The Fight For Geo. Bell

We reproduce in these columns a letter written by Mr. Geo. H. Bell, some weeks ago also a news item stating that the fight for his release from the lunatic asylum had been renewed. The editor of this paper while at Swainsboro one day this week was informed that Bell had as much sense now as he had when he was elected to represent Emanuel county in the Legislature, and at that it seemed that the authorities were afraid to turn him out and declare him sane for fear of what Bell would tell. The fight for Bell's freedom was taken up by Hon. Thomas E. Watson who has made it hot for the management in the Weekly Jeffersonian. Until we learn now that Bell has been given a new trial, which will come off at Swainsboro one day next week. If the letter written by Bell and reproduced in these columns is based on facts then the State Sanitarium is in a pretty bad way. It is ripe for a probe. Mr. Bell's letter follows:

State Sanitarium, Milledgeville, Ga., Dec. 25, 1908.

Editor News:

Please send me a little space.

In more than two hundred letters sent to State and Federal officials, newspapers and individual citizens, I have begged only a hearing in the courts—a right guaranteed to the meaneast citizen, and given to very few of those imprisoned in this asylum, (as a result of the general habit of denying this inalienable right to the citizen, there are no less than a thousand men and women unlawfully held here—and "Liberty hangs her head and acknowledges oppression as her sister.")

During more than two and a half years of excruciating torture in this living Inferno I have appealed to every official from whom I could hope to obtain assistance—and received not one redly.

The newspapers, too, seem to be in league with a gang of criminals whose sway is more complete in Georgia than the bandit Baisoulli's in Morocco.

This asylum, established and maintained by the tax payers of this state as a public charity, is prostituted to the use of heartless and conscienceless felids incurable—in harrying their unfortunate impotent victims, in confounding their crimes, and in protecting them in their criminal operations. (A melancholy experience of nearly three years—during which time I have lived in it—or, rather, have not died in it—has taught me that these are the chief purposes of the sanitarium, as operated. It is a well known fact, that no man—and man embraces woman—can hope to obtain a discharge from here without the sanction of the party placing him here—the in-curate's mental condition not being a consideration.)

And here we have presiding over these helpless, guiltless victims, merciless and remorseless Imps of Hell in human form who pursue them relentlessly day in and day out by every method of cruel persecution, humiliation, imposition and abuse ever devised by the malignant, malevolent mind of wasted Mephisto at all time!

Great God! what crimes are perpetrated in the name of "charity."

I have seen frauds and fakes—fakers and four-flushers; white mahatmas and some not white; artists black and otherwise; medicine men and "high-pitched" plunderers; the man with the shells and the "fish-pond" chap; the spindle game and the "pick-out" graft; professional pocket pilferers and tradin' and traffickin' tricksters; henkatonk ham-fatter and bum bam boozlers; fly-by-nights and get-away-quicks, and many another "sich," in perambulations from "Hell's Half-acre" to the "Great White Way."

But sum them up—assemble, congregate, consolidate, combine, multiply and add to—in this, the one and only, stupeduous, colossal, monumental, pyramidal fraud of frauds and fake of fakes of the universe, I have never dreamed that such an institution of black barbarism could exist in a civilized community! But—I am a prisoner in purgatory, and want to get out. Will someone lend me assistance? I need it and I think I should have it. I am a citizen of Georgia—unacquainted (note it) of crime, lunacy, vagrancy and pauperism. Why force a man, who wants to be a good citizen, to become an anarchist?

Since April 18, 1908, when I was "shandhid" from my place of business at Swainsboro, Emanuel county ("God with us"), I have been deprived of my liberty, prosperity, prospects, and hopes and hide through what I contend is a criminal conspiracy. The officials, State and Federal, have colluded with the conspirators. What chance has a man at the mercy of such unprincipled helldons!

If anyone should become interested in my case enough to visit me or to investigate my case, let him not be deceived or misled by the soft pretenses and suave excuses—"formulas"—of the management of this Sanitarium. This is a conspiracy, remember. I can be found at anytime, in spite of reports to the contrary, not only looking after myself, but giving a little attention to "the other fellow" (yes, there is a negro here of the same name, but he is not the one we know!) I have not sworn to "destroy the world" upon my liberation; to bite off the nose or chew up the ear of any caller; nor am I "frothing" at the mouth in a maniacal desire to "slay the human race" with the hind leg of a mule.)

Let someone assist me to secure a habeas corpus hearing—that same of the wrongly imprisoned. Yours very truly, Geo. H. Bell.

Fertilizer War On.

The knife has been inserted still deeper in fertilizer prices. At the beginning of the season, the prevailing price was $21.50 per ton for 8-2-2 good, delivered in Statesboro or the nearby towns. Now we learn that certain dealers have cut the price down to near the $17 mark, one instance of where eight tons were sold at $17.17 delivered at Clito coming to light. Not all the companies are engaged in the cut, but several are, and the result is farmers are getting lower prices if they are getting as good goods as heretofore. It is not known whether the war has reached its limit or not?

Look for the Coupon now put in each 25c package of Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee Infusion. A clever fellow "No Drip" Coffee Steamer offered on this Coupon, besides you get 90 large cups of Dr. Shoop's "Health Coffee" for 25c. And the coffee will certainly please you. Sold by Olliff & Smith.

Doing Well in New York.

A letter from Mr. Leland DeLoach enclosing a dollar to the News for his subscription states that he is doing well in the great city, he looks every other day for the Statesboro News, which keeps him as well posted on what is happening in the old home county as if he lived at Rocky Ford or Clito. The paper printed here today is read by him in New York tomorrow.

STRAY MULE.

Strayed from my place near Portal, on Thursday night 11th inst., one dark bay mare mule about 6 years old, 16 hands high, sprung in fore legs, roars slightly is walking. Reward for information or her return.

Heavy Attack On Schwarzwiss.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 18.—Sensational charges of an unprintable character were today formally preferred against Seligfried Schwarzwiss, whom President Roosevelt has named postmaster at Waynesboro. Frank S. Palmer submitted a number of affidavits charging all sorts of personal misconduct against Mr. C. Schwarzwiss including the selling of liquor and indecent behavior with negroes.

Mr. Schwarzwiss together with Enoch H. Calloway of Augusta, appeared before the committee and made a statement and submitted documentary testimony and endorsements from people in Waynesboro in defense. He admitted a few lapses from the straight and narrow path but vigorously denied that he was a constant sinner.

One affidavit attested that he had taken a negro to a dining room of a Savannah hotel and eaten a meal with him. To this he made no answer. Numerous charges were made by Mr. Palmer and replied to by Messrs. Schwarzwiss and Calloway.

About 100 pages of documentary testimony was left for the committee to sift.

Representative Edwards who was in Rhode Island at the funeral of Representative Granger, this morning telegraphed Senator Clay that he was opposed to the confirmation of Schwarzwiss unless he could clear himself of the charges made against him. The hearing was heard in the office of Senator Clay before a subcommittee of the Committee on Postoffice and Post Roads. Another similar postoffice case with the charges of a similar in nature was heard by the same committee.

Agricultural School Notes

The Persaphonian debating society has taken on new life and we hope to have splendid orators out here within the near future.

Mr. Joe Zettrower got painfully hurt out here Wednesday. While playing on a slick plank, his feet slipped from under him throwing him on a scantling which cut a deep gash in one of his legs.

The girls are preparing to do some gardening and they would appreciate flower donations, any one so kindly disposed as to give them one. They are anxious to get at least two banana trees and some bulbs such as calladiums, tube roses cannas, chrysanthemums, violets and any other flower will be greatly received.

The boys under Prof. Rowan's supervision have wired the dining hall, which makes it quite convenient.

The boys have put up two large swings for the girls and the girls are showing their appreciation of them by swinging all their spare time.

Miss Verna Arnett has been at her home sick the most of the week but is able to be back in school now.

Mrs. Alf Herrington of Swainsboro made her two sons Sigmund and Morris, also the school a very pleasant visit last Saturday.

Prof. J. R. York of Swainsboro was guests of the school last Saturday.

The boys have constructed a shoot the chutes for themselves and are having great sport.

The Domestic Science Department under the supervision of Miss Bozeman is doing splendid work.

Recently the girls have given a series of luncheons. A table has been placed between the cooking desks and it makes a very pretty little dining room in which to serve these luncheons. And although it is winter they have been able to get some dainty little flowers each time to decorate their table with.

Appropriate menu cards have been prepared for the several occasions and the girls are taught to serve these meals in the proper form.

The first of the series was a breakfast given Jan. 29, the second a supper on the fifth of February, third a dinner the thirteenth of February given to the guests of the school on that day, and the fourth a luncheon on the seventeenth of February. Below you will find the names of the girls serving each luncheon, the names of the guests and the menus.
