The committee appointed by the mass meeting of citizens last week to look into the question of having a survey of the city made to determine the cost of a sewerage system met with a number of Civil Engineers on Tuesday night and went over the situation. The men present assured the committee that there would be no trouble to sewer the town of Statesboro at a moderate cost, and that the plan to do so was entirely feasible. An effort will be made soon to organize a military company in Statesboro so we are informed. The law requires fifty eight enlisted men in addition to three commissioned officers. The Adjutant General has notified parties here that a company can now be admitted to the State Militia and it is highly probable that it will be organized here.

The farmers are complaining about the oat crop being damaged by the dry weather. In most places they are heading out lower than usual though the heads seem to be well developed.

James Wright, of Spurluck, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old boy," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth." MOTION IS OVERRULED

NAVY STORES MEN SENTENCED.

Spencer Shottor and Cooper Myers Face Prison on Walls.

Savannah, Ga., May 14.—Overruling the motion in arrest of judgment offered by the defense, Judge William B. Sheppard this afternoon sentenced the five men found guilty of violating the Sherman anti-trust law, and for the first time, so far as is known, jail sentences, in two cases, were imposed.

The sentences follow: Spencer P. Shottor, chairman of the American Naval Stores Company, three months in jail and a fine of $5,000.

Edmund S. Nash, president of the company, $3,000 fine.

J. F. Cooper Myers, vice president of the American company and president of the American Transportation and Terminal company, three months in jail and a fine of $2,500.

George Meade Boardman, of New York, treasurer of the American Naval Stores company, $2,000 fine. Carl Moller, of Jacksonville, Fla., agent of the American and manager of the National Transportation and Terminal company in Jacksonville, $5,000 fine.

Mr. Shottor and Mr. Myers were sentenced to terms in the Chatham county jail, Judge Sheppard imposing the punishment upon them because they had been before the court two years ago, entering pleas of guilty. At that time Judge Emory Speer, who was presiding, stated that a term in prison would be imposed if they should come before the court again. Mr. Nash was excused on the former occasion when the grand jury returned a "no bill" as to him, as he was a witness before the grand jury.

Mr. Moller's sentence was made heavy because of his connection with the terminal yards in Jacksonville, where regrading and re-grading were alleged to have taken place.

The case will be appealed to the United States court of appeals just as soon as the bill of exceptions can be prepared, and certified by the court. In the meantime a motion for a new trial will not be made before Judge Sheppard. A writ of error, citing 33 grounds, was filed by the defense immediately after sentence was passed. Counsel attacked nearly everything the court permitted to come before the jury, to which the defense entered protest. It begins with the court's failure to sustain the demurrer to the indictment and ends with an exception to the jury's verdict.

Bond in the sum of $20,000 was given for all of the defendants jointly, and they were discharged pending the determination of their appeal. The costs they must pay if the conviction and sentences stand will, it is said, reach $17,000, which will, in event the sentences are pronounced, among the five convicted men. The defendant made no long address, but merely gave them an opportunity to say why sentence should not be pronounced, a privilege of which they took small advantage, and then passed sentences. Mr. Shottor was the last to be sentenced. Judge Sheppard made his longest speech then, stating a hundred words.

The case will be fought by the defense until there is no power to which the defendants can appeal further, before the jail terms will be served or the fines paid.

NEGRO FUGITIVES AGAIN IN CELLS.

Officer Feared Trouble—Hid Prisoner and Flagged the Train Near Jesup.

Jesup, Ga., May 14.—After hiding with his prisoner near Jesup until late last night Constable W. O. Strickland flagged a train on the Southern Railroad and hurried to Macon, having in custody Robert Banks and George Robertson, two of the negroes who escaped from the Wayne county jail after assaulting and leaving Deputy Sheriff Madray for dead in the jail yard.

Rumors that efforts would be made to find the officer's hiding place and take the prisoner, with purpose of summarily punishing them, caused Constable Strickland to keep the two negroes away from Jesup and to announce that he would take them either to Savannah or Waycross for safe keeping, intending all the time to take them to Macon.

The negroes were caught yesterday afternoon while they were trying to escape in a boat on the Altamaha river. They were held up by Cato Allen, a negro, who covered the men with a gun and held them until Mr. Strickland was notified.

The negroes stated that they hid in the swamps until Allen found them and that they had so little to eat since their escape that they were almost too weak to stand. Deputy Walker went with Mr. Strickland and remained in charge of the prisoners while the latter went to Jesup and swore out warrants for the men, charging them with assaulting Deputy Madray with intent to murder.

The officers heard that telegraph and telephone messages went to Ludowici in an effort to have the negroes taken from the train there, under the belief that they were going to Savannah.

It was stated that Henry Miller, the third negro who escaped and who the two others alleged was the one most responsible for Deputy Madray's condition, was caught this afternoon.

EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE TAKES LIVES OF THREE.

Wrecks Havoc on Boat Near Key West—12 Men Badly Hurt.

Key West, Fla., May 14.—In an explosion today on the quarter boat No. 3, at Codjoe Key, twenty miles from here, on the Key West extension of the Florida East Coast railroad, three men were instantly killed and twelve others badly injured.

The injured men were brought here tonight for medical treatment, and it is believed that others were blown to atoms, as 700 pounds of dynamite went off.

Many of the men are Americans. Only meager reports of the explosion have been received here, and the men are too badly injured to make statements tonight.

WAR ON LYCHERS BEGUN BY TEXAS.

Nine White Men Have Been Jailed at Tyler.

Tyler, Texas, May 14.—Nine alleged participants in the recent lynching of Jim Hodge, a negro, were held to await action of the grand jury by District Judge Simpson today, without the benefit of bail. Hodge was under arrest on suspicion in connection with an attempt to criminally assault a young white woman when he was taken over by a mob and hanged, notwithstanding that the young woman had not identified the negro.

During the preliminary hearings which ended today, state rangers have been in attendance and their presence proved timely today. When the prisoners were being removed to the county jail, the party was followed by a jeering crowd, but with the drawing of weapons on the part of the rangers the crowd quickly dispersed.

Later a large crowd congregated in the vicinity of the jail and it became necessary to fire two shots in the air to warn them away. Tonight groups of men were seen in the streets discussing the case, but no trouble is anticipated.

Of those who had been detained in connection with the lynching, R. E. Bryan and Audrey Campbell were discharged. Lewis Adams, Ross Ford and Horace Turner were granted bail in the sum of $5,000. Those held without bail are H. F. Lindley, Joe Matteson, Lewis Francis, Horace Austin, Birdy Pyron and Henry Hoybrook. They will be held pending action at the next term of the court, which will convene June 21.

Attorneys for the six men held in jail decided to sue out a writ of habeas corpus before the court of criminal appeals at Austin, seeking their release on bond. It will take about three weeks to perfect the writ.

Young Man Leaps From Train to His Death.

Waynesboro, Ga., May 14.—The body of H. Carlo Reese was found beside the tracks of the Central of Georgia railroad early this morning at Greens Cut station, and the coroner's jury returned the following verdict after an inquest: "We, the jury, find that H. Carlo Reese came to his death from wounds on the back of the head, and to the best of our knowledge the same was caused by being struck by the Central railroad train No. 4, on the night of May 13, 1909, in his effort to leave the train while passing Greens Cut station, the conductor failing to stop the train."

The young man had been a student at Richmond academy and was returning home from school and was a passenger on the night train.

The train failed to stop when passing his home station and he is supposed to have jumped off in an effort to reach his home when the accident occurred. He lay beside the railroad track till early morning, when a section hand found him and reported his death.

The remains were interred in the family burying grounds this afternoon.

2 SOUTHERN CONGRESSMEN LEAVE EATING HOUSE

In Washington, When They See Two Negroes in the Place.

Washington, May 14.—The presence of Wm. T. Vernon, the register of the treasury, who is a negro, in the restaurant of the house building, aroused the ire of several Southern representatives in the house. They complained to the management of the restaurant, and there was talk of filing a protest with the speaker, who, as chairman of the building commission, formulates the rules governing the restaurant.

The members who noted the presence of Vernon and a companion of his own race in the restaurant were Representatives Candler, of Mississippi; Dies and Garner, of Texas; Stanley, of Kentucky, and Sims of Tennessee.

Messrs. Garner and Dies immediately left the place and took the matter up with Mr. Fitzgerald, of New York, a member of the building commission. Mr. Fitzgerald will urge the other members of the commission to act upon the protest.

Feeling is running rather high among the democratic members, and it is possible an effort will be made to have negroes excluded from the restaurant.

LIQUOR MEN TO TEST NEW PROHIBITION LAW.

This Decision Reached at a Meeting Held in Nashville.

Nashville, Tenn., May 15.—The manufacturers of liquors and beer and the wholesale dealers are to test the laws recently passed by the legislature to prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicants in Tennessee. This decision was definitely reached yesterday afternoon following a two days' conference of attorneys employed to represent the brewers, distillers and wholesalers.

For some time past it has been reported that a test of the prohibition laws would be made, but no definite decision was reached by the attorneys employed to make the investigation until the conference was concluded yesterday afternoon.

Several weeks ago the attorneys who participated in the conference were employed to make an investigation into the statutes which were enacted, with a view to ascertaining whether or not a contest was advisable. The consensus of opinion expressed at the conference was that the acts were unconstitutional, and it was decided to test them in the courts. Later another conference will be held to determine where the first suit to test the laws shall be brought.

Death of Mr. A. Brannen.

On Sunday morning after an illness of three or four weeks the spirit of Mr. Alexander Brannen took its flight, at his home, where he had lived for more than a half century. The deceased was in his 83d year at the time of his death and had never called a physician until his recent illness. He was a victim of dropsy, which soon carried him out after its attack.

The funeral and interment were held at Bethlehem church yesterday morning. One of the largest crowds ever seen at a funeral at this church was present to pay respects to the deceased, who was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him.

It was preached that Elder Temple should preach the funeral sermon, but, owing to illness, he was not present, and the funeral will be preached later.

White Man Named To Succeed Negro.

Washington, D. C., May 15.—The appointment of T. K. Dunham to be postmaster at Darien to succeed Ferdinand M. Mann is the first positive act of President Taft to substantiate his oft-repeated purpose to draw the color lines in the south in so far as federal patronage is concerned. Dunham is a white man, and a highly respected citizen of McIntosh county. Mann, the incumbent, whom he will displace, is a negro.

The nomination of Dunham was sent to the senate yesterday by the president, but owing to the press of other business, it was not officially received. The senate will, however, take official cognizance of the nomination Monday, and it will be referred to the postoffice committee, with practical certainty that Dunham will be confirmed.

A singular feature of the matter is the fact that the population of Darien is decidedly off color. It has been estimated that at least three out of every five citizens of the city are negroes, and some estimates place the black proportion at even a larger figure. Darien is the seat of McIntosh county, which has been represented in the legislature for many years, at intervals, by a negro, and if there is any city on the map where the negroes have a right to claim the post office Darien is the place.

President Taft has, however, ousted a negro, which is taken here as evidence of his determination to live squarely up to the promise he made in his Atlanta speech. The Darien postoffice has been the subject of controversy for some time. Representative Edwards, of the First district, three days after Mr. Taft's inauguration, called at the white house to urge the displacement of the Darien postmaster by a white man. The president gave him no positive assurance at the time, but Mr. Edwards stated after the interview that he felt reasonably certain that a white man would be named for the Darien office.

Dry Spell Broken.

Refreshing shower showers covered most of the county last night, bringing to an end the dry spell that has prevailed in this section for the past week or two. While there is no damage to crops caused by the drought, with the exception of oats, yet the gardens had begun to suffer pretty badly.

There was hail in some sections, but so far as could be learned last night the hail did not cause any damage.

Georgia's Governor-Elect also a Preacher.

Governor-elect Joseph M. Brown makes as good a preacher as he does a politician, according to an interesting story brought to Atlanta concerning his recent visit to Lee county.

While his friends have known him always as a consistent and earnest member of the church, few, if any, of them have suspected his talent as a pulpit orator.

But it is a fact, nevertheless, as told by Judge H. H. Long, of the city court of Leesburg, who figured in the incident, that the future governor filled the pulpit at the Leesburg Baptist church on the occasion of his visit there, without notice, and did it so well, Judge Long states, that the congregation expressed its delight at the conclusion of the service by pressing forward, almost every of them, to shake his hand.

As it happened, Governor-elect Brown reached Leesburg late Saturday evening, and Judge Long was among those who met him and looked after his entertainment during his stay.

In the course of conversation with Judge Long, Mr. Brown suggested that he would like to attend church the morning following, and it was decided that they should go to the Baptist church.

No more was thought of the matter until church time arrived, when the judge and the future governor set out together for the Baptist church.

The congregation had already gathered, and, as they entered, the service was about to begin.

Seeing the governor-elect with Judge Long, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Ivey, left the pulpit and went down the church aisle to meet them. He grasped Mr. Brown's hand and warmly welcomed him.

Nothing would do but Mr. Brown must go to the pulpit and occupy a seat beside the minister. Judge Long was somewhat afraid this would embarrass Mr. Brown, and was inclined to suggest this fact to the minister, but finally decided to hold his peace and await developments.

The service began. There was the singing, the opening prayer, the collection, and the usual preliminaries of the oldtime Baptist service, and when these were concluded Rev. Mr. Ivey arose and said in substance:

"My friends, we have with us today the son of a distinguished Georgian who was an earnest and devoted member of the Baptist church—the late Governor and Senator Joseph E. Brown. I am glad to say that his son has followed in his footsteps. He is a faithful and consistent member of our church, and he has recently been elected governor of our state. I have thought it proper, therefore, to dispense with my usual sermon this morning and to invite him to address you. I introduce to you Mr. Joseph M. Brown."

Judge Long had been getting more and more uneasy as the minister spoke. He felt a sort of transferred embarrassment, as it were, and as if he were in part responsible for the situation. He really thought he ought to interfere in Mr. Brown's behalf. He was about on the point of doing so, though he had not decided just precisely how to go about it, when—

He was both astonished and relieved to see the governor-elect rise deliberately from his chair, advance calmly to the pulpit, and without any embarrassment whatever, acknowledge the introduction.

Mr. Brown then proceeded to give the Leesburg Baptist congregation a forty minutes' religious talk that was both appropriate and interesting. He discussed missions, a subject to which he has given considerable attention and study, quoted from the Bible, growing, at times, emphatic and eloquent, and concluding the service with a prayer.

Judge Long's transferred embarrassment had changed to genuine delight.

The congregation, Judge Long states, was immensely pleased with Mr. Brown's talk, and almost every member of it shook hands with him cordially, congratulating him.

So far as is known this is the first instance in which the governor-elect, during his extensive tour of the state, has been called upon to fill a pulpit.

Possibly had his talent in this direction been known before, he would have been in more frequent demand in the churches which he has had occasion to visit while traveling about Georgia.—Atlanta Constitution.

LELA PROVED TO BE A VERY FINE PROPHET.

Told Where Lost Pocketbook Could be Found and Gets Fired.

That element of our folks who have been claiming that the age of prophecy had passed have had to take a back seat lately.

The public will remember an advertisement which appeared in the Statesboro News some two weeks ago advertising a lost pocketbook by Mr. E. C. Oliver. It was stated that the book contained some papers and about forty five dollars in cash. Mr. Oliver was sure that he lost the purse either at or between his residence and his store.

Just about the time that he had given up all hope of recovery of his purse, Lela Green his colored cook had a famous dream, and revealed it to Mr. Oliver forthwith next morning, in fact the negro servant around the place had a vision, but the revelation of Lela struck Mr. Oliver as being the most likely of the two. Lela had had it revealed to her while she reposed for the night that the lost purse could be found in the store, on a certain table under some ready made clothing and that it contained the papers but no currency. Mr. Oliver went to the place designated by the dream and sure enough there lay the purse, in the condition set out in the dream. This was a cue, Mr. Oliver was uncertain as to whether he had a real prophet or a common thief in his home and he set out to ferret out the matter, he was not long in locating a rather lavish purchase made for cash by Lela at the Simmons Co. So armed with this information he went to her house and told her he had the information that she had stolen his money, and demanded that portion which had not been expended. Lela tumbled to the racket and made a full confession and restored to the owner all the cash except about seven or eight dollars. She was discharged from the home and will hereafter do her cooking and prophesying elsewhere. It is not known whether an arrest will follow or not.

Mr. Morgan Moore was hastily called by telegram to the bedside of his brother Mr. Bob Lanier of Atlanta, Ga., who is very ill with typhoid fever.

THE SHORT COTTON MARKET STILL BOOMS.

Now Selling at Eleven Cents and Still Climbing Higher.

The short cotton market still shows a steady advance in price. The market has now reached above eleven cents and those who have kept in touch with the situation say that it will reach twelve cents or more.

The buyers say that it is not due to the fact that there is a general demand for cotton at these prices but that speculators have been caught short on May contracts and have to have the actual cotton to deliver. Others say that the supply is running far short of the demand and they look for better prices all during the season.

Will Give Town Write Up.

Mr. Davison, staff correspondent of the Augusta Herald, is in town for the purpose of giving us a write up. He will show through the columns of his paper the many good things connected with Statesboro, and the bad ones of course are to be kept back. The Herald is one of Georgia's leading dailies and the write up which we are to get will prove valuable to us. It will perhaps call the attention of some one to the great advantages to be had here. He also hopes to place a number of subscriptions to his paper in Statesboro.

If your Stomach, Heart or Kidneys are weak, try at least, a few doses only of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. In five or ten days' only, the result will surprise you. A few cents will cover the cost. And here is why help comes so quickly. Dr. Shoop doesn't drug the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to the weak and failing nerves. Each organ has its own controlling nerve. When these nerves fail, the depending organs must of necessity falter. This plain, yet vital truth, clearly tells why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is so universally successful. Its success is leading druggists everywhere to give it universal preference. A test will surely tell. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

LITTLE GEORGIA GIRL A HEROINE

Governor Smith Asked to Seek a Carnegie Medal for Ada Price.

The heroism of little Ada Price, a 15 year old girl of Bowden, Ga., in rescuing her father from the debris of a storm, which recently passed over that section, may result in her securing a Carnegie medal. Governor Smith has received a letter from Bowden asking what steps are necessary to acquaint the Carnegie Hero Fund directors with a little girl's bravery.

In the storm, which passed near Bowden, the home of the little girl's father, Mimie Price, was totally destroyed, his wife instantly killed and Mr. Price was blown several yards away and buried beneath the wreckage. During the torrential rain that followed, Ada attempted to dig away the debris that buried her father. Securing an axe she chopped away the wood, her strokes being guided by the intermittent flashes of lightning.

Unable to dislodge a large rock that pinioned his arm, Mr. Price told his little daughter to cut off his arm with a hatchet. Instead of doing so, she persisted and finally, by an almost superhuman effort, moved the rock.

WOODS CHILDREN ON PAUPER LIST.

Application Was Made Tuesday at the Meeting of Commissioners.

Application was made Tuesday at the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners to place the three infant children of Joe Woods on the county pauper list. Mr. Jack Finch a neighbor went before the Board and made the application. His appeal was strengthened by a statement from Col. Deal, who stated from his own knowledge that the grand parents of these children were not able to care for them. Col. Deal made a feeling plea for the little orphans, whose father was in jail charged with a crime that involved his life and was in fact resting under a sentence of imprisonment for life. It was set out that the mother of these unfortunate children had battled bravely for the support of the little ones until death had overtaken her, she having burned to death some two or three months ago. It was also set out that the parents of Joe Woods in their desperate fight for the defense of their son had practically stripped themselves of every vestige of anything that could be sold and turned into cash and still the fight for his life and liberties goes on.

The Board voted six dollars per month for their support and asked that arrangements be made as soon as possible to place them in some good orphan's home. One of them is five years of age another one three and an infant of five months.

NEW TREASURER HAS BEEN SWORN IN.

Hon. Pope Brown Takes Oath of Office and Appoints Force.

Hon. J. Pope Brown, of Hawkinsville, was sworn in as state treasurer Monday afternoon, succeeding the late Robert Emory Park. The oath of office was administered by Governor Smith in the chief executive's private office. The bond of $200,000 required by the state statutes was signed Monday. The surety was furnished by the same company as that which furnished bond for the former treasurer.

The bondsmen of the late Treasurer Park were released, as the accountants appointed to examine the condition of the department reported that all of the affairs were in the best shape. All of the details of the department had been so arranged that Treasurer Brown was enabled to take immediate charge.

The former officials of the department under Treasurer Park were reappointed by Treasurer Brown and will continue in office. They are:

Assistant, Ben F. Perry. Cashier, H. Y. Walker. Bookkeeper, J. A. Anderson.

CALLED DOWN FOR CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

W. H. Williams, Rural Carrier No. 7, Called Down for Cruelty to Stock.

W. H. Williams, carrier on Statesboro R. F. D. route No. 7, was called to account by Deputy Marshal Maul yesterday morning and warned not to attempt to drive a certain crippled horse on his route that day. Williams had harnessed the animal and was ready to start out with the mail and the officer, seeing that the horse was physically unable to make the trip, warned him that he had better not attempt the round with the animal; that if he did so he would be pinched. The horse was taken back to the stable and another animal—a little better than the first one—was driven out.

This is not the first time that Williams has been accosted on this account. Mayor Strange ordered his arrest once before on a similar charge.

Many complaints are coming in from patrons of this route, who claim the service was very "bum" and they petitioning for the removal of Williams.

Mr. W. B. Hart, a prominent farmer who lives on route No. 7, was in town yesterday and stated the people had borne Williams' conduct about as long as they could stand it. Postmaster Rigdon says that he will report the matter to the postoffice department and in all probability there will be something doing in his case.
