THE TWO THINGS NECESSARY TO POSSESS A BANK ACCOUNT

The first, is the Desire or Inclination. Everyone has a wish for money—it is human nature, for it takes money to possess the comforts and necessities of life.

The second requirement is One Dollar or more. The first deposit need not be large, and after the first money is deposited, you have a bank account.

The size of your bank account rests with you.

McLENDON HEARING AGAIN POSTPONED.

Almost Entire Time of the Body is Consumed in Roll Calls.

Atlanta, Ga., June 29.—Notwithstanding his earnest request that an immediate hearing be granted him, the suspension of Chairman of the Railroad Commission S. G. McLendon, was not taken up in either branch of the legislature today. Nearly the whole time of the house was consumed in the calling of the roll of counties for the introduction, first reading and referring of bills.

Immediately after the morning session began, Mr. Alexander, of DeKalb, made the point that the first in order of unfinished business was the special message of the governor suspending from office Chairman McLendon. Mr. Anderson, of Chatham, held that the roll call of counties for introduction of bills came first. After some discussion he speaker sustained the point of Mr. Anderson and ordered the roll call to be proceeded with.

There was considerable discussion in the house as to whether an adjournment from Friday until Tuesday would be more than the three days allowed by the constitution and whether it would require a joint resolution of both houses. After a spirited debate, at times, amusing the house, the course of which the house twice changed its position, the whole matter of Fourth of July adjournment was laid on the table.

A Correction.

In our last issue we stated everybody was invited to go the Sunday school excursion Tybee tomorrow. Since the appearance of the article the Sunday school people have asked us to correct the statement, inasmuch as everybody is not invited or expected to go. However, all Sunday school people—pupils, patrons, or friends—are asked and all people who will behave themselves will be welcome. They wish to make it plain that those who make a practice of tanking up and making themselves disagreeable and obnoxious are not wanted and will not be tolerated. All decent people, however, are invited and will be welcome.

MIDDLEBROOKS WANTS WHITE FIREMEN

On All Passenger Trains and Has Introduced Bill Asking for Such Law.

Atlanta, Ga., June 29.—Among the noteworthy bills introduced into the house today was one by Representative Middlebrooks of Newton providing that railroads must employ white men as firemen or engineers' helpers on all passenger trains.

It is said that the labor organizations of the state, particularly the locomotive firemen, will make a special effort to have this measure passed at this session. They are relying on the alleged public sentiment against the employment of negroes on trains aroused by the recent Georgia Railroad strike to carry the measure through, it is said. Representative Middlebrooks, himself, said that the purpose of the measure was not to exclude negroes from employment as firemen, but to safeguard the public.

Any lady reader of this paper will receive on request, a clever "No-Drip" Coffee Strainer Coupon privilege, from Dr. Shoop. Racine, Wis. It is silver-plated, very pretty, and positively prevents all dripping of tea or coffee. The Doctor sends it with his new free book on "Health Coffee" simply to introduce this clever substitute for real coffee. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee is gaining its great popularity because of first: first, its exquisite taste and flavor; second, its absolute healthfulness; third, its economy—1½ lbs 25c; fourth, its convenience. No tedious 20 to thirty minutes boiling. "Made in a minute" says Dr. Shoop. Try it at your grocer's, for a pleasant surprise. Olmiff & Smith.

Dug His Own Grave; Then Killed Himself.

Salem, Ind., June 28.—Today Joseph B. Hamilton, a farmer of Salem, committed suicide with a shotgun. He seated himself on a stump and adjusted his gun and tripped the trigger.

It has been learned since his death that he had dug his own grave in the family burying ground.

NOTICE.

The Savannah & Statesboro train No. 41 will be held three hours in Savannah on Monday July 5th, leaving at 3 p. m. instead of 3 p. m. This will give ample time for all of the people to witness the football game between Savannah and Statesboro.

NEGRO KILLED BY POSSE.

HAD MURDERED WHITE FARMER.

While Surrounded in Swamp
Negro Began Firing in Every Direction.

Adrian, Ga., June 29.—Robert Jenkins, a negro, who killed Geo. Howell, a well known farmer, and fatally wounded his wife, was shot to death yesterday in the swamps three and a half miles from Adrian.

The negro opened fire on the posse as soon as the party approached. Two members of the posse, W. S. Clements and Y. L. Hall, were wounded during the encounter.

Mr. Clements was shot in the foot and Mr. Hall in the thigh. The wounds are slight.

The killing of the negro by the posse followed a previous attempt a day or so ago to lynch the wife of the murderer. The arrival of officers prevented the work of the mob at that time.

It was claimed that the wife of the negro had a hand in the plot to murder Mr. Howell and his wife.

Mr. Howell was shot to death and his wife wounded several days ago while at work in a field which adjoins their home.

It appears that the negro owed Mr. Howell some money, and Mr. Howell had made an effort to have the negro work out the amount on his farm. This the negro refused to do, and it is understood he made threats.

On the morning of the tragedy the negro procured a shotgun and went to the field, where Mr. Howell and his wife were at work. Without warning he opened fire, killing Mr. Howell instantly and wounding his wife.

As soon as the news of the tragedy became known a posse was formed and a search for the negro was begun. The pursuit was kept up until yesterday, when he was surrounded in the swamps.

The negro, who carried a cheap 32-caliber pistol, began firing on the posse. The fire was returned and as he fell wounded he was heard to exclaim: "Lord, have mercy on my soul," and expired.

The posse returned to Adrian with the body of the negro.

BRANDENBURG FREE FOR FEW MINUTES

Was Acquitted of One Charge and Then Rearrested for Kidnapping Cabanne III.

New York, June 29.—Although Broughton Brandenburg was acquitted here today of the charge of grand larceny in connection with the sale of an spurious letter of Grover Cleveland to the New York Times, he had only a few minutes of freedom. Before leaving the court room he was rearrested and will be taken to St. Louis next week for trial on a charge of fraudulently enticing from the child's parents, his stepson, James Shepard Cabanne 8d. The maximum penalty for this offense in Missouri is 20 years imprisonment. The author was taken back to the toombs in default of $5,000 bail, to await the arrival of the Missouri officials.

The verdict of acquittal on the grand larceny charge was reached within a few minutes after the presiding justice had charged the jury that the question of genuineness of Cleveland's signature was immaterial and that even the question of genuineness of the articles was only a secondary consideration. The primary consideration, he told them, was whether the defendant had stolen $500, the price paid for the article, from the New York Times. They must acquit the defendant, he continued, if they found that the Times had not relied on Brandenburg's statement as to the genuineness of the article, but had relied rather on the representation of F. S. Hastings, one of the Cleveland executives, whom they consulted before purchasing the article.

The extradition papers for Brandenburg's transfer to St. Louis are now in the hands of Governor Hughes, at Albany.

It is expected that they will reach New York tomorrow. The kidnapping, which Brandenburg admits, occurred shortly after the writer jumped his bail while under indictment for the sale of the Cleveland article. He was found in San Francisco with the Cabanne boy, whom he had picked up in St. Louis.

WHEAT TO BE GROWN HERE.

NEW MOVE BY BULLOCH FARMERS

High Price of Flour Causes
Awakening on Part of Union Members.

A move has been put on foot among the members of the Farmers' Union to grow enough wheat in this county for home consumption.

The high price of flour has had much to do with this awakening on the part of the tillers of the soil, which means much to them in the future.

Bulloch has a reputation far and wide for being a County whose people produce their own supplies. She has the reputation of producing her own corn, and meat, and lard, and having some to spare for her neighbors.

Now, if she will take up the matter of wheat as she has done corn and bacon, she will find that the experiment will prove a success. Wheat will grow in this county equally as well as oats. The writer has grown all varieties of wheat—in small plots for exhibition purposes, of course, but our experience showed that it grew equally as well as any other grain.

One trouble will be experienced at the start, and that will be the lack of flour mills to grind the wheat, but if it is once taken up, we believe the experiment will prove so successful that it will not be abandoned soon.

If you have dyspepsia or indigestion or any stomach trouble, you must help the stomach do its work by taking something that can and will digest the food for the stomach. Kodol will do this, and it is the only thing we know that will. Kodol is made of the natural digestive juices. It will digest the food you eat. Every tablespoonful will digest 2-4 pounds of any food that you may ordinarily eat. Kodol is pleasant to take. It is sold by W. H. Ellis Co.

The above date has been selected on account of the tide; flood tide will start at 10:30 a. m. and high water at 4:30 p. m., giving six hours for fine bathing.

Opposition to McLendon Growing.

The news comes from Atlanta that the opposition to the re-election of Chairman McLendon of the Railroad Commission, is increasing at a rapid rate, and the Chairman's friends are now fearful that they will not be able to pull him through.

We don't know how it is in Atlanta, but there has been little sympathy for McLendon in this part of the State all the while. The people here, regardless of how they voted in the last two State primaries, feel that he is a time server and deserted Governor Smith when he lost out, wholly in an effort to swing on to the band wagon. It is unfair to Governor Brown to compare the case of McLendon to that of his discharge. In the case of Mr. Brown it was a case where a man who had made a study of this question for years, and acting on his cool and unbiased judgment stood by his guns, had the backbone to stand up in the face of the defeat of his ideas and say he was right. The discharge of Mr. Brown was a penalty for a performance of a public duty as seen by an honest man. The discharge of McLendon was a punishment for a truckling politician who would desert his own convictions and betray his best friend that he might obtain shelter for his own unworthy self.

It is unfair to Governor Brown to even mention his case in connection with that of the one of Guyt McLendon.

The friends of Mr. Brown will make a great mistake and subject his administration to great criticism all over the State if they allow their political prejudices against Governor Smith to drive them into voting to reelect a man who has proven himself so unworthy. The question of the justice of the port rate fight or the merits of the Smith-Brown incident should not enter into it at all.

The head of the railroad commission should be a man who has the backbone to deal fairly as between the people and the railroads. He should be strong enough to stand up, even in defeat, and say: Though the majority has spoken the other way, yet I know I am right, and I will go down in defeat with my friends, rather than truckle to the opposition, that my head may be saved. It takes a brave, strong man to do this. It takes a braver and stronger man than Guyt McLendon to do it. It took just such a man as Joe Brown to do this, and his action in this matter has been endorsed by the honest people of Georgia to the extent that he was placed in the shoes of the man who displaced him.

By all means, let us have a brave, honest man at the head of the railroad commission. Mr. McLendon has served his day. He should be allowed a long rest after his weary labors.

The people of Georgia will pass on this matter. They passed on the last one. But they will pass on it by an approval of the act which put out McLendon. Mr. Brown's friends who insist on reelecting a man who has proved unworthy of the place are playing with fire, and the sooner they see this the better it will be for the administration.

GOVERNOR BROWN'S REAL FRIENDS.

Now that Mr. Brown has assumed the role of Governor, there comes forward a great host of friends to do him honor, they come from the four corners of the State, and some are coming with the glare of trumpets and the sounding of horns to acclaim the newly elected Governor "the greatest of all." They are coming from the byways and the hedges, they are singing his praises from the house tops as it were, and some are coming on special trains with brass bands.

It is great to have a great army of friends who are willing to give you of their time and talents that all the earth should know of your greatness.

Along with all this pleasure and power come a stream of cares and responsibilities.

When a man is watched by his enemies he keeps a listening ear, and a watchful eye, to the windward and to the leeward. He is vigilant and cautious in word and deed. But the moment he falls into the hands of his friends, he becomes too trustful, less watchful, more confiding, and yields his judgment to that of some strong partisan, who after all may be a wolf in sheep's clothing. Gov. Brown has these same dangers to encounter. These same conditions on his hands. Swept into office by an overwhelming majority, he has been inaugurated Governor, amid the acclaim of a great people.

The influences that carried him into office were those of the capitalist, the farmer, the merchant, and the common laborer. With one accord they pooled their interest and made "Little Joe" Governor of this empire state.

Gov. Brown will have his false friends as well as his real friends. The former will stand by him as long as their special interest and schemes stand a shadow of realization, and then desert him.

It will be a mistake for the great corporations to assume that they are the real power behind the throne, to trust their demands upon an executive who owes allegiance to every legitimate interest in Georgia. To assume that the election of a man who was pledged to deal them out justice would mean that they could impose on the people. This was charged during the campaign. We who supported him denied this and asserted that Mr. Brown would stand by the people as well as the property interest of the state, and he will. His election has not given license to a railroad corporation presided over by an Englishman to advance negroes over white men. It has not licensed men who are boldly defying the state's prohibition laws to swing wide open their doors and announce that they are the people who made him and now he must truckle to their whimsical demands. But it means that the laws of this state must and will be enforced.

He will guard the interests of the rich and the poor. He will be the governor of the whole people, but as stated he will have to watch close; he will have to stand on a pedestal out of reach of the timeserver and the pretender. He will not forget that it was not only the large cities that contributed to his election, but that the wool hat boys in the rural districts contributed their full share to his great victory. These fellows who are now claiming all the credit for the result, hiring brass bands and special trains to remind him that he is their creation are not the whole cheese. The men who make a business of stuffing the ballot box and shamelessly defying the laws of the State will approach close to the throne and spread all over it if he is allowed to. Of course the large cities contributed their share towards his election, but out in the woods, where the wool hat boys are pulling the bell line over a mule and bearing their breasts to a summer's heat and a winter's cold, is where some of the real friends of Governor Brown can be found.

They may not be in evidence around the capitol or the hotel corridors; they may not be able to maintain lockers at the capitol city or transportation clubs, to employ brass bands or special trains; many of them would be lost in a Pullman or parlor car, but in them lies the hope of the state. They are the foundation on which all other interests must stand or fall, and they have no special interest to serve; all they want is equal justice between man and man, and that all of the laws of the state be enforced in every county in the state.

When one of the high priests or moguls from the city asks for and demands favors, let the Governor remember, as we believe he will, that this is a state where special interest should find no favor. A state where equal justice shall be accorded every man and every section.

When the hired representative of the powerful corporation stands before the governor, let him know that no special favors will be dished out, but that all must yield obedience to the law. That if the corporation expects to hold the affections of the people, it must act with propriety, do justice, and not attempt to dictate the policy of the state. For if they should attempt it let them remember the landslide of 1906 for another day of reckoning will be sure to come. We believe our Governor has the ability to meet all contingencies, and will rule the state with wisdom, justice and moderation.

No Paper Next Tuesday.

Observing a time honored custom, the News will celebrate the day of America's independence by taking one issue off. There will be no issue of this paper on Tuesday, July 4. As Monday the 3rd will be observed everywhere as a legal holiday, we have decided to allow the printers a day off, too. The paper will come out on Thursday morning following, as usual.

When a sufferer from stomach trouble takes Dr. King's New Life Pills he's mighty glad to see his dyspepsia and indigestion fly, but more—he's tickled over his new, fine appetite, strong nerves, healthy vigor, all because stomach, liver and kidneys now work right. 25¢ at W. H. Ellis Co's.

Mr. Simmons is Pleased.

A letter from Hon. R. Simmons from the halls of the Georgia legislature tells us that he is enjoying the fun of the daily happenings and skirmishes in the house. Mr. Simmons says he is taking it slow and is ready to do anything he can for his friends at home.

Banks Will Close Monday.

All the banks in Statesboro will be closed Monday on account of the observance of July 4. The fact that the Fourth comes on Sunday, the day will be observed on Monday, the 5th. Parties having business with any of the banks will govern themselves accordingly.

Movement to Beautify the Roads.

There is being discussed a movement to begin the beautification of the public roads of the county, the plan being to take a section of say five miles out from Statesboro in one direction or another and set shade trees on each side of the road. Either the poplar or sycamore would do well.

The idea is to make our public roads look like South Main street in Statesboro looks, which, by the way, is beginning to be recognized as one of the prettiest streets in the State. Just how this will be done has not been determined as yet. It has been suggested by one or two parties that a private subscription be taken up and used as a bonus to the people of any section that will take hold of it and put it through. Say a sum could be raised to be applied to the expense of the strip where the balance was made good.

There is nothing that would tend to the beautifying of our section or increasing the values of our lands faster than the shading of the public roads. In the older countries of Europe it has long been a custom to plant fruit trees on the public roads, and during the fruit season there is an abundance of fine fruit to be found along the roadside. The objection to fruit trees to line the public roads in this country is that they would be destroyed by a loafing class of negroes who would eke out an existence on the fruit during the season and refuse to work.

How do the property owners living along the public roads which lead out from Statesboro feel about this matter? Suppose you take it up with us and see if we cannot do something with it. Let us hear from you, gentlemen.
