Bradley and sisters made a flying trip to Statesboro one day this week.

Mrs. and Mrs. S. L. Newton returned home on Sunday morning from Metter, where they have been attending Union meeting.

Mr. Charles Parish, of Sylvania, passed through our midst one day this week.

Mr. C. R. Robbins of Haleyton, was the guest of Mr. G. L. Best on Sunday.

Miss Effie Hart was the guest of Miss Iva Best Sunday.

Messrs. Demmas Robbins and S. M. Sikes past through our midst one day last week.

We are glad to state that Mr. P. C. Hagin is able to be up again.

Letter to J. I. Brannen.

Dear Sir: Fortunate, so much, near, so much, all the way between. Just so with paint. Devote lead-and-zinc is the porthouse. Nobody wants the neck; the between, some say, is good enough for them.

But Devote lead-and-zinc is not more, than between. Lead-and-zinc is between; it is the old-fashion paint. But zinc has come in. Zinc toughens white lead; Devote lead-and-zinc is the paint that wears twice as long as lead-and-zinc.

Mr. John N. Dettie, Fair Haven, N. Y., writes:

"Mr. Charles Hollenbeck, of this place, painted his house three years ago with Devote lead-and-zinc; his father painted at the same time with lead-and-zinc. Today the son's house looks as well as the day it was painted, while the father's house has all chalked off and needs painting very badly. The father says he will paint with Devote next time."

Yours truly,
F. W. Devote & Co.

Annual Meeting

The Primitive Baptists will hold their 8-day annual meeting at this place, commencing Sunday next at 11 o'clock a. m. Elders H. Buesoy, of Columbus, and A. V. ## C. B. GRINER MAKES REPLY.

MR. EDITOR:

Never was I more surprised than when I read the little article of Mr. L. C. Glisson in your Friday's paper, when he so emphatically denied ever selling his rights to do business, or being under any obligations whatever to any one to do business of any kind in Statesboro.

BLACK SPOT IN THE SON.

In behalf of myself and several others I will be obliged to brand his denial as false—false that will not stand the least of investigation—false that may do for some folks to live by, but false that will not do for anyone to die by.

Stop and think. When you made that wild-goose chase to the far west, over the contention and the better judgement of your younger brother, and you landed in the metropolis of that rich land—St. Louis—there spent three long months reaping the rich reward of your skill and knowledge as originator of all refreshments.

Then what happened? You know better than I can tell, but just to remind you: How about that little letter that found its way to the people who had gone for three long months without refreshments, as they had lost the originator and none other would do, bridge the news that the old originator would soon return?

Sure enough, in a few days he appeared and came straight to me and wanted to know if I would sell back to him. I refused. You then asked me to assist you in getting work. As a friend I spoke to one of the largest merchants in our town in your behalf. Later you came to me with the news that you were figuring with Dr. Lively with a view of buying his drug store, but as you had sold your right to me to sell refreshments, etc., as you remembered then, (but you have now forgotten) you said you would not buy his business unless I would consent for you to sell refreshments.

I objected, and consequently you did not trade. (Black spot in the son) but accepted a position with the Blitch Co.

During your stay with them Mr. Turner offered to furnish the money for you and he to do a mercantile business; and you must have told him about your obligation, as he came up town to see me, and talked to my partner about what you had told him.

Now where is the falsehood? You later came back to me and offered to buy my business and I refused to sell. Then you said that would relieve you of your obligations. If it did I will say no more, but I will leave it for the honest folks of our town to say whether or not that would blot out your obligations.

I still could not believe that you would sit flat down on your word, but I was later told that you was to leave on the next Monday to New York to purchase a large stock of racket store goods. I sent for you, which you will remember, and on Friday night you came in my store and I asked you if the reports were true, you told me they were true and that you would leave Monday. I asked you to sit down and let me repeat our agreement, and if I vary one hair's breadth from the whole truth please correct me for I may be mistaken, though I knew I was not.

I said, did you not tell me when I bought your stock of goods and gave you 20 per cent. more than the adjusters said it was worth that when you left here you would burn the bridge behind you and sell me all of your advertised business?

I asked, did you not say that if you ever came to this town again it would be on a short visit?

I asked, did you not say that you would give me this in black and white? My reply was, if your word is not good your paper would not be. I said in comparison, looks are made for honest folks, rogues break them.

I asked, did you not tell me that you would never do business of any kind in Statesboro again?

I asked, do you expect to remain in St. Louis? His answer was, if I don't I will go farther West. To all these questions he answered yes; but can't I change my mind? I said yes you can, but you will not change your obligations when you do.

"Time to speak, time to keep silence." If you ever expected to do business in Statesboro you ought to have kept silent last July when you were selling your business and future interest and now would have been time for you to speak, but you did your talking last year and now is your time to keep silent unless you learn better how to keep from contradicting your own statements.

Now in conclusion I will say, that I am the one who circulated the report that I had bought your right, and told it in good faith; based my statement on his word and would have been willing at the time to have bet, had I been a betting man, any amount that no man could have induced you to have gone back on your word after I had taken it in preference to writing. But don't understand me to say that you have broken these obligations. I have not said that; I only say that you have denied making any. If you have broken them I have not been able to catch you. Your obligations were not to do business in Statesboro again—nothing said about trying to do it.

In regards to that wonderful originator, he would have you believe that he was the first to touch the panting lips of crying children with ice cream. Bless my time, our grave yards are spotted with little mounds where gray headed women are asleep who made ice cream for their children long before Statesboro or St. Louis ever was blessed with an originator.

If you did not sell me your rights, please answer the following questions:

First. Why did you come around to see me when you were figuring with Dr. Lively, and ask me if I would object to you selling refreshments; said you had sold your rights to me? I objected. Consequently, you did not trade with Dr. Lively. The public knows that.

Second. If you did not tell Mr. Turner you were under obligations to me, why did he come up to see me and my partner? Be careful, you will call somebody a liar who you did not intend.

Third. Why did you acknowledge all these things to me and say you had changed your mind?

Fourth. Why did you tell me if I did not accept your money and sell back to you, that that would relieve you of your obligations? Be careful, your partner knows you said that.

Now in answer to all these questions I would advise you to take your time or you might make as big a mistake as you did in last Friday's paper; deny something that I, my friends, you and your friends, all know is true. I know there are times to keep silence, but a man should always speak the truth when it is his time to speak.

C. B. GRINER.

An Elaborate Wedding.

One of the swiftest weddings that has taken place in this community in some time was that of Mr. Adolphus Smith to Mrs. Fannie Atkins, which occurred at the home of the bride about three miles from Statesboro, on Sunday morning, just as outlined by the News in its Friday's issue.

At an early hour the people from all that community began to gather, and by ten o'clock, the hour set for the nuptial knot to be fastened, the house was packed to its utmost capacity. The yard, too, was full, which, in itself, attested the popularity of the bride and groom. Exactly as the clock tolled the hour Mr. Smith led to the altar his blushing bride, and the two were made one by Rev. T. J. Cobb, who was master of the ceremony. They were preceded to the altar by the following two young couples who acted as best man and brides maids: Mr. Thomas Deal and Miss Stella Lee, Mr. Dalton Woods and Miss Zada Deal.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white silk and carried a bouquet of white roses.

After the ceremony the young couple was followed by a host of friends to Friendship church. After services the home of the bride was the scene of one of the finest wedding dinners seen in this section for some time.

The News extends congratulations.

Two Negroes to Die on Gallows.

Birmingham, Ala., May 5.—A News special from Decatur says that the jury in the case of John Collier, colored, charged with the murder of Miss Belle Bloodworth, returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree today and fixed punishment at death.

Harvey Smith, colored, was convicted of the same crime and given a life sentence on Tuesday.

The trials of both negroes were held under military guard to prevent mob violence.

Will Jackson, colored, convicted of the murder of Sanitary Officer Steele, is now being held and will remain until executed.

First Hanging in 30 Years.

Newman, Ga., May 5.—After thanking the sheriff and jailor for their kind treatment and saying, "Farewell, my white friends," Greely Phillips, a negro, was hanged here today. Great crowds were about the jail and place of execution, but only a few persons witnessed the hanging. It was the first legal execution in this county in thirty years.

Hot Weather Piles.

Persons afflicted with piles should be careful at this season of the year. Hot weather and bad drinking water contribute to the conditions which make piles more painful and dangerous. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve stops the pain, draws out the soreness and cures. Get the genuine, bearing the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co. sold by W. H. Ellis.

Communicated.

Statesboro, Ga. May 8, 1905.

MR. EDITOR:

The week's meeting of the Statesboro Primitive Baptist church began yesterday. Elder Buesoy, of Columbus, Ga., preached at 11 o'clock a. m. to a large and attentive congregation with good effect. Elder A. V. Simms, of Valdosta, occupied the pulpit at 8 p. m. I do believe they are holy men of God to whom He has given wisdom to speak of the way and plan of salvation. They are highly esteemed in their own country. We cordially and with affection invite our brethren, sisters and friends to meet with us. We fell assured we are going to have a glorious meeting.

M. C. Jones.

Passes Away.

Mr. A. M. Ethridge, an old and highly respected citizen of Bulloch county, passed peacefully away to the Great Beyond one day last week. The deceased was a victim of paralysis.

With a Shoe String She Ends Her Life.

New York, May 5.—Mamie Van Ranst, an unmarried daughter of O. W. Van Ranst, a publisher who died last fall in his home on West Eighty Fourth street, was found dead in a small flat at No. 148 St. Nicholas avenue, which she had occupied since her father's death.

She had strangled herself with a shoe-string. The deed was apparently done several days ago, for when the flat was forced open a pet bull terrier belonging to the woman was found to be almost dead from lack of food.

They found the body stretched on the parlor floor, the face swollen and the body discolored.

The pet dog ran towards them as they entered and fell exhausted. It had evidently tried to alarm the neighbors during its long vigil with its dead mistress, for the fur-nitures were upset and the bed clothes were torn to ribbons.

Entered as Second Class Matter, May 1, 1906.

Man Patterson has again escaped by a jury failing to agree, and no doubt Man will soon be free.

It's getting time of the year for the blackberries to get ripe and the excursions to start up.

The demand for new counties is constantly on the increase, and the legislature will have a big job on its hands.

Good old summer time is right on us, and the lazy man is looking for a cool place.

Millen is feeling sure of that new county, and will name it Dixie, and it is counted a sure winner in the contest.

The way to reform is to reform, and the way to quit drinking mean liquor is to quit, and the sooner, the better.

The weather is hot, but this does not deter the church folks from having big meetings, but it is tough on the cooks.

The convention season is a hand, and all kinds of organizations will have their reunions in various cities.

The country moves along in its way, even if the great straggler is hid among the rocks of Colorado shooting bears.

There should be no more bare hands, either with the whites or blacks until the farmers get their crops all cleaned out.

General Green is charging all the cotton patches, but it is believed that the hoe brigade of the sturdy yeomanry will win after all.

The fellow who sells or gives away cigarettes, or cigarette paper is violating the law and will be run in. He is really worse than the blind tiger buck.

Carnegie is opposed to his kinsfolk marrying worthless dukes. Why not let some of them try a cigarette fond?

Your uncle Ole is right, Harvey Jordan is looking for a scapegoat to account for the big crop of cotton, after all his work to prevent it.

The people are looking toward South Georgia, and our population is increasing every year, and our industries are multiplying rapidly. Watch us.

Savannah and all that section of the country was visited by a regular cloudburst on Sunday afternoon. The water is said to have stood four inches all over the ground for several miles around. Maybe that will wash them caterpillars out to sea.

The Statesboro News hears that it is freely conceded that Murphy Chandler will be the next president of the Georgia senate. Down in Lowndes there are contrary rumors. Ordinary folks will just have to throw dice to get a line on the race.—Augusta Herald.

Reports from all over the country are to the effect that the farmers are badly in the grass. The "fo' day club" seems to have its hands full in this section. In some sections the farmers are giving a dollar a day for cotton choppers.

One of the greatest blessings a modern man can wish for is a good, reliable set of bowels. If you are not a happy possessor of such an outfit you can greatly improve the efficiency of those you have by the judicious use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are pleasant to take and agreeable in effect. For sale by All Druggists.

Why So Prompt?

When you go to church make it a point to be behind time, for then people can see your fine clothes when you strut down the aisle, and the people who were on time, and quietly listening to the preacher, will have to rise up and give you a seat. The preacher can stop while you are looking for a seat, and have time to think of his sermon, and besides the preacher don't mind being bothered. Of course everybody in the house will look at you when you come in, and lose what the preacher is saying. If you promise to meet anybody at ten o'clock, don't go till eleven, because the other fellow has nothing to do but wait for you, and will be glad to see you when you get there, provided he has not left and gone home. If you have a note due at bank, you can pay it any old time, and the bank will be delighted to let you alone. If you want to take a train, you need not hurry, but can be late if you want to, for the train will go right on and leave you behind. You need not be prompt unless you want to, but people will soon find you out, and let you alone, and not take any of your promises, for they know you don't mean it.

ROCKY FORD R F D NO 1

The marriage of Mr. J. P. Miller to Miss Maude Newton at the Methodist church on Wednesday night was largely attended, and was one of the most beautiful we ever saw. Rev. T. D. Ellis performed the ceremony. Mr. Miller is employed in the mercantile business with W. H. Parker & Son, of this place. The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. M. Newton, our postmaster. We wish for them a happy voyage across the matrimonial sea.

Mr. W. J. Fulcher has purchased some mules, and expects to go in the saw mill business.

Mr. J. F. Mixon, who has been confined to his bed with rheumatism for several months, is improving and is able to attend to his business.

The school in the Sills neighborhood is under the management of Miss Mary Ford of Statesboro. The post office at Portal will be discontinued on May the 31st.

Mr. A. J. Miller's barn was destroyed by fire a few nights ago. He was awakened by the roaring of the flames and rushed out just in time to save his stock. However, one mule was burned so bad until it died. All the contents of the barn was lost. The fire is said to be an incendiary, as tracks were discovered on the premises.

Mr. Lewis Miller is up again.

Convicted of Murder; Claims He Is Insane.

Mrs. Casandra Henley, of Anniston, Ala., called at the office of the state prison commissioner Tuesday morning to urge that her brother, who gives his name as Frank Adams, under death sentence for killing his wife, at Newnan, last January, be pardoned. She claimed the man is crazy and states that he escaped from the Alabama state sanitarium for the insane several years ago, since which time he has changed his name. His right name, says Mrs. Henley, is Charles Vining. Adams or Vining is now confined in the Fulton county jail.

Mrs. Henley did not appear before the commission, which was in session, the case not having reached the board as yet. It will first go to the supreme court on a bill of exceptions.

"My brother has always been mentally unbalanced," said Mrs. Henley. "He was sent to the asylum about ten years ago in Alabama, but effected his escape, after which he left the state and changed his name. I didn't know he was ever married until I heard that he had been sentenced to hang for the murder of his wife"—Atlanta Journal.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

is the easiest and most effective form of cod liver oil. Here's a natural order of things that shows why Scott's Emulsion is of so much value in all cases of scrofula and consumption. More fat, more weight, more nourishment, that's why.

Rural Carriers Meet.

The rural mail carriers of Bulloch county met in the city of Metter on last Saturday night and discussed matters of importance.

Messrs. Price, Proctor, Morris and Davis attended from the Statesboro division, and those from Metter, Register and other points were present. The rural carriers are the people's friends and are doing a great work, and the people in the country are beginning to appreciate how much good they are doing the country, in placing a daily mail at every man's door and thus putting the farmers in touch with the world.

The routes are being continually laid out and it will not be long before every citizen will have it pass his house.

Our sister city of Metter is coming into importance as a convention city.

The following are the minutes of the meeting:

Metter, Ga., May 6, 1906.

The Rural Letter Carriers' association of Bulloch county, met at Metter at 7:30 p. m. at the school house.

The meeting was called to order by A. E. Price, and R. J. Proctor was elected president pro tem in the absence of Allen F. Morris, regular president.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and adopted.

Three new members were elected: W. R. Lee, Metter, route 2; M. A. Collins, Jr., Pulaski, No. 1; J. W. Lee, Quince, Tattall county, No. 1. Each of these members paid 25c. entrance fee.

R. J. Proctor was elected vice president to take the place of L. A. Brown, resigned.

The following resolutions were adopted:

1. A committee of Allen F. Morris and A. E. Price was appointed to call on the ordinary and get his advice on having the rural routes roads put in good condition.

2. John W. Lee was appointed to call on some lawyer and draw up resolutions to be presented to our representatives to the general assembly and pass a law to have settlement roads traversed by rural routes made public roads.

The next meeting will be held at Statesboro, June 24 at 9:30 a. m. The meeting was adjourned at 8:30 p. m.

R. J. Proctor, Pres. A. E. Price, Sec'y.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism

Why suffer from rheumatism when an application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm will relieve the pain? The quick relief which this liniment affords makes rest and sleep possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost. Many who have used it hoping only for a short relief from suffering have been happily surprised to find that after awhile the relief became permanent. Mrs. V. H. Leggett of Yum Yum, Tennessee, U. A. writes: "I am a great sufferer from rheumatism, all over from head to foot. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the only thing that will relieve the pain." For sale by all Druggists.

Things In The Local Field

Mr. Dan L. Kennedy, of Jimp, together with Mr. Jordan Rimes have one of the best fish ponds in the county, and are getting fish.

FOR SALE—Seven room house and lot for sale. Apply to A. H. Mathews.

Phone us for what you want in groceries, Goulds Grocery

Mr. Horace Wilson, of Jimp, was among the visitors to the city this week.

If you want your groceries delivered promptly, phone Goulds Grocery.

Mr. A. J. Miller, of Port, had the misfortune to lose his barn with corn and fodder, and two valuable mules by fire a few days ago. Mr. Miller offers a reward of one hundred dollars, for the arrest and proof to convict the party who burned it. This is the second time he has been burned out, as last year he lost his dwelling and contents, and he believes that some evil person set the fire.

Sick headache results from a disordered stomach and is quickly cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by All Druggists.

For fruit and vegetables see us, Goulds Grocery

FOR SALE—Four head of good milch cows for sale; apply to the undersigned.

James M. Minny, Statesboro, Ga. Route No. 2.

Mr. James R. Hall has purchased an interest in the firm of Messrs. Leslie Lee & Bro. at Brooklet, and the firm will now be known as Lee & Hall. We predict for them a successful business.

Remember we guarantee everything we sell. Goulds Grocery

REWARD—I will pay one hundred dollars reward, with proof to convict the party who set fire to and burned my barn with corn, fodder and two mules on the night of April 20th. This May 8th 1905.

A. J. Miller, Rocky Ford, Ga.

We understand that Mr. J. E. Brown, of Stilson, may buy an interest in the firm of The J. W. Olliff Co., and should he do so he will move to Statesboro. Mr. Brown conducts a prosperous mercantile business at Stilson, and enjoys a fine patronage. Should he decide to move here, the business at Stilson would be continued as heretofore.

Yes we want your trade and will treat you right. Come and see us, Goulds Grocery

Mrs. Jesse W. Sample, of Reidsville, has been visiting in the city this week.

A car load of fine horses for sale at Smith & Olliff's.

GIRL WANTED—to do book-keeping and office work. Apply "Hudson" care of News.

Mr. A. J. Clary, one of Bulloch's leading business men sent us in a large cucumber and a corn tassel from his farm yesterday. Mr. Clary cannot be classed as strictly a farmer, he is more of what might be termed an "Agri-culturist" inasmuch as his farm consist only in a small garden at the rear of his residence in the business section of the city. But he has some of the finest corn in the county, as tall as a man's head, provided the man is not too tall.

Mr. H. I. Waters has the finest field of corn in the county.

Editor M. E. Carter, of Pembroke, was a pleasant caller at this office last Saturday.

Mr. J. W. Olliff left on yesterday for Hot Springs, N. C., where he will spend sometime for the benefit of his health.

Mr. D. F. McCoy has been at White Springs, Fla., for the past week for the benefit of his health.

We understand that Mr. C. E. Broughton and a company of gentlemen intend putting in a first class brick plant at Cuyler, at the junction of the S. & S. and S. A. L. railroads. It is said that the clay at that point is especially adapted to the manufacture of first class brick, and that a large plant will be put in.

Time Tried And Merit Proven One Minute cough cure is right on time when it comes to curing coughs, croup, whooping cough, etc. It is perfectly harmless, pleasant to take and is the children's favorite cough syrup sold by W. H. Ellis.

Mr. Henry Mathews, of Pearson, spent the past two or three days in the city.

Miss Stella Sample came down from College Park one day last week and is visiting in the city.

Mr. M. C. Smith, one of the best farmers of the county was here yesterday.

Saved By Dynamite Sometimes a flaming city is saved by dynamiting space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very bad cough, which kept her awake at night. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and lagrippe. At W. H. Ellis' drug store, price 50c and $1.00 guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Revenge of a Small Boy. I was taking luncheon with a friend the other day who has a little boy about three years old, writes T. P. A., in Harper's Magazine. As a very special favor, and to please me, his mother allowed him to come to the table, telling me that she could not promise that he would behave in the proper manner, as she had never tried him before.

The bright little fellow behaved very well through the first part of the lunch, and his mother was felling quite proud of him. When the desert came on the table, and proved to be ice cream, his favorite, the small boy wanted a second help. This his mother would not allow him.

"If you don't give me some," he said, "I'll tell on you."

His mother still refused, and the youngster called out:

"If you don't give it to me before I count ten, I'll tell."

He began, one, two, three, and so on up to ten."

His mother still paid no attention to him, and he shouted out: "My pants are made out of the window curtain."

NEW COUNTY SCHEME

WAS SAT DOWN ON.

Rousing Meeting of Citizens of Statesboro, Resolute On the New County Scheme.

In response to a hand bill circulated with the signatures of Messrs. G. S. Johnston, W. C. Parler and R. Lee Moore, a large crowd assembled in the court house on Wednesday afternoon to look after business of importance to the town, or in other words, do things for "the good of the order."

Mayor G. S. Johnston was elected chairman, and Col. J. M. Murphy secretary of the meeting. It didn't take long to develop the fact that it was the Metter new county proposition whose scalp was to be taken. A set of resolutions were adopted condemning the efforts to cut any part of the county to furnish territory for the Metter county, the meeting seemed to be all of one mind on the matter of preventing Metter from seceding from the union, but when the question of Metter was sprung, it could be easily seen that there was division. After considerable debate both pro and con, a set of resolutions were adopted which are published below. It was asserted in the meeting by men who claimed to know what they were talking about, that there was much division on the Metter move by the people in the territory to be cut off. Judge S. L. Moore stated that he had prepared a number of petitions for people to circulate, asking not to be cut off, and one man had told him that out of 152 men approached on it 143 men had signed asking to be left in Bulloch, and another had the signature of about forty good substantial citizens in the territory effected.

There were those in the meeting hot against conceding any territory for any new county, and there were those there committed to allowing Metter a portion of the Lockhart district, so it will be seen that the resolutions which were finally passed was a compromise affair. In fact had it not been for the reasoning of the advocates of giving Metter territory, there would have been a set of resolutions railroaded through by a big majority against any territory. The reasoning of the gentlemen referred to was along this line:

To start with they thought that Metter was entitled to a county seat.

Second. The state of Georgia had voted by a constitutional majority to create eight new counties in the state, and it was conceded from one end of the state to the other, that Metter was to be one of these eight, and it would be impossible to create a county at Metter without the territory from Bulloch.

And the question presented itself to us was: What is the best to do under the circumstances. There were others there who said that all the petitioning and resolving that we may do would in all probability have very little effect on the result, inasmuch as the matter had passed beyond us, it was not a matter that the voters could pass on now, but one for the legislature to fix. There may be all kinds of political deals and trading in new counties by the politicians who predominate at the state capitol, and around the legislative halls.

When the new county business was finished Mr. J. G. Blitch called the attention of the meeting to matters nearer home. He stated that the committee of the new hotel company had failed so far to raise the amount of stock sufficient to build the hotel as projected, that it would take nineteen or twenty thousand dollars to complete it according to the plans and specifications in hand, and they had only eleven thousand dollars subscribed. He appealed to the patriotism and business judgement of the citizens of the town, the plans were exhibited and a large number came up and inspected them. It is said the efforts of Mr. J. G. Blitch, Col. R. Lee Moore and Mayor Johnston has had the effect of instilling new interest in the matter, and it is thought now that there will be no further trouble about raising the required amount.

Georgia, Bulloch County: Whereas, there is an effort being made by the people of Metter, Ga., and the adjacent section to establish a new county by using a large portion of the county of Bulloch.

Whereas, the county of Bulloch as it now stands has been developed as to its public roads, its districts, its churches and school houses, its system of juries, and taxes with regard to its present area and population;

And, whereas, the taking of the above large portion will leave it irregular in shape, and would take a prosperous popular section;

And, whereas, a large majority, at least three-fourths of the people, are openly and strongly opposed to any division of our county;

And, whereas, the proposed division would impose additional and unnecessary burdens both on the section taken and on the section that would remain;

Wherefore, he it resolved: First. That we, the people assembled at this mass meeting, do condemn, in unmeasured terms, this effort to divide the county, as it is unjust, and unnecessary, and would work great irreparable damage to all the people.

Second. That we appeal to the members of the general assembly and to their patriotism, and sense of fairness, not to cut up our county, but to leave us alone.

Third. That we appeal to every citizen of our county to use every and all honorable effort to defeat the movement.

Fourth. That we call upon our representatives, Messrs. J. E. Anderson and T. B. Thorne, and our state senator, H. B. Strange, to use their influence to defeat the movement.

Mr. R. Simmons made an eloquent speech in opposition to the new county.

Judge Brannen made a motion that we concede to the proposed county of Blik from a point two miles north of Big Horse creek, running a straight line to where the Moore road crosses the Ennals county line, provided a majority of the people residing in that part of the territory are willing. The motion was carried.

A committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions. The committee is composed of Judge Brannen, R. Lee Moore, J. G. Blitch and Chairman G. S. Johnston.

Puts In Appearance When Sought By Police.

Omaha, Neb., May 9.—Pat Crowe, the alleged kidnapper of Edward Cudaby, son of the millionaire packer of Omaha, and for whose arrest rewards aggregating $50,000 have at different times been offered, walked into the office of the World-Herald this morning, accompanied by Thomas O'Brien, proprietor of the Henshaw hotel.

While there have been rumors of Crowe's being in the vicinity of Omaha for several days, Chief of Police Donahoe, having any knowledge of his presence in the city and rumors were taken by the public in a manner similar to former reports of his having been seen. Crowe telephoned the World-Herald office at midnight of his presence in the city and said he would call at the newspaper office. A short time afterward he appeared in company with O'Brien.

Crowe and a representative of The World-Herald were closeted for an hour, during which time Crowe told of his wanderings since he left Omaha four years ago. Crowe said he had served in the Boer war, fighting with the Boers. He returned to this country after the war and had lived continually, according to his statement, quietly in a South side flat in Chicago. He said he had been in Chicago nearly three years and that he has visited Omaha on three occasions. He said that he had been negotiating for several years for immunity from punishment and in case he should surrender himself to the authorities though he declined to say with whom the negotiations were held. He said that he was tired of living in isolation and wished to reform and get into business. He declared that he would ask for immunity from the penitentiary.

As to the Cudaby kidnapping he declined to deny or admit his guilt.

Primitive Baptist Meeting. The annual week's meeting of the Primitive Baptist church at the church in East Statesboro. The meeting started on Sunday and the attendance has been good all the week.

Elders A. V. Simms of Valdosta, and H. Bussey of Columbus, are here and have done most of the preaching. They are assisted by Elders Stubbs, Patterson and Powell. There has been much interest manifested in the meeting and several additions have been made to the church. Elders Simms and Bussey are two of the most able ministers in the Primitive Baptist denomination.

They rank in point of ability with the very best in the country of any denomination, and those who have heard them are well paid for their trouble in going out to the services. The services will continue both morning and evening during the balance of the week, and it may be that they may continue into next week.
