Brantly Made a Great Speech.

Dixie, which, together with the prolonged cheering, shook the building from foundation to roof. Col. A. M. Deal made a short speech of introduction for Mr. Hardwick. He apologized somewhat and smoothed over to the best of his ability the fact that his man had "sorter" sneaked in. He justified this, however, by the fact that some weeks ago he had suggested to somebody that in the event Brantley came it would be a good idea to have a "jint spate". Mr. Deal, being unable to secure another member of congress from the 11th district, had secured what he hoped was the next best thing to it—that of the gentleman who represents the 10th district. His demeanor disclaimed any effort to have congress assemble right here in Statesboro; he intimated, on the contrary, that he was appraised of the eloquence and ability of Mr. Brantley, and the Hoke Smith forces were afraid to risk changes without having something here, to "sorter" hold up their end of the line. They had put their ear to the ground and knew that the voters were going to be here, and it was an excellent opportunity to meet the actual voters and speak before an audience that was not obtained by running in 400 school children in order to fill the building. The voters were here, you know, and the Hoke Smith men knew to do about.

Mr. Hardwick was greeted by such a round of applause that it taxed the vocal capacity of the 100 Smith supporters who were present. They stamped both feet upon the floor, slapped both hands together and hollered at the top of their voice, all at the same time. They cheered long, and they cheered loud. What they lacked in numbers they made a howling success in making up in fuss. Finally the faithful 100 were subdued sufficiently for Mr. Hardwick to "open". He got in about two words which really had no meaning and the boys tore loose again. Whether this frightened the speaker or not it is hard to say, but when he attempted to go forward with his speech he seemed to be very much excited and it was fully twenty minutes before he got down to business. He had not gone far before he waded into the disfranchisement business, which is his pet hobby, and this, together with some praise of Hoke Smith, wild and unsupported claims of carrying counties, abuse of the leaders of the democratic party. He finally jumped onto Gov. Terrell for what he termed was benefitting by the use of ten thousand dollars from the Southern R'y for campaign purposes, and offering to Judge McWhorter a seat on the supreme court bench with the understanding that he was not to accept it; hence, the people of the state had been robbed. He soon admitted that in that race he voted for Terrell and belonged to the crowd that put McWhorter and Callaway on the executive committee, but said he had repented; he was sorry he did it.

He never denied that Hoke Smith appointed all those sleek, greasy negroes to office, or that he ran the widow of a brave Confederate soldier from his house in Washington, using a black negro to chase her off the stoop with: he was silent on that line.

Those who find that Baby Ease is a household necessity—and there are many such—will be interested to learn that the headquarters of the makers of this popular medicine have been moved from Macon to Atlanta. This change was made in order to be near the center of a larger territory.

The boys' have "sorter" quit sweating and foaming over the last pictorial circular that was sent out. We believe that the hour is ripe for the distribution of another. Whom the Gods would destroy, they first make mad.

Those who find that Baby Ease is a household necessity—and there are many such—will be interested to learn that the headquarters of the makers of this popular medicine have been moved from Macon to Atlanta. This change was made in order to be near the center of a larger territory.

The Druggist Utters Words of Wisdom

You cannot be lucky unless you are healthy, and you cannot be healthy if your blood is out of order. Keep your blood in a pure and healthy condition. Most diseases which afflict mankind spring from blood diseases. There is one remedy that brings back health and strength to the wasted form, purifies and enriches the blood, and brings new strength and vitality to the body. That remedy is Dillingham's Plant Juice and it stands in a class of its own, having absolutely no equal.

Get your blood purified, get a new supply of rich healthy blood, and all your organs will resume their proper duties. Impurities will be thrown off and health, strength and happiness return. Dillingham's Plant Juice keeps the liver, bowels and kidneys healthy and active, and the poison is expelled from the system. Whenever the blood is deprived of its vitality, we must restore the exact substance that is lost. The blood is the mediator pabulum of existence. In it and through it all life forces act. The blood is the life of man, and when it becomes impoverished man's life is endangered.

It is open blasphemy against God to assert that any disease is incurable. We declare against the very cause and center of life when we do so. Health and happiness are priceless jewels. Why will people continue to use drug-poison, which at best antidotes pathological conditions, without one iota of life or strength in them to increase the pabulum of life? Wise men are ever ready to follow truth wherever it leads them. Ignorance of Nature's laws is the father and mother of all sickness, and all kinds of inharmonies. Nature's ill requires Nature's remedy—Plant Juice. It strengthens the nervous system, and in doing so regulates the circulation, the liver, bowels and kidneys perform in the natural manner, the blood is thoroughly cleansed of its impurities, and the vita fluid goes on its health-restoring journey to heart, lungs, brain and every part of the body, removing all feelings of heaviness, weight and dullness, and leaving in their place buoyant feeling of health, elasticity of spirits that may have been a stranger to you for years.

Dillingham's Plant Juice is the recognized leader of all blood medicine and can be obtained from The Simmons Co., Statesboro Ga.

A Joke, Not a boast
"At Pont-Aven, in Brittany," said a New York painter, "I met Mortimer Menpes, who is chiefly famous for his friendship with Whistler."

"The hotels at Pont-Aven is a museum of superbly carved antique Bie-ton chests, armories and closet beds, and a gallery of Harrison, Penford, Pauline Palmer, and other noted artists."

"In the saloon of the hotel, I heard Menpes talk one day of Whistler."

"Whistler," Menpes said, "was not a conceited man. He was a joker. As jokes, not as serious speeches, most of his remarks were to be taken."

"Thus a lady said one day to Whistler: 'Do you think, Mr. Whistler, that genius is hereditary?'"

"I can't tell you, madam," Whistler replied. "Heaven has granted me no offspring."

"Plain Dick" RUSSELL,

Candidate for GOVERNOR,

Will Speak at METTER,
Monday Night, Aug. 20,
8:00 P. M.

At Statesboro
Tuesday, Aug 21.

1906 At 11 o'clock a. m.

Ladies Are Invited.
Everybody Come.

MAY HAVE JOINT DEBATE TUESDAY

Mrs. Louise Myrick of Americus, perhaps the most brilliant woman speaker in the state of Georgia, has challenged Hon. Bob Berner, perhaps the most brilliant male speaker in the state, to meet her in a joint debate. Inasmuch as it is expected that the friends of Hoke Smith may want Berner to Statesboro Tuesday, a number of folks have invited the joint debate between them to come off here, at that time, along with "Plain Dick" Russell. Let us have it three-cornered if you please. It is believed that they will come.

Don't Miss Russell's Speech.

Next Tuesday at eleven o'clock, in the court house in Statesboro, the fur will fly. Plain Dick Russell will make his final speech to a Bulloch county audience. His reputation as a speaker is well known in this section. If you miss it you will miss the opportunity of your lives.

Plain Dick Russell is the man that no other candidate can be induced to meet on the stump.

An effort will be made to get Hoke Smith to meet him here. We hope they will succeed, if they do then it will be rich. Let Hoke Smith and Russell come and from the same platform tell the people why they should be elected governor—then they can decide. Come out and see the fun. Remember the day, Tuesday, Aug. 21st, at 11 o'clock.

Be sure and come to hear Dick Russell's speech.

Big Day At Brooklet.

The educational rally and barbecue held at Brooklet Wednesday, was in every sense a success. It was a great day and a rare treat for all who attended. The good people of Brooklet never do things by halves. At considerable expense, they prepared a barbecue and secured the band of the Woodmen of the World from Savannah. Truly they killed the fatted calf and all visitors were considered the Prodigal son.

The citizens of Brooklet are among the most progressive in the county, and have always taken a prominent interest in education. They have one of the best schools in the county, and it was to arouse greater interest in educational affairs that this rally was planned. The open-hearted hospitality of Brooklet is a thing worthy of note. The best of order prevailed and not a drunk man was seen on the grounds nor a disturbance of any kind reported. The people of Brooklet are to be congratulated on the quiet and orderly crowd and the pleasant way in which the day was spent.

Special trains were run over the Central from Dublin and over the S. & S. from Statesboro and Cuyler. These trains brought large crowds, which added to those that came in buggies and wagons made up a crowd estimated variously from eighteen hundred to two thousand.

Dr. John I. Lane was master of ceremonies and presided over the meeting with his usual rare tact. In a few appropriate and well chosen words he welcomed the crowd to Brooklet and told them that the latch string was on the outside.

The people were disappointed in not hearing State School Commissioner Merritt, who had been invited to deliver the principal address, but at the last moment he sent word that it would be impossible to come. Judge B. T. Rawlings was prevailed upon to make a speech and consented to accept. He showed that he could speak on educational affairs as well as address a jury or preside over a court. His speech was one of the ablest of its kind heard in this section in a long time. In a clear, logical and forceful manner he called attention to the needs of better education for the country and especially of better rural schools. He paid the country boy and girl an over-due, but deserved compliment, when he said that it is the country that gives to the world the strong men and women who do things; the men and women of moral courage. Judge J. W. Overstreet also made a short talk along the same lines. Dinner was then spread under the oak and pine grove near the railroad.

The barbecue, which consisted of several carcasses together with the well-filled baskets, made enough dinner to feed such another crowd.

After dinner there was an address by County School Commissioner Brannen. J. Hartridge Smith was also to speak, but the arrival of the train saved the people from the flash of his eloquence.

Congressional, judicial and county candidates were on hand and mingled freely with the voters. The band furnished music most of the day.

False Report
A report has come to my attention that I have made a deal to deliver the county advertising to certain parties if elected sheriff. I wish to say now and for all time that said report is a LIE. The author of it is anything but a gentleman. J. F. CLIFF. This Aug. 16, 1906.

NOTICE.

To the citizens of Bulloch County: It has come to my knowledge, that there is a report in circulation that Sheriff Kendrick has failed to account for a rifle that was sold among other property of S. F. B. Hendrix several years ago.

I attended that sale and bought said rifle. I afterward sold the rifle to said Sheriff Kendrick, he having a use for same in his business. I take this opportunity of correcting such a statement as they have in circulation.

I will say further, that such false reports and unfair methods make me a strong Kendrick man. H. L. BUIE.

In addition to this, the rifle is still in the sheriff's office today, and not traded, as another affidavit would have you believe.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Darden have returned from Hot Springs, Ark., and are spending some time at their home in Florida in a few days.

The Statesboro News

J. R. MILLER, Editor and Gen'l Mgr.

Published Tuesday and Friday by THE STATESBORO NEWS PUBLISHING COMPANY.

As It Looks Now.

The closing scenes of the gubernatorial race are fast gathering around us. The interest is at fever heat.

There is only one new feature to add to what has already been said. Some time ago the News printed a prediction that gave Hoke Smith 50 counties, Russell 35, etc., etc. The News asked that that estimate be shown us the day after the primary. We now withdraw said estimate, and beg to submit the following in its stead.

Counting 145 counties, the vote, in our opinion will be as follows: Russell, 64; Hoke Smith, 86; Estill, 22; Clark Howell, 17; Jim Smith, 6.

The News has not been a supporter of Judge Russell, but it has always looked upon him as really the best man in the race.

He is a poor man and a clean man. He possesses ability and courage sufficient to challenge the admiration of any man. He entered this campaign with all the chances against him, and for that reason many who might favor him were slow to cast their vote for a man whom they thought had no show at all, but he has gone about this state and won votes until today we believe there is no doubt but what he is the leading candidate in the race. The politicians have just woken up to a realization of this fact, and consternation fills their ranks.

There is no doubt in the world but what the strength of Hoke Smith is fast going to Russell. Russell embodies everything that is good in Hoke Smith's platform and leaves out those things that are unwise and dangerous.

We are sure that his strength is growing so fast that he will measure up to the estimate that we have made above, and if we have not mistaken the size of the stampede from the ranks of the others to his standard he may sweep the state from the mountains to the sea.

Russell, at the start, was a joke. To-day he is a real reality. Yes, he is a problem; and more than that we believe he is a winner.

John Temple Graves, the able editor of the Atlanta Georgian, a paper which, though non-partisan, has had a strong Hoke Smith leaning, says:

"Four months ago Hoke Smith would have swept the state like a whirlwind; to-day it is a question between him and Dick Russell as to who will do the sweeping act," or words to that effect.

The Georgian, along with all other fair-minded and open newspapers, is called upon to acknowledge the extent of the Russell boom.

The Statesboro News believes that the fellow who is discounting Russell's strength will wake up next Thursday morning a much disappointed citizen.

Early Risers.

The famous little pills.

What's the Matter With Dick Russell?

This is the question that confronts every follower of true democracy who is interested in the gubernatorial race. It is a question of vital importance and deserves the consideration of every honest voter.

Why do not the other candidates challenge his past record as a man in both private and public service? Simply because he has never left a stone unturned, and he has made a career so brilliant that even his enemies dare not attack his character.

He is not trying to blind the people by claiming the right to pass any disfranchisement bill in the event he is elected, but frankly confesses that he or any other man as governor can only use his influence in behalf of certain measures before the legislative bodies.

He advocates the interests of the people, and if elected he promises to serve the interests of the people, and protect every sort of honest industry from every corporate or "ring" influence.

He favors the child labor bill in the interest of education. He advocates the building of state roads clear across the state to regulate freight and passenger rates.

He has fought for the eight hours labor system for twenty years. He also favors a commissioner of labor by the people in order that our state may not be affected by strikes.

There are only a few things which he is fighting for, and should interest people of this section more at present than the negro question.

There is no doubt of his ability to fill the office in every particular. The positions he has held for the past twenty-one years would fit him most perfectly for governor of this state.

The report that "Dick" Russell is not an honest man is a sad mistake. To the contrary he is honest to the bone—sincere through and through; his heart is kind and sympathetic, and he is in every way worthy of the position he seeks and is perfectly capable of filling it.

Read this statement of some of the best citizens of his town: Winder, Ga., June 14, '06.

"To whom it may concern: We, the undersigned citizens of Winder, Ga., and neighbors of Judge R. B. Russell, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, do hereby condemn and heartily disapprove of the action taken by certain adherents of other candidates in vilifying and abusing our honored and esteemed fellow citizen.

We unhesitatingly vouch for Judge Russell as a man of ability, integrity, honesty and spotless moral character.

As solicitor general for eight years, and judge of the superior court of the Western circuit for seven years, we never heard of and never knew of one official act that was unbecoming or offensive to a perfect gentleman.

We consider Judge Russell the best fitted man in the present contest to fulfill the office of governor, and we heartily endorse him for this position, feeling that the affairs of state would be in the hands of a true, noble son of Georgia, whose every official act would be to the betterment of his native state and whose marked ability would all be used in the interest of the entire people.

Early Risers.

The famous little pills.

Two Sides to the Pass Question.

To the Tax Payers of Bulloch County: Since my opponent, Mr. J. Z. Kendrick, has rushed into print in a very feeble effort to explain his position in regard to his using an annual railway pass and charging amount of railway fare to the county and collecting same from the county treasurer, I deem it my privilege and duty to furnish you with truthful and correct information on this subject.

I will invite your attention to one conspicuous feature in his card, to-wit: He denies only one thing, and this one thing never has to my knowledge been charged against him. Note his language: "And some have even gone to the extent of saying that I have used the pass on one or two pleasure trips that I have taken, and then collected mileage out of the county for same. I wish to deny the truthfulness of this charge."

He tries to deny this charge (which I have never heard of until I saw it in his card), but according to his own language he does not deny it. He says he wishes to deny it. I do not blame him for the wish.

Please take notice, that Mr. Kendrick, in his card, does not deny anything that my friends have said about the way he has treated the tax payers of Bulloch county during his three terms in office by charging to the county and collecting for his own personal benefit many hundreds of dollars for railway fare that he never paid. Mr. Kendrick asserted that it is a great saving to the county for the sheriff to have a pass, but does not say where or how the saving comes in, in the face of the undenied fact that the tax payers foot the bills and the money goes in Kendrick's pocket.

I do not blame Mr. Kendrick for accepting and using a pass. I do say, however, that in honest fairness to the good people who gave him his office he should render to county true and correct bills of his traveling expenses, and I further say that he is not treating the people right when he takes his pass and goes for a prisoner to Macon, Augusta or Atlanta to jail, or takes a patient to the asylum, and upon his return to Statesboro makes out a bill about as follows:

To J. Z. Kendrick, Sheriff, Dr. Bringing Bill Jones from Fulton county jail to Bulloch county jail: 3 days services, $2 per day, $6.00 3 " hotel bill, $2 " " 6.00 R. R. fare to Atlanta, 8.50 " " Atlanta to Statesboro, 8.50 $29.00

On his return to Statesboro he has a patient for the asylum and makes out a bill about as follows: Bulloch County: To J. Z. Kendrick, Sheriff, Dr. Taking Mary Jones to asylum: 2 days services, $2 per day, $4.00 2 days hotel bill, $2 per day, 4.00 R. R. fare to Milledgeville, 5.00 R. R. fare Milledgeville to Statesboro, 5.00 $19.00

Please bear in mind that the items of R. R. fare having never been paid, are all clear net profit to Mr. Kendrick. In this way he has made more clear money in five days than many of our hardworking honest farmers have made in twelve months. And my friends, he has been at this practice six years and I do not think he is treating you right.

I promise if elected an honest administration of the sheriff's office. Respectfully asking your votes and influence on the 22d. Yours truly, JO. F. OLLIFF.

The Cotton Market.

Short cotton has suffered a decline. The best cotton is selling at only 94 cents. There have only been five bales marketed here so far. The market on sea island is not open yet.

A Warm Meeting.

If you want to see the warmest political meeting ever held in Bulloch county, come out here next Tuesday and take in the Russell meeting. The boys intend to lift the roof of the courthouse.

No Barbecue at Snap School.

A basket dinner will be spread by the friends and patrons at the closing of Snap school, Aug. 21. The following named speakers have been invited: Hinton Booth, J. E. Brannen, R. Lee Moore, Rev. T. J. Cobb, G. B. Franklin, R. J. H. Deloach, J. M. Murphy.

IN ANSWER TO MR. JO. OLLIFF

In this week's issue of the Bulloch Times, Mr. Jo Olliff has an article attempting to excuse his attacks on me for using a pass over the Central railway. I have tried to conduct this campaign without any mud-slinging, and I have not said one word detrimental to Mr. Olliff's character, and I don't intend to.

In one paragraph, Mr. Olliff tries to grow witty by saying that I failed in my former card to deny the charges he has been circulating against me, but that I simply wished to deny them. Well, if my denial is not strong enough for him, I will make it to suit him. I here and now, once for all, deny the truthfulness of the charges he and his friends have been making.

In the first place, the figures given in the Times are only imaginary and are as false as the other reports they have been circulating. My bills are all on record, properly filled and approved. Mr. Olliff doesn't need to manufacture figures, except in his desire to mislead the people and to misrepresent me. If he wants to get the truth, why not go to the records? I am trying to conduct a clean campaign; why can't he?

If Mr. Olliff would trouble himself to investigate his imaginary "Bill Jones" and "Mary Jones" accounts, he might discover that the items of the railroad fare were paid out for "Bill" or "Mary" as the railroad companies are not in the habit of hauling prisoners or lunatics free; or he might discover that the trips were made over other roads than the Central.

In the second place, he charges that I have not rendered correct bills against the county, leaving the impression that I have dealt dishonestly in my transactions with the public. I denounce this charge as untrue. If my accounts have not been correct, why is it that the grand jury for these six years have failed to discover it? If I have been making unlawful charges against the county, why is it that no one has ever found it out until Mr. Jo. Olliff took a notion to run for sheriff?

In the third place, he denies that the county has been saved a dollar by reason of my having a pass over the railroad. He says that I alone have benefited by it. He forgets that the pass is my individual property and does not belong to the county. He would perhaps have me pay the county for the privilege of using my own private pass. My own deputy even cannot use it. It is my individual property just as much as the horse Mr. Olliff drives is his property.

If I should resign tomorrow, my pass would still be good. And yet he says the county has received no benefits. There he is wrong again. If he would only use the same effort to find out the truth that he is using to broadcast the charges against me, he would become convinced of his error. I have never collected a dollar for the railway fare of prisoners arrested within the county although paid out of my own pocket. Sometimes I have to make more than one trip for a prisoner outside of the county, and no bill whatever is rendered either for my time or mileage—whereas if Mr. Olliff should be elected and should fail to get a pass (as was the case with me for my first year in office), the county would no doubt be called on to pay his full mileage for all these extra trips. Frequently I send my deputy on these extra trips, out of the county, and have to pay his fare and other expenses and no bill for same charged against the county.

The small amount that I collect as mileage over all the roads does not pay a fraction of my extra expenditure for the benefit of the county that I never charge up at Japan Wants More American Cotton.

San Francisco, Aug. 14.—Yoshuchi Sakurai arrived from Japan today in the interests of the cotton merchants.

In speaking of the trade of the United States with Japan, he said that in the next ten years Japan will get over three-fourths of her cotton from the United States.

"Last year Japan used over a million bales of cotton, and only one-fourth of it came from the United States. The other is found to be much coarser and rote easier." "The Japanese recognise the superiority of the American article, and all first-class weavers are coming to use it."

"The export of cotton from the United States to Japan is bound to increase enormously in the next few years."

A world of truth in a few words: "Nearly all other cough cures are constipating, especially those containing Opates. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar moves the bowels. Contains no opates." You can get it at W. H. Ellis.

Salvation Army Gives Fresh Air and Dinner to the Poor.

More than 800 of the working class of Montgomery's population yesterday spent a continuous day of pleasure and enjoyment at the first picnic given by the local post of the Salvation Army at Pickett Springs.

Scores of little tots, great numbers of men and women, mostly from Montgomery's cotton factory district at West End, and many inmates of the county poor houses and women's Home composed the party of picnicers who attended the outing arranged by the army. No other undertaking in Montgomery probably ever carried more real joy to the hearts of these people who needed it than this picnic. It was, in fact, an innovation philanthropic work of Montgomery.

Leaving Court Square on special cars at 9 o'clock yesterday morning and arriving at the Springs at 9:30 o'clock, the people found everything that their hearts could desire in store for them.

Cold lemonade in abundance was served the people and they engaged in various forms of amusement. The little ones took possession of the pavilion, and while the smaller ones busied themselves ricocheting on the smooth floor, the older ones engaged in games.

The dinner served by the army at 1:45 o'clock was equal in quality and variety to any of the year. Every seat in the barbecue pit occupied and members of the Salvation Army, together with several interested citizens, served the menu.

The dinner consisted of mutton, pork, beef, chicken, cakes of all kinds, salads, pies, breads and a number of other dishes. That the picnicers were delighted was evidenced by the way they consumed the wholesome food that was set before them.

It was a great spectacle, these hundreds bountifully served with the best meats and breads the market affords. Soon after dinner was over, ice cream was served in the pavilion. The army had thirty-five gallons of ice cream on hand and there was plenty for everyone present. Later in the day 1,000 bottles of soda water were distributed. There was nothing wanting to make the event a success.

About 4:30 o'clock all the pleasures were suspended and a genuine Salvation Army meeting was held in the pavilion. The great crowd gathered around the army workers while the object and work of the army were explained. Little children nestled around the army officers and listened silently to the services. These little ones were equally as sincere as the older ones and they joined in the religious songs. The meeting was conducted by Captain H. Whitaker.

The picnic was in charge of Captain and Mrs. L. A. Odum, who were assisted by Captain and Mrs. Whitaker, and Privates E. P. Black and W. R. Worcester. Every member was earnest in the work of making the day one of complete pleasure to the people and they could hardly have been more successful. Everything to be served was dishes out by them. They saw to the comforts and conveniences of the crowd and they came into closer touch with the people they desire most especially to reach. A number of Montgomery representative citizens visited the Springs during the day and were so much interested in the zeal displayed by the army that they joined in making the people happy.

During the day a large crowd gathered in the pavilion and a photograph was taken of the party.

There is nothing so pleasant as that bright, cheerful, at-peace-with-the-world feeling when you sit down to your breakfast. There is nothing so conducive to good work and good results. The healthy man with a healthy mind and body is a better fellow, a better workman, a better citizen than the man or woman who is handicapped by some disability, however slight. A slight disorder of the stomach will derange your body, your thoughts and your disposition. Get away from the morbidness and the blues. Keep your stomach in tune and both your brain and body will respond. Little indiscretions of overeating can be easily corrected and you will be surprised to see how much better man you are. Try a little Kodol, for dyspepsia after meals. Sold by W. H. Ellis.
