Bullet For Girl Who Killed Him.

Oenila, Ga., Dec. 15.—(Holt) Dickson, a young man living in the county, was given a hearing today by Judge Williams Henderson for assault with intent to murder and was held under $1,000 bond.

The young man had been paying attention to Miss Willie Middlebrooks, daughter of Mr. D. T. Middlebrooks of this place for some time. When she refused to marry him he drew a pistol and fired at her. She caught the weapon just in time to save her life and was fired at the shot.

Failing to kill the girl on account of interference of other members of the family, he deliberately turned his pistol on himself, the ball entering his left breast, passing through the left side and coming out through the back. The shot was not fatal, and Dickson was able to appear in court to stand a commitment trial. The court also placed Dickson under a peace bond as a protection to the young lady at the request of her father. Mr. Middlebrooks recently moved to this place from Jones county. The affair has created a sensation, as the parties are both from good families, Miss Middlebrooks is about to marry another young man.

or Judge of Middle Circuit.

To the Voters of the Middle Circuit: I think it proper at this time to announce the fact that I will be a candidate to succeed myself as Judge of the Circuit. For eight years I served the people of the Circuit as Solicitor General, endeavoring at all times to discharge the duties of that office with fairness, impartiality and courtesy. Upon the promotion of Judge Evans to the bench of the Supreme Court I was an unopposed candidate before the people for the Judge-Ship to fill out his unexpired term of two years. My unanimous election to this office necessitated a complete abandonment of my law practice. I submit that I am fairly entitled to at least a full term. If in your judgment I have made an efficient and impartial Judge. On that subject of course I can say nothing on my own behalf, except that I have labored earnestly in presiding over your courts, to do so impartially and to render efficient service to the people. Whether I have succeeded or not others must say. If so, I am fairly entitled to an endorsement of my administration and of my record. B. T. Readings

To the voters of Bulloch County: I hereby announce my candidacy for county treasurer, subject to the ensuing democratic primary; and, if elected, I promise to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability. For Tax Receiver

To the voters of Bulloch County: I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Tax Receiver of Bulloch county, subject to the democratic primary; and, if elected, I promise to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability. J. G. Jones.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the democratic nomination, for tax collector of Bulloch county at the next election. For Tax Receiver

The friends of Mr. L. O. Atkins here by announce him for receiver of tax returns subject to the ensuing Democratic primary, and respectfully ask for him the support of his fellow citizens. VOTERS.

For Judge, Middle Circuit

In making this race I am actuated by a desire to fill the office. I earnestly solicit the support of all the people, and will feel grateful, indeed, should this position be accorded me by the voters who have the right to confer upon any lawyer this honor. Respectfully, F. H. SAFFOLD.

FOR SHERIFF

At the solicitation of my many friends, I take this method of announcing myself a candidate for the office of sheriff of Bulloch county, subject to the action of the democratic party. If elected I pledge myself to perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability, and respectfully solicit the votes of the people of the county. JOSEPH F. OLLIFFE.

For Clerk Superior Court

To the Voters of Bulloch County: I hereby announce my candidacy for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Bulloch county at the ensuing election, subject to the Democratic primary and respectfully ask your support, which I assure you will be very highly appreciated. Respectfully, Enoch L. BRANNEN.

Windstorm Near Harville

On Wednesday night the section of Bulloch, around Harville, was visited by a severe windstorm. Reports of fallen trees, fencing, etc., come in from all sections of the 1840th district. The pretty umbrella china trees in Mr. Geo. E. Wilson's yard were pretty badly demolished. As far as heard from there were no losses of life reported. Reports from other sections show that the storm was not local. It reached as far south as Jacksonville.

Cannon—Donaldson

On Sunday last at the home of Judge R. F. Stringer, Mr. Clayton Donaldson and Miss Dollie Cannon were married. Judge Stringer officiating. The bridegroom is one of the solid young farmers of the Blitch neighborhood, and the bride is the pretty daughter of Judge and Mrs. M. E. Cannon of the same community.

Mrs. Sarah Bowen Dead.

On Monday of this week Mrs. Sarah Bowen died at her home in the upper part of this county. The deceased was the wife of Mr. John Bowen and leaves many friends and relatives to mourn her loss.

Notice to Sea Island Growers

There will be a meeting of the Sea Island cotton growers of Bulloch county on the first Monday in January next at Statesboro for the purpose of organizing the farmers and to transact other business that will be to their interest. Mr. W. W. Webb, from Habiba, Ga., will be present and address the meeting. We hope to see every man who grows sea island cotton present.

Mr. Webb will be at Metter on Tuesday following and hold a similar meeting. Only two appointments in Bulloch county. Respectfully, R. SIMMONS.

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of Piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for blind bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, Bucklin's Arnica salve is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. See at W. H. Ellis druggist for sale by all druggists.

The Cotton Market

Upon the report of the government ginner figures short cotton lost about four points but regained it soon afterwards. The ruling prices in the local market is about 11 1/2 to 12 cents. The market on sea islands is practically unchanged.

The government ginner's report shows over 82,000 bales ginned up to Dec. 15th, which would indicate a 96,000 bale crop or about 7000. 15c to 18c is the ruling price on long staple in the local market.

In Mad Chase.

Millions rush in mad chase after health, from one extreme of feidism to another, when if they would only eat good food and keep their bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills, their troubles would all pass away, prompt relief and quick cure for liver and stomach trouble. See at W. H. Ellis drug store; guaranteed.

Play Was Well Received.

"The Heart of a Hero," as presented by the pupils of the Institute, under the direction of Miss Earl Wood, was well received. Numerous requests have been made for its repetition, and it is likely that it will be given during the holidays when weather conditions are more favorable.

Water Cure for Constipation.

Half a pint of hot water taken half an hour before breakfast will usually keep the bowels regular. Harsh cathartics should be avoided. When a purgative is needed, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are mild and gentle in their action. For sale by all druggists.

Institute Closes

On Friday the Institute closed its fall session. Appropriate exercises were rendered at the morning chapel service. The program consisted of bible readings by Mr. Franklin, songs by the school, and original Christmas stories by Miss Mary Cone, Tilla Hughes, Della Wilson, Agnes Parker, Stella Averitt and Annie Moore.

The Institute has had an unusually successful term, and the inauguration of the public school system makes its future prospects more promising than ever before.

Tax Books Have Closed

On Wednesday night the tax books of Bulloch county closed. Owing to the fact that there was a steady rainfall all day long there was an absence of the usual rush of tax payers as is generally seen on the last day.

We learn that the percentage of those who have not paid is unusually large, especially so when it is taken into consideration the fact that we are now enjoying an area of general prosperity.

The Statesboro News turned out two thousand blank f f s late in the afternoon, and if you were among the number who failed to show up you need not be surprised to be confronted with a tax execution.

ZOAR

Christmas is near at hand and our good people of this vicinity are making preparations to serve the grand holidays.

We are having some very inclement weather.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Johnson, of Thompson, and Mr. M. Connor, of Lincoln county, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McCorkell this week. Mr. Johnson is the brother of Mrs. McCorkell.

Mr. Ed Lindsey is erecting a very handsome building here and will move in the near future.

Mr. I. T. Newsome's condition is convalescent. Mr. A. T. McCorkell contemplates visiting Augusta, Thompson and other points.

Every Ounce You Eat.

Every ounce of food you eat that fails to digest does a pound of harm. It turns the entire meal into poison. This not only deprives the blood of the necessary tissue-building material, but it poisons it. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is a perfect digestant. It digests the food regardless of the condition of the stomach. It allows that organ to rest and get strong again. Relieves Belching, Heart Burn, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Palpitation of the Heart, etc. W. H. Ellis.

Mr. Dan Alderman of Brooklet, was in this community on business this week.

There will be a box supper given at Middleground academy on Friday, Dec. 22nd 6 o'clock p. m. The patrons extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend.

The candidates are beginning to stir the voters. It is a long time before the primary for some of the boys to keep up the present lick it then.

We are glad to see the warm open weather set in for Christmas. We promised our readers free weather on Christmas in our Tuesday's issue, and we were fearful for the past few days that we would be unable to deliver the goods.

The stores and banks will be closed in Statesboro on Monday. There will be no attraction here but the carnival to take your money and time. You can spend the entire day looking at the "educated turkey and the wild girl."

SAID TO BE FINE SPEAKER

Col. Dillingham Noted for Brilliance of His Address.

URGED TO ENTER POLITICS

Will Be Here This Week With Large Company.

CONGRESSMAN GRIGGS TALKS

Col. F. A. Dillingham, who is to arrive in this city the latter part of this week with a company and who is to spend a month demonstrating his peculiar ideas of advertising here in Statesboro is noted for his eloquence as a speaker. The wonderful power he possesses of holding a large audience spell-bound night after night for six months of the year has done more to earn for him the title of "The great advertiser" than anything else. He is what might be called a natural orator. From the moment he appears before the audience until his address is finished, he commands the most perfect attention and gaining in the first few moments complete control over the minds of the people before him, seems to fairly hold them in the hollow of his hand by his masterly flow of oratory.

Several of Col. Dillingham's friends and many of the politicians who have heard him speak have urged his entering the political arena, claiming that he owed it to his party and to himself to use his great gift in campaign work, maintaining that his rise politically would be phenomenal should he once undertake political speaking. The Col. however, refused absolutely to adopt the suggestion, his argument being that he is not interested in politics, that he is interested in his own business and his advertising methods. He also says he likes to mingle and come in contact with the great mass of working people at large, that his present methods allow him this privilege, while political work would not.

Congressman Griggs of Georgia, upon hearing Col. Dillingham speak for the first time, said, "If I had that man's wonderful power of drawing an audience and perfect ease while speaking, there would be no office in this country to which I would not aspire. I consider him second to no one I have heard as a natural orator, and I have listened to the greatest speakers." When Col. Dillingham begins his lectures in Statesboro which will be given every evening and which are free to all, the people of this city will have an opportunity of judging for themselves whether he is really as great an orator as has been claimed for him.

Even if the French savants think kissing "an unpleasant custom" it is most ungratifying to say so.

It is said that New Orleans has learned valuable sanitary lessons this year, and that next spring she will be able to defy Yellow Jack. The Crescent City has been at school a long while on this subject.

Switzerland, that for so many years has been able to maintain itself within its exclusive mountain walls, free from the distraction, rivalries and conflicts that have wasted and worn its neighbors on every side, is about to have its isolation, if not its security, broken into by the construction of an all-water route from Basel to the North Sea.

A magnificent hospital has been thrown open to the poor of Paris by Baron Henri de Rothschild. Here treatment, food and lodging are absolutely free, not only to the Baron's Jewish co-religionists, but to all men, women and children, of whatever race or color, who cannot afford to pay for it. Here is a noble charity to which the Baron has devoted his whole life. He always hated the drudgery and emptiness of shoddy gathering and mercantile work. From his earliest childhood he could take no interest in financial enterprises.

"The sun grows smaller by sixteen inches every twenty-four hours." Such was the startling statement by Sir Robert Ball, the Irish astronomer, to an audience at the Bishopsgate Institute. A few moments later he called the apprehensions of his hearers by stating that the sun was in no immediate danger of becoming a black dot in the heavens, but would in all probability last for a few million years. Sir Robert spoke of the tremendous prodigality with which the sun dispenses its heat—with a loose reference to it as the prodigal sun—and of the possibilities which arise from that prodigality.

Every day aluminum is applied to new uses, increasing the consumption to a wonderful degree. Aluminum paper is one of the latest products, and it is said to be far superior to tin foil and similar articles. Aluminum is used for household utensils as well as those for military purposes. In textile mill work aluminum spoils are very popular, and are a setting for lenses aluminum is much lighter than brass. It is used on railway cars, on locomotives, lithographic plates, letter boxes, in patented explosives, for making acid cars and many other vessels.

The instinct of migration is one of the most wonderful in the world. A young bobwhite and a bobolink are hatched in the same New England field. The former grows up and during the fall and winter forms one of the coveys which is content to wander a mile or two, here and there, in search of food feeding grounds. Hardly has the bobolink donned his first fall dress before an irresistible impulse seizes him. One night he rises up and, ever higher on fluttering wings, sets his course southward, gives you a glimpse of him alighting the moon, and keeps on through Virginia and Florida, across seas, over tropical islands, far into South America, never content until he has put the great Amazon between him and his far-distant birthplace.

Economy in food does not imply prohibition, says The Century. It is neither vegetarianism, fruititarianism or any kind of "ism." It means simply temperance in diet, with the application of available scientific knowledge; the use of reason and intelligence, combined with a due appreciation of the dignity of the body and the necessity of meeting the daily wants without impeding that high degree of efficiency which helps to render man physically and mentally supreme. Practically, this implies the avoidance of the large quantities of protein food so commonly made use of by civilized man, and the substitution of a dietary characterized by a predominance of the lighter vegetable foods. In this respect it leans somewhat toward vegetarianism. The heavier meats of our daily diet can be advantageously replaced in part by lighter articles of diet less rich in protein and with more frequent addition of green vegetables, fruits and corresponding articles of food less prone to yield objectionable decomposition products.

OZAR IS READY TO FLEE.

Throne of Romanoffs Tottering While Rebellion is in Full Swing in Riga—Panic in St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, advices, under Monday's date, state that a condition of panic continues. It is rumored that the crown jewels have been sent abroad, as a prelude to the imminent flight of the royal family.
The workmen's council, under the very noses of the police, have succeeded in printing a hundred thousand copies of its paper announcing that the government has declared a civil war on the proletariat, and saying that the challenge must be accepted. In its appeal to the people, declares this is the government's last fight, that the throne of the Romanoffs is tottering, and that another blow will cause it to fall. The council adds:
"While the government at St. Petersburg is falling, its own regiments are rising against it, and at Riga a republic has already been proclaimed. A few regiments may still be faithful, but the army, as a whole, is on our side. The government wants a fight; it shall have it."
The paper also contains a direct appeal to the army, advising the troops to remember that they come from the people and must not fire on their own kind.
A dispatch The Lokal Anzeiger (Berlin) says the troops at Riga have joined in the revolt and that the town is being shelled and is burning. Between St. Petersburg and Wirbalt, the flames, according to the dispatch, could be seen from several places.
Another dispatch to The Lokal Anzeiger from Königsberg, Prussia, says:
"During the street fighting at Mitau, the capital of Courland, 300 persons were killed. At Lauenburg, in southern Livonia, the revolutionaries liberated all the prisoners and shot Assistant District Governor Peterson and M. Maedovitch, his secretary, and threw their bodies into the river."
The southern part of Livonia and the larger part of Courland are completely in possession of the insurgents. The military are much too weak to cope with the situation. The country between Riga and Wenden is a wilderness. The buildings on all the estates have been burned and plundered. The herds of the south of Courland might reflect the state of affairs. A number of German barons and their families are held prisoners by the insurgents.

HANGINGS ARE STAYED.
Rulings Cases Appealed to United States Supreme Court.
Attorney Cooper, who represented G. Ravellings and his sons in their trial at Valdosta, Ga., for the murder of the Carter children, has served on Governor Terrell and Attorney General John C. Hart citation based on the writ of error granted to the supreme court of the United States. The object of this service was to prevent the execution of Ravellings and his two sons on January 6, and to put the case formally on notice of the appeal to the United States supreme court. Governor Terrell, a knowledgeable service, and will order the execution stopped until the United States supreme court has formally passed on the case.

TO PROTECT GERMAN SUBJECTS.
Emperor Bill Decides to Send Warships to Russian Ports.
A Berlin dispatch says: The decision of Chancellor Von Buelow, with the approval of the emperor, to send German steamers to ports of the Russian Baltic provinces and bring away the Germans who are in danger of their lives is regarded as a most important act and one that may be the first in a series of steps which the German government may deem necessary to safeguard the interests of the German subjects whose estates are now being plundered or whose business is being run by the insurgents.

BLOODY RIOTS IN RIGA.
In Collisions Between Workmen and Troops Machine Guns Are Used.
Latest advices from Riga state that it seems to be beyond question that bloody collisions have occurred between troops and the united peasants and workmen in the streets of Riga during which machine guns were used.

The situation is most serious in the country, which is practically abandoned to the revolutionary bands, owing to concentration of the troops in cities and towns.

HARRIMAN AS A JOKER.

Railroad Magnate Enlivens Proceedings of Insurance Investigators in Reply to Ryan's Testimony.

Before the legislative insurance investigating committee at New York, another chapter was added Friday to the chronicles of what Thomas F. Ryan called "strenuous" interviews between himself and E. H. Harriman.
Mr. Ryan gave his version of the conversations to the committee a few days ago, when he said that Mr. Harriman, at the time of the acquisition of the James H. Hyde stock in the Equitable Life Assurance Society, demanded an equal share, and threatened to use his political influence against him if he did not surrender it. Friday Mr. Harriman replied to the committee his version, and added some interesting statements affecting his relations with former Governor B. B. Odell, Jr., chairman of the New York state republican committee, and also as to a request to watch legislation affecting the Equitable Society which he had made on Governor Francis W. Higgins and the late S. Fred Nixon, speaker of the New York state assembly.

In substance Mr. Harriman testified that when Mr. Ryan bought the Hyde stock carrying control of the Equitable Society he asked Mr. Harriman to cooperate with him in saving the property, that Mr. Harriman agreed to do it, it was stated that Mr. Ryan was acting from pure and unselfish motives; that Mr. Ryan did not satisfy him as to the purity of his motives, and that Mr. Harriman notified him that he would use his influence against him.

The test, which Mr. Harriman said he applied to determine Mr. Ryan's purity of motives, was an offer to take one-half of the Hyde stock and to name two trustees of the society. Mr. Ryan refused to agree to that. Charles E. Hughes, counsel for the committee, informed Mr. Harriman that it had been charged that he got his political influence through his relations with former Governor B. B. Odell, Jr. Mr. Harriman said: "I should think that Mr. Odell had political influence because of his relations with me."
Laughter followed the remark. Mr. Harriman said to the Associated Press that the remark was meant in a jocular sense.

HOTEL MAN DEALS DEATH.

Tragedy Follows Alleged Attempt to Enter Woman's Room.
Milan Thayer, musical director of the "Nothing But Gaiety" company, was shot and killed in Gaiety, S. C., Friday morning, by George Hasty, one of the proprietors of the Piedmont Inn, where the shooting occurred.

Abbott Davidson, leading man and partner of the same company, was also shot and is perhaps seriously wounded.
The shooting is said to have been the result of Hasty's attempt to enter the room of one of the women of the company. When Bennett remonstrated he was shot and Davidson coming up was also shot. Davidson was shot in the abdomen and Bennett through the heart.
An inquest was held and the testimony of Verne Sheridan and May Bishop, was to the effect that George Hasty, after repeatedly insulting the young woman, going so far as to endeavor to break into Miss Sheridan's room Thursday night, was rebuffed for his conduct by Davidson Friday morning and responded by shooting Davidson in the abdomen and sending a bullet through Bennett's heart.
George Hasty is under arrest and has no statement.

Many Indictments for Robbing. Fourteen indictments were returned by the federal grand jury at Kansas City, Mo., against common carriers, railway officials, shippers and freight agents, charging the giving of rebates and conspiracy to gain rebates.

NOW WHITE TERROR

Russia Must Fight Peasantry as Well as Anarchists.

PROLETARIAT IS AROUSED

Empire's Poor Ready to Join Fortunes With the "Reds" in Attempt to Throw Out Oppressors.

Latest advices from St. Petersburg state that a shudder of horror has convulsed Russia. The government claims it has given battle only to the "red" revolutionists, but the populace generally believes that "white terror" has returned.

Already the leaders of the proletariat organization, who escaped capture Saturday night at the Economic Society, and even men of the rank of Professor Mitukoff, are in hiding from the police, who are hunting them down. The government evidently anticipates a battle royal and has made its dispositions accordingly. It fully understands that the proletariat will give blow for blow in answer to the wholesale arrests.

The workers' council and the League of Leagues Saturday night issued a declaration of a general strike to begin immediately. As most of the provincial authorities are reactionary officials of the old regime, the advantage they will take of such power to terrorize the populace can be easily imagined, they being in position to become petty tyrants, and wage war each in his own particular fashion against the revolutionists.

Martial Law Ukase issued. An Imperial ukase, issued by the czar Sunday empowers all governors and municipal authorities in the event of railway, postal or telegraph communication being interfered with to proclaim martial law. Under the ukase, military commanders will automatically become governors general. Martial law may be enacted only by order of the ministers of the interior at St. Petersburg. The provisions already made to enforce compliance with the communication remain in force.

The government has issued a communication stating that it considers the demands and complaints of the railway employees to a large extent justified, and the minister of ways and communications is therefore drafting measures for the amelioration for these conditions of the service.

A report that Count Witte has resigned is in circulation in St. Petersburg, but it is false. It may, however, become true at any moment, as General Count Alexis Ignatiev is being held in reserve.

A close friend of the premier told the Associated Press that Count Witte had no faith in the policy of Minister of the Interior Durnovo and only consented to it on the condition that it should be confined to legal means. It is the opinion of many liberals as well as revolutionaries, that "with the first discharge of cannon, Count Witte will go." They say it matters little whether the premier is or is not in sympathy with the policy of reaction, he cannot shirk responsibility for it. A prominent personage said to the Associated Press:

"The step taken towards reaction marks the beginning of the end and the policy which has been inaugurated is bound to fail. The government's task will not merely be the arrest of a small group of leaders, but that of the whole population. The powers conferred on the provincial authorities by the Imperial ukase is tantamount to a declaration of martial law throughout the country and the irresponsibilities of repression which the officers of the old regime may commit when let loose can only serve to fan the flames."

THREE KILLED IN COLLISION.

Seaboard Air Line Trains Crash Together at Statesboro, Fla.
A head-on collision occurred on the Seaboard Air Line at Plymouth, Fla. about 10 miles from Orlando Saturday morning, resulting in the death of Engineer Lambert and John Lusander, colored fireman, and the other train, the injured of Mail Agent Burk. Engineer Porter is badly hurt, and may die.

A misreading of orders is said to have been the cause of the disaster.

WHELMED BY SLEET.

Sections of Virginia and North Carolina Almost Totally Isolated by Visit of Ice Monarch.

Richmond, Va., has been in a heavy coating of ice since Friday, and telegraph and telephone wires are buried all over the city. Every policeman in the city and every ironman, including the regular reserves and call men are on duty. The fire alarm system is a wreck, except in the business section of the city, where the wires are underground. Richmond is almost wholly cut off from telegraph and telephone communication with the north and south.

Except for a single wire to Danville and another to Washington, Lynchburg was also cut off by telegraphic communication with the north and south on account of a sleet storm in the city, were put to work. The 200 ironmen at work on a new system restored the circuits. Many of them went to Greensboro, N. C., where the worst of the storm appears to have been experienced.

The sleet storm experienced in the section around Danville was the most disastrous in years, entailing upon the telephone and telegraph companies damages of thousands of dollars. Danville was without any communication to any points south.

GREENSBORO ISOLATED.

Practically isolated from the outside world, Greensboro, N. C., has been in the grip of one of the worst sleet storms it has experienced for years. Telegraphic and telephonic communication was cut off for some time, due to broken wires and falling poles. In consequence, the city was isolated, and the weight of ice, crushed beneath the weight of ice, Street car service was seriously hampered and a general discomfiture ensued.

LINEVITCH THROWS UP JOB.

Mutinous Troops Give Head of Manchurian Army Lots of Trouble.
A cable to the New York World dated at St. Petersburg, December 14, says: "I cannot combat the wholesale spread of revolutionary movement in the army, already more than half mutinous," General Linevitch telegraphed from Manchuria. "The reports demand to be seen home immediately. I am unable to take paper money. Telegraph instructions. Urgent."

SECOND VICTIM OF HASTY.

Abbott Davidson Dies of Wound Received in Gaiety Tragedy.
Abbott Davidson of New York, actor in the "Nothing But Money" theatrical company, who was wounded by George Hasty, proprietor of a hotel at Gaiety, S. C., Friday, died early Saturday evening. Milan Bennett, musical director of the same company, was also killed by Hasty. The shooting was the result of an alleged insult offered by Hasty to two actresses of the company.

OLD TURK FINALLY YIELDS.

Democracy to this effect has been promulgated, and the question which has been the subject of negotiations for eleven months is closed. The international felt will promptly be withdrawn.
