R. L. SAMPLE.
It is expected that the Central's Sunday school excursion on Thursday from Statesboro to Tybee is only $1.50 for the round trip from Statesboro, with correspondingly low rates for points below here. The train leaves Statesboro at six o'clock in the morning. If you want a cheap trip to Savannah and Tybee just get aboard.

Messrs. E. L. Smith and Stanley Kitrell were called to Sandersville on yesterday by the news of the critical illness of a brother-in-law of Mr. Smith, who is a relative of Mr. Kitrell.

We are requested to state that the revival meeting will start at New Hope church on tomorrow instead of Friday, as published.

Watermelons are beginning to be plentiful in the Statesboro market.

Wool is selling above 80 cents in this market. If this is an index as to the price of cotton this fall, wont we all get rich?

A strong delegation came up from Brooklyn to witness the ball game yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Allen Gibson of Cameron, Tex., and Mr. Geo. Nichols of Wayne county Ga., sends us some seed to plant for the Bullock county exhibit at the state fair this fall. Mr. Gibson sends us some June corn seed, and Mr. Nichols some watermelon seed. This Bullock county exhibit at the fair this fall is going to be a hummer. We forgot to state that Mr. C. M. Capps of the 46th district, was saving us some fine oats, both in the bale and the bundle.

Look out for the Savannah & Statesboro railway's big excursion to Savannah and Tybee next Monday. Only $1.50 for the round trip.

Wash Burns Comes Clean.

Those wicked officers who thought they had the noose fast around the neck of G. Washington Burns woke up to find themselves mistaken when the jury reported a verdict of not guilty on last Friday.

Wash was charged with selling whiskey, along with the other defendants who were caught some time ago. The officers say that Wash is a slick old con. He was much harder to trap than the others. Wash had never been there before; they never could get him to bring the liquor until the cash was in hand, then he contended that he went off and got it from another party, which made him in the eyes of the law the agent of the party doing the buying instead of the dealer.

Convicted of Carrying Concealed Weapons.

Julius Waters seems to be quite a success when it comes to keeping himself before the public. It will be remembered that we have had to handle his actions as news a number of times lately, and we have no desire to parade him in the public print.

Last week he got married, and within a day or two he faced a charge of carrying concealed weapons. The jury after hearing the case and deliberating upon it for some time, returned a verdict of guilty late Thursday evening. A fine of $50.00 and cost or six months in the gang was imposed. A motion for a new trial is now pending.

The circumstances of the case are as follows: Once upon a time Waters boarded at the Central hotel, when it was run by Mr. O. C. Parker; a couple or so of months' board feed due, and Waters sought his meals elsewhere. On leaving he neglected to settle up. Frank Parker went out to call on him for the money at the county chain gang, where he was then working as a guard. Payment was declined, and one word called for another; Waters being armed made a show of his arms, and Parker threw his hand back to his hip pocket and also flourished a pistol. Waters swore out a warrant for Parker and secured a verdict of guilty against him and set his cash account back to the tune of about $75.00.

It seems that there were other times that Waters had carried weapons when he was not guarding convicts; remembering this, Parker had him pulled on the same charge that he had been fined for, with the result as named above.

Snake Around Baby's Neck.

Swainsboro, Ga., June 9.—Mr. and Mrs. William Boatright had a remarkable experience at their home near Graymont this week. They were in a field near the house, when they heard their children crying and calling for help. Upon going to the house they found a large black snake coiled around the neck of their youngest child, a baby of only a few months. In the bed with the little one, sleeping quietly and complacently, were two large snakes. One was killed and the other two put to route, but the parents firmly believe that the little one would have been strangled to death had it not been for their timely arrival. The baby was not injured, and is none the worse for the scare it received.

METTER

We are sorry to report the illness of Mrs. T. H. Burns, but we hope it is nothing serious and she will soon see her out on our streets again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Collins spent a few days of this week at Excelesior visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. P. H. Perkins accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Worwick returned Wednesday evening from an extended visit with friends and relatives at Paschal.

Mrs. W. L. Kennedy accompanied by Little Abbie McLean spent last week at Portia visiting her sister, Mrs. Jason Franklin.

Messrs. J. E. Cowart and Will Durden of Summit, were two prominent figures upon our streets last week.

The Metter literary society, in the presence of a large and attentive audience, rendered one of its most interesting and instructive programs last Friday evening since its organization. Some had come to think that our society was dying, but we are proud to show them that she was only letting slack the chain to catch up a new hold and to come with renewed energy and more enthusiasm.

The patrons of the Metter high school gave a basket picnic last Friday. It was quite a treat to the teachers, pupils and patrons; talking, eating and drinking was the order of the day. There was plenty of lemonade, big dinner and good speaking. Everybody reported a fine time.

STATSBORO AGAIN WINS

Last of Series of Games Breaks all Records—Helena-McRae

Shut Out.

The way that Statesboro wall-ped the Helena-McRae baseball team on Wednesday afternoon was a shame.

The second game of the series resulted in a victory for the victors by a score of 5 for Helena-McRae to 1 for Statesboro. This kinder got the home boys hot in the collar and they determined that they should be shut out sufficiently strong to knock them completely out of our class.

What they lacked of doing this on Wednesday afternoon wasn't much, the score standing 15 to 0 in favor of Statesboro. Huff pitched the game for Statesboro and gave up but few safe hits, while Davenport, for the visitors, was batted clear out of the box. Davenport had staked his all on his game. His ambition was to defeat Statesboro, and the little victory scored the evening before had the effect of making him hold to claim the next game. He would pitch and sweat, and the boys would guy him, but in the sixth inning he flew up and another pitcher was put in his place. The change was a most disastrous one. Several of the Statesboro boys walked to first base on balls. Another change in pitchers was made, but the day was lost and Helena-McRae was all to the bad.

There was undoubtedly some of the best ball players in the game on Wednesday afternoon that had ever been seen on the Statesboro diamond. The gate receipts for the three games was about $140.

Revenue Officers Making Trouble.

A special deputy United States marshal has been noosing around Statesboro for the past week, accumulating evidence against men who have been ordering whiskey for other people.

It is claimed that a recent test case has been made which makes a man who orders for other people a dealer and subject to the revenue license, especially if the party accepts a commission from the liquor house from whom he orders, or accepts the money here and has it charged to his account with the liquor dealer. If this is the case, then there will be lots of merchants all over the country who are liable. We understand that the detective who has been here has a long list of names, which includes a number of farmers who have been ordering for their friends.

We have heard of no one paying the license yet, but developments are being watched by not a few of our business men, who have made a practice of ordering whiskey for their customers and friends.

Infant's Death Near Blitch.

On Tuesday night the Angel of Death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Metz near Blitch, and took from their home their one year old daughter. The cause of the little one's death is attributed to a severe case of pneumonia. The remains were interred at the family burial grounds near Mr. Jas. Donaldson's place on Wednesday afternoon.

Sunday School Picnic

Yesterday was a big day for the Sunday schools. The Central carried a good many from each school in Statesboro, where they baked in the cool Tybee breeze and partook of the delicacies prepared for the occasion. The Central had prepared ample accommodation for many more than took advantage, but owing to unknown cause some were left at home, but the space was taken before they reached Savannah, and all had a delightful time and are at home again living in anticipation of another.

HALL EXPECTED TO MAKE RACE.

"When will Hon. Joe Hill Hall definitely announce for governor?"

That is the question generally asked throughout the state today by the politicians interested in the gubernatorial race.

That he is to all intents and purposes already a candidate seems a foregone conclusion.

A caller at the state capitol, whose name is withheld for obvious reasons, stated today:

"Why, Joe Hill Hall is running now. He may not be running for himself, but if he is not he is 'lectioneering for governor for somebody who is not yet announced. I came on the train with him to Macon last week, and at every station we stopped friends came up and shook hands with him and urged him to run. In each case he would tell them to wait, that a candidate to represent the principles for which he has always stood would soon be announced. He gives you the idea of canvassing for the principles he represents, and that the candidate to fit these will be named later."

SEAB WRIGHT THE LATEST.

The latest gossip about another candidate who has not yet been announced is that Hon. Seaborn Wright, of Floyd, former candidate for governor and representative-elect from that county, will be put forward for this honor by Mr. Hall and his strong following. Just what will come of this rumor remains to be seen.

GUERRY CROWD IS GATHERING.

That the supporters of Hon. DuPont Guerry in his last campaign are rallying to a single standard is proved by the fact that his three leaders, Hon. DuPont Guerry, Hon. Joe Hill Hall and Hon. S. C. Tapp, have given out interviews in which each states that the candidate of their choice, or following, has not been mentioned yet in formal announcement.

Mr. Hall states that the man to be the candidate will be put forward at the proper time. Mr. Tapp comes out boldly in favor of Hall, and yesterday Mr. Guerry gave to The News an interview in which he strongly intimated that Mr. Hall is his choice and that he will soon announce.—Atlanta News.

Soldiers Camp Out.

On Tuesday afternoon the Statesboro Volunteers decided to take a little slice of actual service. They started out to Robert's mill to camp out, they had hardly passed out of the city limits when a hard driving rain and windstorm overtook them and remained with them all the night through. The boys were given an opportunity to see and feel some of the hardships of a soldier's life.

Needs The News in Alabama.

Mr. Cecil Gabbett writes back to a friend in Statesboro to tell us that he wanted the Statesboro News. He stated that he wanted all the news from south Georgia and he was satisfied that if there was an article that missed The News it was not of much importance.

Mr. Gabbett is now engaged in building fifteen miles of railway in Alabama for the Central of Georgia Ry. Co. He further states that the Statesboro & Athens short line was not dead by any means. He expects to return here on no distant day and take up the building of this road, which will be the crowning feature of his career.

PARISH—ALDRID.

On Wednesday morning at the home of her brother, Mr. R. F. Donaldson on North Main street, Miss Debbie Parish and Mr. W. H. Aldred were united in marriage. Rev. J. S. McLemore officiating. The bride is one of Bulloch's fairest daughters, a daughter of the late Jefferson Parish and a half sister to Mr. R. F. Donaldson of this place. She is pretty and popular and numbers her friends by the score. The bridegroom is a former resident of this county, but now holds a responsible position with a leading dry goods firm in Macon; he, too, has a large number of friends in Bulloch. The young couple left soon after the marriage on the Central train for Macon, where they will make their future home.

The attendants were: Miss Marie Bland, of Pulaski; Mr. and Mrs. J. Blitch Parish, brother and sister of the bride, of Parish; Miss Maude Durden, of Summit; Miss Cora Everett, of Excelesior; Misses Lottie Braunen and Zada Rountree, of Statesboro; and Mr. W. A. Bedingfield, of Macon. They left on the nine o'clock train for Macon after the marriage on the Central train for Macon, where they will make their future home.

Small Blaze.

On Tuesday at noon the dwelling of Mr. B. B. Sorrier on North Main street caught fire, and had it not been for some quick and effective work on the part of the neighbors, we would have had another fire to our record. Smoke was discovered issuing through the roof of the kitchen caused from a defective flue, the blaze was smothered between the overhead ceiling and the roof. The bucket brigade got in some good work and by the time the hose reel arrived from down town the fire was under control. It was fortunate that this was the case, as considerable difficulty was experienced in getting the hose attached to the hydrant across the street.

The loss was covered by insurance.

Mrs. Susie Lively

Passes to Her Reward

Yesterday morning at five o'clock, Mrs. Susie Lively, wife of our esteemed citizen, Dr. M. M. Lively, finished her pilgrimage on earth, and passed into the shadows of eternity. Mrs. Lively had only lived here for a few years, but had made many friends, all of whom join in sincere sympathy with the family in her loss. A hemorrhage from the lungs was the immediate cause of her death. Her funeral will occur today at 9:30 o'clock and her remains buried in East Side cemetery. Several children survive her.

The Position of the Farmer

The Kansas City Journal in depicting some of the good things that in the course of time have come to the farmers of the west says:

Conditions have changed in relation to the farmer. No longer is he segregated from his fellows. He is not now a condition of irreparable loneliness or isolation. With the advent of the interurban trolley car, the telephone and the rural mail delivery the entire condition of his existence has changed. Today the farmer has his daily newspaper, his added facilities for correspondence and his telephone that brings him within speaking distance with his neighbors and the great outside world. The nature of the farmer has changed with the conditions that surround him. He has become a business man who is in constant touch with his markets and is well versed in the very circumstances of trade in the commodities that he produces.

The old days of loneliness are gone forever. The man with the hoe has triumphed at last. He has come into his own. Much has been done by the rural delivery to break down the loneliness of the farm life. More will be done by the extension of the trolley lines and by the extension of the telephone. All this adds to the pleasures of life on the farm. Other things remain to do. One is to improve the school system, bringing within the reach of boys and girls who have to stay on the farm opportunities for better education.

One plan is to consolidate various district schools, and then divide this central school into grades or classes, with more teachers and better paid teachers, as in the cities.

The farmer himself determines what life on his farm shall be. The post office, the telephone, the trolley lines, the schools are all aids to right living and pleasant living on the farm, but the farmer and his wife determine what use they will make of these things. The man is more than the farm. The farm responds not only to the labor applied to it, but to the intelligence directing the labor.

Make a good farmer out of yourself. Get all out of your soil that the soil will yield. Study not only farming but your own farm and your own markets. Make your work tell, leaving the farm in better condition after every harvest.

Reflection of a Farmer.

Aint it nice to be a living in this dear old world today,
Beneath the blossoms and the sunshine of the everlasting May?
Aint it good to sit and listen to the music of the morn,
And the soft and soothing rustles of the waving fields of corn?
'Tis the sweetest kind of music and the scene itself is fine,
Especially when I know the fields and all the corn are mine.

That field of cotton's green, looks so tender like a sapphire,
With the corn field just beyond it and the plunders in between.
I wish it wasn't Sunday—goah! I'd take old Sarah Jane
And finish laying by that corn; but there, I won't complain.

Though it's lonesome, sorter lonesome—not a living place to go,
But sit around the house all day, I've quit complaining though.
That bunch of cattle's looking fine, those shoats are thrifty too;
Them sheep out there they feel so good they don't know what to do.

Just been offered thirty dollars for that bundle of corn and calf,
And they tell me cotton's rising, don't it make a fellow laugh?
Those sales out there are ragged, look-sorter old and brown,
But you bet they'll pay me for them when I haul them off to town.

Seems that everything is singing, even Helen, she's my wife;
Never seen her look so pretty and so happy in my life.
Makes my heart begin to flutter, makes me think of long ago
When I first began to love her, yet afraid to tell her so.

But we're happy now and singing and the birds are singing too,
Never seen the sun shine brighter, never seen the sky so blue.
Gosh! there comes that fellow Higgins, guess you've often heard of him,
Always wears a pair of glasses with a shiny golden rim.

And a look of all importance on his little hatchet face;
But he ain't so all important after all to none but Grace,
Who's been asking for permission, and in fact, he's asking still,
Shall I give them my permission? well I rather think I will.

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. America Williams, nee Hendrix, was born in Bulloch county on the 18th of October in 1871, died March 22nd 1905. She was married to Jesse Williams Jan. 21st, 1903. Two children were born to bless their union. Converted in early life she joined Pleasant Hill Methodist church and remained a loyal, consistent member to her death. Her last sickness was short, but of the cup of suffering she drank to the bitterest dregs, though through it all she came without a murmur.

When death came it found her ready and waiting. She was a devoted and affectionate mother, a loving and faithful wife and a true helpmeet to her husband.

Endowed with an amiable disposition, and, naturally, kind hearted and full of benevolence, she won the love and confidence of the entire community. Her life in its usefulness was beautiful. We did not know her worth so well till she left her work complete. Reviewing it, we see it beautiful and abiding. It began with her childhood days. She was so good, beautiful and sweet spirited that she seemed to be a Christian all her life.

She was a devoted member of the church and her faithfulness in discharging her duty, when in health, sufficient, and her submission in the hours of affliction, for she a great sufferer, was proof positive that she was, indeed, a member of the church, the records of which are kept in heaven.

The memory and influence of her life is a distinct blessing to her family, the home-going of such a saint was a triumph worthy of the service and sacrifice which she rendered on earth. May heaven's blessings rest upon her, and may the end be as she's was—eternally.

Resolved, that a copy of this be published in the Statesboro News and in the Wesleyan Christian Advocate; also that a copy be sent to her family. This done by order of conference on April 15, 1905.

Mrs. Florie Parish

THE NEWS.

Published at Statesboro, Ga.
TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

By The Statesboro News Publishing Co.
No man is indispensable, not even an employer, declares Life.

Indiana girl marries to escape an arithmetic lesson. No escape possible, however, as she will learn when she begins to make butchery's bill tally with her housekeeping allowance, admonishes the New York Evening World.

The isthmus of Panama had for last March a death rate equal to four in 1000 for the full year. Yet we still have a way of talking superlatively and patriotically about the perils of tropical climates, remarks the New York Tribune.

Henry Ward Beecher is said to have declared once he would rather have his name on the map of Kansas than to have a tablet in the Hall of Fame. Yet there is not a Beecher on the Kansas map, either as a county, township, city, river or postoffice, observes the Kansas City Star.

If you live long you will live about seventy years. That is a short while in which to accomplish much, thinks the Louisville (Ky.) Courier-Journal. You should be firmly established in your career by the time you are forty. The years sweep past and you will be forty almost before you know it. So, get busy.

One of the developments of Glasgow's municipal street car system is providing private early morning cars for bringing home dance parties. A car requisitioned for such a purpose comes at any required hour to the point nearest the place where the dance is being held and takes the dancers to any desired points on the road.

Twenty-five years ago there was one lone mounted policeman in New York. To-day, according to Police Commissioner McAdoo, there are 500. They patrol the parks, the speedways, the avenues, and now supplement the city's strongest arm of the traffic regulation department, which is a distinct bureau under the city's police system.

Grizzlies are the best game in the world. When you once get their danger up they are savage fighters, and the hunter's life is in danger every minute unless he is a good shot and has a steady nerve, states the Kansas City Journal. If you ever get within range of the grizzly's paw you are a dead one. These stories of men killing them with knives and in hand-to-hand fights are as reasonable as it would be to ask of stopping a locomotive by getting in the way of the train. If the big fellow gets the chance to deliver one blow it is all over. Grizzlies look awkward, but they are mighty light on their feet, and they can beat any man in a foot race.

A very interesting and practical demonstration of the rigidity of the earth's interior has been furnished by the automatic records of the recent Indian earthquakes, which settles a long mooted question, says the New York Herald. Seismographs at the vibrations caused by the earth shocks in India were produced in the Royal Observatory, Edinburgh, Scotland, a few minutes after the convulsions occurred, the waves passing through the centre of the globe with an average velocity exceeding ten miles a second. As it is impossible for vibrations to attain such a speed in any known solid, even in steel itself, it is obvious that the interior of our earth must possess enormously high effective rigidity.

'Are you a time killer?' Do you stand about talking when you should be disposing of duties that press upon you? See the Louisville (Ky.) Courier-Journal. Do you hang around home when you should be at your office? Do you get off until 5:30 o'clock the things that might just as well be done at 9? Do you lag through a task instead of attacking it with all the steam on and pushing it through briskly? Do you know away a single hour of the day that might be made useful in benefiting your health, improving your mind, or helping your business? Do you squander in useless moments that you can use in bestowing comfort upon others? If so, stir yourself. You are one of the American elite. You are not even common. If you do not look upon time as America will have you.

BOTH SIDES AGREE

Russia and Japan Will Now Select Peace Envoys.

PROSPECTS GROW BRIGHTER

Representatives to Be Selected by the Two Governments May Meet in Washington—Czar and Mikado Announce Willingness to Discuss Terms of Indemnity.

The Associated Press has definite knowledge that both the Russian and Japanese governments have accepted President Roosevelt's suggestion and that a meeting of representatives of the two contending powers is assured. From an authoritative official source it is also learned that it has been practically determined that the plenipotentiaries for the determination of peace terms will hold their sessions in Washington.

It was stated at the foreign office in St. Petersburg Saturday afternoon that Russia is ready to appoint representatives to hear the Japanese proposals on being informed that Japan is appointing plenipotentiaries for this purpose.

Practically, although not formally, an armistice can be said to exist. Russia awaits Japanese notification, and the place of her plenipotentiaries and the place of meeting, as upon the place will depend the appointment of Russia's plenipotentiaries, with the naming of the plenipotentiaries a limited suspension of hostilities will be formally declared. From the conversation of an official of the foreign office with the Associated Press it is not certain whether Russia will send a formal reply to President Roosevelt's appeal, the emperor's assurance to Ambassador Meyer of his willingness to negotiate being deemed sufficiently official.

"We cannot select our plenipotentiaries," the official said, "until Japan has indicated the place for negotiation. In order to avoid delay, in the event Washington is selected, Count Cameli, or possibly Baron Rosen, if he could arrive in time, may act for Russia. If Manchuria is selected, General Liangchi may be appointed representative of Russia, but it does not necessarily follow that either of them would conduct the negotiations to the end, as the first question to be determined is whether a basis is laid on the principal terms. If they are considered to afford a basis for the conclusion of peace a regular set of plenipotentiaries may be appointed and the negotiations may proceed in the customary manner."

The official with whom the correspondent of the Associated Press talked was by no means sanguine that Japan could offer an acceptable basis for negotiations.

A Tokyo special says: Japan has agreed to President Roosevelt's suggestion to appoint plenipotentiaries to meet Russian plenipotentiaries. No further details of the Mikado's intention have been received. The emperor's government would prefer that Paris should be the scene of the initial step, but it is explained to the Associated Press that neither the place nor the personality of the plenipotentiaries matters very greatly.

The Russian representative will not be a plenipotentiary with full power to negotiate. His duty will practically be advisory. Mr. Wittem charges the treaty is unconstitutional; that it is class legislation.

While protesting all aid in his power, it is well understood here that the plenipotentiary, having served to bring the plenipotentiaries of the warring countries face to face, believes it would be to the best interests of all concerned that he step aside. The United States, it is recognized here, desires to keep all the powers out of temptation when the spoils of war come to be divided.

URGED TO GROW COTTON.

Britishers Anxious to See Staple Raised in European Countries. The international cotton congress adjourned at Manchester, England, Friday, after deciding to meet in Germany in 1904. The congress passed resolutions urging the nations of Europe to promote the cultivation of cotton in their possessions, and instructed the international committee to look into the matter of improving the baling and marketing of cotton in the United States and Egypt.

MORE RIOTING IN RUSSIA.

Nearly One Hundred People Shot in a Disturbance in Moscow. The London Times St. Petersburg correspondent reports that there has been severe rioting at Minsk, during which nearly 100 persons were shot. The police with drawn swords charged a mob of two thousand workmen in Moscow, wounding many of them.

Club Members to Face Court. Muscogee Club, the leading social organization of its character in Columbus, has been indicted by the grand jury on Sunday for selling liquor on Sunday.

It is understood that the club, through its president, will enter a plea of guilty. The practice of selling liquor on Sunday to club members has been carried on openly and with no effort at concealment. The returning of the indictment created quite a ripple in club circles.

Witham Enjoins Tax Collector. At the instance of W. S. Witham, banker, Judge J. T. Pendleton at Atlanta has signed a temporary restraining order enjoining Tax Collector A. P. Stewart from levying the occupation tax on his law, which he issued against the plaintiff. The case has been set for hearing on June 24th.

Tax Collector Stewart recently issued sixty-one tax bills, against the plaintiff, each being for $10, the law levied against presidents of banks by the state. He is the executive head of many banks, and double tax has been assessed against him as a penalty. Mr. Witham charges the tax is unconstitutional; that it is class legislation.

Regiment Cannot Leave State. The state troops will not be permitted to leave the state for the purpose of holding an encampment at the late of Palm, or Charleston, a decision of the executive which will, no doubt, be received with considerable disappointment in Augusta and at other points where the companies of this regiment are stationed.

This decision was arrived at a few days ago after a conference between Governor Terrell and Adjutant General S. W. Harris. Adjutant General Harris recommended that the announced policy with regard to the departure of militia companies from the state be not deviated from, and the governor promptly approved the recommendation.

Postmaster Salaries Readjusted. Under the annual readjustment of postmasters' salaries these changes were announced for Georgia:

Pardon for Ex-Senator Dodd. The prison commission recommended that a pardon be granted former State Senator W. P. Dodd of the fourth district, who is serving a two-year sentence at the state prison for embezzlement of county school funds while he was school commissioner of Gordon county. Dodd has served a year and one month of his sentence.

His friends at once began a movement to secure a pardon for him. Never has the prison commission had so unanimous a request for clemency. Not only was it signed by nearly all of Gordon county, but even the grand jury of Bartow county, adjoining Gordon, urged the commission to grant him a pardon. Every member of the state senate which Dodd had served strongly urged his pardon and numerous requests in his behalf came from all parts of the state.

The commission, however, decided that in view of Dodd's conviction of this crime, even though there appeared extenuating circumstances, he should be required to serve at least a year of his sentence before favorable action was taken.

No Change in Passenger Fare. Three cents a mile will continue to be the railroad passenger fare in Georgia, for the present at least. The railroad commission a few days ago issued an order declining to grant the motion of Chairman J. Pope Brown for a reduction to two cents a mile. The order, which is a very brief one, is as follows:

"In consideration of this meeting by the commission at this meeting this day, and after having heard evidence submitted and arguments made, the board is of the opinion that no change should be made in the passenger rates at the present time."

The order is signed by H. W. Hill and Joseph M. Brown, J. Pope Brown dissenting.

For Teachers' Institutes. State School Commissioner W. S. Merritt has been busily engaged for several days, and will be busy for some time, arranging for teachers' institutes in different counties of the state.

"How to teach the nature study in connection with agriculture" is receiving much attention at the different institutes, the state school commissioner having pushed this matter forward recently, and the instructors are taking hold of the question very readily and with such interest that Professor Merritt has much to gratify.

Institute will be held in the following counties, at the points designated. The names of the instructors are also furnished:

Baldwin county, Milledgeville, Professor W. B. Reynolds; Pierce county, Blackshear, Professor D. L. Bryant; Washington county, Sandersville, Professor M. J. Gaertner; Webster county, Preston, Professor E. E. Morton; Upson county, Thomasboro, Professor R. D. Shugart.

PROSPECT PLEASES JAPAN. Hope of Mikado's Government That Peace Plans May Succeed.

Tokio has calmly received the news of American intervention and prospective peace. While the absence of assurance that Russia will accept President Roosevelt's proposal seems to create a disposition to await final results, there is, nevertheless, the keenest satisfaction over the preliminary step and a feeling of deep gratification over President Roosevelt's action.

TEN YEARS FOR BIGELOW.

Bank Wreckers Plead Guilty and Will Do Prison Stripes.

In court at Milwaukee, Wis., Saturday, Frank G. Bigelow, the defaulting bank president, pleaded guilty to an indictment of ten counts, returned by the federal grand jury, charging violations of the national bank law, and was sentenced to ten years at hard labor in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas, the sentence to date from noon Saturday.

WARNING TO CZAR

Given By Russian People in Remarkable Document.

Petition Devoid of Usual Phrases of Respect—Author is Bluntly Told That He Must Not Delay in Issuing the Call.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says: The voice of the delegates of the zemstvo and the municipalities demanding in no uncertain tones the immediate convocation of a national assembly to pass upon the question of peace or war, to heal internal strife and to unite the people for the rejuvenation of Russia, will be heard in the address adopted by the all-Russian zemstvo congress at Moscow, which a deputation headed by Count Hayden and M. Shipoff is bringing to present to the emperor. The document bids fair to become historic. The customary phrases of respect at the opening and closing are omitted and it is otherwise unceremonious, employing the direct personal pronoun. The address arraigns the bureaucracy and reminds the emperor that his pledge to convolve a national assembly is slow of fulfillment. It says the country is on the verge of civil war and even ventures to criticize a royal measure.

Cuban Diarrhoea.
U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have but little more effect than much water. Cuban diarrhoea is as mild as cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by Druggists.
