The crowd of eager buyers have been moving drygoods and shoes out of his store since Saturday morning in great quantities. The stock is melting away fast and those who wish to get some of these great bargains should do so at once. Ten more days left.

A TALE, THE HEBREW, AND THE HOLY CITY.

It is said that no Hebrew will enter Rome through the shattered Arch of Titus for by so doing they are reminded of the destruction of their loved Jerusalem, for in the broken panels of the arch are discernable the spoils of the second Temple, which speak to them not of liberty but of the sorrows of Judah. The intellect of man cannot portray a picture of fealty stronger or more true.

If our people were actuated by such a sentiment, and their impulses were guided by such a love for home, for Greater Georgia, where would we be today, would our many seek a live investment, No; a thousand times No! Would not Georgia be the Empire State of the Union, and the Empire Life the greatest company in the country? For our money invested in insurance premiums would aid her industrial resources.

Georgians, when by your actions you show your confidence in home institutions you will have the wealthiest state in the country.

Be as sincere as the Hebrew in his love for Judah, and build up Georgia, by insuring with the Empire Life.

THE TWO THINGS NECESSARY TO POSSESS A BANK ACCOUNT

The first, is the Desire or Inclination. Everyone has a wish for money—it is human nature, for it takes money to possess the comforts and necessities of life.

The second requirement is One Dollar or more. The first deposit need not be large, and after the first money is deposited, you have a bank account.

The size of your bank account rests with you.

Herbert and Hardwick

Will Select Umpires

Atlanta, June 9.—Vice President E. A. Ball of the Firemen's Brotherhood stated yesterday he had information from Washington to the effect that Hilary A. Herbert, representing the Georgia railroad and Congressman T. W. Hardwick, for the firemen, would confer in that city and discuss the question of the election of an umpire.

In addition Mr. Ball replying to a card from General Manager T. K. Scott, in which the latter called Ball a "self-confessed incompetent," gave out the following statement:

"I desire to brand the statement appearing in the Atlanta Constitution of June 9, over the signature of Thomas K. Scott, as misleading and incorrect so far as it applies to me, and am prepared to prove it on any public platform."

Back From Memphis.

Messrs. J. C. Crumley and W. W. Brannen returned from the Confederate Veterans' reunion at Memphis, Tenn., on Thursday morning. Mr. T. J. Morris also attended but did not return with the other two gentlemen. They report a great trip. Memphis was crowded that many had to sleep in the open air on the streets and in the squares. The line of march of the boys in gray, though things somewhat by times' ravages, is still a long one. They all enjoyed the trip.

Colds that hang on weaken the constitution and develop into consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar cures persistent coughs that refuse to yield to other treatments. Do not experiment with untried remedies as delay may result in your cold settling on your lungs. W. H. Ellis & Co.

The School of Miss Mary Emmitt at Clito closed yesterday. A basket dinner, speeches and recitations were the features of the closing exercises. A good size crowd were out.

ROADS PROPERTY TO SELL AUGUST THIRD.

Decree of Foreclosure Entered by Judge Speer Yesterday.

Yesterday was the last day for the Savannah, Augusta and Northern railroad to meet the terms set down in the recent order passed by Judge Speer in the case of Oliver vs. that road. When the road failed to pay the sum of $286,515.84, the amount found they were due Oliver by the master in the case, the attorneys for Oliver and for the road were present before Judge Speer in open court yesterday morning and arguments were heard.

Mr. Hinton Booth, of Statesboro, the attorney for the road, moved to vacate an order confirming the report of the master and to hear exceptions to that report. Arguments were heard by the court.

Mr. Oliver was represented by Messrs. J. R. Lamar and Henry Cohen, of Augusta. An opinion was granted by Judge Speer that he would overrule the motion of the road's attorney which sought to vacate the order confirming the master's report, and that the court would enter a decree of foreclosure. This means that the road's property will be sold to satisfy the claims of Mr. Oliver.

The date of sale was settled for the third day of August. It is understood that an appeal will be made in the case.

COL. CURRY TO GIVE LECTURE HERE

Noted Platform Lecturer to Appear Before Statesboro Audience.

Under the auspices of The Daughters of the Confederacy, Col. C. C. Curry, the noted lecturer, will appear before a Statesboro audience on Tuesday evening, June 15, at the Statesboro Auditorium. Mr. Curry brings with him a long list of testimonials a few of which is reproduced below:

Gen. John B. Gordon, late of Georgia: "I have heard Mr. C. C. Curry, in his monologue drama, 'The Scoggins Family,' and his peculiar style of depicting the character and man-nisms of certain piney-woods folks of Georgia, as well as the Georgia negro is unique and highly interesting. I commend him to the public, and believe all who have the pleasure of hearing him, will agree with me that he is very proficient in his chosen line of work."

Feb. 1, 1901 John B. Gordon.

Evangelist Rev. Sam P. Jones, late of Georgia: "I have heard Mr. C. C. Curry in his original readings and impersonations. 'Curry has got the nigger down true,' as well as some of the wire-grass hoosiers and mountaineers of Georgia. He is bound to make a success in this line, and it affords me pleasure to commend him to the public."

Yours truly, Sam P. Jones.

Judge H. D. D. Twigg, of Savannah: "Curry's speech in the Fendley murder trial in Wilcox Superior Court was one of the closest and most logical arguments I have ever heard made to a jury."

H. D. D. Twigg.

Prof. W. A. Little, President Georgia Normal College and Business Institute: "I have heard Mr. C. C. Curry speak many times on the stage, he is a perfect artist. At all times he is a perfect gentleman."

W. A. Little.

OLIVER HAS GREAT SALE.

Advertising and Genuine Bargains Bring the People in Great Numbers.

On Thursday morning at eight o'clock when the doors swung open at Oliver's Big Sale there was a throng of customers waiting to swoop down on the bargains they knew were coming. A large force of extra clerks were kept busy all day from early morn till late in the afternoon, waiting on the long line of customers that packed the building to its full capacity. It looked like some big auction sale with the absence of the cry of the auctioneer. We learn on good authority that the cash register at the close of the day business showed 1,561 sales made during the day. Yesterday the crowd was almost if not equally as large as it was the day before. The sale is a big success. It is bound to grow as the people find out the great sacrifice of good values to be had there.

Misses Edna Neidlinger and Maggie Arden are visiting Miss Irene Aarn Arden for a few days.
