Cook Wins in Straw Ballots.

No controversy in modern times, perhaps, has excited such universal interest as the respective claims of Cook and Peary of having discovered the north pole.

For a long time it was difficult to get the average man to talk about anything else and it is still a favorite topic of discussion.

Commander Peary had scarcely reached the cable before he injected into the question a touch of bitterness and personal vindictiveness which brought down upon his head the severest criticisms of the American people, who, above all things, love to see a good loser.

It was evident to their minds that although Peary's claims to having reached the pole might be valid, he had been preceded by the Brooklyn physician, and the thing to do was to accept the situation gracefully, since he was not the only man in the history of the world who has been disappointed in his ambition after a life of toil.

His conduct, ever since his first cablegram that "Cook should not be taken too seriously," has been an accumulation of blunders which have alienated practically every particle of sympathy from him, and he stands today as a most unenviable spectacle.

That this is the general sentiment of the people has long been known. It was in the very air, so to speak. But the Pittsburgh Press was the first newspaper, so far as we are aware, to take an actual vote on the question involved, and the result is highly interesting.

On the question as to who "discovered" the pole, the vote was seventy-three thousand two hundred and thirty-eight in favor of Cook, as against two thousand eight hundred and fourteen in favor of Peary.

If Peary "discovered" the pole, the only inference would be that Cook did not reach there at all. Eighteen thousand voters were of the opinion that Peary, as well as Cook, did reach the pole, but as evidence of what Peary has brought upon himself by his malignant hostility toward his rival, we find that over fifty-eight thousand voters did not believe that Peary had ever been to the pole at all.

The real basis of opinion, however, is expressed by the clear-cut vote of seventy-three thousand two hundred in favor of Cook, as against two thousand eight hundred in favor of Peary, as the discoverer.

In other words, in a straw ballot constituency of seventy-three thousand, the ill-natured Peary, who has taken it upon himself to "expose" his successful rival, can find but twenty-eight hundred supporters, while fifty-eight thousand voters do not believe that he was at the pole at all.

The indications are that this measure of public sentiment is being brought home to Peary very forcibly. His resolution not to accept any public invitations until he had discredited Cook seems to have melted, either before the glare of the Hudson-Fulton celebration, the fierce fires of a consuming egotism, or a consciousness of the weakness of his meditated charges.

He should fire off his little pop-gun of "exposure" and go back to working for the government which has supported him for lot these many years without any very adequate return.—Atlanta Journal.

ARE WE DEVELOPING?

Is Georgia, And Georgia Institutions and Men in the Lead?

Is it not true that our Minerals, Forests, Farm Products, Waterways and Waterpowers are before the eye of the world?

Is it not so that our cotton, peaches, agricultural products, Gold, Metals, Coal, Iron, Marble, Granite, Clays, Lumber, Naval Stores, and other Resources places us in the lead of all?

Is it not so that Georgia is a wonder, worth over a billion and a half dollars (intrinsic value)?

Is it not so that Georgia has 568 banks with a capital of about $20,000,000, and deposits $70,000,000? Nothing in the Union to compare with it.

And is it not so that out of 52 Insurance Companies doing business in Georgia during 1908, and writing over $44,000,000, the Empire Life, our own Georgia Company, wrote $5,949,135? You can figure what per cent of the whole is represented in this magnificent showing.

SOME ADVANCES IN GROCERIES LAST WEEK.

Ham, Lard and Other Things Jump a Few Cents.

There are some few things for which grockers are to be thankful for at this time, so far as the prices of groceries are concerned. It may not seem true, but prices could be higher.

Eggs are selling at 32 cents a dozen. The place to be thankful in this instance is because the price is no higher. But the ham that many like with the eggs has advanced. During the last week the best mild cured ham jumped from 17 cents to 20 cents per pound.

Rice is costing the retailers more because of the storm along the Gulf coast. No advance in the price that consumers pay is anticipated just at present, but if the wholesale price continues to advance shortly, there will be a change. Lard jumped last week from 15 cents to 17 cents. The butter and cheese prices remain the same. New York state best cream cheese retails at 25 cents a pound. Best butter is bringing 40 cents a pound, and tub butter 38 cents. It has not been so high before so early in the season.

The cause of the advance in the price of butter is thought to be due principally to the fact that many of the farmers have given up most of their dairy work to devote their time to the raising of field crops that are bringing such good prices. A large amount has been exported, which is assigned as another reason for the increase.

Some canned goods are cheaper now than has been the

Law and Order League

Organized at Register
The citizens of Register assembled together on Tuesday evening, Oct. 13, for the purpose of organizing what is known as a Law and Order League. Dr. H. C. McManis, elected President, E. P. Register, Vice-President, and D. M. Register, Secretary. The following names were enrolled, who are enrolling promises to prosecute to the fullest extent of the law any lawlessness in our little town: S. P. Register, D. L. Kennedy, J. S. Egge, E. B. Kennedy, J. M. Daugherty, L. O. Rushing, Joseph Gilman, R. N. Williams, J. C. Daugherty, K. E. Watson, J. J. Malloway, J. W. Anderson, J. L. Lowe, Willie M. Holloway, J. J. McKeon, I. G. Moore, W. S. Egge, James Raper, R. L. Brown, G. T. Vaughn, H. C. McManis, Jesse Dean, D. M. Register, J. E. Waters.

On several years passed our little town had the good name of lawlessness, which was not appreciated; but on last Saturday, a new beer saloon was opened up in the J. G. Groover of Statesboro, and the fruits of the saloon were plainly shown upon the streets at the close of the day, and it was for this purpose the citizens decided upon this course, and it is hoped that no drastic steps will have to be taken against lawlessness; but the league promises that no leniency will be shown to lawlessness, regardless how poor, how weak, white, black, big little, old or young.

While the beer saloon will be closed after Jan. 1st, the league will be a permanent thing, and will at all times to keep down lawlessness. If the class of men, who have no respect for our laws and children cannot come to town without using vulgar and vulgar language in their presence, they will expect to suffer the consequences of their actions.

A BREAK IN THE COTTON MARKET.

Notwithstanding Lowest Government Crop Report on Record.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Government Crop report made public Monday placed the condition of the cotton crop at only fifty-eight and five one hundred per cent. of a crop, the bears were able to hammer the market down fifty-three points or a little more than half a cent. Later in the day yesterday the market advanced again and regained thirteen of the points lost earlier in the day. It closed with a net loss of forty points.

The local buyers have confidence in the market and while they followed the downward tendency in the market giving 12 3/4 cents, yet they believe the reaction will come with today's market.

It looks sorter like an effort to get rid of the tenderfoots, who had begun to load up heavily with an expectation of a big rise, which will come eventually; but the fellow who hasn't the grit to stay in will be frozen out.

New Business Change.

One of the recent business changes in town is that of the new firm of Aldred & Collins, being composed of Messrs. W. H. Aldred and B. V. Collins, the change taking effect the first of the month.

Will Hold Farmer's Institute.

State Commissioner of Agriculture T. G. Hudson, Congressman Chas. G. Edwards, together with several members of the United States Department of Agriculture, Farm Demonstration Department, will be in Statesboro Nov. 20th for the purpose of conducting a Farmer's Institute.

Prof. J. Walter Hendricks, President of the County Farmers' Union, has been asked to name a place for the meeting, whether at the Agricultural School or in the Court House. This being the regular meeting day of the County Union Prof. Hendricks decided to call the meeting at the Court House, where it is hoped there will be a good turnout.

We will have some of the best talent in the country and it will be our farmers good to come out and hear what the expert farmers from the national department have to say. Remember the day, November 20th.

The Eighth District Convention of the Knights of Pythias met in Statesboro Tuesday. The delegates arrived on the morning trains from all sections of Bulloch and adjoining counties, and a large delegation came in from Savannah.

Mayor H. B. Strange delivered the address of welcome, which was responded to by Sir Knight R. E. Hall, of Savannah. The business sessions were held at the K. of P. hall on North Main street, and the election for officers for another year resulted as follows:

President—S. O. Newsome, of Guyton.
Vice-president—F. E. Wheeler, of Savannah.
Master at Arms—D. F. McCoy, of Statesboro.

Outer Guard—D. O. Beasley, of Register.
Secretary and Treasurer—W. B. Futrell, of Guyton.

The delegates in attendance were named as follows:
Statesboro—D. F. McCoy, O. W. Horne and M. L. Tinsley.

Guyton—W. B. Futrell, C. T. Guyton and G. C. Shearouse.
Claxton—H. A. Tipples, T. W. Rogers and D. A. Outen.

Pulaski—J. Z. Patrick and G. B. Johnson.
Register—D. O. Beasley, J. G. Nevils and J. S. Riggs.

Groveland—W. J. Futch and A. L. Davis.
Savannah—John R. Davis, R. E. Hall, A. C. Oelschlag, Geo. Steljes, F. W. Henges, F. E. Wheeler, W. T. Chapman, J. T. Morrison, M. S. Mingledorf, W. L. Grayson, H. M. Ward and I. Hellman.

Sylvania—F. M. Huff.
A sumptuous banquet was served at the Jaekel hotel. Covers were laid for seventy-five persons and fully that number were present. The banquet was unlike many others that we have seen elsewhere; it was more of a fine supper than it was a banquet—not so much red tape but more real good things to eat. The guests were also saved from the oratory until the evening meal was over and then a number of our citizens were called upon, among them being Mayor H. B. Strange, Col. R. Lee Moore, Col. W. L. Grayson, of Savannah; Dr. A. J. Mooney, J. E. McCrae and others.

The occasion was a happy one and the visitors all left feeling that the trip here was one that they will remember with a great deal of pleasure.

Sylvania was selected as the next meeting place.

Weather is Very Dry.

Complaint is coming from all over this section of the dry weather. A light shower fell here Sunday afternoon, but not sufficient to lay the dust. Livestock is suffering for lack of water in many sections, and the fall crops and gardens are needing water.

HALF OF KEY WEST A MAS OF RUINS.

HURRICANE STRIKES FLA. CITY.

Many Buildings, Wrecked Including 13 Churches, 9 Cigar Factories.

Key West, Fla., Oct. 12.—Half of the city is practically in ruins, over 500 homes have been destroyed and more than a hundred ships wrecked as a result of the hurricane which swept this city yesterday afternoon. Thirty churches and nine of the largest cigar factories in the South also were destroyed. Hundreds of men are now at work cleaning up the streets under the direction of Mayor Fogarty.

One death is reported, that of Frank Gray, a photographer. Tonight hundreds of homeless were roaming the streets. Fortunately the weather is bright and warm and there is little physical suffering.

The war department has instructed the commandant of the coast artillery companies stationed here to aid the city authorities in every way possible and tents and bedding will be distributed by the soldiers.

At this time no estimate can be given of the financial loss as incurred from the storm but it is believed that it will be between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000. It will be weeks—in some instances months—before the big tobacco factories will be able to resume operations and business generally will be at a standstill for at least several days.

As soon as darkness fell last night thieves began their raid on the homes and office buildings destroyed by the storm. The police were unable to cope with the situation and Mayor Fogarty immediately called for the Key West Guards, the local military organization and the city was placed under martial law.

In the residence districts the streets in many instances were rendered impassable by the ruins of the houses. Whole buildings were picked up by the gale and hurled across the street and only the advance warnings of the weather bureau prevented a heavy loss of life.

Along the water front the beaches were strewn with the wreckage of small boats of all kinds, and here hardly a building was left standing, while piers and wharves were all swept away. At the time the storm broke yesterday afternoon there were nearly one hundred vessels in the harbor. The majority of these were swept to sea or broken up on the beaches.

Second Mate Andrew Cooper of the schooner Medford lost his life at the government wharf and his

SAVANNAH RUN TO BE POPULAR

Entries Are Accumulating for This Contest.

Savannah, Oct. 13.—Indications point to a large popularity for the Savannah-Atlanta run in the state good roads contest, Nov. 8 and 9.

Not only will Savannah have a full complement of cars in the contest, as is forecasted by the entries already made to date, but there will be many from near-by points.

More than that, information comes from points along the "old capital route," which has been chosen for the contest by the executive committee of the Savannah Automobile Club, that they will furnish a number of contestants for this run. It is expected that there will be cars from Sandersville, Milledgeville, Louisville, Easton and other places upon the route, and there will also be some, it is said, from Atlanta.

Chairman Harry Granger, of the executive committee, said to-day: "The entries are continuing to come in very freely, and there is every indication that we are going to have a full entry at the start."

It is important that all those contemplating entering the contest should do so at the earliest possible moment, as the entries will positively close Friday, November 5, and it will be necessary for the contestants to deliver cars into the hands of the executive committee not later than 10 o'clock Saturday morning, November 6."
