The Child Labor Bill.
(Atlanta News.)

On Tuesday afternoon the advocates of the child labor bill will have a hearing before the committee on labor and labor statistics. Hon. Madison Bell, who is the father of the present measure before the house, will address the committee, and he has had strong assurances which lead him to believe that his bill will be favorably reported by the committee.

The news this afternoon publishes an able and scholarly article from the pen of Mr. Frank Orm, giving the genesis and philosophy of the great reform under discussion. It presents a phase of the question but little understood, and will be read with absorbing interest by a large circle of appreciative readers.

The friends of the measure have made a strong and persistent fight to secure this much needed legislation. It is a reform suggested by the dictates of common humanity. When we think of the thousands of children, feeble and immature, spending their lives at unwholesome occupations, in common fairness to themselves and to the whole social system, they should be at school, every impulse of the heart goes out to them, and we feel that one more determined effort should be made to redeem them from the bondage in which they live.

It affords us much pleasure to make special mention of the ice cream supper that was given at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Warnock of near Stillson on Wednesday night of last week. It was indeed a grand success in every way. As the guests arrived they were ushered into the parlor where they were entertained with music. About nine o'clock all were invited out on the lawn, here a most bountiful supper of ice cream and cake awaited them. After supper the young people amused themselves by playing games. About twelve o'clock we were again invited to supper. It was indeed a happy occasion, one that will long be remembered by those in attendance.

In Memoriam.
On the 23rd of June 1905 God through his infinite love and wisdom saw fit to take from our midst, a beloved son, Smith, one of the most prominent, young men of our community, though the brightest and sweetest flowers are always plucked first, and I, his lonely widowed wife, am left grief-stricken and bowed down with sorrow to lose such a noble-hearted and affectionate husband so early after marriage, having been married one year, five months and thirteen days. I feel my helplessness and I am willing to try to be resigned and bow in humble submission to His most holy will, for "His will be done and not mine."

I can only look around about me and exclaim: Oh! most Holy Saviour, as thou has seen fit to take from me my loving companion let it work good for me, that my cares may be taken from the things of this world, something more divine, and try to meet him in that bright world where earthly cares, trials and tribulations are no more. I feel sure he is at the right hand of God in that world where peace abideth day by day, while grief and worry flee away where joy forever reigns. He never made no profession as a Christian, though he had ever mark of a Christian's life every day of his life in health also during his sickness, and when God in his mercy saw fit to remove him, called him, then he closed his eyes as if he was going to sleep and passed sweetly away.

My head and stay is called away, And I am left alone, My husband dear, who was so near. Is dead and gone.

It breaks my heart, 'tis hard to part, With one who was so kind; Where shall I go to vent my smart, Or ease my troubled mind?

In wisdom's ways we spent our days, Much comfort we did find; But he is gone, in dust he lays And I am left behind.

Naught can I find to ease my mind, In things which are below; For earthly joys but vex my joys, And aggravate my woe.

But I'll repair to Jesus, Where I'll ease my troubled breast; To Christ above who is my Lord And my eternal rest.

And Oh, that he would send for me! And call my spirit home; To worlds of rest among the blest, Where troubles never come.

His wife,
Mrs. I. L. Smith.

The Road Question.

Mr. Editor: I gave a few facts on the road question some time ago with no intention of a controversy with any body, but it seems that I must have hit some one up in the 1820th, signed—"Hayseed."

He says up in Jefferson county they spend $800 per mile on their roads. He further states that they work road machinery and the chaingang.

What is the matter with Bulloch, she has a chaingang and a road machine that cost $600 and twenty-two head of as good mules as any county, and the money too? I will ask Mr. "Hayseed" what is the matter, why not work some? We have had this new system for about five or six years and they have got the money and no work done, only here and there.

I had rather pay twice the amount than to work, but I don't favor paying all the time and no work done.

He says: "Oh, this is good enough, let's go on." That is natural for a fellow to say when he has got a good job, one that pays him $2.00 per day and good teams furnished him. Oh, he says the overseer used his own horse, but he failed to say just what price was paid him for the use of that horse. He is good and accommodating to furnish a horse free. Did he, or did he not?

I will inform Mr. "Hayseed" that we are not concerned about what Jefferson county is doing. It seems that my friend is setting away back on his claims about what Jefferson county is doing, but says nothing about what Bulloch is doing only up in the 1820th, where he has seen a few flats filled in and some places ditched and the dirt thrown the wrong way.

I agree with Mr. "Hayseed" when he says there was not a first class road in Bulloch county when this new law was passed. I will inform him that there is not one in the county today.

When you write again please sign your name we would like to know who you are.
Respectfully,
Jas. L. Stubbs.

STANDING LOYAL TO BULLOCH COUNTY

Enthusiastic Meeting Held in Opposition to the Cutting Off of Any More Territory

A mass meeting of citizens of Bulloch county was held at the court house yesterday. A fairly large crowd was present, considering that only a few days notice had been given of the meeting and a great many are busy gathering fodder.

The meeting was called to order by Hon. S. L. Moore, ordinary, as temporary chairman. Judge Joshua Everett was elected permanent chairman and Mr. Hinton Booth secretary.

Hon. S. L. Moore stated the object of the meeting in a few well-chosen words. Among other things he stated that Bulloch county as it now stands is ranked among the foremost counties in the state and that dismemberment would rob us of our prestige and high standing in the legislature, in political conventions and with the state at large. He spoke earnestly and was liberally applauded.

Mr. J. G. Blitch placed before the body a motion that a rising vote be taken on the question of the formation of Stephens county. The question was put and 11 ayes except one or two, and thus placed themselves on record as being opposed to the new county.

Mr. R. Simmons made a ringing speech, showing many reasons why the new county would not be advantageous even to the town of Metter.

Hon. J. J. E. Anderson, member of the legislature, made a strong argument against the dismemberment of Bulloch. He denounced as false all the rumors and statements that have been circulated to the effect that he is in favor of the new county. He stated that if only one vote was cast in the house against Stephens county, the good people of Bulloch could rest assured that that one vote was Julian Anderson's.

The enthusiasm of the crowd was at a high pitch and Mr. Anderson's eloquent and stirring appeal against the proposed "knifing" of his home county were roundly applauded. Mr. Anderson was very enthusiastic and made a strong, logical argument, stating that his heart and soul were against the movement and pledging all his influence to prevent Bulloch being forced to divide her territory.

Col. R. Lee Moore moved to extend the floor to Dr. A. H. Stapler, who was present in the meeting. Dr. Stapler lives at Metter and is one of the promoters of the new county project. The invitation was unanimously and cordially extended, and Dr. Stapler arose and in a few words stated that when the movement was first agitated the newspaper in Statesboro several times and frequently inserted squibs slurring Metter and throwing off on the project and stated that inasmuch as this had taken place he hardly felt that he was in the house of his friends and with this remark resumed his seat.

The following committee on resolutions was appointed: F. T. Lanier, chairman, E. L. Trapnell, L. H. Kinyers, B. J. Atwood, R. Lee Moore, and J. J. Williams. The following resolutions were returned by this committee and adopted by a rising vote.

Whereas there is an effort being made by a few of the citizens in and near Metter to create Stephens county with Metter as its county seat, said new county to be made from the territory of the counties of Bulloch, Tattnall, and Emanuel, taking about 100 square miles from Bulloch county, being nearly as much as they propose to take from the counties of Tattnall and Emanuel both put together.

And whereas it appears that there is no necessity for the creation of said new county, because the people of said territory are in easy communication and easy reach of the several county seats, said territory being traveled by railroads.

And it further appearing that a large majority of the white citizens, the tax payer and the property owner, who live in the territory to be cut out from Bulloch county, seriously object to the formation of said new county of Stephens, because they see no reason why they should be taxed to erect public buildings and other necessary expense.

And whereas the territory to be cut off has always been recognized by the people of Bulloch county politically and otherwise and especially in the distribution of officers.

And whereas the formation of said new county is utterly without reason and is opposed to by most people in and out of said territory. Therefore be it resolved: That we, the people of Bulloch county in mass meeting assembled, oppose the creation of said new county and we do hereby instruct our senator and representatives to oppose the measure both in the house and senate and before the committee.

The following committee on official data was appointed: Howell Cone, chairman, S. L. Moore, and B. J. Atwood.

Upon motion of S. L. Moore, volunteers were called for to go to Atlanta on Wednesday to appear before the legislative committee on new counties to protest against the cutting off of any of Bulloch's territory. The following volunteered to go: B. J. Atwood, L. H. Kinyers, J. G. Blitch, L. H. Franklin, W. E. Jones, Howell Cone, S. L. Moore, J. E. Donohoe, Joshua Everett, C. B. Aarons, B. J. Parish, Z. T. DeLoach, R. Lee Moore, E. L. Trapnell, and A. M. Deal.

The following were appointed as a committee on general information: H. J. Proctor, Jr., F. T. Lanier, and R. Lee Moore.

A noticeable feature of the meeting was that there was a large representation from the territory affected, who are opposed to being cut off. Petitions are in hand protesting against the formation of the new county, and it is believed that a majority of the tax payers as well as a majority of the voters in the territory proposed to be cut off have signed these petitions. The committee will go to Atlanta fully prepared to make a strong fight, with these petitions and with a large number of strong arguments and facts in hand. The Kimball house bar and other bars have been notified to tap an extra keg or two for the boys on their arrival.

MILTON RAWLINGS GUILTY OF MURDER.

Jury Returns Uncompromising Verdict After Five Hours Discussion. Mercy or Death Debate Delayed Jury.

Valdosta, Ga. July 21.—At 8:55 o'clock this afternoon the case of State vs. Milton Rawlings, charged with the murder of Willie and Carrie Carter, was given to the jury. The day was consumed by the defense, and W. E. Thomas, the solicitor-general. The former spoke four hours and the latter two.

The crowd was as large as on any previous day, and the interest was just as intense.

Mr. Cooper's argument was based for the most part on the theory that A. J. Moore, the negro, was the real murderer of the Carter children.

Mr. Thomas analyzed the evidence very closely, and exhibited the two guns and the knife, to which frequent reference was made in the testimony. He insisted that the state's case had been established by the defendant's own witnesses. He held that the crime was the outcome of a conspiracy on the part of a gang. Mr. Cooper had declared that the McDonalds should have been arrested as accomplices. Mr. Thomas met the point by saying that the traverse jury could not assume that the grand jury was through with its work. [Both attorneys received the closest attention, and once Judge Mitchell was compelled to warn the audience.]

When they had concluded Judge

Mitchell proceeded at once to charge. He was extremely careful not to lean one way or the other. Upon concluding he notified the jury that he would wait for the verdict, of course, but that the business of the court stood adjourned until Monday morning. At that time the cases of Jesse and Leonard Rawlings will be taken up.

When the jury filed out there ensued a remarkable scene. The Carter family had been seated under the ledge of the judge's bench. There were Mr. and Mrs. Carter and the five surviving children, one an infant in arms. They at once retired to the lower floor. The prisoners, Milton Rawlings and his father, J. G. Rawlings, together with the wife and the two girls had been at the rail separating the bar from the audience. The latter were his case. He was cool. Mrs. Rawlings stood up and very freely discussed his case. He was cool. Mrs. Rawlings also was the center of the group, and showed no nervousness, as did neither the son nor his sisters.

It is said here that the cost of the defense will be such as to exhaust the Rawlings estate, which is valued at about $5,000. Carter and Rawlings have been regarded as worth about the same amount of money.

The trial of the elder Rawlings will not be undertaken until after the trial of Jesse a Leonard, who will be tried together. The reason for holding the father till the last seems to be that the solicitor-general desires to obtain every scintilla of evidence from the examination of the son in order to establish the proof that the father aided, abetted, induced and commanded the young men and the negro to do the killing, while he himself was purposely absent.

It was at 8:30 that Judge Mitchell received notice that the jury had made a verdict. It had been out nearly five hours. The news spread quickly over the city and when at 8:45 o'clock the jury entered the court room the crowd was nearly as large as during the closing hour of the trial.

The foreman on the call of the judge rose and delivered the verdict to the solicitor who read: "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty."

The audience received the report in silence. Attorney Cooper asked for a poll of the jury. This was taken and the jury promptly discharged

loch, and go thou'nd do likewise

The thoughtless crowd will cheer
what you did in 1861, and forget your necessities in the year 1906.

The Anti-free pass bill war-right and proper, and we cannot see how any legislator could afford to oppose it.

Deliver us from continual and constant political confusion, and let the people rest in contentment until the right time.

A legislature of the right kind of men is more important than who shall be governor, because they make the laws.

The legislature has passed laws
to protect even possums, and yet
we have men who refuse to protect the little children of the state.

Providence has smiled upon the farmers and sent the early and latter rains, and full barns and a bountiful store of provisions in our portion.

Don't waste too much of your time talking about this or that man for office, but attend to your own business, and you will see more prosperity coming your way.

The highest and noblest service
that you can perform for any old needy soldier is to run your hand
in your pocket and relieve his wants, and let alone all vain display.

The old soldier who is a law
abiding citizen in 1906, and ready to uphold the civil government from the assaults of anarchy, was the best soldier in the days of 1861.

Thomas Lawson, of frenzied
finance fame, says that the System is rotten, and that rascality is the basis of the actions of those high in financial circles, and we see that "graft" and theft is the rule in municipal affairs, and it is enough to make honest men pause and think what will be the result of such things on the future of our country.

THE ANTI-PASS BILL.

For several years certain measures of reform have been pending
before the Georgia legislature.
Among these questions is the one of free railroad passes to judges and state officers, including members of the legislature. Two years ago a bill was passed taking away free passes from the judges of the courts, and again at this session a bill was brought forward by the leader of reform, Hon. Joe Hill Hall, to prevent the railroads giving them to members of the legislature, and that bill came up last Friday, and was lost by two votes before the house. Men who were expected to vote for it, went against it.

In our opinion and in the opinion of thousands of people, this is a very just and proper bill. Several of the states have such laws,
and the time is coming when Georgia will have it. Reform can be held back, but they cannot always be defeated.

Because a legislator has a free
pass in his pocket does not necessarily mean that he is corrupt, or will be influenced in his acts by reason of it, but he puts himself
in a position where he is not above suspicion, and a judge, and a legislator should be like Caesar's wife, above suspicion.

Our people, as a rule, have no

things against railroads, because they are the developers of the country, but there is reason to believe that the lobbyists and mercenaries of the railroads have exercised influence in legislation
against the interest of the people, and the free pass evil, in our opinion, is largely responsible for it.
The judge and the men who make laws should stand on the high plane of being or feeling under obligation to no man or set of men, and yet when a question of interest between the railroads and the people come up in the legislature, how can the man with free passes in his pocket, not feel a leaning to the railroad?

Pennsylvania, Kentucky, and other states are absolutely under the control and domination of railroad attorneys and lobbyists,
and the intention of the anti-pass bill is to prevent the growth of this influence in this state.

It should be the law for various reasons. For those already stated, and also to keep the members at work, instead of riding around,
and to protect the railroads from
this class of dead-beat travel.

It is not right for a member of the legislature to be riding on a dead-head ticket, and on the adjoining seat, is some poor man or woman with little children who are forced to pay more than they would pay, if it were not for the number of dead-heads who pay nothing to keep up the roads.

It is stated that fifteen per cent.
of the railroad travel is done by dead-heads. It is unjust to the railroads and unjust to the people who pay their way, and pay all the
'freight' besides.

Men who make and execute laws,
should stand like a jury, perfectly impartial, and not place themselves where they are likely to be biased. Let the fight go on, and the people will yet elect a majority of the Georgia legislature
who will pass this bill.

New Cotton Brings Fancy Price.

Savannah, Ga. July 21.—The first bale of new cotton for this season was sold at auction here
this morning in front of the Savannah cotton exchange by Hunter & Co. It was classed fully middling and brought thirty cents
a pound, being bought by A. J.
Rich, local manager of Marshall,
Bully & Son, of Liverpool.

There was spirited bidding for the bale. This is the highest price ever paid in Savannah for a first bale.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

THE STATE FAIR

President Roosevelt Has Promised to Delivered an Address.

Atlanta—President Roosevelt has promised to make a speech at the state fair here next October,
and it will be an historic address.
Presidents seldom attend fairs
and this visit is large in compliment to the State Agricultural society. The society extended an urgent invitation to Mr. Roosevelt to visit Atlanta, and United States Senator Clay presented it so formally that the president consented.
The president will visit his mother's old home at Roswell, Cobb county, on his southern tour.

Editor J. R. Miller, of States-boro News, who is getting up the Bulloch county display, will have a Georgia mountain lion, stuffed,
on exhibition. President Roosevelt has had many an encounter with mountain lions, but he has never heard that they are the ghost residents of Bulloch, which was named for his great-grandfather, General Archibald Bulloch,
of revolutionary fame.

Twenty-four counties are preparing exhibits for the state fair.
General Manager Frank Weldon
says: "We count on at least twenty showing up with exhibits.
The immense building which was erected by the government for the cotton states' exhibition will be packed with the products of Geo-gia's farms. This year's will really be an agricultural exhibition.
It will be a revelation to our people, and an education to visitors."

"If it was no violating confidence, I could a tale unfold of the preparations being made in some counties which would amaze you.
This will be the greatest exposition of Georgia's agricultural resources and progress ever seen."

Do You Want Strength?

If you want to increase your strength
you must add to and not take from the physical. In other words, the food that you eat must be digested, assimilated
and appropriated by the nerves, blood and tissues before being expelled from the intestines. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure adds to the physical. It gives strength to and builds up strength in the human system. It is pleasant to the taste and palatable, and the only combination of digestants that will digest the food and enable the system to appropriate all of its health and strength-giving qualities. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

Natives Eaten by Black Cannibals.

Berlin, July 19.—An official report from the colonial authorities
in West Africa describes an outbreak on the part of the cannibal tribe of Nijems in German Cameroons.

It is stated that during the month of June this tribe devoured
2,000 negroes and eight white persons.

The German military force in the district is too weak to cope with the savages, and they have practiced their cannibalism undisturbed.

Communicated.

Mr. Editor: Will you allow me a few lines in your valuable paper. I wish to say something about the pleasant day we spent at the veterans' reunion. I enjoyed it so much. It was a feast to us all to meet and shake hands
and talk, and we also enjoyed the interesting speech from our brother, Captain Hitch. We wish him a long and useful life. We thank the good people of Statesboro for the kindness shown us on that day. I think everyone enjoyed themselves, except two young men who were drunk, and I felt sorry for them. Boys! don't let anyone know you drink.

The road question is very high now; we must be too hard to please. Contentment is a great gain. When we see our leaders trying to give us good roads we should encourage them. I will keep quiet I think the law is all right. We hope Mr. Fletcher will soon get on our road from Olliff's bridge to Statesboro. I think it is a good idea to work all the public roads three miles to States-boro.

They Are Cleaning All Vegetation as They Go--Hay Field in Weet Statesboro First Scene of Action.

On yesterday morning parties passing along West Main street noticed a small army of worms. It was first thought that they were the cotton caterpillars, but others who saw them
say they are the regular old army worm. They had already devastated
a large space in the hay field before their presence was noticed. They will spread to other fields if not checked in some way. They seem to destroy all vegetation in their path and multiply very rapidly. They are already a menace to the growing crops in this vicinity and much anxiety is expressed as to their appearance. They,
if left alone, will destroy all the cotton sweet potatoes, peas, hay, and other growing crops in this section. Their appearance has not been reported in any other place in this county, but it would not be surprising to hear of them being at other places. We hope our people will take prompt steps to stop their progress.

Our Representatives Divided.

Our representatives divided on Vegetarianism is all the vogue among those who take thought what they shall eat and what they shall drink. Broccoli and boiled cabbage come in together, and who shall say which has the firmer hold upon persons of fashion, asks Sir Herbert Maxwell in The Outlook.

Only the British metropolis now exceeds New York city in point of population, and New York may be before many years, advance to the first place. But what shall it profit a city to grow into the most populous municipality the world has ever seen if in the process it loses its own soul—which is civic virtue?

From one point of view, it is of course obvious that the man who can afford to pay $5000 for a Louis XIV. tapestry can afford to pay $3000 additional for the privilege of bringing it into his own country. And yet it is not to the kitchen, says the New York Evening Post. Good cooks, always at a premium, are particularly scarce at present, as servants are showing more and more inclination to insist on having the easier upstairs and dining-room work. It is therefore of the utmost importance that the kitchen work should be made easier and pleasanter.

The country's service is more than honorable to the man who performs it. It is valuable to the country that commands it, and it should be paid for at a proper rate and surrounded by the signs of a national appreciation of its worth. "The country is rich enough to do its diplomatic work with more liberality. It should not permit its ambassador at the Court of St. James to spend, on its behalf, a large fortune of his own in order that he may preserve the prestige of the United States as a great power, declares the Washington Star.

It is not to be wondered at the editor of Brassey's Naval Annual says, at the end of 1908 the United States will become the second naval power of the world, and the British and United States navies combined would be able to put into line 75 first class battle-ships, as compared with 69 possessed by the other five naval powers. This is the most impressive consideration, thinks the New York Tribune. Its bearing upon the greatness and self-sufficiency of the Anglo-Saxon world is obvious and most gratifying, and we may hope that its significance to the peace and welfare of the entire world may be no less apparent and effective.

General Passenger Agent Lynch of the Big Four Road threw some new light on the question why railroads run a president's special train. "The railroads," he said, "do not carry the president of the United States in a special train over the country for fun, for glory, or for advertising purposes, but because the chief executive may not be carried on a regular train, as it would handicap the general operation of the road and work a hardship on the traveling public. No regular train could possibly adhere to its schedule were the president on board. The fact that he was a passenger could not be kept secret, and at every station and crossing roads would be a crowd demanding to see and hear him make a speech. There would be a delay of ten or fifteen minutes at every station and every other passenger on the train would be greatly inconvenienced. The president's special train inconvenience to one, and the roads would rather go to the expense of running a special train free than subject the traveling public to the annoyance of a delay on a regular train."

DEADLY HEAT WAVE

MAKES FEARFUL RECORD

Fatalities in Great Cities of the Country Reach Appalling Figures, as Mercury Climbs Steadily to Terrible Heights.

A New York special says: While the record of deaths and prostration greatly exceeded that of Tuesday, there was a distinct diminution Wednesday in the temperature prevailing throughout the eastern section of the country. Although the midday heat was everywhere terrific, it was broken by scattered thunderstorms, many of a very violent character, and towards evening the temperature fell rapidly until normal summer conditions were reached.

As usual, the maximum official temperatures were exceeded by those prevailing in the crowded streets where the actual temperature frequently exceeded 100 degrees.

The cumulative effect of the torridity of the past several days was painfully evident in the enormous increase of the number of deaths in New York. While the death roll of Tuesday was only twenty-six that of Wednesday reached the appalling total of seventy-five, being nearly half of those prostrated. This was almost entirely due to the collapse of aged children and aged persons, whose exhausted vitality was unequal to the strain of further suffering.

After a night of sweltering heat spent by thousands in the streets, in the public parks, on piers along the river front and in every vacant place that promised a breath of air, the conditions that confronted the people of New York Wednesday morning were terrible. The sun rose in a cloudless sky and hour after hour the heat grew more and more intense. By the hour of noon the hospitals were crowded with suffering persons. At 2 o'clock the afternoon came the long prayed for relief when a terrific thunderstorm and a deluge of rain burst over Brooklyn and the lower part of Manhattan and sections of New Jersey.

Several deaths reported were those of persons who had fallen, while asleep, from fire escapes, while they were endeavoring to escape the stifling atmosphere from the crowded tenements. With 150 bodies in the cold storage room at the city morgue, the refrigerating system was found to be out of order Wednesday, and it was necessary to resort to the use of ice, in which the bodies were packed, and fifty bodies were hurriedly shipped to the potter's field.

For the first time, the New York City highway commission issued an order permitting all motormen and conductors to remove their coats while on duty during the heated term. Almost all of the men availed themselves of the privilege.

In order to save all who might fall into the hands of the police after hours the torment of a night in the station house cells, the police magistrates made arrangements to accept bail for prisoners at any hour during the night during the hot spell. The suffering among animals during the day was intense, hundreds of horses, many of which died, being prostrated. An extraordinary mortality among dogs and cats, of which hundreds of bodies were picked up in the streets and reported to the police.

Following are the deaths and prostrations from heat in cities named: New York, 75 deaths and 167 prostrations; Philadelphia, 10 deaths and 40 prostrations; Baltimore, four deaths and five prostrations; Washington, one death and 14 prostrations; Boston, one death and 25 prostrations; Pittsburg, five deaths and six prostrations.

HAD PISTOL IN GRIP.

Mrs. Rawlings Went into Court With Loaded Revolver, Which Was Accidentally Discovered by Sheriff.

The finding of a loaded pistol in Mrs. J. G. Rawlings' satchel by Sheriff Passmore and the severe arraignment of the sheriff by Attorney Cooper before the court were the features of the Rawlings murder trial at Valdosta, Ga., Tuesday.

Sheriff Passmore announced that Mrs. Rawlings had sent for her hand satchel and that he found it to contain a loaded revolver. Mrs. Rawlings was sitting by her husband.

Attorney Cooper announced that Mrs. Rawlings had a long way to come and that she carried the gun for her protection. The court instructed the sheriff to take the weapon from the matchel before giving it to her.

The jury had just been completed, when the sheriff announced his discovery of the pistol, and the effect of the exclamation and his evident effort upon the jury gave Attorney Cooper an opportunity to move for a dismissal of the jury and the formation of another, but Judge Mitchell overruled the motion.

Milton Rawlings was the first to be placed on trial. W. L. Carter, father of the murdered children, took the stand and told of the double assassination, saying that he recognized Milton and Jesse Rawlings. He broke down and wept as he described the mutilation of the body of his young daughter, saying that the prints of the men's shoes were upon her head and body and that her head had been beaten into the ground. Carter also said he saw Leonard Rawlings, and the negro, Alf Moore, also indicted, but who turned state's evidence, on the evening Alf Moore was placed upon the stand. He told his story of the horrible double murder, which he supported in full Carter's statement, and he was still in the hands of the state when court adjourned. Carter was made to admit while on the stand that he had been prosecuted in court and that his evidence had been discredited.

Alleged Looting by Alabama Soldiers to Be Fully Investigated. The military authorities of Alabama from the governor down have determined to investigate the alleged looting of the negro clerk in the store of J. S. Holmes, on the Red Bank road, in which it is said that three men in the uniforms of soldiers forced, at the point of a bayonet, the negro to permit them to take money out of the cash register and whiskey and cigars from the stock, also charging that $50 in money was taken from the safe. Governor Jelks has given orders that the matter be probed to the bottom.

STRIKERS LOSE OUT

Great Contest at Chicago Finally Comes to an End.

TEAMSTERS SURRENDER

Men Will Seek Old Places Without Agreement of Any Kind—Strike Lasted Nine Months and Cost Thirty Lives.

The end of the teamsters' strike that has so greatly disturbed conditions in Chicago for the last three months is at hand. The strikers have made a complete surrender and will seek their old positions without an agreement of any kind with the employers.

The first break in the ranks of the strikers came Thursday afternoon when the lumber teamsters voted to return to work regardless of what action might be taken by any other union. Thursday the department store drivers and the railway express drivers voted to call off the strike and seek their old positions in the morning. It is expected that about 60 per cent of the department store drivers will be reinstated, and the express drivers declared that they believed that about one hundred of their number would be taken back by the express companies. The express companies have declared all through the strike, however, that not one of the men who struck would ever be reinstated.

The truck drivers and one or two smaller unions will vote on the question of calling off the strike, but there is no doubt that they will decide to seek their old places again. The officials of the teamsters' union declare that they expect such action to be taken.

The only concession that the men have gained by their back to work is in the case of the lumber drivers, who have secured some of the work they were denied. In the case of all other unions, the men by seeking their old places tacitly agree to the terms of the employers, which were that only such men would be taken back as were needed after the non-union men had been provided for, and that the question of reinstating the union men should be left to the decision of the individual employer.

The strike has been one of the most annoying, bitterly fought and expensive affairs of the season and has done much to injure the city. It originated last winter over the demand of the Garment Workers' Association that the firm of Montgomery Ward & Co. refrain from sending out any work to non-union men, although there was in the contract between Ward & Co. and the unions no clause prohibiting such action. The garment workers employed by Ward & Co. went on strike, and their places were filled by non-union men. Four months after the strike of the garment workers the teamsters' union called on Ward & Co. to arbitrate the strike. The refusal of Ward & Co. was followed by a strike of all the teamsters in their employ, and the strike rapidly spread to such other business houses as attempted to make deliveries to Ward & Co.

About thirty lives have been lost during the strike, and there have been hundreds of cases of illness, many of which the victims were seriously injured.

PUGILIST AS PICKPOCKET.

"Jim" Nabbed by Chicago Police on Charge of Robbery.

"Jim" Hall, formerly a well known pugilist, at one time champion of Australia, and who fought with Bob Fitzsimmons for the largest purse ever offered in a prize ring, was arrested in Chicago Thursday on a charge of robbery. It was claimed by the police that Hall was one of the three men who attempted to pick the pockets of a passenger on a street car.

HEAT WAVE IS BROKEN.

Before Relief Came to Long Suffering New York Nearly Two Hundred Deaths Were Recorded.

With the thermometer reaching a maximum of only 80 degrees Thursday, there was a general relief in New York and surrounding cities from the withering heat of Tuesday and Wednesday. Normal summer weather prevailed throughout the day. During Tuesday and Wednesday nights, a total of 234,000 persons slept in the park lawns, according to reports received by the park commissioner.

Although the heat wave is evidently a thing of the past, the effect of the recent high temperature and humidity was still apparent during Thursday. Up to 11 o'clock p. m. twenty-five deaths had been reported in Manhattan and Brooklyn, with several others reported in Jersey City and nearby towns. The prostrations numbered in addition thirty-five.

The wave of heat which held the city in its grasp for more than a week caused nearly 200 deaths and a great many cases of serious prostration and untold sufferings to millions.

SHERIFF INTERRUPTS LAWYER.

Features of Trial of Milton Rawlings at Valdosta.

Milton Rawlings made his statement in the Carter murder cases at Valdosta, Ga., Thursday morning. "A network of perjury has thrown me into the shadow of the gallows," said he, as he dropped into the witness chair, just before the court adjourned for dinner.

Resuming his story as he could steady his voice, the prisoner went through his actions during the day previous to the murder cases at Valdosta, Ga., Thursday morning. "A network of perjury has thrown me into the shadow of the gallows," said he, as he dropped into the witness chair, just before the court adjourned for dinner.

The sensational feature of the afternoon was the interruption of the argument by Attorney Smith by Sheriff Passmore, who charged the McDonalds with the crime as there was to put it to the credit of the Rawlings. "For," said he, "it has been proven, and proven by the state's witnesses, that the McDonalds had been in that yard that night, and that they had guns with them."

Sheriff Passmore, kinsman of the McDonalds, jumped to his feet in front of the court room and declared that the McDonalds had not been arrested, because there had been no evidence warranting that action.

This brought from Mr. Smith the declaration that if there was any one here who doesn't like it because I have taken it upon myself to defend these prisoners, let them say so. If they don't like it, let them jump out of the back, then fired upon James White, the manager and son of the proprietor, the bullet passing through the lungs and coming a wound from which it is expected that he will die.

ENGLAND RAISES COTTON CRY.

Frantic Move to Encourage Growth of Staple in British Possessions.

An apparently well organized movement, started by the cotton growers of Great Britain to encourage the growth of cotton in the British possessions and countries other than the United States, where natural conditions favor profitable cultivation, has been upon getting him to the department of commerce and labor at Washington by Consul Hailestad at Birmingham, England. "The movement is being directed to get the right kind of man for the place."

HAVES GIVEN HARD JOB.

Placed at Head of Statistical Department with Strict Orders.

Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Wilton Hayes has taken hold of the affairs of the bureau of statistics, with instructions from Secretary Wilson, approved by President Roosevelt, to clean up the bureau of the stigma left by the cotton leak scandal. ## HYDE FORCED OUT Statistician of Agricultural Department Quits Job.

CONTINUALLY HOUNDED

Wrote Letter of Resignation to Secretary Wilson and the Same Was Promptly Accepted—Couldn't Stand the Pressure.

A Washington special says: The Southern Cotton Association has scored again in the fight against the bureau of statistics, department of agriculture. John Hyde, the head of the bureau and the department's chief of statistics, resigned Tuesday, and his resignation was promptly accepted by Secretary Wilson. Mr. Hyde's letter to the secretary and the latter's reply were made public Tuesday afternoon. Like Secretary Wilson, Mr. Hyde relied too implicitly on the integrity of associates and subordinates. Even his best friends, however, admit that his period of usefulness is at an end, if, as has been officially asserted, the disgraced bureau was able to manipulate the statistics of the department, but it is known that a plan for a complete reorganization of the bureau was exhaustively discussed. Its principal difference from the method now in use is the entire absence of secrecy. All reports coming to the bureau are to be placed at the disposal of the public. If the new scheme is adopted, and they will be announced from day to day, instead of being held and made the basis of the statistician's periodical statements. This plan, it is believed by many interested, will serve the same purpose as the present one, and at the same time preclude the possibility of any crookedness.

The names of two or three persons have been mentioned in connection with the place made vacant by Mr. Hyde's resignation. The selection of anybody now connected with the bureau of statistics is believed to be wholly improbable.

Wilket N. Hayes, the assistant secretary of the department of agriculture, has been placed in charge of the bureau temporarily, and will continue to act pending the investigation of the cotton scandal until a competent statistician is found.

Mr. Hyde's withdrawal from the department created wide interest. Secretary Wilson and other officials of the department have stated that Mr. Hyde has not been implicated in any manner in the investigation that resulted in the dismissal of Edwin S. Holmes, the associate statistician.

In his letter to the secretary, Mr. Hyde takes notice of the fact that he will be confined to his quarters under fire and in defense says there has never been a time when he was not under fire. He then declares that an organization, meaning the Cotton Growers, is bent upon getting him to the department of commerce and labor at Washington by Consul Hailestad at Birmingham, England. "The movement is being directed to get the right kind of man for the place."

McDONALDS IMPLICATED?

Kinsmen of Sheriff Passmore Alleged to Have Taken a Hand in Murder of the Carter Children.

It was with a rush and with a gasp that the Rawlings' murder trial showed at Valdosta, Ga., Wednesday, notwithstanding the intense sultry heat. The negro Moore was brought back to the witness chair when the court convened. He could not begin where he left off Tuesday, but he did recall the same story over again.

Moore told several conflicting stories about the killing, and admitted that he had told several lies in order to save himself. He was positive, however, that Milton, Jesse and Leonard Rawlings were at the Carter home, and that Milton and Jesse did the shooting. He said that he went to the Carter home to help do the killing on the agreement that he be paid $100; but when he got there, his nerve failed him, and he could do nothing. He also made the startling statement that the Rawlings family told him that they had $1,500 in the house, which they could get if he would go in and kill the rest of the family.

The sensational feature of the day was the pronounced determination of the defendants' attorneys to transplant the crimes of June 13 from the Rawlings family to the McDonalds, kinsmen of Sheriff Passmore of Lowndes county.

It was shown conclusively by the testimony of Mrs. Carter, mother of the dead children, and by Miss Dora Carter, the oldest daughter, that the McDonalds, but when the younger McDonalds was put on the stand he declared emphatically that he had been near the Carter home on the night of the tragedy.

Miss Carter was probably the star witness of the day. She swore positively that she saw the shooting through a hole in the heart and encountered Milton Rawlings' face just on the outside of the chimney, trying to look in. She was positive in recognition of his face, which she knew for years, and could not be mistaken. It was Miss Carter, too, who was absolutely sure that she saw the McDonalds that night in the yard, and that one of them had a gun.

Wednesday night a mob battered down the door of the county jail at New Orleans, Texas, and looted the jail. A 16-year-old negro boy, who attempted a criminal assault on a four-year-old white girl, was the only inmate who was not killed. The mob could not break into the cell, so the leaders thrust their guns through the opening of the steel walls and shot the boy to death.

Give Damaging Testimony

Valdosta, Ga., July 19.—The testimony of Alf Moore, the negro, who is alleged to be an accomplice, was resumed this morning in the Rawlings trial. The witness detailed the alleged trade made with him by J. G. Rawlings, stating that Rawlings was to give him $100 for the "work."

He also told all about the commission of the murders. Attorney Cooper, for the defense, subjected the witness to a merciless cross-examination under which the negro contradicted himself on several points. The defense requested Judge Mitchell to rule out the testimony of Moore; also his alleged confession, but the judge ruled that it was admissible.

Mrs. W. L. Carter and her daughter, Miss Lora Carter, were put on the stand and their evidence was corroborative of the testimony given by W. L. Carter yesterday afternoon, and also that of Alf Moore as to the occurrences at the Carter home on the night of the killing.

Both of them proved to be excellent witnesses for the state, and the attorney for the defense was unable to derive much benefit from the cross examination. They said that they saw and recognized the three Rawlings boys; also Jim and Tim McDonald and the negro, around their home that night.

MRS. RAWLINGS' PISTOL
SURPRISES THE SHERIFF
Valdosta, Ga., July 19.—(By Wire.)—Milton Rawlings, son of J. G. Rawlings, is on trial before a jury charged with having been a party to the killing of the two Carter children. A dramatic feature of the day's proceedings was when Sheriff Passmore declared in court:

"I have found a loaded pistol in Mrs. Rawlings' satchel."

MOTION IS OVERRULED.
Judge Mitchell was ruling on a motion when the sheriff in with this sensation, and the court room was intensely quiet.

Attorney Cooper was so wrought up at this statement and at the effect which the latter's declaration might have upon the jury that he moved for the dismissal of the men who are to decide young Rawlings' fate. The motion was denied.

Friends of Mrs. Rawlings say that as she has been deprived of the protection of her husband and her three sons, and that as she lives in the country and has two children to take care of, it was the most natural thing for her to take some precautions to protect herself and her daughters.

W. L. Carter, father of the murdered children, was the first witness called by the state after the selection of the jury. He testified that he had recognized Jesse and Milton Rawlings. He broke down as he told of how the dead body of his little daughter had been trodden upon by her murderers. He wept profusely and the spectators were visibly affected.

CLEVER CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Attorney Cooper brought out, by cross-examining the witness, the fact that Carter had been prosecuted in the courts, and that his evidence had been impugned. Milton Rawling was intensely interested in the day's proceedings. He listened to every word of Carter's testimony, and also the testimony of Alf Moore, the negro charged with complicity in the murder, but who has turned state's evidence.

Carter and Moore were the only witnesses examined yesterday.

The fire broke out in the back portion of the hotel, on the lower floor, about 11 o'clock. The house was an old wooden one and burned like tinder. Young Simmons did not wake in time to get out before the whole lower story was a mass of flames. He got down on the ground floor and was there burned to death.

The terrified screams of the man, caught like a rat in a trap, with walls of fire on all sides, as the flames closed in on him, could be heard all over town. His plight caused those on the outside to work like demons to effect his rescue, but their efforts were fruitless, and within a few moments the cries ceased. The dead man's parents were notified by wire last night.

The hotel was valued at $4,500, with $2,000 insurance. The furniture was valued at $1,000 and was not insured.

RAWLINGS BOYS FOUND

GUILTY OF MURDER

Recommendation to Mercy in the Case of Leonard

Valdosta, Ga., July 26.—It was a quarter past 5 o'clock this afternoon before the jury in the case of Jesse and Leonard Rawlings returned with a verdict, the jury having been out nearly four hours without dinner when the verdict was reached.

The verdict was that of guilty, with a recommendation of mercy for Leonard Rawlings.

The court room was crowded when it was announced that the jury was ready with a verdict. Judge Mitchell had the officers go after the prisoners and the young men came in securely handcuffed and chained together. The mother and two sisters had taken seats by the side of those to be occupied by the young men.

Judge Mitchell announced to the large audience that there was to be no demonstration, no matter what the verdict might be. It was only a moment or so after the prisoners came in that the jury appeared. As the men who had the fate of the boys in their hands moved towards their seats on the left of the judge there was breathless silence throughout the room. The prisoners were a little pale, but there was no outward indication of their emotions visible.

Judge Mitchell asked if they had agreed upon a verdict and the foreman, B. H. Jones, replied in the affirmative.

The indictment upon which the verdict was written was handed to Solicitor Thomas and he read out shortly the following words:

"We, the jury, find the defendants, Jesse Rawlings and Leonard Rawlings, guilty and recommend that Leonard Rawlings be sent to the penitentiary for life."

The reading of the sentence seemed to lift a burden from Leonard Rawlings and there was a perceptible change in his countenance, though it added to the struggle which was going on in the bosom of Jesse Rawlings, as could be plainly seen.

The defendants' attorney asked that the jury be polled and each juror answered to his name and acknowledged the finding. Mrs. Rawlings burst into tears as the verdict was read and cried as though her heart would break, but the girls did not seem to realize what the awful words of the verdict meant.

After the reading of the verdict a recess was taken until tomorrow morning, when either Alf Moore or J. G. Rawlings will be put up for trial. The court will have to appoint a lawyer for the negro.

PRESIDENT WILL VISIT BULLOCH EXHIBIT

Recommendation to Mercy in the Case of Leonard

President Roosevelt has accepted an invitation to visit the state fair in Atlanta, on October the 20th. The state fair management have announced that there will be two exhibits that the president will be interested in, viz: The Cobb county and the Bulloch county exhibits. It was in Cobb county where his mother's grand mother made her home and Bulloch county is named after his mother's great-grandfather, Gen. Archibald Bulloch of revolutionary fame. The president has expressed a desire to see these home exhibits, and will be the guest of the Bulloch county exhibit for a short time. He will be shown through it and will see what wonderful resources we have in this favored land.

It is the intention of the management to place on exhibit at Atlanta the most elaborate exhibit of agricultural products ever seen from a single county in the United States. A comparison with the type written list of the last exhibit, when we pushed Spaulding close for first prize. With the prospects before us at this time, leads us to hope for an exhibit, at least four times as good as the last one was. Experience has taught us where the weak points were in that grand exhibition of the resources of this great county, and we have made it a study to remedy them.

The Statesboro News management has already expended more than one thousand dollars in cold cash on this exhibit, and the expense has only fairly begun. We will not go into details of it in a newspaper article, because it would be bad policy to do so; as it might let some other fellow from another county, who is getting up an exhibit along this line, on to what we are doing, but suffice it to say we intend that it shall stand there as a credit to this county.

When Mr. Miller returned from the last state fair he announced that he would be there at the next one, and there has not been a single day since that there has not been some work done to further the interest of this exhibit.

We are receiving substantial encouragement from many good people in the county who are interested, that the showing made in the name of their county shall be a creditable one in every sense of the word.

We understand that a great

home-seeks excursion is to be run

into Atlanta from the West during the state fair, and these people will be shown through the different county exhibits and will form from them an idea as to what counties they will want to investigate, in the event they decide to make their homes in this state. It is very probable that the fire exhibit that we propose to place before them will direct their attention to Bulloch.

We will appreciate all the assistance we can get from our home people. We will pay market prices for all that you may have that is especially fine, to go in this exhibit, or we will sell it for you, return you the money or return you the stuff. We hope to hear from all those who may have something meritorious to go in this exhibit.

To Cure A Cold in One Day. Take Laxative Broom Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.
