All over. Forget it and go to work.
Indications point to the "Price" in agriculture colors being marked down to 85c on account of the late shade of Brown.

They've found a "joker" in the new eight hour law. As a matter of fact about half the laws enacted are jokes in so far as being enforced is concerned.

Dorsey is like unto the Kaiser; he fought a single handed battle against the field and in the first round won. It remains to be seen how long he will occupy his trench.

The political upheaval in Chatham and the First district who turned the Savannah Morning News upside down on some of its pages. Must have been some of the local news that they didn't want to read.

The elimination of whiskey and funds from opposing sides piled one against the other has done more to bring about the result that is recorded in this last election than any one thing that may be advanced as an argument and we hope that it will grow in power as time advances.

The first district voters put the "Over" in Overstreet all right, all right. Webster defines the first syllable of his name as "superior in position, authority, dignity, excellence, or value; above; upon; across; covering; more than; adv. from beginning to end; from one to another; from side to side; in excess; n. the surface; throughout; adj. beyond; superior; n. in cricket, the number of balls delivered by one bowler."

He didn't mention politics.
His GREAT OPPORTUNITY Hugh M. Dorsey, one of the youngest men ever elevated to the highest office within the gift of the people of the state goes to his official duties with one of the largest majority votes ever registered, stamping him the choice of the people from one end of the state to the other.
It is said that in the affairs of men, there is a tide etc. It is Mr. Dorsey's opportunity and we hope to see him flow with the tide.

MAJORITY RULES
The mooted question of the popular vote was ruled by the first district Congressional Committee to replace the county unit rule has had its fair trial and the people have spoken and in no uncertain voice. This paper stated when these rules were changed that WE believed in the majority rule from the presidency down and we have not altered from that view either; we did regret however that the change was made at a moment when the action of those empowered to rule could in any manner be questioned.
Could the ruling have been made with the announcement of the primary date, then all would have been on an even keel and many harsh and unkind words would have been eliminated from the campaign, and personal bitterness between friends of the opposing candidates avoided.

Clean politics, fair politics, is what this country is sadly in need of to save it from itself. The political advertising that has filled the columns of the Savannah daily papers since former Mayor Davant of that city died, and that which has been carried in the weekly press of several congressional districts has been for and unmanly. This paper refrains from taking sides with political enemies; we want to see every politician put his platform and promises before an intelligent people and then let them digest it, for in the end the people rule. We abhor the use of slush money in politics and nothing will turn us quicker against a politician, than the discovery of such a method and when it is discovered we feel we can in our feeble way register our individual protest by the only right method that should be in effect in elections, a free and untrammelled vote.

WORKING ON SALARY
(From Saturday Evening Post) Broadly speaking, the inhabitants of the United States subsist on farming and on pay checks; but half of those engaged in agriculture are hired hands too; so it comes round pretty largely to the pay envelope.

Apparently salaried positions are increasing, and salaries are increasing also. That is certainly true of manufactures. Recently the Census Bureau published its report on manufactures in 1914. It shows nearly a million salaried employees, which is well toward three times the number in 1899. Comparisons show that salaried employees steadily increase in a much greater ratio than wage-earners. From 1899 to 1904 the former increased forty-three per cent and the latter only sixteen per cent.
From 1904 to 1909 the respective increases were fifty-two per cent and twenty-one per cent. From 1909 to 1914 they were twenty-two per cent and six per cent.

Salaries have increased in an even higher ratio, the percentage of gain in total salary payments for the three periods being fifty-one, sixty-three, thirty-seven. In 1899 the average salary was ten hundred and forty-six dollars a year.
In 1914 it was thirteen hundred and thirty-six dollars—comparing with an average wage of five hundred and eighty dollars. To put it another way, in 1899 five and a quarter dollars was paid in wages for every dollar paid in salaries, while in 1914 only three and an eighth dollars in salaries.

Time was when ownership of a business was the goal of normal young ambition, and a lot of nonsense has been written about the superior independence, certainty of tenure and opportunity for advancement that ownership is supposed to imply. On the whole, the profits of small ownership are decidedly uncertain, while twenty thousand commercial failures last year, nearly all of small concerns, indicate the precarious nature of the tenure.

Nowadays an ever-expanding salary list—whose only limit, as to the amounts paid in specific cases, is the sky—offers young ambition its most inviting field in about ninety cases out of a hundred.
A large part of the real prosperity of the United States is found along the upper ranges of the pay roll.

DAILY WAGE SCALE
The railroads of the United States employ 350,000 section hands who walk their beat in storm and rain and whose brawn and brain make possible our great transportation systems. Their compensation is not sufficient to feed and clothe children and their bright-faced children are sentenced by American civilization to a life of ignorance and poverty.

These employees are as important, as efficient and as loyal as many of the higher wage employees and their condition should also be reviewed by Congress.
The farmers stand for a fair wage to both labor and capital engaged in handling the products of the soil from the time they leave the hands of the farmer until they reach the ultimate consumer. This applies not only to transportation but to all industries engaged in serving the agricultural interests of this nation. We favor an eight hour working day for all those who labor, with as large a compensation as business conditions justify.

For my part, I question the wisdom of Congress fixing wages of labor employed by private enterprises. I doubt if it is in the interest of either labor, capital or the people to make the wage schedule of railroad employees a political issue.
But be that as it may, we have passed that legislative milepost and organized labor now stands committed to government regulation of wages and Congress has thrust upon the people of this nation a new responsibility.

FARMER
There is one class of citizens whose condition is worse than that of the most lowly railroad laborer and that is the farmer. We have in this nation six and a half million farms and they yield the farmers who operate them, according to the Federal Department of Agriculture, $1.47 per day out of which must be paid the living expenses of the family.
There are four and a half million male farm laborers in the United States who earn $1.35 per day and a million and a half women farm laborers who make 78 cents per day when they board themselves and out of this meager earning they must care for those dependent upon them. All those who work upon the farm labor from 12 to 14 hours per day.

CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS
To the Voters of Bulloch County:
About ten years ago I was elected by the people of this district to fill the unexpired term in Congress caused by the death of Hon. Rufus E. Lester, and, although the term was short, being only three months, I feel deeply grateful to the people for the honor bestowed upon me. Two years ago I made the race against Mr. Edwards and received a very large vote, for which I expressed my sincere thanks as the close of the campaign.

For the past three months I have been receiving a large number of letters from my friends in different parts of the district, urging me to announce myself for Congress again. I visited a number of times and ascertained for myself that the sentiment was very strong for me to make the race, and in response to this demand several weeks ago I announced through the columns of the Savannah Press that I was again a candidate for Congress. I, therefore, take this method of announcing my friends in Bulloch county that I am a candidate for Representative from the First Congressional District in the 6th Congress of the United States, subject to the Democratic primary, and respectfully solicit your support and influence.

Very Respectfully,
J. W. OVERSTREET

To the Citizens of Bulloch County: In this manner I beg to announce my candidacy for re-election to the office of representative from Bulloch county, in the General Assembly, for 1917-1918.

I am deeply grateful to the people for their support in the past, and I assure you that I shall very much value your vote and influence in the approaching primary, to be held September 12th, next.

Yours very truly,
FRED T. LANIER

There is one class of citizens whose
the Federal Department of Agricul-
paid the living expenses of the family.
earn $1.35 per day and a million and a half women farm laborers who make 78
cents per day when they board themselves and out of this meager earning
farm labor from 12 to 14 hours per day.

To the Voters of Bulloch County:
About ten years ago I was elected
unexpired term in Congress caused by the death of Hon. Rufus E. Lester,
and, although the term was short, being only three months, I feel deeply
bestowed upon me. Two years ago I
and received a very large vote, for
as the close of the campaign.

been receiving a large number of let-
number of times and ascertained for my-
response to this demand several weeks
ago I announced through the columns
a candidate for Congress. I, therefore,

and influence.

BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Has less meat if kidneys feel like lead or bladder bothers you—Must turn to acid.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headache, rheumatic twinges, scurvy liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it is no longer irritating, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, laxative; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications. A well-known local druggist says he has sold a lot of Jad Salts recently, and is overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

AUTO DEALERS MUST ATTEND TO WANTS OF THE CAR OWNER

"The best definition of service, as applied to my automobile business, is the making of satisfied users," said F. C. Parker, who handles the Overland and Willys-Knight cars in this territory. "The average car owner demands nothing more than courteous treatment from the man of whom he purchases his machine and if he needs are taken care of quickly and economically, he will in almost every case continue to favor the dealer with his patronage."

"In many respects automobile service is no different from that of hotel service. A hotelier who boasts of the best chef in the world, but if the service is poor, the guests will soon become dissatisfied and the chances are that the next time those people visit the town they will select a different place. The relations between car owner and dealer are very much the same. The owner will continue to do business with a dealer as long as he is charged with a fair price for the service rendered. By doing so you will make of him a friend for life."

"That is why it is a good business policy for the dealer to pay strict attention to the wants of the car owner. And if a stranger drops in the sales room to inquire about some mechanical feature of the car you are handling, make him feel before he leaves that it is a pleasure to be rendered such service. A little attention and courtesy on your part may mean the sale of a car later on."

"The same treatment should be accorded the car owner when he drives in for any needed repairs or replacements. See that his wants are taken care of promptly and efficiently and he is charged with only a fair price for the service rendered. By doing so you will make of him a friend for life."

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of leftover waste, toxins and ptomaine-like poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside medicine. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject. Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweats and freshens the skin, so water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

This gathering of the government farm agents is planned for discussion of conditions existing in the territories covered by the different agents and to exchange ideas which may be applied toward grappling the various subjects which are now confronting certain sections of Georgia as relates to bull weevil. It is probable that a smoker will be tendered the visiting agents by the Board of Trade at which the Executive Committee and Board of Directors of the packing plant will be special guests with a view of becoming personally acquainted with the different agents who it is realized can be of inestimable value to the various farmers of their respective territories to market their hogs in Statesboro. ### Iowa Beer Hounds. Ga. Liquor Hounds

Different Tastes But Same Breed of Dog

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 14.—The new breed of dogs known as "beer hounds" which have been perfected in the city of Des Moines, Iowa, for the purpose of hunting down blind tigers, etc., haven't got a thing on the corn liquor hounds right here in the city of Atlanta.

The difference between the beer hounds of Des Moines and the corn liquor hounds of Atlanta is that the former walk on four legs, cannot talk and are denied the satisfaction of a drink when they run their prey to earth; whereas the corn liquor hound of this vicinity is a two-legged creature which can speak the English language when occasion demands, and never fails to regale himself with a drink on catching his prey.

The beer hounds of Des Moines work in co-operation and conjunction with the police authorities of that city as an aid to law enforcement, while the corn liquor hounds of Atlanta have nothing in common with the helpful minions of the law.

Des Moines beer hounds may be able to smell a cold bottle of "Old Style" farther than a corn liquor hound of Atlanta can scent a pint of the stuff that makes you fight your daddies; but one thing is certain; he won't get to the beer any quicker than his Atlanta contemporary will get to the liquor.

NOT ENOUGH CHILDREN

ever receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish both body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and need it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood, to change weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong.

Uncle Asa in Office

No More Fear of Delayed Pay-Days

Atlanta, Ga., September 14.—Why should city employees of Atlanta worry their minds about their salaries? You may think at first blush, gentle reader, that this sounds like a foolish question, but it's not. You may say to yourself, "Why, indeed, should they worry? Can't Atlanta pay her salaries?"

"Why, indeed?" would be quite correct, if it were not for the fact that Atlanta's municipal treasury ran clean out of money on the first of this good month of September, and firemen, policemen, school teachers and others didn't know when or from whence their money was coming. But their worry was soon ended, and they will never return again; hence the opening query.

For on the first of September the Fourth National Bank of Atlanta, which carries the largest deposits of any national bank in the state, came to the rescue with a loan of $75,000 to meet payroll, and it won't be long until Asa G. Candler goes in office as mayor, and therefore, as inquired at the outset, "Why should the city employees worry?"

POPE RE-ELECTED HEAD OF FARMERS UNION PRESIDENTS

New Orleans, La., Sept. 12.—Henry N. Pope of Fort Worth, president of the Farmers' Union of Texas, was re-elected president of the Association of State Presidents of Farmers Unions, at the meeting here last week.

O. P. Gord of McCall, Ala., was re-elected vice president, and I. N. McCollister of Many, La., was re-elected secretary-treasurer. The association affirmed President Pope's stand in opposing the eight-hour law recently enacted by congress and passed resolutions approving his messages sent President Wilson asking that the entire labor controversy be arbitrated.

An agricultural transportation commission was created for the purpose of studying the transportation problem from the standpoint of the farmer.

The keynote of the convention was cooperation. All agencies seeking to aid agriculture were invited to work through farm organization. The principal work of the organization during the next year will be to improve present marketing methods through better storage and financial facilities and to otherwise promote the business side of farming.

Cotton Will Go Highest Since Civil War

Prediction of Charles R. Porter of N. Y. Formerly of Ga.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 14.—That cotton would shortly go to 15 cents a pound was the confident prediction made in Atlanta a few days ago by Charles R. Porter, president of the Consolidated Petroleum Corporation and a former Georgian, and his prediction has already come true sooner than he predicted. Mr. Porter has made a brilliant financial success in New York and is a firm believer in the wonderful future of the south, being a native Georgian and a Dixie enthusiast. It is his opinion that cotton will go higher at the close of the European war than it has ever been since the period following the Civil war.

DEATHS

W. A. Parrish, a well-known and prominent citizen of eastern Emanuel county, aged about 60 years, died September 8th at his home of heart failure. Mr. Parrish awoke at an early hour and walked out on the porch of his home seating himself in a chair and expired in a very few moments. He is survived by nine grown children. The funeral was attended by sorrowing friends and relatives of the family from many miles around.

John Wiley Phillips, aged 43, died Sunday morning, Sept. 10, as the result of being kicked by a mule while he was attending. Mr. Phillips was a well-known resident of Emitt and is survived by his wife and five children.

The infant child of D. Brannen of West Main street died last week after suffering for some several months without relief. Interment was made in Lotts Creek cemetery.

Evans County Resident

A. L. DeLoach residing in Evans county, that section which formerly was part of Bulloch, was a Statesboro visitor Saturday one of the optimists of this section who see great strides that will be made in the next few years. ### NATIONAL PAY-UP-WEEK OCT 2-7TH

$1.00 Per Year

Famous $55,000,000 Cotton Tax

Will in All Probability Never Be Refunded

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 21.—The many efforts which have been made to secure from the United States government a refund of the $55,000,000 cotton tax collected shortly after the Civil War have all been based upon the mistaken idea that the United States supreme court held the cotton tax to be unconstitutional.

The facts, which have just been cleared up, are these:

In 1899 a Mr. Farrington of Memphis sought to enjoin the collector of internal revenue in that district, whose name was Saunders, from collecting the cotton tax, on the ground that the law creating the tax was unconstitutional. The court held that the law was constitutional and the case of Farrington vs. Saunders was taken to the United States supreme court on December 6, 1897. On February 20, 1871, the supreme court decided the case. The vote of the eight judges was evenly divided, four and four, and the effect of this tie was to uphold the constitutionality of the tax.

At that time, when the vote of the judges was evenly divided and no opinion was written, the case was not decided in the supreme court reports.

For this reason the case does not appear in the reports and is not mentioned in the index digests of the reports.

Georgians and southerners who have interested themselves in securing a refund of the tax, on the idea that it had been declared unconstitutional, will doubtless regret to learn that all their efforts along this line will be in vain.
