$1.00 A YEAR.

WILL WAIT TILL STATE PRIMARY.

To Nominate Members of the General Assembly and County Officers.

At a meeting of the democrats of Bulloch county, held in the court house Saturday, it was decided to wait till the state primary for the nomination of members of the general assembly and county officers. There was a strong sentiment for an early primary, but owing to the fact that it will be a busy time of the year and the people have not had a sufficient time to register, it was deemed best to postpone it and let all elections come together. The meeting was called to order by Chairman A. M. Deal, who stated the object of the meeting to be the election of a democratic executive committee, for the next two years, and fixing time and rules for the approaching democratic primary.

On motion A. M. Deal was re-elected chairman of the committee and Hinton Booth was elected secretary.

The following resolution, endorsing Col. J. A. Brannen for congress, was passed:

"Resolved, By the democrats of Bulloch county, in mass-meeting assembled, that we endorse unanimously the candidacy of our distinguished fellow-citizen, J. A. Brannen, for congress, and we commend him to the voters of the First congressional district."

On motion the meeting adjourned for ten minutes for the voters present from each district to name members of the committee, and after calling to order again the following named were 44th Dist.—M. J. Roshing, J. G. Novilla, A. L. McCorkle.

45th—J. A. Brannen, Franklin, G. R. Trappnell, J. G. Williams.

FISH!

We have Shad and Mullet every day when we can get them. We are getting some large roe shad from Ogeechee river. We have Oysters when the weather is cold enough to keep them.

What is better than a good mess of FISH?

It appears to be a genuine pleasure to them to tell their neighbors and friends, and especially those who are ailing and cannot get relief, all about what Plant Juice remedies did for them. The endorsements are so strong as to convince everyone, and they are cheerfully lending assistance to Col. Dillingham in his introduction of Plant Juice remedies into as many of the good homes of Statesboro and Bulloch county as possible, with the result that the druggists who were fortunate in securing a stock of these famous remedies are having good sales of them and are encouraged to handle them on a more extensive scale. This is born out by the statements of the druggists themselves, since Col. Dillingham's departure.

Among those who have so recently been benefited by Plant Juice remedies is J. L. Sturtevant, the well known harness man, from whom came a tape worm over 70 feet long and all, after he had taken only a part of a dollar bottle of Plant Juice. He suffered all sorts of torture for several years before, said as a gold well man today, sound as a gold dollar and he ascribes it all to Plant Juice.

Another who was permanently cured is G. S. Sheppard, the well known merchant. He has had no sign of rheumatism since he took the medicine over a month ago, and he believes that he is cured for all time. Then there is H. L. Finger the leading painter. He had a very bad case, but after three days treatment he was entirely well, and the beauty of it is

Tom Watson's Magazine Barred By Union Labor.

Washington, March 31.—(Special.)—Tom Watson's Magazine has been placed on the "unfair" list by the labor organization of country.

The announcement of this fact is made in The Trades Unionist, official organ of the Typographical Union here. This is made on the authority of Typographical Union No. 6, of New York, which includes Tom Watson's Magazine in its list of "unfair" publications. This magazine is published by the same company, which publishes Town Topics. The company has resisted the demand of the printers for an eight-hour day, and is accordingly placed under the ban by the unions. In commenting upon the interesting fact that the magazine controlled by one who has so frequently declared himself a friend of organized labor, the Trades Unionist says, "Perhaps it is not true that Tom Watson cannot control the policy of his company toward its employees, but at least he can take his name away from the magazine."

Big Audience Hears Russell

Payetteville, Ga., March 21.—Judge Russell, during the dinner hour of court, addressed a very large and sympathetic audience. In his address he stressed the point of equalization of taxation, and went very much into detail as to the property that should be taxed so as to lessen the taxes of the individual taxpayer.

When Judge Russell touched upon the disfranchisement feature as proposed by some of the candidates, he demonstrated that the measure would disfranchise more than 3,000 confederate veterans, besides bringing disfranchisement to many other voters. He said that it was worse than folly to transfer from the hands of the people of Georgia, to the federal court, the right to determine the qualifications of a voter. He urged that all this talk of disparagement of the candidates is beneath the dignity of the office of governor, and that a man should look to higher things than traducing the character of his opponent. That it was not the wealth of a candidate that qualified him for office, and neither was it the absence of riches that entitled a man to be governor, but the question should be decided upon merit, and in favor of someone who was willing to see that the law was enforced in every particular, and that impartial and exact justice was meted out to every citizen. In order to do so, some one should be selected for the position who was in touch with the great masses of the people.

A Correction.
In our issue of Friday last we were misinformed about the death of Mrs. T. J. Grice. The News stated that the interment was made at Eureka church. This was a error, the interment being made, by her request, in Laurel Grove cemetery in Savannah. Mrs. Grice died on the 15th inst. at 4:30 a. m.

ACCOUNTS OF FIRMS AND INDIVIDUALS SOLICITED

Dropped Dead.
Mr. Edmund Kennedy, Jr., better known as "babe," while at work in the field, alone with a colored man, was seized yesterday morning with a stroke of heart failure and expired in a few minutes. The negro, noticing that Mr. Kennedy was about to fall, caught him and held him in his arms till breath left him, which was only a minute or two. Mr. Kennedy was a son of Mr. Edmund Kennedy, Sr., who lives in Statesboro, and leaves a large family dependent on him. He had been troubled with heart trouble for some little time. His death is a great shock to his many friends in this section.

A FEW QUESTIONS

FOR 'HAY SEED'

Some time ago the News extended its columns to the friends of Hon. Hoke Smith, provided they signed their names to what they wrote. We meant by that that their names were to go in print in the paper, and not furnished to be held in the office, as has been done in this case. Anyway the article, which appears elsewhere in this issue, furnishes considerable food for discussion, therefore we give it space.

The gentleman starts out by saying he is an Estill man, but believes that the old Vets and south Georgians didn't stick to him last time, hence he grabs at the tail end of this excuse to catch on to Hoke Smith's lead and himself line up with the very despisable Atlanta rab that he talks so fluently about.

He is mistaken about south Georgia not standing by Estill before. They did it almost to a man. Estill carried this county by 1,000 majority, and carried every county in the First congressional district, with the exception of one, and nearly every one in the Eleventh district. If he gets as many votes this time as he did before with six in the race—all from north Georgia with the exception of himself—he would be elected.

We note that "Hay Seed" gives as a reason for supporting Hoke Smith that said Hoke Smith has gone populist.

Knowing the writer as we do to be a middle of the road populist we will take the liberty to put a few questions to him:

First. Suppose that Hoke, whom you think has joined your populist issue, should be defeated in the primary and Clark Howell, who you profess to despise, should be the nominee, and that Mr. Watson or Judge Hines should seize the opportunity, take advantage of the split Hoke has and run on the populist ticket for governor in the general election? In that event who would you support? If you supported Hines or Watson you would not be a good democrat and have no business voting in a democratic primary. If you supported Howell, as vile as you think he is, against men who stand with you then you would not be a good populist and would not be worthy of the name. When, in that event, Hoke Smith went on the stump for the nominee (which would be his duty) and should tell you that Hines and Watson were republican hirelings, etc., (like he did two years ago) would you follow his lead then as you do now? An answer to this question would shed some light on passing events.

Can you tell us of a single instance in Hoke Smith's long and illustrious career where he did not desert and betray his friends whenever it suited his convenience to do so? Tell us who it was who sat up in Cleveland's cabinet and fattened sleek, while you farmers were making three-cents cotton, and as soon as old Grover got into trouble deserted and betrayed him and went over to the crowd who had deserted and abused him. Tell us what candidate for governor it was who was ashamed to mention the name of the man who had made him in a recent speech in Statesboro.

Suppose that after Hoke has caught all the suckers he needs with populist bait and lands in the governor's chair, and he sells out to J. Pierpont Morgan, borrowing fifty thousand dollars, again using the governorship as collateral this time, instead of the editorial policy of his newspaper as he did before—wouldn't you feel "sicker" like a sick nigger that won't pass current at a soda fountain?

Suppose that in event of his election a disfranchisement bill should become a law, and you should be asked to sit on the board of registrars and being desirous as you are to protect the illiterate white man, and they started to swear you in to do the thing right and just between man and man, would you buck then or go ahead and perjure yourself? Now, which would you do? Suppose you did the latter and someone should indict you for perjury, you should get into the penitentiary (where all perjurers belong) and Governor Hoke Smith should refuse to pardon you out, wouldn't you feel in that case like some thing had stepped on you? Suppose that if you were protected by the grandfather clause and a mulatto negro stepped up and swore that his daddy was a white man that his mammy was a negro, and if his mammy was a legal voter in said his daddy was a legal voter in 1867; would you pass him without requiring him to stand the test? If you refused him, then wouldn't you perjure yourself and be open to indictment for that offense?

Suppose that you and Hoke should get through the property qualification that Sam Jones says he is with you on—in other words a man worth one so much words a man wealth before he property and one of these negroes can vote—and one of these negroes who own land and mules were to come up to register, what would you do? Suppose, following in his footsteps, a good, honorable white man whom fortune has not smiled on, who, with a wife and children depending upon his daily labors for support, were to offer to register and his only worldly asset was a good, virtuous wife and a house full of little children, what would you do? If you refused the negro under your law would be a false swearer, and if you permitted the white man to register wouldn't you be a light-register candidate for the penitentiary as well? Which do you believe is the best and safest lieve is the best and safest guard of the American people, the almighty dollar, as set out in your scheme, or the unpurchasable and undriven manhood of the same as advocated by your opponents? Tell us which.

Suppose that when Hoke Smith is elected governor on your vote he turns to his old tricks again like he did when he was in Cleveland's cabinet and turns off a lot of deserving white men and places negroes in their places. Suppose he should reward Bishop Turner's entire family with an office again as he did before, wouldn't that jar you? Suppose that when he is doing now, that he became one of the ring again and ordered out the militia just like Terrell and the balance will do when "the brave boys" go to lynch a negro, wouldn't you feel ashamed that you were taken in by a dose of sucker bait?

You speak of the lobbyist in the halls of the legislature. Tell us, if you know, what power Hoke Smith or any other governor will have to drive these men out of the legislature halls. Have you the heard of the governor's office ever being lobbied by? Do you want a man elected governor who you can approach? Do that no one can approach? Do you suppose that south Georgia will ever elect Estill or any one else if everybody does like you are doing—desert him—and follow off after strange gods? Do you suppose that if Estill is defeated this time that south Georgia will have another candidate soon? How long has it been since he filled that office? You say 80 years, and, for once, you are right. Do you suppose that we will ever have an opportunity to again vote for one of the old veterans who went with you through the four long and bloody years that tried men's souls? If you, the men who waded through blood and bared your breast to shot and shell are going to desert him then what are we who have grown up since the war to do? Are we to be more patriotic than you? If you feel toward Col. Estill as you profess don't you believe it your duty to stand to him though all others forsake him?

For fear we are growing too long we will close by saying that "Hay Seed" can have the benefit of these columns to explain the above questions, provided, however, that next time he permits the use of his name at the bottom of his article.

THE YOKE OF DEBT.

THE heaviest Yoke mankind has to bear is the Yoke of Debt. There really is but little excuse for this Yoke of Debt in the majority of cases. Debt is generally caused by living right up to every dollar of an income. When trouble, loss, sickness, death or some unusual expense occurs, there is nothing left to tide over.

It means so little to you now to save out a few dollars every week; so little that it seems trifling. But start. Make your first deposit—the account will grow, and you will never have to fear the Yoke of Debt.

Our buyer has just returned from a fifteen days search through the two leading wholesale markets of the country.

You know the rest. Get ready to make your spring purchases.

If you fail to get your share of these bargains don't blame us; we are doing our best to let you know; we are sending word to all the people. If you know us, you know that we always flood the market with bargains on the return of our buyer from the markets. We always have some of our competitors do not like our way of doing business. We can't help that. We believe in the thing that does the greatest good to the greatest number. Of course our method has a depressing influence on prices. When we go into the market we go to buy goods to sell for Cash!

"Any old thing" will sell on a credit and at almost any price, but for the cash we must have correct goods and at prices that draw the crowds. When a merchant offers you an article "at cost," or "half price," be sure to get our price on that article before buying. There is a reason for everything, you know, and merchants are in business to make money. We have purchased exceptional bargains in every line of wearing apparel for the spring from manufacturers and wholesale merchant that we are going to throw on the market for less money than these goods are worth at wholesale. We will explain how we do it. Watch for our MILL END SALE which will be open in full blast as soon as we can get the goods in and mark them. They are now arriving. The Gubernatorial Situation.

Editor News:—It seems that the campaign now carried on by several aspirants for the office of governor of Georgia has nearly reached the boiling point, and it behooves all voters to study that question for themselves and not be led about by the little rills throughout the state in the interest of that Atlanta ring. While I am not "stuck on" Mr. Hoke Smith, and rather favor Mr. Estill because he is an old veteran, yet it seems that Mr. Smith has got the inside track, and of the two evils I choose the lesser. My reasons for favoring Hoke Smith are several. In the first place there is a great deal being said about south Georgia being entitled to it, but I fear that this section lost its chance four years ago, when south Georgia showed that it had lost all sectional pride and being awaked for almost a hundred years, partly for Terrell for governor, instead of supporting Estill solidly. With the help he got in middle and north Georgia he would have been elected governor four years ago. I think the chances are rather slim for the Colonel, though I would rather see him on the winning side.

In the next place I would like to see that Atlanta ring busted up, for it is well known that four years ago the office of governor was promised to Mr. Howell, Messrs. Atkinson, Candler and Terrell all came along in succession, and now is Mr. Howell's time; and who knows but what they now have someone else on the slate for the office four years hence? The people, heretofore, had no voice in naming the governor; all that was done by that same ring which is behind Mr. Howell now, and the people, like a flock of sheep, followed through the gap and voted as they were told by the ringsters. It is time for the people to throw off that yoke, think for themselves, vote according to their own opinions and assert their independence and manhood and not be tools for these never-to-be-satisfied office-seekers, whom you can find around the public crib.

It seems that Mr. Smith's platform favors several reforms in Georgia, where the others are silent. He says he will do all he can to abolish the "third house." Have the people forgotten the scandal in our legislature a few years ago, when they had to pass a resolution barring anybody not a member of the legislature from a seat on the floor? The lobbyist at that time had more control on the floor than the members themselves.

Then, too, we know that the railroads are controlling both the state and national government, and if not stopped we will be hewers of wood and drawers of water for them in the near future. That plank of disfranchisement suits me exactly. If some of the New England States can put a property and educational qualification on their people we can, too, and no white man can be barred and no black man can be barred. Don't we all know how the negro was drunk and asked the question: "What is my name this time, boss?"

Further, Mr. Smith favors some of the old populist demands, which are badly needed to bring this government back to its original purpose—a government of, by and for the people and not the money power. There seems to be a revolt over the whole country against the power that has been dominating this government ever since the war. The desire has been money! money! money! by the few, to the establishment of white slavery a thousand times worse than the slavery that existed before the war. Thank God, the people are beginning to open their eyes, and I hope they will think and vote according to their opinions and let no one dictate how they shall vote. If they do so, maybe it will keep our government from drifting into a monarchy. May God save us from such a calamity. Hayseed.

Give Up To Die.

B. Spiegel, 1304 N. Virginia St., Kansasville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder ailments which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians called no good and I was practically given up to die and I was recommended to FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE. After taking the second bottle I was entirely cured. Why not let it help you? W. H. Ellis."

Bowen's Guano Distributor

Is the latest and most successful machine of its kind ever used for distributing commercial fertilizers. It is provided with all the attachments necessary to produce a complete Distributor; being attached to the Planet Jr. cultivator, which is still a cultivator endorsed by the leading farmers of the world.

The Bowen Distributor, among which only a few are mentioned here: 1st. In covering the fertilizer, it makes a bed any width from 9 to 25 inches wide, and any height desired. 2nd. The hopper holds more than the average machine, hence it is not to be filled so often. This is another time and labor saving advantage. 3rd. It distributes damp fertilizers more regularly than others, because the bottom of hopper is wider, and the outlet larger than that of other machines. 4th. It is the only machine on the market with an even distribution. Being a commercial fertilizer, it prevents the guano from adhering to top of hopper, a knocking machine, it prevents the guano from being so constructed as to cause which causes an irregular feeding. The hopper is so constructed as to cause the guano to feed from the center, thereby feeding with the same uniformity when almost empty as when full.

TESTIMONIALS.

W. G. Rainey, Statesboro, Ga., says: I have sold your Guano Distributor two seasons and have not had a kick. I consider them O. K. Hon. J. J. E. Anderson has used these Distributors and recommends them to the farmers of Bulloch county as the best guano distributor he has used. We also have testimonials from other users: J. W. Druggist Talks To Reporter.

Tells Why Col. Dillingham's Remedies Acquire Such Rapid Popularity.

THE above picture of the man and fish is the trademark of Scott's Emulsion and is the synonym for strength and purity. It is sold almost all the civilized countries of the globe.

Col. F. A. Dillingham's Plant Juice, the medicine which is creating such a furore among Statesboro people, and which is being introduced here by the local druggists, is practically a new remedy. It was first introduced by Col. Dillingham about a year ago and has since made him a fortune which is estimated above the half-million mark. Although these remedies have been in the drug-stores only a few weeks, the work they are accomplishing is the talk of this section.

Although very busy, Ellis yesterday gave five minutes of his time to the discussion of these remedies here and elsewhere. Upon being asked, "Mr. Ellis how do you account for the extreme popularity of Plant Juice remedies in the section where they are advertised, and immense interest they arouse so quickly?" He amusingly replied: "Any popularity which they may acquire is not by any means due to salesmanship or advertising. All success which has come to them is due entirely to the formula which is used in preparing them."

"It is not on account of any special liking for me that people come to my drug-store to shake my hand, as you have seen them do while waiting here but it is simply owing to the fact that this Plant Juice which I am selling helps sick people and the sick help me."

He said that he had been fitted in the most grateful person in the world.

"We who are unable to realize what days and weeks and months of suffering means. Good health, after all, is worth more than anything else in the world, and being able to help these poor sufferers, with little or no hope before them, for this reason, and this only, do I win the confidence and respect of my patrons."

"While Col. Dillingham believes in sharing to a certain extent what he has, as a fortunate enough to make, with less fortunate brethren, the money that he distributes for this purpose reduces only a small portion of the friends which I am proud to say the remedies acquire throughout the country."

"Dillingham's medicine is sold by me at a very reasonable price, which puts it within the reach of all. Every sale I make is with the understanding that if it fails to be a benefit I return the money. Many people, knowing that my word is good, purchase from me who would not otherwise, and it would surprise you if I were to tell you the small percentage of those, owing to the fact that they have not been benefited."

This conversation took place at Ellis' drug store, and at the time there were fully a dozen people waiting to obtain an interview with him.

Owing to the many people outside of Statesboro who are anxious to secure some of the wonderful remedies, a special mail order department was organized a few days ago to send medicine in answer to letters received. The amount of business which this department is taking care of is stupendous. Last week there were received at the drug store over a dozen letters, enclosing anywhere from one to five dollars, asking either for Dillingham's Plant Juice or the Plant Juice Liniment, or both.

The clerk who has charge of this department for Ellis, in speaking of the immense amount of medicine he is supplying, said: "From almost the first day of Important to Sea Island Cotton Growers.

It was unanimously agreed at the inter-state meeting of the Sea Island Cotton association at Valdosta, February 8th, that the only plan by which the farmers could reasonably obtain a better price for their next crop was to reduce the acreage twenty-five per cent. from the acreage planted in 1905, and to improve the quality of the staple as much as lay in their power.

The association pledged to do this.

Let every farmer pledge himself to this policy and carry into practical operation the advice of the Sea Island Cotton association.

The association appeals to every farmer to cut his acreage twenty-five per cent. and to increase his food supply crops proportionately.

If these plans are followed good prices can be secured and our independence secured.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. JULIA SWINSON

Departed this life Jan. 10th, 1906.

Gone but not forgotten. Truly, a good woman is gone—one who will be missed by all who knew her, for she was so kind to all. Especially did she try to help all who were sick or troubled in any way. She had been a sufferer for about a year, and her death therefore came as no surprise to the friends.

"We send one bottle of Plant Juice or two bottles of Plant Juice Liniment upon receipt of one dollar, or more in proportion. The Plant Juice is a kidney, stomach, liver and blood medicine, and is used in all cases of catarrh, stomach trouble, liver and bladder complaints, torpid liver and indigestion, and a grand spring tonic, and the Plant Juice Liniment for partial paralysis, stiff joints, deafness, and pains. The offer to send medicine by express will continue indefinitely."

Slayer of John Toplin is Captured After a Desperate Chase and Fight.

Meinhard, Ga., March 27.—Albert Peoples, the negro who killed John Toplin in the woods near Exley last Friday, is in Effingham jail to await trial for murder.

When Toplin was suspected and a warrant was sworn out before Justice of the Peace R. A. Zipperer, charging him with murder. The negro was arrested by Constable Helmsley and was given a hearing and committed for trial. In the meantime Constable Davis and a posse had found Toplin's body in the swamp, where he was killed, and had begun a search for his slayer.

When Toplin did not return to Shearhouse's mill with the other timber hands parties were sent after him. Blood was found in the road where he had been working, brains were found on a log some distance from the road. It is evident from this that the negro had been killed and a search was at once begun for his body, which was soon found.

After Peoples had been committed for trial he was handcuffed and tied and Constable Helmsley and a deputy started with him for the place where the inquest over Toplin was to be held. On the way he was asked permission to get a drink of water from a ditch by the road. As soon as he was let out of the buggy in which he was being carried by the officers he started.

Constable Helmsley opened fire and shot five times. He hit the negro once, wounding him in the leg, but the wound did not clip him. Running through a field of R. A. Zipperer, the negro was seen by A. Lawton Zipperer, who, with his father, gave chase with gun and dog. Mr. Zipperer shot once to intimidate him, but failed to stop him. The negro reached the swamp with ten men in hot pursuit. Dodging men and dogs he got back into the field and hid in a palmetto patch. He lay concealed about an hour when he was found by John Dower. He ran again with Dower in hot pursuit and shooting at him.

Running about half a mile he came within gunshot of F. C. Helmsley, who fired at him twice with his rifle, but missed him. Peoples succeeded in reaching the swamp again. Helmsley's horse bogged down and he dismounted and ran the negro down. He fought like a tiger, but Helmsley finally knocked him down with his rifle and he was securely tied. He confessed having killed and burned Toplin.

Warrants Are Issued.

New York, March 27.—Magistrate Mose, as a result of a conference with District Attorney Jerome, is said to have issued three warrants for three insurance officials whose names have been prominently identified with evidence adduced by the Armstrong investigation committee.

In the criminal court building this afternoon it is reported that the men for whom warrants have been issued are Postmaster General George B. Cortelyou, chairman of the Republican national committee; Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of that committee; and George W. Perkins, former vice president of the Mutual Life.

This apparently is the answer of Jerome to Judge O'Sullivan, who charged the grand jury yesterday not to permit the district attorney to take the insurance case away from them, but to demand that all the evidence should be produced for their consideration.

New York, March 27.—Magistrate Mose, as a result of a conference with District Attorney Jerome, is said to have issued three warrants for three insurance officials whose names have been prominently identified with evidence adduced by the Armstrong investigation committee.

In the criminal court building this afternoon it is reported that the men for whom warrants have been issued are Postmaster General George B. Cortelyou, chairman of the Republican national committee; Cornelius N. Bliss, treasurer of that committee; and George W. Perkins, former vice president of the Mutual Life.

This apparently is the answer of Jerome to Judge O'Sullivan, who charged the grand jury yesterday not to permit the district attorney to take the insurance case away from them, but to demand that all the evidence should be produced for their consideration.

Brinson—Clark.

At the home of Mr. T. J. Malone, of Mill Ray on March 26th, Mr. James Clark and Miss Dalise Brinson were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony. J. J. Malone officiating. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Clark, of Mill Ray, and one of the best farmers of the district. Miss Brinson is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Brinson, of Munlan, Burke county. The ceremony was witnessed by quite a number of their friends and after congratulations by them the young couple left for their home, with wishes of a long and happy life.
