LIFE 100,000 YEARS AGO.

Scientists have discovered in a cave in Switzerland bones of men who lived 100,000 years ago, when life was in constant danger from wild beasts. Today the danger, as shown by A. W. Brown, of Alexander, Me., is largely from deadly disease. "If it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery, which cured me, I could not have lived," he writes, "suffering as I did from a severe lung trouble and stomach trouble." To cure sore lungs, colds, obstinate cough, and prevent pneumonia, it's the best medicine on earth, 50c and $1. Guaranteed by W. H. Ellis Co. Trial bottle free.

Business Changes Hands.

A business deal was consummated in Statesboro Friday afternoon whereby W. G. Raines takes possession of the Statesboro Machine works, formerly owned by W. J. Akerman, which was recently purchased by Hagins and Addison and shortly afterward Mr. Hagins' interest was bought by Mr. Addison, who has been running the business for several months.

The price paid by Mr. Raines is not known. This is a valuable piece of property, however, and it is understood that Mr. Raines intends making some extensive improvements on the plant. The business will be conducted by Mr. H. A. Bassett, who has been connected with it for some time.

A failing tiny nerve, no larger than a silken thread—takes from the heart its impulse, its power, its regularity. The stomach also has its hidden or inside nerve. It was Dr. Shoop who first told us it was wrong to drug a weak or failing stomach, heart or kidneys. His prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is directed straight for the cause of these ailments—these weak and faltering inside nerves. This, no doubt, clearly explains why the Restorative has of late grown so rapidly in popularity. Druggists say that those who test the Restorative even for a few days soon become fully convinced of its wonderful merit. Anyway, don't drug the organ. Treating the cause of sickness is the only sensible and successful way. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

ANDERSON CALLS BROUGHTON LIAR

LIVELY SCENE IN LEGISLATURE.

Chatham Representative Replies to Charges by the Atlanta Preacher.

Atlanta, July 27.—Answering an attack made in a sermon on Sunday night by Rev. Dr. Len G. Broughton, Representative J. Randolph Anderson, of Chatham county, on the floor of the Georgia house applied the epithet "liar" to the preacher, and embellished it with strengthening adjectives.

In his speech, Mr. Anderson read extracts from Atlanta papers, quoting Dr. Broughton. With these as his text he denied the charges made by the preacher, characterizing him as a "liar" and a "scandalous monger."

Mr. Anderson said: "Mr. Speaker, I desire to rise to a question of personal privilege. My attention has been called to certain newspaper articles in yesterday's papers, purporting to quote statements made in regard to myself by the Rev. Len G. Broughton in a sermon delivered by him Sunday night at the Baptist tabernacle.

"These newspaper articles, Mr. Speaker, all say or intimate that Mr. Broughton made many other statements and charges against me along the same lines as those quoted. Now, Mr. Speaker, if he is correctly quoted with even substantial correctness in these articles, I desire to say in my place on the floor of the house that the Rev. Len G. Broughton is a wilful, reckless, malignant and malicious liar and a scandal monger. I stated to the house the other day when this new prohibition fight started that I was forced to fight this bill because my constituency demanded it, and as their representative on the floor of this house I could not do otherwise. I also stated that I knew my position and motives would be assailed and misconstrued, and that I would probably be vilified and abused, but I did not expect that any minister of the gospel would be guilty of any such depravity and malignity of heart as to wilfully fabricate lies about me.

"Mr. Broughton charges that I have, since prohibition went into effect, bought up one or more of the Savannah breweries and have become a manufacturer of near beer and have grown enormously rich out of it. All of that is a wilful deliberate and reckless lie. In the first place none of the Savannah breweries have been sold since prohibition was adopted, and no purchaser could have been found if they had tried to sell them. In the second place I have not bought a single dollar's worth of interest in any brewery since prohibition went into effect in Georgia, nor have I done so at any time in the past twelve years.

"It will also doubtless be a great pleasure to the reverend gentleman to know that he is lying again when he said that the value of the stock of any of the Savannah breweries went up because of the near beer business. The truth is that the value of these stocks have fallen off tremendously in the past two years and are still falling off because people are afraid to buy them.

"Mr. Broughton charges that I am working for my personal interests and not for those of the People of Georgia. That is another

E. T. WHITE DIES BY THE ROADSIDE

A VICTIM OF HEART FAILURE.

Coroner Notified and Inquest Was Held Tuesday Afternoon.

E. T. White, a young and prosperous farmer living in the Equal neighborhood, was found dead near the roadside about a mile from his home Tuesday morning at sunrise. Near the corpse was the mule and buggy belonging to the dead man.

Mr. White was in Statesboro Monday and in the afternoon just before leaving, made some purchases. He did not leave until nearly dark, and as he was found within a mile of his home, which is about twelve miles from Statesboro, it is supposed that he got out of his buggy shortly after nine o'clock, this being about the time it takes to go that distance. Just what time he died and how much suffering he went through is not known.

As soon as his body was discovered a telephone message was sent to Statesboro requesting the services of the coroner, as it was not known whether or not foul play had been dealt Mr. White. Coroner Boyd was notified and he went to the scene Tuesday morning and in the afternoon after succeeding in getting a jury, the inquest was held. The jury was composed of Messrs. Hawkins, Futch, Proctor, Denmark, Martin and Futch. As there were no signs of violence it was necessary for Coroner Boyd to secure the services of a physician and Dr. R. L. Cone was called, and after a thorough investigation the jury returned their verdict, which was to the effect that the deceased came to his death by heart failure, caused probably by acute indigestion.

The deceased was well known in Statesboro. He was a son of the late Mike White, and brother to J. P. White, of Groveland, and W. T. White of Statesboro R. F. D. number 2. He was a frequent visitor to Statesboro and did all of his trading here.

The funeral was held yesterday in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives. He was married and leaves a widow, whose maiden name was Davis.

No New Counties.

A telegram received in the city yesterday morning from Representative Anderson announced that all new county movements had been killed for this time.

This was welcome news to all good citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch county. Statesboro had prepared to fight the measure, and a delegation of leading citizens had prepared to go to Atlanta and appear before the committee. The people of Statesboro and Bulloch county are opposed to having any of their territory sliced, and whenever a movement to this end is started there are always men here who are willing to spend time and money in defence of it. The proposition this time was to establish a new county with Stillmore as the capital, taking a strip of Bulloch's territory reaching this side of Metter. The movement has been killed, however, and the fight ended for the present.

A widow has learned better than to trust a man, but she has also learned how to bear disappointment.

WOMEN MUST NOT RIDE ASTRIDE, SAYS WRIGHT.

Bill Introduced Making This a Misdemeanor in Georgia.

Atlanta, July 27.—Girls more than twelve years of age who ride horseback astride in the state of Georgia will in future be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine if the bill introduced in the house Monday by Mr. Wright of Stewart, is enacted into law.

The bill provides that no girl over the age mentioned shall be permitted to ride astride upon the highway or in any other public place upon any horse, mule or ass or other animal. It does not prohibit female circus riders from riding astride in any inclosed show ground or under a circus tent.

Any violation of the proposed law involves a penalty of a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100.

Mr. Wright, who is a physician, states that his bill is offered in all seriousness and he is convinced that riding horseback astride is injurious to the health of young women.

D. C. Finch Out of Jail.

After serving twenty days in the county jail, his three months sentence having been commuted to that time, D. C. Finch, who was convicted of selling and fined $1,000 in addition to the jail sentence, was released from jail last Tuesday afternoon. A petition had been circulated asking the governor to commute the sentence and it was reduced from three months to twenty days.

Thaw Shows Hatred for District Attorney.

White Plains, N. Y., July 26.—Harry K. Thaw and District Attorney Jerome glared at each other today in the court room here where Thaw is fighting desperately for his freedom and Jerome is combating with all the force at his command to keep the slayer of Stanford White in the asylum for the insane at Matteawan.

Each had to turn partially in his chair to see the other. From the eyes of Thaw darted hatred and defiance, while from those of Jerome there came that tantalizing, half sarcastic, half pitying gaze that seemed to say, "Poor boy, I know you are crazy and I am going to prove it."

Then both smiled, shook hands and said they were glad to see each other. They occupied seats side by side and Thaw kept constantly turning to watch the effect of argument by his counsel.

Thaw's general demeanor, after seeing Jerome, clearly contradicted his declaration that he had no fear of his former prosecutor. There was no doubt that he dreaded the ordeal of the Jerome inquisition.

His mother, Mrs. William Thaw, came to share the dread felt by her son. She frequently spoke to him as if to draw his attention from the district attorney. The gray-haired old mother honestly believes that Jerome is persecuting her son.

Indications point to the fact that the tendency now is to let the whole matter drop.

Whether the discovery that its probable effect would be to outlaw certain soda water syrups, had anything to do with the manifestations of quiescence is a subject of interesting speculation.

At any rate it begins to look as if the prohibition fight of 1909 is about over.

NEW PROH. BILL TO DIE NATURALLY.

Would Hit Soft Drinks and is Expected to Be Heard From No More.

Atlanta, July 26.—There was not a reference made to the new prohibition bill in the house of representatives today. On that subject all was as quiet as a May morning. It looks as if it were going to be permitted to die a quiet death.

The interesting discovery has been made that the effect of the enactment of Representative Cooper Alexander's new prohibition measure would be to outlaw not only so-called near beer, but all many of the proprietary soda fountain syrups in which alcohol in minute quantities are used as a preservative ingredient, including cocoa cola.

Representative Alexander's bill proposes to outlaw every drink containing alcohol in any degree whatever. Information as to the use of alcohol as a preservative in soda fountain syrups, therefore had an interesting bearing on the situation. Representative Alexander was as docile as a lamb during the entire session, and did not once attempt to have his new prohibition measure taken up.

The indications point to the fact that the tendency now is to let the whole matter drop.

Whether the discovery that its probable effect would be to outlaw certain soda water syrups, had anything to do with the manifestations of quiescence is a subject of interesting speculation.

At any rate it begins to look as if the prohibition fight of 1909 is about over.

Since the automobile is to make us independent of the horse, and made out of cotton seed oil make us independent of the hog, and petroleum waste made into butter make us independent of the cow, it seems like the dog will be about the only domestic animal left for whom no substitute has been found. Two Bales New Cotton Sold in Georgia Monday.

Quitman, Ga., July 26.—The first bale of new cotton in Georgia was brought in this afternoon by Mr. J. W. Aver, one of the leading planters of this section.

The cotton classed well and the buyers will bid on it tomorrow.

Deal Jackson, the Dougherty county farmer, has for the last ten years been known as the first bale man, but this honor will go to Mr. Aver this year, which quite a distinction, not only to the grower, but to Brooks county.

JACKSON ALSO SELLS BALE.

Albany, Ga., July 26.—Neal Jackson, Dougherty county's negro "first bale" farmer, this afternoon marketed the first bale of new crop cotton in Georgia.

The bale weighed 351 pounds, was classed fully middling and brought twenty cents per pound.

It was purchased by the International Cotton Company, of Albany, and Bremen, and will be shipped tomorrow to Savannah.

The bale was nine days later than last year, when Jackson brought in the first bale for 1908 on July 17.

The Sea Island Cotton Growers.

When the one thousand delegates to the convention of the Farmer's Union Sea Island Cotton Growers' Association met in Savannah this morning a new epoch will have begun in the industry they represent. Because of the present and prospective importance of the industry interest in the session of the growers will not be limited to these island cotton belt, which is confined to several counties of South Carolina, more in Florida and yet more in Georgia, but will be spread throughout the cotton producing and handling world.

Before the growers who are today taking the first concrete step toward a closer union, of which many of them had dreamed in the past with apparent hopelessness, lies one purpose above all others—that of bringing about better prices and more uniform for the staple. The meaning of their meeting in Savannah is to plan for this. As the chief market for sea island cotton Savannah is chosen as the meeting place of the growers, and if their plan for improving the industry blows into full bloom it will be the site of a great warehouse established by the Farmers' Union for the purpose of handling all of the sea island cotton crop.

This plan if carried out is expected to materially, if not completely, change the methods of marketing sea islands, and the apparently unanimous enthusiasm among the growers over the project seems to assure it success, even before the foundation for the warehouse is laid.

The importance of the sea island cotton growing industry is readily apparent when it is known that the crop of 1908 in Georgia, Florida and South Carolina was valued at above $6,500,000, the Georgia crop representing about one-half the total. At the time of the census of 1900 the area devoted to this grade of cotton was 317,445 acres. The crop of 1908 was 93,858 bales.

Recent reports from the sea island cotton belt are to the effect that the present crop is below that of last year, the acreage being cut considerably with the prospect of a much smaller yield.

To the growers themselves, as represented by the delegates who are to be here today and tomorrow, Savannah's glad hand of welcome is extended. Plans for the entertainment of the visitors indicate what the city thinks of their importance in a more industrial way, and of themselves in a more intimate and personal way. They will be shown our harbor from the wharves to where it merges with the sea—and all cotton growers are interested in a harbor that can accommodate the big freighters from Europe. They will be given an opportunity to "see Savannah" at first hand, while a trip to Tybee will wind up the entertainment features. The meeting, we are quite sure, will prove both profitable and enjoyable.—Savannah Morning News

Wounds Two as He Falls Fatally Shot.

Farrar, Ga., July 26.—Gus Ford, a young man, was shot five times and instantly killed by a band of negro gamblers near this place late Sunday evening.

Oscar and James Fears were shot by Ford and received wounds which may prove serious. Other negroes were known to have been at Ford, twelve of whom have been put under arrest and lodged in jail at Monticello.

It was only through the earnest efforts of cooler heads that a serious race riot was prevented, combined with the swift action of officers of the law in rushing the mob to jail. The cause of the trouble is thought to have originated over a ball game on Saturday evening.

Burglar's Shot Hits Tifton Policeman.

Tifton, Ga., July 26.—Night Officer G. F. Montgomery, of the Tifton police force, was shot and severely wounded by a negro burglar this morning before dawn.

Montgomery was making his usual rounds, and was going down the alley between Main and Railroad streets. As he was passing the rear of the dry goods store of H. Nathan, he was fired upon from the doorway, the bullet taking effect in his right shoulder, inflicting a flesh wound, which is not dangerous. Three shots were fired, only one taking effect.

Montgomery did not see the burglar until he was fired on, and does not know how many there were, or whether they were white or colored. Others, however, saw men running from the rear of the store, and afterwards heard them drive away.

An entrance was effected by prying loose one of the lower window bars, and raising the sash. The store entered was vacant, but there is a doorway communicating with the one occupied by Mr. Nathan. Parts of three suits of clothes and some hats and shoes and probably other goods were taken from the store.

The tracks of the buggy were followed and two negroes who have been arrested on suspicion.

In Memoriam.

In loving remembrance of our beloved friend, Mr. A. J. Knight, who was born August 15th, 1854, and departed this life June 28th, 1909.

In the death of Mr. Knight the community as well as the family has sustained a great loss, but we know God does all things for the best. "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away; blessed be the name of the Lord."

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep. From which none ever wake to weep. A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the last of foes.

It seems so strange to try to realize that he is gone never to return again. Retiring in his usual health, and being found in the morning cold in death, was indeed a great shock to the entire community. Jack was loved by all who knew him. He was indeed a faithful friend to every one, always willing to aid any one in distress. He was a man of a loving disposition, and always had a smile for everyone. Oh, how he will be missed. It seems as if there is no one who can fill his place. He leaves two brothers and a host of relatives and friends to mourn his death.

He was buried in the family burying ground on June 29th. His funeral was conducted by Rev. D. R. McElvyn, followed by a host of sorrowing relatives and friends. Jack is gone but not forgotten. His name will live forever.

His friend,
Arie Grooms.

HALL IS IN FAVOR OF IMPEACHMENT

Many Resolutions Calling for Impeachment are Introduced.

Atlanta, July 27.—Various resolutions concerning the McElendon suspension flooded the house of representatives Tuesday morning, calling for "impeachment" and "reinstatement" of the suspended chairman.

The resolution calling for impeachment was introduced by Mr. Hall, of Bibb, and provided that the general judiciary committee should be instructed at once to prepare articles of impeachment.

Mr. Henderson, of Jefferson, offered a resolution providing that "S. G. McElendon be, and he is hereby, removed from the office of railroad commissioner."

Mr. Anderson, of Chatham, offered a counter resolution providing that the "suspension of S. G. McElendon from the railroad commission be, and the same is hereby disapproved."

If the present general assembly fails to take action upon the suspension of S. G. McElendon, Governor Brown will be authorized to temporarily appoint his successor, provided the general assembly adopts the resolution introduced in the house Tuesday by Mr. Upshaw, of Douglas.

The resolution provides that if the suspension is not acted upon at this session Mr. McElendon's place shall be filled by appointment until the legislature does take action upon it.

The resolution will lie on the table one day.

Resolutions providing that the McElendon matter shall be made a special order to follow the general tax act were not lacking.

All the resolutions were referred to the committee on rules and will probably be acted on not later than Wednesday.

Following is the resolution by Joe Hill Hall providing for the impeachment of S. G. McElendon, railroad commissioner:

"Resolved by the house, That S. G. McElendon, a railroad commissioner of the state of Georgia, be impeached of high crimes and misdemeanors in office.

"2. Be it further resolved, That the report of the special committee appointed by this house and to which was referred the message of the governor suspending the said S. G. McElendon, together with the accompanying evidence and exhibits, be referred to the committee on general judiciary with instructions to prepare and report to the house without unnecessary delay suitable articles of impeachment of the said S. G. McElendon, railroad commissioner as aforesaid.

"3. Be it further resolved, That a committee of five members of this house be appointed by a vote of the house to represent the house at the bar of the senate in said impeachment proceedings, and are hereby instructed to proceed forthwith to the bar of the senate and there in the name of the house of representatives of the state of Georgia, impeach the said S. G. McElendon of high crimes and misdemeanors in office, and to inform that body that formal articles of impeachment will in due time be presented to that body in the name of the house of representatives, and to request the senate to take such order in the premises as they may deem appropriate.

"4. Be it further resolved, That no member of the house shall be appointed on said committee who does not receive a majority of the vote of those members of the house voting to appoint said committee.

STATESBORO, GA.

The Heart of Georgia.

A large number of people ask the question, "How is it that some institutions advance so much more rapidly than others?" If you will study the course of the blood through the human system it is not hard to answer. We are all aware that the heart is drained by one method and supplied by another. Figure then, the feeding of the heart and impregnating every portion of the system with their poisonous gases. After reaching the heart this blood is thrown into the lungs, where it is re-oxygenized; or, in other words, purified. Thence it returns to the heart to be carried by the Empire Life with all its heart-giving properties and laden with the aroma of life throughout the entire arterial system of the state, adding strength and vigor to her people, thus upbuilding the Empire State of the South and cementing the affection of our people for home investments.

Small Blaze Causes Much Excitement.

Considerable excitement was created yesterday morning at eleven o'clock by the sounding of the fire alarm. People ran in every direction, from out of the stores, from every staircase and looking every direction. It was soon learned that the fire was in West Statesboro and the crowd started in that direction. Mr. J. E. Bowen, Mr. W. H. Blitch and the News reporter leading the procession in the Reo belonging to Mr. Bowen.

Arriving at the scene of the excitement the people in the neighborhood gave notice that the fire was out, having been extinguished before any of the up-town crowd arrived. The fire was in the roof of the dwelling occupied by E. S. Lewis, and was caused by a defective flue in the kitchen. No damage was done.

On the way to the fire much amusement was interspersed with the excitement which was furnished by some of the "brave volunteers." Col. H. P. Cobb, the first victim, who had volunteered to help pull the heavy reel, was thrown to the clay road as the reel was going down the hill in front of Harrison Olliff's home. This was caused by some one running in to assist the reel "down the hill."

The comical Col. Cobb's foot and he fell, the wheels barely missing him. He was covered with clay from head to foot.

Mr. J. L. Mathews, being in a hurry to reach the scene of excitement, borrowed a bicycle, and in going down the steep hill lost control of the wheel, being unfamiliar with the new kind of brake, and ran into a telephone post near the sidewalk. This also furnished amusement for the crowd.

Mr. D. N. Haeot, was also victim of a hard fall in front of the reel, but rolled out of the way of the wheels.

It is said that before the crowd arrived at the fire one man, we did not learn his name, was the victim of a hard bump off the top of the house.

All of the victims of fall contributed their share to the amusement, and none of them were hurt.

Barn Burned.

The barn on the home place of R. E. Findley, of Pulaski, was struck by lightning during the thunder storm of Monday night and completely destroyed. After being struck the barn caught fire and before assistance could be had it was destroyed. Some of the contents were saved, but it is said that Mr. Findley was a heavy loser.

Work on Buildings

Progressing Rapidly.

The construction of the buildings of the Southern Cotton Stalk and Paper Company at Cordele, Ga., is being pushed rapidly, and everything will be in readiness to commence operations by early fall. Contracts are being let for cotton stalks and it is claimed that the mill will cause thousands of dollars to be put out among the farmers in this section in buying the cotton stalk from the fields, which has heretofore been considered worthless and was destroyed. The mill will be the first of its kind ever built, and it opens a new field for the farmer to market another product of the farm.

Only a few years ago the seed from cotton was counted as almost worthless. Now the cotton seed market is as important almost as the market for the lint. The same is claimed for the cotton stalk, and with paper mills to consume the stalk as the oil mills consume the seed there will be a market for every part of King Cotton.

Cordele with its exceptionally fine railroad facilities offers many inducements to manufacturers, and in the next few years small manufacturing enterprises will be located there and take advantage of the location of Cordele to reach the trade of south Georgia and Florida.—Atlanta Georgian.

Girl Accompanies Father to Begin Life Sentence.

Jackson, Miss., July 26.—Chas. R. Smith, a millionaire and one of the wealthiest men in Mississippi, has begun a life term on the convict farm in Rankin county.

Accompanied by his daughter, Estelle, his only child, who, on the witness stand, said that she could not "lie, even to save her father's life." Smith arrived yesterday in custody of state officers, who permitted the old man and his child to enter the prison without a guard.

C. R. Smith killed E. A. Laurent, a St. Louis traveling man, in a train, last January. In his defense he offered the unwritten law, also known, but Miss Estelle's testimony that she had never been betrayed shattered her father's defense.

Mrs. Laurent, mother of the slain man, is suing for $50,000. Smith has deeded his fortune to his daughter.

Anderson Calls Broughton a Liar.

ing the opposition? It is a man by the name of Anderson, from the great city of Savannah. He is the one man who got rich on prohibition. Mr. Anderson bought up the stock of the Savannah breweries for little or nothing. He put the breweries to manufacturing near beer. The stock went up, and out of that one transaction he became a very rich man. He is working for his personal interest and not for those of the people of Georgia."

Following Mr. Anderson, Mr. Slade, of Muscogee, arose to a question of personal privilege, and stated that he spoke as a Missionary Baptist, but one who was unwilling to be identified with Dr. Broughton or his attitude.

He referred to Dr. Broughton as "this long-haired itinerant preacher, who has done more harm to the cause of temperance than all its enemies put together."

"Gentlemen, I arise for the purpose of speaking for the Baptists," he said. "The true Baptist is a man who preaches temperance and not prohibition."

Dr. Broughton this afternoon gave out the following statement relative to Mr. Anderson's remarks:

"I am glad, at least, if I have done nothing else than force Mr. Anderson to acknowledge in the House of Representatives where he is posing as the champion against legislation for the prevention of the near beer evil, that he is a stockholder in a brewery, one at least, in Savannah, that is manufacturing more near beer than any other in the state."

"It is immaterial so far as the point I made against his right to sit in judgment upon such legislation, whether he has bought stock or not. He acknowledges he owns $1,000 worth of stock in a Savannah brewery; how much more he represents in one way or another is immaterial, nor does it make any difference."

"It is a fact that he owns the stock, and that lines him up with the whiskey interests of this state, and his fellow legislators, by his own confession of the same, now know exactly where to place him, and when he opens his mouth to defend the near beer interest they know how much personal interest is at stake."

Lee has signified his intention to be present and address the occasion, besides there will be number of other speakers. A falling tiny nerve no larger than a sliver of thread takes from the heart its impulse, its power, its regularity. The stomach also has its hidden or inside nerve. It was Dr. Shoop who first told us it was wrong to drug a weak or failing stomach, heart or kidneys. His prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is directed straight for the cause of these ailments—these weak and faltering inside nerves. This, no doubt, clearly explains why the Restorative has of late grown so rapidly in popularity. Druggists say that those who test the Restorative even for a few days soon become fully convinced of its wonderful merit. Anyway, don't drug the organ. Treating the cause of sickness is the only sensible and successful way. Sold by W. H. Ellis.

$50,000 SLUMP IS SHOWN IN TAXES.

15,000 ACRES NOT RETURNED

Heaviest Loss Is Shown In The Court House District.

Tax Receiver L. O. Akins has completed the task of footing up the tax returns for the year 1909 and a slump of $50,000 in round numbers is shown. The exact figures are: For the year 1908, $1,164,750.00, and for the year 1909 $5,114,320.00, showing a decrease of $50,430.00. Of this amount the loss among the white property owners is $39,180.00 and the colored property owners show a shortage of $11,250.00.

Nearly all of the districts fell behind more or less, the biggest slump being in the 1209. The Matter district shows a slump of $1,000. The Laston and one or two others showed slight increase. The District at Adabelle showed a decrease, but this is probably due to the fact that the Adabelle Trading Company was given in this district and Mr. J. G. Williams, one of the largest property owners in the county, also made his returns in this district. The Adabelle Trading Company and Mr. Williams have always given in their holdings at Adabelle, and this is likely due to the slump in that district.

While the books really show a decrease of $50,000, there is as matter of fact, a larger decrease than this. It is shown that there are defaulters to the amount of $35,000, and under the law these taxes are doubled, and adding this extra $35,000 to the grand total, this would make a shortage in round numbers of $85,000.

Mr. Akins states that there are 15,000 acres of land lost. Whether or not the owners failed to turn in that amount or it has changed hands is not known, but he is that many acres short.

Heavy Hailstorm Does

Damage to Corn Crop.

The hail storm which visited a portion of this county and the edge of Screven county last Tuesday is said to have been the heaviest ever seen in this section. While this county suffered some loss it is said the hail did a great deal more damage in Screven county in the neighborhood of Dover than it did on this side of the river. It is $11 to have fallen in stones as large as a turkey egg at Dover. The storm was at its height just as the up train reached Dover, and parties coming to Statesboro were drenched to the skin, having to change cars in the midst of the storm, and before they could run from one train to the other every thread on them was wet.

Mr. damage is said to have been done in both Bulloch and Screven counties to the corn crop. In many fields the stalks were blown flat upon the ground, many of the stalks were broken off below the ground, and the corn was by the hail.

Very little damage is said to have been done to the cotton crop.

BLACK ROOT DISEASE IN GEORGIA COTTON FIELDS.

State Entomologist Says Loss to Planters Will Be Over Million Dollars.

Atlanta, Ga., July 28.—"From the reports coming in from various sections of the state in regard to the increased damage done to the growing cotton crop by the black root disease, it now appears that this will cause a loss to the Georgia farmer of over a million dollars this year."

This startling statement was made by State Entomologist E. L. Worsham in discussing the ravages of the black root which is proving so disastrous to the cotton crop throughout the state of Georgia. He is making a strong fight for the appropriation of $10,000 asked for in the bill by Representative Henderson, of Irwin, one of the largest cotton growers in the south.

Prof. Worsham says that black root is worse than the boll weevil, in that when a stalk of cotton is attacked by black root the whole stalk dies, thereby losing all the product in cotton, while the boll weevil gets only a certain per cent. of the bolls.

With the appropriation asked for Prof. Worsham believes that a resist to variety of cotton may be secured which will ward off this dread disease, and the department will be able to put more experts in the field to give the farmers first hand assistance.

Any injury to the cotton crop deals the planters a double blow now, for not only does he lose in the price of the staple, but he also loses in the products of the seed, which have come to be such a valuable part of the cotton crop.

Just now the cotton oil mills of the state are beginning their annual crush, turning out hundreds of gallons of cotton seed oil, which is finding ready sale at home and abroad, and also thousands of tons of cotton seed meal, which is being consumed by the cattle of the state, for it is readily acknowledged as the first and foremost cattle feed on the market.

The passage of this bill, which means so much to the Georgia farmer, is being awaited with interest.

Woman "Moonshiner" Arrested Near Sparta.

Macon, Ga., July 28.—Surrounded by a crude outfit, with beer in the tubs and the ripple of a little stream trickling among the flake stumps, near the prosperous town of Sparta, in Hancock county, United States Deputy Marshal Frank Riley today arrested Pearl Gordon, a negro, on a charge of running a blockade distillery.

In all his long experience in the service this is the first woman the officer ever captured in a "moonshine" plant.

The outfit was in operation and the indications were that the woman had been conducting a very extensive business.

The woman gave bond for her appearance before Commissioner Irwin.

SENATE VOTES FOR BIENNIAL SESSIONS OF SIXTY DAYS DURATION.

Slater Bill Wins Out by Vote of Thirty-Five to Eleven.

Atlanta, July 28.—Biennial sessions of the general assembly of sixty days' duration now depend upon the house of representatives, the senate having passed the bill today by a vote of 30 to 11.

The measure received just the requisite number of votes—two-thirds of all the senators—required to enact a constitutional amendment for submission to the people. President Slater, however, was known to have been for the measure and would have voted for it had his vote been needed.

On the biennial sessions bill, by Senator Slater, the vote was taken after a debate lasting all the morning.

When the bill was taken up Senator Jackson resumed his argument in opposition to it. If the legislature met only once in two years, he said, there would be practically nothing else but committee legislation; there would be no time for proper consideration of legislation on the floor of the house or senate. The cost of the general assembly, he declared, was insignificant with the good to be accomplished.

Senator Calhoun wanted to know if there was not a demand for biennial sessions, in the last democratic platform. There was, Senator Jackson replied, and it was the most dangerous plank in it.

"Ought not a man who violates the party platform be dismissed from office?" asked Senator Day amid laughter.

Senator Jackson said he would discuss that question later on. Some members of the senate, he said, were trying to make a partisan issue of biennial sessions.

The debate in favor of the bill was closed by Senators Womble, Griffith and Slater. They all repelled the suggestion that the people are not competent or equal to the task of expressing their will on this matter at the polls.

Farmers' Union Visitor Was Seriously Injured.

Mr. T. H. Moore, of Concord, a delegate to the convention of the Farmers' Union, received such injuries in being thrown from an East Macon car on Thursday afternoon that he had to be sent to his home, after first being given medical attention. He was preparing to alight when, it is said, the car started and he hit the ground heavily. His head was cut, his right hand badly mashed, and his leg and body severely bruised. In falling he struck a bicycle then being ridden by an unknown small boy.—Telegraph.

3,000 SPANIARDS KILLED BY MOORS IN BATTLE.

Annihilation of Spanish Un- less Reinforced.

Madrid, July 28.—The Moors are attacking Alhucemas, 60 miles west of Melilla. Their losses at Melilla yesterday were severe and they were obliged to abandon their positions on the Spanish right flank behind Mt. Guguru. One thousand and nearly 2,000 killed in Tuesday's battle at Melilla.

Unless reinforcements reach the Spanish before the Moors return, there can be but one result of the engagement—the annihilation of the Spanish.

Short of ammunition, discouraged, disorganized and with their regiments reduced to skeleton proportions, it is doubtful today if Marina's men would even face another attack.
