CONVENTION ADJOURNED

Without Making Nomination.
To Meet September 24, in Waynesboro.

When the resolution of Mr. Green had been read, Col. R. Lee Moore sprang quite a sensation by reading two affidavits from Bryan county quoting the remarks which Sheppard made the day after the primary election when he thought he had a majority of the popular vote in the district, to the effect that he thought he should receive the nomination, as he had the majority of the popular vote. Col. Moore stressed the fact that now he should live up to his word and let Mr. Brannen have the nomination, as the latter had a popular majority of nearly thirteen hundred votes. No effort was made on the part of the Sheppard delegation, then or later, to refute or disprove the affidavits. Col. Moore made one of the ablest and most forceful speeches in Mr. Brannen's behalf yet made on the floor of the convention.

The session Friday morning was taken up with speechmaking; R. Lee Moore and E. K. Overstreet for Brannen, and Messrs. Collins and Guckenheimer for Sheppard, taking the principal parts. An earnest effort was made to reach some agreement. Charge after charge of money and whiskey being used and a vague intimation that affidavits could be produced to prove it, was made against Brannen by the Sheppard delegation.

A resolution by Mr. Shearouse, of Effingham county to have a committee of two from each side appointed, with the chairman of the convention as ex-officio member, to investigate these charges and report at the end of three weeks, was introduced. The resolution was as follows: "Whereas, On Friday last, the 7th inst., it was reported to this convention that offers had been made in the way of cash and the secretaryship for the nominating of a congressman; and, "Whereas, said offers appear to create dissatisfaction on the part of a number of the delegates to this convention; and, "Whereas, said report has caused more or less comment by the press throughout the state of Georgia; and, "Whereas, it is the duty of this convention to maintain and support the Democratic party of the First congressional district so as to leave no blot upon any of the acts or doings of the party so far as it is in the power of this convention; and, "Whereas, every delegate to this convention to consider the party ahead of any individual or other of the candidates now before this convention for nomination; therefore be it

COMMITTEE OF FIVE

"Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed, two from the Sheppard delegates and two from Brannen delegates, with the chairman, to be instructed, to investigate all such charges, and that they be, and they are hereby, empowered to summons before them any or all parties to testify on matter, and that said committee be, and they are hereby, authorized to swear each and every witness whom they summons to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, and that the committee hereby appointed report back in writing the result of its findings, and that they be and are hereby empowered to investigate the matter of the use of money or whiskey in the primary by either of the candidates now before this convention,

"Resolved, further, That the committee be, and they are hereby, empowered to take testimony either orally or by affidavit, and that the said committee be given such time within the next twenty days to make said investigation, and that this convention now adjourn subject to the call of the chairman; provided, said call shall be made by said chairman within the next twenty days, "Resolved, further, That each of the candidates shall have the right to appear in person or by attorney and defend any charge that may be made at the investigation.

"Resolved, further, That any dark horse candidate affected by said investigation be given the right to appear in person or by attorney in his own defense."

Col. R. Lee Moore spoke in opposition to the resolution, calling attention to the fact that it was only an excuse to gain time. The convention assembled here to nominate a congressman and he was in favor of going about the task and staying in session continuously until it was done. Both Brannen and Sheppard had been before the convention and some questions were asked them then and the answers were satisfactory. It would be the same as naming a committee of three Sheppard delegates, he said, as the chairman was a Sheppard man. At the end of three weeks the breach would be as great or greater than at present, and besides the convention was in no way bound to act upon the report of the investigating committee.

Mr. Collins spoke in favor of the resolution. He said these charges should be investigated, and if it was proved that either of the gentlemen had used whiskey or money to obtain votes that he would not receive his vote. He would not be disqualified to serve as a congressman but would be liable to prosecution as well.

Mr. Overstreet spoke at length against the resolution. He pleaded for harmony in the democratic party. The debt that we owe to the democratic party is greater than that we owe to any one man, he said. When the convention opened here three weeks ago Brannen and Sheppard were conceded to be men of honor, without stain or blemish upon their private or public lives, and now there are charges of bribery against both of them. The longer the convention stays in session the bitterer will be the feelings become. He was against the resolution because it was unfair, needless and would accomplish nothing. It is the duty, he said, of the candidates to help settle this matter. He proposed a conference committee of four from each side to get the two candidates together and see if some fair and just agreement could be reached. Meanwhile the resolution of Mr. Shearouse to have money and whiskey charges investigated was lost by the tie vote of eighteen to eighteen.

Mr. Overstreet then offered his resolution for a conference committee. This was accepted by the other side. The following delegates were named: For Sheppard, Messrs. Collins of Chatham, Hines of Liberty, MacFarland of McIntosh and Kiehlkriter of Bryan.

For Brannen: Messrs. Giles of Toombs, Chapman of Screven, Moore of Bulloch and Williams of Emanuel.

This committee reported in the jail at Anderson today.

afternoon that nothing had been gained by the conference.

Col. R. Lee Moore then read a letter from Mr. Brannen saying that he was willing for his name to be withdrawn from the convention on condition that Mr. Sheppard withdraw his name as a so. The letter said it was apparent that neither of the present candidates would ever receive the nomination and that there are other good men in the district that could get the nomination. Mr. Sheppard refused to authorize the withdrawal of his name. "Then," said Mr. Moore, "we will not withdraw Mr. Brannen's name."

The 402d ballot was taken. Then W. F. Train, of Chatham, offered a resolution to adjourn the convention to meet again at Waynesboro, on Monday, September 24th. This motion was carried, McKenzie of Burke, voting with the Sheppard delegation and giving them the vote necessary to carry the resolution. This came as a complete surprise to the Brannen forces, who thought that in McKenzie they had a man who would remain loyal until the end. Thus the matter rests.

Bryan Will Speak
At Piedmont Park.
Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 15.—Plans subject to revision, for the reception of William Jennings Bryan in Atlanta, September 30, were formulated Thursday evening at a meeting of the Young Men's Democratic League, in the office of President Lamar Hill, Gould building.

According to present information, Mr. Bryan will arrive here at 6 o'clock in the morning, September 20, and the general reception committee will meet him at the train and escort him to the Piedmont hotel, when breakfast will be served.

A public reception from 11 to 12 o'clock in the hotel is within the plans now provided for. At 2 o'clock in the afternoon Mr. Bryan will deliver an address from the grandstand in the race track at Piedmont Park. President Roosevelt spoke from this stand last October. A special platform will be erected for the occasion.

As yet it is not known whether Mr. Bryan will leave the city on an afternoon or evening train, and plans for the afternoon following speaking are contingent upon more definite information concerning that point.

E. P. Barnes and Lawton Nalley were appointed a committee to confer with the railroad relative to reduced rates to Atlanta for this occasion. President Lamar Hill will complete the arrangements for Mr. Bryan's visit after he has heard from him.

All The Family
Suddenly Crazy.

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 14.—Crazed by religion, four well-to-do negroes, Reed Anderson, his daughter and two sons, ran amuck in a remote section of Anderson county, South Carolina, yesterday afternoon, attacked and stoned several white persons and destroyed property. The Andersons finally barricaded themselves in their home, defying arrest.

Dr. W. A. Tripp, whom the police sought to have enter the home and drug the maniacal negroes, was shot and thrown bodily through the door.

The negroes were not overpowered until Reed Anderson was killed. The Andersons own valuable farming property and were highly respected by the whites.

The survivors were lodged in the jail at Anderson today.

Attempt to Lynch Negro Implicated in Carter Murder

Valdosta, Ga., Sept. 14.—It is reported here today that an effort was made by a mob in the upper part of the county to lynch Frank Turner, the negro alleged to have been implicated in the Carter murders here last year and who was released from jail this week on a $500 bond signed by himself.

Turner is the negro preacher whom Alf Moore said hired him for J. G. Rawlings to kill the Carter children. At the trial he was found guilty of being an accessory to the fact, but with a recommendation to mercy. His case was carried to the Georgia supreme court and the judgment reversed.

As it was impossible to obtain any evidence against Turner except that of Alf Moore, which the supreme court had discredited, he was returned on the order signed by Judge Mitchell of the superior court. Turner went from here to Mahira, but as soon as he learned the temper of the people left the community. It is impossible to learn particulars of the attempted lynching, but a trustworthy citizen from that section says forty or fifty men were looking for the negro on the night of his arrival there.

A Reception for
Rev. J. C. Rowan.

One of the most pleasant social events of the season was the reception in honor of Rev. J. C. Rowan, of the Presbyterian church, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Kennedy, on North Main street, Thursday evening, Sept. 13th. It was given as a mark of esteem to this young man who has been one of the most faithful, earnest and brilliant preachers the church has ever had.

The large and handsome lawn was tastefully decorated with Japanese lanterns. Arranged in groups of five or six either chatting merrily or playing games, the guests spent a very pleasant evening. Exquisite music was furnished by Miss Leslie Brannen and Mrs. W. M. Oliver. During the evening refreshments were served.

Mrs. Kennedy was assisted in receiving by Mrs. VanWagonen, Mrs. W. M. Oliver, Miss Eunice Lester and Mrs. Williams. All the young people in town were invited, attesting the popularity of the guest of honor.

Separate Seats for Negroes
Savannah, Ga., September 12.—The city council this afternoon passed an ordinance providing for the separation of the races aboard the street cars in Savannah. A delegation of leading negroes of the city appeared before the council in opposition to the measure, and their protest was heard. It was of no avail, however, the passage of the ordinance being unanimous.

No separate compartments are required, but merely separate seats. A certain portion of every car will be assigned to each race. This is an arrangement that has long been desired by the white people.

Starving to Death.
Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair st., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. "She writes: 'My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die I was induced to try Electric Bitters, with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed.' Best health tone in four weeks. Suffered with W. H. Ellis, druggist."

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 15.—Ten masked bandits on horseback rode into Underwood, N. D., 50 miles from Bismark, early this morning, blew open the safes in the Security State Bank and the First State Bank and secured from both institutions $12,000. Two citizens accosted by the robbers were held up till the job was completed. The robbers were at work two hours. The explosion frightened citizens who stayed in their homes. Several posers are in pursuit.

Death of an Infant.
Friday morning the 18-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Deal died after an illness of about ten days. The child's death was caused from testing. The interment occurred Friday afternoon in East Side cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. J. C. Rowan, of the Presbyterian church.

Good Meeting at Clito.
The Bulloch county Woman's Missionary Union held their annual association with Clito Baptist church Thursday, Sept. 13. It had been planned to have a two days' meeting, but on account of the dry weather it was decided to finish the business and have a one day meeting only. Delegates from all the churches of the county were present. An interesting program was rendered and much enthusiasm aroused. Conveyances met those coming on the train at the depot and carried them to the church about a mile from Clito. Dinner was spread on the grounds. Quite a number from Statesboro attended the meeting.

Negro Lynched
Waco, Texas, Sept. 15.—Mitchell Frazier, a negro about 27 years of age, was lynched by a mob tonight at Rosebud, Texas, being strung up to a water tank in the heart of town and a flashlight picture taken of the scene. The negro's offense was that of cutting a white German farmer by the name of Frank Hess with a razor. Considerable race feelings were manifested and several negro

One Killed, Two

Wounded in a Race Riot.
Greenville, S. C., Sept. 14.—A small race riot was precipitated at Piedmont yesterday afternoon as a result of an attempted assault on Mrs. J. M. Long, wife of a prominent farmer of Piedmont district, by Bill Henry, a desperate negro about 40 years old.

The attempted assault occurred in the front yard at the Long home the negro had formerly been employed by Mr. Long.

Mrs. Long's cries attracted several neighbors and frightened the negro away.

A posse was quickly organized and the negro pursued to an old negro shanty, where, with a number of negro sympathizers, he had harbored himself and was prepared to fight. The posse surrounded the house and the ne-groose came out armed for a fight.

A pitched battle was engaged in with the result that J. M.
Long, husband of the lady on whom the assault was attempted, was shot through the arm; Dr.
Trippie, a member of the posse, was shot in the breast and struck on the head with a crowbar, and one of the negroes named Anderson was killed.

The negroes were finally routed from their position and Henry captured and lodged in jail.
Three others fled and are being pursued. If they are overtaken another battle is expected.

Mrs. S. H. Harvard wife of a Prominent Railroad Man Sends Great parasite to a Druggist

One afternoon about 4 o'clock an unusual occurrence took place at the drug store when Mrs.
Harvard, wife of a prominent railroad man living in Savannah came up and called for the propi-etor. She seemed to be excited, and carried in her hand good-sized glass dish, which upon examination was found to contain an immense parasite, commonly known as a tape-worm, which she handed over to the druggist with the remark that one and a half bottles of the famous Plant Juice had relieved her mother of that awful thing.

In the course of the conversation that followed it developed that she had been suffering for the past several years with some sort of stomach trouble, which no physician had been able to diagnose, and that her condition had never improved to any appreciable extent, notwithstanding the fact that she had taken about every kind of medicine that had been recommended to her.

Last week her husband persuaded himself to procure a bottle of Dillingham's Plant Juice, and she began taking it with probably no more hopes of relief than usual.
She kept up the treatment, however, and on the 5th day was astonished at the result. Her gratification and pleasure over the relief she has secured can be better imagined than described, and she wanted the world to know of the wonderful qualities of the remedy that has done so much for her.

Since being relieved of the tape-worm, which measured thirty-one feet in length, her condition has rapidly improved, the misery feeling has left her stomach and she is rapidly rounding into the conditions of a healthy and happy woman.

The case of Mrs. Harvard like that of Mrs. Bridges has attracted unusual attention, and has opened the eyes of the people to the splendid curative power of this wonderful remedy.

In speaking of the case of Mrs.
Harvard a druggist said: "Of course I am gratified to be able to afford relief to those afflicted in the manner shown by her but I have never for a moment doubted the efficacy of the Plant Juice to bring about the desired results.
From the symptoms displayed by the patient I was confident I knew her condition, and therefore was little surprised when the result of the treatment was produced.
The public would be astonished at the number of similar cases affected of which they never hear, and many of which escape even my observation, but I have never known a case, where the proper treatment was taken, where failure has resulted. The medicines Col. Dillingham manufactures speak for themselves, and I am only too happy to be able to provide relief for suffering humanity wherever I find it."

The Dillingham Plant Juice remedies can be found on sale at several drug-stores of the city and county, Simmons Co., and Mr.
Simmons has a complete supply on sale.

The remedies consist of Dillingham's Plant Juice the unfailing remedy for liver, stomach and kidney diseases, besides being a splendid blood remedy. The Plant Juice Liniment, never failing in cases of pains, aches and bruises; Plant Juice Eczema Cure, Plant Juice Asthma Cure, Plant Juice Salve and Plant Juice soap—a fine toilet article and a certain cure from pimples and sores.

The price of these medicines are always the same in the drugstores, and they are in every case guaranteed to be of the same efficacy and value. When you need the remedies ask your favorite druggist for them.—Sold by The Notice of Intention to Apply For Charter.

In accordance with the provisions of the laws of the state of Georgia, the undersigned, after four (4) weeks notice by publication, will file in the office of the Secretary of State a petition for incorporation as a railroad company, of which the following is a copy:
STATE OF GEORGIA, Chatham Co., To the Hon. Phillip Cook, Secretary of State.

The petition of J. Randolph Anderson, W. W. Williamson, A. S. Guckenheimer, T. F. Walsh, Jr., and W. E.
O'Connor, all of the city of Savannah in said county and state, and of G. S.
Johnston, J. G. Biltch, J. A. Brannen, R. Simmons and D. N. Bacon, all of the city of Statesboro, in the county of Bulloch, in said state, respectfully shows:

1st. That they desire for themselves and such others as may be associated with them, to form a railroad corporation pursuant to the laws of the State of Georgia, to be known and called by the name of the Savannah, Statesboro and Western Railway, the same not being the name of any existing railway corporation in the State of Georgia; that the length of said road, as near as can be estimated, will be about two hundred and ten miles; that the said road will run in a general northwesterly direction from the city of Savannah, to a point in or near Atlanta, in Fulton county, within the State of Georgia; that the said road will probably run through the counties of Bulloch, and Emanuel from States-boro to Statesboro, on or near a direct line as may be, and thence through the counties of Emanuel, Johnson, Washington, Baldwin, Jones, Putnam, Jasper, Newton, Rockdale, DeKalb and Fulton to a point in or near the city of Atlanta.

2nd. That they desire the said corporation to be incorporated for the period of 30 years, with the privilege of renewal at the expiration of that period; that the amount of the proposed capital stock is to be one million dollars of common stock, with the privilege of issuing, if and when desired, five hundred thousand dollars additional of preferred stock, and that the preferred stock shall have no power to vote, but shall be entitled to receive dividends when same are paid, up to the amount of six per cent, before any dividends shall be paid upon the common stock; that the principal office of said corporation shall be located in Chatham county, Ga.; that petitioners do intend in good faith to go forward without delay to secure subscriptions to the capital stock, to construct, equip, maintain and operate said railroad; that they have given four weeks notice of their intention to apply for said charter by the publication of this petition in one of the newspapers in which the Sheriff's advertisements are published in case there is a newspaper published in said county, in each of the counties through which said proposed road will probably run, once a week for four weeks, before the filing of said petition. Petitioners further desire that the charter of said railway corporation may be granted them as herein prayed for, and that they, their associates, successors and assigns, be incorporated under and in accordance with the laws of the State of Georgia, in such case made and provided.

JUDGE RUSSELL IS NOW A CANDIDATE.

Atlanta, Sept. 18.—Judge Richard B. Russell has been made a candidate for one of the judgeships of the proposed State Court of Appeals without his knowledge or consent. In other words, Judge Russell's friends have put him in the race by paying his $100 assessment to Chairman Miller today, and it was stated by Walter R. Brown, who was Judge Russell's close friend and adviser in his recent race for Governor that Judge Russell would not know that he is a candidate until he sees the announcement in tomorrow's papers.

Judge Russell, it is said, has received letters from all parts of the state urging him to make the race, but he decided to keep out of it. Mr. Brown has also received letters from many parts of Georgia suggesting that he urge Judge Russell to enter the race for the Court of Appeals, and stating that because of Judge Russell's well known ability, many voters whose ballots were cast for other candidates for Governor would be glad to give him their support for this position.
Emerson H. George, representative from Morgan county, today announced his withdrawal from the race for the Court of Appeals and says he will work for Judge Proffitt of Elberton, T. F. Green of Athens and Judge Fred C.
Foster, of Maderon.

The Cheapest Stump Puller

This is not an advertisement.
I wish to tell the farmers of Bul-loch what I saw in Mississippi.
A farmer was taking out pine stumps, and his plan was the cheapest and most economical I ever saw:

Tools: A mattock, a spade, an axe and a ship augur with shank about four feet long.
Operation: Dig a good deep hole on the lowest or down hill side of the stump, below lateral roots and to main stem of the stump.
Dig on the lower side so water will not collect in the hole. Only a spade width and slope sides enough to keep dirt from falling in and filling up the hole. Then on other side dig down a few inches so as to get to main stem of stump. Then bore a hole diagonally downward right through the main stem of the stump, from the bottom of shallow hole to the bottom of the deep hole. Use a ship augur not less than one and a half inch. Other augurs will choke, ship augur will not.
Use a pin nearly size of hole and clean out all chips. Let it stand a few days to dry out the hole.
Make fire in the deep hole, and when blazing good, if it does not start through the hole of its own accord, push a long pin into the hole from high side and jerk out quickly. This will start the fire through the hole, which being diagonal will draw it through and out goes the stump. A few chips to start it and then the fire being in the center of the stump will not rain out and seldom go out.
The bigger and fatter the stump the easier it will burn out. A stump pulled out must be hauled off or burned up, but a stump burned out is both out and gone.

To meet the scarcity of labor farmers must use improved instruments, but they cannot do this until stumps are out. Get stumps out and then use improved tools.

Turner Shows His Spleen.
In last week's Bulloch Times appeared an article on the congressional situation. In that article it was stated that I had suffered constantly at the hands of my friends during the campaign.
That men have assumed to speak for me who have formed alliances and took positions which defeated me. That I had formed alliances and made trades with the Estill forces by which I was to carry Chatham county and a general totality against myself and friends.
I called on the editor for specifications, and the burden of his reply was that Mr. J. R. Miller was the main cause of all the trouble than at any time in the history of the Statesboro News had injured me in opposing Hoke Smith, etc. According to Editor Turner, Mr.
Miller had no right to oppose Hoke Smith, because I was a candidate for congress, and while the convention was in session Turner proceeded to publish an editorial on the matter, which nine-tenths of the stockholders in his paper condemned him for—and they know he did it because he hates J. R.
Miller of the Statesboro News, and wanted to fight Miller over my shoulders. They all know it was not his solitude for my interest, nor for his "regrets" over what he terms, Miller's conduct in the campaign. Everybody knows it was pure venom and spite toward Miller, and to me, because I am a stockholder in The News. According to Turner, Editor Miller had no right to oppose Hoke Smith, while he had a perfect right to oppose Howell, Estill and Russell.
Some of the stockholders of The News were for Hoke Smith, while some of the stockholders of The Times were against Smith. Each editor did as he pleased regardless of who the stockholders were for.
Now Turner is mad simply because he thought I had the right, and ought to take the authority to make Miller support Smith, and he blames me along with Miller, for Smith's defeat in Bul-loch county. None of the other stockholders in the Times do blame me, because they have more sense.

Turner no doubt expected to reap some profit or reward in supporting Smith—otherwise I can't see why he is so mad about it, that he has to jump on me while the convention was being held in Statesboro, and try to do me dirt at that particular time. He need not blame any of my friends for anything they may have done during the campaign. He is not the proper man to blame my friends.
He don't do it in good faith—but in bad faith. Not done to help me—but to injure me, and he knows it. He need not try to side step it to my mistake of my son, nor my friend Rafe Simmons. I do not like to use harsh language, and will not do so. But the truth is, Turner wants to fight Miller over my shoulder and I will not allow it. Let him fight Miller straight and no doubt Miller will accommodate him. Turner started this racket and now I commit him to the tender mercies of his ancient enemy. Admitting that I did lose votes because Miller opposed Hoke Smith, that was a mistake that I can excuse, because Miller had the right to do as he pleased, and I would rather suffer defeat than attempt to throttle a man in either his religious or political rights; and I am not complaining at all things my friends done—while he pretends that he regrets the acts of my friends, and points out their mistakes in the public prints. He did it solely to injure me and he knows it—and that for no good cause.

OBITUARY.
In loving remembrance of Miss Bernice Brannen, the 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Brannen, who passed away Saturday morning, September 15, 1906, after an illness of two weeks with typhoid fever, she was laid to rest on Sunday morning, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. J. L. Smith to an immense number of sorrowing friends and relatives. All medical aid and loving hands failed to relieve her, but God, in His tender mercy, relieved her, by calling her to live forever in that home beyond the "Golden Gate," where there is no sickness nor sorrow. The sun of her sweet existence shone out brightness while it was yet morning and sank down to rise and shine again, glorified and resplendent in the paradise of God. We know it was hard for her parents, brothers and sisters to part with one of such a lovely disposition, and whose bright smiles brightened up their happy home, but we must be submissive to God's will, for He knoweth best. Not only is she missed at her home, but among her host of friends, who were always ready and anxious to welcome her in their midst. So the heavenly Father saw fit to welcome her into a home He had prepared for her where all is love, joy and peace.
Bernice is not dead! In our imagination we see her bright, smiling face before us, and feel in our hearts her sweet presence still.
Gone? Oh, yes, we know forever, but its pure, sweet life, with all of its grace and beauty throws beams of gladness into our saddened hearts, drawing us in trust with Christ, who is a hope on earth and a never fading light in heaven.
Oh, bereaved ones, accept this consolation: She is now resting on eternity's side awaiting the resurrection, when all the faithful shall meet to part no more.

Her Cousin,
EDNA MCGINLEY.

Statesboro's Big Boom.

Statesboro was never on a big boom than at the present time.
That the city is growing and developing along every line of useful industry cannot be denied. Slow but sure has been the history of the city's growth since the first railroad was built here fifteen years ago. Periods of depression have been offset by seasons of prosperity. This year, when business has been unusually dull and in the face of a short cotton crop—the great money product of the south—the work of building up the city is going ahead at a rapid rate.

More buildings are going up
the industrial life of the town.
And the supply is not equal to the demand. Families who would move here to take advantage of the school cannot do so, as there are no houses for rent. Not an empty house can be found in the confines of the town. It is pretty safe to say that twenty-five new residences are needed in States-boro at this time.

The brick stores on West Main street, below the post office, are about completed, and, in fact, one of them has already been occupied. The J. P. Williams residence, on South Main street, the most costly and handsome structure of its kind in the country counties of south Georgia will soon be ready for occupancy. This residence is costing $80,000. W.
B. Martin is having a $10,000 residence built on North Main street.

The J. W. Olliff company is having a mammoth warehouse, 100 x 100 feet, built for the storage of baggies and wagons. A two-room annex to the Statesboro institute is being pushed as rapidly as possible to accommodate the students of Statesboro. A large brick living stable on the north-east side of the court house square is being built. Work on a fertilizer factory will begin at once. The Bank of Statesboro will build a new bank building on their lot within the course of a few months.
The post office receipts are constantly growing. They are twice as large as they were last year at this time.

Now, don't all of these things go to prove that Statesboro is living, breathing, growing, every hour?
Just watch Statesboro become the Metropolis of "Wiregrass" Georgia.

Fertilizer Factory Assured.

The fertilizer factory so long talked of will be built within the next few weeks. A site, which has always been the cause of contention, has been agreed upon. It will be located near the Bulloch oil mill, on the S. & S. railway.
This site meets with the approval of the council and they have given permission for the building to go up. Mr. Lichtenstien, the promoter of this factory, says it will be ready for the winter trade.
This industry means much for Statesboro.
