SOLID CAR LOAD Stoves and Ranges.

Nothing around the house is the source of so much pleasure and comfort as a good Stove or Range. It is used over a thousand times a year, and if the material and workmanship are not what they should be, you are bound to have a great deal of trouble and annoyance.

Our "JEWEL" line, made in Detroit, the home of good Stoves and Ranges, are the satisfaction-giving kind, and cannot fail to please you. While they are not cheap at first cost, they will prove themselves to be the most economical in the end, on account of their perfect operation and great durability. It will be a pleasure to show you our line.

Diversification vs Over Production.

The Southern Cotton Association will not let the farmers of the South reduce the cotton acreage for 1906 less than that planted in 1905. The Association does ask and insist with all the force at its command that the acreage planted in cotton throughout the belt in 1906 be not increased during the planting season of 1906. Let the faithful word of every Southern farmer be diversified, and through that agency produce an abundance of food supplies to maintain each farm. Permanent independence, thrift and prosperity can only be enjoyed by Southern cotton growers through the adoption and maintenance of a system which will make each farm self-sustaining. It is the only medium through which the present iniquitous credit system, which has so long held our people in bondage can be effectively broken up and relegated to the past. It is the only medium through which the great masses of cotton producers can ever hope to control the sale of their cotton in the markets of the country and force consumers and buyers to pay them fair and just prices for the staple. Any system which forces the producer to market his crops rapidly in order to meet maturing obligations to pay for supplies that could be more cheaply raised at home will ever tend to make a slave of the grower, minimizing the rights of manhood which every Southern cotton raiser should enjoy to the fullest extent.

OVER-PRODUCTION A SERIOUS MENACE.
In the spring of 1905 a crisis serious and potential faced the cotton growers of the south by reason of over-production of cotton in 1904. The Southern Cotton Association at that time waged an active and effective campaign for a reduction in the cotton area to be planted in 1905. The advice of the Association was loyally supported by the cotton growers throughout the entire cotton belt and a reduction of fully five million acres was stricken from the cotton area for 1905 and planted in other crops. The result of this display of good judgment on the part of the farmers is today seen in bringing the production of cotton within the legitimate demands for consumption, good prices for the staple and well-led corn and other crops. The agricultural, commercial, industrial and financial interests of the South are to day enjoying an era of prosperity far in excess of any period experienced within the past half century. To maintain our present position and forge ahead in the achievement of greater successes, it is imperative that no serious mistake be made by the planters who are now making their arrangements for the spring planting of 1906. Let every man pause and calmly consider his future even while enjoying the flush of a victory which has been the most marvelous ever won in modern times.

PRESENT ACREAGE SUFFICIENT.
The present estimated twenty-seven million acres planted in cotton is sufficient under normal climatic conditions to produce enough cotton to meet the demands of spinners for the American staple. Any material increase in the cotton acreage for 1906 will tend to stagnate the cotton market and depress prices below their legitimate value. The legitimate laws of supply and demand is the only true medium of regulating fair and legitimate prices for our great staple product. The Southern Cotton Association through

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO PASSENGERS—SAVE MONEY

The Seaboard Air Line Railway gives notice that passengers traveling by train at stations where there are ticket agents, should in all cases purchase tickets, saving money by doing so. Effective Nov. 1st, 1905 conductors in Georgia and Alabama will collect four (4) cents per mile from passengers without tickets boarding trains at stations where there are ticket agents and when an opportunity has been afforded them to purchase tickets but who have neglected to avail themselves of this privilege, from non-agency stations where opportunity has not been afforded to purchase tickets, the conductor will only collect the ticket rate.

BIG RUSH IN XMAS GOODS.

Santa Claus Opens Headquarters in Statesboro.

What will be the greatest rush for Christmas goods ever known in the history of Statesboro and Bulloch county is now on. A News reporter, in making the rounds yesterday, dropped in at the store of C. B. Griner & Co. We saw what looked to be enough Christmas toys and other goods to supply several counties. Upon the expression of our surprise at such an enormous amount of these goods, Mr. Griner, a member of the firm, said:

"Just come here. Look at these packages that are being packed to send out all over the city and surrounding country, and you will see that we are not overloaded. If that was all that we had we would be out by Wednesday night, but look here at the rush order that is going in for more as fast as Uncle Sam can take it."

This firm is the most extensive dealers in Christmas goods in the city, and carry far the best line. They are crowded now from morning till night with hundreds of eager customers.

Santa Claus gives notice through this issue of the Statesboro News that he will be at Griner's, and ready to see that all the good little boys and girls get something nice for Christmas. He will operate from this place in this entire section. All will be treated alike. There may have been cause for complaints in the past that the rich and favored had got better presents than the children of poor parents, but Santa Claus has determined that all shall be treated alike this year and he has selected Messrs. Griner & Co. to carry out his plans for him. These presents are marked so low, down that even those who are in poor circumstances can get something nice for a small outlay. See the advertisement of this firm occupying a full page space in this issue.

Mr. Bishop Buys Farm.
Mr. L. L. Bishop of Swainsboro, was in town this week looking up a farm. He has completed the deal by which he becomes owner of the Ben Lee place, bought from Mr. W. H. Blitch. Mr. Bishop will move his family down after Christmas.

Negro Mashed at Clito.
This morning Aleck King, a negro man working for the railroad company, was caught between the car and platform at Clito and pretty badly mashed. It seems that there was one car that was a little wider than the others, and the negro had not taken this into consideration when he stood between the platform and the moving train. He was caught and pretty badly rubbed by the moving car. He was brought into the city and given medical treatment. His injuries are serious and may prove fatal.

Easterlin Sells Out.

Messrs. John B. Burns and Allen F. Morris have closed a deal by which they become the proprietors of the general store which has been run by Messrs. Easterlin & Son in the building under the News office during the past several months.

The name of the new firm will be Burns & Co. Mr. John B. Burns will be business manager and will have immediate charge of the business.

Mr. Easterlin has not decided as yet whether he will leave Statesboro or not.

Jordan Calls for Mammoth Convention

The cotton producers of the South, bankers, merchants and representatives of other business interests are hereby called to meet in convention at the City of New Orleans, La., January 11th, 12th and 13th, 1906. We want five thousand delegates to be present, representing the entire cotton territory of the South when the convention is called to order at one o'clock P. M. on January 11th in the splendid auditorium of the Washington Artillery building.

The farmers generally have expressed a desire for this convention similar to the one held at New Orleans last January. The South has won a notable victory in handling her great staple crop since that time and it is but meet and proper that the people should come together and rejoice over the great blessings which they have enjoyed and to emphasize their determination to continue the present reign of prosperity through the future. There are many things of vital importance to the future welfare of the South that will command the attention of the convention. Many eminent speakers from all parts of the country will take conspicuous part in the program. All Agricultural Organizations are invited to send delegates. No restriction on number of delegates to be appointed. County meetings should be held throughout all the Cotton States on Saturday, Dec. 23rd, for the purpose of appointing or electing County delegates.

Heads of the various State Agricultural organizations and Farmers' Unions can appoint delegates from the states at large. Discussion will cover the importance of holding the balance of the unsold crop for fifteen cents—extending the organization of the Southern Cotton Association; trade relations between the producers and spinners; building warehouses to facilitate the handling of cotton; diversified agriculture and raising home supplies; maintaining the present area of cotton for 1906; closer relations between farmers and bankers extending our markets for American cotton in foreign countries. These and other matters vital importance need the attention of the people. Hold your county meetings on Dec. 23rd, elect strong delegations, and send list of names to the general office of Southern Cotton Association, 920 Empire Building, Atlanta, Ga. Let every county in the South be well represented and let the world begin to acknowledge the business ability of the Southern planter.

Railroad rates will be one fare for the round trip from all sections of the belt.
Yours truly,
HARVEY JORDAN
Pres. Southern Cotton Assn.

Christmas Trade Picking Up.
The stores have taken on a decided holiday appearance. All the places where Christmas goods are on sale have been crowded during the past few days, and the demand for Christmas goods is greater than ever known before. Several dealers are now ordering their second supply of toys, etc. They see in the early buying a tendency to buy more than ever before, and to buy higher class goods. During the next week Statesboro will be in the hands of the Christmas shoppers. We are now enjoying an era of unprecedented prosperity and the people are disposed to be liberal with the little ones. We would advise those who intend buying Christmas goods to come as early as possible, for the rush is going to be the greatest ever known here.

A Fearful Fate.
It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of Piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colon, of Masonville, La., "that for blind bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, Bucklin's Arnica salve is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at W. H. Ellis druggist.

Bought Fine Land.
Mr. Morgan R. Akine purchased one day this week a lot of land from Mr. J. C. Brannen, containing one hundred and twelve acres, none of which is cleared or otherwise improved, and paid $28 per acre cash. It is one of the best pieces of pine land in Bulloch county. Mr. Akine will have it improved right away, and make out of it one of the best farms in the county.

Torture of a Preacher.
The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies because of a persistent cough, arising from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption coughs and colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of throat and lungs. At W. H. Ellis druggist; price, 50c and $1.00, guarantee. Trial bottle free.

ROSE THE OLD RELIABLE DISTILLER

Our Reputation a Priceless Possession

Thirty-eight years ago we began business and set up a standard that has been rigidly adhered to—make or sell nothing but absolutely pure and unadulterated whisky. The immense proportions to which our business has now grown is but the natural sequence of our entire business history is a notable example of the tremendous power of honest business methods. To those who know us and have been our customers the name of "Rose" needs no introduction. We have unqualified testimonials of thousands of customers, praising the exceptional quality of our goods. We are better advertised by our friends than we can ever hope to be through any other media. Besides this, our Whiskies bear the stamp of complete approval of men in high official authority, and are prescribed almost if not exclusively by the leading physicians of Atlanta and the South. If our goods were sent of the very highest order of merit, would they ever find favor with the most select trade?

PERFECTION OF SELECTION.

A complete system of filtration is used throughout, and the water supply is obtained from a pure mountain spring, conveyed to the distillery through iron pipes insuring non-contamination with surface waters. The product of our process is self-guarded from every point. The whisky is bottled and double over open wood fire in copper vessels, filtered twice and is perfectly purified. The methods we use to produce our famous brand could almost double that of the modern art method, and yeast infected, quick aging processes now used. Our Whiskies aged by the natural aging of time, and the Reserve Records show that we have more primitive method aged Corn Whiskies in the States than any other distiller in our industry in the South. We are the only distillers and dealers combined—the fact that our present warehousing capacity of 50,000 gallons is about exhausted, and that we now have in process of construction another warehouse, is sufficient proof to substantiate our statement—Ask the Revenue Officer, He Knows.

ASK THE REVENUE OFFICER

all its sources of strength and co-operative mediums of disseminating information to its loyal and patriotic supporters, with an eye single to the future prosperity of all cotton growers and business interests of the South, earnestly makes this appeal for broadening the splendid advantages that are to be gained by diversified agriculture on Southern farms. Plant an abundance of small grain, corn and side crops. Raise more hay, cattle and hogs.

PEACE AND PLENTY.
Let well-filled corn cribs and smoke houses be the great bulwarks of safety between the farmers and the world of trade with whom they have to deal. Rotate your crops, intensify your acreage, fertilize liberally, cultivate well, produce plentifully in the acreage planted and enjoy those rewards which should be the fulsome portion of those who till our Southern soils. Study the possibilities of our soil and climate and learn to appreciate and develop the wonderful resources at our command in the field, garden and orchard of Southern agriculture. Become depositors in your banks rather than borrowers. Get on a cash basis as rapidly as possible and break up the ruinous credit system which in the past has been so fatal to cotton growers. As Southern farms become each year more self-sustaining under the adoption of a diversified and intensive system of culture and proper rotation of crops, the growers of the South's great staple can quickly regulate its marketing to meet the legitimate demands of consumption and maintain its price at such figures as will always give to the producer a profit on its production. Build warehouses with adequate storage facilities for the proper handling of your cotton in the markets of the country. Let us reach out and broaden the markets and use for American cotton. Let us bring about direct trade between the producers and the spinners of the world and in safeguarding our magnificent and valuable staple from the greed of speculative interests, enjoy the blessing of its monopoly and through co-operation rapidly develop our beloved Southland into the richest and most prosperous section of the entire Union. Pause, reflect and make no fatal mistake in entering upon the new crop year for 1906. The sun of peace and plenty is shining on the loyal and patriotic heads of Southern planters today. Providence has blessed our country. The clouds may thicken and darken our horizon in the spring if we grow heedless of our duty. The Southern Cotton Association sounds its note of warning and issues its appeal to the people.

Yours truly,

Policy Holders Were in Row.

Atlanta, Dec. 12.—The Georgia policy holders in the New York Life and the Mutual Life Insurance company met here today to formulate plans to protect their interest in the next annual meetings of the companies.

The first session proved a stormy one. Strong language was used and uncomplimentary epithets were applied.

A letter had been received from Thomas W. Lawson, requesting that he be given the proxies of the Georgia policy holders, to be used by him at the annual meetings of the companies.

Mr. Lawson's plans and methods were condemned in no measured terms by some and by others as earnestly upheld.

The meetings seemed to be divided on what was termed "to Lawsonize or not to Lawsonize." The disagreements of the morning session were not settled then, and adjournment was taken until evening.

At that time a prolonged session was held which continued until nearly midnight, with the result that a resolution was adopted that the policy holders of the "old line" companies organize, and the question of giving to Mr. Lawson authority to represent Georgia policy holders was left for final decision until the second Tuesday in February, 1906, when the committee of five on organization will report.

This committee includes some of the leading citizens of Atlanta, including R. F. Maddox, former president of the Chamber of Commerce; Bishop C. K. Nelson of the Episcopal Church, and others equally prominent in business or professional circles.

Cotton Takes Upward Spurt

During the early part of the week the cotton market was rather dull and several declines were reported, but the past day or two has shown an upward tendency in the market. The best sea islands are worth from seventeen to eighteen cents, while the best short cotton is worth from eleven to twelve cents.

High finance seems to be in partnership with low morality, the New York Press points out.

The world is not growing worse, but the craft investigators are just finding out how bad it was, avers the Baltimore Sun.

A Sagerstown (Pa.) barber drove four robbers away from a bank. Few of them can talk like that, remarks the New York World.

It develops that General Linevitch had an army of 1,000,000 men. No wonder he couldn't get away from Oyama, says the Detroit Journal.

And to think that we used to scrape our feet and torture our hats whenever we went into a big insurance office! recalls the Dallas News.

It appears that some of our late eminent Americans have escaped real fame by only one vote and some by a fraction of one vote. But they will have another chance and in the meantime their friends should rally around their memory, says the Chicago Inter-Ocean.

President Elliot declares that as far as Harvard is concerned football must be reformed or abolished. We may at least join him in the opinion that the professional coach should not receive a higher salary than the college president, thinks the Chicago-Record-Herald.

The need for a compact between the coaches is indicated by statistics showing that forty-five football players were killed and hundreds more or less seriously injured in the five years ending with last season, declares Collier's Weekly. The first two weeks of the present season brought at least two deaths.

Foreign Governments are large purchasers of our consular reports, relates the Manchester Courier, which are promptly translated and distributed for the use of officials and traders. On the other hand, the reports of the consular and commercial agents of other States are not easily obtained in England. They are, indeed, in many instances, treated as confidential documents.

All trades possess some members who are unscrupulous in their dealings with the public, avers the Drapers' Record. But there are barometers who take fees for causes which they neglect; there are solicitors who siphon unnecessary costs from their clients' pockets; there are doctors who call on patients many more times than is necessary; there are builders—but to enter upon the sins of builders would require more space than we have at our disposal.

The men who give bribes and those who accept them may carry on their debate to their hearts' content, and the public will not be influenced by the award of honors that may result from the discussion, declares the Washington Post. Between them, questions of integrity, honor or conscience are never raised. The average American citizen, with his respect for law and his love of honest dealing, will make no choice between the briber and the bribed. He detests them equally.

What struck Secretary Taft most, apparently, was the lack of any signs of insular prosperity in the Philippine Islands, says the Philadelphia Record. The agricultural depression he describes as "distressing" and with agriculture prostrated no considerable progress, commercial or political, is to be looked for. The Secretary reports a recession of setbacks to agricultural development—the loss of seventy-five per cent. of the cattle used for farming, drought, locusts and the ravages of cholera; and he admits that the depression now felt will continue for several years.

A man condemned to death should have the option of having his sentence commuted if he were willing to submit himself to some simple pathological experiment, and I have not the slightest doubt that he would accept this chance of life as an alternative to hanging, asserts the London Lancet. At present we are wandering in the dark, seeking vainly for the light which these experiments alone could give. For instance, is bovine tuberculosis communicable to man? The question could be forever set at rest by a few direct experiments. Or, again, cancer. Is this catching from man to man?

SIZZLING SESSIONS

Marked a Day's Proceedings in the House and Senate.

WILLIAMS ON HIS METAL

Minority House Leader and Lamar of Florida Have Tilt—Tillman Pre-empted Debate on Railroad Rate Bill.

With spirited debates on the subject of railroad rate legislation arising through the introduction of a bill by Mr. Tillman to authorize the interstate commerce commission to fix the maximum rates, and the Panama canal, due to a controversy over the reference of the emergency appropriation bill to a committee, Monday's session of the senate continued proving interesting for more than four hours.

An adjournment was taken without a mention of the late Senator Mitchell of Oregon, and so far as can be ascertained, it was the first time the death of a senator was permitted to pass unnoticed by the senate. The clause of Mr. Mitchell's name from the roll followed. Chaplain Hale called attention to mind in his prayer by referring pointedly to corruption and Mr. Foraker asserted that the law proved that its author believed the present laws were sufficient to correct all alleged transportation evils, except excessive rates, and that there was ample provision for the punishment of rebelling giving.

Mr. Tillman responded that he did not know the laws sufficient until the investigation begun by Messrs. Judson and Harmon into the Santa Fe case had terminated in a pitiable failure. Mr. Foraker asserted that the law could not be blamed if "some person" fell short in his duty. Mr. Foraker intimated in his discussion that there would be some extended controversy before the railroad rate bills were disposed of this session.

After more than a score of senators had discussed the Panama bill, it was referred to the appropriations committee by a vote of 40 to 23.

Lively heated session. Monday's session of the house was enlivened by a tilt, just before adjournment, between Lamar of Florida and the minority leader, Mr. Williams, regarding committee assignments. Mr. Lamar sought to discuss the matter, but Mr. Williams objected in the interest of democratic harmony, effectiveness and good will. He was at once challenged to call a democratic caucus for Tuesday, but declined to commit himself to the ground that the house was no place for democrats to wash their linen for the amusement of republicans. Mr. Lamar was taken off the committee on interstate commerce.

The incident followed the announcement of committee. Mr. Lamar of Florida submitted and had read a newspaper clipping purporting to quote Mr. Williams to the effect that Mr. Lamar and Mr. Shackelford of Missouri had been left off the interstate and foreign commerce committee because they had failed to follow the democratic caucus' action of adjournment on the railroad rate bill.

During the confusion, Mr. Lamar shouted: "Mr. Speaker, he went to the newspapers with it and now he objects to consideration here, but I have got it before the house and the house will understand it."

Before this incident the session had proceeded without a hitch.

Representative Adamson of Georgia, a member of the interstate commerce committee, introduced a rate bill which provides for the control of interstate rates for all common carriers by the interstate commerce commission.

CARRIED TO CONVICT CAMP.

Young Leonard Ravings Begins Serving His Life Term.

Leonard Ravings, who was recently sentenced by Judge Mitchell to the penitentiary for life for his complicity in the murder of Mr. Carter children, was carried from the Valdosta jail Saturday to a state convict camp at Babcock, Ga.

The parting between the young man and his mother and sister at the railway station was very affecting. Young Ravings has all along maintained that he would rather be hanged than to serve a life sentence.

NOTED ECONOMIST DEAD.

Edward Atkinson Passes Away Suddenly at His Home in Boston.

Edward Atkinson, the well known social and political economist of Boston, Mass., died suddenly Monday after an attack of acute indigestion affecting the heart. He was 78 years of age.

For forty years Mr. Atkinson had been looked on as an authority on economic questions.

CAMPAIGN FOR COTTON

Is Great Project in Europe and Desperate Efforts Are Being Made to Grow the Staple.

A Washington special says: American consular officials, in pursuance of instructions given them some months ago, continue to keep in touch with the efforts which various foreign countries are making to grow independent supplies of cotton, and reports on the subject reach the department of commerce and labor almost daily.

In a recent issue of the Daily Consular and Trade Reports there is printed, for the first time in this country, a resume of the first annual report of the British Cotton Growing Association, which is the most important of all of the several organizations formed abroad during the past few years.

The association is composed of British cotton manufacturers and others interested in the industry. Its principal object is to promote the cultivation of the staple by encouraging its growth in the British colonies and in other countries outside of the United States, where soil and climate are favorable. It is pushing its work with the assistance of the British government, and, while so far no very formidable progress has been made, the movement is naturally watched with great interest in this country.

The report referred to is for the year ending August 30, 1905. Among other things it is stated that shares to the amount of 104,822 pounds ($1,642,956) have been subscribed to date. Disappointment is expressed that there will be a generous response to the appeal, but it is stated that the association realized that because of the suffering of the British cotton trade during the past two years, due to the short crops in the United States and the manipulations of speculators, the best results in this line could not be expected.

The consent in charge of the report now ventures to express the hope that there will be a generous response from the whole of the trade, and says it believes that if spinners, manufacturers and operatives will bring the funds up to $1,500,000, there will be little difficulty in raising the additional $1,500,000 needed from the cotton fields and elsewhere.

Taking everything into consideration, the report says, the consul is of the opinion that the shareholders have every reason to congratulate themselves on the excellent results so far achieved, and that there is not the slightest doubt that with time and money both larger and better results can be obtained.

STRIKE ON A. & B. RAILWAY.

Engineers and Firemen Quit Work Because Demands Were Refused.

At midnight Sunday night the engineers and firemen of the Atlanta and Birmingham railway declared a strike against that company, and Monday every freight train on that road was tied up and the passenger train were operated by men secured from the railroad officials from other roads.

The strike is the culmination of the fruitless efforts of the engineers' union to secure an increase in salary and a recognition of their brotherhood.

PROTECTION AGAINST LYNCHERS

Involved in Case Just Decided by the United States Supreme Court.

The supreme court of the United States Monday reversed the ruling of the circuit court of the United States for the northern district of Alabama in the case of Thomas M. Higgins and remanded the case to the courts of Alabama with a direction to dismiss the petition for such writs. The case presented the broad question of the right of the negro to protection against lynching under the federal constitution and laws, and thus involve the jurisdiction of the federal courts in such cases.

FURY VINDICATED TOM LAWSON.

Failed to Return True Bill Against Him for Criminal Libel.

At Boston, Mass., Saturday, the Suffolk county grand jury failed to return an indictment against Thomas M. Lawson, who had been indicted for that body by the municipal court on the charge of criminal libel.

The charges were preferred by Clarence W. Barron, the proprietor of the Boston news bureau. The action of the jury puts an end to the controversy between Lawson and Barron so far as the criminal courts are concerned.

FRESH STRIKES IN RUSSIA.

Half a Dozen Railway Lines in Empire Are Being Tied Up.

A St. Petersburg dispatch, under Saturday's date says: A strike has begun on the following railroad lines: Kurak, Moscow and Sebastopol, Riga and Odessa, Kharkov, and Nicolaiev.

Southwestern, Southeastern, Samara and Shalout, Sakra and Viazma.

DEATH CLAIMS MITCHELL

Convicted Oregon Senator Dies as Result of Extraction of Four Teeth. Senate Nonplussed.

United States Senator John H. Mitchell died at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, Oregon Friday afternoon, death resulting from complications which followed the removal of four teeth at a dental office Thursday morning.

A large charge of unusual severity followed the removal of the teeth, and despite the application of the most powerful styptics known to dental science, the flow of blood could not be stayed.

Senator Mitchell had long been a sufferer from diabetes and other vital diseases and in his weakened physical condition rapidly succumbed to the inevitable weakness following such hemorrhages and lapsed into a state of semi-consciousness from which he never rallied.

It was only when his connection with a conspiracy to defraud the government of its domain was made public by his conviction in the federal court at Portland that he lost the political influence he had held for a greater part of a half century.

From his seventeenth birthday, June 22 last, on the day which his guilt was decreed, Senator Mitchell rapidly declined.

News of the death of Senator Mitchell of Oregon occasioned great surprise in Washington. Notice of his death reached the senate practically without warning. It raised a delicate question as to the duty of the senators towards their late associate. Ordinarily when a member dies a committee is appointed to represent the senate at the funeral services, and at the same time the committee formally gives notice of the death and announces that later he will make more extended remarks. The senate then adjourns out of respect to the memory of the deceased.

After numerous conference between prominent senators and Sergeant-at-Arms Ramsdell the point was raised as to whether the senate would be warranted in following the usual procedure in the case of Senator Mitchell.

It was argued that at the time of his death he stood convicted of an offense under the federal laws and in violation of his oath as a senator of the United States, and that the highest court had not passed upon the question of his guilt or innocence. There is no precedent for the guidance of the senate.

STRIKE ON WHITE TEACHER.

Revolt of Students Occurs in Negro College at Washington, D. C.

A revolt of between 300 and 400 male and female students of Howard, a negro institution of Washington, D. C., occurred Friday. The student body had assembled in the chapel for the usual noon religious services, when the president of the university, Professor John Gordon, a white man, entered and was greeted with a volley of hisses, cat calls, howls and groans. A scene of excitement followed. The students then marched out of the chapel.

The occasion of the demonstration against Professor Gordon was said to be due to his alleged prejudicial conduct toward members of the negro race.

WHOLE FAMILY EXTERMINATED.

Canadian Farmer Kills Wife, Son and Daughter by Bullets.

What may prove to be a triple murder and suicide was discovered Friday by a farmer in the home of James Coulter, near Shelburne, Ontario.

When entered the house Mr. Coulter was found lying on the floor, while in the other parts of the house were found the dead bodies of his wife and daughter and in the barn the 11-year-old son dying.

Apparently the father committed the murders with an ax and then suicided.

Local Tax Wins in Monroe.

Monroe county has gone solid for local taxation for public schools. No notice to this effect has been received at the office of State School Commissioner Merritt. This is the first county in the state to go for local taxation for schools, the others being Hancock and Fulton.

Money Asked for Georgia.

In the look of estimates sent to congress by Secretary of the Treasury Shaw appear the following items for Georgia: Macon postoffice building for fiscal year, $50,000; Brunswick harbor lightship, $40,000; Chickasaw park, $31,000; Savannah harbor, $75,000; southern federal prison, for continuing construction, $50,000.

Initial Work for Exposition.

At an initial meeting in Atlanta of the committee of twenty-five prominent citizens who were recently named by President Sam Jones of the chamber of commerce for the purpose of formulating plans for the Southern Industrial Exposition, encouraging speeches were made and a sub-committee of five members appointed to determine the scope, character and financial possibilities of the new enterprise.

Must "Come Across" With Taxes.

Following up the decision of the supreme court in the case of the Armour Packing company against the sheriff of Richmond county, Comptroller General William A. Wright is sending out notices to the tax receivers and tax collectors all over the state notifying them that the notes and accounts of foreign corporations doing business in the state through agents resident here are taxable in the counties in which such agents reside, and that taxes upon them must be collected.

Sanford in Atlanta Jail.

Vincent T. Sanford, who was held in the home jail for the killing of George Wright last summer, is now in the Atlanta jail, where he will be kept until his second trial, next spring.

Removal of the prisoner was ordered by Judge Wright, because Sanford complained of the Rome jail being in a poor sanitary condition.

Sanford had made application for a writ of habeas corpus, but was refused by the court.

UNBOUNDED ADMIRATION

for the splendid courage now evidenced by the southern people.

Among the visitors were many Pennsylvania veterans and a number of former confederate soldiers, whom they met in Andersonville. The best of feeling prevailed.

Governor Appoints Reward.

Governor Terrell, a few days ago, reached a conclusion as to who should be paid the reward offered by the state for the capture of Jim Walker, alias Will Brice, who was wanted for criminal assault upon Mrs. G. W. Moore, and who was hanged in Atlanta last Friday.

The reward offered by the state was $250, and this was the only amount with which Governor Terrell had to deal. It was decided, however, by those interested that the other rewards should be paid in the same manner as that offered by the state.

There were a number of claimants for these rewards. Governor Terrell, after hearing considerable evidence in regard to the matter, decided to divide the state's reward as follows: Marcell G. T. Stevens of Fairburn, $125; George E. Henderson and W. F. Morgan, merchants of Fairburn, $100; Sheriff B. E. Wilkerson, of Campbell county, $25.

Sale of Road Made Legal.

News from New Orleans is to the effect that the United States circuit court of appeal has dissolved the injunction in the case of Robert L. Shuler versus the Macon, Dublin and Savannah railroad, which prevented the sale of the Macon, Dublin and Savannah railroad to the Atlantic Coast Line. The effect of this ruling of the circuit court is likely to be far-reaching, as it is believed that the acquisition of the Macon, Dublin and Savannah by the Atlantic Coast Line means eventually its extension to the coast.

The Macon, Dublin and Savannah railroad was built by the Illinois and Georgia Improvement company, something over one million dollars being expended. Some time ago the Illinois and Georgia Improvement company went into financial difficulties, and was unable to meet its fixed charges, whereupon some of its securities were sold.

When this condition of affairs arose the Illinois and Georgia Improvement company sold to the Atlantic Coast Line the Macon, Dublin and Savannah railroad, at about $1,000,000.

At about this time was made Robert L. Shuler entered suit in the United States court at Macon to enjoin the sale.

Amount of School Fund.

The state school fund to be distributed among the various counties of the state for 1906, amounts to a total of $1,711,841, as against $1,755,794 for 1905, a decrease of $43,953. The decrease is due to the fact that no part of the convict hire goes into this distribution next year, though it will go to the counties which do not use state convict hire for school purposes, through another channel.

The school fund comes from the following sources:

Direct taxation $1,000,000

Poll taxes 271,600

Half Cent Tax & A. Road 110,000

Liquor tax 182,874

Fertilizer Fees 29,870

Oil fees 4,065

Other sources 11,541

Total $1,711,841

In addition to the foregoing there will be distributed among 109 counties which do not receive short term convicts, the proceeds of the sale of convicts amounting to something more than $200,000.

With the exception of the new counties and those old counties from which portions of the school fund for the new counties have been taken, the common school fund for 1906 has been completed.

The reason no appropriation has yet been made to the new counties and to the old counties from which they were formed, is that no definite and final agreements have yet been reached among the counties so affected, as to the school population in the new counties and the old ones.

REPORT OF THE GINNERS.

Latest Statistics Place Cotton Crop at 9,235,000 Bales.

The cotton crop report of the National Ginner's Association was given out Thursday at Dallas, Texas, at 11 o'clock.

Reports from the whole cotton belt, every postoffice represented, indicates a total crop of 9,235,000 bales, with 8,435,000 bales ginned up to December 1. The crop this far picked is 92.4 per cent. and 83 per cent. has been ginned.

An address of welcome was made by Attorney Lee, and Governor Penney, in a felicitous response, declared Georgia today, more than ever before, has earned and deserves the title of the Empire State of the South. He expressed amazement and

WILL COME TO STATESBORO.

Unusual Character Known As The Great Dillingham to Visit This City.

GIVES AWAY MONEY.

Has Made a Fortune in Past Three Years And Wears Many Diamonds.

If reports are true Statesboro is soon to be visited by a most unusual character. The gentleman in question is owner of the "Plant Juice" Remedies, of Cincinnati, Ohio, who has amassed an enormous fortune, estimated at half a million, within the past three years, and is known throughout the country as "The greatest advertiser of the age."

This title he has acquired by his original methods of advertising and his reputation for giving away money. Dillingham travels six months of the year with his company, from city to city, introducing the remedies which have made him the fortune he now possesses, and it is understood that he dispenses for charities among the poor of the different cities which he visits many thousands of dollars.

In addition to his work as an advertiser, he has acquired great notoriety owing to the fact that he owns and wears more diamonds than any other man in the world. He has spent close to $100,000 for his collection of diamonds among which there are some very beautiful ones; part of this collection he wears upon his person at all times.

It is claimed for him that before he has been in a city two weeks he is known by every man, woman and child, and he is recognized the moment he appears upon the streets, owing to his unusual methods of advertising. He will arrive with his company in four weeks and it remains to be seen whether he will arouse the same amount of interest in Statesboro as is usually allotted to him in the different cities which he has visited.

Teachers Elected for 1906.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Statesboro Institute held at the school building on Monday evening, the following corps of teachers were elected for the next twelve months: Principals, G. B. Franklin and Fred Brinson; assistants, Misses Mattie Lively, Maude Akins, Pauline Smith, Hattie Newton and Ella Trappell; elocution, Miss Earle Wood; music, Miss Leslie Brannen.

It was decided to augment the school fund by the levying of a matriculation tax of fifty cents per month on pupils below the 7th grade, and $1 per month for pupils of the 7th grade and above. Half of this amount is payable on entrance. The city council was asked to pass a curfew law, compelling all boys under 16 years of age to be in before 9 o'clock at night or submit a showing from either parent or guardian.

Every Ounce You Eat.

Every ounce of food you eat that fails to digest does a pound of harm. It turns the entire meal into poison. This not only deprives the blood of the necessary tissue-building material, but it poisons it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It digests the food regardless of the condition of the stomach. It allows that organ to rest and get strong again. Relieves Belching, Heart Burn, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, etc. W. H. Ellis.

RAWLINGS CASES WILL GO TO U. S. SUPREME COURT.

J. G. Rawlings and his two sons, Milton and Jesse, who were under sentence of death to be executed on January 6, and the third son, Leonard, who was sentenced to a life imprisonment, are to have another chance for their lives and liberty by reason of a writ of error to the supreme court of the United States, which was signed at 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon by Chief Justice William H. Fish, of the supreme court of Georgia, on the petition of John R. Cooper, of Macon, the attorney for the Rawlings men.

The claim of Attorney Cooper is unique—that the juries, grand and petit which indicted and tried the Rawlings boys, had on them no preachers, lawyers, dentists and locomotive firemen, and that by this omission on the part of the jury commissioners of Lowndes county, the jury was not composed wholly of the "upright and intelligent men specified in section 818 of the penal code.

The signature of Chief Justice Fish, while in no sense a supersedes in itself, has the effect of operating as one, in that the sentence of death which hangs over three of the men will be necessarily delayed until the supreme court of the United States can pass on the question. The point which Attorney Cooper, who has been the valiant defender of the Rawlings from the beginning of the case, made before Chief Justice Fish, was grand jurors."

The phrase "upright and intelligent men to serve as jurors, is what attorney Cooper has based his plea upon.

EXCLUDED PREACHERS, ET AL. "The supreme court of Georgia," said Attorney Cooper, "decided against me on this section of the penal code, but it is not denied that the grand and petit, had on it no preachers, lawyers, dentists, locomotive firemen, and doctors. Now, I claim that the jury commissioners excluded these men without legal cause, and that in so doing the jury could not have been composed of the most 'upright and intelligent men.'"

"In evading the state law they tried the Rawlings boys without due process of law, and so doing, acted in violation of the provision of the 14th amendment of the United States constitution. Upon that ground Judge Fisher could not deny me the writ of error, however much the court might have disagreed with me on the section of the penal code. It is a question that the supreme court of the United States must review.

"Judge Fisher's writ of error is in effect a supersedeas which will defer the date of execution of the Rawlings boys until the supreme court of the United States shall have decided the matter finally.

Attorney Cooper does not know when the case will come up before the supreme court. It will be some time however, probably not before spring.

Wanted,

50 bbls. good Syrup. Highest market price paid in trade. F. L. CLARY.

Griner's is the Place.

If you want to find the place to get your Christmas Toys and Presents, just follow the crowd, and they will unmistakably lead you to the well filled store of C. B. Griner & Co. A casual passer-by would think that Leopold Adler had moved his entire holiday display to Statesboro, or that Santa Claus had just arrived with all of his wares. A large force of young men and ladies are employed so as to handle the big crowds with as much ease and dispatch as possible and see that everyone who calls during the great rush that is now on shall have courteous and fair treatment.

This firm has made the heaviest purchases of holiday goods ever brought to Statesboro, and the patronage that has already set in shows that they have not bought idly. Every freight coming in brings to them from the Northern markets hundreds of reasonable and fashionable articles suitable to be given as holiday or wedding presents—presents for the old as well as the young. As stated in last Friday's issue, Santa Claus has made arrangements to see that all of his folks are supplied from Griner's store. The old gentleman himself will be in during the week, and the little ones, as well as the grown up ones, will be well cared for.

As stated in the beginning, just follow the crowds and you will make no mistake. They will lead you to Griner's every time.

Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the suffering it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup, and whooping cough. Makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm and draws out inflammation. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

Carnival is Coming.

By reference to our advertising columns you will see that Statesboro is to be in the hands of a carnival or street fair during the next week. It is our understanding that the aggregation, or whatever it is to be, will light in the city on Monday next, and hold forth during the balance of the week.

Just what this affair is to look like, we will have to wait and see before we can tell you. We have had some experience with carnivals and circuses before, some good and some bad—mostly bad—but just what is before us we acknowledge that we do not know. Reckon we will have to exclaim like the fellow did when he was to be hung. When told to pray, he said: "Lord bless us in what we are about to receive."

A representative of the company has been in town for the past few days.

There was considerable opposition to granting them license, but the price was put at $100, which the carnival crowd paid. They probably would have "come across" if twice that amount had been asked.

Statesboro now has a state-wide reputation of being soft for all that comes along. A fake show recently carried out of here several thousand dollars, for which they left nothing but a bad name and a stinking, rotten, nauseating smell, but as we started out to say, we will wait and see what is to be before dwelling any further on this subject.

Christmas Trade On With a Rush.

The Christmas holiday shoppers have got the town by the throat now. The crowds that throng our stores the entire day, and the almost endless number of packages and bundles one can see going out, attest the fact that not only Christmas has come but that our people are happy and prosperous and that they are laying out of their earnings a considerable amount for the Christmas holiday.

Every store in town has all it can do, every available clerk that could be had has been engaged, and yet the rush can hardly be handled. There is one thing noticeable, and that is the fact that the class of Christmas goods that is being bought are of a higher class than ever before; in fact, the cheaper class of gifts seem to be going a begging.

Hunters Bag Big Game.

A party of hunters composed of A. M. and G. W. Deal, J. S. and G. L. Mikel, A. J. Mooney, J. M. Jones and others returned on Saturday from Osaheav island with six fine deer as a sample of their catch. The party killed one each and all were proud of the result of their hunt.

Several of the dogs were lost, and Mr. G. W. Deal remained over until Sunday to look them up. He succeeded in getting them all except one, which was left in the hands of Mr. Sasser.

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of Piles. "It can truthfully say," writes Harry Olson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for blind bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, Bucklin's Arnica ointment is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. See at W. H. Ellis druggist.
