THE NEWS.

"John Oliver Hobbes," the novelist, says that women are not fair. Then was Tennyson's "Dream of Fair Women" only that and nothing more? asks the Cleveland Leader.

A gentleman in Police Court complained bitterly because his associates in jail were not gentlemen, which, when you come to think of it, is a telling blow to the social ways and standing of a number of more or less well-known citizens.

Uncle Sam's 500th birthday party is to be celebrated in 1907 at or near Jamestown, Va. The celebration cannot be held on the spot, because there is no town there at present, and none nearer than Norfolk, remarks the Birmingham Age-Herald.

An orator with influenza can spread microbes among the audience for a distance of forty feet, declares the Chicago Record-Herald. And fallacies for an infinitely greater distance. Moral: When at a meeting keep your mind open and your mouth shut.

The culture of mushrooms in cellars has become quite a fad in Chicago, according to a newspaper of that city. The mushrooms are raised on shelves or racks arranged in tiers one above the other like the berths in sleeping-cars, thus producing a large area in a single cellar. The beds are planted in succession, giving a product throughout the season. The fad appears more sensible than its predecessors, the mulberry, the Belgian hare and the gluing crabs. But special crops, however profitable in a small way, are easily overdone, comments the American Cultivator. When the public shows signs of becoming more interested in raising a product than in consuming it, the cautious grower will begin to glow.

It is a regular army officer, in speaking of the heavy percentage of desertions from the army and navy of the United States, who attributes such desertions to "an abnormal claim, vigor and development of personal independence" on the part of the American enlisted men abroad and ashore, states the Daily True American. In other words, the American youth is too free and independent an individual to make a good soldier or sailor in the regular establishment when no war is in progress. As a volunteer, as instanced by the Civil and Spanish-American wars, enlisting for a fight and retiring to peaceful pursuits when the fighting is over, he is unequalled. It is probably true that as a mere cog in a military machine he never will compare with the military units of the compulsory service system of Europe.

The indifference with which the world received the news of the completion of the Simpson tunnel, as compared with the excitement over the finishing of the Hoosac tunnel and the piercing of the St. Gothard, is an excellent proof of the vast progress made by engineering science, observes the New York Evening Post. The Simpson tunnel is by nearly three miles the longest tunnel in the world, and its construction, even in the face of extraordinary difficulties, took but six and one-half years. Yet it is accepted in Europe much as was in this city the opening of the second bridge to Brooklyn. The first was something to marvel at and boast of; the second, merely an incident in the growth of the metropolis. So to the general public, the Simpson tunnel is scarce a nine-day's wonder. But to the engineer it is an important milestone on the road of his profession.

"I believe if the hawks and crows were killed we would have plenty of birds," says a reader in the Indiana Farmer. "Hawks and crows kill more birds than all the hunters in Indiana. If the Legislature would to protect the quail they could not do a better thing by my notion, than to have the hawks and crows killed. They kill hundreds of little quails that don't live to be old enough to whistle 'Bob White.' Crows in large numbers are also killed annually by the hawks and crows. If a bounty of say 50c, each for the heads of hawks were offered, it would result in the extermination of them and the quails would multiply tenfold in a year or two. Let us hear from some one else on the bird question." Our friend is greatly mistaken if he thinks that hawks and crows kill more birds than the hunters would; but let us hear from others on the subject, rather than from journals.

Must Employ a Warden. After giving the matter a full hearing, the State prison commission decided that the felony convict camp in Jackson county has been improperly managed, and the commission orders the Jackson county board of commissioners to put the camp under the management of a new superintendent or warden, this to be done within the next thirty days.

An Aged Policy Holder Brings Suit Against Assurance Society. Papers in a new suit against the Equitable Life Assurance Society, based upon the early phase of the insurance law, were served upon counsel for the society in New York Wednesday by Rowland D. Buford, a resident of Virginia. The suit is brought by Mr. Buford, who is nearly eighty years old, and who has since 1871 kept up his payments upon one of the original old line policies, complaints that in accumulating a large surplus over the legal requirements, the Equitable is not carrying out its contracts with him. He asks the court to order the directors of the society to divide the excess of surplus so that he will get an "equitable" share.

Life Sentences for Baser. The jury in the Sasser case at Sylva rendered a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to life imprisonment. Some highly sensational testimony developed during the trial, showing that Sasser persisted in paying attention to the wife of the murdered man and stayed around the house despite attempts to drive him away.

Postmaster Warren Makes Donor. Postmaster John R. Warren of Stillmore has given bond for his appearance May 27, when a commitment trial is to be given him on the charge of embezzling mail matter.

Exhibit Rules Are Changed. Important changes in the exhibit rules of the Georgia State Agricultural society were made at a meeting of the board of directors in Atlanta a few days ago. Rule No. 3, which forbade any exhibitor from competing for more than one premium, was changed, so that an individual may have his exhibit in a county exhibit and there win a premium and also win an individual premium.

Alleged Fraud Unearthed. The beginning of what promises to be the biggest case that this section of the country has ever seen, so far as the violation of the postal laws are concerned, came into the United States court at Augusta the past week, when Laurens Ross and H. C. Reed, two men who have made their home in Augusta, and vicinity for some months, were arraigned before Commissioner Lane.

Work of School Commissioners. During the County School Commissioners' convention in Macon recently, the school lands strongly endorsed local taxation, transportation of pupils, improvement of school buildings, and grounds, contests for pupils, school improvement clubs, the establishment of rural high schools and the Southern Educational Journal.

George Bureau of Immigration. Negotiations were completed a few days ago for the establishment in New York by the Atlantic Coast Line, the Louisville and Nashville and their allied properties, of a Georgia bureau of immigration for the purpose of building up the territory which they traverse and locating manufacturing and mills along the lines of their properties in Georgia.

Special attention will be given to securing a due share of the immigration of a desirable character, not only from the foreign countries, but particularly from other states of the Union.

PEPPERED EIGHT MEN.

Crash Negro Runs Amuck With Shot Gun and Revolver in Kentucky. A Deputy Sheriff is Killed.

In an attempt to arrest him, Bob Shaw, a negro, supposedly insane, killed one man and wounded seven, near Whitman, Ky., Monday afternoon. The body of the dead man lay in front of Shaw's house, while he continued to fire the officers.

Shaw was shot at twice. He had two revolvers, but announced that he would save them for work at close quarters. A great crowd gathered around the house, keeping at a safe distance.

Will C. Brown, a deputy sheriff, volunteered to go to the house and take Shaw. When within fifteen feet of Shaw, the crazy man fired, blowing Brown's head completely off.

About 6 o'clock Monday night a mob of men and boys surrounded the house and set it on fire. Shaw remained in the burning house as long as he could stand the heat and finally leaped out and tried to escape. Nearly one hundred shots were fired and Shaw's body was riddled with bullets.

POTTER BACK IN GEORGIA. Embassador Returns from California in Charge of Detective. Maro Young, bank cashier, who, it is alleged, absconded with $25,000 of the funds of the Bank of Davisboro, Ga., and left the citizens of that city in a frenzied fury, arrived in Augusta, Monday, in charge of a detective, who arrested him in Los Angeles, Cal.

Potter, it is charged was a stockholder in the bank, in addition to being the cashier. He sold his house and car on Monday, 17, last, it is alleged, that he left with all the funds of the bank. Shortly after his disappearance the bank was put in the hands of an assignee.

For five months the young man had eluded the shrewdest sleuths of the country. Upon leaving Davisboro he went to Atlanta and stayed a day or two. He saw the things were getting hot for him there, and he left for the City of Mexico.

He arrived, it is said, in the latter city with $12,000, which he proceeded to get rid of with a high hand. While out automobile with a friend, he ran over a Mexican, and to escape arrest for his offense, it is charged that he left for California.

He took in several cities California, playing the races and living like a titled millionaire. From city to city he would go, changing his name as he went, until finally his funds ran out, and he headed in Los Angeles penniless, without friends, and with the bloodhounds of the law hot at his heels.

Sasser Asks For New Trial

Bud Sasser, the man convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of M. L. Parker in Sereven county last week, has asked for a new trial; the matter will come up for hearing before Judge Rawlings in a few days.

The trial which just has ended attracted wide attention, it was one of the blackest and most blooded murders that has been committed in Sereven county in many years, and those who were at the trial state that public feeling is running high against the accused, it is believed that if the jury had failed to return a verdict of guilty, Sasser would have been taken out and lynched. Parker was one of the best citizens of the county and had many friends.

There is some criticism of the officers of the court for failing to indict Parker's wife for complicity in the murder. It is alleged that she connived to have her husband out of the way, and that she and Sasser were too thick.

Saved By Dynamite

Sometimes a flaming fire is saved by dynamite. A fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggravated cough, which kept her awake at night. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and laryngitis. At W. H. Ellis' drug store, price 50c and $1.00 guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

KENNEDY & CONE, Statesboro, Georgia.

THIRTEEN YEARS IN THE HARNES.

Thirteen years ago the editor of this paper embarked in the newspaper business and has been continuously at it ever since. The reason for entering the field was probably due to the fact that we were ousted in all other lines, and went into this business because we had nothing else to do. The reason for us remaining at it until this day, is also probably due to the fact that we got started at it and have always been too poor to quit.

Twelve years ago the first issue of the Statesboro Star appeared in a little wooden shack down the street. It was born in the midst of the period of political strife that characterized our section in that day, and was rocked and cradled amid tumultuous scenes. Four years ago last March the Star and Herald were combined, and out of the combination came the Statesboro News. Two years ago The News put out a twice-a-week service, the first and only one the county has ever had, and the only twice-a-week paper today between Mac'n Augusta and Savannah. That our twice-a-week paper has been a success is shown by the fact that in no issue since it was inaugurated have we wanted for all the advertising space we could handle.

Our News service has been kept up-to-date, and the fact that it is, is appreciated as evidenced by the fact that the Statesboro News finds its way twice-a-week into 2,200 welcome homes in Bulloch county. Our books show that more than ninety-five per cent. of these papers are paid for. More than ninety per cent. are paid for without having to ask for the money. We believe that this is a record that no paper in this section can boast of; in fact, it is a record that many of the dailies are not approach.

Our rural mail extension is putting us in closer touch with our subscribers each and every day. This paper covers the county like a blanket, and does it the day of its publication. Its policy is to publish the news as it happens without fear or favor. We may not go into details and give all the particulars about every little negro squabble, where none are interested but a few worthless negroes who are not subscribers to this paper or any other that they have to pay for, but we make it a rule to burden the public with that which is strictly news.

The News appreciates the kind patronage that has been accorded it in the past and hope to merit its continuance.

A reasonable rain fell here yesterday and created a fresh look to the farms around.

Gen. Green has capped the "Fore Day Club," thus gaining the victory.

Mrs. S. E. Blitch, of Blitchton, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Brown.

Mr. and W. W. Waters left Saturday morning to visit relatives in Effingham county. Mr. Waters returning the following Monday. Mrs. Waters will probably be away for several weeks.

Prof. Hamlin Etheredge, of Metter, was the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Z. Brown last Sunday.

The first in order at Stilson school last Sunday afternoon was a sermon from Brother Crumpler of Brooklet, after which came the hour for Sunday school. After Sunday school Prof. Etheredge made an interesting talk. A large crowd attended.

In a few weeks Dr. and Mrs. Floyd will leave for New York. They will be away about six weeks on a pleasure trip. While away the doctor will take a special course in medicine. This will be his second trip. We wish them much pleasure while away.

Of Mrs. Elizabeth Lanier, who departed from this world on April 16th, 1905, making her stay here sixty-two years, one month, and one day.
Oh, how hard it was to give her up! On the 18th day of each month is always a sad day, and to think the child you have lost such a good, kind and faithful mother. I cannot realize that she is no more on earth, but we try to be satisfied that she is in the Better World above.

She was born March 17th 1843, died April 16th 1905. Oh, we do so miss her so much! And I too, feel that it will not be long before I rest, and in my prayer, that I may meet her and with her enjoy the bliss of that Better World.

We try hard to content ourselves by thinking that she is better off in the Savior's tender care, than she could ever have been here. Her sufferings and troubles are all over while we are left to mourn over our sinful and broken-hearted condition. She was a kind and loving wife, the best of mothers and a good neighbor. She would deprive herself of many things for our pleasure.

None but those who have lost a good mother and a good wife know how to sympathize with them; nor how sad and lonely home is without her. We miss her gentle voice for none can soothe and relieve in sickness like mother. We miss her at the bedside and at the table—everywhere her place is vacant.

None but those who have lost loved ones know how much they will miss them, until after they are gone, although we know we can never see her face nor hear her loved voice on this earth.

Dearest thou has left us—
Left us, yes forevermore,
But again we hope to meet thee,
On that bright and golden shore.

LETTER TO B. B. SORRIER.

Statesboro, Ga.

Dear Sir: Two years ago, Mr. Grant Smith, Erie, Pa., painted three frame houses, and the woodwork of a brick house.

The painter estimated $119.50 for the paint, lead and oil.

He bought Devco $67.40 and returned $11.50. Saved $41.00 on the paint.

Don't know the cost of the work. By the rule, the saving of labor would be from $60 to $80.

On all, from $60 to $130. This is the tale, as it comes from Messrs. W. F. Nick & Son, our agents there for 40 years.

Yours truly,

F. W. Devco & Co.

REV. CRAWFORD JACKSON

Lectured Wednesday Evening at Methodist Church.

The Rev. Crawford Jackson, of Atlanta, presented to an audience at the Statesboro Methodist church last Wednesday evening, an interesting and instructive discourse, the theme being, "A state reformatory for juvenile criminals." It was in every sense, a grand effort in behalf of the young and rising generation. He drew several imaginary portraits of our young criminals being placed in prisons with hard and debased characters, where the influence of such hardened criminals wrought these young lives. Under these circumstances there is little hope of ever reclaiming and bringing them back to the path of right and rectitude.

Rev. Jackson has seen the necessity of such an institution in our state and is spending his time and talent in putting it before the people in its purity and simplicity.

There were several preachers, who made short, but telling speeches in behalf of an institution of this kind, and will, in all probability, take up the work which will protect our young boys, who, heretofore have fallen into the hands of wickedness and vice.

The plan designated was to establish in each county juvenile courts to convene at such time and place as necessity demands and try these young criminals and if convicted, send to the reformatory, instead of being sent off with a class that would send them farther down into degradation.

The following petition was unanimously adopted:

"To the General Assembly of the State of Georgia:

"The undersigned citizens of said State, respectfully petition your Honorable Body and earnestly urge you to enact such laws as shall protect juvenile delinquents from the moral contamination resulting from the present method of treating them as ordinary criminals; your petitioners humbly pray, therefore, that you will establish a State Reformatory, and, wherever practicable, in larger cities, a Juvenile Court with the Probation System so that youthful offenders may be submitted to such conditions and treatment as shall most conduce to their reformation."

The following committee was appointed to solicit names to the above petition:

A Good Suggestion
Mr. C. B. Wainwright of Lemon City, Fla., has written the manufacturer that much better results are obtained from the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in cases of pain in the stomach, colic and cholera morbus by taking it in water as hot as can be drunk. That when taken in this way the effect is double in rapidity. "It seems to get at the right spot instantly," he says. For sale by All Druggists.

To Change Divorce Law.

Hon. George W. Williams, one of the members of the legislature from Laurens county, will introduce three companion bills in the legislature, which, if passed, will materially change the divorce laws in Georgia. His bills will make, if passed, the following the only grounds for a total divorce:

Interruption by persons within the prohibited degree of consanguinity and affinity.

Mental incapacity at the time of the marriage.

Impotency at the time of the marriage.

Delicate state of wife at the time of the marriage unknown to the husband.

Adultery in either party after marriage.

The following reasons are allowed for partial divorce only:

"Wilful and continued desertion by either of the parties for the term of three years; the conviction of either for an offense involving moral turpitude, and under which he or she is sentenced to the penitentiary for the term of two years or longer, or in case of cruel treatment, or habitual intoxication by either party."

Mr. Williams is one of the best lawyers in that section, and is a very forceful speaker and ready debater. He will be heard on all questions of importance which come up before the legislature. In the passage of his divorce bill and other remedial legislation he will be assisted by Hon. David J. Clark, the other representative from Laurens county.—Macon News.

RUSSIAN FLEET IS ANNIHILATED.

Greatest Naval Battle in World's History Sends Twelve Russian Battle Ships to the Bottom

Rumored that Admiral Rojestvensky Went Down With His Flagship--Russian People are in Great State of Excitement, and Revolution is Expected to Break out in St. Petersburg--Nicholas' Throne Totters Under the Terrible Strain.

Up to the hour of going to press the latest that could be had over the wires is to the effect that the entire Russian fleet has been annihilated, that in trying to force a passage through the Korean straits Admiral Rojestvensky and his fleet were intercepted by the Japanese fleet and forced to battle with the most disastrous results suffered by the Russians. It is reported that the Russian admiral went down with his flagship and that there was practically no losses on the Japanese side. The latest dispatches only go to confirm the early news which is printed below:

Tokio, May 29, 2:15 p. m.—It is officially announced that Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet has been practically annihilated. Twelve warships have been sunk or captured, and two transports and two torpedo boat destroyers have been sunk.

Washington, May 28.—From information which has been received in Washington today, it is believed that two of the Russian ships reported to have been sunk in the Korean straits by the Japanese are the Orel and her sister ship, the Borodino. They are battle ships of 18,000 tons.

Three other vessels reported sunk are believed to have been cruisers, the remaining one being a repair ship.

SIX SHIPS HAVE GONE DOWN
Washington, May 28.—The American consul at Nagasaki called the state department today that the Japanese have sunk a Russian battleship, four other warships and a repair ship in the straits of Korea.

Married Third Time.

Our readers have doubtless read of the domestic troubles of John Allen, his incarceration in jail here, charged with mistreating his family, etc. A suit for divorce and a division of the estate was also a feature in the proceedings, the division was made all right, and the suit for divorce is pending, but the latter suffered a setback one day this week, when Mr. and Mrs. Allen again joined their fortunes for good or for bad, and left for an extended bridal tour; extended we mean to say, because they left in the direction of Stillmore and other points up that way.

This is the third time that this family has been wrecked by dissensions and followed by a re-union.

Young Thief Nipped in Bud.

Jim, the 15-year-old boy of Jim Love, a well known negro living in South Statesboro, was nipped early yesterday morning with a lot of canned goods and a bicycle pump in his possession. Night Watchman Morgan spied the youngster about 4:30 with an arm full of these goods, and interrogated him as to where he obtained them. A number of lies were told as to where he got so many goods at such an unseasonable hour, but the officer would not shake off, and nabbed the kid while the dew was still on him. Later he made a confession and told where he obtained the stuff. The canned goods were obtained from Mr. O. H. Hamilton. They were in a warehouse back of the store, and by some reason the door had been left unlocked, and a prowling around saw his opportunity and laid hold of some of them. Passing by Mr. L. F. Davis' bicycle shop he saw a bright bicycle pump in the window and took it along too. He pleaded guilty before Judge Brannen and was given ten months for stealing the canned goods and four months for the bicycle pump.

The fines will amount to about $150. His father has a little piece of land in the edge of town and is making an effort to settle the fine and keep his boy out of the gang, but he is to the credit of the boy, that he is, he asked that he be allowed to work it out in the gang rather than see his father's sacrifice his little home.
