No Paper Thursday.

Thursday being Thanksgiving Day and a legal holiday and our press day, there will be no issue of this paper on that day. The next issue of Saturday will be out on time.

Colonel E. Lee Moore, it is learned, is down with the jaundice for the past three days. We hope that he will soon be among us again, as all miss his smiling face and cheery word.

Mrs. A. F. Lee of this city leaves today for Swainsboro where she will spend the next three months visiting her daughter, Mrs. Dr. G. Bell of that city. Before leaving she paid this office a visit, stating that she could not do without the Statesboro News, and wanted the paper sent there.

If you want to meet your friends come to The Racket Store.

Farm For Sale.

Good farm for sale, only two miles from the court house. 117 acres, in a high state of cultivation good new modern dwelling, well finished and painted. For further particulars apply to.

L. W. Deal, Statesboro, Ga., Route 1.

The Racket Store.

The smiling countenance of Hon. Rafe Simmons was missed on Monday as he had left for Savannah to attend to some business and cotton took a slump. Some think that the slump was caused by the uncertainty of the stock market, but others say that "Rafe" was gone, and so the price cotton went with him down.

Seed Oats—I have a lot of fine stock Georgia raised Texas Rust Proof Seed Oats for sale.

Dr. J. E. Donehoo.

Doctor C. H. Parrish left for Cobbtown yesterday to see his brother-in-law, Mr. J. T. Byrd, of that town, who is in a critical condition.

Guitars, Banjos, Violins and Accordians all grades you will find at The Racket Store.

Mr. H. W. Wood, of Savannah, arrived Monday to pass Thanksgiving week with his son, Mr. Lee Woods.

The report of the national gunners association has been received and it reports that there has been 68,600 miles of sea island and 8,100,000 miles of upland cotton ginned up to November 15th. On receipt of this the island went up 24 points and the sea island dropped to 25 cents on the local market.

Bring us your chickens and eggs. The Racket Store.

Who Reached the Pole?

That is the question that has been before the public for the past three months. Fred A. Gillespie, one of the crew of the Roosevelt, will deliver a lecture on the famous dash to the pole tonight at the opera house. Mr. Gillespie has some thirty photos of the region around the far north and will illustrate his lecture by stereoscopic views. It is interesting, instructive and shows how life is at the far north. Hear him tonight. Popular prices.

Mr. J. L. Ray arrived here yesterday from Hawkinsville to spend Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. & Mrs. J. R. Ray of this city.

Mr. Ray has been gone from home for the past three years and this is his first visit here in that time.

Remember we are headquarters for underwear.

The Sorrowful Tale as Told by The Tolling Bells of Cherry, Ill.

The hope that was aroused Saturday by the rescue alive of twenty of the cotton miners of the St. Paul mine was crushed yesterday, for not one more of the 310 caught by the fire as found.

Sunday the records showed that of the 310 miners left in the mine 139 are missing while 82 bodies have been found and twenty rescued alive.

Sunday the tolling of the church bells resounded in Cherry and Springs Valley as the dead were being buried. The mourning and lamentations of the widows and orphans of the dead miners were pitiful as they gave to those dear to them the last rites for the dead. What a feeling it must be for those that came to this, the land of freedom, that they should be left among strangers, knowing not the language, or the customs of the country their loved ones as unrecognized in us before them.

In the mine levels the work of the explorers went on unceasingly, relays of cager miners succeeded those whose strength failed.

"We can see the bodies. There are piles of them. There dead boys all dead" was the reply of those that first came up, and those that followed gave no more cheering news.

"Could they be alive back there, don't you think that they are living?"

Medical Society Will Hold Public Meeting.

On Wednesday, Dec. 1st, the Bulloch county Medical Society will hold a public meeting in the Odd Fellows' hall, over Jones Furniture Co.'s store, and propose to discuss "Preventive Medicine." They desire the presence of all who will attend, as the discussion will be for the public good and all should hear it. F. F. Floyd, Secretary.

Thanksgiving in Statesboro.

Thursday looked like Sunday in Statesboro. As is the custom, all business houses closed. Services were held at the Methodist church in which all denominations joined. Some of the boys hid themselves to the fields and woods with gun and dog while others attended church. There was no cotton offered for sale on the streets, as the farmers have long since learned that Thanksgiving is not a good day to sell cotton.

Miss Cone Goes to Agricultural as One of Faculty.

The many friends of the agricultural school here, will be pleased to know that Miss Mary Cone, of our city has accepted the position as a member of the faculty of that institution and she will begin her duties next Monday. Prof. Dickens is looking for only the very best for his school. He and our trustee Mr. Miller have succeeded in securing Miss Cone. She belongs to one of Bulloch county's best families. She is highly cultured and a young lady of sterling character. Her election means will be very pleasing to our citizens all over the county. She assumes her duty with the school on next Monday.

What Five Acres Did.

Mr. J. D. Hagins, of the 1840th district, is the blue ribbon farmer in Bulloch county. He was in town one day this week with two bales of short cotton and sold it for 144 cents per pound.

These were the last two bales of a lot of ten bales that Mr. Hagins had made on a 54-acre patch this year. He has already sold $900 worth of cotton off the patch and has the seed left, which are worth $60 at the prevailing prices. Mr. Hagins says that he used on this land one and two-thirds tons of ordinary fertilizers and a half ton of kainit and a small amount of compost. Mr. Hagins will net more than $100 per acre on this patch of cotton. The above is a sample of what can be done on a Bulloch county acre.

LAND FOR SALE.

I will offer for sale on the first Tuesday in December next at the court house in Statesboro a lot of land 100x180 feet, on Grady st. near the institute. Terms of sale cash. J. T. Allen.

For Rent or Lease.

Portals, on the S. A. & N. Ry. is one of the coming towns of Bulloch county. A few months ago it was a cotton patch, now a booming town with ten stores and handsome residences, and public enterprises. Do you want to rent or lease a nice brick store in that place? We will fix it for you, or we will do the same at Aaron, another coming town. See Brannen & Booth, Statesboro, Ga.

FOR RENT OR SALE.

SWAINSBORO FEELS DEATH'S COLD HAND.

Five Prominent People of Locality Passed Away in One Week.

Swainsboro, Ga., Nov. 24.—Emmanuel county has this week suffered the loss by death of several of her valued citizens.

Mrs. W. Q. Whitehead died at her home in Summerville Monday, after a brief illness. Mrs. Whitehead, who was in her thirty-fifth year, was the oldest daughter of Dr. George Kirkland, of Summerville and was a woman of strong Christian character.

Her death, which was totally unexpected, is mourned by a large circle of friends. She is survived besides her husband and several children, by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Kirkland, and two brothers, Dr. Geo. Kirkland, of this city, and Mr. Deas Kirkland, of Summerville, one sister, Miss Vesta Kirkland.

Mr. D. Kelley, who recently returned from California where he went in search of health, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Andrew Kelley, at Milledge, Monday. Though only 25 years of age, Mr. Kelley was afflicted with tuberculosis and went West hoping to prolong his life. When he found that he was not improving he returned to his native health to die. He is survived by several brothers in this county; Messrs. Oran Kelley, Sub Kelley, F. E. Kelley, Lawson Kelley and Andrew Kelley and one sister, Mrs. Leo Glaze of Norristown.

Another death added to this week's list is that of Mrs. Cal Lumpkin at Milledge. Mrs. Lumpkin was seventy years of age, the mother of Mr. C. I. Hall, with whom she made her home. A sad thing connected with Mrs. Lumpkin's death is the fact that at the time she was ill the entire family of Mr. Hall, five in number, were down with fever. They are all better, however, and it is thought they will recover.

Mr. Jas. Boyd, stepfather of Dr. J. M. Nunez, died at the latter's home Monday. Mr. Boyd was ninety-one years of age, but was until the date of his death, remarkably strong, both mentally and physically. He was born in Ireland and was a Roman Catholic. He served four years in the Confederate army and was a brave soldier. After the war he married Mrs. Elizabeth Nunez, who preceded him to the grave nearly twenty-five years. His only son, Edmund Boyd, lives at Middle Falls, N. Y.

WITNESSES FENCE WITH THE COURT

Wealthy Man Withdraws Not Guilty Plea.

After pleading not guilty and depending upon the government's witnesses to conceal the damaging part of their evidence against him, D. C. Finch, one of the wealthiest men in Bulloch county, withdrew his plea and threw himself on the mercy of the judge in the United States court at Savannah.

Finch was charged with carrying on the business of a retail liquor dealer without paying the federal tax.

Finch has a store about three miles from Rocky Ford. Across the road from the store there is an old store house. During 1908 this building was a saloon. Finch employed an aged negro, Sol Morgan, to supply the thirsty part of the inhabitants in that section from this dispensary. It was proven that Morgan, besides being broken and bent in body, was an old man when the old men out there now were youths. Just how ancient Morgan is no one knows.

The witnesses, with one or two exceptions were unwilling to tell on the stand what they knew about Finch and his liquor establishment. They were either patrons of the place or admitted their obligation to the man who was on trial. When the case was up before Commissioner Goodwin in August a year ago, the witnesses had to be threatened with being reported to Judge Spear before they would make even scant admissions against Finch.

The first witness, a young man named Bradley, was fencing with Assistant District Attorney Storrs, and evading and denying questions which it was self evident he could answer frankly. "You may think it is a very bright thing to suppress evidence," said Judge Spear by way of warning the witness to remember his oath to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

Other witnesses called for the prosecution had to be coaxed. "Speak out," the judge told Joe Reasley. "Nobody is going to inflict any deadly weapon upon you in the court room if you tell the truth, but something may happen to you later if you don't."

The Jacksonville liquor man who shipped the booze to Finch brought the orders and copies of the bills in response to a subpoena duces tecum. He admitted that the stuff was shipped as "gin," "drugs," and under other names which were not under the ban as whiskey was at that time.

Judge Spear didn't say what he will do to Finch. The court took the matter of punishment under advisement.—Savannah News.

Clark-Bland

On Nov. 23d, last, Mr. D. C. Bland, of Blitch, and Miss Fannie Clark, of Portals, were united in marriage at the home of Judge M. E. Cannon, the ceremony being performed by the Judge.

The congratulations of a host of friends are extended to them.

New Business Firm.

Heroism Costs Missouri Congressman His Life.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 23.—In a vain effort to save the life of his little grandson, Congressman David A. De Armound of the Sixth Missouri district perished in a fire that destroyed his home in Butler, Mo., early today.

His act of heroism became known late this afternoon when his body was found, his arms locked around the blackened and burned body of the little boy. He had caught up the six-year-old lad, David A. ("Waddie") De Armound, Jr., and rushed with him through the flames that filled his room. He fell with his unconscious burden and both sank through the floor to death.

What makes the tragedy unusually pathetic is the fact that the boy was his grandfather's idol. The two were inseparable and often slept together. Last night the boy went to his grandfather's house as usual and after a happy evening the two retired. The next early today, when, from behind the smoke and flames that enveloped the house, the boy screamed: "Oh, grandpa, get me out of here, quick. I'm burning to death."

"Yes, son; don't be afraid; grandpa will take you out," was the reply.

Then both went down to their death.

Did you ever stop to think that we can save you from 15 to 25 per cent on your purchases. The Racket Store

New Mail Service Asked for.

A petition is in circulation asking the postoffice department to put a mail service on the S. A. & N. train and pouch from here to Portals and Aaron. The petition was readily signed by everyone to whom it was presented. This is a much needed service and we trust that the postal authorities will see their way clear to establish the service.

The Greatest of ### These is Charity.

The stewards of the Methodist church, of Newnan have come forward promptly to vindicate the character of Rev. Dr. B. J. Bigham, of the Methodist conference, whose appointment to an August pastorate was protested by the governing body of the latter church. Dr. Bigham has been in charge of the Newnan church during the year now drawing to a close, and his character is well known to those who have come forward in his defense.

It was delicate and touching tribute which these Newnan citizens paid to the exemplary life of their pastor and one which should silence the criticisms of those who would revive the memory of faults forgotten.

It was not in keeping with the teachings of the Nazarene to pursue with unrelenting persistence the man who in the frailness of our common humanity has committed a fault. There was no unpardonable turpitude in the conduct of Dr. Bigham, and there could have been no manner atonement than the frankness with which he confessed his fault and pledged himself to a steeper course of conduct for the future. To this resolution he has adhered with admirable fidelity and has firmly established himself in the confidence and esteem of those who know him best.

Neither Christianity nor humanity can profit by a severity which would "shut the gates of mercy on mankind," while, on the other hand, there abideth faith, hope and charity—and the greatest of these is charity.—Atlanta Journal.

Agricultural School Notes.

BY DORA POWELL.

Mrs. Julia Bozeman and her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Saxon, of Hawkinsville, came Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with their daughter and sister, Miss Estelle Bozeman, of our faculty. We are delighted to have them with us.

We had a delightful Thanksgiving. Plenty of turkey was provided by our capable assistant domestic science teacher, Miss Jordan. We had as guests for the dinner, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Barr.

Things are fine at our school. Our new principal, Prof. Dickens, is a busy man. He is planning many improvements on the campus and farm. What a great school we will have when the plans are carried out.

Miss Mullins, our new English teacher, has won our hearts. She is a fine instructor and popular with the students.

Allen Turner spent Thanksgiving at home.

Mrs. J. A. Bance visited her two children, Arthur and Lela, Wednesday.

Our students are delighted to know that Prof. Dickens and trustee, Mr. Miller, have secured Miss Mary Cone as another addition to our faculty.

This is our last month of the fall term. We are expecting many new students for the spring term, which opens January 5th.

Penn Myrick will leave this evening for a few days at his home in Pembroke.

The 9th and 10th grades will have their class night, on Saturday night. A play will be rendered entitled, "His Old Sweetheart."

Mr. Dickens has already made many improvements here, hired more servants, cleared the campus and is planning to set out pecan trees and shrubbery.

Will Retire from Business.

On January 1st there will be a change in the business now run as W. B. Martin & Bro. At that time Mr. W. B. Martin, the senior member of the firm, will sell to his younger brother, Mr. Joe Ben Martin, and the firm will be known as Martin Bros. Mr. Martin will take a year's rest after a long and successful business career, after which it is his intention to again enter actively into business of some kind.

CLAXTON WOMAN

MANGLED BY TRAIN.

Anxiety About Grandchild
Leads to Death of Mrs. Mary Hall.

Claxton, Ga., Nov. 23.—Mrs. Mary Hall, wife of Joseph Hall, a prominent citizen of this place, was struck by Seaboard Air Line passenger train No. 74, this morning, near her residence in West Claxton.

Mrs. Hall had sent her little granddaughter, 5 years old, over to the residence of Mrs. Alice Watkins, who lived just across the railroad, to borrow some iron. Hearing the train approaching, she became uneasy about the child and ran out to see if she was coming home.

Seeing the child on the opposite side of the track she attempted to cross, when she was struck by the engine just as she was leaving the track. She was knocked 30 feet and was dead when reached a few seconds after being hit.

Examination by Drs. Miller and Daniel showed that Mrs. Hall was terribly mangled, one leg broken in two places, one arm broken, neck broken and skull broken. The engine was in charge of Engineer Gelsby, and was running 30 to 45 miles an hour. Mrs. Hall leaves her husband and two sons and two daughters.

NEW CAFE

My friends in Bulloch and adjoining counties are cordially invited to call on me when they visit the city. I have opened a nice place at No. 416 Liberty West, near the Central Depot where I am prepared to serve my friends with the best to be had under the Savannah Prohibition laws. When in town come to see me.

Old Winner.

The highest class attractions, the greatest acts, specialties, and performances procurable in the Old and New World are shown in the Sun Brothers' Greater Progressive Shows this season.

This popular amusement is now on its 17th annual tour and is breaking all records in giving immense satisfaction with the performance presented. As in all past seasons, the Mesdames Sun Brothers have again provided attractions for the children, and this season the little folks will find everything done with an eye to their amusement, comfort and gratification.

Among the acts and features that will be sure to meet with their approval are the celebrated troupe of Sun Military and Comedy elephants that do everything but talk and near approach that impossibility. Then comes the clowns, here will be found jokers, jesters and comic fellows of every kind to be possibly engaged.

There are some twenty in number, who appear in all original entertainments. Every pantomime performance, every audacious antic, every playful prank, every tumbling trick of the aggregation of fun artists has been designed with a view to the complete understanding of every child.

Then there are the great number of educated Iceland and Shetland ponies, the clever cannie actors, the trained sheep, the comical trick mules and wonderful educated monkeys and baboons. These animal actors all have exploits out of the ordinary. Among the big acts will be found such artists as the La Paque Troupe, a company of European Trempin triple bar exploiters, their thrilling performances on the triple bars have been equalled. It is different from all others and easily the most astounding, most amazing Trempin triple bar act ever seen. Among the others will be found Francis J. Boyle and Company (4) people in a new act styled in "Clabdom" and "Hoopland."

It is claimed for these people that they are the most dexterous club and hoop manipulators of the universe. Harvey and Adams, Sisters Wenzell, the Linsley trio, the Atlas troupe, the Avalon trio, Miss Josephine, Jack and Belle Young, E. Kirke, Adams and Co., Fred Kennon, Jack Murray, Fredrick Wright, A. C. Williams, the great Arthur, Sisters Ortans, Walter and Minnie Ashborne, William O'Dale and others.

The musical feature with this show is a strong one, Gerlach's military band and orchestra. There are twenty-one men in this musical aggregation. All have been chosen from some of the best bands in this country. Individually, most of them are soloists of known ability. In the introductory concert given afternoon and evening previous to the "main show" performances, varied programmes—both popular and classic—will be rendered.

This big, up-to-date amusement event will pitch its tents at Statesboro for one day only, representing matinee and night performances. At 1:30 o'clock, as a prelude to the excellent exhibition to be given, will be offered free to the public a number of startling free-outdoor fete and performances. It is promised that these free reviews are not of the old style hackneyed kind, but all new and of great variety.
