Deluge In The Local Field

WHEN YOU THINK OF HARDWARE, THINK OF RAINES.

Mr. Grover Hendrix and Mr. S. T. Dean visited Claxton Saturday.

Brooklet Trading Co. are agents for Carhart's overalls at Brooklet.

Dr. I. S. L. Miller, of Mill Ray, was in the city shaking hands with his many friends on Wednesday.

A hacking cough is most annoying. One Minute Cough Cure draws the inflammation out of the throat, chest and lungs. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

18 lbs. granulated sugar to the dollar at Brooklet Trading Co.

Mr. W. H. Blitch has been sick for several days this week.

A full line of Edison's talking machines, also Edison's records, will be found at the Statesboro Music House. Records 85c. each. L. G. Lucas, prop'r.

Quite a number will go down to Aroola this morning to be present at the school closing there. Prof. S. D. Alderman is the efficient principal of this school.

Dr. T. F. Brannen has been on the sick list this week.

The following young ladies returned Wednesday afternoon from Milledgeville where they have been attending the Georgia Normal College: Misses Sallie Rigdon, Lucy Bird, Willie Trappell, Sallie Beasley, Lula Everett.

Mr. Homer Parker returned from Macon this week where he has been at Macon University.

Mr. Jasper Parish, of the upper section of the county, was in town one day this week.

The city court has been making its usual grind during the past day or two. There have been no cases of special interest disposed of.

The heavy rain in the upper section of this county has done considerable damage to the young crops. We have escaped most of the heavy raining to this community that has visited other sections.

Mr. E. H. Donaldson has been on the sick list for several days during the past week.

The sincerest tribute that can be paid to superiority is imitation. The many imitations of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve that are now before the public prove it is the best. Ask for DeWitt's. Good for burns, scalds, chafed skin. Highly recommended and reliable. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

Attention is called to the petition for incorporation in another column of the McElveen Improvement Co., of which Mr. Aaron McElveen and others of Aroola are incorporators. It is understood that Mr. P. R. McElveen will also be connected with this business. Mr. McElveen has been engaged in the mercantile business for a number of years at this place, and his connection with the new firm assures its success.

The sworn statement of the manufacturers protects you from opticians in Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tea, the cough syrup that drives the cold out of your system. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

There will be an examination for county school teachers held in Statesboro on June 29th and 30th.

J. E. Brannen, C. S. C.

In another column will be seen the notice for incorporation of the Pulaski Ginney. Messrs. G. O. Franklin, Wilson Warren and others are at the head of this enterprise and intend to put in a first class ginney.

Piano Tuning.

The only piano tuner in Georgia will be in town Monday next. Anyone wishing fine work done just drop a card to Jerome Follette, Statesboro, Ga., or leave order at the Rountree hotel and Mr. Follette will do the rest. No canvassing done—That's all.

BROOKLET.

We learn that Mr. Parker has donated his triangular lot, just north of the depot, to the Baptist building committee, and that in the near future a handsome church of modern architecture will be built on it.

The new ginney is being built, and from the appearance of the surroundings it will be second to none in the county when completed. It is claimed that they can gin green-seed cotton at the rate of 500 pounds every twenty minutes.

The writer has been over the county in the past month and he can truthfully say that Brooklet has the best cotton prospects.

The voters of the Newelwood district are requested to meet in Brooklet Friday night, June 8th, at Dr. McElveen's drug store, for the purpose of organizing a Hoke Smith club. Some good speakers will be on hand and a real good time is assured those who can come. Speaking will begin at 8 o'clock sharp.

Dr. Thayer and Mr. Wayne Parish made things lively for the bream in Ogeechee river Wednesday and Thursday. Their catch was something less than 100.

The college girls and boys are in evidence again and I never saw sweeter smiles and prettier girls. It really reminds one of the good old summer time.

A Card.

Aroola, Ga., June 7th, '06.

Editor News: As I promised to give those who signed the petition for the removal of the site for holding court and elections in the 4th district the results of my canvass, I avail myself of the opportunity to give them notice through the News, as it goes to almost every home in the district.

I have not yet canvassed the entire district, and have 148 names to the petition. There are names to the petition to whom I have not presented it. Several of these will sign it when they have an opportunity to do so. The number who have already signed represents about 85 per cent. of the voters of the district.

As a matter of information I will say that there are two or three men who are asking the people to sign a petition, which states that they have reconsidered the matter of moving the precinct and that they now wish it moved to Stilson. I have no reason to believe that any of them wish to change. I went to them and stated the circumstances as they were. I did not get every one around the proposed precinct that I could have gotten before going to those farthest off, and giving them the first chance to reject or accept the proposed change. They have spoken for themselves and I have no fear of, nor do I suspect, any desire on their part to change, as I have never yet known my friends to change or go back on what they said or did.

I have not presented the petition to but three who refused to sign it. One of these stated that he would not sign either way but was satisfied as it was.

P. R. McElveen

If all the Republican Senators were like Mr. Fulton of Oregon, the country would escape unnumbered evils. "I have looked over Senator Fulton's record in Congress," said Mr. Rayner the other day, "and I find that he never offered any thing of any sort at any time."

Being the only Republican member of Congress from Oregon in either house, who has escaped indictment for land frauds, may account for his modesty.

Preparing Land For Cultivation.

West Palm Beach, Fla., June 5.—The Florida East Coast Railway Company, in conjunction with the East Coast Canal and Transportation Company, having decided to drain some of their land southwest of town, had an engineer look it over, and last week Engineer Frank Sheen, of this city, established a line of the north canal and dyke, starting in the center of section twenty-eight, township forty-three, south range, forty-three east, running due west four miles from east line of above section. Today Engineer Sheen started out with eight assistants to run west and south lines, taking a team and fifteen days' supply of provisions along. The west line may run as much as twenty miles south, then the south line will run to high land through which the canal will be cut to carry the drainage into Lakeworth. The plan is to cut the canal, throwing the dirt on the outside to form a dyke on the south side. The canal will carry all inside water off and out, thus making cultivatable thousands of acres of the best vegetable and fruit land in the state. This is nothen to do with Governor Breward's scheme to drain the Everglades, but is a private undertaking by the progressive land departments of the Florida East Coast Canal and Transportation Company, and will drain lands of private parties beside the company lands, but at no cost to private owners. The plan will be pushed to early completion, so as to have thousands of acres of land ready for occupancy this fall.

If you knew the value of Chamberlain's Salve you would never visit to a doctor. Here are some of the diseases for which it is especially valuable: sore nipples, chapped hands, burns, frost bites, chilblains, chronic sores, itching piles, tetter, salt rheum and eczema. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by All Druggists.

Stilson.

The farmers of this community are busy fighting "general green," who has recruited his forces since the recent continued showers. He is a brave general, and one that does not believe in a hasty retreat.

Messrs. H. E. Jones and Tom Waters spent Sunday last in Jacksonville.

We learn that there is a movement to bring the court house of this, the Briar Patch, district to our little town. Your correspondent thinks it would be a much wiser plan to bring the Statesboro court house here, if only long enough to patch up any highways and repair a few bridges which are in very bad condition.

The continued sounds of saws and hammers indicate the rapid upbuilding of our little town.

Mr. J. E. Brown, Dr. F. F. Floyd and Mr. J. W. Westberry spent Tuesday night in Statesboro.

We predict that on the day of the primary election Stilson will be found in the Clark Howell column.

Big Crowd On Tybee Excursion.

The excursion from Statesboro to Tybee on last Friday was the biggest one that has left this town since the famous base ball excursion to Dublin a few years ago. The Central railway furnished a train of six passenger coaches and a baggage car, and before the train pulled out from Statesboro every seat had been taken. At every station down as far as Pooler the people kept boarding the train and by this time the matter of standing room was a problem to reckon with.

Most of the crowd went direct to Tybee and remained there during the day, some having business in Savannah stopped over until the afternoon train and then went down to the beach.

The day was one of genuine pleasure to the hundreds of little ones who were along. A basket dinner was spread under shade of Bohan's large pavilion and a goodly number took a dip in the surf. There was a commendable absence of any sign of intoxication among the large number who were along. On the return trip the railroad added two extra coaches for the comfort of the crowd.

Jim Mathews Loses Place.

Mr. J. L. Mathews, for years the agent of the Central railway at this place, has been notified that his place is to be filled by another man.

On Saturday the traveling auditor came in and checked Mr. Mathews out. Just what the reason is for this unceremonious discharge does not appear on the surface. Mr. Mathews has made a faithful and efficient official as far as the public could discern.

It is true that he enforced the very letter of the strict rules that govern the policy of the road, but this would not seem to be a reason for discharge. It is said that his accounts have always been straight; that he has been on the honor roll of the company for more than twelve months, his accounts always tallying to the cent, and he it said to his credit that at the checking out on Saturday night his accounts were straight to the penny.

We suppose that the company had their reason for making the change which they have done, but just what it was no one seems to know.

Russians Are Fixing For Trouble.

Moscow, June 8.—There is a noticeable increase in revolutionary activity here, and it is evident the leaders are preparing to take advantage of the first opportunity to start an armed uprising. Workmen in the factories and the mills are being systematically armed with Mauser rifles and drilled under the supervision of army reserve soldiers.

The leaders appear confident that the moral support of the troops of the garrison is undermined as they have received from some regiments promises of support in the event of a conflict.

Revolutionary emissaries have been sent out in all directions to the country to incite the land hungry peasants to appropriate the land and strike on big estates. The plan is evidently to secure unity of action in the country and cities and inaugurate a conflict with a general strike.

The grass is growing several inches a day. If there is no bad luck the hay crops in Bulloch will be great.

Hoke Smith has been posing as a total abstainer. His liquor bill, at one saloon alone, being in the neighborhood of $100 a year would indicate that he is as consistent an abstainer as he is a reformer.

The populists will meet in Atlanta on Thursday and decide whether or not they will put out a ticket for governor. Both Tom Watson and Jim Hines have given notice that they will not accept.

Several of Statesboro's population will go down to Savannah today to see the great political battle pulled off. This will beat the Atlanta debate, as it will be fought to a finish.

The question a few years ago was, "Who struck Billy Patterson?" Now the question is, "Who mailed 'Open Letter No. 2' out from Atlanta?" The principle in this scandalous piece of work are squaring and wriggling but their tracks betray them just the same.

The Nashville Herald deplores the fact that that city has so far been visited by only one of the gubernatorial spellbinders. Just wait, brother, till "Plain Dick" Russell gets there and you will have all the fun you are looking for.

Eighteen months ago Hoke Smith wanted the executive committee to exclude all the Populists from voting. Now he wants them, at all costs, and vote for him, at that. This man Hoke Smith is a mighty nice fellow when he needs you in his business.

There is no weeping, wailing or gnashing of teeth around this neck of the woods because of the fact that the Statesboro base ball team has been getting it in the neck. There are higher and nobler occupations for our young men to engage in.

The state reformatory, to be used for youthful criminals, which is being erected at Milledgeville, will be formally opened July 1st. It is stated that Governor Terrell will issue a proclamation soon giving judges the right to send criminals under 16 years to the reformatory instead of to the convict camps.

Brave Girl Shot Negro

Charlotte, N. C., June 10.—With rare presence of mind Miss Pearl Jones, night telephone operator at Seima, N. C. last night shot and fatally wounded Bud Anderson, a negro, who, by his own confession, had premeditated rape upon her. Miss Jones heard noises in the rear of her office and went to investigate. The negro attacked her and she shot five times, severing his arm and making a severe wound in his head. The negro, who will die, has made a confession implicating a companion. The latter has been jailed. In his confession the negro admits the purpose of his errand and attack and says that it is his third attempt to assault the girl.

Mr. W. B. Moore has made his home in Statesboro for the present; that is he has moved his family here and spends his Sundays in our town. Mr. Moore is auditor and general passenger agent of the Augusta & Florida railway, with headquarters in Augusta at present. He is attached to Statesboro and thinks we have the best place on earth to live in.

The Smith-Howell Debate.

On Friday night Clark Howell and Hoke Smith locked horns in joint debate before an audience of six thousand people in the Peachtree street auditorium in Atlanta.

The Atlanta Constitution on Hoke Smith's spotted political hide to the scorn and amusement of all.

Aside from the above the debate was along the same lines as the speakers have maintained heretofore.

Unknown Friends.

There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends of the remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word by their personal recommendation to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and it is widely known for its cures of diarrhoea and all forms of bowel trouble. For sale by All Drugists.

How much hush-money has the beef trust offered to put up for the use of the Republican Congressional Committee next fall, in consideration of Teddy's change of front? Is this a government by blackmail, or a government of law?

With all this Republican talk of trust-busting can you point to one trust that has lowered the price of its products?

The next new thing brought out was the fact that Hoke Smith does not devote his share of the proceeds of the Piedmont saloon to charity as he claims. A ledger page from the saloon was exhibited to the crowd in the presence of Mr. Smith, showing that he was a regular patron of the bar himself, and bought whisky to the amount of about $100 a year for his own private use at this one saloon. He was credited on this whisky account with a discount of his one-third interest in the saloon.

There is no weeping, wailing or gnashing of teeth around this neck of the woods because of the fact that the Statesboro base ball team has been getting it in the neck. There are higher and nobler occupations for our young men to engage in.

The state reformatory, to be used for youthful criminals, which is being erected at Milledgeville, will be formally opened July 1st. It is stated that Governor Terrell will issue a proclamation soon giving judges the right to send criminals under 16 years to the reformatory instead of to the convict camps.

Mark Twain's statement that he is too crazy to be a United States senator shows his ability to add irony to humor on occasion, remarks the Atlanta Constitution.

Canadians, it is announced, object to United States coin circulating in Canada, and that objection is emphatically indorsed in this country, observes the New York Herald.

Delaware, asking to give its name to the greatest battleship in the world, is promptly accused of being next to the smallest State in the Union. The charge is true. But, on the other hand, notes the New York World, Delaware was the first state to ratify the Constitution and did it without a dissenting vote.

Prof. Guenther of Freiburg University, predicts that the time will come when life will not be water enough remaining on this globe to support human life. We are left to suppose that our shrinking sphere will form caverns in its interior into which the ocean will sink. For a similar reason, as some astronomers believe, there is no man in the future, the former waters on its surface. If there ever were any, having retired into its cavernous interior.

The reception that Sidney A. Reeve's volume, "The Cost of Competition," has had at the hands of the general public, economists and the press is good evidence of the degree to which socialism has entered into the thought of the people in the United States. In developing his theory Mr. Reeve shows how the ideal state is one in which buying and selling for money is displaced by the exchange of products. This idea is welcomed everywhere with enthusiasm.

Medical climatology, a medical writer tells us, is developing into a science. It is an American science, for it is in America, where the many types of men are out of their natural habitat, that the habit of seeking a change of climate as a general cure-all has become almost universal. The kind of change needed is gradually becoming understood. A healthy and bracing climate is too stimulating for many, while damp and fog seem to be necessary for certain nervous people and perhaps all blondes. An equable, relaxing climate acts as a sedative in disease of heart and kidneys.

Quite the most practicable and common-sense legislation for the protection of game which has come under my eyes, says Caspar Whitney in the Outlook Magazine, is that of far-away Montana; and it is no less than the adoption of a uniform season for all game. Here is an example, of which kind there are many these days coming out of the West, that the East can follow to its own considerable advantage. If there is any one thing more than another that is essential to real protection of the game birds and animals of this country, that one thing is uniformity in both laws and seasons. Congratulations to the citizens of Montana; we should like to borrow a few of their legislators for New York and Pennsylvania and New Jersey and other of our effete Eastern states that think nothing comes out of the West but corn and blizzards.

Nothing is more indicative of the growing appreciation of the value of food economy than an offer recently made to Mr. Horace Fletcher by the managers of a large firm that organizes people's businesses, says the World's Work. They asked him to prepare a plan to increase the human motive power of workers; in other words, to adapt the principles of economic nutrition to make them more efficient. For example, suppose a clerk earns $30 a month and spends $80 for living expenses. It is estimated that if he is a householder, a large percentage of this goes for food. If by food economy and right living this is cut down one-third, the man has more money. His efficiency is increased and he is generally better off. The working plan will soon be in operation. It will consist of talks to the men and women about food economy and right living. All the expenses of securing this instruction will be borne by the proprietors of the various establishments seeking to increase the efficiency of their employees.

A BOOM FOR BRYAN

Launched by Indiana Democrats in State Convention.

WATTERSON HEARD FROM

Veteran Editor of Courier-Journal Says Nebraska Will Be Nominated by States Before Convention Meets.

Democrats of Indiana, in convention, at Indianapolis, Thursday, adopted a platform strongly indorsing W. J. Bryan for the presidency, and selected a state ticket for all offices except governor and reporter of the supreme court. Benjamin F. Shively of South Bend, former congressman from the thirteenth Indiana district, was permanent chairman. Referring to W. J. Bryan he said:

"That which is today eulogized and approved as broad statesmanship and patriotism in Theodore Roosevelt, was a few years ago denounced as reactionary, revolutionary and unpatriotic in William Jennings Bryan. The difference between the one is almost equal to the difference of the other."

The resolutions committee report was read by Samuel I. Ralston, and among other things it said: "The democracy of Indiana, in convention assembled, sends greetings across the sea to that wise and conservative statesman, unflinching patriot and superb leader, William Jennings Bryan, and pledges its vote in convention and the electoral vote of Indiana to him for president in 1908."

"For nearly ten years the republican party has been in absolute control in all departments in the national government, with power to change unjust conditions and to rectify evils. Yet, during that time colossal combinations of capital have dominated the people and have stifled competition and unfairly limited the opportunity of the individual citizen. Wealth thereby illegally obtained has been unwisely used to control legislation and corrupt elections. No honest effort has been made or is being made by republican legislation to cure or eradicate these evils. We denounce the hypocrisy of the republican party which, while pretending to legislate against these conditions, deals only with the symptoms and not with the disease. The unfair, tyrannical features of the so-called 'protective tariff' have made these things possible, and no permanent relief can be secured until its obnoxious features are removed. We demand that this be done by a tariff for revenue only."

The following were nominated: Secretary of state, James P. Cox; Comptroller, Arthur P. Gorman; Auditor, Arthur P. Gorman; Treasurer, John Isenbarger; North manchester; attorney general, Walter J. Lutz, Muncie.

Friday's Courier-Journal (Louisville, Ky.), under the caption "Hurrah for Bryan," Henry Watterson comes out flatfooted for the Nebraska senator as the democratic nominee for president, and predicts his nomination by states before the meeting of the convention. He says that Cleveland and all sound-money democrats will support him.

SENATOR GORMAN'S FUNERAL. In accordance with his wishes the services were simple. With simplicity and complete absence of ostentation, the funeral services of the late Senator Arthur P. Gorman of Maryland took place in Washington Thursday from his late residence.

Before the services began many prominent men and nearly all of Senators Gorman's closest political associates in Maryland, as well as colleagues from the senate and house, in addition to members of congressional committees, were afforded an opportunity to view the body. The opportunity was in a vault in Oak Hill cemetery, temporarily.

DOINGS OF THE DUNKARDS. Quaker Sect Wash Feet and Use Each Others Hair for Towels. WHITE HOUSE EXPENSES

Thrown into Limelight by Representative Brundage—Extravagance on Part of President Alleged.

The house Thursday listened to a bitter arraignment of the president at the hands of Mr. Brundage of Arkansas, a member of the appropriations committee.

Taking the items for the refurbishing of the white house, the care of the grounds and the traveling expenses of the president as his text, Mr. Brundage compared the expenses of the last Cleveland, the McKinley and the Roosevelt administrations.

Under the Cleveland administration, he said there was expended for the executive department, included for the salary of the president, $137,200. Under the McKinley administration there was expended $144,500, while the bill under consideration carries for the executive department, including the care of the white house, green houses, etc., $253,340.

In addition to this, Mr. Brundage said that there were forty policemen detailed to the care of the white house and the grounds, which he denominated as extravagance. He said he did not know whether forty policemen were too few or too many, but he thought a section of the army ought to be detailed for the protection of the president and care of the grounds, and that these policemen permitted to go into the sparsely settled sections of Washington, where thugs and marauders were preying upon defenseless women and children.

He criticized the item appropriating $25,000 for the traveling expenses of the president and incident thereto, and said it was probably made for the purpose of providing for a repetition of the "muck rake" speech.

"No wonder, in view of the present appropriations and present expenditures, no wonder the president should hold up to public ridicule magazines and newspapers of this country and public men and private citizens who dare to criticize."

"I entertained the hope and belief that the time will never come in the history of politics of this government when any man occupying a position of public trust and public office will rise so high and tread so great that the humblest newspaper or the humblest citizen or the largest estate may not justly and properly criticize his official conduct and actions."

He spoke of the president's stable and enlarged on the number of the horses contained therein and finally spoke of the arrest of Mrs. Minnie Morris and the appointment of the secretary to the president, Mr. Barnes, as postmaster of Washington, as showing the high-handed way the president conducts his office.

PASSES ARE PUZZLE

Senate is at Sea Over One Feature of Rate Bill.

PRESSURE IS STRENUOUS

Overwhelming Protest from Railroad Employees Against Anti-Pass Feature is Having Effect—Discussion in the Senate.

A Washington special says: When the conference report on the railroad rate bill was taken up Wednesday, the anti-pass conference amendment received the attention of Senator Spooner. In the main, he endorsed the prohibition of passes, but he contended that there should be exceptions, including railroad employees. Congress had no right, he said, to step between employer and employee.

He said there are many reasons why the railroad should carry their employees free, and none why they should not.

"There is no sense in the provision as it stands," he said, "the railroad should be allowed to perform the acts of common humanity, it should be elastic."

Senator Knox suggested that the law of 1895 be introduced. Thereupon, Mr. Tillman asked why the senator "had broken out in a new place and had run amuck on the pass question," but Mr. Knox replied that "not having indulged in that pastime he could not reply."

Senator Tillman, one of the senate conferees, said he had not advocated the stringent provision reported, and the present law. Mr. Spooner also spoke on the importance of including the members of the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association, as persons entitled to passes, and Mr. Tillman suggested that it was necessary to draw the line somewhere. He would have the exceptions limited to railroad employees and their families, and Senator Hale presented the same view.

Senator Lodge criticized on other grounds the action of the conference committee in omitting the words "wifely and knowingly" from the penal clauses of the bill, saying that to leave the words out would work a great injustice to railroad officials through inadvertence, carelessness or malice on the part of others.

Senator Bailey found fault with the omission of sleeping car companies from the bill, saying that the sleeping car company is the only absolute monopoly in the country.

Mr. Morgan contended that under the proposed law the railroad would give passes from one state to another.

"According to that reasoning," said Mr. Tillman, "congress is powerless to suppress the abuse."

"It is not an abuse," retorted the Alabama senator, who added that congress has no more right to deny to a street car company the right to take a guest than to say the same thing to a hotel proprietor.

Senator Hale presented a resolution instructing the conferees that it is the sense of the senate that railroad passes should be confined to actual employees of the railroads, but it had not been acted upon when the senate adjourned at 5:25 p. m.

PROPOSITION WAS FAVORED.

Commencement exercises were held Wednesday at the Georgia State College for Colored Youth at Thibault, La. The address was by Judge W. R. Hammond of Atlanta. A rising vote was taken in the gathering to ascertain the sentiment of the negroes upon the proposition, and it was almost unanimous in favor of the repeal.

Gay reported the murder to the police, but was suspected and arrested. Later he made a complete confession, acknowledging that he had stabbed Mrs. Leatham to death.
