R. LEE MOORE'S COTTON FIELD ELECTROCUTED

About Fourteen Acres Blighted By Lightning

Mr. J. M. Beck, Route 3, who works the farm of Mr. R. Lee Moore, is sorely distressed over his misfortune caused by the very severe electrical storm last Monday night, when for upwards of a quarter of an hour, it seemed to play exclusively over his sixteen acre field of cotton and struck the ground in various places. The following morning Mr. Beck inspected his field and to his great surprise found that practically fourteen acres had been entirely ruined; he pulled several dozen stalks from all directions of the field and brought them to town as evidence of the lightning work. Several people have personally investigated the phenomena and pronounced it unusual. Mr. Moore is absent from the city and until his return his tenant is undecided what to do in the matter. Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. Beck by his neighbors.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic illness and often shortens life.

It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength.

Scott's Emulsion is strengthening thousands of debilitated and will help you. No alcohol, no sugar, no dyes, no chemicals.

ANOTHER PREPARED DIXIE HIGHWAY DINNER AT SWAINSBORO

T. Coleman, S. S. Moore; Laurens county, W. W. Larsen, C. B. Caldwell, D. R. Coleman; Twiggs county, H. F. Griffin, J. Hunter Johnston, W. C. Falk; Johnson county, M. C. Carter, Z. T. Houser, J. C. Wiggins.

It turned out to be a real enthusiastic Bulloch county meeting for good roads. Those Dixie Highway meals are coming to savor of many a little pet scheme of their promoters with pulling and hauling this and that direction to pass by some particular person's home or land or land company's holdings.

If each county of this proposed eastern branch highway would, irrespective of the other, come down to the horse sense plan, and fix ALL their roads, selecting the two best routes that will connect with the two best routes of their adjoining county, via the shortest route thru the most desirable territory, the Dixie Highway committee will sit up and take notice. Affairs of the cooked and dried sort as at Louisville and Swainsboro are productive of too much hot mustard, causing irritable combustion and valuable time lost.

A VETERINARY HOSPITAL FOR STATESBORO SOON TO BE ESTABLISHED

Statesboro will have a real professional animal hospital established early this fall with the return to town of Dr. B. F. Jones, who, for some weeks now, has been at the Outland stables as his headquarters and office. This is a much needed institution for Statesboro and surrounding territory for notwithstanding the wonderful march of the automobile, the good old horse is still our dependable friend and needs the same hospital care as does the auto when out of commission and we bespeak for Dr. Jones a successful career in Statesboro.

For any itching skin trouble, piles, eczema, salt rheum, hives, itch, scald head, herpes, scabies, Doan's Ointment is highly recommended. 50c a box at all stores.—Adv.

THE 4TH AT HOME

An Interesting Program Prepared for Monday, 2 p. m.

Court House Grounds

Let's all stay home and celebrate in our own quiet way with due dignity the ever glorious Fourth of July. It behooves all of the grown ups to teach the growing generation just what July 4th means to our nation. The ladies of the Civic League, in conjunction with the Municipal Band, have arranged an appropriate program of exercises and music of a patriotic nature.

Judge H. B. Strange will deliver the address of the occasion and he is rich in historic knowledge that will be imparted to his hearers in the sentiment with which the day will abound. Mr. Charles Pigue, a young attorney who has recently located in Statesboro, will read the famous document, the Declaration of Independence, with which so few of this younger generation are acquainted.

The occasion will mark the initial appearance of the Municipal Band who have been studying but a few weeks and in that period have mastered the art sufficiently to "foot" their horses in celebration of this eventful day and for the progress of Statesboro. The following program will be given:

Introduction—Dr. A. J. Mooney. Invocation—Rev. J. S. Singleton. America—Vocal Chorus, assemblage accompanied by both Band and Orchestra.

March—Statesboro Band. Reading of the Declaration of Independence—Mr. Charles Pigue. Vocal Solo, Selected—Mrs. G. E. Curran.

Address—Hon. H. B. Strange. Dixie—Vocal Chorus, Band and Orchestra.

Star Spangled Banner—Combined Chorus of Choirs, Assemblage, Band and Orchestra.

Benediction—Rev. Mr. Alabiah. Orchestra concert three to five P. M. during which time the ladies of the Civic League will serve ice cream, cake, etc., the proceeds of which will go to assist in city beautification, purchase of uniforms for the band, etc. Be generous this day and help build up the local civic associations, your band and your town.

SERIOUS CONDITIONS IN MEXICO

British Diplomat Reports Situation As Critical

Washington, D. C., June 28.—Official dispatches sent by the British charge d'affaires at Mexico City by courier to Vera Cruz and from there cabled to the State Department, today pictured conditions in the Mexican capital as extremely critical.

The Zapataists holding the city with about 25,000 men, were reported by the courier to have repulsed last Wednesday an attacking Carranza army under General Gonzales while Gen. Carranza was dispatching all available men to reinforce Gonzales and continue the assault. An announcement to-night by the State Department said:

"Conditions in Mexico City are not reassuring, according to reports. Communication is still interrupted, and Gen. Carranza is rushing all available men to reinforce Gonzales and continue the assault. An announcement to-night by the State Department said:

OUR COUNTRY AS IT IS TODAY

DOCUMENT THAT MADE A NATION

Text of the Immortal Declaration of Independence With Which All Americans Should Be Familiar.

WHEN, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident—that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Providence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly, all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object, the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these states. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his assent to laws the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. He has forbidden his governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and, when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them. He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature; a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only. He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable and distant from the depository of the public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures. He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people. He has kept among us, in time of peace, standing armies, without the consent of our legislatures. He has affected to render the military independent of and superior to the civil power. He has combined, with others, to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws, giving us a right of trial by a jury of our peers. For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us; For protecting them by a mock trial, from punishment for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these states; For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world; For imposing taxes on us without our consent;

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury; For transporting us beyond the seas to be tried for pretended offenses; For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitrary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies. He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us. He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burned our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people. He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation and tyranny, already begun, with circumstances of cruelty and perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the head of a civilized nation. He has constrained our fellow-citizens, taken captive on the high seas, to bear arms against their country, to become the executors of their friends and brethren, or to fall themselves by their hands. He has excited domestic insurrections among us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions. In every stage of these oppressions we have petitioned for redress in the most humble terms; our repeated petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A prince whose character is thus marked by every act, who is thus marked by every act, who may define a tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people. Nor have we been wanting in attention to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts made by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them, by the ties of our common kindred, to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too, have been deaf to the voice of justice and consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity which denounces our separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of Officer Reading Declaration of Independence Before the Army, mankind, enemies in war, in peace, friends.

We, therefore, the representatives of the United States of America, in general congress assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the name and by the authority of the good people of these colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent states; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British crown; and that, as free and independent states, they have full power to levy war, conclude peace, contract alliances, establish commerce, and to do all other acts and things which independent states may of right do. And, for the support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other, our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor.

The public wants Buick Sixes—so many of them that we shall build nothing else in 1916

PIONEER BUILDERS OF VALVE-IN-HEAD MOTOR CARS

Regardless of the car you buy or the price you pay, nowhere can you get greater value

More enduring than chrome vanadium steel, more wonderful than the finest workmanship, is the idea that can dominate an industry.

In this day when more Buicks are being built than ever before it is interesting to remember that the distinguishing characteristic of the Buick, the Valve-in-Head Motor, has existed as an idea for twenty-five years and been built into Buick cars for thirteen years.

From 1903 to 1907 the Buick Valve in Head was a two cylinder engine. From 1908 to 1914 four cylinders dominated the field and the Buick Valve-in-Head Four dominated other types. The Buick Valve-in Head Six was first put on the market in 1913. Fours were also continued—but the Valve-in-Head Six had stirred the imagination of the car-buying public. The demand from the start outpaced the production.

This demand has become so overwhelming that now—for 1916—the Four gives way to Sixes. Two chassis, both Sixes, with roadster, touring car, coupe, sedan bodies. The Six has been made standard because in the Six the Valve-in-Head idea has its greatest opportunity for service.

Also since the first appearance of the Buick Six there has risen an insistent demand for smaller Buick sixes.

The Six is a natural, logical, efficient form for the Valve-in-Head type. Never before has the Valve-in-Head idea had such inadequate materialization.

This year the Buick factory is arranged for Sixes exclusively. The production will be large. Demand necessitates a steady stream of Buick trains leaving the factory during the season.

And the power, Economy, Dependability and comfort of 1916 Buick Sixes justify this demand more than ever. Study the specifications and you'll see why.

The Beautiful Knight School

Recent improvements have made this school a beauty. The first of this past school year, this house was not, had the old time home made desks; was out in the forest with wire grass growing right up to the door. A wonderful transformation has since taken place.

They secured a live energetic young teacher who secured the hearty cooperation of the patrons and citizens of this school district, and they began a forward movement that resulted in the accomplishment of a wonderful improvement for one school year. By giving a box supper, money was raised and enough to spare to buy a good wire fence and steel post upon which to put the wire. Now, the house is painted inside and out. A good wire fence stretched around the school yard and everything else spick and span.

One feature that is worthy of note at this school; they have a pump which gives the pupils their water supply. Around this is concrete so arranged as to carry away all the surface water. This is to be noticed by many of our schools that have neglected the sanitary water supply.

"Too, they have good single patent desk, well arranged. This makes the house complete. But they still need a few more things in the way of equipment; such as maps, charts, globes and a good library. Patrons, suppose you begin to plan for these to be added next term. I believe you will see that they are added. Then you will be fixed for the royal battle."

Every school building in the county will appear in the papers sooner or later. Are you satisfied with your school building and its equipment? If you are not, why not let us get busy and make it what it should be? We are willing to help you to make your school what it should be. Your children deserve that they have as good as the best. Let us see that they get it.

It is time that the teachers of this county secure the schools they desire to teach. We will have to secure teachers from elsewhere, and we do not wish to do so until all our home teachers have secured the schools they desire, that if they wish to remain in the county.

We certainly should be very careful in the selection of our teachers. Be sure that they have the scholarship and ability to do the work you need. We are now from various sources, late are plentiful and far superior in flavor to those which are shipped in from distant points.

Atlanta, July 1st. Scores of Georgians who were connected with the manufacture of a federal census of the state, through appointment made by Federal Trade Commissioner John H. Harris, are now returning to their homes, having completed the census work at Washington.

It is stated that through Mr. Harris' efforts, more Georgians have obtained positions under the federal government than before in the history of any democratic administration. Senator Harris has stood and still stands very close to the Wilson administration, and has made it a special point to see his home state obtain its share of recognition in the distribution of government positions.

Atlanta, July 1st. The past seven weeks have constituted an eventful period for Georgia, beginning with the consummation of Leo Frank and the sending him to the state prison farm, through the opening of the legislature, the inauguration of a new governor and the retirement of Governor Slaton.

Governor Harris' inaugural address was hailed with enthusiasm as promising a period of prosperity and activity for Georgia in spite of the prospects for a long drawn out struggle in Europe.

"I think there never was a time in the history of the state," said the governor, "when she had need of a more careful, painstaking, intelligent body of legislators than today. No matter how long the great European war will last, what may be the outcome of its influence on the welfare and happiness of our people by providing such legislation as may be good and serve her interests."

This week the preliminaries are over the excitement incident to the change of administration has subsided, and the legislature, in the spirit expressed in the governor's message, has settled down to a fifty day's solid work.

About Georgia and Georgians

Items of Interest Concerning People and Things in the State

Atlanta, July 1st. Steps will probably be taken by the present legislature to qualify Georgia to receive benefits from the Smith-Lever bill, which United States Senator Hoke Smith had passed in Washington, and which offers federal aid to the states for agriculture purposes.

Dr. A. M. Soule, head of the State Agriculture college at Athens, will call the situation to the attention of the Assembly. The fact has been brought out that in addition to an annual federal appropriation of $40,000, Georgia will be able to get hundreds of thousands in Federal appropriation for agricultural experimentation and instruction, if the state will appropriate duplicate a sum.

The Smith-Lever bill provides for an annually increasing appropriation through a period of six years, beginning with next year, the appropriation to be based on rural population. Should Georgia qualify at this session of the legislature, she will get $27,000 next year in addition to the $40,000 flat appropriation, while seven years from she would receive approximately $128,000 from the federal government.

Senator Hoke Smith, who made an address in Atlanta last week before the Chamber of Commerce urged that lend their influence toward the passage of the necessary measures.

Atlanta, July 1st. The melon season this year in Georgia promises to be specially fine. The cantaloupes which are beginning to be shipped into Atlanta now from various sections of the state are plentiful and far superior in flavor to those which are shipped in from distant points.

THURSDAY, JULY 1, 1915

This is the month that we all write a 'y' the beginning of every letter or bill we send out

It will be easier to fight Huerta single handed than a bunch of his followers he would crawl across the line.

When the other fellow is wrong you howl, and when you are wrong you shut up like a clam.

In this country we make strenuous efforts to grow two blades of grass where but one was grown before, while in Germany they are growing hills of potatoes where none have ever been before. Lets swap.

With judicial calmness. But they speak and say their pieces just as the people have come to realize that a couple of people who will get nearly as much space and publicity as Colonel Roosevelt, who takes the other point of view and insists upon a big navy and adequate armament for protection for the country.

Few Confidants.

President Wilson has no newspaper confidant. Unlike other presidents he does not have a few personal newspaper friends to whom he confides his opinions and occasionally gives a pointer as to some important matter.

One of two newspaper men have been able to see President Wilson alone on a few occasions. Then they have a chance to talk about affairs, and some of the things published in his opinions. But there are thirty-five newspaper men who have been able to see the president's private secretary, that he has more than a possible acquaintance with the president. Even the "commissioners" from some of the big metropolitan papers cannot get audiences and interviews, as has been the case in times past. Not even editors of newspapers have the open door at the White House.

How About the Cabinet?

The question naturally arises whether the cabinet is in contact with the members of his cabinet. If so, then he has a mighty closed mouthed lot of men about him. Few of the cabinet ever talk about anything about what the president says, nor is there much "high authority" information escaping these days, which indicates that either cabinet members do not know what is going on in the mind of the president or that they are mighty careful not to let it leak.

A Real Independent.

Great attention is expressed for the independent party man—that is, the man who is a partisan, but who is not blind to party faults and takes a firm stand for what he thinks is right. Such a man was the late Charles E. Littlefield, and he had to quit public life because he was not the right kind of a man to hold the votes of the people. He took a different stand from his party on the legislation following the Spanish war and maintained his views after the political decisions of the cabinet were made. He was not a partisan, but he was a real independent.

Both Can Get a Hearing Before American People.

WANT THEIR VIEWS KNOWN

Advocates of a Small Navy and Army Delighted at New Additions—Roosevelt's Influence on the Other Side by Party Official—President Seidenman Says Newspaper Men.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, June 28.—[Special.]—The peace people ought to be well satisfied with their recent acquisitions. They have obtained William J. Bryan, who would place in the cabinet that to his credit and talk about peace. They have obtained William H. Taft, who as president and secretary of war recommended a large increase in the army and the upbuilding of the navy.

Both of these men can get a hearing before the American people. Bryan can get more in the papers, more on the telegraph wires and plenty of opportunity to listen to him. Taft is not so fortunate in the matter of newspaper space and wire service, but he can get mention nearly every time he writes or speaks.

Want a Place in the Sun.

Both Bryan and Taft want a place in the sun. They do not want to be left hidden under any bush.

No one doubts that they know a lot about public affairs and are competent to give advice. Bryan gives his with a "rough" and Taft speaks with a "smooth" voice.

The Optimist

THE Optimist met you the other day and flooded YOUR face with sunshine, and brought joy to the hearts of your friends, and the little ones as he passed them on the street.

That smile was contagious. It spread from you to others, and kept on spreading and growing, and is still traveling from face to face somewhere in this world.

Keep on smiling; its worth much and costs nothing. It is a pearl of great price.

Is a gift which you may bestow upon others without trouble or loss to yourself, a boon to humanity which encourages, and elevates, and ennobles the giver as well as the recipient.

Be an Optimist! Smile again—and keep smiling.

The Pessimist

Pessimist is a grouch. Stand an Optimist and a Pessimist side by side, and which will command the greater respect?

It is easy for any man to be an optimist and a gentleman, and he has much to gain and nothing to lose.

It is equally easy to be a Pessimist and a grouch, with everything to lose and nothing to gain.

The Optimist has many friends and few enemies, while the pessimist has many enemies and few friends.

God smiles upon the Optimist, while the devil smiles at the Grouch.

Life is bright to the Optimist, while to the Grouch it is full of gall.

Be an OPTIMIST if you can, but DON'T be a PESSIMIST and GROUCH.

Georgia's New Chief Executive Discusses Inaugural Speech on Taking Office

PROPOSES MANY REFORMS

Advocates Compulsory Education Throughout State And Enforcement Of Law

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, gentlemen of the senate and house, ladies and gentlemen:

Under the skies of this summer day, and these historic surroundings, I come to enter upon the duties of the high office which the people of the state have conferred upon me.

To one who has lived in the commonwealth from his young manhood through a long life, attending at its public affairs and aiding in its government, it is not a new thing to be distinguished in the memory of all his fellow citizens.

It is no small honor to be governor of Georgia, and the original thirteen colonies, the Empire State of the South and the largest of the frontiers, the Empire State of the South, possessing the largest domain of any state in the Union, and with a people devoted to the principles of the democratic government, and the principles of the new country, with growing respect for the rights of the individual, and the rights of the state, and the rights of the nation, and the rights of the world.

Miss Irene Arden was hostess at a "Hook" party Wednesday afternoon in honor of the Misses Cora Lott Gladys Gover and Miss Lucile Johnson and Miss Addie Louise Knight who are charming guests in Statesboro, just now being delightedly entertained. Some thirty of Statesboro's social set met the guests at Miss Arden's and all were served with a "Georgia Peach" ice course on the spot on the porch.

One of the most charming entertainments in honor of the popular young ladies the Misses Gladys Gover, Cora Lott and Miss Lucile Johnson now visiting in Statesboro was that given by Miss Julia Dees Lee Thursday night. Miss Lee's guest consisted of seven Mary Baldwin girls and seven young men and, loyal to the Alma Mater, the color scheme of yellow and white was charmingly and daintily carried out in decorations and throughout seven elegant courses. Much amusement was derived from the favors which were characteristic of the personal.

On Monday evening Miss Lena Belle Smith, delightfully entertained for her visitors Miss Cora Lott and Miss Gladys Gover of Hendersonville, N. C., Miss Lucile Johnson of Charlotte, N. C. Miss Addie and Louise Knight of Dublin. The spacious hall, parlor and dining room were all thrown into one large reception room most artistically decorated. The hostess received her guests in a very charming manner. Her gown was of blue satin draped in point lace. Very delicious refreshments were served throughout the evening.

SUPPORT THE BALL TEAM.

Just now nearly all the southeastern cities are having more or less difficulty in maintaining their ball teams. Macon and Savannah are about to relinquish the franchise owing to non support. There are several reasons that may be attributed to the lethargy manifested in the great American sport and it is particularly unfortunate that such a condition should exist in mid season. Here in our home towns it is played more for the real sport than from a financial basis; still there is always an expense attached to it from the standpoint of the visiting teams or when our home team is away.

It should be a source of local pride that we have a home team of such sterling ability and composed as it is of all Statesboro talent. Another season the News would like to see early efforts made to organize a team and lead in an effort to arrange a stated schedule with our nearby towns that maintain ball teams. By all means encourage the home team by your frequent patronage when games are played at home, and go when you can as rooters for the home team and Statesboro when your team goes away.

PORCH FROCKS AND CRETONNES.

New York, June 30th.

Porch frocks and cretonnes are the present protégés of Fashion. The first comes as a natural sequence to the veranda habit, but the latter descends without reason or forewarning--an overnight invasion. The very mode of their entry bespeaks their duration. It is not difficult to predict that the end of the porch frock is destined to last to the third or the fourth season; in fact, as long as porches themselves endure; but the craze of cretonne, volatile as it is, is a whirlwind fancy.

Both are American ideas. With the handicap of Paris temporarily removed, the American designer has awakened to new activities and, as ever centers his attention on the practical, salable side of dress. It is a season of simplicity and conservatism. The one-piece frock, which has long flourished under the "Made in America" label finds a new channel. Women to-day think quickly and act quickly. There is no hesitation, they like the idea of the porch frock; of having a costume that fits in with the swinging hammocks, grass, rugs, and wicker furniture on the broad verandas of their homes.

A Porch Frock of Wall and a Child's Playtime Dress of Cretonne.

In the millinery field the material plays even a more important role than in dresses. Here, there are no spurs and playtime labels. The cretonne is made in 14 in. sailor shapes that are par excellence in fashion. These are worn both with suits and one-piece dresses. The figures in the material give an elaborate effect. But little extra ornamentation is needed. A plated rosette at the side, or a plain colored binding, this and no more is the trimming.

Lattice Cretonne Combined with Wall in a Dress for the Garden--the Shore.

In view of all these things, it is not surprising that the season has been called one of "Portrait Fashions." Certainly, nothing could be more picturesque than the cretonnes. Yet like the porch frocks, they are simplicity personified. It would seem that stability steadies the whole mode. Nothing is bizarre or extreme. These are left to Paris when she shall once again take up the question of clothes in season. At present, we are satisfied with the altogether wholesome and womanly styles that the American designer gives us and tremble to think that the small waists of the Catherine de Medici period or the tight waists skirts may again be thrust upon us.

PITH AND POINT.

The greatest glory in the present war is being won by the Red Cross.

An optimist is merely a person who saves a little sunshine for a rainy day.

This may be a kind of free speech, but you can't prove it by a married man.

When a man is down and out he would just as soon have a job as a position.

"GINGER-UP WEEK" EXTENDED ANOTHER SIX DAYS

Results certainly disappointing during "GINGER-UP WEEK." Contestants letting most wonderful periods slip away! Valuable prizes seem to go a-begging—active contestants wanted.

Chance now for new contestants to enter the race; have as good show as those who started in the first week. The reason seems to be beyond us unless it be that those who have entered believe that better opportunities for getting votes will come later. Don't deceive yourselves; we want to state positively and as emphatically as we can that you will never again have such opportunities to pile up your votes.

The contest manager advises you in all confidence that you are letting the best periods of the contest slip by without doing yourself justice. You'll be sorry later on when it's too late.

Now Identically the Same Offer as Last Week

Reg. Scale	Extra	Total
1 yr. 1,000 Votes	10,000 Votes	11,000 Votes
2 yr. 3,000 "	24,000 "	27,000 "
3 yr. 6,000 "	36,000 "	42,000 "
4 yr. 10,000 "	50,000 "	60,000 "
5 yr. 15,000 "	60,000 "	75,000 "

This Scale Good for Only Six Days As Mentioned Above.

This is smaller offer than during Booster Period, but in order to make it possible for you to earn as many votes we are making still a more liberal offer.

Good only Friday, Saturday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, July 2d, 3d, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th.

Contestant who we know are wide awake and have had every opportunity to pile up a tremendous vote during the past three weeks, seem to have not gotten into the spirit of the campaign and have let opportunity after opportunity slip away without any effort on their part to grab it. WHY IS THIS? SURELY LACK OF REWARD IS NOT THE CAUSE.

Now, listen! the next six days must tell the story. "Ginger-up Week" is not going to close as announced. We are going to continue this wonderful offer just as made last week until Thursday, 9 p. m., July 8th.

Every offer made in last issue holds good for six days more, and positively this is the greatest and best offer that will be made during this contest. Offers following this will decrease each week. This is the biggest offer and it is good for six days.

Now is the time for every one to give one great big push. If you can't push you can at least shove a bit.

Now if you mean business get right to work. If you have not entered this contest yet NOW IS THE TIME to get your instructions and get to work. LISTEN! there's big opportunity right here in Statesboro; there's big opportunity in the country districts. The people want the news; they will subscribe for the News. They have watched the News under the new management, and if there is a word of complaint or criticism of the methods and the paper since it's first issue it has never reached our ears. REMARKABLE! indeed it is. Then why can't contestants get subscriptions? The answer is as plain as the nose on your face—they don't get after them and certainly the people are not going to run after them to hand them the money.

The 5,000 free bonus offer good again for the six days. A young certificate good for 50,000 extra votes issued for every $5.00 you turn in for subscriptions. AND THE BIG 15000 BONUS VOTE goes to every contestant who turns in as much as $5.00 each day for the 5 days—remember each day you must turn in at least $5.00 to receive this extra vote coupon. Bring the remittance or mail it—either way.

Job printing and advertising contracts worth just five times the regular voting power. This big inducement is necessary to get life back into the contest and we feel sure that with the warning we are sounding now that every contestant will wake up and many new ones will get into the running. Special inducement to new contestants who enter before Monday, July 8th, 6 p. m., and who turn in at least $5.00 in subscription will be rewarded with a special voting coupon good for 50,000 votes; this offer being in addition to all other offers, and in addition to regular 10,000 votes you would get anyway after turning in your first dollar for subscription. Please note this offer expires 6 p. m. Monday, July 8th.

Where alfalfa has a valuable corn alone will give very good results for the work horses, and one pound of grain daily for every hundred pounds of weight will generally give good results. In other words a horse weighing 1,000 pounds if fed ten pounds of grain daily and a reasonable ration of hay three times a day should be able to do pretty good work and keep in good flesh. A 1,000 pound horse will require approximately sixteen pounds of grain a day.

LIVE STOCK HUSBANDRY

FARM WORK HORSES.

Conditioning Animals For Spring Should Be Done Gradually.

The general tendency on the farms is to winter horses as economically as possible. This is a desirable practice and can be satisfactorily followed provided proper methods are used in getting the work horses in shape for spring work, says the Kansas Farmer. The most important point in getting the horses ready for spring work is to begin this system of preparation long Experience has proved that while weight is required to do modern farming properly, the heaviest drafters are not the best farm horses. There may be considerable weight which comes from the working of real drafters of 1,500 pounds or over in ordinary agricultural operations, but there is no disputing the fact that horses of that weight are too slow and clumsy for the farmer to use in his every day business. The best weight for farm work is about 1,200 pounds. The picture shows a pure bred Percheron stallion.

enough in advance so that when the real hard work comes there need be no delay. It is not a very profitable business to have heavy spring work pushing hard, as it always does, and have nothing but a lot of soft green horses to depend upon.

Horses that have roughed it through the winter usually grow long, shaggy coats, and when the work begins they should be clipped. Of course it is assumed that they will be sheltered in the barn after the work season opens. If the shaggy coats are left on the horses will get saturated with sweat, and they must stand with wet clothes, as it were, until the coat slowly dries out. It is far more satisfactory to have the hair removed, and then when the horses are through work they can be quickly cleaned and if placed in the stable will suffer no injury or harmful results from the sweating which is sure to take place.

It is always a desirable practice to give the horses a little oilmeal in their rations in the spring. Oilmeal acts as a medicine or tonic. Many of the indigestible stock foods or condition powders rely largely upon the oilmeal they contain for the beneficial results they bring about. If horses are ready run down and seriously out of condition it would be a good plan to go to a competent veterinarian and have him prescribe a suitable condition powder. Any good veterinarian can prepare condition powders which will be very satisfactory to tone up the run down horse.

THE DISOWNED LAMB.

Patience Needed to Make Perverse Eve Nurse Her Offspring.

The shepherd has his patience most sorely tried with the ewe that stubbornly refuses to assume the proper maternal relations toward her offspring, and the man not well equipped with Job's crowning virtue is not likely to become a successful shepherd. writes E. P. Snyder in the National Stockman. Usually if the ewe that refuses to own her lamb is kept in a small pen with her lamb and made to stand and let it suck she will after a few days own it all right.

I have sometimes induced the ewe to stand by the use of a sharp switch on her nose. After a few days shaking the switch at her was sufficient, and finally my appearance would make her tolerate the lamb, and all the time the lamb was growing bigger and stronger till he could help himself in spite of her. It is well to keep them confined together till one is sure the ewe has given up, and after they are turned out with the flock it is well to watch her, for she may have a lapse of maternal affection.

In aggravated cases I have sometimes had to keep a ewe confined for two weeks before she would give up. I once had one tied out on the grass for three weeks before she gave up. If the ewe has plenty of milk one can almost invariably succeed, and it is wonderful what a display of motherly affection they can give when they once make up their minds to. The most hopeless case is where a ewe refuses to own one of a pair of twins.

Ration For Work Horses.

Where alfalfa has a valuable corn alone will give very good results for the work horses, and one pound of grain daily for every hundred pounds of weight will generally give good results. In other words a horse weighing 1,000 pounds if fed ten pounds of grain daily and a reasonable ration of hay three times a day should be able to do pretty good work and keep in good flesh. A 1,000 pound horse will require approximately sixteen pounds of grain a day.

A Word to the Wise is Sufficient

We don't like to come out with this hard luck story—we are not doing it solely on our account, but we want every one in this community to know what is doing, as well as to have the contestants know. The people realize what a wonderful opportunity this is, and the contestants will find this out if they will get into the field and work. There are hundreds of subscriptions—you'll have to go out and get them, though—very few will be placed in your lap done up in a package with a blue ribbon.

No matter what rumor reaches you or what you hear put it down now that this contest is running square for every one and that it will close this way. You have our word for this. Everything is open and above board.

UNTIL JULY 7TH 9 P. M.

The 50,000 bonus offer also good or every $5.00 you turn in for subscriptions during these six days, and the big 150,000 bonus vote offer will also be good at the close of this period for the six days, and every contestant who brings or mails to the manager $5.00 each day for subscriptions will receive a voting coupon good for 150,000 votes. Remember each day you must remit $5.00.

The prizes in themselves ought to make every contestant in this race hustle to "beat the band." Is there any way in which you could make as much money in a short space of time. Supposing you entered the contest today your chance to win would be as good as any other contestant. Think of a chance to win a $785.00 car—get it for nothing.

Decision to be given by three prominent business people of this city. They will tabulate the votes and announce the winners. Soon the closing hour will be announced.

STATSBORO IN MIDST OF A BUILDING BOOM.

This city is rapidly forging ahead and becoming fabulously known as a model home town. ## RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system. To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and rebuild your strength. Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

WHAT'S THE REASON?

Many Statesboro People in Poor Health Without Knowing the Cause

There are scores of people who drag out a miserable existence without realizing the cause of their suffering. Day after day they are racked with backache and headache; suffer from nervousness, dizziness, weakness, languor and depression. Perhaps the kidneys have fallen behind in their work of filtering the blood, and that may be the root of the trouble. Look to your kidneys, assist them in their work—give them the help they need. You can use no more highly recommended remedy than Doan's Kidney Pills—endorsed by people all over the country and by your neighbors in Statesboro.

Mrs. G. H. Mock, 48 N. Main St., Statesboro, says: "Whenever my back gives out and I am feeling run down from kidney trouble I use Doan's Liver Pills and they never fail to bring good results. My work is made easier after using this medicine. Another of the family has used Doan's Kidney Pills with fine results. We recommend them highly."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mock had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

SOME BULLOCH FARMS AND FARMERS

Mr. J. W. Williams One of the Leading Farmers of this County

If the Dixie Highway Commission really desire to route those northern tourists thru the garden spot of the south they cannot go astray by entering Bulloch at any point of the compass and traverse it at any angle. Real farms, real homes abound on every side of right now good country roads, and any of them that can in a very short time be made into boulevards.

This was demonstrated by a trip of the NEWS man this week out of the Statesboro and Adabelle road to Mr. J. W. Williams' plantation some thirteen miles out over splendid roads and thru as rich a territory of agricultural possibilities as one could wish for. Mr. Williams' plantation of twelve hundred and fifty acres under the superintendence of Mr. John Powell is a living, growing illustration of why Bulloch county is justly acclaimed the banner agricultural district of Georgia. Mr. Powell and his family are true exponents of southern hospitality. Enconced as they are in the old homestead of Mr. Williams, which is surrounded by stately oaks and magnolia trees affording delightful shade not only to the home, but to his animal friends which are housed in comfortable and commodious barns just across the road from the house.

Of these twelve hundred and fifty acres nearly nine hundred are under the highest degree of cultivation. It is a sight well worth traveling miles to observe; for one to stand at that old homestead and just turn a complete circle, and as far as the eye can pierce there is nothing but acres of diversified farm products all in perfect health, free from grass and weeds, notwithstanding the incessant rains that have retarded farming thus far this season.

There are 370 acres of cotton, both short and Sea Island, 200 acres of corn and peanuts; 100 acres of oats and peas; a dozen of wheat and potatoes; a half dozen of sugar cane and a like amount in watermelons. There are five acres of rice fields; 40 acres of pea vine hay. There are 75 mulberry trees that bear from May to September. There are 75 peach trees, all heavily laden with delicious fruit. Mr. Powell expects to gather fully 100 bushels of peaches. There is one-half acre of grape vine that will bear abundantly.

One hundred and twenty-five head of hogs are busy feeding themselves in condition for market. Fifty head of cows all in good condition leisurely graze about the pastures. Last year there were sold from this farm 1850 bales of hay and 10,000 bundles of fodder, and still not a pound of feed or meat was bought for the farm consumption of over 50 employees and tenants, and two dozen head of beef cattle was sold. As a matter of fact, not a pound of feed has been bought as a supply on this farm for the last ten years, but much hay and fodder has been sold.

Twenty per cent of this acreage will yield a two-crop product, the character of which is used for the maintenance of the stock employed on the farm. The uncleaned land still yields a quantity of turpentine, and apparently an endless amount of wood fuel for use of the tenants is available. Along the west basin of the farm Mr. Williams has a private fish pond well

ALL-STEEL BRIDGE TO SPAN OGEECHEE RIVER

Statesboro-Dixie Highway Route Now Possible

Judge W. H. Cone, Ordinary of Bulloch county, and W. H. Sharpe, county commissioner, accompanied by Mayor S. J. Crouch, W. F. Simmons and D. Percy Averitt, the two former representing Bulloch county and the others Statesboro, met in Springfield Tuesday with the commissioners of Effingham county in regular session, and agreed to build an all steel bridge to cost $5,000, spanning the Ogeechee river at what is known as the Elkins landing.

The vote for the construction of this bridge was unanimous as recorded by the official representatives of the two counties, and advertisements were ordered published as required by law.

Twenty-five hundred dollars has been pledged between Guyton and Pineora for the bridge, and Bulloch county is pledged to pay half the cost of the bridge work over the main channel, a distance of about 320 feet, irrespective of small lagoons. Guyton and Pineora have both been very active in raising funds for the proposed work.

Several contractors for bridge and construction work were present and offered plans and specifications looking to the work. The bridge will probably be built under contract instead of the county doing the work with material furnished.

Under the present arrangement the bridge will be constructed at little cost to the county, but it is agreed that the commissioners will push the road work on the Guyton-Springfield road to the new bridge with the view of offering a paved highway through Effingham from the Bulloch line via Guyton and Springfield through to the Chat ham county line over the Augusta road recently improved and put into good shape.

stocked with a variety of fish and he is preparing to extend this feature of his farm to quite some proportions. The thickly wooded land is inhabited by game that during the rest reason affords recreation and profit to his tenants.

The R. & G. Railroad parallel this great farm on the west side, all on Mr. Williams' land. There is a station about midway of the farm where every facility is afforded for loading and unloading several cars at a time.

Aside from this tremendous farm property on the Statesboro & Adabelle road, Mr. Williams has a Statesboro farm comprising 475 acres, on which he is raising 143 acres of cotton; 75 acres of corn and peas; 25 of oats; 10 of Irish potatoes; 8 of rye; 10 in watermelons; an acre of rice; two acres of chufas and two acres of sugar cane. To the white homeseeker who desires to see a small farm there is available plenty of rich land.

Bulloch is bulging with many just such magnificent agricultural enterprises that offer unlimited resources in raw material for manufacturing investments which really is the need of the hour to make Statesboro and Bulloch county the big leader of all Georgia.

The Statesboro Board of Trade has an applicant for land within radius of two or three miles of the city. See secretary at the News office for information.

STATSBORO MUNICIPAL BAND AND CIVIC LEAGUE

Conducts Successful July 4th Celebration

Statesboro's initial homage to our great Independence day was reverently observed Monday July 5th owing to the official day falling on Sunday. It was the occasion of the coming out of the Municipal Band who really did them selves proud considering that they have been studying scarcely three months with but two rehearsals weekly. Their work in accompanying the vocal portion of the program was admirable and augurs well for a good accounting in a few more months study.

The Civic League served refreshments from a table that had been arranged on the court house lawn, but the ceremonies and refreshment service was abruptly interrupted by the usual July 4th shower which made it necessary to adjourn to the court room. Later during the afternoon many people availed themselves of the opportunity and enjoyed a delightful orchestra concert that was played on the court house steps at which time refreshments were again freely indulged in.

The feature of the occasion was the address of Hon. H. B. Strang, orator of the day, who carried his hearers thru that chronicle of period from our eventful day in history up to the present. Judge Strang's words were permeated with fervor and patriotism and at the close of his address he was given a rousing round of applause. Mr
