STATESBORO – Georgia Southern sophomore and senior student-athletes participated in finance seminars Monday night at Nessmith-Lane. The events are part of the Eagles in Transition/Life Beyond Sport Program.

Core Credit Union Community Events Manager Julie Morrison and Business Development Manager Wes Wilkes spoke to the sophomore student-athletes about basic money management, while the seniors learned about developing better money-saving and credit-management habits.

The Eagles in Transition/Life Beyond Sport Program focuses on the holistic development of Eagle student-athletes through professional, personal, leadership development, financial education and community service. Next on the program's docket is the Leadership Seminar: True Colors for all freshmen student-athletes Sept. 9 at 7:30 p.m. at the Williams Center.
