LET US DO YOUR JOB PRINTING

A Special Message

This is the fifth year of the BROOKS SIMMONS CO., and during these years of construction, our one great AIM and EFFORT has been to please YOU—to PLEASE each and every one of our valued customers; not only to please YOU but to CONSERVE YOUR RESOURCES by giving YOU high grade values at the minimum prices. The kind words and new customers gained thru this policy has been GOLDEN ADVERTISING. On this we have built our successful business. This is a frank statement, possibly a little out of the ordinary, but it is a FACT. It has paid US and it has paid our CUSTOMERS.

A year ago when there was no indication of the great European war being brought to an end—WE anticipated just what has happened NOW. Everything we use and wear has soared in cost price to 100 per cent and in some instances, very much more.

To meet this condition that we knew was CERTAIN to come, WE took advantage of every opportunity that was presented to US by the large manufacturing concerns supplying staple goods offering US selling prices THEN at figures not NOW possible. WE got in the game and stocked to our limit to be shipped at our future orders. So much for STAPLE GOODS.

NOW—Every woman knows that the early shopper gets the choicest creations, so WE got to the FASHION CENTER, New York City, very early and WE bought in many instances READY-TO-WEAR goods from Fashion Plate designs even before they were made up.

WE paid CASH—bought on DISCOUNTS and in every conceivable manner procured our 1916-1917 stock on the CLOSEST margin that OUR long experience and intimate business relations and associates in New York could help us to.

The Goods are Here at old prices Ready For You.

AND DO NOT LOSE SIGHT OF THIS PERTINENT FACT AND ASSURANCE. That NOTWITHSTANDING this period of SCARE prices on everything, BROOKS SIMMONS CO. are offering ALL of their 1916-1917 MAGNIFICENTLY designed WOMENS TAILORED SUITS and EXCLUSIVE Models in MILLINERY at POSITIVELY NO HIGHER PRICES than prevailed a year ago, and WE will maintain this price policy throughout the ENTIRE Fall and Holiday period, with the confident belief that with the good prices now obtaining for COTTON and other farm products our friends who were FORCED into shouldering heavy obligations during the business depression of the last two years, may NOW be enabled to practically clear up their indebtedness and that they may NOW avail themselves of OUR remarkably LOW sales prices and OUR MARVELOUSLY extensive ASSORTMENT of Fashions Dictates in the NEWEST MODELS of wearing apparel.

PROSPERITY HERE BOOM IS ON THE SOUTH IS COMING TO ITS OWN

The boom is here. The South never was so prosperous as it will be during the ensuing twelve months.

Sixteen-cent cotton means more money to Southern farmers than ever before for that one crop, in spite of the reduced yield. Orange Judd Southern Farming will say this week.

In addition to cotton, Southern farmers have this year made more money than ever before. Every bushel of it is worth a dollar, either to feed or to sell in the local home market.

More wheat has been raised in the South during 1916 than in any previous year.

The same is true of oats, rye, barley, buckwheat.

Tobacco may net more money to Southern growers than for years.

New Era For Live Stock

Dairying also has increased more this year than ever, throughout the South. The production and consumption of whole milk are increasing by leaps and bounds, relatively speaking.

More butter is being made and sold here in the South than ever before.

Feeding for beef shows gratifying gains. The number of cattle on feed, summer and winter pasture is greater than ever, with more forage and roughage for winter feeding.

More grain for fattening. Many purchases are being made throughout the South of pure-bred beef cattle with which to improve the common stock.

The campaign against cattle tick is opening up a new era in live stock husbandry.

Our farmers have learned that they can make pork more cheaply in many parts of the South than it can be produced in other regions.

Fruits and vegetables also show substantial gains in yields, prices and profits.

Immense Prosperity Here

This great wave of agricultural prosperity is a natural sequence to the increased diversification which has been characteristic of Southern agriculture in the past few years.

Along with all this improvement in the production, distribution, marketing and price of Southern farm products, has come a gradual improvement in the farmer's methods as applied to his finances and business.

Thousands of Southern farmers already have made themselves independent of the crop lien system. Others have paid off their mortgages.

A Further Gigantic Impetus to improve financial conditions among Southern farmers is afforded by the Federal farm loan system. With money obtained through it, long time and on easy terms, many farmers forthwith will be able to make long contemplated improvements, such as drainage, fencing, clearing land, enriching it with fertilizer or with manure, putting up better buildings, getting better stock.

While it will be some months before the new system is fully established, this easing up of many a farmer's finances, coming on top of the other gains he has made in the production, marketing and sale of his regular crops, means that during the next twelve months, our farmers will be in a position to make more improvements and larger economic progress than ever before in a like period.

The Spirit that Moves Mountains

Of still greater significance is the renewed earnestness of spirit among all the folks on our farms and in the rural homes throughout the South. This spirit takes several forms:

The ideal of service, of co-operation, of working together, is more active than ever before.

The individual adult, male or female, is inspired with a fresh ambition to do more and be more, to farm better and to live better.

Even greater is the enthusiasm among the younger people. Boys and girls from 12 to 20, young men and women from 20 to 30, are wonderfully enthusiastic for improved agricultural and farm life. Even the little children have caught the spirit of zest, as shown by the work of the children's clubs in raising pigs, poultry, fruit, canning, etc.

To our mind, this spirit, this determination, this eagerness in old and young for better farming, mean even more to the South than all the wealth which is pouring into her coffers from the products of her farms and factories. For everyone knows that all kinds of manufacturing—cotton, iron, steel and merchandise—were never so prosperous throughout the South as at present.

Given more means to do with, in addition to this rejuvenated spirit which of itself is sufficient to move mountains, there is no limit to the extent to which Southern farmers may better themselves right off now.
