THE NEWS.

Published at Statesboro, Ga.
TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.

By The Statesboro News Publishing Co.

The new official census of Germany gives a population of over 60,000,000. This is about one-half more than France or Great Britain and Ireland have and one-fourth less than the two nations combined.

The Deaver Republican thinks that all any man has to do who feels that he is not getting a square deal from the world is to "stand in the open and cry his wrongs, and men will hear him and be quick to help him right them."

A government bulletin just issued says that the trade of the United States with the Scandinavian countries, under which are included Sweden, Denmark and Norway, amounts to thirty-two million dollars a year, of which six millions is imports and twenty-six millions exports to those countries. These are the figures for the fiscal year 1905.

America's coal resources, both anthracite and bituminous, are among her greatest assets, and have contributed more than any other single product to make the United States the leading industrial nation of the world. It needed 61,000,000 tons of anthracite to keep the wheels of American commerce spinning in 1905, while only 57,000,000 tons were needed in 1904.

A pretty war of skirts is being fought out in small German town, where a League Against the Trailing Skirt has been formed with the support of the Mayor, who has even gone so far as to regulate in an edict the length of the trailing garment. It is this last piece of municipal tyranny that has aroused the long suffering woman of fashion, and she has formed a counter Union of the Liberty of Dress. So far the league is in the ascendant, for it has just fined the Mayor triumphantly, while the union scorn such methods of bribery.

In view of the satisfactory performance of H. M. S. Amethyst, a cruiser fitted with turbine propelled machinery, and of a constantly increasing number of such installations in vessels of the merchant marine, the British Admiralty has decided to adopt this means of propulsion in all war ships provided for by this year's naval appropriations. The vessels to be built during this year are four armored ships, a squadron of turbine-propelled battleships will be added to less than three years. It may not be very long, predicts the Philadelphia Record, before the reciprocating steam engine will be out of date as the turbo, on shore as well as on sea.

The quiet and unobtrusive life of farmers, leads often to what the Indiana Farmer calls "the mistaken idea," held by city people, that the influence of the agriculturist upon the social and business interests of our country is very slight. Let those who hold this opinion reflect that the farmer feeds and clothes the world, and from the farm come the best men in the business and political life of our land. The lessons on the farm of labor, economy, independence and honesty, in the formative period of character, have been the secret of success of many of our merchant princes and notable statesmen. That the influence of the farm is felt in numerous ways in all walks of life is not to be disputed. It is the one profession which all others must honor for its power and solidarity.

The process of getting ripe rich very fast is a simple enough; you have only to buy shares when they are down, explain the Philadelphia Record, and sell them when they are up. If they go down after you buy it is because you did not work with the system; you bought too soon. Mr. Frick is credited with having bought 100,000 shares of Reading when they were low and having sold them at or above 100 to "a well known plunger" of New York who convinced by their advance that they would advance still further. On the contrary, they declined to 125%, at which point Mr. Frick began buying them again, and he is now credited with the ownership of the 60,000 shares and several millions of the other fellow's money. The system is perfectly simple, but the difference between Mr. Frick and the "well known plunger" is that the former worked it and the latter did not. It takes a good deal of nerve, and perhaps a good deal of knowledge, and possibly some luck, to buy what every one else is selling and to sell when every one else is buying, but it is a sure cure for poverty.

GEORGIA BRIEFS

Georgia's Oldest Woman Dead.

Elizabeth Gates, 114 years of age, said to be the oldest person in the state, died at her home in Brunswick a few days ago. She had been married three times and leaves four children, twenty-three grandchildren and nineteen great-grandchildren.

Elks Jubilant Over Victory.

Macon Elks have had hundreds of letters showered into their hall of expressing congratulations to the men who won the fight against the negro Elks' organization before Judge Rowland. Macon Elks are more than pleased that they had been able to stop the organization of a similar order among Macon negroes.

Waynesboro Wants Utilities.

The Wayneboro city council has passed an ordinance calling for an election to be held on the proposition of bonding the city to the amount of $60,000 for the purpose of establishing waterworks and electric light plant and a sewerage system.

Georgia Druggists to Meet.

The thirty-first annual meeting of the Georgia Pharmaceutical Association will be held in the banquet hall of the New Kimball house in May 22 and 23. While the arrangement for entertaining these visitors and the program for the meeting have not yet been arranged, it is certain that they will be elaborate. It is expected that from 100 to 150 delegates will attend the meeting.

King's Daughters Elect Officers.

The convention of King's Daughters closed at Waycross after electing the following officers for the ensuing term: Miss Mary B. Campbell of Augusta, state secretary; Mrs. T. J. Darling of Waycross, recording secretary; Miss Law of Gainesville, treasurer; executive committee, Miss Hubbard and Miss Kate Graham of Savannah; Mrs. W. O. Ballard of Atlanta.

A New Town Inaugurated.

The new town of Woodland, on the Atlantic coast of Talbotton, on the Atlantic and Birmingham railroad, was inaugurated last Saturday, the address for the day being delivered by Colonel O. D. May of Talbotton. One of the interesting functions of the day was a union picnic of public schools of the section.

Mayors Meet in June.

A full program of the June session of the Georgia League of Municipalities, to be held at Augusta, June 13-14, has just been announced by Mayor Bridges of Augusta, president of the body, and members working up this program have succeeded in getting together a strong list of speakers, and great interest is to be taken in the important matters which will be considered.

Rounding Up Vagrants.

As the result of indictments returned by the special grand jury a host of vagrant negroes have been rounded up in America by the sheriff and jailed upon charges of vagrancy. The grand jury affirmed the situation thoroughly and in addition to indictments against negroes, included numerous whites of the half world as well. All the women prominently furnished bond for appearance in court three weeks hence.

For Improvement of Roads.

The people of DeKalb county are determined to improve their public thoroughfares, and with this end in view they have decided to issue nearly a quarter of a million dollars' worth of bonds, the money for the sale to be used solely to better the roads of the county. This action was decided upon at a great mass meeting in DeKalb, which was attended by leading and influential citizens from every section of the county.

Flames Destroyed Depot and Cotton.

Fire, presumably started by rats eating matches, destroyed the Central of Georgia railway depot at Marshallville, and two cotton warehouses with entire contents. The loss will probably reach $200,000, and is covered by insurance. The warehouses burned were those of the Frederick & Frederick and that of H. W. Taylor. The Frederick warehouse contained one hundred bales of cotton, and the Taylor warehouse 120 bales.

Want Lower Rates on Peaches.

Preparations for a persistent campaign against what is regarded excessive freight and refrigerating rates on the shipment of Georgia peaches was begun by the transportation committee of the Georgia Peach Growers' association when the committee met at Atlanta a few days ago. The outcome of the meeting was the adoption of a resolution to the effect that the interstate commerce commission should be applied to immediately and that a case be opened looking to reduction of the present exorbitant charges.

Crooks Under Heavy Bond.

C. H. Clark and Thomas Newman, the supposed yegmen arrested in the case of the shooting at the depot, were released on heavy bond.

Cannon house in Atlanta a few weeks ago, were bound over by justice of the peace J. P. Carson at Forsyth a few days ago in the sum of fifty thousand dollars each, in default of which they were taken back to the Bibb county jail, where they will be held until the superior court convenes at Forsyth on the third Monday in August.

Clark and Newman were arraigned on two counts, that of highway robbery, in that they held up and robbed the Forsyth marshal of his pistol, and safe blowing, it being held they blew open the safe of the Trio Music Company at Forsyth. Justice Carson fixed a bond of $25,000 on each count for each of the prisoners.

Wants to Meet Lawyer in Hades.

John Rawlings, convicted of instigating the murder of the Carter children, has written a most vindictive letter to one of the attorneys engaged in the prosecution. In it Rawlings said that he expected to meet and know the attorney in hell. "After being 10,000 years in Hades, I expect to rise up and point the finger of scorn at you and cry, hurrah for the supremacy of the law and the punishment of the wicked," calling the devil to witness what I have to say to you."

Rawlings further says that when he reaches the lower regions he will tell why he left at the river the back of his hand to the attorney who from which he hired to go to the morning after the murder of the Carter children, and many other things in connection with the case which have not been told.

As already announced a respite to Friday, June 8, has been granted Rawlings, his two sons—Jillson and Jesse—and to Al Moore, their negro accomplice, by Governor Thomas. It is the third and last interference by the governor. Judge Mitchell will again pass sentence of death upon the four men convicted as well as a life sentence upon Leonard Rawlings.

State Gets Syrup Station.

In the agricultural appropriation bill just passed by the house, there is incorporated a proviso for the transfer of the syrup experiment station at Waycross.

The provision in the appropriation bill is as follows: "That the secretary of agriculture is authorized to transfer to the agricultural experiment station of Georgia the building and machinery belonging to the United States department of agriculture at Waycross, which have been used in the study of the production of maple syrup on condition that the agricultural experiment station of Georgia establish and maintain a sub-station at Waycross, to be operated in the interest of the syrup industry and other agricultural industries in that part of the state."

WHITECAPERS ARE ROUTED.

Melvin Winters was shot and instantly killed and Thomas Stewart and his young daughter severely wounded during an affray at Stewart's home, near Pleasant View, Chestnut county, Tenn., Saturday night. A few days ago, Stewart received a letter warning him that if he and his family did not leave the neighborhood within ten days they would all be killed.

About 11 o'clock Saturday night a mob surrounded Stewart's house and opened fire, and Stewart and his daughter were wounded. Stewart returned the shots and the mob scattered. Sunday morning the body of Melvin Winters was found about fifty yards from Stewart's home.

Sherrif Harper and deputies went to the scene of the shooting and returned with Jim Hunt, Jeff Boyle and Newton Winters in custody. A charge of complicity in the murder of Melvin Winters was placed against them.

WARSHIP TO GUADALOUPE.

American interests on Island Menaced by Uncontrollable Mob. Guadaloupe, the French West Indian island, is under mob rule, according to a dispatch received at the state department Monday from G. Jarvis Bowers, the American consul at that point. His dispatch says that the mob is in control and the authorities are unable to restrain it. Election troubles are the cause of the disturbance.

ALL OLD OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

At Annual Conference for Education in the Southern States. The conference for education in the south, held in Lexington, Ky., Friday, unanimously elected all its former officers for the ensuing term of one year. These were Robert S. Ogden of New York, president; Charles B. Aycock of North Carolina, vice president; B. J. Baldwin of Alabama, secretary; and William A. Blair of North Carolina, treasurer.

AFTER OIL TRUST

President Sends a Special Message to Congress.

ATTACKS SECRET RATES

Receives Says Giant Octopus Has Been Holding Up Railroads and the People—Transmits Garfield's Report.

President Roosevelt Friday transmitted to congress the report of James R. Garfield, commissioner of corporations, giving the results of his investigation of the subject of transportation and freight rates in connection with the oil industry.

In his message the president expresses the view that the report is of capital importance because of the effort now being made to secure such enlargement of the powers of the interstate commerce commission as will confer upon the committee power in some measure adequate to meet the clearly demonstrated need of the situation. That the Standard Oil company has benefited enormously, up almost to the present moment, by secret rates, many of which were given to the public. A very striking result of the investigation has been that shortly after the discovery of these secret rates by the commissioner of corporations the major portion of them were promptly corrected by the railroads so that most of them have now been done away with.

The statement is added that the department of justice will take up the prosecution of at least certain cases. Continuing, the president says: "But in addition to these secret rates the Standard Oil profits immensely by open rates which are arranged as to give it an overwhelming advantage over its independent competitors."

Commissioner Garfield finds that the output of refined oil amounts to about 80,000,000 barrels annually, of which the Standard Oil company controls about the same proportion of the other finished products of finished petroleum. Continuing, the report says: "The Standard claims that the location of its refineries and the use of pipe lines are natural advantages to which it is justly entitled. While it is true, it must not be forgotten that these advantages were in part obtained by means of unfair competitive methods after years of fierce industrial strife. The development of the pipe line system by the Standard Oil company was the result of special agreements with railroad companies. Furthermore those so-called natural advantages have been and are being greatly increased by discriminations in freight rates, which give the Standard monopolistic control in the greater portion of the country."

"An immediate result of this domination of competitive area is shown by the exorbitant profits shown in the non-competitive fields."

"In 1904 the secret rate received from the railroads was the Standard Oil company's share of a million dollars, representing the difference between the open rates and the rates actually paid."

"These discriminations," he said, "have been so long continued and so secret and so large in amount as to make it certain they were due to concerted action by the Standard and the railroads."

FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY.

Four Men Engage in Pistol Duel in a Birmingham Saloon.

As the result of a general shooting affray Friday night in a saloon, in Birmingham, Ala., Thomas Hewlett is dead, John Shugart is expected to die and Frank Lee is shot through the head, and Leonard Potts is shot through the ankle.

The fatal shooting was done by Harry Haynes, who claims that Hewlett first opened fire on him, and that Shugart immediately took up Hewlett's fight and that he had to shoot them both. The other two men were bystanders.

POLICE SHOOT RIOTOUS DAGOES

Bloody Battle With Strikers Occurs in Passaic, N. J.

In a battle between riotous Italian strikers and the police in Passaic, N. J., Saturday, four of the rioters were shot and a number of the policemen injured. One of the men was shot in the head, and the other was shot in the arm. The riot took place about the building of the Daily Herald, which is being constructed and where a strike of diggers and shovel men was begun a few days ago.

The Statesboro News

(INCORPORATED.)
J. R. MILLER, Editor and Gen'l Mgr.
Entered at the post office at Statesboro as 2nd class mail matter.
Statesboro, Ga. Friday, May 11, 1906
Published Tuesdays and Fridays by THE STATESBORO NEWS PUBLISHING COMPANY.

The big Atlanta exposition of 1910 is now assured. Atlanta usually gets what she goes out after.

Col. J. A. Braumen spent two days the early part of the week at Bryan court. Bryan is safe in the Braumen column this year by a large majority.

The news comes that Senator Gorman is desperately ill at his home in Baltimore. The old leaders are rapidly passing away.

The Atlanta Journal was damaged slightly by a small fire in its basement a day or two ago. We hope that the origin of the fire was not from natural combustion.

Jim Tillman's home county has endorsed him for congress. If the player of Gonzales succeeds in breaking into congress it will be a black spot on the escutcheon of the good old state of South Carolina that she will not recover from soon.

Angusta has just raised $10,000 as a nest egg for a big fall fair. If Angusta wants to see the prettiest agricultural exhibit ever seen in the south this fall, let her make her premium list large enough to justify the bringing to that city of the great Bulloch county display.

We note the fact that Capt. R. M. Hitch is on the stump for Col. Estill for Governor. If elected will Col. Estill have the courage and manhood to restore to Capt. Hitch that standing in the military of the state of which he was robbed by a weak and vacillating governor?

Father Sherman has despaired of attempting to follow the footsteps of his old degenerate father who, with a horde of thugs and cutthroats devastated the fairest sections of the south more than forty years ago. Maybe he was afraid that he would encounter the Statesboro mob in the reason he would proceed further without a military guard. They would have done him little good, however, unless their guns were loaded.

Metter Wants Re-Union.

We learn that Metter will probably put in a bid for the annual meeting of the Confederate veterans re-union to be held this summer. While nothing definite has been done yet there is a desire on the part of our big sister over the fifteen mill creek to get this gathering. It is alleged that while there is no schedule on the railroad enabling those from this way to attend, and come back the same day, that the railroad could be induced to run a special between Dover and Metter, leaving Dover in the forenoon and return the same afternoon.

While we would, of course, like to see Statesboro get it, but we see no reason why it could not be made a success at Metter.

Postmaster Robbed.
G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at Riverton, Ga., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such severe cases of jaundice that even my flag emerald turned yellow when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters; which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Biliousness, Neuralgia, Weakness and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements. A wonderful Tonic. As W. H. Ellis' Drug store, 50 cents.

The Matter Closed

The News is in receipt of a communication from one of its valuable subscribers, condemning the state committee for its set of rules, etc. Inasmuch as the rules have been made, and there is to be no other meeting of the committee to change them and no one else having any authority to do so, and, together with the fact that all have accepted them, we can see no reason to further quibble over a matter that has already been closed.

While, as we have stated before, we saw no reason for the adoption of this set of rules, requiring a pledge from each and every voter in the primary, yet we have never seen where it hurt anyone to take the pledge. Now if one certain set or element of men were singled out and required to take the pledge and others omitted it would look like using partiality to drive off voters; but all who vote will take it. We are always willing to abide by any rule that applies to all. We can stand it if the balance can. We will take the medicine along with the balance of the crowd. Boys if the medicine happens to be a little bitter just shut your eyes and hold your nose and let it go down; it is said that the bitterest medicine is the better the result. Maybe it will be so in this case.

We are pleased to note the fact that Judge Hines and other leaders take the same view of the matter as we do and are going to take the pledge along with us all, and vote. That's right. If the democratic party is not what you want it to be you have a right to step in and make it to your liking, or cast your vote and influence in that direction, and it will have more effect when cast in the primary than it will when cast on the outside against the democratic party. As stated before the democratic party is the one that will rule the roost in this section and we are all forced to come inside of it and make the best out of it that we can. Let every man come in and vote as he chooses to vote. Vote his honest convictions in the gubernatorial race. Vote for the man you think will make the best Governor no matter which one that may be. Either of them will make a good one.

A Lazy Liver.

A torpid, inactive liver can produce more bodily ills than almost anything else. It is good to clean the system out occasionally. Stir the liver up, and get into shape generally. The best results are derived from the use of DeWitt's Little Early Bitters. Reliable, effective, pleasant pills with reputation. Never gripe. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

Movement for Earlier Primary.

Since the state executive committee has set the date of the state primary for August 22nd there has developed a new sentiment looking to an early primary for county officers.

It is generally conceded that this would be better for all concerned. Every body will have plenty of time to register and a date about the latter part of June it seems would serve all purposes well and do no one any harm. The strong sentiment in the gubernatorial race assumes a good turn out for the state primary anyway.

Wouldn't it be a good idea to have another meeting and call another date for the County Primary?

Not as Rich as Rockefeller.

If you had all the wealth of Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate, you could not buy a better medicine for your bowels than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The most eminent physician can not prescribe a better preparation for colic and diarrhoea, both for children and adults. The uniform success of this remedy has shown it to be superior to all others. It never fails, and when reduced with water and sweetened, is pleasant to take. Every family should be supplied with it. Sold by all Druggists.

Did You Ever Think of the terrible risk a merchant runs who credits out twenty-five, fifty or a hundred thousand dollars a year? He not only risks the honor of his debtors, but he risks the weather also, which is the most changeable thing on earth.

Did you ever think that he must have pay for taking such a hazardous risk?

Did you ever think that the WHOLESALE that sells such a merchant runs the same risk, only he has to risk the merchant's honor (which often fails) as well as the honor of the merchant's customers and the changeable weather?

Did you ever think that he has to have pay for this same hazardous risk also?

Did you ever think that the MANUFACTURER that sells the WHOLESALE that sell the MERCHANTS who sell on credit runs the same risk and that HE MUST also have pay for taking the risk?

And the Southern Farmer and other Southerners have to PAY IT ALL.

No other people have to pay for all this terrible risk, for no other people on earth are cursed with such a credit system as we have in the South.

This is only one of the many reasons why our system enables us to do our county a Real Service, and which places us in the forefront of the BIG VALUE stores in Georgia.

It Is Dangerous to Neglect a Cold.

How often do we hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is a case of common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and has gained its great popularity and extensive sale by its prompt cure of this most common ailment. It always cures and is pleasant to take. For sale by all Druggists.

Jim Smith is Heard in Wilks.

Washington, Ga., May 8.—Hon. James M. Smith, of Oglethorpe county, spoke here today in the court house at the noon recess of court. He was accorded an enthusiastic hearing by about 600 persons, including many of the most substantial farmers of Wilks county.

Colonel Smith was introduced by Hon. William Wynn and met with an ovation from his friends in his native county.

He reviewed the occasion of his own candidacy and that of his opponents, denied any collusion between himself and any other candidate and declared that he was particularly the only farmer and farmer's candidate in the race.

As to Hoke Smith, he referred freely to that candidate's platform and argued that as a shipper, using the railroads with thousands of tons of freight annually as against scarcely a ton shipped by Hoke Smith, he was the more likely to contend for fair freight rates than would be the Atlanta lawyer.

He claimed that he helped create the railroad commission and argued the election of five commissioners by the direct vote of the people, while Hoke Smith was doing police court law practice in Atlanta.

Col. Smith said it is useless to disfranchise a negro because he is ignorant and yet keep open thousands of schools, paid for by the taxes of white men, to educate the negroes to meet an educational test. He urged the immediate wisdom of first dividing the common school fund between the two races according to the taxes paid by each race. This proposition was cheered tremendously by the audience.

He charged Hoke Smith with trying to rob him of this issue, but said he would not allow him to get away with the plank. He might be a convert to the proposition, but could not dally in this campaign.

Col. Smith was very strong in his presentation of his claims and it is confidently predicted that he will carry Wilks over all his competitors.

Letter from Mr. Woods.

Atlanta, Ga., May 6, 1906.
Dear Mr. Miller:
I beg space in your dear old paper to extend my heartfelt thanks to my good friends who assisted me in receiving Pasteur treatment.
Dear friends, I extend my heartfelt thanks to you all. I can never express my gratitude to my dear friends of my good old county. I do believe it is the garden spot of the world. I was born and raised in Bulloch and it seems like it is more than I can stand to stay here this week, and I can never do enough for my friends; they have done so much for me. I want to tell you all that we are getting along very nicely. We are taking one treatment each day and have just received the seventh treatment. We have fourteen more. I ask the prayers of all praying people that we may continue to trust in the One that doeth all things well and that we may realize that those benevolences are all for our good, for God maketh all blessing for such things to come. I am still resting on the charity of my friends to take care of my farm, which we were compelled to leave for twenty-one days to secure the treatment for hydrophobia. A letter from anyone will be gladly received and answered if requested. I also extend my heartfelt thanks to my dear friends who also contributed to my assistance. May God be with you all till we meet again.

Estill's Oration In Brooks County.

Quitman, Ga., May 8.—If there is a man in Georgia of a skeptical turn of mind as to the interest manifested in the southern part of the state in the candidacy of Col. J. H. Estill for Governor he should have been at the big meeting held here today. In this grand old county of Brooks, the home of enlightened public sentiment and advanced ideas, the people turned out in large numbers to honor the man who has fought their battles and championed their interests for more than a third of a century. Friends and acquaintances who have known the South Georgia candidate for years and those newly made, gathered about him, grasped his hands with cordiality and assured him of their support.

Col. Estill arrived in Quitman from Waycross, where he stayed last night. A committee of prominent Democrats was at the station to meet him and escorted him at once to the hotel. It was generally known that he was to address the voters of Brooks county, and there was a large crowd of representative citizens waiting to greet him. And it was a greeting in every sense that word implies. Men who have read his newspaper for years, and who appreciate its efforts at and to every one, gathered about him and gave assurances of their loyalty.

"I have loved the Morning News for forty years," said a staid farmer, as he grasped the hand of the Colonel, "and I don't know why I shouldn't like you."

"I thank you," Col. Estill replied; "I have always tried to merit the respect and esteem of my friends and patrons."

"I want to shake the hand of the next governor of Georgia," said another good citizen of Brooks county.

"I am glad to meet you," said Col. Estill, "and I hope you are shaking hands with the next governor."

These are only cited as two of many similar expressions made to Col. Estill by the welcome him. The day was ideal, the rain of the day before having laid the dust and cooled the atmosphere. The meeting was held in the big court room of the county building. Every seat was occupied and many were compelled to stand in the aisles. A particularly pleasing feature was the presence of Col. Robert M. Hitch, of Savannah, a former Brooks county boy, who was accorded a genuine ovation when he arose to speak. Col. Estill gave another of his sound, common sense talks, which have characterized his speeches during his canvass and has set the people he has visited to thinking.

Come Many

Miles to Thank Simmons Co.
Many Flock to Tell of Benefits received. Sale of Plant Juice Remedies Increasing Daily.

Col. Dillingham's Plant Juice, the wonderful new remedy which is being introduced for the first time in the state seems to be accomplishing all that has been claimed by the advertiser. This is proved conclusively by the numbers of sick people who within the past four or five weeks have been calling upon Simmons Co., to tell him of the improvement in their condition. All week long they come, from every part of county, and it is estimated that in the past three weeks over two hundred people have called simply to express their gratitude to The Simmons Co., and to thank him. This is unusual and it is seldom indeed that people will take the trouble to express thanks for a medicine.

Speaking of this matter Mr. Simmons said: "To the outsider the many calls that I received from people, who have used plant juice and have come to tell me what it has done seems to me to be very unusual, but for the past three months I have been taking this experience and therefore take it much as a matter of course. A sick man or woman who has been benefited or made well again in a comparatively short time in the world. Probably you don't know it, but about nine-tenths of the diseases about which human beings are afflicted are due primarily and fundamentally to stomach trouble. The stomach is practically speaking the furnace which runs the machinery of the body. Human life is supported by the food which is taken into the system and as every bit of that food must first be prepared or digested by the stomach in such a manner that it can be turned into blood, bone, sinew, etc., the moment the stomach becomes out of order the entire system is deranged and much suffering is the result."

"The results that are accomplished by Col. Dillingham's Plant Juice seems very wonderful when you do not understand the nature of the remedy. As a matter of fact, the principal thing the remedy does is to put the stomach in good working order in a very short time, and in consequence the action of every other organ of the body is improved almost at once and health is the result."

During the short interview with Mr. Simmons was interrupted twice by people who had come to thank him. The first was Mr. J. C. Morris. Mr. Morris has been troubled with catarrh for a number of years. He said to Mr. Simmons: "I have taken the Plant Juice medicine for just four days as I bought a bottle from you for a dollar Wednesday. I have had catarrh for several years, and have tried almost everything, but nothing did me any good. In these four days past I have been so much benefited and feel so greatly improved that I have come out here to tell you what a wonderful remedy you have, and to thank you for what it has done for me."

The other caller was Mrs. E. Franklin. She said: "I have had a terrible case of stomach trouble for over five years, and felt badly all the time. I was troubled with indigestion and a very bad appetite, and felt tired all the time, so that it was an effort to do my work. I have used Col. Dillingham's Plant Juice since Monday, and feel so much better that I have come to tell you about it. I have not felt so well and happy for many years, and cannot thank you enough. My husband has had catarrh for a long time, and he is also taking the medicine and feels a great deal better, although he has been taking it only a few days. Notice is hereby given to all citizens who want electric lights, that the city will have the work done free of charge, parties having work done to pay actual cost for all material. This offer is good until July 1st, 1906. Further notice is given that each hog within the city limits of Statesboro, shall be confined in an area of land equal to one-fourth of one acre of land, and not over two hogs allowed to the pen. Any violation of this hog ordinance will be punished.
Further notice is given that all citizens must keep their premises clean and in good sanitary condition. That all premises will be inspected monthly by the marshal and sanitary committee.
This May 8th, 1906.
W. H. Ellis, Mayor.
Clerk City Council.

Did You Ever Figure Out

how much money you waste every day? Did you ever figure out how much more money you could earn every day? The amount each day may seem too small to count, but just multiply the daily sum by the 365 days of the year, then multiply by the number of years you might have been saving. Too late for regrets. But do not waste any more time and money, open an account with us today.

Played Rotten Game.

One of the bummiest games of base ball that has afflicted Statesboro in some time was pulled off on the local diamond Saturday afternoon between the boys of the Savannah high school and those of the Statesboro institute.

In the first inning the Savannah boys took the bit in their mouths and came near bellowing themselves running around the ring making scores; they made four or five in this inning. Then it was that the game hung heavy on Statesboro. It looked like the local fans would go off with heart failure. For some time you could have heard a pin drop, if it had not been for the noise of the heels of the Savannah boys made running around the ring making scores. Things ran this way for some time and it looked like it was going from bad to worse, when the local team changed pitchers; then they did some better.

Finally when the game finished one crowd claimed one score and another something else. One said it was 12 to 15, in favor of Savannah, another said Savannah made 18 or 20 runs. Nobody knows, but they are satisfied that the game was bum and rotten enough.

A Lazy Liver.

A torpid, inactive liver can produce more bodily ill than almost anything else. It is good to clean the system out occasionally. Stir the liver up, and get into shape generally. The best results are derived from the use of Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers. Reliable, effective, pleasant pills with a reputation. Never gripe. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

James A. Brannen Dead.

On Friday the spirit of Mr. James A. Brannen passed to its Maker. Mr. Brannen had been a sufferer from bright's disease for some time. He had sought relief from the best physicians and had been to Florida, but his case had been a hopeless one, and his death caused no surprise among his friends and those who knew him.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. T. J. Cobb, on Sunday morning, in the presence of the largest crowd of people that has been seen at a funeral in this county in a long time. Mr. Brannen had recently professed conversion and had sent for Rev. Mr. Cobb only a few weeks ago and was baptized into the Baptist church, his membership being at Bethel. The interment was made at the old Alex. Brannen place, near Mr. Brannen's home, and by the side of the remains of his father and mother, who had preceded him many years before.

One of the saddest features of the funeral was the presence of his youngest son, Erastus, who was there under the guard and surveillance of the sheriff. He is now in jail under a life sentence in the penitentiary for murder. He has obtained a new trial on the grounds of newly discovered evidence by which his friends hope to show his innocence. The case was postponed to the last term of court on account of the illness of the father, whose remains were consigned to mother earth on Sunday morning.

It was only a few months ago when the sheriff was called upon to perform a similar duty; to take Erastus out to witness the funeral services of an elder brother.

No Hope for Old Man

Rawlings and Negro.

Atlanta, Ga., May 11.—The prison commission this morning set next Wednesday for hearing appeal in behalf of the Rawlings boys. Attorney Cooper, of Macon, wired for a fixed date to come with the petition and the appeal. The straggled appeal will be made for the two boys.

The hope of saving J. G. Rawlings and the negro, Alf Moore, is about gone.
