JOHNSON AND FREEMAN

Convicted of the Murder of Cuyler Green

I. L. Freeman and Will Johnson whom Sheriff Mallard so cleverly ensnared two weeks ago immediately after they had murdered old Cuyler Green were yesterday convicted by a jury who returned a verdict of guilty in the present term of the Superior Court now in session with Judge Harleman presiding. The verdict was murder in the first degree without recommendation against Johnson and with recommendation for Freeman. Judge Harleman sentenced Johnson to hang September 14th and Freeman to life servitude. Will Rhodes charged with being an accessory to the crime is awaiting trial. At the coroners inquest these men confessed to the crime but before being brought to trial decided to enter a plea of self defense which however was of no avail.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepared at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years. To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-purifying properties of Scott's Emulsion which is food, a tonic and a means to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's Emulsion. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Paint Better

Better isn't enough; paint best. A man bought "cheap" paint; saved 20c, or 30c, or 40c, or 50c a gallon, didn't he? Yes, and bought 50, or 60, or 80 per cent more gallons; how much did he make on his paint? And he paid for painting those gallons—a fair day's work is a gallon—how much did he make on the labor part of his job? He lost a quarter or a third of his money. How long will it last! not his money, the paint! Perhaps half as long as Devco. How long will his money last if he buys other stuff as he bought that paint. Better buy the best paint; it makes the least bill and least of ten. A. J. Franklin sells it.

THE DIXIE HIGHWAY

"The Right Route" Committee Meeting at Statesboro Friday, Aug 6

The Dixie Highway Association, "The Right Route," organized at Dublin, Ga., July 29th, met at Statesboro Friday, August 6th, together with representatives from seven counties from which committees were appointed at the Statesboro meeting, including several county commissioners from the various counties interested in the good roads movement. Those attending were Mr. W. W. Larsen, president; Mr. Chas. B. Caldwell, secretary; Messrs. Geo Walker and A. J. Cowan from Laurens county; J. D. Kight, mayor of Guyton and committee man, and H. C. Elkins, county commissioner from Effingham; Judge W. H. Cone, Mr. J. McDougal, committee man, and Mr. J. M. Hendricks, of Bulloch; Mr. W. F. Linder, of Twiggs, sent his regrets by telegraph and appointed a proxy; Johnson and Wilkinson counties were not represented. A large party from Emmanuel county, including several ladies enroute from Emmanuel in two touring cars, had the misfortune to suffer serious breakdown near Scott, and at a late hour telephoned that the meeting should proceed as they would be unable to reach Statesboro in time for the meeting to adjourn to allow those already here to leave at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Those counties represented and those accounted for promptly joined "The Right Route" Association.

A resolution was introduced by Secretary Caldwell asking for authority to compile a map of routes from Macon to Savannah thru the several counties which the route traverses; this was amended by Judge W. H. Cone to include mileage, official data, regarding each county, population along the route, its resources, its advantages in telephone, garage and other conveniences that would be considered by a tourist. The resolution as amended was unanimously adopted.

The Honorable Mayors, Ladies' Civic Leagues and other societies in all incorporated towns along the route will be invited to join the association to the end of gain complete co-operation in town, city and county efforts toward making this route as attractive and near perfect as is possible. The Dixie Highway commissioners at several large meetings referred to the deplorable conditions of some of the streets in the towns and cities thru which they had passed in attending these meetings, and it is to remedy these conditions that the association seeks the aid of local officials and ladies' clubs and organizations in each town.

Mayor J. D. Kight and County Commissioner Elkins, of Effingham, extended an invitation to hold the next meeting at Guyton, which was accepted and the date will soon be announced. It is expected that several delegates from Savannah and Mr. W. T. Anderson, the highway commissioner, will attend, when a real Ogeechee river fish fry will be given the guests.

The past thirty days has witnessed some substantial road improvement along the route, aided with the Ogeechee river bridge a certainty, and the Bulloch county convicts to be placed on road work as once, "The Right Route" will no doubt present a favorable impression to the official commission when they traverse it next month to make their decision.

WANT FIRMNESS WITHOUT A WAR

President Confronts Two Sided Advice Everywhere.

NEED FORCE TO BACK IT UP

Administration Members Point Out That More Ammunition is Shot Away in a Single Day Than the United States Has on Hand—What Germany Would Do if We Should Enter Fight.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN. Washington, Aug. 10.—[Special].—"The people want the president to stand firm with Germany, and at the same time they are telling him to keep us out of war with Germany." So spoke one of the men in the administration close to the president. That is the difficulty the president confronts in dealing with one of the gravest problems that have come to him as head of a great nation. It is the result of the note sent to Germany when the whole country was aroused over the destruction of the Lusitania and demanded that the president "deal firmly with the situation."

One trouble in dealing firmly with a diplomatic situation is that it takes power and force sometimes to back up the firmness. To make demands is one thing and to enforce them in case the other fellow refuses to comply with them is another. That is just where we are in the controversy.

Must Avoid War. There are members of the administration who insist that the United States must avoid war. It is pointed out that in one day's fighting more ammunition is shot away than the United States has on hand. With something like 3,000,000 pounds of powder we would not last a month even with the modest force which we could send into the war. Another fact which is pointed out is that travel on the American ships would stop in case of war. Not only would it be dangerous to go on the British ships, but it is altogether likely that the Germans would make a special effort to get every American ship as soon as war was declared between the two countries. While commerce is now hampered by Great Britain, it might be destroyed by the German submarines.

Business Men in Congress. C. L. Marks of Connecticut, N. Y., says that business men are needed in congress. He points out the La Follette's session's bill, the Reed amendment relative to baggage and the 5 per cent discrimination in regard to shipping in the tariff bill as measures which result from impractical legislation by lawyers. He thinks the business man would not have committed these errors.

I have seen the business man in congress, and when he is not a man of one idea he is almost sure to be so engrossed in his own affairs that he pays little attention to legislation. He is thinking of managing his own business at home and is absent a great share of the time. Often he thinks everything should be rushed through as if it was a meeting of a board of directors. He is usually impatient over discussions and debates and will not give time to them.

West Virginia to Pay. When Associate Justice Hughes figured out that West Virginia owed Virginia $12,000,000 he gave the mountain state a severe jolt, but the citizens of that state say that they will obey the mandate of the highest court and pay up. It is expected that a method of adjusting the big debt will be made by which it will be carried over a long period.

Mexican Money. One of the tribulations of Americans in Mexico is that the various governments have issued "money" which they compel Americans to accept in payment of anything which they may take. But they insist that Americans must pay in United States money for everything which they buy. The American citizen south of the Rio Grande has had a precarious time during the past four years.

Never Thought of Sugar. Next to Louisiana, the most violent protests against free sugar came from Hawaii. Consequently it is refreshing to be assured that the Hawaiians who put up for the big Hawaiian congress this year had no thought of whatever of sugar when they took the senators and representatives to the islands. At the same time quite a number of these visitors were told what an important industry sugar was to the islands and if the duty was restored it would greatly aid in developing the industry of Hawaii. And when it comes down to discussing the needs of additional revenue we will hear

WEATHER-CROP CONDITIONS IN STATE OF GEORGIA

For Week Ending Tuesday, August 11th, 1915.

U. S. DEPT. OF AGRICULTURE WEATHER BUREAU

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 11, 1915. Local showers were frequent in several sections of the state during the past week, but an adequate amount was received only in the north-eastern section of the state, comprising chiefly the Savannah river watershed from Augusta southward.

Severe drought continues to prevail in many sections, especially in the central south-eastern and northern portions of the state.

The temperatures were high during the week, with abundant sunshine.

Cotton has improved in some places, but in the dry areas plants are small and poorly fruited, shedding continues, and the outlook is unfavorable.

Late corn was benefited in regions where showers fell, but corn, potatoes and peanuts generally are suffering and need more rain.

Gardens and truck crops are in bad condition. Shipments of fruit are now rapidly disappearing.

C. F. VON HEERMANN, Section Director.

Clock Lights the Streets.

An ordinary alarm clock lights the streets of Lectionia, Ohio. At the proper time the clock snaps on the street lights and at a later hour it turns them off.

A circular piece of metal soldered onto the winding key acts as a revolving drum and winds up a lever cord which, acting on a lever trip weight, the falling of this weight jerks a light rope which throws the switch for turning on the electric lights.

Learning to Shoot. Rifle shooting is becoming quite popular in this country, according to the board for the promotion of that practice. The war department is encouraging rifle shooting, and many people are taking it up as a sport and also as a means of fitting themselves for future emergencies. In late years, especially since the disappearance of most of the game, rifle and other kinds of shooting have been abandoned to a great extent.

Paris has a theater with a reversible floor, one side being intended for dancing and the others intended for eating.

STATESBORO OIL CO.

(Formerly Blitch-Ellis Mfg Co.) Vast Improvement Made—Capacity Output and Labor Requirement Doubled.

The Statesboro Oil Co. who acquired the Blitch-Ellis Mfg. Co. Oil Mill some few months since have announced that they are ready for business and that means that some work has been done and some money expended to prepare the mill for the greatly increased capacity that has been done. Under the direction of Mr. H. E. McMath, Vice President and his assistant Mr. M. S. Hart, Superintendent most extensive operations, additions and repairs have been energetically under way for several weeks. Most noticeable perhaps is the enlarged seed house which now is an 1800 ton seed storage capacity or more than twice the capacity of the former house. There have been 250 liters and one gross added to the mill and a general overhauling of the gin-try which was a 100 bale or green seed capacity and fifteen bales of Sea Island. Efficiency and permanency has been the slogan word from the commencement of repairs; this is most apparent at the seed house. Formerly it was necessary to pitch the seed high from wagons to the bins; now this is all changed by the erection of a 65 foot bridge or drive way parallel with the seed house and on a level with the bin floor which will enable wagon drivers to unload in much less time than heretofore.

Another added and convenient improvement is an elevated seed bin shaft enabling farmers to drive underneath open the trap doors and load a wagon in a moment. The fuel storage capacity is to be enlarged by track extension for one more car length thereby carrying a 400 ton space.

The active officials of the Statesboro Oil Co. are Mr. H. E. McMath, Gen. Mgr. and Vice Pres., Mr. M. S. Hart, Superintendent, Mr. L. W. Armstrong, Cashier. A force of upwards of half a hundred men will be employed under the direction of the officers as named.

Lid is on Lassen Volcano

The recent volcanic eruptions of Lassen Peak, California, the most violent and destructive of which was the outbreak in May, 1915, are reported by Geologist J. S. Diller, of the United States geological survey, to have reached their maximum. The mountain, though it will probably continue to be an active volcanic curiosity, will not, it is believed, develop into a devastating fury, after the manner of Vesuvius or some of the Alaskan volcanoes or other well known foreign volcanoes. In other words, old Vulcan has clapped the lid down on Lassen.

For several weeks Mr. Diller has been studying Lassen Peak on the ground in co-operation with officials of the forest service and has reported to the director of the geological survey as follows:

"The great eruptions of Lassen Peak of May 20 and 22 spent the energy of the old volcano and put a lid on it. The effects of the flood on Hat creek are being turned to account, while many visitors are safely climbing the peak. It is possible that Vulcan is simply conserving his forces for a future outbreak, the general indications are that he is closing up Lassen Peak branch of his laboratory for the season, perhaps with the intention of giving a small exhibit next spring when the snow melts."

REPRESENTATIVE BUCHANAN OF ILLINOIS INCENSED

At President Wilson's Refusal to See Him

Washington, D. C., Aug. 9.—The white house today made public correspondence with Representative Buchanan of Illinois, who asked for a conference with President Wilson for labor's national peace council and, when it was refused on the ground that the president had no time for other than international affairs, wrote Secretary Tumulty that the refusal was "tantamount to a declaration that the President is more concerned about the desires of big business than he is to discover the heartfelt sympathy of the common people."

Buchanan added that if he could not see the president he would issue an open letter to the American people.

EFFECT OF WAR ON OUR POLITICS

President Unconcerned, but Others "View With Alarm."

G. O. P. WATCHFULLY WAITS

Will Be Quick to Seize Upon Any Break Mr. Wilson May Make and Convert It Into Political Capital.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Aug. 11.—[Special.]—The politics of the war situation and not concern the president so much as it does members of the administration, and it is certain that they "view with alarm" as the platform say, the political possibilities of the situation.

In the first place the war has injured Americans in many ways, notably the exporters. Partisanship is this true in the south, where there is bitter resentment against Great Britain for the manner in which our commerce has been held up.

Then the manner of dealing with Germany has wonderful political possibilities. The people may be dissatisfied no matter which way the decision goes.

Republicans Watchful Waiting. At this crisis in the career of Woodrow Wilson, the Republicans are not upon his phrase and are engaged in watchful waiting, ready to take advantage of any mistake which the president makes in handling the delicate situations which now confront him.

Then the manner of dealing with Germany has wonderful political possibilities. The people may be dissatisfied no matter which way the decision goes.

Another Indian Possibility. If the Democratic party was to have an open convention and their candidate next year was not already selected we might have another aborigine in the field for president.

It reminds me of a time when Curtis and Owen were having a hot debate over some Indian question.

Immigration After the War. There was a man in Washington not long ago who was trying to convince officials that there would be little immigration after the war.

Our Pacific Outlook. There was a large number of congressmen taken to Hawaii early in the summer, and it appears that those Hawaiians knew what they were doing.

Can Repel Invasion. "We can soon set at rest all possibilities of invasion," remarked a naval officer.

A Race Issue. Prohibition in the south is a race issue. Southern men did not want the negroes to have liquor.

United States Should Bar Immigrant Reservists From Other Nations

By Rev. Dr. SAMUEL H. WOODROW, Congregationalist, Pittsburgh

I BELIEVE it would be perfectly right and proper to pass such immigration laws as would exclude from our country all men who are held as reservists for any other nation.

THE TIME HAS COME WHEN WE MUST DETERMINE WHETHER WE ARE REALLY AMERICANS OR EUROPEANS.

The only people who were ever brought here against their will were the black people, and we have already paid the penalty for that.

STATEMENTS THAT ANY CONSIDERABLE NUMBER OF CITIZENS OF ANY NATIONALITY IN THIS COUNTRY WOULD FIGHT FOR THE LAND OF THEIR ANCESTRY RATHER THAN FOR THE LAND OF THEIR ADOPTION I BELIEVE TO BE UTTERLY FALSE.

One of the results of this horrible war, I believe, will be to wipe out these distinctions.

Know of no mode of obtaining the information but by assuming a disguise and passing into the enemy's camp.

IN SUCH MANNER DID CAPTAIN Hale turn up. That night he left the camp at Harlem Heights dressed in the brown garments and broad brimmed hat of a schoolteacher.

When the farmers of Lexington fired the shot that brought on the war of Independence that April day in 1775, a pale, slim boy, not yet twenty years of age, destined to become a martyr to our freedom, laid down his sword.

DRYING UP A MILKER.

Eliminate Most of Grain Ration and Do Not Milk Udder Dry.

It is not a difficult matter to turn most cows dry. Begin by decreasing her grain ration.

For two or three days milk her only once daily, after that milk her only occasionally to relieve pressure from the udder.

By this method, together with eliminating largely the grain ration, the cow will be practically dry within a week or ten days.

She should then be given a ration of two parts bran, two parts ground corn and one part oil meal and one part cottonseed meal.

Prof. Wilson of Iowa college recently told of a grade Holstein cow which he cared for and milked.

During last January she produced 150 pounds of milk. Her average was 8 1/2 pounds per day, and her highest day was fifty-four pounds.

Build Silos Is Advice of the Southern Fancier Farmer

Is Advice of the Southern Fancier Farmer

A silo should be on every dairy farm, and also on every farm where as many as ten or more cattle are kept during the winter.

The best and cheapest thing that can be used for ensilage is sorghum and corn mixed together, two rows of sorghum and one of corn, or plant the sorghum with the corn in the same row.

The variety known as Mexican June ensilage corn is the best of all. It can be planted late and will grow to immense height; the stalks are large and tender, making it easy to cut and easy to preserve.

The initial cost of a silo and cutter is the biggest expense attending the preparing for this work, but there is no money that can be invested on any stock or dairy farm that will pay handsomely on the money invested.

Product of High Quality. We cannot think of modern feeding without thinking of the silo, and we cannot refrain from again mentioning it.

Silo Scores Again. The Ohio experiment station found, in a trial with eight cows for four months, that an acre of corn in the form of silage would produce from 25 to 50 per cent more milk than an acre fed as dry fodder.

To IMPROVE THE FRUIT. Thinking Advised For Those Who Want Product of High Quality.

To many it is a waste of time and labor to thin fruit trees, but with few exceptions it should be done.

Weekly Talks to Canning Club Girls

BY MISS POLLY WOOD

Dear Girls: I have had several inquiries regarding the requirements for the Canning Club.

I would like for each girl to try some of these: Peach pickle; Watermelon rind pickle; grape juice, beets, cucumber pickle, and butter beans.

Girls, it is getting time for us to think and plan some for our next year's work. You know one of our standards for the training of the Health of the home—that is train the Health to enjoy life, resist disease, and make for efficiency.

You may do this by planting apart of your youth here in a winter garden. Plant at least one fourth of it. There are many green vegetables which will grow in our gardens practically all winter, such as spinach, lettuce, radishes, winter cabbage, cauliflower, onions and others.

Speaker Burwell is some Railroad Superintendent; just says NAY and switches the train.

Madero says the Mexican people want peace with outside help without injury to national pride. First we ever heard about their having any pride.

The speakers hirsute head bristles always stand on end ready for a fight and the smile on his face that won't wear off; you can't beat that for a combination.

Uncle Sam says greatest wheat and corn crop in history. With plenty corn meal, batter cakes and Georgia cane lassies in sight 'till do we care about war.

Base Ball now on the 10-20-30 price scale will be financially successful. Ohimnie, Mikey, Buddie, Able of the infantile league can now occupy "preserved seats."

The Tentons and the Allies both declare their unalterable determination to fight to the finish. To which we have not the slightest objection providing they whop it up and find the finish.

Latest from Mexico—Three changes of government in 24 hours; three presidents occupy the palace a few minutes each—not long enough to write the plot to the play.

The Macon Telegraph makes the eternal trio a quietude by adding liquor and snoring. We were always under the impression that it was two women and a man responsible for most divorces. Maybe the Telegraph man speaks from more accurate knowledge than we have at hand.

HIS BIGGEST INTEREST

A man in another state was once asked which of his several investments paid him the highest rate of interest, and he promptly replied that it was the dollar he paid on his subscription to the local paper.

"One day I wanted to buy a cow," he said, "and was intending to make a trip of about fifteen miles to get one that I knew was for sale at a certain price. But just before starting I happened to pick up the local paper and noticed that a nearby neighbor was offering one of the same breed at a dollar less than the other one. He readily sold it to me for $4 less. I saved a long thirty mile drive and $4 in cash because I had paid a dollar for the paper."

"That was just one instance, but as matter of fact I saved both time and money in fifteen or twenty different ways during the year, and all through reading the ads in a paper that had cost me but a dollar a year. I consider that dollar the best investment I ever made and I am investing as regularly as the year rolls round, and always with the most satisfactory results."

GET TOGETHER.

For generations throughout the civilized world the farmer has been regarded simply as a farmer—noting more. He has been classed as a farmer, rated as a farmer, and treated as a farmer, and all because there are none so blind as those who will not see.

But all of that is changed to-day. The farmer has come into his own and stands before the world in the twentieth century as the most solid, substantial and reliable class of people on the face of the globe.

He is a man of business—of tremendous business—the man without whom the people of the world would go out to exist.

Men go out to the great cities and many of them rise, and fall, and are heard from no more.

But the farmer moves steadily onward, and upward, and reaches to better and greater things. He is our new man of business—our greatest man of business—the man upon whom all the world depends for the vital sustenance of life.

A closer spirit of co-operation between the farmer and the merchant and the town business man would produce excellent results if we could only have stated periods for a general "GET TOGETHER" meeting to compare notes, adopt suggestions that appear better than our own methods of conducting affairs, and materially improve the welfare and advance the financial interests of all our people.

Such a movement, with its consequent comparison of ideas and experiments, should increase the output of our products without any increase in expenditure, and thereby add materially to the commercial and agricultural status of our countryside and local merchants.

WAR IN THE HOUSE OF GOD

The world truly seems at war with itself; the telegraph pages of the daily papers are bulging with news of fights, strife and struggle and murder, and we may wonder and ask what will the harvest be. We note with a degree of sadness that even the churches are not immune to their factional rows; in one instance we read in an exchange from Texas where a general personal encounter by factions of two churches that were holding revival meetings became so serious that the police were called and many arrests were made.

One of Savannah's leading churches is now in the midst of a factional fight with their minister deposed or at least having it made so uncomfortable for him that he voluntarily resigned, and the church affairs now in the hands of a special commission to hear both sides of the factions in endeavor to adjust differences and restore harmony.

We have often wondered why there is so much bitter antagonism among many church members and the several religious denominations when the avowed purpose of each is the saving of human souls. The rivalry is often so keen and the recriminations so bitter that one who is seeking peace and harmony, friendship and good will, hesitates to affiliate and become involved in factional and religious rows.

Surely there should be some means whereby the sincere followers of the Nazarine could dwell in harmony and labor side by side in behalf of christian enlightenment, with ultimate result that the world would become cleaner, and purer, and better in every way. Why carry war into the house of God, where peace alone should dwell!

Atlanta, Aug. 11.—During the heated days of August it has been suggested in the rural and suburban churches around Atlanta that it would be a good idea to allow the men to remove their coats during services.

One minister, before starting to preach, asked permission of the ladies and then pulled off his coat in front of others of the congregation to do likewise.

Atlanta, Aug. 11.—Members of the Anniversary Club, one of the most unique organizations in the country, have recently been in annual session at Atlantic Beach.

There are more cattle and hogs this year in this section of the South than I have ever seen before.

The Anniversary Club is composed of leading agents of the Southern States Life Insurance company.

Atlanta, Aug. 11.—The proper way to boost your own home town is a subject that has interested many a willing citizen who has learned from experience that the real booster is not the man who throws his hat up in the air and goes running up and down the street calling attention to himself.

ADJOURNED TERM OF SUPERIOR COURT

In Session During Five Days of Last Week

The April adjourned term of Bulloch superior court convened Monday, Aug. 2, with Judge R. N. Hardeman presiding.

There were a few divorce cases and other civil cases disposed of during the first two days and then the criminal docket was taken up.

In the case of J. B. Groover vs J. A. Wilson, suit for damages, a verdict was returned in favor of the plaintiff for $400.

The grand jury got busy and turned out a good deal of work.

The case of the state vs Will Johnson, I. L. Freeman and Will Rhodes was tried, resulting in the conviction of Will Johnson with out recommendation to mercy and sentenced to be hanged Sept. 10th, 1915.

J. L. Freeman was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment and a mistrial resulted in the Will Rhodes case.

The state vs Lottie Davis, charged with murder; verdict of guilty of voluntary manslaughter; sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

The state vs Cleve Burned, charged with the murder of Pharis Davis some two years ago entered a plea of voluntary manslaughter and was sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary, being the same sentence as was imposed upon him when he was convicted about a year ago and a new trial granted.

There were several other minor cases disposed of during the session which adjourned Friday evening.

THE STATESBORO BAKERY

A New Industry Soon to Be Launched

Statesboro will soon be in a class with the big cities in her bread requirements. A new and modern bakery embracing all the latest improvements, devices and patents for the output of high class and wholesome bread is soon to be in operation.

The Statesboro Bakery, as it is to be styled, will be located on West Main street, where a store room and rear bake shop with an oven having a 250-pan capacity will be equipped to handle the trade.

The H. J. Simpson Co., proprietors, will personally supervise the establishment. Cleanliness, purity and full weight are the features that will be maintained religiously.

All bake pans will have the Statesboro imprint and this will appear in each loaf so all that is shipped away will act as an advertisement for the progressive city.

A delivery system and supply wagon will cover the territory thoroughly and as soon as the city trade is well established the company will go after the business in the country that is now supplied from Savannah, Augusta and Macon.

Manager of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce will more than likely be a guest of Statesboro at the time. It has been thru his personal efforts that the new industries department was organized and a special manager conducting it under aggressive efforts toward bringing to Georgia foreign capital to develop her marvelous resources.

WHAT CATARRH IS It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body, and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the salted in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building tonic, free from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try it.

IMPORTANCE OF HEALTHY KIDNEYS

Statesboro Readers Should Learn to Keep the Kidneys Well.

The kidneys have a big work to do. All the blood in the body is coursing through the kidneys constantly to be freed from poisonous matter. It is a heavy enough task when the kidneys are well, but a chill, fever or some thoughtless exposure is likely to irritate, inflame and congest the kidneys and interrupt the purifying work.

Then the aching frequently begins and is often accompanied by some irregularity of the urine—too frequent passages, sediment or retention. Thousands testify to the wonderful merit of Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy for the kidneys only, that has been used in kidney troubles 60 years.

You will make no mistake in following this Statesboro citizen's advice. Mrs. J. B. Burns, 56 W. Main st., says: "A short time ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills and got good results. I can recommend them to others who suffer from kidney trouble."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Burns had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

LEO FRANK, FAMOUS GEORGIA PRISONER

Taken by Mob From State Farm at Milledgeville and Hanged to a Tree Near Marietta.

Marietta, Ga., Aug. 17.—A small but well organized mob took Leo M. Frank from the state prison farm at Milledgeville late last night, brought him 100 miles to almost within sight of the former home of Mary Phagan, the girl he was charged with killing, and hanged him to a tree. No shots were fired.

The body, clothed only in prison trousers and shirt, was found two miles from Marietta this morning at 8:30 o'clock. It was believed the lynching occurred at about daylight.

While officers were searching the woods about Milledgeville early to day, local officials viewed as significant the fact that several automobiles, well loaded, had left this town in the direction of Milledgeville last night. After the return of some of these machines today officers started out on the road which they believed the automobiles had traveled. They had gone only two miles when they saw the body not more than 150 yards from the roadside.

Wanted to Mutilate Body. Frank's body was cut down at 10:15 o'clock this morning, but not until another spectacular phase had been added to the case.
