In Hotly Contested Game

The Statesboro Locals and the F. D. A. S. came together last Monday in a hard fought game. The Aggis won the toss and chose to defend the west goal. The Locals received the kick defending the west goal. From that moment it was a scrap for supremacy. Both teams worked hard and it was the defense of Brown, Foy and Smith that stopped the Aggis' onslaught. The game ended with the ball in the hands of the Locals possession on their own 30 yard line. Final score, Locals 7, Aggis 0.

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form. Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body; and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a rich food for the blood, and free from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try it.

ANNOYING KIDNEY ILLS.

Makes Life Miserable for Many Statesboro People.

There's nothing more annoying than kidney weakness or inability to properly control the kidney secretions. Night and day aches, the sufferer is tormented and what with the burning and sealding, the attendant backache, headache and dizziness, life is indeed a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have given peace and comfort to many Statesboro people. Proved by this Statesboro resident's experience.

Daniel R. Rigdon, 44 Bulloch st., Statesboro, says: "Whenever I feel in need of a kidney medicine, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and they never fail to remove the aches and pains in my back. At times while at work, I have to do a great deal of stooping and lifting and this is hard to do with a lame aching back. Doan's Kidney Pills always strengthen my back and fix me up all right."

MOVEMENT ON FOOT FOR PACKING PLANT

PROPOSITION WILL BE THOROUGHLY DISCUSSED GEORGIA PRODUCTS DAY

Public Meeting Likely to Be Called

In connection with the Board of Trade meeting Monday night arranging for Georgia Products Day and the Barbecue some real enthusiastic discussion was indulged in regarding the promotion of a packing plant for Bulloch county, commonly acknowledged to be the commercial necessity of the hour. A good bit of quiet missionary work has been done by the Board of Trade in this direction for some time and it is drawing to a head with fair prospects that it will develop into a reality in the near future.

Great Opportunity.

There is no better opportunity open for this industry than right here in Bulloch county and the counties surrounding us. Geographically, we are admirably located and could command a most convenient trade both on incoming and outgoing shipment. Extensive grazing ranges surround us on all sides.

Boll Weevil Coming.

The boll weevil is here, there is no use trying to hide the fact from our eyes, and as stated by one of our citizens, Col. G. S. Johnston, who said in an interview this week, "The weevil will come upon us so stealthily that we will wake one day to find it so completely in our throats that bankruptcy will stare us in the face unless there is united and decisive action taken and right now combat the pest, and to offset the destruction by industry of a substantial nature in other directions."

During a visit to Moultrie recently Col. Johnston made a hurried inspection of the Moultrie packing plant and was most favorably impressed and fully believes that Bulloch could more than duplicate the signal success they have had over in Colquitt. Col. Johnston says that which most appealed to him "was the perfect confidence displayed by the entire community regarding their enterprise. Every citizen is imbued with his success. The farmer, his son and his daughter—they are all stockholders in the enterprise and they are now preparing to increase the capital stock $50,000. While en route to Moultrie I met several men from different parts of the country going to inspect the plant so famous is it becoming. Like all such industries there is not a particle of waste permitted. The by-products are numerous. The citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch county are abundantly able to subscribe to such an industry and carry it to a conclusion and marvelous success. Our future financial stability depends upon something of this magnitude and now is the time to begin."

CONGRESS TO BE ASKED TO INCREASE U. S. MARINE CORPS

New York, Nov. 10.—Because every man of their less than ten thousand is absolutely needed at his post at home or abroad, the United States Marine Corps will be represented at this year's military show at Madison Square Garden.

The army and navy will be represented as usual, but the little Marine Corps, which is neither of these, and yet both, cannot afford to send even a squad to the 1915 tournament.

The "soldiers of the sea," 9021 strong by law, form the first line of the national mobile defense, and the navy yards of the United States have been almost stripped of marines to furnish the landing forces for ships, the expeditionary forces for Haiti, the legation guards at Peking, China, and Managua, Nicaragua; as well as manning the permanent frontier defense posts at Guantanamo, Cuba; the Philippines, Guam and the Hawaiian Islands.

Congress, at its next session, will be asked to increase the Marine Corps by 1500 officers and men and it is believed that the request has strong backing in the ranks of the security leagues who wish to see the first line of defense strengthened so as to insure an adequate number of marines at home in case of necessity.

Have Feelers Out.

High officials in the administration have their feelers out nearly all the time. They are carefully feeling to see if the marriage of the president will have any political effect. That is one of the questions asked of travelers and other political observers who have had an opportunity to hear people talk and get the drift of public opinion. The general verdict is that some women all over the country disapprove of the marriage and that the men do not care. And administrative officials smile, for the men do the voting—in the most important states.

Fifteen Hour Reputation.

William V. Allen of Nebraska, who has been out of the senate fourteen years, came to Washington and was at once remembered as the man who made a fifteen hour speech on one occasion. That is one way to erect a monument. Allen was with those Democrats, silver Republicans and Populists who were opposing the repeal of the silver purchase act. He was inclined to Democratic policies then, although elected as a Populist.

When he spoke of Wilson's popularity, he remarked that "we've got to have a considerable amount of support in order to carry Nebraska for the Democrats in 1916."

Just as Easy.

Democratic leaders in the senate have assured President Wilson that cloture will be adopted at once or at least within a short time after the senate assemblies. Those who understand the senate expect to see cloture drop along many months before it is adopted, and perhaps then it will go overboard.

How Will it Affect Suffrage?

The position which President Wilson has taken on the subject of woman suffrage may have an important bearing on the action of the house this winter. In the last congress the Democratic members of the committee on judiciary were much opposed to woman suffrage and succeeded in delaying a vote until late in the session. That committee will have power to hold back a vote in the new congress, but the Democratic members might be influenced by the position of the president. The president has said he is for suffrage by states.

Got a Rise Every Time.

A shrewd man appeared before the joint commission on district affairs recently and got a rise out of every member. As he proceeded with his argument he occasionally would turn aside and mentioned something that had taken place in the state of a member—something in which that member had interested himself, and the witness would praise that action highly. In turn he held Clinton of West Virginia, Works of California, Sanbury of Delaware, Cooper of Wisconsin, Gard of Ohio and Rainey of Illinois out of their basing that the witness was correct in his statements.

Statesboro, Georgia, Thursday, November 11, 1915. Vol. 15 No. 136

Georgia Chamber of Commerce

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 10th, 1915

Statesboro Board of Trade,

Mr. Thomas D. Van Osten, Sect'y.,

Statesboro, Ga.,

My Dear Mr. Van Osten:

Let me congratulate your Board of Trade and the people of Statesboro and Bulloch county on the forthcoming Georgia Products dinner.

These dinners have almost invariably awakened a renewed and keener interest in the production of food supplies and a spirit on the part of the consumer to give preference in the buying of home products. This sentiment is the greatest thing in Georgia. We send away too much money for things which we could produce at home on a larger scale, if our people would take a greater interest in it.

If your dinner becomes the inspiration of a packing house at Statesboro, it will be one of the greatest days in the history of Southeast Georgia.

Yours very truly,

C. J. HADEN, President.

PLANNING TO BUILD AMERICAN SHIPS

Creation of Merchant Marine Is Object of Congress.

TREATIES ARE AN OBSTACLE

Proposition to Grant a 10 Per Cent Discrimination in Favor of American Ships Likely to Be Brought Forward When Congress Convenes—Treaties Disregarded Since War Started.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 10.—[Special.]—Many years ago when such men as Mahan, William R. Frye and Seneca E. Payne were struggling for a ship subsidy bill men of the more practical type, like Stephen B. Elkins, said: "The country will not stand for a subsidy. What should be done is to grant a 10 per cent rebate on duties for all goods carried in American ships to this country."

"Oh, but all our treaties with the favored nation clause stand in the way," replied Frye, who was so long on the foreign relations committee that he had become imbued with the idea of sacredness concerning a treaty.

"Then abrogate the treaties," retorted the practical Elkins. "A treaty can be abrogated. The power that made it can give notice of its intention to terminate it."

But Frye looked at him pityingly, as if he felt sorry for him and probably deplored the idea of a practical business man in the senate.

May Be Brought Forward.

It is possible that the proposition to grant a 10 per cent discrimination in favor of American ships will be brought forward in opposition to the ship purchase bill during the coming session of congress. It should meet with more favor now than ever before. The readiness of a treaty will not be so impressive as it was before the European war. The "scrap of paper" idea gains ground. We have definite treaties with Great Britain, and yet American shipping has been seized, goods confiscated and treaty and neutral rights of Americans absolutely disregarded. There is no reason why treaties should be allowed to stand in the way of building up American shipping interests. Away with the "favored nation clause," which has yet served for half a century to destroy the American merchant marine, say many advocates of the plan.

Have Feelers Out.

High officials in the administration have their feelers out nearly all the time. They are carefully feeling to see if the marriage of the president will have any political effect. GEORGIA PRODUCTS DAY

To Be Observed in Statesboro Thursday November 18th.

The Board of Trade, leading citizens of the City and county met in the court house Monday night in reference to Gov. Nat. E. Harris' proclamation regarding celebrating Georgia products Day Thursday Nov. 18th. It was a well attended meeting and much enthusiasm was manifested and the result was that plans were definitely laid to give what will no doubt prove to be the biggest barbecue ever given in Bulloch county. As is being done in various other sections of the state a general holiday will be the order of things. The event will be held at the F. D. A. S. and Prof. Rowan and his students will join in serving up the sumptuous dinner. All Bulloch county is invited. There will be a band concert and able and prominent speakers are being arranged for, men who are thoroughly in touch with the subject that is vital to the agricultural life of the community.

A prize of ten dollars in Gold will be given for a basket of the best farm products that have been grown in Bulloch county. A committee of two and five was appointed to attend to all details in connection with the event, composed of Mr. G. S. Johnston, Mr. Thomas D. Vanosten, Mr. J. W. Williams, Mr. Hinton Both, Mr. F. D. Olliff, Mr. Joe Ben Martin, Mr. W. G. Rames and Mr. F. M. Rowan. Principal of the F. D. A. S. Several substantial donations were made in the way of meat prior to the meeting being adjourned and the committee will be very thankful for any further contributions of sheep, pork or beef.

It is hoped that the occasion will be productive of action toward the promotion of a market for diversified products. With the gathering of Bulloch's leading farmers will afford every opportunity to discuss the matter with those locally who are interested in the building of a large warehouse.

It is anticipated that there will be such a large crowd in attendance that for one's own convenience it has been decided to make the affair a basket picnic in addition to the barbecue, those feeling so disposed will bring baskets and greatly help the committee who have but a few days to complete the arrangements. Don't stand on ceremony of waiting for a personal invitation but just come along. We need this touching of elbows to waken us in our knowledge and views, so come.

OHIOANS FIGHTING FOR NATIVE SON

G. O. P. United In Support of Burton For Presidency.

ALL FACTIONS BACK HIM.

Only State That is Making Real Headway Toward Securing the Nomination—All Big Fellows of Buckeye State Will Be at the Convention Pushing Their Candidate's Claims.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 8.—[Special.]—Ohio is the only state that is making any real headway toward securing the Republican nomination. Ohio means to get the presidency and in this differs from New York, which always seems to see how it can avoid the highest office in the land. Ohio had four possibilities, a small number considering the state. Ohio went promptly to work and reduced the number to one and will get behind him, earnestly push him and, as in the past, may possibly land him.

Just see what Ohio has done in the past. John Sherman was a perennial candidate, but there was always trouble about nominating him, so Ohio always turned to another Ohio man. Once it was Hayes; another time it was Garfield; twice when Ohio could not name one of her own residents she named native sons in Grant and Harrison.

Burton Keeps Growing.

Ohio sided up the situation this way: Burton was the only man really known well throughout the country. Herick had only the popularity he had won in the early days of the European war as ambassador to France. Harding and Willis were not known outside the state. So all have been withdrawn, and Ohio is solidly behind Burton.

Twenty years ago all Ohio was behind McKinley. Foraker and his crowd did not like McKinley because he belonged to the Sherman wing of the party, but they were all there at the convention, working for McKinley, and Foraker made the nominating speech.

Next year all the big fellows in Ohio will be on hand "whooping it up" for Burton.

"Will Go Long."

"Oh, he'll go long" was an expression of Matt Quay's and generally related to some plan of procedure in the senate, the passage of a bill or perhaps in regard to some political deal outside of the senate. Many southern members of congress can be heard in the same category as Quay's men. They "will go long" on the president's plan of military preparation, but they don't like it.

Was Somewhat Peevish.

Congressman Page of North Carolina has handled the District of Columbia appropriation bill for four years, and he thinks he knows something about the relations of the so-called half and half plan of taxation and expenses of Washington. He wanted to express his views to the commission, which is holding hearings, and telegraphed Chairman Chilton, who replied and told him to appear Monday, Nov. 1. Then as a sort of an afterthought the commission decided to adjourn from Saturday until after the election in order to accommodate members who wanted to vote. But they did not notify Page, and he made the trip from North Carolina for nothing.

"Yes, he was somewhat peevish," remarked a man connected with the investigation. And really that stated it very mildly. Page is a brother of the ambassador to Great Britain.

Must Make T. R. Envious.

It must make Roosevelt envious to see the manner in which Woodrow Wilson controls his party in congress—perhaps not the manner, but the success he has in that direction. Roosevelt used the big stick. Wilson the velvet hand. And it looks as if Wilson was going to get much more from his party than Roosevelt could obtain from his.

Chaotic in Texas.

Congressman John Garner of Texas speaks of the senatorial fight in Texas as chaotic. Soon after he arrived in Washington he met ex-Senator Bailey, with whose faction he was once identified. Garner told Bailey that he had 300 letters from all parts of the state asking him to get into the senatorial race. "I have had almost as many," replied Bailey, "which say that if I will not be a candidate the writers would like to have Garner get out and make the race."

The trouble every man finds in running for senator in Texas is that the state is so large that even a campaign spread over it as thin as possible is unfeasible.

Almost From Missouri.

Oscar Underwood joined the "show zoo" class when he came to Washington and was asked what he thought ought to be done in regard to military matters. "I must wait until I see what the experts say," he said. "I am not versed in military matters." The former house leader wants to see a sample of the goods before he goes into the war material business on a large scale. When leader of the house he was content to leave all military questions to Chairman Hay and naval questions to Chairman Padgett. Perhaps that was one secret of his success.

Japan Looks to America For Capital and Labor Saving Machinery

By GISAKU TAKIKAWA, Vice President of the Kobe Chamber of Commerce

TRADE between the United States and Japan has been increasing gradually in volume, and this increase has gone on during the war. Except for the matter of transportation facilities, there is no reason why it should not continue to grow. It is the desire of most Japanese that the United States and Japan stand together not only in China, but everywhere. The feeling of our people for Americans is of the best, and the European war has served to strengthen it. IN JAPAN WE WANT AMERICAN GOODS. WE HAVE BEEN USING YOUR AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS AND YOUR OIL. NOW WE WANT YOUR MACHINERY AND YOUR AUTOMOBILES.

Japan is getting beyond handwork in many lines. We must put in machinery. Much of the machinery we have is practically obsolete as compared with what you use over here. On the other hand, we make a great many things that America might be using, such as hand woven silk stuffs. For these we can supply materials of the highest workmanship.

Japan now makes practically anything that is made in Europe. We are now anxious for American money to find its way to Japan in the way of investments. There are excellent opportunities for the investment of American capital.

WE HAVE ANY AMOUNT OF LABOR. IF WE CAN GET AMERICAN MONEY AND AMERICAN MACHINERY WE CAN MAKE A HANDSOME PROFIT FOR OURSELVES AND FOR THE INVESTORS.

POULTRY and EGGS

BREEDING POULTRY.

Best Results Come From Mating Birds of Good Vitality.

Director Quisenberry of the national egg laying contest, Mountain Grove, Mo., gives these rules for breeding poultry:

Breed only from stock of high vitality which has never been seriously sick with any disease.

Breed from mature males and females.

Breed from birds as near ideal in shape and color as possible. A good all round bird is better to use as a breeder than a bird exceptionally good in one point and exceptionally poor in others.

Let the male be exceptionally strong in points where the female is weakest, and vice versa.

Instead of buying ten males at a dollar each and thus getting very ordinary males to head your flock, it is much better to get one good male at $10 and mate him in a separate pen to ten or twelve of your very choicest females.

The condition of the parent stock is largely in fact, almost wholly—responsible for the condition of the baby chicks.

Good, strong, vigorous males and females, properly mated, will store so much vitality in the eggs that the embryo can stand a lot of abuse in incubation, and the baby chick will overcome and outlive many of our mistakes in faulty breeding.

Fruit of Absence.

Madge—Have you really found that absence makes the heart grow fonder? Marjorie—Indeed I have! Since Charlie went away I've learned to love Jack ever so much more.—Lippincott's Magazine.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "run-downs," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, yellow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

Almost From Missouri.

Oscar Underwood joined the "show zoo" class when he came to Washington and was asked what he thought ought to be done in regard to military matters. "I must wait until I see what the experts say," he said. "I am not versed in military matters." When leader of the house he was content to leave all military questions to Chairman Hay and naval questions to Chairman Padgett. Perhaps that was one secret of his success.

Statesboro Mercantile Company

STATSBORO, GA., Nov. 11th, 1915

TO OUR CUSTOMERS AND FRIENDS:

Two years ago, and also last fall, we asked you to help us as much as possible discourage charging merchandise during the fall months, and to pay us CASH for your purchases and thereby save yourself the difference in price. Our friends responded to this liberally which we consider was very beneficial to us both.

Now, we want to make the same appeal to you for the balance of this year. It is not our intention to cut out charging goods altogether, but to discourage it as much as possible for the balance of this year. If we have to charge the goods at all it will be at a higher price than if you were to pay cash, even though they are charged for one day or a week.

Our sole motive in putting our business on CASH basis, as nearly as possible, for the balance of this year is to get in shape for business another year. We all know that we are compelled to sell goods on credit during the farming season, and it is our desire to be as well prepared to accommodate you in this way next year as possible. We also ask those who have not paid us their notes and accounts to do so right away or as early as possible, as we must have our notes and accounts in to begin a new year's business properly.

We thank you in advance for your support in these matters and want to assure you that you can buy RELIABLE MERCHANDISE AT OUR STORE as cheap or cheaper than elsewhere, and that your patronage will be appreciated.

Yours very truly,
STATSBORO MERCANTILE COMPANY,

THURSDAY, NOV. 11, 1915.

Wonder if Uncle Sam has got to have another submarine argument
as to who did it and why?

The State and County Fairs all report signal successes this season.
They are barometers of better times.

The President is criticised by a couple of ex-presidents and a would be president. He should worry. Not at.

The dinner bell will ring at 12
sharp on the campus of the F. D. A. S. next Thursday for the Georgia Products feast.

LOST—Yesterday, somewhere between sunrise and sunset, two golden hours, each set with sixty diamond minutes. No reward is offered, for they are gone forever.
—Horace Mann.

The pictures of the smoking tobacco advertisers denote in their satisfied expressions such a feeling of real pleasure that any old snuff ought to give up "licker" for a snuff. From "Velvet Joe" in old Carolina to his nips, the Prince of Wales they all look happy.

BULLDOGS' BEST BET

Aoropos of the packing plant discussion, there is positively nothing that would be so far reaching for the great commercial progress, individual and collective benefit to Bulloch, and the territory tributary, as the promotion and final building of a Bulloch county owned meat packing plant. It is the logical avenue of industry for the local business man and the farmer. Where now the merchant is every thirty days sending away hundreds of dollars in payment for thousands of pounds of meat, with the industry at our door, he would become a daily buyer from an institution in which he would be a partner. We would be selling to foreign trade instead of buying from foreign trade. Monthly accounts payable would be coming to our banks daily and the cash system we all strive to get would become in fact a reality. With the God given resources in which this county abounds, if the people do not rise to this opportunity, un-itedly and energetically give birth to an institution that can and will tear assunder the binding shackle
of a six or eight weeks cotton money circulation in the fall, to an every day cash in hand business,
then the disaster will rest entirely upon our own shoulders to our everlasting regret.

THE RIGHT POLICY
(From Savannah Morning News October 19th.)

In its latest issue the Statesboro News has announced a policy that might well be followed by all newspapers. It is merely that when politicians desire to use newspaper space to inform the people of their candidate for office, their platforms, claims, promises and what they think about rival politicians,
they must pay for it at advertising rates. That is as it should be,
and yet some of the smaller papers
in the state are frequently burdened with long-winded essays by politicians that are chiefly criticisms of political foes. The States-boro News has not closed its columns to political matter of the right sort as long as it is paid for,
but it takes the position that if the politicians think they have a wonderful message for the people, in the hope of winning the people's vote to satisfy their own ambition, they should not expect the newspaper to furnish the space

free, to say nothing of the expense of setting the type and printing it.
Let the politicians foot their own bills.

NEEDLE SUCCESS

THE Camel of Extravagance has absolutely no chance of passing through the eye of the Needle of Success. EXTRAVAGANCE means WASTE, and waste is the NATURAL ENEMY of suc-CESS. The person who spends his money immoderately, lavishly, recklessly, will naturally NEVER succeed. The secret of success is MOD-ERATION, not excess. The money prodigal very rarely has a fatted calf killed for him. Be MODERATE with your money. GUARD it well.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't stay gray! Here's a simple recipe that anybody can apply with a hair brush.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color has been known to grandmothers since the dawn of time. Sage and Sulphur Compound, you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itching scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, tieing and falling hair. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

Superintendent's Talks to Schools

On Subjects of Interest to the Teachers, Pupils and Patrons

Schools have very nearly all begun on time to get in two months before January term. In most schools there is an unusual number in attendance. The crops have been gathered earlier than in former years, the children are without employment and, as a result, the schools are filled as never before this early in the year. We expect the greatest attendance this term in the history of the free schools in this county. Already, where heretofore we have been able to operate with two teachers, we are now forced to put in three.

An attraction that will be of interest to the oyster and box supper to be given by the Bradwell school on the night of the 10th inst. The young ladies of the community will prepare appropriate boxes and the citizens will arrange to have a good supply of oysters. Going to be a good time. Everybody invited.

Special attention should be paid to the wells supplying the drinking water to the pupils of the school. In many instances the water is allowed to drain directly back into the well in a polluted state, or the wells are not kept well cleaned. Better see that your children are supplied with water that is wholesome. Will prevent sickness and probably death by attention to this matter. Often the water is allowed to accumulate in puddles around the well—the hogs allowed to wallow in it and then it will drain into the well to be used by the pupils. A good coat of cement would keep the surface smooth around the well and would be the thing to keep the surface water out of the way. Teachers could, at a small cost, install bubbler drinking fountains so that the children would not drink after each other and thereby spread diseases. Quite a number of the schools are now planning to have such fountains placed in the school rooms.

Teachers, if there are children who could be in school and who should be there, please get their names and furnish me them. You will notice that your weekly report cards call for this information and quite a number of the teachers fail to furnish this essential information. If there be children whose parents are absolutely unable to buy the books they will need I would be glad to know this fact, and I will see that they are not kept out on this account. Please look into this kind of condition and report such cases to me.

In almost every school community there are white men who are unable to read and write, or are unable to draw checks against their bank accounts. I believe these men could be persuaded to attend a night school of an hour each night until they become able to read and write. It would be quite an accomplishment on the part of the teachers should they succeed in getting in touch with such men and enlist them as pupils and teach them these very useful things. They would ever afterwards be your friends should you enable them to be able to read and write and thereby prepare them to attend to their own banking business and things of this nature. Suppose we make an effort to enable every white man to read and write during the present school term. You would indeed be called blessed.

Non-Resistance

When women sweat me in the face, I must confess I have not grace to stand and let them smite both cheeks, for all my blood with choler reeks, to strike a solar-plexus blow, and lay my rascal foe man low. If some rude man should ever try to smother me in my weather eye, I could not turn unto the scamp, and let him douse my other lamp, to help my soul the buffet bear. I'd smite him on the nether jaw, and try my best the blood to draw, and then methinks that if I prayed, my earnest prayer would be for aid to smother my rival on the snout, and pinch both of his optics out.

And even if some sweet female, with nary claws and piten nail, should unprovoked presume to seek to claw my unoffending cheek, and twine her tawny in my hair, my sad but harmless looks to tear, although I could not be a thug, and crack her sweet and empty mug, I'd freeze her with an icy stare, and swat her with a baleful glare, and let her know for good and all, that I

Influence Of Fertilizers On Succeeding Crops

By Dr. A. M. Soule.

Much interest has been evidenced of late in the effect that a heavy application of fertilizers made to a crop of corn would exercise on a succeeding crop of wheat or other winter cereals. To secure some data on this point, the College of Agriculture two years ago. Seven plots were selected for this work, and, of course, the test was conducted in duplicate. Therefore, the results of four averages are presented in this paper, and give a reasonable estimate of the relative influence which fertilizers applied to corn may be expected to exercise on a succeeding crop of wheat.

No fertilizer was applied on the check plot. On the second plot, 237 pounds of sulfate of soda, 500 pounds of acid phosphate and 500 pounds of muriate of potash were applied; on the third plot, 250 pounds of ammonium sulfate, 500 pounds of acid phosphate and 500 pounds of muriate of potash; on the fourth plot, 254 pounds of calcium cyanamide, 500 pounds of acid phosphate and 500 pounds of muriate of potash; on the fifth plot, 500 pounds of cotton seed meal, 375 pounds of acid phosphate and 50 pounds of muriate of potash; on the sixth plot, 361 pounds of dried blood, 500 pounds of acid phosphate and 50 pounds of muriate of potash; and on the seventh plot, 180 pounds of dried blood, 500 pounds of acid phosphate, 500 pounds of acid phosphate and 50 pounds of muriate of potash.

It will be observed that the same amount of available nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash were used in each instance. It is also noteworthy that the chief carriers of nitrogen were used in comparison with each other. The chief carriers of phosphoric acid were practically 50 pounds of available nitrogen, 50 pounds of available phosphoric acid and 40 pounds of available potassium. These tests were made on what is known as a "sandy soil," which is somewhat richer than the sandy soils of the southeastern part of the state. In plant food, the sandy soil is not so rich as the clay soil. At the same time this soil is quite fertile of the land of Georgia. The results are, therefore, of general interest to all who are concerned in the production of wheat.

It will be observed that the corn grown on these plots was quite liberally fertilized. Of course, as a feeding crop for the plant food applied to the soil, it is expected to take up a very considerable amount of the plant food applied to the land during its relatively long growing period. It is well known that the amount of plant food that can be taken up by the crop, and probably the amount which escape utilization exerts a greater influence on succeeding crops than it is ordinarily given credit for. These tests, as already explained, covered a period of two years.

Annual Yield Per Acre

On the check plot the yield in 1913 was 12.5 bushels, and in 1914, 3.37 bushels of threshed grain, making an average for the two years of 7.93 bushels. Where only sulfate of soda was used the yield in 1913 was 19.15 bushels, and in 1914, 11.08 bushels, or an average of 15.12 bushels, and an increase over no fertilizer of 7.19 bushels. Where sulfate of ammonia was used, the yield in 1913 was 16.60 bushels, and in 1914, 10.25 bushels, making an average of 13.43, or an increase over the yield in 1913 of 4.15 bushels, and in 1914, 2.32 bushels, or an average of 3.23 bushels, and an increase over no fertilizer of 4.29 bushels. Dried blood was used in 1913, 5.75 bushels, making an average of 16.45, and an increase over no fertilizer of 3.52 bushels. In 1914, 10.25 bushels, making an average of 13.35, and an increase over no fertilizer of 5.42 bushels. Dried blood and tankage were also used in 1913, 5.75 bushels, making an average of 16.45, and an increase over no fertilizer of 3.52 bushels. In 1914, 10.25 bushels, making an average of 13.35, and an increase over no fertilizer of 5.42 bushels.

It will thus be seen that the largest yield obtained in 1913 was with cotton seed meal, the next largest with calcium cyanamide and the next with sulfate of ammonia. In 1914 the largest yield was obtained with cotton seed meal, the next with sulfate of ammonia, and the next with cotton seed meal. The best average for the two years was made with cotton seed meal, followed by calcium cyanamide, sulfate of ammonia and ammonium sulfate. In the order named. Cotton seed meal showed the largest average increase over no fertilizer for two years or 9.19 bushels; calcium cyanamide was second with 6.51 bushels, and sulfate of ammonia third, with 5.42 bushels.

1914 Wheat Year

The crop year 1914 was particularly unfavorable for the production of wheat in the vicinity of Atlanta, owing to the extreme drought which prevailed when the wheat was planted. It is also noteworthy that the same amount of plant food was used in each instance. It is also noteworthy that the chief carriers of nitrogen were used in comparison with each other. The chief carriers of phosphoric acid were practically 50 pounds of available nitrogen, 50 pounds of available phosphoric acid and 40 pounds of available potassium. These tests were made on what is known as a "sandy soil," which is somewhat richer than the sandy soils of the southeastern part of the state. Cotton seed meal showed the largest average increase over no fertilizer for two years or 9.19 bushels; calcium cyanamide was second with 6.51 bushels, and sulfate of ammonia third, with 5.42 bushels.

It will thus be seen that the largest yield obtained in 1913 was with cotton seed meal, the next largest with calcium cyanamide and the next with sulfate of ammonia. In 1914 the largest yield was obtained with cotton seed meal, the next with sulfate of ammonia, and the next with cotton seed meal. The best average for the two years was made with cotton seed meal, followed by calcium cyanamide, sulfate of ammonia and ammonium sulfate. In the order named. ## DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Not less meat and take Salt for Backache or Bladder trouble—
Neutralizes acids.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys,
they become overworked; get sluggish, acid, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy, the bladder irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.
When the kidneys stop you must help them flush out the body's urinous waste
or you'll be a real sick person shortly.
At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache,
weak headache, dizziness, stomach gas,
sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water;
also get from any pharmacist a course of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice,
combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys
and stimulate them to normal activity,
also to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation,
thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble
which is only true.

ELECTRICAL PROSPERITY WEEK

The electrical industry is not content to sit quietly and wait for prosperity to take its own good time about coming back. This is not at all the nature of things electrical! It is going right out after prosperity during the week of November 29 and December 4, and bring it back, or know the reason why. And when this three-billion-dollar industry starts out after anything it usually gets it.

Electrical Prosperity Week is to be a county-wide, six-day celebration. Its purpose will be to show to the public how electricity, the all-prevailing force of the universe,
the most willing and most reliable servant in the world, is permanently linked with present day progress. The great celebration will herald far and near electrical wonders of which millions do not know, possibilities of which they have never dreamed, facts that will surprise the most optimistic.

The time is set for November 29
to December 4; the place, the United States of America. Timed for the beginning of the Christmas shopping period, it will afford an effective stimulation to the "shop early" idea. The movement originated with the Society for Electrical development, incorporated with headquarters in New York.
It is backed by the united electrical interests of the country.

It is planned to hasten an era of depression, to hasten an era of brightness, truth and understanding, to foster a spirit of optimism.
All are not fully aware of the vast possibilities of electricity in solving domestic and business problems. Homes where drudgery exists can be made cleaner, brighter and healthier by the willing servant. Expensive, inefficient and wasteful methods now employed in thousands of industrial and commercial establishments can be hastened by electric power.

It is the purpose of Electric Prosperity Week to bring these facts home to people by display, exhibitions, lectures, shows and advertising. People will be shown conclusively that electricity is a necessity, not a luxury; is economical, not expensive; is simple,
not complex; is general in scope,
not limited; is safe not dangerous;
is useful every day in the week.
The Society for Electrical development, supported by legions of boosters, comprising a unanimous and unbroken lineup of the electrical fraternity throughout the country, is managing the great event. Optimists find this movement a real opportunity to rally
to the banner in ever increasing numbers.

Electricity spreads rapidly; itching almost drives you mad. For quick relief, Doan's Ointment is well recommended. 50c at all stores.—

About Georgia and Georgians

Items of Interest Concerning
People and Things in the State

Atlanta, Nov. 10.—Prospects seem better for an early adjournment of the legislature than was originally expected when they convened. The assembly was criticized for waiting a lot of time during the regular session, and the disposition of everybody seems to be in the special session to hew to the line and get as much done as possible.

Once prohibition is settled and out of the way, a couple of weeks hard work should dispose of the other important matters before the deliberative body, and the legislators are looking forward hopefully to being back with their families
early in December at the latest.

When the assembly first convened for this session there were those who feared that it might have to sit for fifty days, which would have carried it nearly to Christmas time.

Atlanta, Nov. 10.—Prominent Atlanta Masons who have returned from the annual state meeting at Macon say the grand lodge officers and other Masons in attendance expressed great gratification at the steady growth and progress of the Mason's Annual, which is the organization which provides for the widows and orphans of deceased Masons.

The headquarters of the Mason's Anniversary is in Atlanta, and it is one of the most successful institutions of its kind in the world. It has already paid out to beneficiaries $603,802.21, and has assets
at the present time amounting to $863,429.38.

Atlanta, Nov. 10.—Now that the boll weevil is actually on the borders of Georgia, and with boll weevil conference pending in Atlanta, Georgians are recalling the efforts of Hon. W. J. Harris, then U. S. director of the census, over a year ago to warn and prepare the people of this state for what was coming.

Senator Harris deserves credit for doing the first real missionary work in Georgia along boll weevil lines, when he sent out thousands of boll weevil circulars throughout southwest Georgia, which had been prepared under his directions for this purpose by the department of Commerce and the Census Bureau.

He predicted at that time that the weevil would probably strike Georgia this year, but like some other suggestions made by him in the past and which later proved valuable, the people generally speaking, neglected to act on them.

Now, however, state wide interest is being aroused in the light and hundreds of important conferences and gatherings are scheduled this fall to make further plans for combating the pest.

Atlanta, Nov. 10.—According to health officials, the washing, factial in every home, has been condemned and is deemed to disappear along with the roller towel
and other unsanitary relics of the past.

The scientists have discovered that a wash cloth, particularly one of the type known as the "roller towel," is a breeding place for germs.

HIGH SCHOOL ITEMS

(Miss Blanche DeLoach, Beverly Moore.)

The girls of the D. L. S. held their regular meeting on Friday afternoon, November 5th. The following program was rendered:

Debate. Resolved, A girl should be given a thorough training in a literary course before specializing in any one branch.

Affirmative. Negative. Lillie Edensfield. Lena B. Brannen. Ethel McDaniel. Nellie Smith.

Piano solo, "Tam O'Shanter"—Miss Lucile Parker. Recitation, "The Preacher Preferred Spot Cash"—Miss Louise Foy.

Current Events—Miss Clyde Clifton.

The debate was rendered in favor of the affirmative.

The boys of the M. L. S. entertained the girls of the D. L. S. on Friday evening, November 12th, with a "Tacky Party." They are looking forward to a jolly time.

A Thanksgiving program has been prepared by the girls on the program committee of the D. L. S. for Friday afternoon, November 19th. We wish to have the parents show their interest by coming out on that afternoon.

Remember the recital that will be given by the music and expression teachers on Friday evening, November 19th, in the school auditorium. No admission fee will be charged.

We are ready for winter now. Our Janitor, "Jabbo West," has proven to us that the steam heat system is in as good working order as ever.

The majority of the High school pupils wish to see the school enlarged by adding on another grade. Prof. Earle has been notified by Mr. Hooper of Athens, a member of the University of Georgia faculty, that all colleges are going up two units, and by finishing with only ten grades in our school would make it impossible for us to enter any of the colleges. We hope that the board will put on this extra grade.

The boys' society carried out their regular program, as follows: Debate. Resolved, That the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors should be abolished in Georgia.

Affirmative. Negative. H. Quattlebaum. Thos. Sasser. Dave Rigdon. Frank Ray. Frank Simmons. Leo Warren. Bonnie Waters. Clint Youmans.

Original jokes—Frank Wilson. Current events—Joe Zetterower.

The Judges rendered their decision in favor of the negative. On account of some of the speakers being absent, we had some to volunteer: Waldo Floyd, Linton Lanier, Harry Everett and Fred Cone.

Foot ball season is about to end, and we have only about two more games to play, probably one.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life.

If your work is tiring; if your nerves are excited; if you feel languid, weary or depressed, you should know that Scott's Emulsion overcomes just such conditions.

It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength.

Scott's is strengthening thousands of mothers—and will help you. No alcohol. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WELL?

Many Statesboro People Know the Importance of Healthy Kidneys.

The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. Well kidneys remove impurities. Weak kidneys allow impurities to multiply.

No kidney ill should be neglected. There is possibly danger in delay. If you have backache or urinary troubles,

If you are nervous, dizzy or worn out, Begin treating your kidneys at once; Use a proven kidney remedy.

None endorsed like Doan's Kidney Pills. Recommended by thousands. Proved by Statesboro testimony.

Mrs. A. T. Peak, 62 W. Main street, Statesboro, says: "Some time ago I was suffering from kidney trouble. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they rid me of all symptoms of the trouble. I have had no return of the complaint."

Price, 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy; get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Peak had.

Piano solo, "Capriccio"—Miss Marie Bowen.

Journal—Miss Mary Lou Lester. Song, "Good Night Little Girl, Good Night."—Miss Emma Lou Alderman, Elizabeth Bites, Mildred Donaldson, Melrose Kennedy, Annie Laurie Turner and Edna McDonald.

The Judges rendered their decision in favor of the negative. On account of some of the speakers being absent, we had some to volunteer: Waldo Floyd, Linton Lanier, Harry Everett and Fred Cone.

Foot ball season is about to end, and we have only about two more games to play, probably one.

The majority of the High school pupils wish to see the school enlarged by adding on another grade. Prof. Earle has been notified by Mr. Hooper of Athens, a member of the University of Georgia faculty, that all colleges are going up two units, and by finishing with only ten grades in our school would make it impossible for us to enter any of the colleges. We hope that the board will put on this extra grade.

The boys' society carried out their regular program, as follows: Debate. Resolved, That the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors should be abolished in Georgia.

Weekly Report of Business Conditions Southern and South Atlantic States

LYNCHBURG.—Industrial conditions have not materially changed during the past two weeks, the trend of trade being still upward, and most departments making a very satisfactory showing as to the volume of sales. Some manufacturing lines are now running well up to capacity, and in some cases the demand is ahead of the supply. Warm weather has slightly retarded retail trade in wearing apparel, though local department stores report conditions better than for the same period of last year, collections showing some improvement.

JACKSONVILLE.—While the volume of general trade is still below that of this time a year ago, there has been considerable improvement during the past few weeks and sales in some lines are now fully normal. A marked increase in the demand for lumber and naval stores and advancing prices, has been of great benefit and sentiment as regards the future is much more confident. The crop of citrus fruit will be somewhat below the average, but the loss is offset by more satisfactory prices.

NEW ORLEANS.—More seasonable weather is necessary to give the proper stimulus to general trade, through business as a whole is satisfactory, and shows a considerable improvement over the same period last year. Collections are much better. The weather has been favorable for harvesting and marketing the cotton, and prospects of a large cotton yield than anticipated, have forced a decline in the price of that product. Sugar steady and arrivals of the new crop and a ready sale. The Louisiana crop will be short, and as the demand will apparently be active, it is the opinion that higher prices will prevail. The demand for rice is strong and arrivals have been quickly absorbed by the millers. Real estate is showing some activity, labor is well employed, and the outlook for a good business is encouraging.

U. S. MARINE CORPS 140 YEARS OLD.

Has Been Permanently Organized Since 1798

The United States Marine Corps was first called into existence by an act of the Continental Congress of November 10, 1775, and gallantly served throughout the Revolutionary War. It was disbanded at the close of the war, April 11, 1782, but was reorganized and permanently established July 11, 1798. From that day to this its officers and men have been zealous participants in every expedition in which the Navy has engaged, and in many trying campaigns they have won distinction with their brethren of the Army. It is the gallant little corps that has so ably assisted in fighting America's battles in every corner of the globe for more than a century; its members are the first men on the ground in case of trouble with a foreign power, and the first men into battle in case of hostilities. They have at all times served their country faithfully, both in peace and in war, and have reflected great credit upon themselves as a corps and on the nation which they represent. Ever have they lived up to the letter as well as the spirit of the motto of the corps, "Semper Parati." Marines have served on both land and sea, but are trained, clothed, and equipped very much as are soldiers of the land forces.

The military and naval services of the United States are divided into three separate and distinct branches, the Army with its duties on land, the Navy at sea, and the Marine Corps which serves both on land and sea. The Marine Corps is a separate organization, entirely, and is under the direct supervision of the secretary of the Navy, and usually serves with the Navy. In time of war or other public emergency the president is empowered to detach the Marines for service with the Army.

A WEEK OF PROSPERITY

Electrical Industry to Celebrate the Return of Good Times During Week of Nov. 29 to Dec. 4.

The electrical industry, with investments of more than $3,000,000, will celebrate the return of prosperity during the week of November 29 to December 4. This week has been named "Prosperity Week," a period of a national awakening to optimism and opportunity.

Not only will this important week of 1915 be devoted to the celebration of better times and prosperity in general, but a mighty effort will be made to show the people of this country how much prosperity, in every branch of industry and arts, depends upon electricity.

The electrical industry has four branches. The manufacturer constructs wires, houses, factories, public buildings and industries so that the current may be used. The 4992 electric plants sell service, which is electric current, to the public. The electrical contractor wires houses, factories, public buildings and industries so that the current may be used. The electrical dealer sells the 600-odd electrical appliances which the public uses, and the electrical jobber is the necessary middleman of the industry who works with the manufacturer and dealer to get electrical goods in use.

For Electrical Prosperity Week the great electric plants, which do an annual business of more than $400,000,000, will co-operate with the contractors, merchants and local business men in securing "White Ways" and unusual lighting in streets and business places. They will conduct electrical shows for exhibiting and demonstrating all kinds of electrical goods. They will boost the Week's news-paper advertising, will award for the best illuminated stores, will invite the public to inspect the electric plant, and enterprising plants will give prizes to school children for the best essays on electrical subjects.

The electrical interests will send forth an army of salesmen to show the housewife how to use electricity in the home and realize the economy and convenience it brings. They can easily show how every commodity in life has steadily risen to increase the high cost of living in recent years while the price of electricity is the only public servant which has rapidly decreased in cost. People pay much less for electricity now than ever before.

The woman's clubs, the public schools, the department stores and the public are important elements in the campaign. The public will do their Christmas shopping during the week instead of during the
