This is the season for storms,
and we are liable to have a big blow from the gulf at any time.
Temperance and prosperity go hand in hand, while drunkenness
and poverty do likewise.

The Mayor and Board of Trusttees have ordered an election on the school question for October
the tenth.

Evidence shows that the big life insurance companies have been taking their policy holders money,
and using it to help elect the Republican president.

Bullock is moving along on the school question. Already States-boro, Metter and Brooklet have called elections for free schools,
and no doubt each town will soon
have them.

In a few months we will have two guano factories, in operation in Statesboro, but remember that home made fertilizers are the best after all.

About the Fair.

Inasmuch as the time is fast approaching when we will have to ship the county exhibit to the state fair, we desire to say to those who have promised us something to go in it to send it as early as possible, except perishables such as fruit and vegetables, those we will want either on Saturday the 20th or Monday October 2nd.
All other articles can be taken care of any time from now on.
We will take it as a special favor of you to send it in if possible as it will be impossible for our wagons to reach all who have promised to assist us.

In sending things in report at the Statesboro News office, there will be some one there to take charge of it.

To those who will help us, we will say, that you can bring in perishable stuff either on the 20th or 21st, those two days will be the occasion of the Farmers Institute.
Hon. Harvie Jordan and Congressman Brantley and others will be here and you will hear something of interest to you. Come and bring along something to go in the fair exhibit.

We believe that we will win first prize at the fair this year, and we judge that there are a few so dead to public enterprise who would not be glad to know that their county stood first among all the great agricultural counties of the great state of Georgia. First at a fair where the very best in all the state is to be seen, at a fair where the city of Atlanta gave $45,000.00
for the privilege of holding it within her gates. It will turn the eyes of the entire state on Bulloch
county.

We will say this: When we get up in Atlanta our expenses on account of this exhibit will be something in the neighborhood of $2,000.00, and if you will turn aside just long enough to lend us a helping hand by sending in what you have promised us, either this or next week, it will aid us no little.

If a Cow gave Butter

mankind would have to invent milk. Milk is Nature's emulsion—butter
put in shape for digestion. Cod liver oil is extremely nourishing, but it has to be emulsified
before we can digest it.

Scott's Emulsion

combines the best oil
with the valuable hypophosphites so that it is easy to digest and does far more good than the oil alone could. That makes Scott's Emulsion
the most strengthening,
nourishing food—medi-

Rawlings' Execution Stayed; Funeral Proached Anyway.

Valdosta, Ga., Sept. 16.—The execution of J. G. Rawlings and his sons, Milton and Jesse, and the negro Alf Moore, all of whom were implicated in the Carter murder was set for yesterday, but a stay of sentence was ordered so that the case can be carried to supreme court.

Sheriff Passmore received orders not to hang the men from several sources. Solicitor General Thomas informed him of the order that was issued at Thomasville by Judge Mitchell when the new trial was refused; the judge informed him in person, and attorney Cooper, besides sending him word by several parties, came to tell him himself. Finally the sheriff received a letter from the governor.
A postscript to this order stated that Mr. Cooper had requested that this order be very definite, as
"that Lowndes county sheriff wants to hang that crowd." Of course the sheriff wants to do his duty, though the hanging would be a very trying one for him to perform.

FUNERAL SERMON
WITHOUT A FUNERAL
A preacher came over from Colquitt county yesterday afternoon and announced at the jail that he came to preach the funeral of the executed men, but found after reaching the city, that the execution would not occur. After a second thought, he decided to preach it anyhow, and took a position on one of the corners and spoke for about an hour about sin

and its results.
This morning the Morning News correspondent visited the condemned men at the jail and found them in a very cheerful frame of mind. The elder Rawlings and his son Milton have given up all hope, though they continue to talk and speculate upon the perpetrators of the deed. The elder Rawlings said this morning:
ELDER RAWLINGS
TALKS OF THE CRIME.
"I don't know that anything that might happen would change things at all, though I would like to know exactly all about the tragedy. Some things I know and some I do not know. I know what I did and I know some things that did not happen, but there are missing links that I would like to see supplied.
"I am thoroughly convinced that Alf Moore and Mitch Johnson did the killing and Joe Bentley, according to my idea, planned
it."

ALF MOORE AS CHAMPION LIAR.
"Now, they brought Frank Turner into it—that's the way they got Alf Moore into it, and it was him they said made the trade. I don't believe Frank Turner had anything to do with it, because he worked at my house until after dinner that day, and I don't believe he is that kind of a negro.
Now, Alf Moore is a natural liar
—he showed it in his evidence. I am going to proclaim my innocence to the last."

VENGEANCE A CAME FOR TWO.
Referring to old man Carter, he said he thought Carter was in a bad fix. "He has implicated innocent men, besides me and my boys, in this trouble for the sake of revenge, and vengeance is a game that more than one can play."

The younger boys, Leonard and Jesse, the latter also condemned to die, are in different parts of the jail. It is understood that they want to tell something that will clear Jesse, but have not done so
yet. It is said that they will later affirm that Jesse did none of the shooting, Milton killing both of the children. Jesse said to Morning News correspondent some time ago that "when the truth of this thing comes out, it will be different from what you think, I bet."

It is also said, of good authority, that Mrs. Rawlings, after waiting that night for the return of the boys and fearing they were in trouble, went over to the Carter house after them. A well known lady in this section tells this. If it is true, it explains the woman's tracks which led from Carter's to Rawlings' that night.

In Memoriam.

Of our mother, Mrs. Jane Ringwald,
who was born in Emanuel county, Ga.
Nov. 1st 1841, and moved to Bulloch
county when she was small; died at her home near East, Ga. Aug. 20th 1905, making her stay on earth sixty-three years, eight months and twelve days.

She was married to Mr. Edmond Ringwald, of Germany, who preceded her to the grave four years ago. She leaves behind her daughters, two sons,
three sisters and two brothers besides a host of friends and relatives who deeply mourn the loss of their departed one. In 1891, as many of her friends know, she was stricken with that dreadful disease known as a cancer and from then until her death she suffered untold agonies; we say untold agonies for we cannot realize what she suffered. Though she suffered she bore it all with a contented mind and always seemed to realize that she was ready to meet her Savior in peace in that home beyond the grave where pain and sorrow are all unknown, for she knew she could not recover and seemed to realize that she would be better off when the last breath came.
Though we all know that she was suffering and knew that she could not believe as we, like all others, prayed that she might be spared to us longer,
but on Sunday morning at six o'clock
God in his infinite love saw fit to call her home and remove that gloomy shadow which had so long been hovering around her, and said, "Well done thy good and faithful servant," and bid her spirit come to him, and we all now tell that she is today basking in the sunshine of God's eternal love,
while we are left in this world of sin
and sorrow to mourn over our sinful condition, but if we should strive to enter as we think our dear mother did with robe all pure and white we must battle against sin and Satan and on the judgment day try to enter with robes all pure and white.

During her long illness she did not lack for attention, for her children and neighbors did all in their power to relieve her yet we knew that she could not survive.
May God bless all of the bereaved children and prepare us to meet our dear mother in peace and in glory in that home beyond all sorrow where we hope she is resting. Pleasure only blooms to die, and when the summons comes no one can resist, and let us all strive to be ready.
Rest in peace dear mother,
On that bright eternal shore
Where sickness pain and sorrow
Shall visit thee no more.
Memorial, Oh, how painful!
How numerous they be,
Sad tokens to remind us
Of days once spent with thee.
When gladdened by thy presence,
Recipient of his love,
Ere death from earth removed thee.
To brighter scenes above!
But thou to mortal visions,
Thou canst not reappear,
Yet of a guardian angel,
Thy spirit may be near.
Written in loving remembrance by
her daughter,
Mrs. J. B. Kennedy,
Emul, Ga.

The Minimum Price

The minimum price of 11 cents
for cotton, as fixed by the Southern Cotton association, at Asheville, N. C., is unquestionably warranted by the conditions existing today, and the Southern Cotton association will soon see the wisdom of increasing to 12 cents in a reasonable time and much higher than 12 cents as the season progresses.

Never was there a time that the demands of the world for cotton were as great as they are at the present time.

Never were conditions so favorable for a maximum consumption
as is progressing now.

The mills of the world are consuming over 1,000,000 bales of cotton per month, equalling fully 19,500,000 bales of cotton year.

The demands for their goods is something marvellous.

The price of the staple has been heretofore entirely inadequate to the amount of labor that has been expended in the production thereof
by the planter.

11 cents for cotton is less in proportion to the benefits that the planter should receive than other commodity produced by the farmer.

In 1908 wool sold on the sheep's
back for 7 cents a pound.
In 1905, this year, it sold for 28 cents on the sheep's back, showing an increase in two years
of 400 per cent.

The planters of the south are indeed to be congratulated upon their wisdom in forstalling the bountiful results that must accrue
to them this coming cotton season.

THE NEWS.

Published at Statesboro, Ga.
TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

If it is actually necessary that ten people in every hundred must work for the enjoyment of ninety people who are having the day's rest, every one needs once a week, then the law of necessity must be respected, and the St. Louis Post Dispatch.

Judging by the position of Sweden's banks, that country must be in good condition financially. At the close of 1904 Sweden had 69 banks in good order. The aggregate capital was $100,000,000, as against $85,000,000 in 1903 and $75,000,000 in 1902. In addition the banks held very large reserves.

Reserve, not "smartness," is the earmark of decent breeding, says the New York Sun. Pastor Wagner need not press his admonitions to the "simple life." It is coming of itself under the pressure of the uncomfortable notoriety which the life of ostentatious display provokes. Modesty is going to be at a premium.

Puncturing the tire of an automobile with a pistol shot is an idea that probably greatly pleased the police of Rye, N. Y., when they were lately told to put it in practice against overbearing motor cars that would not stop and explain themselves, says the Boston Transcript. It promised as much sport as hunting elephants. But alas! the first thing that the first officer who tried it did was to miss the tire and wing one of the passengers.

By her defeat of Miss Douglas for the English championship Miss May Sutton becomes the champion woman tennis-player of the world. It would appear that the plucky California girl has gained a distinct personal triumph in international athletics that has fallen to the lot of many other American women. Miss Sutton's laurels are all the more creditable because won in a field in which the American men contestants were found wanting.

Among the people of present fashionable prominence in New York there are very few whose names were known in that society a generation ago—very few in the big circle at the opera, for example, states the New York Sun. Nor are there a dozen families in New York which bring down a social distinction from the early days of this town's ascendancy in the Revolution. Even of these the beginnings of reality all were relatively humble. They began usually as merchants or shopkeepers in a small way.

"In a word," says Prof. Herbert E. Mills, of Yassar, speaking of a girl college student, "she is generally a fairly healthy and very lovable girl, who has moral interests in school sports, in social affairs, in domestic matters, and is tending towards marital engagement at about the same rate as those of her social class who are not in school or college."

Tending to confirm the statement of Prof. Mills, observes the New York World, there are the Vassar records in out-of-door athletics and the "engaged" statistics of the class of '08. These are remembered too the native confession of a Wellesley Junior that "I suppose we are pretty much like other girls even if we do go to college." The young woman student composed chiefly of eye-glances, a full forehead and a vocabulary in many syllables was invented for the funny man's column. She has been accepted as a reality by many excellent and serious people who do not know that they are funnier when they worry. Prof. Mills puts the joke, but spurs no smiles for social philosophers. The higher education is not reducing the national wealth of normal girlhood. Girls who can read their Homer in the original are still girls.

YELLOW JACK SITUATION

Confidence Holds Good at New Orleans and Disease Is Under Check at Vicksburg.

While the fact that there was a large number of new cases of yellow fever did not give the authorities serious concern, the reason for sudden jump in cases within the past few days has been the cause of much speculation and considerable disappointment on the part of the public. The disappointment comes largely from the fact that any increase in the number of cases is bound to have a disastrous effect elsewhere and, therefore, prolong the existence of quarantine. Various reasons for the increase are suggested, among them the fact that the physicians are now turning up to the extent of the slightest possibility to the extent of their number, but the federal officers are inclined to believe that the fact that the agencies multiply is bound to have a disastrous effect elsewhere and, therefore, prolong the existence of quarantine. Various reasons for the increase are suggested, among them the fact that the physicians are now turning up to the extent of the slightest possibility to the extent of their number, but the federal officers are inclined to believe that the fact that the agencies multiply is bound to have a disastrous effect elsewhere and, therefore, prolong the existence of quarantine.

However, the death rate is decreasing, and it is considered probable that the disease hereafter will be so mild as to carry with it little danger and a great deal of benefit in immunizing those who are attacked by it. Wednesday's official report was as follows: New cases 43, total to date 2,413, deaths Wednesday 4. Autopsies are being held of patients who succumb to the fever in connection with the investigation that is in progress under the leadership of Professor Pottinger and Dr. Archibald. The investigators, however, are still unwilling to admit that they have solved the problem they have been studying.

Cases Near Kemp's Bend. Dr. Belcher of Waterproof, La., wired Dr. Lavender of the marine hospital service, in charge at Natchez, to go to Kemp's Bend, between Waterproof and St. Joseph, La., where there were two suspicious cases in a dam and a white camp. Just above the river, out camps. There are fully 100 men engaged on the levee works at Kemp's, and if the fever breaks out at Dam and White's camp it is feared it might spread to the government camp. Kemp's is fifty miles above Natchez.

Plague Checked at Vicksburg. Not even a suspicion of fever was reported at Vicksburg Wednesday, there having been only one new case since Sunday. The checking of the disease is attributed to the screening of every fever patient in the city.

CITY INSPECTOR WAS ARRESTED

Initial Clash Between Health Boards of Atlanta and Georgia. Dr. L. C. Rouglin, who is acting under the orders of the Atlanta health department, came in contact with President Willis Westmoreland, of the state board of health, on a train at Atlanta Wednesday, and was placed under arrest until the Atlanta city limits were entered. Dr. Rouglin, it is said, was merely ascertaining the names of cases at Atlanta. Westmoreland, who observed this, ordered the city representative to take no more names. When this order was disregarded Dr. Rouglin was placed under arrest. After the report was conveyed to Mayor Woodward he instructed Dr. Kennedy, city health officer, to order all the city inspectors to pay no attention to state officials, whether an arrest was attempted or not, so long as they (the city inspectors) were not violating the law.

It was also reported that a Mrs. H. S. Huntington and two children of Bay St. Louis, in the vicinity of New Orleans, was a passenger on the same car as Dr. Westmoreland. She stopped in Atlanta, being the only one of the fever refugees who did so.

HORRIBLE FATE OF INFORMER.

White Men Slay Negro Boy and Then Cremate the Body. Governor Vaideman of Mississippi Tuesday received a letter from District Attorney Brewer of the elevated district, notifying him that a negro boy named Will James was taken to the woods by three white men and shot to death, after which his body was burned. The negro, it seems, had been driven from one of the white men and afterwards informed on the spot.

SITUATION DEPLORABLE

Little Town Entirely Cut Off From Outside World--New Orleans Official Report for Thursday.

A New Orleans special says: Some idea of the deplorable condition that prevailed at Leeville, La., before relief doctors and nurses reached the scene was given Thursday in an interview with a man from that yellow fever stricken town who had been there throughout the epidemic. The arrival was Manuel Encalade, who said it was impossible to bury the dead, but when this grave duty help was forthcoming, communication was cut off with the city, the food supply ran low, the medicines kept in the town store were exhausted; it was impossible to get coffee for the dead and many of those who escaped attack packed their belongings and fled to other points.

At first the timber intended for a new house was used to make boxes to enter the dead, but when this gave out bodies were simply wrapped in shrouds and buried.

Mr. Encalade brought a list of thirty-six who had died in the epidemic up to September 1 and said, "It was not probable that numbers of those who fled to isolated settlements along the coast had also succumbed."

Mr. Encalade said that since the physicians and nurses had arrived, the situation had steadily improved and that the end of the epidemic was probably near at hand because there was little more material upon which it could feed.

Dr. Brady returned to New Orleans Thursday night from a tour of inspection of the Barataria country and Leeville. He reports that conditions at Leeville are pitiable, that of seven babies born there since the fever broke out, all have died, either of yellow fever or of lack of nutrition, because their mothers could not feed them. He says the people seem to be dazed, and there is danger of an outbreak of scurvy because of lack of necessary food. A carload of food was sent on by New Orleans merchants. The fever has been eradicated from the lower Barataria country, though there is considerable in the upper district.

There was nothing new in the situation at New Orleans beyond the increase in number of new cases and deaths. There were really seven yellow fever deaths, but one of them does not appear on the record. It is the case of an Italian who, in the delirium of his fever, secured a revolver and blew his brains out.

The official report Thursday was as follows: New cases 49, total to date 2,462, deaths 6, total 329, new foot 15, cases under treatment 316, discharged 1,817.

In the country, the situation at Tallulah is improving under the management of Drs. Cassaigne and Von Eadorf.

Other country reports were: Patterson, 20 cases, 2 deaths; Kenner, 8 cases, 2 deaths; St. Rose, 2 cases, Barataria 2 cases; Clarke Cheniere 1 death; Sargy, 2 cases; Berwick 1 death; Houma 2 cases; Tallulah, 26 cases, no deaths.

Mississippi--Gulfport 1 case in suburbs; Mississippi City, 1 case; Vicksburg two cases.

The marine hospital service reports that there have been 106 cases all told in the Gulfport territory, of which only 12 are now under treatment.

Four Cases at Pensacola. Two deaths and four new cases, in the report officially announced Thursday night at board of health headquarters in Pensacola.

VALUE OF COAST LINE.

Raising Assessment Made by Georgia Attorney General. Virtually Sustained by Tax Arbitrators.

The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad company must pay taxes on $2,610,000 more than the amount at which it returned its total property in Georgia for taxation.

This was the conclusion reached by the arbitrators at a meeting in Atlanta Thursday, when they made their report to the comptroller general. Comptroller General Wright is naturally very much elated over the report for it sustains his assessment almost in toto.

The Atlantic Coast Line returned its physical property at $2,610,000 less than the amount at which it returned its franchises at $2,464,570, making a total of $5,074,570. The company has about 685 miles of railroad in Georgia.

Owing to its increased earnings and the remarkable financial showing made, Comptroller General Wright returned this return and assessed the road's physical property at $2,610,000, its franchises at $2,335,100, making a total of $4,945,100, or an increase of $2,270,530 over the company's returns.

The board of arbitration made several important changes in these figures without materially affecting the general result.

The arbitrators reduced the valuation of the Coast Line's physical property to $2,400,000, which was about 10 per cent less than the company's assessment, but what is regarded as more important, it increased the valuation of the company's franchises to $2,535,170, or nearly $200,000 more than the assessment made by Comptroller General Wright. As the valuation of franchises is regarded just now about the most important feature of the arbitration returns and assessments, it is believed this action of the arbitration board will have no small weight.

As will be seen from the foregoing figures the total valuation of the Atlantic Coast Line's property in Georgia has been fixed by the board of arbitration at $2,640,000, an increase of $1,010,690 over the company's returns, and only $1,894 less than the assessment made by Comptroller General Wright.

The arbitrators who made this award were Railroad Commissioner Joseph M. Brown, representing the state; C. P. Goodyear of Brunswick, representing the Atlantic Coast Line, and Judge Richard Johnson of Jones county, umpire.

Colonel Goodyear dissented from the award, holding that the assessment of 1904 was the maximum valuation which should be placed upon this property. Commissioner Brown, on the other hand, held out for an assessment even in excess of the amount fixed by the company's returns, contending that the increase should be made on account of the company's sworn statement before the United States court as to the value of its property.

Third Vice President T. M. Emerson made affidavit that the Coast Line's property in Georgia would cost to replace it $17,600,750, and that this did not include the value of the franchise. With this wide disagreement between the two arbitrators, the matter was practically in the hands of the umpire, Judge Johnson.

The assessment made by the arbitration board on the Coast Line's property amounts to a total of $18,923 per mile.

Judge Johnson, who was umpire in this case, is also the umpire in the State on railroad matters, which will come up in the course of a few days.

TRAINING OF LOUISIANA REFUGEES.

A special train from Tallulah and the Providence, La., bearing 177 deported refugees, passed through Chattanooga Wednesday afternoon. They were not allowed to leave the cars, but will stop at points further north, where there is no quarantine.

Other country reports were: Patterson, 20 cases, 2 deaths; Kenner, 8 cases, 2 deaths; St. Rose, 2 cases, Barataria 2 cases; Clarke Cheniere 1 death; Sargy, 2 cases; Berwick 1 death; Houma 2 cases; Tallulah, 26 cases, no deaths.

CHINESE IN A RAGE

American Boycott May Eventually Result Into Death Cry.

HATED FOR FOREIGNERS

Being Kindled Throughout the Empire and Americans Are Hooted and Jeered--Business Men Are Amazed.

The American boycott in China is already more than a commercial menace. It is now considered by many to be the forerunner of an anti-foreign agitation. Business men in Shanghai, who at the beginning were inclined to laugh, have been aroused in the manner in which the propaganda has been promulgated in the interior.

In its conception the boycott was believed to have been fostered by a group of officials in Peking. According to report certain Chinese arms with a large quantity of American goods in stock took advantage of the movement. They themselves had bought forward as far as June, 1906, and were anxious to keep their smaller competitors out of the market. The latter would be prevented from the buying and the Chinese would be able to sell at their own figures.

Mr. Rockhill, the American minister and consul general in Shanghai, Mr. Rogers, assured the Chinese that their case would be considered by the next session of congress and for six weeks there was a lull. Toward the end of June, however, Mr. Conner, examiner to China, made a speech in which he ridiculed the idea of Chinese organization. This speech, wired out at once by the Chinese agents in America, brought down a storm of indignation in the native press.

The three students and their sisters who were so badly treated in Boston, were related to influential officials. The incident occurred at a violent moment in the Shanghai journals, and the demands for an effective boycott were renewed. Certain of the younger men in Shanghai, most of whom had been educated in Japan, started a vigorous newspaper campaign, insisting that strong measures must be taken to force the United States to revise her immigration laws. A certain Shanghai paper, edited by a Japanese and supported by Tokio, was particularly bitter in its attacks on America and the Americans. The native press printed sensational stories, claiming for instance, that 750 Chinese had been murdered in New York and that similar affairs were daily occurring. Subscriptions were collected from the wealthy merchants in Shanghai, Hong Kong, Canton and Shanghai and pamphlets and circulars were distributed throughout the country. Pledges were posted in the river ports and the interior cities, cursing and threatening those who were weak enough to use American goods. Americans were hooted in the streets.

The movement has now passed entirely out of the hands of the merchants. The larger place goods, Keweenaw and cigarette wholesalers all suggested that it was time to call a halt. But the agitators are in power. Where ten years ago there were not more than a few Chinese who read newspapers, the reports of murders and outrages in America have incensed the people. The men who encouraged the scheme in the beginning had now the sufferers where they had expected to reap a harvest. The American manufacturers must be paid for all goods that have been ordered abroad and it is doubtful whether a number of the wealthiest men in Shanghai will be able to weather the storm unless they can sell or cancel their orders.

MAJOR OF BOSTON DEAD.

Hon. Patrick Collins Passes Away at Hot Springs, Virginia.

The death of Mayor Patrick A. Collins at Hot Springs, Va., was announced in Boston, Mass., Thursday. A telegram received by the mayor's secretary briefly reported the sudden death of his chief.

Mayor Collins left Boston about a week ago for Hot Springs to obtain a needed rest. When he started south the mayor was apparently in good health.

Mayor Collins was one of the leading Democrats of the country. He was in congress from 1883-1889, was United States consul general at London from 1893-1897, and was president of the national democratic convention in 1896.

The news of the sudden death of their mayor came as a tremendous shock to the citizens of Boston.

AWARDING OF CONTRACT FOR SUPPLIES PLACES HIM UNDER FIRE.

Charges of "collusion, profligacy and a prearrangement" in favor of the successful bidder were made Friday when Chairman Shonts of the Panama canal commission announced that he had awarded a contract for fueling and housing the greater part of the canal employees to J. B. Markel of Omaha.

H. Bille & Co., and Hudgins & Co., both New York firms, who were the only other bidders for the contract, sent telegrams and letters to President Roosevelt at Oyater Bay protesting against the award of the contract to Markel.

FUNERAL OF CHIEF JUSTICE

Held in Georgia Supreme Court Room With Impressive Features.

Impressive funeral services were held in the supreme court room in Atlanta Wednesday morning over the body of the late Chief Justice Thomas J. Simmons, after which the distinguished jurist was laid to rest in the afternoon in Rose Hill cemetery, Macon.

Members of the bar from all parts of the state were present, some of them braving the rigors of the quarantine regulations, to pay the last tribute of respect to the able soldier, judge and citizen, whom all Georgians has delighted to honor.

CHAIRMAN SHONTS SUSTAINED.

President Approves Contract Let for Canal Zone.

A contract for the hotel and subsistence concession in the Panama canal zone awarded to J. E. Markel of Omaha, Neb., by President Shonts, of the Panama railroad company, was sustained Thursday in the decision of President Roosevelt, who has approved a report on the subject made to him by Mr. Shonts.

The contract amounts in the aggregate to many millions of dollars.

AUTOMOBILES FOR NEGROES.

A Novel Move to Counteract New Street Car Law in Nashville.

A "case" against the conductors of the street railways power of police to remove passengers from any seat in the car and to arrest whoever refused, was passed several months ago by the city council. They had bought a new street car for the use of the blacks and whites, but it is really directed only against the blacks, and since it has passed several negroes have been arrested for refusing to obey the conductors. As a result the negroes in fact have fallen off $500 a week since the law was passed.

The negroes immediately organized a company of their own and began by using wagons. They found that they could among themselves some seventy vehicles, which they could use for the purpose. The enterprise has prospered, and yesterday it went with Boyd to purchase four new steam automobiles, which will run in place of the cars.

"The purpose of the company is to give the negroes of Nashville equal rights with the whites as passengers. It is not our purpose to exclude the blacks, and as automobiles are something of a novelty in Nashville we expect that the whites will patronize our company."

Got Lost in Swamp.

One night last week several citizens went on a fishing excursion to the Ogeechee river, and pitched their camp a short distance above the railroad bridge at Dover. It was then about dark, and two of the party went up the river a short distance to try their luck, and one of them was Mr. Vannie Fletcher, one of our best farmers and citizens.

When they started to return to the camp Mr. Fletcher lost his bearings and began to wander around in the swamp. It was raining, and the swamp was inky darkness. It was then about good dark, and six hours later Mr. Fletcher arrived at the camp with his clothing torn up, and his limbs and face scratched in several places. He told the crowd about his troubles and how he walked and roamed around for hours. At one point he ran into a big bunch of turkeys, at another he met a big coon, and finally got tangled with a big muskrat.

He said he crossed and waded several lagoons, and ran into briars, stump holes and everything else, and it raining and the air cold and chilly, and it was dark as Egypt. Finally after he had about given up hope, the clouds broke away, and the moon shined from the east, and he decided to walk straight toward the moon, hoping to reach the railroad bridge, and luckily he came to the camp, and related his experience to the crowd.
Mr. Fletcher decided to do his fishing in the day time hereafter.

Doings in The Local Field

Mr. Walter Mathews will soon move into his new home in East Statesboro.

The chalingang has just finished some work up in the 45th district, and will start this week down in the 44th to do some work on the roads.

Mr. C. A. Lanier and family left for Athens on Sunday morning. Their many friends here wish for them the best that there is in life in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Wallis will leave for Millen this morning where they will make their future home. This was necessitated by the fact that Mr. Wallis has been in business in Millen for some time and he found it necessary to give more of his time to his business at that place.

Mr. S. F. Olliff has been quite sick for the past few days. His friends hope to see him out again in the near future.

There is considerable sickness reported over on Lotts Creek but nothing serious up to this time.

Mr. D. N. Bacot, the new superintendent of The Savannah & Statesboro Ry. came in on Saturday and took charge of the S. & S. system. Mr. Bacot is a railroad man of considerable experience, having been with the Seaboard Air Line for a number of years. Our people will find him all right.

Mr. H. B. Grimshaw, general superintendent of the fourth division of The Seaboard Air Line Ry. was in Statesboro on Saturday shaking hands with his many friends.

The funeral of Mrs. Fannie Akine was preached by Elder H. Temple at Upper Mill creek church on Sunday. There was a large crowd of friends and relatives out.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Hursey of the lower section of the county were in the city on yesterday morning.

Messrs R. Baker and Jas. A. Smith spent last week at the Jay Bird Springs near Helena. They have returned much improved.

Mr. G. H. Gordon living near the city is making success with a fine chicken farm. He will sell over $800.00 worth of chickens this year.

Mr. Geo. W. Deal, of Clito, has the best field of sea island cotton that we have seen in some time. He has 20 acres that will make 15 bales we are satisfied. Mr. Deal is one of Bulloch's solid farmers and one of the best in the county.

Miss Amanda Tipton and Miss Bennie returned from Baltimore on Friday. They will have charge of the Millinery Department in the store of Messrs J. W. Olliff Co. this Fall again.

The farmers have begun to pour into town with the cotton and business is beginning to pick up.

Our little article on Friday has had the effect of making the boys begin to feel the public place on the subject of the distribution of the county offices. We have heard of a number of prospective candidates for the various offices within the past day or two.

Mr. J. M. Mitchell, our efficient Chief of Police brought us in a sample of his snake cucumbers on Saturday. The specimen left at this office resembles a large streaked snake, about five feet long and grown in the exact shape of a snake. He has promised us a lot or them to take to the state fair. This along with our Bulloch county lion ought to place us well in the front ranks on snakes as well as lions.

Miss Hattie Everett, of Egypt, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. E. Parker on College street.

Mrs. L. A. Hanne, of Macon, is visiting the family of Mr. Jno. A. Wilson on South Main street.

Mr. Dan Gould left last week for Davisboro, where he has accepted a position at that place.

Mr. Frank M. Miller was a visitor to town on yesterday.

The Turner-Gilson Co. now occupy their handsome store on North Main street and are ready to welcome their friends and customers.

Col. Joseph Holland of Millen came on a visit to his son this week and we are glad to note his improved condition.

Mr. J. A. Brannen went to Savannah on business last Saturday.

The skating race has struck Statesboro, and broken heads and limbs will soon be plentiful, and then the race will die out.

It is expected that Mr. Frank Grimes will soon move the express office somewhere up town.

Mr. E. D. Horn, of Ludowici, Liberty County, has been visiting friends and relatives in the county for a few days, and passed through the city yesterday enroute home.

Several boys left for college yesterday. Walter McDougald, Jesse Brannen, Doy Jones and Harvie Brannen went to Athens and Homer Parker to Macon.

The Messrs of Mill Ray had a pleasant gathering on last Tuesday and had several candidates for the different degrees.

Appointments

Elder Draughn, the Lord willing, will preach at Metter on Sunday and at night after the first Sunday in October; Wednesday, at the Lake; Wednesday night, Pulaski; Thursday, Statesboro; Friday Saturday and second Sunday Lower Canoechee association; Monday, Upper Black creek; Tuesday, Red Hill; Wednesday and at night, Groveland; Thursday, at Bethel association near Collins, Ga.

Respectfully,
M. F. Stubbs.

VOL. 5, NO. 29

APOLOGY

We feel that an apology is due our readers on account of the lack of reading matter in this issue. So great has been the demand for our space on the part of the business men that our news columns have been too badly crowded for the past two issues.

We will arrange to give you two extra pages on Tuesday. This is made necessary by reason of the fact that a number of advertisements have been declined for this issue. The people recognize our paper as a medium that reaches all the people of the county, and when they have something they want to say they seem to know where to say it at. We hope to redeem the crowded condition of our columns after this.

Mr. Blitch Sold Place.

Mr. W. Homer Blitch who has resided at his place near Ogeechee for about thirty years, has sold his place consisting of over a thousand acres to Mr. E. B. Lane of Savannah county.

It is probable that Mr. Blitch will move to Statesboro with his family, while Mr. Lane may move to his place.

Mr. Blitch is the oldest merchant in the county, and one of the largest farmers.

Change in Time

Statesboro will change from sun time to railroad time on October 15. The county board made the change at their meeting held on Tuesday, at the request of the business people who were troubled with the two times in use. The difference is thirty-six minutes between railroad and sun time, and the court house clock will be set back thirty-six minutes. This will stop the confusion of time, and we will have the same time that has been adopted over the state.

Eleven Cents Is Asked For Cotton

Union, S. C. Sept. 18.—The cotton growers of Union county hereby pledge to hold our cotton for 11 cents per pound in order to support and stand to the minimum price of cotton that was made by the Southern Association at the Asheville meeting, September 6th. This is the resolution adopted at an enthusiastic meeting here today by a vote of 68 to one.

A committee from each township was appointed to collect from each member three cents per bale to provide funds for strengthening the whole organization.

The cotton mills here have agreed to store cotton at 15 cents per bale on certain conditions, but conditions were not announced.

Advices just received by the Union Cotton Exchange say that Spartanburg, Laurens, York, Fairfield counties today adopted the same measure.

Mrs. Reiser McCran Dies in Atlanta.

The body of Mrs. Reiser McCran, who died in the hospital in Atlanta Wednesday, was interred at the cemetery here on yesterday morning, together with her was buried an infant boy, whose birth was only a few days ago.

Mrs. McCran was Miss Bennie Wilson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Wilson living in this county near Dover. The young couple married last October and have been living in Macon since that time.

FARM FOR SALE.

R. F. D. No. 2, Statesboro, Ga.

Opening of Metter High School.

The Metter high school began its year's work last Monday morning with appropriate exercises and with exceedingly flattering prospects. At the ringing of the bell about fifty pupils took their seats. Rev. J. W. Witherington, pastor of the Baptist church, began the exercises by reading a scripture lesson and a brief admonition to parents and teachers, after which he offered a petition for God's blessings upon the school.

Dr. A. H. Stapler then addressed the school as chairman of the board of trustees. He made a short, earnest speech, earnestly requesting the co-operation of the patrons with the trustees and teachers. His central theme was the election to be held on October 21, for the purpose of levying a special tax to operate an absolutely free school.

Dr. J. C. Solomon, of Atlanta, was then introduced by Prof. Etheridge and made a very forcible and eloquent lecture. Those present can testify to their entertainment and edification while listening to this soul-filling address by one of Georgia's greatest orators. The sentiments he expressed were high and noble, containing an earnest appeal for the betterment of the educational facilities of Metter. He called upon the patrons of the school to view their almost dilapidated old school house as a monument of their indifference to the sacred cause of education. This fact was made more impressive when he emphasized the probability that he was positively talking to a future governor of Georgia or a "Gentle Land."

Prof. Etheridge, in a short talk, assured those present that they would find him in the future as they found him in the past.

and all present knew what that was.

The trustees were fortunate in securing the services of their last year's teachers—Prof. Hamlin Etheridge, as principal, of Johnston, S. C., and Misses Isabel Hollingsworth and Pauline Hart as assistants, with a music teacher to be elected.

It is probable that a business department will be added in which will be taught stenography, bookkeeping and typewriting. We believe the people of Metter are now ready to get out of the dust and get on pace with the times.

Last year was pronounced the best in the history of the school, but we predict that this year will surpass the highest realizations of last year.

Besides the regular students the following boarding students are enrolled: Messrs. Cecil Brannen, Bobbie Watson and Misses Lottie Parish and Sallie Mae Roberts. It is remarkable to note the good feeling existing between the pupils and teachers.

Alyceum course has been arranged for. The first attraction will be Sept. 29, at which time Miss Annie Blalock, a well known lecturer and entertainer, will lecture in the school house. It is hoped that the people generally of Metter will liberally patronize this course. Special rates have been asked for the pupils of school.
B. B. Jones.

NOTICE

In compliance with an order this day passed by the Board of County Commissioners of Bulloch county, the time on the court house clock will be changed to 90th meridian standard time. Said change to take effect on and after Oct. 15th next. This Sept. 19, 1905.
S. L. Moore, Clk. Co. Com.

Groveland Visited By Band of Thieves.

Groveland, Ga., Sept. 10.—Groveland was visited last night by a band of thieves. The store belonging to the J. G. Moore estate was broken into and shoes, cloth, jewelry and groceries removed. From the tracks about the back doors, there must have been several in the crowd. The side door had been forced open, and then the back door opened from the inside. It appears that the goods were removed in sacks. Hounds will be put on the trail.

Look Out for Glanders.

Watch your mules and horses, and see if they have the glanders. It affects them with a running nose like a bad cold, and is certain death. People are liable to catch it too, and it is very dangerous to them. The only remedy for it in horses and mules is to kill them.
