

11-27-1906

Statesboro News

Notes

Condition varies. Some pages missing or in poor condition.

Originals provided for filming by the publisher.

Gift of Statesboro Herald and the Bulloch County Historical Society.

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues>

Recommended Citation

"Statesboro News" (1906). Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues). 4719.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues/4719>

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Bulloch County Historical Newspapers at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues) by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

Local and Personal

WHEN YOU THINK OF HARDWARE, THINK OF RAINES.

At the meeting of the Georgia Hardware Association, Mr. C. H. Raines, of Statesboro, was elected president for the year 1906.

Mr. Sam Proctor is recuperating while he recuperates down in the sylvan retreats of his first love.

As a winner I offer 10¢ worth baking powder and a bottle of Sloan's Liniment with each 25 cent purchase of cough cures—all brands—25 and 50 cent size. I have Season for sore throat and colds is ripening.

J. D. Strickland, Stilson Ga.

Mrs. Harrison O'Neil returned Tuesday afternoon from Savannah where she has been spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Parish.

Call and see our picture frame department upstairs.

J. D. Strickland, Stilson Ga.

Miss Mabel DeLoach, of Metter, is the guest this week of Miss Georgia Turner.

WANTED—within the next 60 days 550 tons cotton seed, will pay full market price. See me before selling your seed.

R. H. Warnock, Brooklet, Ga.

The Turnip crop in some sections is said to be very good. It has been rather dry though for fall crops to be as good as they should have been.

BOARDERS—Can accommodate a few more boarders at the Hean house.

Mrs. G. H. Carswell

If you want fish we have them every day. Phone us, No. 18.

D. Barnes

We are prepared to gin your sea island cotton now.

Bulloch Oil Mill.

J. W. Olliff Co. millinery line complete with French pattern hats, and latest swell line of trimmings. Your requirements can be supplied from our immense stock.

Col. H. B. Strange is spending several days in New York.

Newest and largest line of crockery, plain and decorated. Just received. Give us a call.

J. D. Strickland, Stilson Ga.

Fish is brain food. If you want more brains we have fish every day.

D. Barnes

It pays to take physical culture and lead the life strenuous though good days for one never knows at what time he may have to enter the pugilistic field.

Sewing machines are going at factory prices. Best make.

J. W. Olliff Co.

It will be of interest to the people here to know that Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Edge will soon move to West Virginia where they will in the future make their home. They have been at Flomington, in Bryan county, this year.

Carload of best Texas rust proof seed oats just received by J. W. Olliff Co.

The frost of a few days ago killed the vines on the front porches and they are being dragged down much to the sorrow of certain of the young people who say they are such a fine screen for the good old summer time when, after the moon has gone behind the vines, they can so enjoy themselves.

Fish! Fish! Fish! every day at D. Barnes. Phone us, No. 18.

Mrs. W. B. Lee, who has been spending some time here with relatives left Thursday morning for Savannah where she will visit for several days before returning to her home in Brunswick. She was accompanied by Mrs. Elizabeth Kennedy.

The "Favorite" Range is known the world over to be the best. Come in and examine them.

Raines.

Our shoe department is well stocked and we defy competition in this line. J. W. Olliff Co.

Mrs. H. L. DeLoach, of Adabelle, spent several days in the city this week the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bowen on South Main street. She, accompanied by Mr. Bowen paid the News a pleasant call Wednesday afternoon.

See us for prices.—Jones & Kennedy.

Mr. Homer Parker spent part of the week at Waynesville.

When you want the best thing to be had in the hardware line see

Jones & Kennedy.

We buy remnants of both kinds of cotton. Bulloch Oil Mill.

Miss Kate Parker left Wednesday morning for Augusta where she goes to be the guest of her former college mate, Mrs. C. C. Arnett.

Call in and examine my line of Jewell and Iron King stoves before you buy. W. G. Raines.

Mrs. B. T. Outland is in Macou this week where she will spend several days with relatives.

Get my prices on guns, shells, etc., before you buy. Raines.

Bring us in your cotton seed before we close down.

Bulloch Oil Mill.

See Raines for cypress syrup barrels.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Tommie Julia Simmons to Mr. Remer Mikell on Tuesday, November 27th. Miss Simmons is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. I. V. Simmons, of Mill Ray, and Mr. Mikell is the son of Mr. J. S. Mikell and is one of the prominent young business men of the city.

Our latest designs in carpets, rugs, furniture and parlor furnishings are unsurpassed. Call and examine our stock.

J. W. Olliff Co.

Miss Carrie Gross of Dover is the guest this week of Miss Effie Wilson.

Dr. A. L. R. Avant spent part of the week here.

Attention is called to the ad of J. B. Her in this issue. He has a 1,000,000 of the finest cabbage plants ever seen in this section and he is advertising widely and wants to supply this section with these plants. A News representative was shown over the garden where the plants are grown and we can say the plants are very fine.

New Business Opens;

Department Store.

The Racket Store under the management of Messrs. Griner and Martin have added a new feature to their store—that of a wholesale and department store. They are doing the biggest business ever done in this section and are covering this whole part of the country with their goods.

This enterprising and progressive firm have by honesty and fair business methods built up one of the finest stores not only in the city but in this part of the state. They have for several years handled the best Christmas goods and when one wants toys he invariably goes to the store where they are kept in large quantities.

A representative of the News was shown through the warehouse of this company and it was literally packed with toys and all kinds of holiday goods. The collection is unquestionably the most complete ever seen in this section. It includes every thing that the market affords. The firm is kept busy, we understand, in filling out-of-town orders. This new business deserves to meet with the success that it is meeting with. The firm is composed of Bulloch county boys who have always treated the trading public right. The News is glad to see this evidence of prosperity and growth on the part of this firm and we hope they may be able to expand still further and take in new fields before long.

On Oct. 8 or 9 from my place 8 miles west Statesboro four head of cattle strayed off. There are two red heifers, nearly grown, one red bull yearling and one red marked staple calf in each ear.

Any body giving information concerning them will be paid $1.00 per head or $4.00.

H. L. Alderman Jr.

Statesboro, Ga., Route No. 5.

STRAYED CATTLE

On Oct. 8 or 9 from my place 8 miles west Statesboro four head of cattle strayed off. There are two red heifers, nearly grown, one red bull yearling and one red marked staple calf in each ear.

Any body giving information concerning them will be paid $1.00 per head or $4.00.

H. L. Alderman Jr.

Statesboro, Ga., Route No. 5.

STRAYED CATTLE

On Oct. 8 or 9 from my place 8 miles west Statesboro four head of cattle strayed off. There are two red heifers, nearly grown, one red bull yearling and one red marked staple calf in each ear.

Any body giving information concerning them will be paid $1.00 per head or $4.00.

H. L. Alderman Jr.

Bank of STATESBORO, Statesboro, Ga. Capital, $75,000

We make collections, we rent safe deposit boxes. We pay interest on time deposits. And we appreciate your business.

J. L. COLEMAN, Pres't. W. C. PARKER, V-Pres't. S. C. GROOVER, Cashier.

Hunting Party

Dr. J. E. Donohoe, Messrs. O. W. Horne, P. F. Kennedy, Leon Hall and Finney D. Loach composed a congenial hunting party that spent Tuesday at the home of Mr. Z. T. DeLoach. The party left here in the morning at 8 and by seven they were on the ground ready to begin the hunt. The trip was made in automobiles. During the day forty birds were killed. It was entirely too hot, they say, for good hunting and the dogs soon tired but though forty birds in one day is not bad. They were joined by Mr. Bird DeLoach who is one of the best shots in the county. The day was very much enjoyed by the party who are loud in praise of the hospitality of the host.

In Time of Peace

In the first months of Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become a cold. Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by all Druggists.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Will be sold before the court house door on the first Tuesday in December, 1906, within the legal hours of sale, to the highest bidder, for cash, that certain tract of land in the district of M. H. District, Bulloch County, Georgia, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Under and by virtue of an order passed by the court of ordinary of said county, we will sell before the court house door in Statesboro, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following lands belonging to the estate of Malachi Atkins, deceased: One tract of land in the 120th G. M. district of said county, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Under and by virtue of an order passed by the court of ordinary of said county, we will sell before the court house door in Statesboro, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following lands belonging to the estate of Malachi Atkins, deceased: One tract of land in the 120th G. M. district of said county, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Under and by virtue of an order passed by the court of ordinary of said county, we will sell before the court house door in Statesboro, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following lands belonging to the estate of Malachi Atkins, deceased: One tract of land in the 120th G. M. district of said county, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Under and by virtue of an order passed by the court of ordinary of said county, we will sell before the court house door in Statesboro, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following lands belonging to the estate of Malachi Atkins, deceased: One tract of land in the 120th G. M. district of said county, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Under and by virtue of an order passed by the court of ordinary of said county, we will sell before the court house door in Statesboro, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following lands belonging to the estate of Malachi Atkins, deceased: One tract of land in the 120th G. M. district of said county, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Under and by virtue of an order passed by the court of ordinary of said county, we will sell before the court house door in Statesboro, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following lands belonging to the estate of Malachi Atkins, deceased: One tract of land in the 120th G. M. district of said county, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

ORDINARY'S NOTICES

LEAVE TO SELL LAND. C. W. Sharpe, administrator of the estate of B. R. Sharpe, deceased, has, in proper form, applied to the undersigned for leave to sell land belonging to said deceased, and said application will be heard on the first Monday in December next. This Nov. 7, 1906. S. L. MOORE, Ordinary, R. C.

LEAVE TO SELL LAND. S. C. Groover, executor of the will of S. F. Groover, deceased, has, in proper form, applied to the undersigned for leave to sell land belonging to said deceased, and said application will be heard on the first Monday in December next. This Nov. 7, 1906. S. L. MOORE, Ordinary, R. C.

LEAVE TO SELL LAND. Lavina Seibles, administratrix of the estate of T. T. Seibles, deceased, has, in proper form, applied to the undersigned for leave to sell land belonging to said deceased, and said application will be heard on the first Monday in December next. This Nov. 7, 1906. S. L. MOORE, Ordinary, R. C.

LEAVE TO SELL LAND. B. A. Kimbrell, guardian of the estate of his five minor children, has, in proper form, applied to the undersigned for leave to sell land belonging to said children, and said application will be heard on the first Monday in December next. This Nov. 7, 1906. S. L. MOORE, Ordinary, R. C.

LEAVE TO SELL LAND. Mary A. Marsh, administratrix of the estate of M. H. Marsh, deceased, has, in proper form, applied to the undersigned for leave to sell land belonging to said deceased, and said application will be heard on the first Monday in December next. This Nov. 7, 1906. S. L. MOORE, Ordinary, R. C.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE. Georgia, Bulloch County. Will be sold before the highest bidder before the court house door in the city of Statesboro, in said county, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following described property, to-wit: That certain tract of land containing one hundred acres, more or less, lying and being in the 148th G. M. district of said county, as bounded by the following lands: On the north by the lands of J. H. Bitch, on the east by the lands of Clinton Simms, on the south by the lands of B. J. Hughes and on the west by lands of B. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Under and by virtue of an order passed by the court of ordinary of said county, we will sell before the court house door in Statesboro, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following lands belonging to the estate of Malachi Atkins, deceased: One tract of land in the 120th G. M. district of said county, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Under and by virtue of an order passed by the court of ordinary of said county, we will sell before the court house door in Statesboro, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following lands belonging to the estate of Malachi Atkins, deceased: One tract of land in the 120th G. M. district of said county, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Under and by virtue of an order passed by the court of ordinary of said county, we will sell before the court house door in Statesboro, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following lands belonging to the estate of Malachi Atkins, deceased: One tract of land in the 120th G. M. district of said county, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Under and by virtue of an order passed by the court of ordinary of said county, we will sell before the court house door in Statesboro, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following lands belonging to the estate of Malachi Atkins, deceased: One tract of land in the 120th G. M. district of said county, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Under and by virtue of an order passed by the court of ordinary of said county, we will sell before the court house door in Statesboro, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following lands belonging to the estate of Malachi Atkins, deceased: One tract of land in the 120th G. M. district of said county, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Under and by virtue of an order passed by the court of ordinary of said county, we will sell before the court house door in Statesboro, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following lands belonging to the estate of Malachi Atkins, deceased: One tract of land in the 120th G. M. district of said county, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

Georgia, Bulloch County. Under and by virtue of an order passed by the court of ordinary of said county, we will sell before the court house door in Statesboro, Georgia, on the first Tuesday in December next, the following lands belonging to the estate of Malachi Atkins, deceased: One tract of land in the 120th G. M. district of said county, containing one hundred and thirty-four acres, more or less, bounded north by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, south by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, east by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith, west by lands of J. J. Hughes and J. R. Keith. Said lands are known as the estate lands of Carrie D. Kirby, deceased.

Terms: One-half cash, except the amount of a loan, evidenced by a security deed against the land which is on record. Purchaser paying for title. This November 8, 1906.

J. G. M. Kerby, Adm'r.

When Buying Your Fall Clothes Look Deeper Than the Surface.

Make a careful inspection of the "inside" materials and workmanship. If you will come here and do that with the Autumn and Winter models of the noted

"EFF-EFF" Fashionable Clothes

you will find that in quality of materials and tailoring, as well as in cut and fit, they equal the costliest creations of the swell custom tailors—but at half their prices; and, you will be satisfied that all we have said, or all that you have heard in favor of "EFF-EFF" FASHIONABLE CLOTHES, is absolutely true.

"EFF-EFF" Single and Double-breasted sack suits of correct fashion, made of handsome suitings of superior quality in a wide assortment of exclusive weaves,

$10 to $25.

"EFF-EFF" fall Overcoats

—the fashionable Chesterfield, 42 inches long, with form-fitting back and pressed side seams; also conservative models, as well as swaggar "Crevett" Rain Coats,

$6 to $25.

Fashionable Fall Furnishings

may be found here in a profusion of styles and makes to suit all tastes for day, afternoon or evening dress.

THE SIMMONS CO.

Statesboro, Georgia.

BUILDERS' SUPPLIES.

The Undersigned Having Opened a Full Line of

Sash, Doors and Blinds, Paints, Oils and Glass, Laths and Shingles,

Take pleasure in stating that we now have in stock one of the new brick stores in the Brannen block, a full line of Builders' Hardware and Supplies. Our office and sales rooms will be found open during business hours where we will be ready to make you figures on anything you may need in our line. Our mills are still located on the line of the Central of Georgia R'y, where we will deliver all Lumber and Shingles.

We carry in stock in our uptown office a full line of Paints, Oils, Sash, Doors, Blinds and Builders' Hardware. When you need anything of this kind give us a call.

The Statesboro Mfg Co.

Statesboro, Georgia.

Record

CRISIS OF GIRLHOOD

A TIME OF PAIN AND PERIL

Miss Emma Cole says that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved her life and made her well.

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irregularities or displacements have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

A mother should come to her child's aid at this critical time and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will prepare the system for the coming change and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Miss Emma Cole of Tallahassee, Tenn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: I want to tell you that I am enjoying better health than I have for years, and I owe this to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

When fourteen years of age I suffered almost constant pain, and for two or three years I had nervous and painful in my side, back and head, and I was so nervous and doctors failed to help me.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking it my health began to improve rapidly, and I think it saved my life. I sincerely hope my experience will be a help to other girls who are passing through girlhood to womanhood, for I know your Compound will do much for them.

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs medical advice, send her a copy of this advertisement, and she will receive free advice which will put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood. Mrs. Pinkham is advising in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge.

CURED Dropsy
Gives quick relief.
Removes all swelling in 8 to 10 days. A permanent cure in 30 to 60 days. Write Dr. R. H. Allen, 1000 Broadway, New York City.

HURT, BRUISE OR SPRAIN

ST. JACOB'S OIL

THE OLD-MONKEY CURE RELIEVES FROM PAIN

Price 25c and 50c

He Knows the kind of Waterproof Oil Clothing that stands the hardest service

Do You Know?

WANTED - Address of 10 persons of each nation who have used the best waterproof oil clothing.

No More Cold Rooms

If you only knew how much comfort can be derived from a PERFECTION Oil Heater—how simple and economical its operation, you would not be without it another day.

PERFECTION Oil Heater

(Equipped with Smokeless Device)

Turn the wick as high or low as you can—there's no danger. Carry heater from room to room. All parts easily cleaned. Gives intense heat without smoke or smell because equipped with smokeless device.

Made in two finishes—nickel and brass. Oil fountain beautifully embossed. Holds 4 quarts of oil and burns 4 hours. Every heater warranted. If you cannot get heater or information from your dealer, write to nearest agency for descriptive circular.

The Rayo Lamp cannot be equalled for its bright and steady light, simple construction and complete safety. Equipped with latest improved burner. Made of brass throughout and nickel plated. An ornament to any room—whether library, dining-room, parlor or bedroom. Every lamp warranted. Write to nearest agency if not at your dealer's.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY, Incorporated.

Woman Who Fears Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliant vanishing like the bloom from a peach which is rarely handled. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate woman's organs, so surely will these organs be established in health, the face and figure will witness to the fact that the system is well.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best remedy for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments. For nursing mothers, or for those broken down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve tonic in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Dr. Pierce's "New" Compound is a free of charge. Address Dr. R. H. Allen, 1000 Broadway, New York City.

You can never be sure that you are doing something big until somebody starts "knocking."

A Guaranteed Cure For Dyspepsia.

Purchase one (one) of Tru's Dyspepsia Remedy returned if it fails to relieve or cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache, Burn, Bad Breath, Nervousness, Gas on the Stomach, Acid Stomach, Constipation or any stomach trouble. First sent remedy made for weak stomachs. 50c. at all drug stores, or by express. Circular free. Tryer Remedy Co., Augusta, Ga.

He is a poor subject to preach to poor men on a cold day.

Dropsey
Gives quick relief.
Removes all swelling in 8 to 10 days. A permanent cure in 30 to 60 days. Write Dr. R. H. Allen, 1000 Broadway, New York City.

HURT, BRUISE OR SPRAIN

ST. JACOB'S OIL

THE OLD-MONKEY CURE RELIEVES FROM PAIN

Price 25c and 50c

He Knows the kind of Waterproof Oil Clothing that stands the hardest service

Do You Know?

WANTED - Address of 10 persons of each nation who have used the best waterproof oil clothing.

No More Cold Rooms

If you only knew how much comfort can be derived from a PERFECTION Oil Heater—how simple and economical its operation, you would not be without it another day.

PERFECTION Oil Heater

(Equipped with Smokeless Device)

Turn the wick as high or low as you can—there's no danger. Carry heater from room to room. All parts easily cleaned. Gives intense heat without smoke or smell because equipped with smokeless device.

Made in two finishes—nickel and brass. Oil fountain beautifully embossed. Holds 4 quarts of oil and burns 4 hours. Every heater warranted. If you cannot get heater or information from your dealer, write to nearest agency for descriptive circular.

The Rayo Lamp cannot be equalled for its bright and steady light, simple construction and complete safety. Equipped with latest improved burner. Made of brass throughout and nickel plated. An ornament to any room—whether library, dining-room, parlor or bedroom. Every lamp warranted. Write to nearest agency if not at your dealer's.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY, Incorporated.

With the Funny Fellows

Standard Magic.
Little drops of kerosene,
A little sleight-of-hand,
Make the muddy bank roll—
The largest in the land.
—Portland Oregonian.

Study.
Yeast—"A palmer tells you things by studying your hand."
Crimsonbeak—"And a poker-player tells you things by studying your face."—Yonkers Statesman.

A Dit Poetical.
"How shall we treat our critics?"
asked the theatrical manager.
"Well, for gracious sakes! Don't give them five-cent cigars!" replied the leading man.—Yonkers Statesman.

Marry the Best Man.
"I certainly was shocked," said the stern-visaged woman, "to hear that you were married. I wouldn't marry the best man on earth."
"He never gave me a chance!" retorted Mrs. Bridget, "because he assured me I was the only girl he ever proposed to."—Catholic Standard.

The Happy Surprise Again.
Clara—"Want't it nice of your fiancé to meet you on the train before you reached your destination?"
Isabelle—"No, horrible! He appeared before I'd had time to freshen myself up, and I was covered with clinders from head to foot!"—Detroit Free Press.

Not Lost.
"Hello, Bill. Heard you lost your job?"
"Naw, I didn't lose it. I know right where it is."—New York Journal.

All in One.
"You've read his novel. Is it a love story?"
"Yes, it's intended to be. There's a young naval officer in it and a cad and an idiotic chump."
"But what's the hero like?"
"Telling you. The hero is all three of them."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Wanted.
"What is the use of wasting your vote on a candidate who can't be elected?"
"Well," answered Farmer Corn-tassel, "when I vote for a candidate who gets elected he doesn't do what was mapped out for him. The vote's liable to be wasted anyhow."—Washington Star.

At the Ball.
"Miss Passy's hair is all mussed, isn't it?"
"Yes, just as if she could deceive any one."
"Decieve any one?"
"Yes, she mussed purposely just to give the impression that some one had been dancing with her."—Philadelphia Ledger.

At the Spa.
Affable Stranger—"I can't help thinking I have seen your picture somewhere in the newspapers."
Hon. Mr. Greatman—"Oh, no doubt, no doubt. It's often been published."
Stranger—"Then I was not mistaken. Where were you cured of?"—London Tit-Bits.

All One.
"What is the use of wasting your vote on a candidate who can't be elected?"
"Well," answered Farmer Corn-tassel, "when I vote for a candidate who gets elected he doesn't do what was mapped out for him. The vote's liable to be wasted anyhow."—Washington Star.

Our Language.
They were watching the antics of their drabson, who was performing some lovely insane evolutions on the floor.
Mamma said—"Now, just tell me he isn't cute!"
Papa said—"Don't ever tell me he isn't cute!"
Which goes to show that "reverse English" is not necessarily a billiard term.—Life.

It will ultimately be found.

predicts D. C. Banks, in a "Nineteenth Century and After" review article on newspapers, and their makers, "that the public that runs after sensation, bodgepodge, and blurred engravings, fluctuating and capricious as it is, cannot be depended upon. A journal's best hope is to gather about it a body of supporters to whom questions of real and general interest appeal—questions of politics, literature, science and art."

THIS NEW SWIMMING SCHOOL.
Knicker—How did Jones learn to swim?
Bocker—He practiced the motions under his auto!—New York Sun.

ECZEMA AFFLICTS FAMILY.
Father and Five Children Suffered For Two Years With Terrible Eczema—Wonderful Cure by Cuticura.

"My husband and five children were all afflicted with eczema. They had it two years. We used all the home remedies we could hear of, without any relief, and then went to a physician and got medicines two different times, and it got worse. It affected all over except head and hands. We saw Cuticura Remedies advertised and concluded to try them. So I sent for $1.00 worth, consisting of one cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Ointment and one trial of Pills, and we commenced to use them. I do not know how to express my joy in finding a cure, for two of my children were so bad that they have the brown scars on their bodies where they were worse. Mrs. Maggie B. Hill, Stevens, Mass. Co., W. Va., June 12, 1913."

Esperanto meetings continue to attract many adherents in Paris. Plays and recitations in the new language are features of these conferences.

How's This?
One of our hundred dollar reward for any case of Cancer has been secured by Mr. J. C. Carter, of Toledo, O.

Clara—"Want't it nice of your fiancé to meet you on the train before you reached your destination?"
Isabelle—"No, horrible! He appeared before I'd had time to freshen myself up, and I was covered with clinders from head to foot!"—Detroit Free Press.

Not Lost.
"Hello, Bill. Heard you lost your job?"
"Naw, I didn't lose it. I know right where it is."—New York Journal.

All in One.
"You've read his novel. Is it a love story?"
"Yes, it's intended to be. There's a young naval officer in it and a cad and an idiotic chump."
"But what's the hero like?"
"Telling you. The hero is all three of them."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Wanted.
"What is the use of wasting your vote on a candidate who can't be elected?"
"Well," answered Farmer Corn-tassel, "when I vote for a candidate who gets elected he doesn't do what was mapped out for him. The vote's liable to be wasted anyhow."—Washington Star.

At the Ball.
"Miss Passy's hair is all mussed, isn't it?"
"Yes, just as if she could deceive any one."
"Decieve any one?"
"Yes, she mussed purposely just to give the impression that some one had been dancing with her."—Philadelphia Ledger.

At the Spa.
Affable Stranger—"I can't help thinking I have seen your picture somewhere in the newspapers."
Hon. Mr. Greatman—"Oh, no doubt, no doubt. It's often been published."
Stranger—"Then I was not mistaken. Where were you cured of?"—London Tit-Bits.

All One.
"What is the use of wasting your vote on a candidate who can't be elected?"
"Well," answered Farmer Corn-tassel, "when I vote for a candidate who gets elected he doesn't do what was mapped out for him. The vote's liable to be wasted anyhow."—Washington Star.

Our Language.
They were watching the antics of their drabson, who was performing some lovely insane evolutions on the floor.
Mamma said—"Now, just tell me he isn't cute!"
Papa said—"Don't ever tell me he isn't cute!"
Which goes to show that "reverse English" is not necessarily a billiard term.—Life.

RICHEST MAN IN THE WORLD.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER OF TO-DAY.
The fact that he has lately donated a wig and has been blessed with a new grandson lead some facetious papers to juggle with the phrases "hair-apparent" and "hair-apparent." If President Roosevelt's inheritance tax ever prevails, no one will be more affected by it than Mr. Rockefeller and his hair-apparent.

"Knockdown" Barrel.
The problems confronting shippers in the transporting of fruit and vegetables are many. Millions of barrels, crates and boxes of every conceivable kind are required for the purpose. In the great majority of cases these barrels, etc., are used but once.

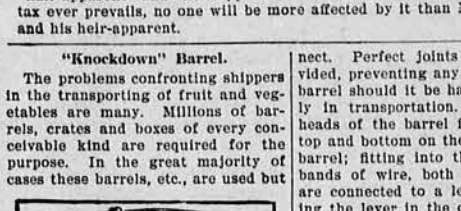

Small Barnyard Best.
From an economic standpoint most barnyards are too large. The loss of fertility is far greater in a large than in a small one. This loss is not so noticeable in newly settled fertile sections of the country as in States east of the Mississippi River, where once fertile land has been robbed of its organic matter. Thousands of farmers lose every year in keeping their stock in large yards during the feeding season enough fertility to equal in value a ton or more of the most expensive fertilizer. If the yard is large with a high, dry place on one side, the stock will congregate there and the richest droppings are lost by being trampled in and mixed with the soil, unless the surface soil is all hauled to the field, which it would often pay to do. Many yards extend to a creek or are located on a hillside, from which the loss is very heavy, unless the washings extend over a pasture or cultivated field. The better plan is to make the yard as small as possible consistent with convenience and also have it protected with a roof to a great extent. The saving of fertilizer and promotion of the comfort of the animals will pay a large annual interest on the investment.—The Epitomist.

Peach Yellows.
When the Connecticut Legislature enacted a law a few years ago making it compulsory upon those who owned peach trees to cut and burn all that were affected by the yellow it was opposed by many as a waste of expense, and even some of the peach growers thought such action could not save the other trees in the orchards or near them, while a few denied that the disease was contagious or that diseased trees were a menace to other trees. Yet, it was many years by the reports in the Connecticut papers the action proposed as good results as its advocates hoped for. Old peach orchards were saved and the planting of new orchards encouraged, so that they now boast of a peach crop unprecedented in quantity or quality in the history of the State. It should encourage the planting of peach trees in other places. Eastern Massachusetts once produced peaches in abundance, but this disease killed many of the trees, and as farmers did not know how to save them they failed to set any more, until there are but few neighborhoods where even enough are grown by any one family use and none for market. Yet the soil and the climate have not changed since the days when farmers had to feed peaches to their pigs after their families and neighbors had eaten all they wanted.—Boston Cultivator.

Young Stock Upon the Perches.
It is a common mistake among poultrymen to induce the young stock to take to the perches too young. Especially does such a practice work injury among the heavier breeds, says Michigan Farmer. Leghorns and the smaller variety are much less subject to injury.

In the majority of poultry houses nothing better than a round pole in diameter is provided for a roost, and when young stock are put on the long poles at these, before the bones have become hardened, the result is almost sure crooked breast bones and consequent deformity. This is illustrated by the long pole in the illustration shows the idea plainly, the cut to the lower left showing the pole complete with the strainer and the large cut showing how the pole is slashed at intervals so it will sit around the pole without trouble.

Medals of Honor For the United States Army.

Can Be Taken Apart.
once, as the cost of returning them to the shipper is greater than the cost of new barrels. A New York man has patented a barrel that seems to have solved the problem, an illustration of which is shown here. It is termed a "knockdown" and can be readily assembled when desired, and as readily disassembled when its contents have been removed. It can then be packed in a small space to facilitate transportation. This barrel is made in two sections, preferably of sheet metal, and in form resembles the common type of barrel. The longitudinal edges are divided into tongues, each alternate tongue having double edges, forming recesses into which the interlocking tongues in the opposite section connect.

Training a Politician.
When I was a very little boy, writes St. William Gregory in his autobiography, my grandfather, who was then Under Secretary for Ireland, took me to the Chief Secretary's room in Dublin Castle and formally introduced me to Lord Melbourne.

After I had been with him for some little time he said: "Now, my boy, is there anything here you would like?"

"Yes," I answered, pointing to a very large stick of sealing wax.

"That's right," said Lord Melbourne, pressing on me a bundle of pens; "begin like early. All these things belong to the public, and your business must always be to get out of the public as much as you can."

COFFEE IMPORTERS Publish a Book About Coffee.

There has been much discussion as to coffee and Postum lately, so much in fact, that some of the coffee importers and roasters have taken it upon them to publish a book about the coffee and Postum trade.

In the coffee importers' book a chapter is headed "Coffee as a Medicine," and advocates its use as such. Here is an admission of the truth, most important to all interested.

Every physician knows, and every thoughtful person should know, that habitual use of any "medicine" of the stimulant type of coffee or whisky quickly causes irritation of the tissues and organs stimulated and finally sets up disease in the great majority of cases if persisted in. It may show in any one of the many organs of the body and in the great majority of cases can be directly traced to coffee in a most unmistakable way by leaving off the active irritant—coffee—and using Postum Food Coffee for a matter of 10 days. If the result is relief from nervous trouble, dyspepsia, bowel complaint, heart failure, weak eyes, or any other malady set up by a poisoned nervous system, you have your answer with name verified: 7, Indian Wars medal; 8, Spanish War medal; 9, China Relief Expedition medal.

These designs for campaign medals, made by Mr. Frank D. Millet, have been accepted by the Secretary of War. They are the result of more than a year's effort on the part of the War Department to secure the most artistic tokens of appreciation of gallantry and efficiency. The medals will be struck of bronze at the Philadelphia Mint. Most of the devices explain themselves. The castle on the Spanish War medal is taken from the heraldic crest on the coat of arms of the kingdom of Spain, modified by the addition of a sunburst at the corner to suggest the Cuban "morros." The lamp and scales on the Philippine medal remind us of our character as bearers of enlightenment and justice. The designs are better explained as follows: 1, Civil War medal; 2, reverse; 3, medal of merit; 4, reverse; 5, Philippine medal; 6, reverse; 7, Indian Wars medal; 8, Spanish War medal; 9, China Relief Expedition medal.

There's a reason for Postum.

The Farm

The Clover.
The growing leguminous crops are sure to improve the mechanical condition of the soil on your farm, and they will invariably greatly add to one of the most valuable of the fertilizing elements—nitrogen.

Seed For Mowing and Pasturing.
A good mixture of seed for mowing, to be followed by pasturage, according to a Pennsylvania correspondent, is six quarts of timothy, sown without plowing, in the spring, of four quarts red clover, two quarts alfalfa, four quarts redtop. The clovers, he says, will hold two years and the other grasses will tack their place.—American Cultivator.

Hay Stacker.
The hay stacker shown here is for stacking hay in the field. The stack is ten by twelve inches, sixteen feet long. The two cross pieces are eight by ten inches, eight feet long, each set in two inches. The upright post is eight by eight and nine feet high. The three braces are four by four, or round poles. The boom pole is thirty-two feet long, four inches at top and eight or ten at butt. The chain can be shortened to meet the boom or lengthened to lower. The boom is swung by a swing rope, as can be seen. "A" shows the fork on which the boom pole is secured. The hole in the post is lined with a piece of rope pipe with solid plug in bottom. A six-line grapple fork can be used.

For Stacking Hay.

In eight by eight and nine feet high. The three braces are four by four, or round poles. The boom pole is thirty-two feet long, four inches at top and eight or ten at butt. The chain can be shortened to meet the boom or lengthened to lower. The boom is swung by a swing rope, as can be seen. "A" shows the fork on which the boom pole is secured. The hole in the post is lined with a piece of rope pipe with solid plug in bottom. A six-line grapple fork can be used.

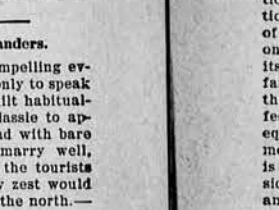

Small Barnyard Best.
From an economic standpoint most barnyards are too large. The loss of fertility is far greater in a large than in a small one. This loss is not so noticeable in newly settled fertile sections of the country as in States east of the Mississippi River, where once fertile land has been robbed of its organic matter. Thousands of farmers lose every year in keeping their stock in large yards during the feeding season enough fertility to equal in value a ton or more of the most expensive fertilizer. If the yard is large with a high, dry place on one side, the stock will congregate there and the richest droppings are lost by being trampled in and mixed with the soil, unless the surface soil is all hauled to the field, which it would often pay to do. Many yards extend to a creek or are located on a hillside, from which the loss is very heavy, unless the washings extend over a pasture or cultivated field. The better plan is to make the yard as small as possible consistent with convenience and also have it protected with a roof to a great extent. The saving of fertilizer and promotion of the comfort of the animals will pay a large annual interest on the investment.—The Epitomist.

Peach Yellows.
When the Connecticut Legislature enacted a law a few years ago making it compulsory upon those who owned peach trees to cut and burn all that were affected by the yellow it was opposed by many as a waste of expense, and even some of the peach growers thought such action could not save the other trees in the orchards or near them, while a few denied that the disease was contagious or that diseased trees were a menace to other trees. Yet, it was many years by the reports in the Connecticut papers the action proposed as good results as its advocates hoped for. Old peach orchards were saved and the planting of new orchards encouraged, so that they now boast of a peach crop unprecedented in quantity or quality in the history of the State. It should encourage the planting of peach trees in other places. Eastern Massachusetts once produced peaches in abundance, but this disease killed many of the trees, and as farmers did not know how to save them they failed to set any more, until there are but few neighborhoods where even enough are grown by any one family use and none for market. Yet the soil and the climate have not changed since the days when farmers had to feed peaches to their pigs after their families and neighbors had eaten all they wanted.—Boston Cultivator.

Young Stock Upon the Perches.
It is a common mistake among poultrymen to induce the young stock to take to the perches too young. Especially does such a practice work injury among the heavier breeds, says Michigan Farmer. Leghorns and the smaller variety are much less subject to injury.

In the majority of poultry houses nothing better than a round pole in diameter is provided for a roost, and when young stock are put on the long poles at these, before the bones have become hardened, the result is almost sure crooked breast bones and consequent deformity. This is illustrated by the long pole in the illustration shows the idea plainly, the cut to the lower left showing the pole complete with the strainer and the large cut showing how the pole is slashed at intervals so it will sit around the pole without trouble.

Medals of Honor For the United States Army.

Can Be Taken Apart.
once, as the cost of returning them to the shipper is greater than the cost of new barrels. A New York man has patented a barrel that seems to have solved the problem, an illustration of which is shown here. It is termed a "knockdown" and can be readily assembled when desired, and as readily disassembled when its contents have been removed. It can then be packed in a small space to facilitate transportation. This barrel is made in two sections, preferably of sheet metal, and in form resembles the common type of barrel. The longitudinal edges are divided into tongues, each alternate tongue having double edges, forming recesses into which the interlocking tongues in the opposite section connect.

Training a Politician.
When I was a very little boy, writes St. William Gregory in his autobiography, my grandfather, who was then Under Secretary for Ireland, took me to the Chief Secretary's room in Dublin Castle and formally introduced me to Lord Melbourne.

After I had been with him for some little time he said: "Now, my boy, is there anything here you would like?"

"Yes," I answered, pointing to a very large stick of sealing wax.

"That's right," said Lord Melbourne, pressing on me a bundle of pens; "begin like early. All these things belong to the public, and your business must always be to get out of the public as much as you can."

COFFEE IMPORTERS Publish a Book About Coffee.

There has been much discussion as to coffee and Postum lately, so much in fact, that some of the coffee importers and roasters have taken it upon them to publish a book about the coffee and Postum trade.

In the coffee importers' book a chapter is headed "Coffee as a Medicine," and advocates its use as such. Here is an admission of the truth, most important to all interested.

Every physician knows, and every thoughtful person should know, that habitual use of any "medicine" of the stimulant type of coffee or whisky quickly causes irritation of the tissues and organs stimulated and finally sets up disease in the great majority of cases if persisted in. It may show in any one of the many organs of the body and in the great majority of cases can be directly traced to coffee in a most unmistakable way by leaving off the active irritant—coffee—and using Postum Food Coffee for a matter of 10 days. If the result is relief from nervous trouble, dyspepsia, bowel complaint, heart failure, weak eyes, or any other malady set up by a poisoned nervous system, you have your answer with name verified: 7, Indian Wars medal; 8, Spanish War medal; 9, China Relief Expedition medal.

There's a reason for Postum.

The Farm

The Clover.
The growing leguminous crops are sure to improve the mechanical condition of the soil on your farm, and they will invariably greatly add to one of the most valuable of the fertilizing elements—nitrogen.

Seed For Mowing and Pasturing.
A good mixture of seed for mowing, to be followed by pasturage, according to a Pennsylvania correspondent, is six quarts of timothy, sown without plowing, in the spring, of four quarts red clover, two quarts alfalfa, four quarts redtop. The clovers, he says, will hold two years and the other grasses will tack their place.—American Cultivator.

Hay Stacker.
The hay stacker shown here is for stacking hay in the field. The stack is ten by twelve inches, sixteen feet long. The two cross pieces are eight by ten inches, eight feet long, each set in two inches. The upright post is eight by eight and nine feet high. The three braces are four by four, or round poles. The boom pole is thirty-two feet long, four inches at top and eight or ten at butt. The chain can be shortened to meet the boom or lengthened to lower. The boom is swung by a swing rope, as can be seen. "A" shows the fork on which the boom pole is secured. The hole in the post is lined with a piece of rope pipe with solid plug in bottom. A six-line grapple fork can be used.

For Stacking Hay.

In eight by eight and nine feet high. The three braces are four by four, or round poles. The boom pole is thirty-two feet long, four inches at top and eight or ten at butt. The chain can be shortened to meet the boom or lengthened to lower. The boom is swung by a swing rope, as can be seen. "A" shows the fork on which the boom pole is secured. The hole in the post is lined with a piece of rope pipe with solid plug in bottom. A six-line grapple fork can be used.

Small Barnyard Best.
From an economic standpoint most barnyards are too large. The loss of fertility is far greater in a large than in a small one. This loss is not so noticeable in newly settled fertile sections of the country as in States east of the Mississippi River, where once fertile land has been robbed of its organic matter. Thousands of farmers lose every year in keeping their stock in large yards during the feeding season enough fertility to equal in value a ton or more of the most expensive fertilizer. If the yard is large with a high, dry place on one side, the stock will congregate there and the richest droppings are lost by being trampled in and mixed with the soil, unless the surface soil is all hauled to the field, which it would often pay to do. Many yards extend to a creek or are located on a hillside, from which the loss is very heavy, unless the washings extend over a pasture or cultivated field. The better plan is to make the yard as small as possible consistent with convenience and also have it protected with a roof to a great extent. The saving of fertilizer and promotion of the comfort of the animals will pay a large annual interest on the investment.—The Epitomist.

Peach Yellows.
When the Connecticut Legislature enacted a law a few years ago making it compulsory upon those who owned peach trees to cut and burn all that were affected by the yellow it was opposed by many as a waste of expense, and even some of the peach growers thought such action could not save the other trees in the orchards or near them, while a few denied that the disease was contagious or that diseased trees were a menace to other trees. Yet, it was many years by the reports in the Connecticut papers the action proposed as good results as its advocates hoped for. Old peach orchards were saved and the planting of new orchards encouraged, so that they now boast of a peach crop unprecedented in quantity or quality in the history of the State. It should encourage the planting of peach trees in other places. Eastern Massachusetts once produced peaches in abundance, but this disease killed many of

The Statesboro News

(INCORPORATED.)
R. MILLER, Editor and Gen'l. Mgr.
Statesboro, Ga., Nov. 27, 1906.
Published Tuesdays and Fridays by
THE STATESBORO NEWS PUBLISHING COMPANY.
Entered at Statesboro, Ga., Post Office
as second class mail matter.

The Municipal Election.

Tomorrow the city primary will be held. In less than a week the election of the ticket then nominated will be confirmed. The affair promises to pass quietly. Yet there are certain things that the people should consider in putting a ticket in nomination. Any set of men elected to watch after the welfare of the city will do the task well, but it stands to reason that some will do the work better than others. There are no abuses to correct that we have heard of. The men now in office have, with fitting dignity, done their best, and in electing a new ticket it would be well, if the old one refuses to stand for re-election, to secure a body of men that will carry out the work and follow in the paths of the incumbents. During the time that they have presided matters of most vital importance to the future of the city have been handled with rare tact and good common business sense and a more prosperous year for the people has never passed.

It is now practically certain that this county and this place will secure the agricultural college of this district. There arises the question of water and lights for a period of years, and this is one of the things that will have to be guaranteed before the college is located here, and on this subject the incumbents have said they were in favor of it. If the same ticket is not re-elected would it not be well to nominate a ticket that would be in favor of furnishing water and lights? There are men who are opposed to this policy, and if they are elected to a position on the council or if a mayor is elected, granting that the present distinguished incumbent refuses to stand for re-election, there will be friction as sure as fate. It is well enough to look the matter over before the day of the primary and if we will be pardoned for making a suggestion we say that we are in favor of the ticket that will give to the school free water and lights.

We understand that Mayor Moore will not again be a candidate for the office which he has filled with such general satisfaction for the present year. In this case another man must be selected to head the affairs and preside over the destinies of the city for the next twelve months. For this position no man in Statesboro is better fitted than Mr. J. G. Blitch. He is a man who, through long years as a citizen of the town, has always stood for the greater Statesboro in all matters that pertain to the material and moral growth and prosperity of the people. No man has done more, and few, if any, has done as much, as this popular young merchant and business man. He has been behind every movement that had the welfare of the city in view. On the council for a period of years, he was one of the most valuable and distinguished members of that body. The people are now reaping some of the fruits of his wisdom and good business sense in dealing with matters of importance to the town as a school center and as a commercial point for this whole section. He is thoroughly imbued with the Statesboro spirit, more so, probably than any other one man here.

In nominating him to the office of mayor, the people would make no mistake. Young, brilliant, and breathing the militant spirit that so characterizes this section and that means so much for the future of the city he would make one of the best executive officers the city has ever had.

Bishop Tigert Dead.

Peccator, yet sad, was the death of Bishop John J. Tigert, who died at Tulsa, I. T., on November 21st, after an illness of ten days. He was a bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, and his home was in Louisville, Ky.

The cause of his death was the lodgment of a piece of chicken bone in his throat just below the tonsils and the subsequent blood poisoning that set in. He had gone to Tulsa intending to open a conference on the 14th, but was suffering from the illness contracted while attending a church conference and was unable to preside at the meeting.

His career is an interesting one. The epithet of self-made is so abused that it is now almost taken as a term of contempt, yet in the true and larger sense he was one of the few men who could say they were self-made. Born in Louisville, Ky., in 1856, his early life was a hard struggle, yet he conquered success, and at the time of his death he was one of the strong men in a strong and militant church. He was graduated from Vanderbilt university in which institution he held the position of tutor and professor for a number of years. He was a scholar of wide culture and broad varied experience, and as a mark of esteem in which he was held by the colleges of the country the degree of D. D. was conferred upon him by Gregory and Henry, and the even more distinguished degree of L. L. D. by the University of Missouri. He was an author of prominence and left many valuable testimonials of his literary taste and skill.

The Lyceum and

Other Things.

Just why the people of Statesboro do not support a lyceum course as they should we are unable to say. Probably they have sufficient reasons for doing as they please in the matter and of course they are going to do that any way. We understand there is a historic record of a time when one season the lyceum, through poor management, was not what it ought to have been and it seems that the people are standing off on that account and refuse to take part in the thing now at this far off day. This is not the right thing to do. If the lyceum was a failure at one time that is no reason why it should be a failure this season. But that is what faces the management of the lyceum bureau and unless there is more interest taken in the matter no one can say how the season will end. This has always been a popular form of entertainment for the people here. The attractions are, as a rule, good and we see no reason why the support is not better.

It is an important thing and means much to those who are interested in building up a cultured and refined city in which we have chosen to live. Especially it is important to the school children who are at the age when they need to have the highest ideals possible held up to them that they may in the years to come be an improvement upon the present generation. They can have sweeter manners and gentler dispositions only by the cultivation of the imagination at the right age by the striving to attain some ideal.

Imagination makes us all. It is a thousand times more important to cultivate the imagination of a child properly than to stuff his head full of dry, matter-of-fact knowledge. Inspire a child and you have made a record. What inspiration is there in poring over dry books? That thing must come from the outside.

Now we know that there is no other one thing that could be done that would mean so much to the children of the Institute as going to the lyceum attractions. And what is true of them equally true of the grown up folk as well. Support the lyceum at all cost.

Sequel to the Discharge of Negro Troops.

Nothing that has happened in some time has caused half the excitement that the dismissal of the battalion of negro troops by the president has aroused. The republicans of the North are cursing themselves blue in the face over the matter. And what for? Simply because they know that in several of the states of the country the negro vote is important to help them win. They use the negro for all they can get out of him, not caring any more for him than if he did not exist. Yet they claim to be the real friends of the colored man. This matter of politics is behind the whole storm of protest that is going up in the North at the president's action.

Secretary Taft went so far as to override the order of the chief executive and issued an order reinstating the colored troops. One of the press reports says that the negroes will be invited to Chicago, New York, and Philadelphia, where they will be cared for by the citizens of these cities. They will be on parade and their side of the question will, so the report says, be heard. But don't they, of the North, like the brethren?

This will probably win them a few votes and it is for this purpose that they are to be treated to so much hospitality by the Yankees.

Just what Roosevelt will do when he returns from the Isthmus no one can say. But it is believed that he will stand pat on what he has done. Meanwhile some more of the negro troops of the same regiment, implicated in the killing of innocent citizens at the Brownsville encampment and then shielding the guilty parties, have been dismissed by the president.

The country will watch the developments with interest.

Chopped Hands

Wash your hands with warm water, dry with a towel and apply Chamberlain's Salve just before going to bed, and a speedy cure if certain. This salve is also unequalled for skin diseases. For sale by all druggists.

Death of Dr. Henley.

It will cause sincere grief to many of the people to learn of the death of Dr. T. J. Henley at his home at Lyons. He lived in this county for a number of years and was well known to the people of the whole county. A few years ago he left here and moved to Fitzgerald, where he lived for awhile, later going to Lyons. At the time of his death he was a retired physician. He accumulated a fortune earlier in life and was not actively engaged in the practice of his profession nor had been for some time. He was a capitalist of some note.

Lyons, Ga., Nov. 21.—Dr. T. J. Henley, a prominent retired physician and a capitalist of note, was found dead in his room this morning, death having resulted from heart failure.

Dr. Henley moved to Lyons only a short time ago from Fitzgerald, having retired from business. He was unmarried and leaves no family. Yesterday Dr. Henley seemed to be in good health. Late in the afternoon, however, he was complaining and retired early. This morning he did not respond to the breakfast bell, and upon examining the room he was found to have been dead several hours.

Sell More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of All Others Put Together

Mr. George, a merchant at Mt. Vernon, Ohio, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. One of the many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by all druggists.

ELECTRIC BITTERS THE BEST FOR BILIOUSNESS AND KIDNEY.

Barrooms, Dispensaries or Blind "Tigers."

Editor Statesboro News:
I read your paper with much interest, and you are making a fine paper. I generally agree with you and am glad you speak out in no uncertain language against vice and all forms of evil. Keep it up and you will be a blessing and receive one besides.

But I beg respectfully to dissent from the view expressed in your issue of Nov. 18, concerning barrooms, dispensaries and "blind tigers," and the argument that the stuff should be legally sold and the county derive the revenue. I am eternally, unalterably and unconvertibly opposed to the derivation of revenue from vice or evil of any kind. Because that system is based in Pagan and not in Christian ethics. Outlaw the business. I was in the initial struggle in this county in 1878 to put out the sale of intoxicants, and it won, and I have watched the county ever since. I need not recount the rapid strides of the county in every way. It requires a generation, often two or three to educate a people out of wrong and into right habits of law and morality. We have the old fragments of former times and nations lying all about. There is the man whose daddy said if you wish to raise sober boys keep the decenter well filled on the side board, with sugar bowl and etc. Rot! I have seen these same boys and helped to hold them in delirium tremens and to bury them in drunkards' graves. Then there is the shallow fellow who has seen an old popinjay ninety years old who drank three drinks a day, and he reasons that if you wish to live to be ninety you should take three drinks a day! And while he looks as his old popinjay enough young men have died from drink to fence his old popinjay in, forty panels, ten drunkards to the panel, did trying "just three drinks a day."

But I must not get started or I shall write a piece. If barrooms and dispensaries were a remedy for blind tigers then your argument might hold, but they are not. Some years ago I heard that some argument made before the senate committee on temperance in the Georgia legislature. It was made by an agent of the Atlanta Liquor Dealers' association, and while he was making it a gentleman slipped a copy of a city paper under his nose with this headline on an article: "Five Blind Tigers Captured on Decatur Street Last Night!" The truth is, where there are barrooms, the blind tigers are so insignificant beside the good eyed tigers that nobody seems to notice the blind ones unless they sell at a saloon door and then the saloon man has them picked up to "protect his business." Just put saloons back in old Bulloch and there will be ten blind tigers then to one now. I have been here almost fifty years and have kept my peepers wide open.

No, Mr. Editor, let's don't. I hate saloons and the whiskey business with all my soul. I have a right to hate them. And please God I live long or short and stay remain in our beloved land, I shall die with my boots and spurs on fighting them and the blind tigers too, which are but the midnight spawn of the licensed saloon and the dispensary.

The whiskey sellers and the drunkards and some very nice people have called me a crank and other bad things for the past thirty years because I would not hang talking against their notions, but I do not care a snap what they call me, so I am right.

I'm ag'in it, soul and body. Yours for absolute prohibition, J. A. SCARBORO.

Famous Strike Breakers.

The most famous strike breakers in the land are Dr. King's New Life Pills. When liver and bowels grow strike, they quickly settle the trouble, and the purifying work goes right on. Best cure for constipation, headache and dizziness. 25c at W. H. Ellis druggist.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher
The Kind You Have Always Bought
In Use For Over 30 Years.
THE FLETCHER COMPANY, 17 N. BROAD STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Fire Insurance.

I WRITE INSURANCE

on both City and Country Property and

Represent several of the Best Companies

IN THE STATE.

I Will Appreciate Your Business.

F. N. Grimes.

NOTICE.
All parties owing us either notes or accounts will please take notice that they must pay promptly. We trust this is sufficient notice. J. G. Blitch Co.

BROADWELL SCHOOL.
Will open on Monday, November 26th. All patrons of the district are requested to be present at the opening. Good board can be obtained in nearby homes at reasonable rates.

KILL THE COUGH AND CURE THE LUNGS
WITH Dr. King's New Discovery
FOR CONSUMPTION, COUGHS AND COLDS. Price 50c & $1.00. Free Trial.
Surest and Quickest Cure for all THROAT and LUNG TROUBLES, or MONEY BACK.

This is Worth Remembering.
As no one is immune, every person should remember that Foley's Kidney Cure will cure any case of Kidney or bladder trouble that is not beyond the reach of medicine. W. H. Ellis, 1

FOR SALE,
Buggy and harness, all in splendid condition; outfit cost new $185; will sell for $65 cash. Apply to A. J. Clary, Statesboro, Ga.

Savannah Sand-Lime Brick Co.

Manufacturers of common and face brick—Made by the new Calcium Silicate transformation.

Capacity, 40,000 per day.

Best brick on earth. Highest fire test—Lowest absorption test—Greatest crushing test. Made to-day, ready for building tomorrow.

Estimates and prices furnished on application to
A. J. FRANKLIN,
Statesboro, Ga.

FOR SALE OR RENT
My farm in the 4th G. M. district containing 25 acres of cleared land and good buildings, six hundred and fifty acres of woodland land, will be sold on reasonable terms, right party or if not sold for rent.

J. S. Hagins, Daisy, Ga.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

CLARY'S GREAT COST SALE

IS STILL the talk of the Country.

He has a force of extra clerks and at times the trade cannot be waited on.

Saturday Was a Record Breaker.

The Stock is not badly broken yet—Many good things left.

2,000 yds. of Checks at $4\frac{1}{2}c$

3,000 yds Hamilton prints at $5c$

Other bargains too numerous to mention—Will show you when you call.

CLARY,

Statesboro, Ga.

Southeastern Business College,

THE SHARPEST TOOL with which to hew your way to SUCCESS is a RIGHT business training. THE BEST at the LOWEST cost is our motto. SPECIAL offer to those of limited means. Write for it.
LEONARD BUILDING, AUGUSTA, GA.

The Farmers' Co-operative and Protective Live Stock Insurance Company.

Home Office, Swainsboro, Georgia.

Capital Stock, $10,000

Mutual and co-operative, or straight insurance if preferred. Policies issued on assessment plan.

Officers:

G. F. Flanders, president.
Julian H. Lester, 1st vice-president.
P. L. Watson, 2nd vice and treasurer.
Marchall H. Blunt, Gen'l. Mgr.

Directors:

D. W. McLendon, P. L. Watson
C. H. Thompson, S. H. Lester
J. G. Mason, M. H. Blunt
J. H. Lester, L. Watson

We know that this is considered the best Live Stock Insurance Company in the state, and we can give you as good or a better policy as any company now doing business in Georgia. Any one wishing insurance will do well to see us and let us write your policy.

L. L. BARR,

GEN'L AGENT, Bulloch County.

NOTICE.

Will be sold at the residence of C. S. Martin, near Stillson, on the 28th inst., the following property, to-wit: One horse, one jersey wagon, two buggies, four head of beef cattle, corn, fodder, and one corn sheller, cat cradle, household and kitchen furniture, etc. Terms sums under five dollars cash; over five dollars, credit till 1st of November, 1907 (except cows which will be cash) with 7 per cent interest, with satisfactory security.

C. S. MARTIN

NOTICE.

After this week I will only give every Tuesday and Friday.

J. C. Edenfield.

NOTICE

All parties due us either on note or account are requested to call and make settlement at once as we do not carry any notes or accounts over.

This November 5 1906.
W. H. Kennedy & Bro

Doings In The Local Field

WHEN YOU THINK OF HARDWARE, THINK OF RAINES.

Miss Luez Oglesby is spending awhile with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Womack.

Victor 10-inch records, 50c. at the Statesboro Music House.

Mrs. Walter Mathews arrived in the city yesterday morning and will spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Davis.

We have secured the agency for Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup, the new laxative that makes the liver lively, purifies the blood, cures headache and regulates the digestive organs. Cures chronic constipation. Ask us about it. W. H. Ellis.

Mr. Edgar Dekle spent the week-end with his family at Adabelle.

WANTED—Gentleman or lady with good reference to travel by rail or by a rig for a firm of $250,000 capital. Salary $1,072 per year and expenses; salary paid weekly and expenses advanced. Address, with stamp, Jos. A. Alexander, Statesboro, Ga.

Mr. B. A. Trappell spent Sunday night at Metter, returning Monday morning.

The report that reached here last week of the illness of Mr. Worth McDougald in Atlanta was unfortunately untrue. He had been ill for a day or two with some slight indisposition but there was no appendicitis, much to the delight of his parents and many friends.

Bring us in your cotton seed before we close down.

Bulloch Oil Mill.

During his stay in the city Mr. E. D. Kerr was the guest of Misses Leah and Eunice Lester. While here he made many friends, who will be glad at some future day to see him return.

Fish is brain food. If you want more brains we have fish every day.

D. Barnes

Go out to the auditorium to-night and enjoy yourself and forget the blues.

We buy remnants of both kinds of cotton.

Bulloch Oil Mill.

The treat of the season will be the reward of those who go out to the lyceum attraction to-night.

Fish! Fish! Fish! every day at D. Barnes. Phone us, No. 18

Mr. T. A. Brawell and Elder E. W. Powell spent one or two days on Black creek last week hunting and they have the record this season of game bagged. Thirty-nine squirrels and fifty pounds of fish is their record for one day.

Miss Maude Brannen returned Saturday afternoon from Clito where she was the guest for two or three days of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Dixon have returned from Egypt where they have been in attendance upon the parents of Mr. Dixon, who are ill.

Mrs. Morgan W. Waters has returned from a visit to the family of her father, Mr. A. M. Johnson, at Hubert.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Miller are spending some time with Mr. Miller's brother, Mr. John Miller near here.

Misses Sadie and Gussie Lee have as their attractive guest this week Miss Neta Hall, of Savannah, who will spend some time in the city.

Rev. J. S. McLemore, of Macon, spent part of last week here with relatives and friends.

Those attending the Baptist State Convention in session at Cartersville last week have returned.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kennedy were the chaperons for a merry party of younger set, Friday evening who attended a cane grinding at the home of Mr. B. F. Lester.

Dr. S. B. Kennedy of Metter, spent Sunday here with friends.

One of the small children of Col. J. E. Brannen is quite sick. Mrs. L. W. Brown of Stillson is very sick and is not expected to live.

Mrs. Ben Olliff of Summit is the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fordham. She will spend several days here before returning to her home.

Mr. J. W. Wright, one of the prominent citizens of Hubert, was in the city yesterday.

We are prepared to gin your sea island cotton now.

Bulloch Oil Mill.

Mr. Dell Anderson is home from Abbeville where he has been in school since September and now will take a position with his father in the business that he has recently bought.

Col. G. S. Johnston left this morning and will be present at the conference in Valdosta this week.

Mr. H. W. Dougherty is in Sparta where he was called Friday by a message announcing the death of his grandmother.

If you want fish we have them every day. Phone us, No. 18.

D. Barnes

Miss Berta Nichols is spending some time with friends at Metter.

Edison gold moulded records, 85c. each, at the Statesboro Music House.

Mr. D. A. Brannen was in the city yesterday selling cotton.

Mr. John Turner, of Parish, was in the city yesterday.

Messrs Dan Groover and Dowse Lee spent Sunday at Brooklet with friends.

WANTED—Ladies to make pants and overalls. Beginners paid $8 to $5 weekly. Experienced hands earn $10 to $14; steady employment all the year. Apply to L. Mohr & Sons, 284 Broughton, St. West, Savannah, Ga. 25w-1m

Mr. H. W. Dougherty is having a cottage built in east Statesboro, near the home of Dr. T. F. Brannen. Mr. Fontaine is the contractor and the work is well under way and will be completed in the next few weeks. The cottage has a very fine location and will be one of the prettiest in the city when completed.

Rev. G. G. N. McDonnell left Monday for Valdosta where he goes to attend the meeting of the South Georgia Conference in session there this week. He filled the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday at both morning and evening hour, this being his last time there until after the conference is over.

Mrs. C. H. Hamilton and son, Master Harry, returned Saturday from Register where they have been spending some time visiting the family of Mr. J. G. Nevile.

Miss Jennie Dawson was the chaperon for a party who drove out to the home of Mr. Frank Brannen, Friday evening, where they were the guest at a sugar boiling.

Miss Anna and Tilla Hughes spent two or three days with their uncle, Mr. Lanier, at Clito, last week.

The largest sale of cotton in the local market was made Saturday, when Mr. R. F. Lester sold thirty bales of sea island at 81 cents per pound. Mr. Lester is one of the very best farmers in the county and can always be depended upon to make a good crop. Some men never complain of a short crop and Mr. Lester is one of these, being a living witness that it is not so much a matter of season as that of work that makes a good crop.

The people of the Lookhart district are not worrying over the coal trust as they have plenty of local wood knots to last for some time yet.

A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for immediate use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the coughing begins. For sale by all druggists.

DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY
Will Surely Stop That Cough.

Vacation For Students

Of The Institute

"Avenue vale" hail and fare well—is no doubt the way the school children feel about the vacation that they are to enjoy this week. Hail rest, and fair well work, is the way that they have it figured out. From tomorrow until the following Monday they will have vacation. This was made possible by the fact that it was decided to teach Saturday and then let the children off not only Thanksgiving day but until the following Monday. In this way only one day will be lost and it will be more than made up in the pleasure that the teachers and children will get out of the vacation.

It will be time when much-needed rest can be taken by teachers and pupils alike. The time will be variously spent, each trying to get more pleasure out of the occasion that his neighbor, and in friendly rivalry will come half the pleasure that each will get out of the vacation.

May it be a season, though short as it will be, fraught with genuine pleasure for all of the teachers and students.

At the Auditorium.

If you have the blues and want them cured go out to the auditorium tonight to the lyceum attraction. The entertainment will be one of side-splitting laughter and rollicking fun and the one who fails to go will miss the treat of the season. Weeks is the funniest man on the stage today. He writes somewhat after the following manner: "I have Mobile features, although I was never in Alabama, having been born in Pennsylvania at too young an age to realize the error of my way. * * * Unlike some, I did not have a great mother, but I point with pardonable pride to the fact that I had a Great-Grand-mother. * * * I dispense 'Castoria' for worrying babies, but most audiences feel that a crying baby, like a New Years resolution, 'should be carried out' or with Sam Jones agree that the mother ought to take it out and give it a walk or something else."

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seems very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, and W. H. Ellis drug store. Price 30c & $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The municipal election is very quiet this year. But little or no interest has been shown in the matter so far.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, Vt., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until, as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters, and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by W. H. Ellis drug store. Price 30c.

The News

Published at Statesboro, Ga.
TUESDAYS AND FRIDAYS.
By the Statesboro News Publishing Co.

John D. Rockefeller's success as a financier is due to genius that inhabits him, according to a Chicago theorist.

The Pensacola News asks: Isn't it queer that the things people want to know most are usually none of their business.

An authority tells us that the farms of this country have produced in two years more wealth than all the gold mines of the world since Columbus landed.

James J. Hill is right when he says that Americans have not yet even begun to get from their soil the returns which nature will yield to the intensive scientific cultivator.

The ancient poets used to sing of the dense forests of Sicily. Today the mountains are bare. The question of reforesting is a difficult one. Attempts at starting new growth are frustrated by the pests, who tear down fences and drive in their goats. Only under military protection could new forest trees be grown.

The city of Zurich has abolished all doctors save forty and these are to be approved and salaried by the municipality. All who need treatment will receive it gratis. The physicians will be supported by a small annual tax laid upon all citizens. Now, if Zurich would adopt the Chinese plan of paying a doctor while his patients are all well and stopping his proportionate salary while any of them are ill, the scheme would appear about perfect. How would parts of it apply to ministers?

A Philadelphia paper draws attention to copper as a marvelous preventive of disease and says that if we return to the use of the old copper drinking vessels of our forefathers typhoid epidemics would disappear. A copper cent placed under a microscope is found to be free from germs although it has passed through dirtier hands than gold and silver coin. Germs are found on gold and silver, but not on copper. It has been observed that in those towns in China where the water is kept in earthen copper vessels epidemics of cholera and typhoid are unknown.

The Rev. Thomas Spurgeon, who succeeded his famous father, the Rev. C. H. Spurgeon as pastor of the Metropolitan Tabernacle, London, and who recently celebrated the jubilee of his birth, says that the sermon today is not the power it once was. It is very difficult nowadays to stir up the people by sermons. This is not altogether the fault of the preacher, but the people care less serious religion than they used to. Consequently they are less interested in sermons. It is mainly a matter of inclination. They prefer lighter and more frivolous subjects. Nevertheless, Mr. Spurgeon added, he did not believe that any sermon writer living could equal his father. Whatever he wrote or spoke had a peculiar grip. His sermons are still being published and preached again in pulpits wherever English is spoken.

Let us give the devil wagon its due, the admonition of the New York Globe. No, sir; that doesn't mean a cell for the scorching, though he deserves it. It simply means that the auto has done a lot of good in ways you wouldn't recognize. For instance, many women throughout England and in other persons' automobiles means of support. "Motor luncheon rooms" are becoming more common in rural communities, where the occupants of the dust-stained white cars may stop and rest and be comforted by the universal English tea. One woman has started such a luncheon room on a road out of London, and even through goggles the traveler may recognize its charms. Its walls are painted white and brightened by colored prints. Linoleum covers the floor. White silk curtains shade the windows, and the white chairs and sofas are heaped with cushions. The waitresses wear white linen frocks and embroidered Dutch caps. Physicians who walk against the deadly tapers may rain automobiles not to stop at these alluring spots, but the drivers positively refuse to go without their tea.

MISS BROOKS'S Thanksgiving SURPRISE

"It can't be like any Thanksgiving I ever knew; but, no matter what, I will be thankful, I will!" murmured Sarah Brooks, trying vainly to check her tears and covering close to the little register for warmth. It emitted tepid air, but slightly modifying the chill of the small black room, while the little spinstress had at a very low figure because she kept it in order herself and used an oil lamp instead of gas.

She had not made a light yet. Even kerosene costs money, and the moon gave light enough to fry by. Nearly three months she had passed in the little room, and she had not even been to the store. She had filled place after place in this establishment most faithfully for high to twenty of her forty-three years. There was no complaint against her. The firm dropped Miss Brooks and Miss Gray, to each of whom some years past it had been paying $10 a week, simply because it had found a man to do the work of both women at $15 a week.

John Peter Brooks was my father's only brother, and I am his only living relative, as I can easily prove, since we all were born in Boston." She answered, her brief elation subsiding. "But I can't imagine any advantage to come to me through him. He lost his life in a fire, which destroyed almost all his life effects."

When old Thanksgiving comes, I tell you what, there's fun on top. When old Thanksgiving comes, the farm's the best place on the map. When old Thanksgiving comes, there's will and Dan and Sue and Fan, and John and I and Sarah Ann. We'll all back home, the entire clan, when old Thanksgiving comes.

When the frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder's in the shock.

It mattered little to Miss Gray—she would be married at mid-November—but for Miss Brooks, who had been ten years and without kindred or lover, the loss was a measureless ill. Not that she realized it as such at the moment. Miss Gray was kinder than the other, and she was getting ready to be married. She had been expected to be; and Miss Brooks herself was a sweet and cheery nature, and she was about to be married. She had been expected to be; and Miss Brooks herself was a sweet and cheery nature, and she was about to be married.

Those same gray streaks, from which her fresh, unlined skin, bright eyes and trim nose, and her hair, which she had been so proud of, were beginning to show signs of gray. The gray streaks had widened, cutting her dreary days, the reddest features had faded, the little loss against the proverbial rainy day after twenty years of poorly paid labor, had been small at best, but it was smaller even than that. Miss Brooks had never been able to withhold her mite from a fellow-creature in distress. And now, despite the wretched income from her economies in food and street car fare, the tiny board was lessening at a frightful pace.

She thought ruefully tonight—though chiding herself for meanness in the memory—of sundry $5 and $10 bills loaned on promise of repayment "next month" to fellow-workers long since departed to fresh fields and pastures new, and getting warm at last with the aid of her well-worn water cloak and the tepid rays of the sun. The little loss against the proverbial rainy day after twenty years of poorly paid labor, had been small at best, but it was smaller even than that.

A peremptory knock on her door brought her sharply back to reality. "Gentlemen in the parlor to see Miss Brooks," the landlady, with the rising inflection of curiosity in her voice, for women like Miss Brooks, in a cheap boarding house, were the last of the visitors of the sterner sex. Mrs. Brooks looked up at the door.

Her visitor waited impatient. "Whatever it is, you get on with it, unless you sign these papers. Quick!" he cried, turning imperious eyes upon her. "Sign here!" But the frightened, exhausted

GOOD ROADS.

The great advance in the city is intimately associated with the question of good roads in the country. It is a matter of the surface of highways. In the business and pleasure districts, where the traffic is heavy and continuous, granite pavement has long been the rule. In the residential sections, where teams and the occasional and the passage of pleasure vehicles is the only customary use, macadam has been laid down. In the park system and on the boulevards also the lighter pavement has been adopted, with the result that wherever people live the roadway is such as to hold its own admirably under the conditions of use prevailing here.

Oh, talk about the dove of peace, or eagle of the free. Within his hollow tree, When fall November stripes the wood, And snows are still and murky, They dedicate their places here.

When old Thanksgiving comes, I tell you what, there's fun on top. When old Thanksgiving comes, the farm's the best place on the map. When old Thanksgiving comes, there's will and Dan and Sue and Fan, and John and I and Sarah Ann. We'll all back home, the entire clan, when old Thanksgiving comes.

When the frost is on the pumpkin and the fodder's in the shock.

It mattered little to Miss Gray—she would be married at mid-November—but for Miss Brooks, who had been ten years and without kindred or lover, the loss was a measureless ill. Not that she realized it as such at the moment. Miss Gray was kinder than the other, and she was getting ready to be married. She had been expected to be; and Miss Brooks herself was a sweet and cheery nature, and she was about to be married.

Those same gray streaks, from which her fresh, unlined skin, bright eyes and trim nose, and her hair, which she had been so proud of, were beginning to show signs of gray. The gray streaks had widened, cutting her dreary days, the reddest features had faded, the little loss against the proverbial rainy day after twenty years of poorly paid labor, had been small at best, but it was smaller even than that. Miss Brooks had never been able to withhold her mite from a fellow-creature in distress. And now, despite the wretched income from her economies in food and street car fare, the tiny board was lessening at a frightful pace.

She thought ruefully tonight—though chiding herself for meanness in the memory—of sundry $5 and $10 bills loaned on promise of repayment "next month" to fellow-workers long since departed to fresh fields and pastures new, and getting warm at last with the aid of her well-worn water cloak and the tepid rays of the sun. The little loss against the proverbial rainy day after twenty years of poorly paid labor, had been small at best, but it was smaller even than that.

A peremptory knock on her door brought her sharply back to reality. "Gentlemen in the parlor to see Miss Brooks," the landlady, with the rising inflection of curiosity in her voice, for women like Miss Brooks, in a cheap boarding house, were the last of the visitors of the sterner sex. Mrs. Brooks looked up at the door.

Her visitor waited impatient. "Whatever it is, you get on with it, unless you sign these papers. Quick!" he cried, turning imperious eyes upon her. "Sign here!" But the frightened, exhausted

INDICTS PROMOTER

Millionaire Fitzgerald Must Answer Fraud Charge. ACCOUNTING IS WANTED. Alleged That He Promoted Town of St. George, in Georgia, and Failed to Make Showing for $35,000 of the Profit.

Phillander H. Fitzgerald, millionaire pension attorney, colonization organizer, publisher of the American Tribune, an old soldier paper, and real estate dealer, was indicted at Indianapolis, Thursday, by the federal grand jury on the charge of using the mails to defraud. Two indictments, both of the same general tenor, were returned against him, both in connection with the promotion of the town of St. George, in Georgia.

Fitzgerald began his career in Indianapolis as a pension attorney soon after the war, and has done an enormous business in the promotion of the town of St. George, in Georgia. He has received for obtaining pensions, soon after he began as a pension attorney, he inaugurated "The American Tribune," a monthly paper, which he sent free to former soldiers, and in which he recorded the pensions granted and kept the veterans posted on all matters relating to pensions and laws.

Several years ago he advertised a colonization scheme open only to veterans of the war of the rebellion. He had purchased a large tract of land in the state of Texas and organized a company in which he asked the ex-soldiers to take stock.

The Texas project did not pan out well, and he organized the Georgia Company and advertised it in his paper. He professed to have purchased a large tract of land at a site which he called St. George, Ga., and which was to be laid out in building, residence lots and farms from 5 to 165 acres.

The alleged plot of land on which St. George is situated is on the Georgia Southern and Florida railway, between Valdosta and Jacksonville. Mr. Fitzgerald charged the suits are the result of spite work.

After hundred years.

Body of Wilson is Taken Up and Buried at Philadelphia.

At Philadelphia Thursday, in the presence of a distinguished company, which included a member of President Roosevelt's cabinet, Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, the body of James Wilson, one of the great figures in the American revolution, which lay in a North Carolina grave for one hundred and eight years, was placed by the side of that of his wife in the burial ground of historic Christ church.

President Leaves Porto Rico.

Departure from Ponce on Louisiana for Hampton Roads. The navy department was advised Thursday that the battleship Louisiana, under the command of Admiral Sampson, was to leave Ponce, Porto Rico, early in the day for Hampton Roads.

Negro Judge is Unseated.

Canvassing Board at Chicago Finds That He Was Not Elected. Ferdinand L. Barnett, colored assistant state's attorney, who, according to returns, was elected judge of the new municipal court of Chicago at the recent election, has been unseated by the canvassing board. The canvassing board found that Barnett was not elected, and that the election returns gave Barnett a plurality of 499, but the official count of the thirty-five wards of the city, which was completed Thursday, shows that Barnett was not elected.

BIG SHIPS IN COLLISION.

Thirteen Storage Passengers and Sailors Lose Life in Crash—Vessels Were Wilhelm and Orinco. A special from Cherbourg, France, says: The big liners, the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse and the Orinco, collided in the English channel Wednesday night at 9 o'clock. As a result 13 storage passengers and sailors were killed, each vessel was seriously damaged, and the two steamers have returned to port for repairs.

The Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse belongs to the North German Lloyd Steamship company. She carried 258 first class passengers, 259 in the second cabin and 67 in the steerage. She left Southampton and Cherbourg Wednesday morning for New York. The Orinco, which belongs to the British Royal Mail Steamship company, had cleared from Southampton for West India ports and New York. The passengers of the German vessel were taken aboard the Orinco, which was damaged, and the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse was towed to port.

LIVES AND VESSELS LOST.

Twenty-Three Sailors and 11 Ships Record of Gale on Great Lakes. The gale of Wednesday night and Thursday on the Great Lakes caused a record of shipwreck. Twenty-three lives. The large Republic of Toronto and six men were drowned. The large Athens was driven down by Sandusky, Ohio, with eight men. All hope for the Republic, however, has not been abandoned and crews are scouring Lake Erie for her.

PEONAGE TESTIMONY CLOSED. Arguments Begun in Pensacola in the Case Against Lumber Company. The taking of testimony in the United States court at Pensacola, Fla., in the famous case of conspiracy to commit peonage charged against W. S. Harbin and others of the Jackson Lumber company, ceased Thursday afternoon, consuming more than a week.

TWO-CENT RATE DECLARED VOID.

Court Holds It is Contrary to the Fourteenth Amendment.

In the Virginia supreme court of appeals at Richmond, Thursday, Judge Cardwell handed down a decision affirming the decision of the state corporation commission declaring the two-cent passenger rate at passed by the Virginia legislature contrary to the fourteenth amendment of the constitution of the United States. The case was a test involving the requirement that the railroads place on sale five hundred mile two-cent rate books.

WANT TO ISSUE MORTGAGE.

Stockholders of Macon, Dublin and Savannah Called to Meet in Macon. A call for a meeting of the stockholders of the Macon, Dublin and Savannah railway in Macon on December 2 was made Thursday by Secretary G. C. Smith of the company for the purpose of securing money to issue a mortgage on the property of the company. The call was made by the company's attorney, who stated that the company was in a financial straits and that it was necessary to issue a mortgage on the property of the company.

FATHER PAYS BIG REWARD.

For Young Son Who is Charged With Murder of a Negro. James Taylor, Jr., well known young man of Danville, a suburb of Pittsburgh, Pa., charged with the murder of a negro, was arrested in Martinsburg, W. Va., Thursday. Young Taylor says he shot the negro because the young man's father offered a reward of $1,000 for the capture of his son.

UP TO FACTORY OWNERS.

Cotton Mill Operators Must Make More Pay or Strike. The five unions of cotton mill operatives at Fall River, Mass., at special meetings held Thursday night, voted by large majorities to reject an offer of $3 a per cent advance in wages, and to go out on strike next Monday morning, unless the demand for 10 per cent increase is granted before that time.

TO DOUBLE-TRACK

Southern is Forced to Increase Its Facilities. CHARLOTTE TO ATLANTA. South's Prosperity Proves Too Much for Great System—Contract is Let to Oliver Company of Knoxville, Tenn.

A special from Charlotte, N. C., states that the Southern railway has just let a contract for double tracking the main line between that city and Atlanta. The contracting firm is the Oliver company of Knoxville, Tenn. One of the largest in the south. The undertaking is monumental and it is not improbable that the Oliver people will submit contracts to smaller companies. This information was obtained from an authentic source. The work will be begun by December 1 or January 1. It will probably take six or eight years to do this work, as aside from the double tracking the course of the track will be changed at many points, and the curves and grades done away with as far as possible.

Double tracking has been in progress north of Charlotte to a considerable extent and the second line has been laid between several of the larger cities as far north as Danville. It is probable that the line will be double-tracked between Charlotte and Spencer, in order to eventually give double trackage all the way between Washington and Atlanta.

NO REVOCATION OF ORDER.

Be Falsely, Says Teddy. Unless Facts are Known, Are Shown to a Cable dispatch from President Roosevelt declining to suspend his order discharging the negro troops of the twenty-fifth regiment unless the facts as known to him are shown to be false, but expressing his willingness to hear new facts bearing upon the case, was made public at Washington Tuesday by General H. Stewart of the Department of War.

PRESIDENT IN PORTO RICO. Takes Trip in Auto and Makes Many Speeches to Islanders. President Roosevelt Wednesday journeyed in an automobile over the famous military road from Ponce to San Juan and was accompanied on occasion by the people of Porto Rico. The eighty mile trip was made in six hours and thirty minutes, counting the time taken by stops at the principal towns. Along the route, where the president made short speeches to the people. The president, in all his addresses, dwelt upon the fact that he held for the people of Porto Rico and assured them that he would use every effort to secure citizenship for them.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT. The president's view is that the negro soldiers, in refusing instruction, necessary to the apprehension of the men who committed the criminal acts at Brownsville, Texas, struck at the very heart of the military discipline. Had the white troops done this same thing, they would have suffered the same penalty.

TRYING TO BLUFF TILLMAN.

Card Writer Says He Will Be Shot If He Attempts to Lecture. A postal card was received in Chicago Wednesday from a man calling himself "Theodore Roosevelt," threatening injury to Senator Tillman of South Carolina if he persisted in giving a lecture for the benefit of the Chicago Union hospital. The threat on the card was as follows: "The Honorable Ben Tillman will not speak if he does he will be shot by a man who will go in the hall unattended."

WAIVED RIGHT TO TRIAL.

Fear of Lynching Leads Negro to Enter Plea of Guilt. At Center, Texas, Dick Garrett, the negro who killed Alice Paul Saturday, will be executed at once. After the funeral Tuesday afternoon friends of the murdered man were so wrought up that an attack on the jail was imminent. The accused sent for District Attorney Imboden, waived all his legal rights and requested to be hanged immediately. Judge Davis agreed to take upon the case, accept a plea of guilty, and sentence and let the execution take place.

NO FATALITIES OCCURRED.

Though Severe Passengers Were Hurt in A. C. Train Wreck. An Atlantic Coast Line passenger and mail train leaving Wilmington, N. C., for Charleston at 6 o'clock Saturday morning, was wrecked at Leland, seven miles from Wilmington, by a broken rail. Seventeen passengers were injured, but none seriously.

ROOSEVELT IS FIRM

Stands Pat on Orders Disbanding Colored Troops. TAFT ADVISED BY CABLE. Secretary of War is Told to Cease Delaying in the Matter—Army Officers Report on the Brownsville Affair Made Public.

The war department at Washington issued the following statement Wednesday concerning the negro troops ordered disbanded at Fort Reno: "In the matter of the order discharging the enlisted men of three companies of the twenty-fifth infantry issued by the president, application was presented to the secretary of war by a large number of persons asking a rehearing by the president on the ground on which the action was taken. The secretary telegraphed the president of the application and delayed the proceedings of the discharge until the president could indicate his desires. The secretary was in the meantime out of town. No answer was received from the president. The secretary on his return did not feel justified in further delaying the execution of the order of discharge, especially in view of the fact that the secretary had learned the president had fully and exhaustively considered the argument advanced by the persons who requested a rehearing. According to the secretary directed yesterday (Tuesday) that the proceedings for discharge be continued without delay."

Later in the day, Secretary Taft received a dispatch from President Roosevelt and issued the following statement: "A telegram was received from the president at 11 o'clock today after the previous statement was given out at the war department, in which he declined to suspend the discharge unless there are new facts of such importance as to warrant calling him out of town. No answer was received from the president. The secretary on his return did not feel justified in further delaying the execution of the order of discharge, especially in view of the fact that the secretary had learned the president had fully and exhaustively considered the argument advanced by the persons who requested a rehearing. According to the secretary directed yesterday (Tuesday) that the proceedings for discharge be continued without delay."

FOR MURDER OF POLICEMAN. Chattanooga Negro is Doomed to Gallows by Verdict of Jury. Will Hurd, the negro who killed Policeman T. O. Musgrove, in front of a South Chattanooga grocery store, was found guilty of murder in the first degree at Chattanooga, Tuesday. Judge McReynolds of the criminal court will sentence him to hang. Much excitement was caused by the killing of Musgrove, and the negro was taken to Knoxville for safekeeping. The trial passed off without incident, and the jury, which was composed of leading Chattanooga citizens, turned a verdict within a short time.

JOYNER SUCCEEDS MEIVER. As President of the North Carolina State Normal School.

J. Y. Joyner of North Carolina, state superintendent of public instruction, was elected Tuesday by the board of trustees, president of the State Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro. Dr. Charles D. Meivier, who died September 17, Professor Joyner declined to accept the position.

A PROFESSIONAL BABY KILLER. Mother is Faced by Daughters Who Accuse Her of Heinous Crimes.

The spectacle of a woman denouncing as a murderer the woman who brought them into the world, but whom they refused to call "mother," was witnessed in the office of the district attorney at New York Wednesday.

NO WILL BY SHAFTER.

Although Late General Left Property Valued at $15,000. Captain William H. McKittrick, son-in-law of the late General Shafter, has filed a petition in court at Bakerfield, Cal., for letters testamentary in the estate of the deceased general. The petition states that no will of the general was found and that the property valued at $15,000 is shown to exist.

TRAGEDY OCCURS IN LITTLE TOWN OF Lenoir, Ala.—Cause Unknown.

James S. Johnson, a merchant of Lenoir, Ala., shot and killed his wife, Mrs. J. W. Jones, in Lenoir, Thursday afternoon, about four o'clock. The shooting took place in front of the Johnson company's drug store. Johnson was known as a cause of the tragedy.

MERCHANT KILLS POLICE CHIEF.

Johnson gave himself up and requested that he be sent to the county jail at Lafayette, which was done.

THE STATESBORO NEWS.

$1.00 A YEAR.

STATESBORO, GA. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1906

VOL. 6 NO 39

BEGINNING the first day of each year, and continuing to the end, we offer you as fine a line of goods of every kind as money can buy, and at prices that no one can undersell.

WE handle everything.

WE buy your cotton and produce

WE appreciate your trade.

WE treat you right.

Every Day Bargain Day With Us.

J.G. Blitch Company

Cures Biliousness, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Torpid Liver and Chronic Constipation. Pleasant to take

ORINO
Laxative Fruit Syrup

Cleanses the system thoroughly and clears away all impurities. It is guaranteed

FOR SALE BY W. H. ELLIS

TRESPASS NOTICE.

All persons are warned not to hunt, fish, haul wood or in any way trespass upon the lands of the undersigned under penalty of the law.

Harrison Atkins, James Atkins, B. L. Atkins.

This, Nov. 10th, 1906.

WANTED

Parties with capital in sale of horses and mules; business established; well appointed stable; in good locality. 143 W. Broad St. Savannah, Ga.

1m

Money to Lend.

$100,000.00 to lend on long time, easy payments and low interest, on farm lands in Bulloch county. Call on.

J. A. Brannen, Statesboro, Ga.

3m

Bucklen's Arnica Salve
The Best Salve in the World.

Just Received.

The largest and best selected line of Buggies, Wagons, Harness and Saddles ever put on display in the city of Statesboro.

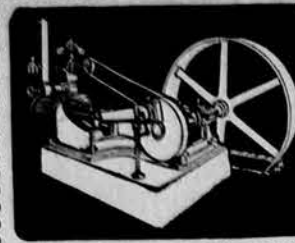

We are selling a good, neat Top Buggy—something to please the man of good taste—for $49; also a good, high grade one-horse Farm Wagon for $28.

We are, also, agents for the famous "NEW HOME" light running Sewing Machine and can supply your wants in this line at a big saving to you. We also sell Sewing Machine Needles, Oil, etc., and will appreciate a liberal share of your patronage.

Last but not least we handle a complete line of COFFINS, Caskets, Burial Robes and Burial Supplies generally, the prices of which are in line with anything sold in the larger cities, quality considered.

Come and let us show you anything in our line before you buy, for we are in a position to save you money on your purchases

STATESBORO BUGGY & WAGON COMPANY.

Machinery Co.
Nacogdoches, Texas

Complete outfit for sale. We will make it to your interest to consult us.

Found Dead in Bed.

On Wednesday morning last Lyons was thrown into a furor of excitement when the sad message was sent on its rounds that Dr. T. J. Hendley was dead. On Tuesday the Doctor was full of life and vigor and intended going to a cane grinding. Late in the evening however, he complained a little and after drinking a cup of hot water at supper, retired early. Wednesday morning he did not arise as was his custom, and Mr. Morris, at whose home he was boarding, went to the door to find out the case. Lo, and behold, he found only a cold lifeless form, death having come without an apparent struggle.

Dr. Aaron, who is a nephew of Dr. Hendley, was immediately notified and Coroner Cowart was called for an investigation. The verdict was that death resulted from heart failure, as it seemed that the Doctor had suffered from heart trouble before.

Dr. Hendley, the deceased was born in Emanuel county some 55 years ago, and he was educated at the old Ben Hill Academy. He then returned home and taught school by which he obtained funds to study medicine. He located in Bulloch county, where he was very successful. Five years ago he gave up the practice of medicine and moved to Fitzgerald, where he engaged in mercantile pursuits. A year ago he decided to retire from business altogether and made his home in Lyons. During his stay here he made many friends, and at the time of his death, was one of our best citizens. Being a man of means he had made many investments here during his stay all of which were turning out very successful.

Dr. Hendley was not a married man though he leaves behind two brothers and two sisters. The two sisters are Mrs. Aaron, of Seaboard, mother of Dr. Aaron, of Lyons, and Mrs. Wamock, of Portland. The brothers are Messrs. W. L. and Wm. Hendley, both of whom reside at Seaboard, near their old home in Jenkins county, formerly Emanuel county.

The remains were embalmed by an undertaker from Savannah and carried to Seaboard for burial Thursday morning. Thus it is that a good man's life ends without warning and the lesson should have weight with us all to be ready at all times to meet our Maker—Lyons Progress.

Notice of Primary.

A primary election of the white voters will be held at the court house on Wednesday, November 28th, for the nomination of a mayor and five councilmen for the city of Statesboro. This, Nov. 21st, 1906.

S. F. Olliff,

J. F. Brannen,

G. S. Johnston,

Dem. Executive Com.

E. S. Lane & Son's Sale.

E. S. Lane & Son are this week running a big sale at Blitch. This firm has some thing good to offer the trading public and those wishing bargains will do well to look over the stock of goods that are being sold by this company at a big sacrifice. The sale has been in progress for several days but there are plenty of goods left from which to select many rare bargains. The stock consists of general merchandise, and it is easy to find something to please and attract you.

Early Risers

The famous little pills.

Cabbage Plants

FOR SALE.

I am again ready to supply my old, as well as new, customers, with cabbage plants. My stock is grown in the open air near salt water, and will therefore stand severe cold without injury. Experience has taught me to plant only the best seed obtainable, regardless of cost, as by so doing you get a greater number of heads true to type. It is from such seed my stock is grown, and being of the earliest varieties, namely: Harpago, Extra Early Large Jersey, Wakefield and others, these are the best strains for the practical grower. They are packed in neat, light baskets, to reduce express. All orders are personally looked after by me. I, therefore, guarantee satisfaction.

$1.25 per thousand where cash accompanies order; $1.00 more at agents rates or $1 per thousand; under $1.00 at 20c per hundred. All orders shipped C. O. D. when money does not accompany order. In ordering plants give express office, also post office address.

D. W. MAYER, Beaufort, S. C.

APPLICATION FOR NEW ROAD.

P. A. Trappnell, E. Daughtry and others having applied for the establishment of a new public road of the first class, to begin near the residence of L. M. Bowen, in the 14th G. M. Dist., and run in an easterly direction through the lands of P. A. Trappnell, J. C. Trappnell and E. Daughtry and terminating at Matter town limits, a distance of about one mile, this notice is given to all persons that on and after the 18th day of December, 1906, said new road will be finally granted if no objection is shown to the contrary. This November 20th, 1906.

M. J. Bowen, W. J. Denmark, A. M. Deal, Morgan Brown, S. L. Moore, Commissioners.

NOTICE.

I am needing money for guano. Remember I have bank notes to meet for every sack I sell. Notes are drawing interest.

Geo. E. Wilson.

NOTICE.

On the 23rd day of October I sold my one half interest in the turpentine line known as H. A. Trappnell & Co. to Register & Smith and they are to assume all liabilities of the said H. A. Trappnell & Co. H. A. Trappnell

Pneumonia Follows a Cold.

but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar. It stops the cough, heales and strengthens the lungs and prevents pneumonia. W. H. Ellis, 1

FOR SALE.

Twelve hundred acres of fine land in Toombs county, the best agricultural section of Georgia. Will sell as a whole or tracts to suit purchaser. Other lands for sale, both improved and unimproved. Write if interested to W. H. Minter, Lyons, Ga.

LAND FOR SALE.

I have 108 acres of land, 50 of which is in state of high cultivation, three miles northwest of Statesboro, which I wish to sell. The land is well improved and has good water and building. For terms of sale see Jonnie Deal, route No. 2, Statesboro, Ga.

STOCK FOR SALE.

We have just received a car load of fine Tennessee horses and mules. They are young, first-class in every way and the best to be found on the market. Before buying call and inspect our lot. We will treat you right.

NOTICE.

All parties indebted to Brooklet Ginnery for ginning are requested to make prompt settlement without further notice. After the 24th our gin days will be Thursday and Friday. Brooklet Ginnery

LOST HORSES.

At the Sink Hole Bridge Saturday night Nov. 17, two small ponies, with touch mane and both tail, escaped from driver. Anyone returning them or giving information about them will be rewarded. G. T. McLamora, Statesboro, Ga.

POPULAR PHYSICIAN SAYS

He Concedes Dillingham's Plant Juice G. d.'s Best Gift to Man.

It matters not whether you consider Dillingham's Plant Juice as a marvelous remedy for the cure of diseases, as a noble life-saver when doctors fail, or whether you consider it as a great blood and tissue builder or as Nature's ideal nerve tonic, from the miraculous and seemingly inexplicable result it produces, you are forced to conclude that it must have emanated from some power superior to man.

For centuries it has been the dream of learned medical professors to find a preparation that would prolong human life and restore the buoyancy of youth. But however wise man may be, however much he has progressed, notwithstanding the marvelous invention he has made, the wonderful machines he has designed he is still forced to bow to the hand of Nature.

A grain of wheat planted in the ground draws sustenance from the earth appropriate the material elements from the earth and air and behold a stalk of wheat springs up, which bears its seeds and ripens in the summer breeze. Can man make food from the earth and air?

Nature has given us a wonderful plant whose juices are the juices of life, which abstracts its marvelous health-giving properties from the earth and air. Dillingham's Plant Juice is a remedy made in Nature's own laboratory by a divine hand, which may truly be termed God's best gift to man.

Plant Juice can be obtained at The Simmons Co., Statesboro Ga.

The Savannah Press is fifteen years old and has tied on to the simplified spelling of Roosevelt. It should continue to grow but that reformed spelling is going to handicap it mightily.

Dairy and Food Commission's Report.

The Minnesota Dairy and Food Commission's analysis show that Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar contains opiates and croton oil. Opiates are poisons and croton oil is a violent purgative. Refuse to accept any but Foley's Honey and Tar in a yellow package. Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates or croton oil and is the best cough and cold cure. W. H. Ellis, 1

The case of the negro Glenn, in Atlanta, proves that men ought to go slow in dealing with criminals. It is mighty easy to get the wrong man.

Cured of Bright's Disease.

Mr. Robert O. Burke, Elmore, N. Y., writes: "Before I started to use Foley's Kidney Cure I had to get up from twelve to twenty times a night, and my eyesight was so impaired I could scarcely see one of my family across the room. I had given up hope of living, when a friend recommended Foley's Kidney Cure. One 80 cent bottle worked wonders and before I had taken the third bottle the drops had gone, as well as all other symptoms of Bright's disease." W. H. Ellis, 1

The great need of the people of this country at the present time is several thousand intelligent and thrifty white immigrants to take the place of the worthless vagrant. This country can be made to blossom like the proverbial rose but as long as we depend upon the class of labor that we have now that condition will never obtain here. Immigration is a matter of vital importance to this country and the people are vitally interested in the movement.

Dancing Proves Fatal.

Many men and women catch cold at dances which terminate in pneumonia and consumption. After exposure to cold and damp air, no serious results need be feared. Refuse any but the genuine in a yellow package. W. H. Ellis, 1

Bulloch County Must Have That College.

Tomorrow, at 10 o'clock, the trustees of the First district agricultural college will meet in Savannah for the purpose of organization and the consideration of the bids for the location of the school for this district.

That there will be some spirited bidding for this school is confidently expected. Up to date the following places have entered the fight for the college: Statesboro, Claxton, Hagan and Stillmore. Both Swainsboro and Waynesboro figured on it at one time, but according to the latest information they have each withdrawn from the fight. It is the consensus of opinion throughout the state that it will be located at Statesboro, but sometimes "the best laid plans of mice and men miscarry."

Bulloch county stands at the top of the great agricultural and industrial counties of the state. She is the wearer of the blue ribbon for the best agricultural county in Georgia, having won it over the stiffest sort of competition at the state fair recently held in Atlanta.

The lists that have been circulated throughout the county asking that the county commissioners put into effect the recommendation of the last grand jury to appropriate $25,000 or more if necessary to this fund, have been universally signed where they have been circulated. In some localities the list has not been presented for lack of time, but where they have almost every one has willingly signed it. There has been no argument or teasing necessary to get signatures to it, the people have shown that they understand its purpose and importance. In the Brooklet district we learn only one man refused to sign; only one in the Briar Patch; only one in the Blitch; only three in the Laston; three in the Club House and practically none in the other districts.

The feeling is unanimous for the college to go down to Savannah tomorrow and simply get the college, that there shall be no limit to the amount that we shall pay for it in reason. They understand that if we miss the college the next thing that we will be up against will be a new county fight. Efforts are already in afoot to place our county to make a county seat at Stillmore. It will allow Stillmore to swipe the college then they will propose to come down and swipe from us the Club House and part of the Laston district, two of the best we have in the county. They feel that the way to whip a fight is to nip it in the bud at the beginning. The more we pay for this college the higher will rise its dome towards our skies; the more money will be expended upon it right here in our midst. Not a dollar of this money will leave the county, and beside it will be the means of bringing thousands of dollars and good desirable citizens here to locate and build up our town and county, as well as benefit the people who already live here.

The locating of the college here at a good round figure will start such a boom as has never been witnessed before. We already know of a number of substantial improvements that will go up right away. We understand that as a sample of what is to follow, the Savannah & Statesboro railway will start to erect a magnificent two-story brick passenger depot on the main street here and will make like improvements at the other towns along its line. The Central of Georgia too, will take up the move, and other buildings will start up without delay. The Savannah & Statesboro railway will run straight through to Savannah with only one stop at Brooklet. A committee of one hundred citizens is expected to go down to see that Bulloch takes care of her interest. Every one who will go are expected to be on hand and be a part of the party that will land this college for Bulloch county.

The City Primary.

The regular white primary for the choosing of city officials to serve us for the next twelve months was held in the office of the ordinary on Wednesday.

It was not until the hour for the polls to open that a definite ticket shaped itself. It had been expected that J. G. Blitch would be in the race for mayor this time, Col. R. Lee Moore having positively declined to allow the use of his name; but towards the time for the opening of the polls there developed a movement to place back in the present board.

With this idea in view Col. Moore agreed to allow the use of his name, and Mr. Blitch withdrew. This action did not meet with approval of the entire voting population, and soon there was in circulation another ticket, containing the name of Col. Moore for Mayor and that of only two of the old board, viz: Messrs. J. H. Donaldson and J. D. Blitch, in opposition to Messrs. A. Blitch, Perry Kennedy and Franklin, who made up the balance of the old board. The following three gentlemen were placed on the new ticket: J. E. Brannen, T. J. Denmark, and D. A. Arden.

About two hundred votes were polled, and the result was the election of the entire old board with the exception of Mr. A. J. Franklin, who was displaced by the election of Prof. J. E. Brannen, who ran at the head of the new ticket. Mr. Brannen defeated Mr. Franklin ten votes, while Mr. Denmark, the next man on the new ticket, tied with Mr. Franklin for sixth place in the race. Messrs. Grimes and Kennedy running about fifteen votes ahead. Messrs. Donaldson, Blitch and Col. Moore being on both tickets ran far ahead of the other members on the old ticket. The following is the ticket which will be voted for tomorrow as the nominees of Wednesday's white primary:

For Mayor: R. Lee Moore.

For Councilmen: J. H. Donaldson, J. D. Blitch, Perry Kennedy, F. N. Grimes, and J. E. Brannen. There will probably be no opposition to the above named ticket. They are all good men and will serve the town well in the future as they have in the past.

Group

A reliable medicine and one that should always be kept in the home for immediate use is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will prevent the attack if given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the cough appears. For sale by all druggists.

Once in a while you can hear of a train that was on time, but like land visits they are few and far between.

Bulloch County Boy

Making Fine Record.

Perhaps it will be interesting to the many acquaintances and friends of Rufus Cecil Franklin to know something of his standing and success in class work, generally, since entering the University of Maryland, in Baltimore.

He is a son of Mr. Jason Franklin, of Adahville, this county, who is a most highly respected and influential farmer in that section as well as a great promoter of higher education.

His son, referred to above, entered the University of Maryland school of medicine in October, 1903, and since that time has been earnest and successful in learning the science and art of medicine, making a popular standing in his class each successive year. In his junior year he held the office of vice-president of his class, and at the end of that year he was among the number appointed as clinical assistants at the university hospital. Here he spent the entire summer and will continue to be connected with hospital work until his graduation, which will be May 31st, 1907. Since beginning his fourth year of medicine he has been elected president of his class, which is an unusual honor, since it is the centennial class of this university, the 5th oldest medical school in America, and for the celebration of which occasion many preparations are being made and interesting programs arranged by the committees of both faculty and student body. Besides he has been chosen associate editor of the journal edited at the University of Maryland, entitled "Old Maryland; and, too, it is interesting to note that his brother, V. E. Franklin, A. B., A. M., M. D., got his degree here in 1896, just ten years ago, and likewise holding the office of class president in his senior year. At present he is a successful practitioner of medicine and general surgery at Graymont, Ga.

A CLASSMATE.

Simmons-Mikell.

Miss Tommie Julia Simmons and Mr. Remer Coleman Mikell were married at the home of the bride's parents, at Mill Ray, Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. T. J. Cobb. It was a home wedding and a quiet affair, only the family and the intimate friends of the contracting parties being present.

The bride is the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Simmons, and is a young lady of many graces. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mikell, and is one of the most prominent young business men of the city. Both of the young people are popular throughout the county and have many friends who wish for them a long life and a happy one.

They will make their home, for the present, with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mikell, on North Main street.

Tuesday evening they were treated to a serenade by some of the boys of the city, who, with a number of bells, musical instruments and other noise-making devices, made a world of noise for an hour or two, but were unable to disturb the sweet bliss of the newly married pair, and to that extent were disappointed in getting the usual cake and wine which is supposed to be the reward of serenaders.

Cotton Market.

The cotton market Wednesday, there being no market yesterday, was good. Sales heavy. Sea island, 25 to 32 cents; upland, 10 to 11 1/2.

All Things Come to Him Who Waits.

All things come to him who waits. This will help you if you will remember it when you are waiting for the train.

South Georgia Conference

Invited Here Next Year.

The South Georgia Methodist Episcopal conference, which is in session at Valdosta this week, will be invited to meet here next year. The invitation will be extended through the venerable pastor of the church here, Rev. G. G. N. MacDonell. It is hoped that the invitation will be accepted.

The church here is in a very prosperous condition, and, under the charge of the present pastor, has had one of the best years in the history of the church. That Statesboro can take care of a meeting as large there can be no doubt. In the past she has had a meeting almost as large and the way that the visitors and delegates were cared for won their hearty applause. That was two or three years ago and the city has grown greatly since that time. Statesboro has never had the honor, we believe, of having this distinguished body of churchmen meet here, and for this reason the people are more than anxious that the conference meet here for its next session.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dread, full complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by W. H. Ellis drug store. Price 50c.

Arrested for Wife Desertion.

Sheriff Kendrick, Wednesday morning, acting through instructions from the Screven county officials, arrested A. G. Pierce, who is wanted on the charge of deserting his wife. There are other charges laid at his door, but which we withhold for the sake of our readers. No less than three warrants have been sworn out for him.

It seems that he married, some time ago, a Miss Lee, of this place, and since that time has deserted her, going to Screven county where, it is said, he lived with other women without being married to them. He came here Tuesday to see the wife whom he had left, and while here the authorities of Screven county wired Sheriff Kendrick to place him under arrest. This was done, though it seems that he came very near getting away before the arrest was made. Getting on the train at the crossing, he was arrested at the depot, thus defeating whatever plan of escape, if there was any, that he had.

Sheriff Kendrick put Pierce in jail and later the Screven county authorities came over to see about the matter.

In Time of Peace

In the first months of Russia-Japan war we had a striking example of the necessity for preparation and the early advantage of those who, so to speak, "have shingled their roofs in dry weather." The virtue of preparation has made history and given to us our greatest men. The individual as well as the nation should be prepared for any emergency. Are you prepared to successfully combat the first cold you take? A cold can be cured much more quickly when treated as soon as it has been contracted and before it has become settled in the system. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds and it should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by all druggists.

The Road to Success

is the easiest for those who practice economy and show wisdom by keeping their savings in a BANK.

MONEY earns money and is a great factor in achieving success. START to saving now by opening an account with the Sea Island Bank.

A Dollar Will Do It.

Thanksgiving

Observed Here.

Thanksgiving Day was generally observed in Statesboro yesterday. The stores, banks and business houses were all closed, and the post office observed Sunday hours. All the rural carriers had a day off. Services were held at the Baptist Church. Rev. M. H. Massey delivered the sermon, appropriate to the occasion.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackett, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copiously from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seems very near. He writes "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at W. H. Ellis drug store. Price 30c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

FARM FOR RENT.

Forty-acre farm for rent; 6 miles from Statesboro; good houses and good land; convenient to school and churches; on rural mail route; to be rented to white family on share crop plan; renter must have his own stock. Anyone who corresponds with me must furnish stamp for reply. Apply to G. S. Blackburn, Statesboro, Ga.

TRESPASS NOTICE.

All persons are hereby forewarned under the penalty of the law not to hunt, fish, haul wood or otherwise trespass upon the lands of the undersigned. This Nov. 7th, 1906.

Ira Dickinson, G. M. Martin.

Had a Close Call.

"A dangerous surgical operation, involving the removal of a malignant ulcer, as large as my hand, from my daughter's hip, was prevented by the application of Bucklen's Arnica salve," says A. C. Stickle, of Milford, W. Va. "Persistent use of the Salve completely cured it." Cures Cuts, Burns and Injuries. 25c at W. H. Ellis druggist.

What have you to be Thankful for?

Are you better off than you were a year ago? Are you going ahead or falling behind? Do you make each day count? Your whole life will be a great big success if you make each day of it a small success. Manage to save a part of your earnings each day. Open an account with us where you can keep the savings in absolute safety.

The First National Bank

Of Statesboro, Ga.

BROOKS SIMMONS, J. E. McGOVERN, President, Cashier.

Directors: F. P. REGISTER, M. G. BRANNEN, W. W. WILLIAMS, JAS. B. RUSHING, F. N. GRIMES, BROOKS SIMMONS, F. E. FIELD.

One Dollar ($1.00) will open an account with us. Start and make it grow.

We pay four (4) per cent. on time deposits. Interest paid quarterly if you wish.