Proposed Tariff on Egyptian Cotton

Any congressman who says a duty on short staple cotton will have the slightest influence upon the price of common cotton,
is either a simpleton or a hypocrite.—Watson's Jeffersonian.

Abstractly and essentially this statement is true. But it is tremendously misleading. It is aimed at Congressman Brantley.

As a matter of fact nobody is proposing "a duty on short staple cotton."

But a duty is proposed on Egyptian cotton, which is a long staple, and which competes with our Sea Island cotton grown exclusively in Southern Georgia, Florida and on the Carolina coast. No one contends that this duty would affect the price on the short staple.

The figures are not before us at this writing, but we are under the impression that more pounds of Egyptian cotton are imported than pounds of Sea Island cotton are made in this country.

This is another case of free raw material for the manufacturer of the North—for the spinners and weavers of thread and the finer fabrics, into which Egyptian and Sea Island cotton go. These spinners and weavers get protection on the finished product, and also protection in free raw material—double protection—and the farmers of Georgia and Florida who make the Sea Island are asked to make the double tune.

For the life of us we cannot see why a revenue-raising tax (Democrats are committed to a tariff for revenue) why a revenue-raising tax should not be put on Egyptian cotton, Canadian lumber, naval stores and the like, and then lighten the tax on sugar, wool, shoes and things which all our people consume—why there should not be an equitable distribution of the benefits and burdens of taxation, as was advocated by the old-time democrat, James K. Polk, in 1845, and by all leading Democrats to this day.

Why this proposed change of policy?—Macon Telegraph.

NOTICE
We have moved our Harness
and Shoe Shop to the rear of Dr.
Friedman's store and we can now have your work done on short notice. We have a good harness-maker and a good shoemaker. We will sell you any part of harness you want or trade new harness for old.

REGISTER DOTS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams visited Statesboro Thursday morning.

Mr. Rufus Street went to States-boro on business Thursday.

Mr. Johnnie Woodcock, who has been attending school at Athens,
returned home Wednesday evening
for the summer.

Mrs. Queen Herrington and Mr.
D. A. Slater attended the M. E. conference at Statesboro Thursday.

Mr. T. L. Moore returned from a short visit to Rocky Ford Wednesday night, going in his automobile.
He made the trip in three hours,
he says.

We are, indeed, glad to report the improved condition of Mr. C.
H. Anderson and hope to see him out among his friends within a short time.

Mr. D. L. Kennedy made a business trip to Baxley Thursday, expecting to return the latter part of the week.

It is reported that Miss Minnie Lott's Creek came very near drowning at Lott's Creek bridge Wednesday morning, while bathing in company with a number of other young ladies, whose screams attracted the attention of Mr. Simon Williams, who chanced to be fishing nearby. He ran up and seeing Miss Lott struggling in the water, leaped from the top of the bridge and rescued her. We think Simon is due one of "Carrie's" hero medals.

Quite a crowd expected to accompany the Register base ball team to Statesboro yesterday morning. The latter went to try their "lucky hand" with the "Moss Backs" there.

Mrs. Geo. Dekele was in town
Thursday morning.

Mr. W. W. Olliff, of Adabelle, passed through here Thursday
enroute to Statesboro.

SHERIFF'S SALE

Truman Talks of the Central of Georgia.

Chicago, June 17.—The Central of Georgia railroad is to be made an important link in the Illinois Central system, according to President J. T. Harahan, who returned to the east today, where the deal for the transfer of the seaboard was consummated.

The cause for the purchase of the road is to be found in the fact that the development of the south has been so rapid of late years that the Illinois Central desires to place itself in a commanding position with respect to rates and traffic. Mr. Harahan stated that there was no immediate change in the management of the Central of Georgia, which would continue for the present, at least, to be operated under a separate management.

"In actual condition of traffic and operation," he said, "there is to be no change. Our road has always sustained close traffic arrangements with the Central of Georgia, and has through train service in connection with that road. The road gives us an outlet to the seaboard and places us in a position to keep in the fore rank with respect to southeastern traffic. In time there will be a great improvement in the through freight and passenger service between the middle west and the larger centers of the southeast."

The acquisition of the road by the Illinois Central bids fair to have an important effect upon the business relations between Chicago and the markets of the southeast. The Illinois Central is now in a position to dictate freight rates and to place Chicago on a parity with the eastern manufacturing centers with respect to business to the southeast.

Men Past Fifty in Danger.

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy, especially for enlarged prostate gland, which is very common among elderly men. I, E. Morris Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint." Railroad Commission

Will Not be Abolished.

Atlanta, June 17.—A report printed by a local afternoon paper to the effect that a strong movement would be made by the next legislature to abolish the railroad commission and to replace it with a board of three, to be appointed by the governor, created some comment here today. Just what substance there is in the report could not be learned, as no one about the capital could be found to give authority to it, and none of the probable leaders of the new house of representatives were in town.

Judge W. A. Covington, of Moultrie, a leader in the first house, who is here in attendance upon the commencement exercises of the State School of Technology, did not believe that such a movement would succeed.

"If a bill to abolish the railroad commission is introduced into the next legislature," he said, "it will be defeated. I do not believe that the people of Georgia will stand for the destruction of the board now for a change in its present mode of election."

Death of Annie McDougald. The sympathy of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McDougald will go out to them in the loss of their little daughter, Annie, which occurred at their home on South Main street at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She was a sufferer from fever and her death had been expected for several days.

The funeral will be held this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Presbyterian church, and the interment will be made in East Side cemetery.

Any lady reader of this paper will receive on request, a clever "No-Drip" Coffee Strainer Coupon privilege, from Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. It is silver-plated, very pretty, and positively prevents dripping of tea or coffee. The doctor sends it with his new free book on "Health Coffee" simply to introduce this clever substitute for real coffee. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee is gaining its great popularity because of first: first, its exquisite taste and flavor; second, its absolute healthfulness; third, its economy—1½ lbs. 25c; fourth, its convenience. No tedious 20 to thirty minutes boiling. "Made in a minute" says Dr. Shoop. Try it at your grocer's, for a pleasant surprise. Oliff & Smith.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism. Not a remedy that will eliminate the disordered limits of chronic rheumatism, nor turn back the clock to each age. That is impossible. But I can now easily kill the pains and pains of Rheumatism. I found the best treatment with Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy. It is a perfect, dependable prescription. Without that ingredient, I positively treated many, many cases of Rheumatism, but it is not the remedy. I found the best treatment with Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy. WOMEN WHO ARE ENVIED.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood, give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c. at W. H. Ellis & Co's.

A TALE, THE HEBREW, AND THE HOLY CITY.

It is said that no Hebrew will enter Rome through the shattered Arch of Titus for by so doing they are reminded of the destruction of their loved Jerusalem, for in the broken panels of the arch are discernable the spoils of the second Temple, which speak to them not of liberty, but of the sorrows of Judah. The intellect of man cannot portray a picture of fealty stronger or more true.

If our people were actuated by such a sentiment, and their impulses were guided by such a love for home, for Greater Georgia, where would we be today, would our money seek alien investment, Nova thousand times not Would not Georgia be the Empire State of the Union, and the Empire Life the greatest company in the country? For our money invested in insurance premiums, would aid her industrial resources.

Georgians, when by your actions you show your confidence in home institutions you will have the wealthiest state in the country.

Be as sincere as the Hebrew in his love for Judah, and build up Georgia, by insuring with the Empire Life.

CLASH OF POLICIES

IN NEW LEGISLATURE.

The Outgoing and Incoming Regimes Will Find the two Georgia Houses a Battlefield.

Atlanta, June 19.—The Legislature of 1909-10 will convene for its first session at the State Capitol Wednesday next, June 23.

Naturally there is much interest in this session, not only because it is a new Legislature, but largely because it was elected in a measure, upon a platform antagonistic in many respects to that of the administration which is now about to retire from office.

The new Legislature goes in with Gov. Joseph M. Brown, who defeated Gov. Hoke Smith. It is generally believed, therefore, that its attitude will be somewhat different from that occupied by the Legislature which went in upon the last tide wave of "reform."

Some of the friends of Gov. Smith have expressed the belief that the new Legislature will prove more strongly representative of his ideas than those of the Governor.

While this is regarded generally as extremely doubtful, it is interesting to note that there will be several pieces of legislation proposed which will offer opportunity for a direct test.

The Legislature will have before it when it meets, or shortly thereafter, two messages, the final message of Gov. Brown. A comparison of the two will prove highly interesting, it is thought, and it is understood, in some respect, they will be found a study in contrasts.

One of the most interesting opportunities for a test of the legislative attitude upon the views of the retiring and incoming governors, will be presented in the proposal to decrease the number of members of the Railroad Commission from five to three.

A Railroad Commission of five was almost a sine qua non of Gov. Smith's official policy, if it may be so repressed. In other words, it was an essential.

When it was thought the proposal to increase the board to five members might be defeated in the Senate, Gov. Smith called certain members of that body to his office, and brought them around to his way of thinking. It was that fact which led Senator J. J. Flynt, on the last night of the session, in a semi-memorial vein to charge the Governor with "lobbying."

The platform upon which Gov. Brown was elected distinctly calls for a reduction in the number of members of the commission from five to three. It characterizes the increase in the board as a useless and unnecessary expense to the state. It also contemplates the abolishment of the office of special attorney and rate expert to the commission.

The question is going to be fought out in the result will be written the status of the Legislature in so far as the executive policies of the two administrations are concerned.

It is quite likely, however, that it will not be necessary to await the determination of that question to ascertain how the Legislature is going to stand; there will be abundant opportunity for it to put itself on record.

It is said that the proposed legislation does not contemplate legislating any member of the commission out of office, but that it will probably provide that the commission shall be reduced to three members as the terms of office of its members expire.

No authority for the report that this legislation contemplates removing street railroads and other municipal public utilities from the control of the Railroad Commission can be found.

State-wide interest centers in the inauguration of Gov.-elect Jos.

Will Change Charter of Town.

By reference to our advertising columns will be seen a notice signed by the Mayor giving notice that a bill will be introduced in the present session amending the charter of the City of Statesboro, fixing the term of office of the Mayor and Councilmen at two years instead of one year as now provided.

Unfortunately for this piece of legislation it will be late in the session before it can be introduced, and it will go in at a time when there will be a rush of business. The law requires that notice be published in a paper carrying the Sheriff's advertisements and posted before the Court House door thirty days before the bill can be introduced. Notice had been given but not in a paper carrying the sheriff's ads, and hence amounted to no notice at all.

If there is anything wrong with your stomach today, get a bottle of Kodol and try it. Take it just at the time when you know that your stomach is out of order, and the food is not digesting. That is the only time you need to take Kodol—just once in a while. Every tablespoonful of Kodol will digest 2-4 pounds of food. Kodol will digest what you eat, and in that way will cure you of dyspepsia, and indigestion. It is sold by W. H. Ellis & Co.

There has been widespread request for something about the plans of the inauguration. This inquiry can best be answered, perhaps, by the statement that there are no plans. The inauguration is going to be one of the plainest and simplest official functions that has ever taken place in the state.

Somehow the people have been unable to get used to this fact. They persist in marking back to a inauguration of two years ago, when an extensive platform was erected in the Capitol grounds and the Governor drove up in a carriage and pair, escorted by the military and numerous civic bodies.

There is not going to be anything of the kind on June 26. There will be plenty of people here; they are coming from all parts of the state. Joe Brown Clubs from many counties have arranged to be in Atlanta for the inauguration. There will be other visitors, too, but all that can be promised them is a pleasant excursion to Atlanta, with baseball games and summer theaters going full blast and for some of them a seat in the House of Representatives gallery while the simple inauguration ceremonies are in progress.

Gov.-elect Brown will reach the city from Marietta about 11 o'clock and walk over to the Capitol. When informed that the Legislature is ready for him he will proceed under escort of the committee to the hall of the house, take the oath of office administered by Chief Justice W. H. Fish of the Supreme Court, receive the great seal of the state from Gov. Smith, turn it over to Secretary of State Phil Cook for safekeeping, deliver his brief inaugural address and then go to the executive office to begin work.

That, so far as any programme is concerned, is all there is going to be of it. Of course, there will be the usual cheering and applause for the new chief executive and there may be little impromptu spasms of enthusiasm here and there which cannot now be foreseen.

But the new Governor is dodging the spectacular and he has made it pretty clear to his friends that he does not wish it.

GOOD ROADS CONVENTION

AT BROOKLET GEORGIA.

On Thursday, June 24th 1909. There is no place better suited, no people more liberal, no citizens more friendly than the people in and around Brooklet, and we want you to come and see our town and enjoy a day with us. We will have plenty to eat, plenty of the best talent to deliver addresses, plenty of refreshments, plenty of seats, and a jolly good time.

Forget your troubles, leave your long face at home and come. Bring your wife and your best girl and let her select a future home for you in the healthiest, most beautiful little country town in Georgia—a town of 500 inhabitants without a police; a town fifteen years without a cemetery. Come and see for yourself and bring your friends.

Special trains will furnish convenient transportation both ways to Savannah and Statesboro, making connections both ways at reduced rates. Good, lively speeches on the following subject: Good Roads and their results. Good schools and their results. Good farms and their results. Game of base ball for the amusement of the young people. Brass band from Savannah. Meat barbecued.

Back From North Georgia.

Cody L. M. Speer returned on yesterday from Whitfield county where he spent several days at his old home. He says they have had so much rain in that section for the past two months that the farmers are a long ways behind with their crops. They are not yet done planting corn and have not finished chopping out cotton.

If you have dyspepsia or indigestion or any stomach trouble, you must help the stomach do its work by taking something that can and will digest the food for the stomach. Kodol will do this, and it is the only thing we know that will. Kodol is made of the natural digestive juices. It will digest the food you eat. Every tablespoonful will digest 2-4 pounds of any food that you may ordinarily eat. Kodol is pleasant to take. It is sold by W. H. Ellis & Co.
