

2-2-1906

Statesboro News

Notes

Condition varies. Some pages missing or in poor condition.

Originals provided for filming by the publisher.

Gift of Statesboro Herald and the Bulloch County Historical Society.

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues>

Recommended Citation

"Statesboro News" (1906). Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues). 4629.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues/4629>

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Bulloch County Historical Newspapers at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues) by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

LIEUTENANT BOWMAN.

TOLESTO'S OPTIMISM.

The correspondent at the Berlin

Threatens to let the Berlin

Count Tolstoy thinks that the safety of Russia through all her convulsions will ultimately be assured by the unshaken loyalty of the peasantry.

The correspondent says:

"Count Tolstoy exhibits a surprising optimism with regard to the present condition of Russia. He is persuaded that the position of things has nothing dangerous in it, for he is persuaded that the workmen of the big cities are of little account in comparison with the peasants, who form an immense majority of the Russian population.

"The peasant is not thinking of a revolution, and the count declares that newspaper stories of revolts in the country districts are exaggerated.

He says that no one but a small group of revolutionary agitators desires to overturn the order of things at present existing.

"Nevertheless, Tolstoy declines to make any predictions, and says that it is impossible to say what may happen. In any case, it will be necessary to overturn the present government, and to found it on a policy of force,

and to support it by another regime,

based on the law of others, goods,

and the morality of Christianity.

Translation in the Literary Digest.

Gold Output of Alaska.

The gold mines on the American side of the Alaskan coast have been producing for the first time producing much larger quantities of the precious metal than are being found in the territory. The gold output for

1905 at Nome and in the surrounding districts is estimated by experts at approximately $10,000,000 and the output for the year ending June 30,

1906 at Nome and in the surrounding

districts is estimated by experts at approximately $10,000,000 and the

output for the year ending June 30,

1906 at Nome and in the surrounding

districts is estimated by experts at approximately $10,000,000 and the

output for the year ending June 30,

1906 at Nome and in the surrounding

districts is estimated by experts at approximately $10,000,000 and the

output for the year ending June 30,

1906 at Nome and in the surrounding

districts is estimated by experts at approximately $10,000,000 and the

output for the year ending June 30,

1906 at Nome and in the surrounding

districts is estimated by experts at

JOE WHEELER DEAD

Doughty Soldier, Author and Statesman No More.

A VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Sturdy Veteran of Three Wars, Beloved North and South, Finally

Retires Before Advance of

Crim Reaper.

General Joseph Wheeler, the famous Confederate cavalry leader, and a brilliant general of the United States army in the war with Spain,

died at 5:35 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs.

Sterling Smith, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

The veteran of three wars was 69

years old, but, in spite of his age,

there was hope until Wednesday of

his recovery from the attack of pneumonia, which caused his death.

General Wheeler was taken ill six days before his demise at his sister's home, where he had been living recently. He contracted a severe cold, which developed into pleuristy. From the first his illness was not given up hope until Wednesday night, when the disease was found to have affected both lungs.

General Wheeler's immediate relatives were all with him. His daughters, Mrs. W. J. Harris and the Misses

Anno, Lucille and Carrie Wheeler, had been summoned from the south, and arrived early in the morning.

General Wheeler, Jr., United States Army, now stationed at West Point, was also present, as well as General Wheeler's sister, Mrs. Sterling Smith, and her son.

The family was summoned to the bedroom of the patient at midnight

Wednesday night, when the doctors in consultation concluded that the end was but a matter of hours.

General Wheeler's death was a great loss to the country, and contemplated by the nation as a great loss. He was a brave soldier, and his death was a great loss to the country.

General Wheeler was a brave soldier, and his death was a great loss

to the country.

General Wheeler was a brave soldier, and his death was a great loss

to the country.

General Wheeler was a brave soldier, and his death was a great loss

to the country.

General Wheeler was a brave soldier, and his death was a great loss

to the country.

General Wheeler was a brave soldier, and his death was a great loss

to the country.

General Wheeler was a brave sol-

SMALL AND HARDWICK.

Engage in Livejly Joint Debate Over

Question of Disfranchising Negroes

in the State of Georgia.

With sleet and snow falling thick and fast, an audience of 500 people gathered in the auditorium at Barnesville, Ga., Friday night, to hear the debate between the two men.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

men, Small and Hardwick, who were

opponents of the disfranchising

constitution of Georgia.

The debate was between the two

LIBEL CHARGE FALLS

Jury Quickly Knocks Out

Town Topics Writer.

SALACIOUS TRIAL ENDED

Editor of Callier's Weekly Proves in

Court That Town Topics Writer

Have Been Engaged in Black-mailing Schemes.

The jury in the criminal branch of the supreme court at New York Friday reported that Norman Haggood, editor of Callier's Weekly, was not guilty of criminal libel. The case had been tried several weeks.

The verdict was rendered ten minutes after the case had been given to the jury. The charge against Mr.

Haggood was brought at the instigation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

ation of the town topics writer, who

had been charged with libel.

The case was brought at the instig-

JOE WHEELER DEAD

Doughty Soldier, Author and Statesman No More.

A VICTIM OF PNEUMONIA

Sturdy Veteran of Three Wars, Be-

loved North and South, Finally

Retires Before Advance of

Crim Reaper.

General Joseph Wheeler, the famo-

us Confederate cavalry leader, and a brilliant general of the United States army in the war with Spain,

died at 5:35 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the home of his sister, Mrs.

Sterling Smith, in Brooklyn, N. Y.

The veteran of three wars was 69

years old, but, in spite of his age,

there was hope until Wednesday of

his recovery from the attack of pneumonia, which caused his death.

THE NEWS.

Published at Statesboro, Ga.
TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

By The Statesboro News Publishing Co.

EDITORIALS

If the expenses of life insurance were reduced to the lowest terms, those would insure who wanted insurance, and in time the ample returns to the policy holders would make life insurance a favorite method of saving.

A New Hampshire editor claims to be the first of his calling in that state to buy an automobile. He probably finds that the car saves his time in chasing up delinquent subscribers, suggests the Boston Transcript.

Further investigation has shown that there are some insurance companies which do not pay their premiums $150,000 a year, but even their policy holders are not very much to the good, concludes the Indianapolis News.

Sir Oliver Lodge, scientist, says the ship will be held in 20,000,000 years. That's encouraging, thinks the Washington Post. By that time the temperature will probably be so modified that it will be possible to go on with the actual work of digging the canal at Panama.

A writer in a contemporary, says the Louisville Courier-Journal, marshals official statistics to prove that the horse is the most dangerous and deadly animal in the world. This is exclusive, of course, of the man behind the horse, who is responsible for most of the misdeeds charged to the horse.

I find the great thing in this world is not so much where we stand, as in what direction we are moving, says Oliver Wendell Holmes, in the Autocrat of the Breakfast Table. To reach the port of Heaven, we must sail sometimes with the wind and sometimes against it—but we must sail and not drift, nor lie at anchor.

Grants, the Cambridge undergraduate organ, urges reform in English university education. It says: Rendered unfit for business, the only places open for the graduate are schoolmastering and the church, and in the uttermost parts of the earth are to be found graduates of Oxford and Cambridge now become laborers, beggars and outcasts.

Sink her deep in salt water if there is no longer room for the ship within the jurisdiction of Mr. Bonaparte's department, but let her go down with the flag flying and all the honors due to her glorious memory, and unwounded. No American gunpowder, declares the New York Sun, should ever be burnt to send a shot into the heart of Old Ironsides.

Several observers at a ceremony at the Guildhall the other day which marked the occasion with which King George expressed himself in English, relates the London Chronicle. This was hardly the case on the occasion of his visit to the Guildhall in 1889 to receive the freedom of the city, for his Majesty then publicly acknowledged that he was not quite at home in addressing his hearers in the English language. Maybe he was embarrassed by the presence of that master of our tongue, Mr. Gladstone, who was one of the guests, and made a singularly happy speech, paying a generous tribute to the Greek nation.

Let me pause now and then in the hurry of life to realize what I am, says Herbert G. Wyckoff, whether bound and what progress I am making; believe in my possible self in wonder that pulses with appreciation, quickens into resolution, leaps to the attempt, and presses steadily on toward a more and more certain arrival; accept the way and its toll as the blessing of personal opportunity, not the curse of bootless labor; suffer the impossible to go without regret, and allow the possible a little less than all my time, that life may be a dignified advance, rather than a wild scramble; admit the fact that in my path lie both helps and hindrances; but let me judge the storms by their direction, not by their fury, and measure proffered aid beside my need, rather than against my pride. And so, walking with level eyes that can as well appreciate the beauties of the way as avoid its pitfalls, while never losing sight of the road itself or sense of that which waits at its end, let me keep the road home.

GEORGIA BRIEFS

Way Open for Damage Suits.

Judge Emory Speer of the United States court stated that the city council of Macon should inquire if they have not violated another tradition of the constitution in the rescinding of a number of prisoners. Who were on county changing, and, according to Judge Speer, entitled to a discharge from custody.

Judge Speer said it would have been much the wiser and more humane thing for the city to have released the offenders, thus avoiding damage suits that may be instituted.

Sea Island Growers to Meet.

President Harvie Jordan has issued a call for a convention of the Sea Island Cotton Association to be held at Valdosta on February 8.

The sea island cotton planters of Florida and south Georgia, who met at Valdosta last November, and since that time the work has been enthusiastically pushed.

Some of the important subjects to be discussed at the coming convention are as to the desiring of a better system of holding cotton, plans for the producers and manufacturers of long staple cotton to get closer together, and the imperative needs of immediate organization.

Railroad Commission Enjoined.

Judge W. T. Newman of the United States district court at Atlanta signed an order which in effect temporarily enjoins the railroad commission of Georgia from enforcing the provisions of circular 209, relating to freight rates on stores, stove plates, stove pipes, furniture and householdware.

The order is the result of a bill of complaint filed by the Atlantic Coast Line, the Southern and the Central of Georgia railways. The bill is directed against the railroad commission for the state of Georgia, and the defendants are ordered by the court to show cause in the United States court at Atlanta at 10 a. m., February 12, why a permanent injunction should not be granted.

Who Shall Occupy Home?

Lizzie Rutherford Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy of Columbus is making a vigorous protest against the Winfield Davis memorial dormitory at the State Normal School at Athens being occupied by any one except daughter or descendants of Confederate veterans.

The question of who shall designate the girls who will occupy the dormitory, the Daughters of the Confederacy or the authorities of the normal school, is quite a live issue just now.

Lizzie Rutherford chapter holds pronounced views on the subject, and has just mailed a circular letter to the other chapters of Georgia division of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Rawlings Preferred Convict Camp.

Leonard, one of the famous trio of rawlings brothers, of Lowndes county, has been returned to the penitentiary at Valdosta jail from the penitentiary camp at Bebeek, Ga., where he has been confined for several weeks.

Young Rawlings' return to jail was ordered by Judge Mitchell a few days ago, on a motion by John R. Cooper, his counsel, and he will be kept in Valdosta until the cases against Rawlings, now in the supreme court by that tribunal.

Leonard did not want to return to jail, and objected strenuously to being removed from the penitentiary camp. He says he had rather spend ten days in the convict camp than to stay one day in jail.

Will Try Cases Again.

The famous Georgia railroad and Central of Georgia tax cases recently decided by the supreme court in favor of the state's contention that the Western of Georgia corporations have no right to sue in the state, will be tried before Judge Henderson, in Fulton superior court, at Atlanta.

This statement will seem rather unusual in view of the fact that it was generally believed the litigation had been concluded so far as the state courts are concerned.

But the decision of the supreme court, though it settled all the law involved, was not, in fact, a final decision. It was what is called in legal parlance an interlocutory decree in equity, and the question as to whether or not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

The railroad propose to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Georgia to the supreme court of the United States, and an appeal from the state supreme court to the United States supreme court is not an injunction should be granted preventing the state from collecting the taxes claimed.

Kodol

DIGESTS WHAT YOU EAT

THE $1.00 BOTTLE CONTAINS 24 TIMES THE TRIAL SIZE, WHICH SELLS FOR 50 CENTS

PREPARED ONLY AT THE LABORATORY OF E. C. DAWITT & COMPANY, CHICAGO, ILL.

Sold by W. H. ELLIS.

THE WORLD'S BEST BABY MEDICINE

25c-50c. ALL DRUGGISTS

PLEASANT-HARMLESS-EFFECTIVE

All Bowel Complaints-TEETHING TROUBLES-Write for Free Booklet BABY EASE CO., MACON, GA.

ESTABLISHED 1891.

WE LEAD IN WHISKIES.

ESTABLISHED IN 1881

OLD SHARPE WILLIAMS

Pure Fine Old Rye

By the Gallon $3.00. 4 full quarts $3.50. EXPRESS PREPAID

GEO. J. COLEMAN RYE

Pure Pennsylvania Rye Rich & Mellow. By the Gallon $2.75. 4 full quarts $3.00. EXPRESS PREPAID

ANVIL RYE-Pure, Substantial Family Whiskey-By the Gallon $2.50. 4 full quarts $2.90. EXPRESS PREPAID

CLIFFORD RYE

By the gallon $2.25. 4 full quarts $2.65

Doings In The Local Field

We save $10 to $25 on a sewing machine and give you the New Home with all the latest improvements. We sell them direct from our store and you don't have to pay for agent's profits or delivery. Statesboro Buggy & Wagon Co.

Mr. Wayne Donaldson was down from Register Wednesday. While in town he called at the News office and had his subscription marked up.

The best line of fresh groceries to be found in town at D. Barnes'.

If it's a buggy that you want, come to see a firm that makes buggies a specialty. We have anything on wheels. Statesboro Buggy & Wagon Co.

Mr. M. J. Green, one of the solid citizens of the 44th, was in the city one day this week.

When you want fire insurance see F. N. Grimes.

The lightest running machine is the New Home. We sell them and have the agency for Bulloch county. We will save you money on a machine and give you the best.

Statesboro Buggy & Wagon Co.

Phone us your order for groceries of all kinds. Our delivery wagon stands ready to answer your call.

D. Barnes.

Mrs. J. M. Ordham, of Macon, after spending some time visiting her brother, Mr. A. J. Hagins, returned home Sunday.

Full line of fresh meats always on hand at D. Barnes'.

Mr. W. H. Blitch went over to Abbeville this week on a business trip.

A carload of New Home sewing machines just received.

Statesboro Buggy & Wagon Co.

Best line of canned goods in the city.

D. Barnes.

Mr. J. W. Olliff and family have moved into their new home on South Main street.

Get our prices on one and two horse wagons. We can knock the spots out of competition on wagons. Don't fail to see us. Statesboro Buggy & Wagon Co.

The oil mill is paying $18 for upland seed.—Quite a good price.

I write fire insurance on both city and country property and will appreciate your business.

F. N. Grimes.

Andy Parish, one of the old time sets of Bulloch county colored citizens, was in to see us this week and marked up his subscription for another year. Andy is one of those of his race who is making a success farming in Bulloch. He has been sorely afflicted, having lost five of his children in a short time following each other, mention of which was made in these columns at the time.

Fresh creamery butter—always in stock.

Barnes' Meat Market.

I represent several of the best fire insurance companies in the state and will appreciate part of your business.

F. N. Grimes.

If its pure fresh groceries that you want don't forget that we are headquarters for everything that's good to eat. D. Barnes.

Wanted—To contract with some one owning teams to haul wood and logs near Savannah. Good prices paid for a hatter. Address: Choen-Kulman Carriage & Wagon Co., Savannah, Ga.

Another Thief Caught.

The negro who stole Mr. T. B. Thorne's bale of cotton has been located in Florida. Sheriff Kendrick went down after him and was expected back last night.

Retirement Dots.

What I shall have to say will appear in the sequel, for as yet I feel so great a dearth of writing materials in my brain that I must push forward and let the thoughts arrange themselves ad libitum.

My wealth is good, my income better, my neighbor convalescent, and my wife well. My folks left me today and I am sole proprietor of this my little home.

It gives me pain to look about me and see how little there is which could interest you in the repetition, our vicinity knows few changes, except changes of weather and tenants.

I rode down on Monday with a friend to the home of Mr. I. V. Simmons. We spent a long time very agreeably in strolling about his farm, gazing upon his buildings. I felt transported to some of those European palaces which we read about in the "Sun" and "South."

When I rode into Eureka I did not recognize the place. It had improved very rapidly. Bulloch is accustomed to do "big things."

J. H. Brown has been digging the nail on his already lovely home.

There is some splendid land around Eureka which is steadily advancing in price. A few years ago it could be bought for five to ten dollars an acre, now it is selling for twenty to forty dollars per acre. This shows which way the wind blows in Bulloch county. They want new settlers all through this section and hold out welcoming arms to all who promise to make good citizens.

I learn that the Odd Fellows at Mill Ray have made great inroads. There were formerly none. They are now building a respectable little.

Little as I meddle in politics or believe in panics, I am alarmed at the unexampled audacity of some of the candidates for governor of Georgia.

W. O. Darsey, Mill Ray, Ga.

Itching Piles.

If you are acquainted with a lady who is troubled with this distressing ailment you can do him no greater favor than to tell him to try Chamberlain's Salve. It gives instant relief.

Price 35 cents per box. Sold by all druggists.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight, to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected, grave trouble is ahead unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters, I found just what I needed, for it quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under W. H. Ellis' druggist, at 50c a bottle.

Geological Survey of Georgia.

W. S. YATES, State Geologist.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 15, 1905.

Mr. I. C. Clark, 4 Central Ave., Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir: I have made a thorough analysis of your Corn Whiskey and Apple Brandy, manufactured by you at the "Artesian" Distillery No. 22, located at South Atlanta, and at "Brandy" Distillery No. 302, also located at South Atlanta. Both of these liquors I can thoroughly recommend to invalids as a medicinal beverage of the highest degree of purity and to others who desire a good stimulant.

I have also analyzed the water used by you at your "Artesian" Distillery. It is of exceptional clearness and purity.

Your truly, EDGAR EBERHART, Ph. D., Chemist

PRICE LIST.

Old Artesian Corn . . . $.75 Qt. $2.50 Gal.

New Artesian Corn50 Qt. 2.00 Gal.

Old Apple and Peach Brandy . 1.00 Qt. 3.00 Gal.

New Apple and Peach Brandy . .75 Qt. 2.50 Gal.

Rye Whiskey50 Qt. to 4.00 Gal.

Gin1.00 Qt. to 3.00 Gal.

Watermelon Brandy . . . 1.00 Qt. 3.00 Gal.

I. C. Clark, Distiller.

Salesrooms: 4 Central Ave., 2 S. Pryor St.

I Am No Rectifier. Ask U. S. Gauger.

ORDINARY'S NOTICES

LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION. To all whom it may concern: Mrs. Annis L. Gould having, in proper form applied to me for permanent letters of administration on the estate of W. E. Gould, late of said county, this is to cite all and singular the creditors and next of kin of said W. E. Gould to be and appear at my office within the time allowed by law, to show cause, if any they can, why permanent administration should not be granted to Mrs. Annis L. Gould on said W. E. Gould's estate. Witness my hand and official signature this 1st day of Jan., 1906. S. L. MOORE, Ordinary.

LEAVE TO SELL LAND. Jas. F. Olliff, administrator of the estate of John Olliff, deceased, has, in proper form, applied to the undersigned for leave to sell land belonging to said deceased, and said application will be heard on the first Monday in February, next. This Jan. 2, 1906. S. L. MOORE, Ordinary.

LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION. To all whom it may concern: E. D. Holland having, in proper form, applied to me for permanent letters of administration on the estate of William Gould, late of said county, this is to cite all and singular the creditors and next of kin of William Gould to be and appear at my office within the time allowed by law, to show cause, if any they can, why permanent administration should not be granted to E. D. Holland on William Gould's estate. Witness my hand and official signature, this 1st day of Jan., 1906. S. L. MOORE, Ordinary.

LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION. To all whom it may concern: J. D. Rimes, having, in proper form, applied to me for permanent letters of administration on the estate of Jordan L. Rimes, late of said county, this is to cite all and singular the creditors and next of kin of Jordan L. Rimes to be and appear at my office within the time allowed by law, to show cause, if any they can, why permanent administration should not be granted to J. D. Rimes on said estate. Witness my hand and official signature, this 1st day of Jan., 1906. S. L. MOORE, Ordinary.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO APPLY FOR RAILROAD CHARTER. After four weeks' notice by publication, pursuant to the act of the State of Georgia, the undersigned will file in the office of the Secretary of State a petition for incorporation, of which the following is a copy: PETITION TO INCORPORATE RAILROAD, GEORGIA—CHATHAM COUNTY.

To the Honorable Philip Cook, Secretary of State:

The petitioners, G. Noble Jones, Charles G. Ogburn, C. G. Anderson, James A. Boyce, W. H. Stillwell, George S. Gargill, W. F. Constantine, Edwin A. Cohen, John R. Cowan and John R. Cowan, all of whom are residents of Savannah, said State and county, respectfully show:

First, That they desire to form a railroad corporation pursuant to the laws of the State of Georgia.

Second, That the desired railroad company that they desire to have incorporated is: "Statesboro and Middleburg Railroad," all of which are residents of Savannah, said State and county, respectfully show:

Third, That the length of the proposed line of railroad is about 10 miles, as near as can be estimated, will be about 100 miles.

Fourth, That said railroad will run from Statesboro, in Bulloch County, in a westerly direction, to a point at or near Garfield, in the city of Middleburg, in Chatham County, Georgia.

Fifth, That the amount of the proposed capital stock is Fifty Thousand ($50,000) Dollars, in shares of One Hundred ($100) Dollars, each, all of said stock to be common stock of equal dignity, with the right to increase same to any amount, not to exceed Three Hundred Thousand ($300,000) Dollars, and with the privilege of becoming business when ten percent (10%) of same shall have been paid in cash. Petitioners further desire that the corporation have the right to issue bonds and, in general, to perform such acts and enjoy such privileges as is customary in the cases of similar corporations.

Sixth, That they desire to be incorporated for and during the term of One Hundred (100) years.

Seventh, That the principal office of said corporation will be in the city of Savannah, Chatham County, Georgia.

Eighth, That petitioners do intend, in good faith, to go forward without delay, to secure subscriptions to the capital stock, construct, equip, maintain and operate said railroad.

Ninth, That they have given four weeks' notice of their intention to apply for a charter by publication, according to law.

WHEREFORE, petitioners pray that they, their successors and assigns, be incorporated under the laws of said State of Georgia.

This thirty-first day of January, 1906. J. D. Rimes, Charles G. Ogburn, C. G. Anderson, Jr., James A. Boyce, W. H. Stillwell, George S. Gargill, W. F. Constantine, Edwin A. Cohen, John R. Cowan, Ralph Medlin.

Petitioners.

Perhaps you don't realize that many pain poisons originate in your food, but some of you may feel a twinge of dyspepsia that will convince you. Dr. King's New Life Pills are guaranteed to cure all sickness due to poisons of undigested foods—or money back. 25c at W. H. Ellis' drug store. Try them.

Early Risers

The famous little pills.

A Painless Cure of Curable Pain

Never resign yourself to suffer pain. Women's pains are curable. They are the sign of dangerous conditions of the female organs, which should be promptly attended to or dangerous results will follow.

TAKE Wine of Cardui

IT COMES TO WOMAN'S RELIEF whenever she suffers from any of woman's biting and weakening pains. It not only compels the pains to stop, but it follows up and drives out the cause of the pains, which prevents them from coming back.

It makes you well. Try it. Sold everywhere in $1.00 bottles.

WRITE US A LETTER "WITHOUT A PAIN," writes Mary Shetter, of Poplar Bluff, Mo., "I can do my housework, although, before taking CARDUI, two doctors had done me no good. I can truly say I was cured by Cardui. I want every young lady to know of this wonderful medicine."

Address: Ladies' Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Wheeler and Wilson

Sewing Machine for more than fifty years the standard type of rotary shuttle movement for making the lock-stitch. Will hereafter be sold by the Singer Sewing Mfg. Co. We are now able to offer customers a chance of the Best Sewing Machine in the world. Lock-Stitch Machines, Oscillating, Ratory or Vibrating Shuttles. Prices to suit all purses.

Many styles of cabinet work. Needles for all makes. Prompt attention to all mail orders.

COURT HOUSE SQUARE, Statesboro, Ga.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE

Georgia, Bulloch County. Will be sold on the first Tuesday in February, next, at public outcry, at the court house in said county, within the legal hours of sale, to the highest bidder for cash, certain property of which the following is a full and complete description: One certain boiler and engine, one-half acre of land, lying and being in the 1220 G. M. district of said county, containing forty acres, more or less, bounded as follows: On the north by lands of David Smith, east by other lands of estate and Bethel church lot, west by lands of W. H. Alderman and south by lands of David Smith.

Also, at the same time and place one other tract of land, containing eighty-four acres, more or less, bounded as follows: On the north by lands of C. C. Deal, south by other lands of estate and Bethel church and W. H. Alderman, and west by lands of David Smith. Sold as the lands of the estate of John Campbell, late of said county deceased. Terms of sale: One-third cash, balance one and two years, deferred payments to bear interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum, from the date of sale.

This Jan. 11, 1906. JOSHUA CAMPBELL, Administrator of the estate of John Campbell deceased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

What you eat.

Is the latest and most successful machine of its kind ever used for distributing commercial fertilizers.

It is provided with all the attachments necessary to produce a complete Distributor; being attached to the Planet Jr. cultivator, which is still a cultivator endorsed by the leading farmers of the world.

The Bowen Distributor has many advantages over the average distributor, among which only a few are mentioned here:

1st. In covering the fertilizer, it makes a bed any width from 9 to 25 inches wide, and any height desired.

2nd. The hopper holds more than the average machines, hence it is not so filled so often. This is another time and labor saving advantage.

3rd. It distributes damp fertilizers more regularly than others, because the bottom of hopper is wider, and the outlet larger than that of other machines.

4th. It is the only machine on the market that distributes all brands of commercial fertilizers, whether dry or moist, with an even distribution. Being a knocking machine, it prevents the guano from adhering to top of hopper, the guano to feed from the center, thereby feeding with the same uniformity when almost empty as when full.

W. G. Raines, Statesboro, Ga., says: I have sold your Guano Distributor two seasons and have not had a kick. I consider them O. K.

BE SURE TO SEE THIS LEADER OF LEADERS.

For Sale at the following places:

Jas. F. Olliff, Register; J. W. Williams, Advertiser; M. J. Greene, Claxton; W. L. Street, Register; J. V. Bronson, Register; E. B. Simmons, Statesboro; W. G. Raines, Statesboro.

MANUFACTURED BY G. W. BOWEN, REGISTER, GA.

THE STATESBORO NEWS.

$1.00 A YEAR.

IDENTIFIED AS

ONE OF GANG.

Yeggman Held By Police.

Constable Mock Talked

With His Assailant.

Savannah, Ga., February 4.—

Positively identified as one of the three men who bound and gagged Constable Mock at Dover Thursday, the men being the same, it is believed, who committed robberies at Grays, near Macon, and at Forsyth and other places, James Dayton, alias Jas. Brooks, one of the cleverest yeggmen that has been caught here in a long while, is being held at the police station.

The man was arrested by Special Officer J. W. Fisher of the Seaboard Air Line at an early hour yesterday morning as a suspicious character, because he was found in a car of a Seaboard freight train near the car works. His partners were with him at the time, and the entire party could probably have been arrested, had it been known that the men were wanted. A little later several mounted men were sent to the scene and the vicinity was searched, but the men could not be found. Even then the police had no idea the men were safe robbers. It was not until Detective Murphy saw the man at the police station several hours later that it was suspected he had been mixed up in the Dover affair. He was bloody, but it being thought that he had simply been in a fight. As soon as Detective Murphy saw him he realized he had been shot.

REMEMBERED THE STORY. "Who's been peeping you?" asked the officer.

"Oh, I just had a little fight over Thirtieth," replied Dayton.

"You are one of that Dover gang," replied the officer. "One of the fellow was shot."

The police surgeon was sent for and the man's wounds treated. Eighteen shots were picked out of his face and arms.

Constable Mock was wired for and came to Savannah last night. He gave a good description of the man before he saw him and when he looked at him he positively identified him as one of the gang.

Face to face in the police station with the others around him, Constable Mock and the prisoner stood looking at each other.

Prior to the arrival of Mr. Mock the prisoner had been very silent and refused to talk. After being identified he admitted the part he had played at Dover, but he was both shrewd and very thorough in the interview and ended by trapping the constable instead of being trapped by him.

"We had you and tied you and could have killed you, couldn't we?" asked Dayton, or whatever his name is. "Oh, yes, you could have killed me then," admitted the constable.

"But we didn't do it; we went off and left you, didn't we?" "That's right," said the constable. "I say that for him; he could have killed me if he had wanted to."

The prisoner then calmly called upon those present to witness the statement and to remember it.

"I didn't want to get away; that's simply wanted to get away; that's all I wanted," declared the prisoner. "I didn't shoot to kill."

"Yes, but I could not tell that," remarked the constable meditatively. "I was at the wrong end of the sight."

The constable was very much exercised about a shotgun, which the men had taken from him, but Dayton could give no information as to what had become of it.

The officers have reason to believe the Dover trio are the same who have robbed safely in several small towns. When the trouble began at Dover, the men had been fixing up soap as it is used by yeggmen in blowing a cap on him when arrested, which he attempted to throw away.

The officers believe the trio has pulled off several jobs in this section, when Dayton asked permission to leave his cell for a few minutes. Once out of the cell the desperate man caught the turkey below his knees and sent him backwards over a stove. Dayton seized the officer's billy, struck him over the head and secured the keys to the prison. He left Christian, as he thought, unconscious, and made his way toward the outer door.

The turkey soon regained his feet and was making his way to give the alarm when the man turned savagely upon him again and severely beat him about the head and face. To cut off all chance of the alarm being sounded at headquarters he then jerked the telephone wires and signal alarm from the wall and dashed for the door.

WORKED STRONG BLUFF. The other prisoners had by this time begun to scream and cry of "He's killing Mr. Christian." It could be heard in the vicinity.

Fortunately the patrol wagon had just driven in with another prisoner and Driver L. P. Morgan hearing the cries made for the door. He was just in time, for already Dayton was putting the key to the lock and in another minute would have been out.

Morgan, who was unarmed, at this juncture displayed considerable nerve. He ordered the man to throw up his hands, at the same time making a movement towards his hip pocket as if to draw a gun.

Dayton, believing that another move meant death, threw up his hands.

A woman trusty took the keys that Dayton dropped and opened the door. Several members of the relief, which was just being sent out on the street, had by this time arrived on the scene and made for the man. Dayton, seeing all chance of escape was gone, ran back to his cell, where he put up a stubborn fight, until finally beaten into submission. In his cell Dayton slammed the door and did not want to let the officers in. When they rushed in he fought like a demon, and it was not until he had been clubbed to the floor that he finally gave up. He was covered with blood, and there were pools of blood on the floor. The police surgeon dressed the wounds of the turkey and the prisoner and it was found that both were badly done up. Though he had lost a good deal of blood, Dayton was as nifty as could be. With a twinkle in the one eye visible through the yards of bandages, he regarded the officers a second or so and remarked, "I feel like something has happened to me."

Dayton announced that he will get out of jail all right. It had been thought at first before the officers on the outside could get into the station, that Dayton had taken Turnkey Christian's pistol away from him, but such was not the case. When asked if he had gotten the pistol would he have shot anybody to get way, he registered, sarcastically:

"Oh, no; I wouldn't hurt anyone, with all those years before me."

Messages were received from Macon, Scotland and Forsyth to hold the man, as he was badly wanted. The Macon authorities wanted him for the robbery at Grays. R. L. Kitchen telephoned from Scotland that he would be here tonight to see if he could identify the prisoner. There was a safe blown at Scotland. The message from Forsyth stated that there was a $500 reward offered for the men who committed the robbery there.

MODERN MERCHANDISE.

The greatest merchandising event ever held in this part of Georgia is now in full blast at Turner-Glison Co.'s Economy Carnival sale. This very progressive firm believe there is nothing too good for their customers, and when they put on the Economy Carnival sale and erected those monster signs on top of their building, covering the front and interior of their store, some people said they were crazy. Taking this together with the liberal amount of printers' ink they have been using, some inexperienced person might well say they were throwing money to the winds, but if you will walk down the street and notice the crowds that daily visit their store you will change your mind. Every day their sale increases till they have doubled and tripled all their previous records. How well their customers are pleased you can judge by the loads of packages that are coming from this store. Every customer is well pleased, not only to tell their friends to go to the Carnival, where they find every thing just as advertised. It will pay all readers of the News to attend this Carnival sale.

S. B. Merrick, representing M. F. Shafer & Co., of Omaha, Neb., has charge of the sale. This firm is recognized all over the United States as expert salesmen and advertisers. Their salesmen are picked from the world's best, and how well they do their work may be seen at Turner-Glison Co.'s store. Their method of displaying merchandise makes it pleasing to the customers, every thing marked in plain figures, and shown in plain cases. Certain it is that nothing like it has ever been seen in this part of Georgia, the ever and steady increasing business speaks for itself.

This firm has thousands of dollars worth of merchandise that they are going to dispose of during this carnival. Their shelves, counters and every available space in the store is crowded full, all their large ware is in the rear of the building is filled full to the ceiling and all of this will be included in their Carnival sale.

This merchandising event is another forward step for Statesboro, as people are coming here to trade that have never been to Statesboro before, coming as far as thirty miles, which only goes to show that it pays to advertise through the News columns.

A Habit to Be Encouraged.

The mother who has acquired the habit of keeping on hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saves herself a great amount of uneasiness and anxiety. Coughs, cold and croup, to which children are susceptible are quickly cured by its use. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and if given as soon as the first symptoms of croup appear, it will prevent the attack. This remedy contains nothing but pure and health-giving ingredients, and is sold in a bottle of perfect security. Sold by all druggists.

Made Daring Dash

For His Liberty.

Savannah, Ga., February 5.—

About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon Jas. Dayton, alias Jas. Brooks, overpowered his guard at the barracks and made a bold dash for liberty.

Turnkey Christian had just locked all of the prisoners up to count them, when Dayton asked permission to leave his cell for a few minutes. Once out of the cell the desperate man caught the turkey below his knees and sent him backwards over a stove. Dayton seized the officer's billy, struck him over the head and secured the keys to the prison. He left Christian, as he thought, unconscious, and made his way toward the outer door.

The turkey soon regained his feet and was making his way to give the alarm when the man turned savagely upon him again and severely beat him about the head and face. To cut off all chance of the alarm being sounded at headquarters he then jerked the telephone wires and signal alarm from the wall and dashed for the door.

WORKED STRONG BLUFF. The other prisoners had by this time begun to scream and cry of "He's killing Mr. Christian." It could be heard in the vicinity.

Fortunately the patrol wagon had just driven in with another prisoner and Driver L. P. Morgan hearing the cries made for the door. He was just in time, for already Dayton was putting the key to the lock and in another minute would have been out.

Morgan, who was unarmed, at this juncture displayed considerable nerve. He ordered the man to throw up his hands, at the same time making a movement towards his hip pocket as if to draw a gun.

Dayton, believing that another move meant death, threw up his hands.

A woman trusty took the keys that Dayton dropped and opened the door. Several members of the relief, which was just being sent out on the street, had by this time arrived on the scene and made for the man. Dayton, seeing all chance of escape was gone, ran back to his cell, where he put up a stubborn fight, until finally beaten into submission. In his cell Dayton slammed the door and did not want to let the officers in. When they rushed in he fought like a demon, and it was not until he had been clubbed to the floor that he finally gave up. He was covered with blood, and there were pools of blood on the floor. The police surgeon dressed the wounds of the turkey and the prisoner and it was found that both were badly done up. Though he had lost a good deal of blood, Dayton was as nifty as could be. With a twinkle in the one eye visible through the yards of bandages, he regarded the officers a second or so and remarked, "I feel like something has happened to me."

Dayton announced that he will get out of jail all right. It had been thought at first before the officers on the outside could get into the station, that Dayton had taken Turnkey Christian's pistol away from him, but such was not the case. When asked if he had gotten the pistol would he have shot anybody to get way, he registered, sarcastically:

"Oh, no; I wouldn't hurt anyone, with all those years before me."

Messages were received from Macon, Scotland and Forsyth to hold the man, as he was badly wanted. The Macon authorities wanted him for the robbery at Grays. R. L. Kitchen telephoned from Scotland that he would be here tonight to see if he could identify the prisoner. There was a safe blown at Scotland. The message from Forsyth stated that there was a $500 reward offered for the men who committed the robbery there.

MODERN MERCHANDISE.

The greatest merchandising event ever held in this part of Georgia is now in full blast at Turner-Glison Co.'s Economy Carnival sale. This very progressive firm believe there is nothing too good for their customers, and when