BROOKLET.

Gypsy land is the land to travel.
Our sick folks are convalescing.
Thanksgiving passed off smoothly and beautifully, with plenty of vanda for the old folks at home.
Mr. Cone Waters' new lively stable is nearing completion and the traveling public can in the future secure a choice rig at Brooklet when in need of it.
The Brooklet Trading Company is in new quarters, that is it looks new since the painters plied the brush, and their stock of merchandise would be a credit to a city of much larger proportions.
Messrs. Wilson & Robertson in the brick store have a new and beautiful fall and winter stock and are enjoying a splendid trade.
Messrs. J. A. Warnock & Sons at the old reliable stand are kept busy opening up new goods and waiting on their extensive trade.
Mr. Leslie Lee enjoys the patronage of a large circle of friends and supplies fresh meats at all times to the trade.
Dr. McElveen's drug store is a place of beauty and has one of the most accommodating clerks to be found anywhere.
The post office is crowded with mail and our carrier has a buggy load each morning to distribute on his route.
Dr. Thayer is kept busy with his practice and seldom has time for a social chat.
The S. & S. Ry. agent is doing business at the old stand and handles his freight and express with the ease of an expert.
Mr. Green keeps time on his anvil with the rapid progress of our town, but it keeps him busy. His new shop is already crowded with work.
Our carpenters have more work engaged than they can possibly finish this year.
Our town do move.
Another room will have to be added to our academy to accommodate the pupils after Christmas.
News reaches us that Rev. Mr. Crumpler will be located at New Hope for the coming year. His friends here regret to see him leave Brooklet.
Arrangements are being made for a Christmas tree at the Methodist church Dec. 25th.
It takes a man with a good constitution and a big wood pile to look pleasant this kind of weather.
A goodly number of visitors are in town, some prospecting for homes and others for a life partner.
Rat, for Hoke, Brannen and Kendrick.
Rev. P. H. Crumpler filled his last appointment here the fourth Sunday night. Quite a crowd was out to listen to the very interesting sermon.
The sextette song by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Rustin, Misses Zuelme Lane and Mamie Hughes seemed to thrill the ears of the hearers with sweeter melody than has ever been sounded before.
Rev. Mr. Davis on his way to Florida from California stopped with us Monday and Tuesday and preached at Brooklet church Monday night to quite a crowd of attentive hearers.
Cane grinding season is about over around here. The next thing on hand is Christmas. "What we are going to do and what we will have for Christmas."
Mr. F. W. Hughes and sisters, Misses Laura and Mamie, attended the marriage of their brother, Mr. S. B. Hughes, to Miss Lollie Byrnes, both of Savannah. The marriage took place on the evening of the 28th of Nov. at the Catholic parish.
Mr. J. N. Shearouse is able to be out riding again. We hope he will soon be entirely well.
The Juvenile Society meets to-

BIG SHOW WAS A BIG FAKE.

The Biggest Aggregation of Thieves, Cut-throats and Gamblers That Ever Hit Town.

The Great Van Amburg circus has come and gone, and to put the matter as mildly as we can afford to express it, is that the show carried with it every type and form of a thief, pick pocket, cut throat, gambler, and thing that was ever seen under one circus tent.
From early morn till late at night the streets of the city were crowded so that it was next to impossibility to push through the great crowd who had gathered to be robbed and humbugged.
It is in the line of conservatism to say that there was at least 6,000 people here, and the tent was crowded to suffocation; in fact, it resembled a crowded tent at a circus in a big city. They, as predicted in these columns, brought the red lemmonade, not so much as we had expected, but the reason why the red water escaped was "the boys" had grown game and were playing bigger stakes.
The wheel of fortune, shell game, and various other devices for gambling and thievery were run wide open, and numerous were the victims that fell before them. One negro is said to have lost $125, a young white man $70, and so on, until the list would reach, the Lord knows how high.
The show itself was on the hog. It was the basest affair that we ever saw going around charging fifty cents for admission tickets. The attractions shown would about fit a ten cent show.
There was also along a large number of the light fingered and short change gang. A pet scheme they had would be to ask a man if he could give them paper money for silver. The average fellow who had a five or ten dollar bill would tumble right away, for if there is anything these Bulloch county crooks like it is the single jungle of the merry silver dollar. The show man would always get his hand on the countryman's five to ten first, and then ask him if that is the biggest bill he's got, and then answered in the affirmative would hand back what was supposed to be the bill, and say, "Oh well, if that is all I had rather keep my silver."

The average fellow would stick the bill in his pocket supposing it to be the one he had parted with and on examination would find that it had been changed and was only a one dollar bill that he had a number caught on and went back and demanded their money, and in every case it was restored. Some got off though and failed to recover.

The show had along with it the famous hoochee coochee dancers and every other imaginable rotten features calculated to corrupt the morals and rob the pockets of the people who patronized them. It went from here to Savannah and will tour this section of Georgia. The press of the counties in which they are advertised to show will do their section a vast amount of good by copying this article and giving them a warm reception wherever they hit.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millerton Waters of Brooklet, and the groom is a prosperous young farmer of the same community.

Smith-Mallard
On yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Smith about five miles west of the city, Mr. B. T. Mallard and Miss Eliza Smith were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. T. J. Cobb officiating.

This Year Only

The Statesboro News will head the list with $5. and will also receive subscription. Now you can blow in some money to see a fake let's see if you will put in a small mite to help the Hon. Harve Jordan and his assistants who have saved to the farmers of the south several hundred million dollars on this and last year's cotton crop. Let us hear from you.

Dwelling Burned at Register
On Sunday night of this week about two o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Dean were awakened by the roaring of the flames that were fast enveloping the roof under which they slept, and by the time they got out the house was in a blaze. Only a little furniture was saved, and the barn, smokehouse and several other outbuildings went up in smoke too. Mr. Dean carried about $200 insurance and his loss was $1,200.

Candidates Spoke in South Georgia.
Valdosta, Ga., Dec. 5. —Hon. Hoke Smith spoke here today to quite a large audience of men and ladies in the courthouse. The greater part of his speech was against what he called the railroad politicians and the railroads. He said the railroads charge rates based upon their watered stocks and pay taxes upon about a third of the amount.
He said the fight for port rates was merely to make the railroads allow shippers in the interior to choose their own boat line, as the railroads charged higher rates from one boat line than from the line owned by themselves or by the capitalists who own the roads. He said that Commissioner Joe Brown had tried to excuse the railroads in this particular, and that if he were governor, he would suspend Brown from office just as quick as he could sign his name to the order.
He declared that the constitution fixes the term of governors at four years, but that the railroads would change this by making Joe Terrell, Hamp McWorter, Clark and Albert Howell the governor for four years and then change the order to Clark, Joe Albert and Hamp the next four. He declared that they would not control him if he is elected, and that he favored a law making it a penitentiary offense for a corporation to contribute money to influence votes, and that he would not spend a cent in that way.
He spoke for about two hours and was frequently applauded, especially when he made his thrust at the "ring," the audience evidently being pleased at the warmth which he displayed in spite of the cold weather.

Judge Russell Heard in RAILRY.
Baxley, Ga., Dec. 5.—Judge Richard B. Russell, candidate for governor, made a speech to a large audience in the court house here today. From an early hour this morning every road leading into this town testified to the fact that there would be assembled a large audience to hear the speech of Judge Russell. At 11 o'clock, the hour set for the speech, standing room in the court house was at a premium, and during the speech people continued to come in.

Judge Russell appeared at his best and made a strong and forceful argument, setting forth why it would be to the interest of the people of Georgia to place him in the governor's chair. He paid his full respects to Hon. Hoke Smith and Hon. Clark Howell before he closed, claiming that he is the only real reformer in the race.

On Tuesday the estate lands of J. L. Olliff deceased were sold in front of the court house door.

The Turner home on South Main street, now occupied by the family of Mr. J. B. Stamps, was bid in by Messrs W. H. Blitch Sr. and W. H. Blitch Jr. at $7,800.00. The lot contains about two and one half acres of land and is admirably situated, and while the price might seem high at first glance, yet when you take into consideration the class of property that it is, it is not so high after all. The farm near the city was bid in by Dr. J. E. Donebock at $25,500.00.

The speech seemed to have taken well with the audience, and it is claimed by friends of Judge Russell that he made many converts to his cause while here. Judge Russell already had many strong friends in this county and they are delighted at the present outlook here.

The speech seemed to have taken well with the audience, and it is claimed by friends of Judge Russell that he made many converts to his cause while here. Judge Russell already had many strong friends in this county and they are delighted at the present outlook here.

JUDOR RUSSELL HEARD IN RAILRY.
Baxley, Ga., Dec. 5.—Judge Richard B. Russell, candidate for governor, made a speech to a large audience in the court house here today. From an early hour this morning every road leading into this town testified to the fact that there would be assembled a large audience to hear the speech of Judge Russell. At 11 o'clock, the hour set for the speech, standing room in the court house was at a premium, and during the speech people continued to come in.

APOLONY

For the first time in several months the News has failed to catch the early morning mails leaving Statesboro. While we have an apology to offer, yet we really have none. When a man does the best he can we doubt whether there is any apology due or not. In this case we have absolutely done our best. We have had more business offered us than the capacity of our plant would turn out. We go to you with twelve pages, and a large number of both news items and advertisements crowded out.

We have been advertising in the daily papers for two extra printers and have secured one. About the first of the year our machine will be installed, then we will be able to cope with the situation, until then we promise to do the best we can, and that's all.

A Public Duty

The undersigned committee appointed by the Bulloch County Branch of the Southern Cotton Association to arrange with a suitable man to collect subscriptions to assist in the fund that is necessary to pay the expenses of this great struggle by which the farmers of the south have reaped rich harvests, whereas, without organization, they were being robbed by the speculators of the fruits of their toil, have arranged with Mr. S. J. Williams to take up this subscription.

You have all probably heard of the great work that Hon. Harris Jordan and this association have done, the trials that they have been subjected to, and whether it occurred to you or not, yet it is true that the legitimate expense of this fight comes out of the pockets of the people who are the beneficiaries of this fight, that is where it should come from and the only place there is for it to come from. Every other section and every other county has done its share. Has Bulloch contributed a solitary nickel? If so it is not known. This is not because the people are not willing to bear their share of this little mite, so to speak, but they have never been asked for it. Now we ask you to hand Mr. Williams a small sum each to assist in this, the greatest organization that the farmers of the south have ever known.

The association, headed by Mr. Jordan, is in need of the funds now, and we ask you not to wait for Mr. Williams to call on you, but either send it to him or hand it to him. Be sure you attend to this without delay.

WE WANT Everybody to know

That Statesboro is the best place in this section of Georgia to trade, and that Turner-Elisson Co. is the best place in Statesboro. We are determined to do our part in impressing this great fact upon the people of this section. That is why we advertise—that is why we have special sales—that is why we give such big values.

WE SELL EVERYTHING FOR EVERYBODY TO WEAR.

We guarantee the price of every article we sell to be the lowest in the market. If you buy an article of us and some one else offers you the same goods for less money, you may return our goods and get your money and buy their's. We have only one price, when we cut we cut to all alike

We are the only firm that guarantee their prices. We guarantee them against everything and everybody. We do not propose to be undersold on a single article. Everybody should buy every article where they can get it for the least money. That's our doctrine; the more we get people to believe in it the more our sales increase. If it is something to wear, no matter what quality you want, see us.

Reunion Of Bulloch

Troop At Summit Dec. 1.
(Forst-Blade)

The names and ages of the members of the Company who were present has already been given through your columns. But it is but justice to the citizens of Summit and vicinity, that we return thanks for the striking manifestation of their friendship by the bountiful and splendid dinner that was spread on that occasion, the long table was loaded down with every good thing that a hungry person could wish for, consisting of cakes and pies, barbecued pork, mutton, beef and kid, in fact it was said by some that there was enough left to feed another such a large crowd. But that is the way that big hearted people do things. The stores were all closed and the citizens did all they could to add to the pleasures of the old soldiers, which they certainly appreciated. The Company numbered 115 men when they went to the front, mostly from Bulloch and Emanuel, there was 81 present at the reunion, with about 10 or twelve absentees, making about 48 members now living, and as one that was surrounded with the Company at Hillsboro N. C. on the 26th of April 1865, I can safely say that a more noble and devoted set of boys never went to the front than they. I am always proud of them whenever and wherever I meet them. It was a day of pleasure and one I will not forget. There was not a jar to interrupt the continued flow of enjoyment.

We were proud to have with us a number of grand old veterans who did not belong to our Company and who did all they could by their help and presence to make everything a success.

It was a time of joy and gladness to see the old boys meet and clasp hands, with tears in their eyes, (some of whom had not met in 40 years) and talk over the happenings of the days that tried men's souls. Bulloch, Emanuel, Thomas, Screven, Toombs, Tattnall and Johnson were represented by members of the old Company, but they came and left hoping to meet again.

The reunion on the 1st was the first Company reunion that we have had since the war and a resolution was adopted to have one annually as long as there is enough of the old Company left. The next ### will be at Metter on the 1st Wednesday in November 1906.

I would do injustice to my feelings were I not to return sincere thanks to Col. Alfred Herrington who, by invitation, delivered such a splendid address to the old soldiers, such as can only come from a brilliant mind, and a heart full of love. It was both instructive and consoling to the old veterans. The ages of the members of one Co. now living run from 59 to 77, unmistakably showing that we are now passing through the Saturday evening of life. One by one we are crossing the river, and soon, very soon, there will not be one left to tell the old story.

Then, it will rest upon the shoulders of the sons and daughters of the confederacy, the latter through the press and forum the rostrum have pledged their undying devotion to the righteousness of the principle of which the Southern soldier fought, and the former, whose veins flow with the blood of their father, will do as well.

Old Soldier.

He sat down in a chair and gave one or two gasps and fell over a dead man. A physician was called but the young man had been dead for some time before he arrived. He was about twenty years old and was well liked by all who knew him.

The remains were interred Sunday morning at the cemetery at Bethlehem church. He was the son of the late David Pelot.
