BEASLEY TO REBUILD

Will Start Soon After Jan. 1st

Complete Repair and Machine Shop to be Erected

The Beasley machine shop, recently totally destroyed by fire, will be rebuilt soon after Jan. 1st. It is planned to erect a completely equipped shop for general repair and all kind of machinery, autos and engines. Mr. Beasley feels that there is a demand in Statesboro for a modern machine shop and will install all the latest working devices for repair work of all kinds of machinery and automobiles. In fact, it will be so thoroughly equipped that an automobile could be entirely built in the new shop.

FOOT BALL CHRISTMAS DAY

Millen Vs Statesboro—Old Ball Park at 2:30 P. M.

The Statesboro Foot Ball team will clash with the Millen eleven Christmas day at the old ball park. The game being called at 2:30 p. m. There is much interest attached to this game coming as it does on the big holiday of the year and because of the previous games played by these teams. The local team in order to stimulate interest in the sport have very willingly shouldered a guarantee in connection with the expenses to attend the trip of the Millen boys and in consequence a gate fee will be charged. It is hoped that a liberal attendance will be accorded this game that the teams may be encouraged to promote other and more frequently scheduled contests during the season.

Itching, bleeding, protruding or blind piles have yielded to Doan's Ointment. 50c at all drug stores.—Adv.

R. SIMMONS GIVES BANQUET

To Employees and Friends

Wednesday night Mr. R. Simmons tendered his employees and a few friends a merry Christmas supper at Barker's restaurant. To his employees who have worked so strenuously the past two weeks during the Mercantile Co's great holiday sale, Mr. Simmons is especially appreciative and his compliments were given in this manner. Among those who were invited were W. J. Rackley, L. M. Anderson, Joe Ben Martin, L. T. Denmark, L. O. Scarborough, Geo. Simmons, R. Barnes, Bruce Davidson, Col. Jones, A. O. Bland, B. W. Strickland, M. H. Mikell, Lester Kennedy, Lester Brannon, W. D. Anderson, Eldred Allen, Paul Simmons and R. Simmons.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is both a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's.

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of a letter from the president of the State College of Agriculture at Athens, calling my attention to the short course in Agriculture beginning on Jan. 4th and concluding on Jan. 15th. At these courses in charge to lay special emphasis on diversification and to discuss ways and means to be pursued in order to meet the demands of the soil weevil.

We are just now face to face with the most serious situation we have ever been called upon to meet and unless we come to it thoroughly prepared, the list of business casualties will be as large in proportion as those reported from the lines in Europe. The state is doing its share in offering us the opportunity to prepare ourselves at a limited expense and if we go down in defeat before Mr. Weevil, as thousands have done in other states, it will be our own fault.

Apart from the question of the soil weevil, the lectures, of which there are 175, will go fully into scientific farming as distinguished from the hit-and-miss plan we have pursued so unsuccessfully for so many years. If there is any future to our country, and no doubt there is, it seems to me that this development must come through a full use of the possibilities of our land.

After all, our land is the only asset we have. We have no coal, iron, water power, mineral oil stored in our land, but Providence has stored a fat living in these broad acres of old Bulloch, for the man that will go after it in the right manner, using the brain God gave him as much as he uses his hands in the work on the farm. The men who are making money on their farms now are the ones who are keeping their brains as busy as their hands. In fact this is true in all lines of business, and if we keep abreast of the times we must PREPARE.

It was my pleasure recently to make a short trip with my father to a section in South Carolina where the soil and other conditions are almost identical with ours. I had heard of a man over there who was getting rich farming, and that promised such an interesting and unheard-of sight that I journeyed all the way there to see it. I really expected to find a kind of a wizard, an Edison or something of the sort, but what I did find was a plain, practical every-day kind of farmer, who was as surprised at seeing us as we were at seeing him. He didn't have any panacea at all for all the ills of farming. In fact after talking with him for some time I discovered that he had just as much trouble as we have, except financial. I haven't space to go into all he told me, but the gist of what we got out of our trip there was DIVERSIFICATION. This man raised everything he used on that

SAVANNAH THEATRE

"Everywoman."

Surpassing in size and magnificence anything which has hitherto been offered to the public in a traveling organization, Henry W. Savage's production of the dramatic spectacle, "Everywoman," which will be seen at Savannah Theatre on Monday, matinee and night, Dec. 27, stands alone. No other manager would have attempted to present with a traveling organization a spectacle so massive. Not a feature which was used with this production during its two years' run in New York has been eliminated. In addition to the large number of people required to work the mechanical and electrical effects of the production, an entire symphony orchestra is carried by the company. The music, which was composed by George Whitfield Chadwick, dean of the New England Conservatory of music, of Boston, requires an intelligent and careful rendering to bring out all its beauties and only skilled musicians, after weeks of strenuous rehearsal, are competent to present it. The organization is equipped with two car loads of scenery and mechanical effects. The company includes a grand opera and a musical comedy chorus, in addition to the large dramatic ensemble. "Everywoman" is, in fact, a combination of the more attractive features of opera, musical comedy and drama. Seat sale next Friday, Dec. 24. Matinee 25c to $1.50. Night, 50c to $2. No phone orders. No seats held.—Adv.

HELP THE KIDNEYS

Learning the Way

It's the little kidney ills—The lame, weak or aching back—The unnoticed urinary disorders.

That may lead to dropsy and bright's disease. When the kidneys are weak, Help them with Doan's Kidney Pills. A remedy especially for weak kidneys. Doan's have been used in kidney troubles for 30 years. Endorsed by 30,000 people—endorsed at home. Proof in a Statesboro citizen's statement.

Mrs. J. F. Aiken, 2 Inman St., Statesboro, says: "I have given Doan's Kidney Pills a fair trial and from the good results I have had, I know that they are a good kidney medicine. I recommend them to others suffering from kidney complaint."

Price, 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Aiken had.

farm as far as he is able, and in addition to that he raises a surplus of every crop for sale. Among other things he raised peanuts, corn, potatoes, rice, sugar cane, rye, oats, asparagus, watermelons, peas, beans, hay, hogs and cotton. When we went to that place eight years ago they were raising only cotton. Now he devotes two-thirds of his lands to other crops, and is raising more cotton on the remaining third than they were formerly raising on the entire place.

The expenses of this course are small. You can get good board at Athens for $1.00 per day and the railroads offer low rates, showing the appreciation of its value. This is not a child's course, but is intended for business, landowners and tenants, in fact, for all the men upon whom the prosperity of the state depends. I will be glad to furnish anyone with bulletins and other information I may possess at any time, or you may get them from the farm demonstration agent of this county. It will be necessary for you to write the President, Andrew M. Soule, right away for them to reserve your accommodations as they expect several hundred men at this course and the accommodations are limited.

Yours very truly,

W. E. McDUGALD.

Tommy's New Year Resolutions

RESOLVE first, to never fight less time tonight.

Resolve two, to never again see Teacher less the Gita on My nerves dreadfully. Do try being Patient in School.

Resolve three, to never eat another bite after nine o'clock. Enuff is enuff for Any Ole person.

Resolve four, to try to live so as to be asked Some Day as Captain of Our football team. Its a Honorable Job, and I want to be honorable most always.

Resolve five, to never, never tell stories. The old Dad Ma has got it in for fellows who fib to their Maws and Paws.

Resolve six, to not make ugly faces nor laugh at girls Any More. They cant help being Girls. Matchers made us what they are, and Boys should feel sorry for em.

I guess this is enuff for this year. So Be ring off and shut up my Resolve book till next year.

A NEW YEAR'S APPEAL.

Prisoners For Debt Used Day to Tell of Their Unfortunate Condition.

The newspapers of a century ago afford ample evidence of the cruelty and futility of one of the laws of the day—namely, the punishment of debt by imprisonment, says Alice Morse Earle. It was an utterly hopeless task for any imprisoned for debt, ever to expect to be released save by pardoning, and the sufferings of such prisoners was extreme, as they had no charity funds to draw upon to mitigate the woes and misery, the filth and horror of their surroundings. These unhappy men often chose the opening of the new year—a time of gladness hope to the world in general—to appeal for aid in their utter forlornness, and in the newspapers at the close of the year appeals for help printed through the pity of the publisher of the news sheet, and in early January sometimes humble thanks for gifts from generous citizens. Here is an advertisement from the New York Gazette, January, 1761.

Twice happy, whose tender Care believes the poor Distress.

When Troubles compass them around The Lord shall give them Rest.

We, the poor Prisoners confined in the Gaol of the City of New York, do take this public Opportunity of returning our most humble and hearty Thanks to our generous but unknown Benefactors for relieving us this severe Season when we were almost perished with Cold and Hunger, by sending two Quarters of Best, one Cord of Wood, Twelve Shillings in Money and three dozen of Loaves of Bread, which was fairly and justly distributed between us. And that God Almighty may give them Health and Happiness in the present Life and Eternal Happiness in the next are the sincere wishes and desires of THE POOR UNFORTUNATE PRISONERS.

Strange New Year Celebration.

What probably is the strangest New Year's rite is held in the Cevennes mountains, in southern France. At the last evening mass of the old year the herds and flocks of the peasantry are gathered before the portals of the little stone church high up on the mountain side and are blessed by the priest and sprinkled with holy water by the acolyte, who follows him in order that this sole wealth of the countryside may increase and prosper during the year to come. The sight of the holy water is wonderful. As the church bell tolls above them the frightened animals bleat and bellow and try madly to escape. First the oxen are blessed, then the cows, next the sheep and lambs and finally the goats and pigs.—Chicago Tribune.

New Year's Day in March.

New Year's day used to fall in March, not in January, and there was a good deal of sense in this, for, even as the world's first year was supposed to have begun in the sprouting of leaf and grass, so each New Year's day was set for the season when Nature began to wake after her winter sleep.

Dec. 31.

Best day of all the year, since I May see those past and know That if thou dost not leave me high Thou hast not found me low, And since, as I behold thee die, Thou leavest me the right to say That I tomorrow still may live.

With them that keep the upward way.

Best day of all the year to me, Since I may stand and gaze Across the grayish past and see So many crooked ways.

That might have led to misery Or, happily ended at disaster: Best day since thou dost leave me free To look the future in the face.

Best day of all days of the year

That was so kind, so good Since thou dost leave me still the dear Old faith is brotherhood: Best day since I, still striving here, May view the past with small regret And, undisturbed by doubts or fear, Seek paths that are untrod as yet.

—Chicago Record-Herald.

When the New Year Arrives

AT certain periods of the year there are certain diseases that sweep the country. In the spring influenza attacks mankind; in the summer, rose fever, and in the early autumn the hay fever snuffles and mangles the human race. But with the beginning of the year an epidemic of a disease of the most virulent sort spreads over the civilized world, causing misery and death to a hundred of its inhabitants to rise their right hands involuntarily and swear by all that's holy they will hold fast to the straight and narrow path for ever and forever.

The symptoms of the disease are always the same. It is better and more generally known than the common cold; it is more regular in its appearance, and more persons suffer from it than from any other affliction, yet physicians and bacteriologists have never found a remedy or isolated its germ. This microbe, once taken into the system, can never be eliminated. The same victims suffer from it year after year, and each year end hundreds of thousands of new sufferers join the ranks.

The disease first makes its appearance in December. A victim becomes heartily around a poker table and announces, "Well, boys, I swear off on the 1st."

Jan. 1 arrives. Simultaneously several hundred million persons rise, yawn and glance at the calendar. Involuntarily the muscles of the right arm contract, elevating that member toward the ceiling. In a state of temporary stupor the victim voices good intentions. Some of the more serious cases even rush off to a notary public to record these thoughts in black and white and pay said notary $5. The stupor is attended by either a lapse of memory or a distorted mentality. In the first case the victim has entirely forgotten his attack of the year before; in the second he says, as he has before:

Resolve four, to try to live so as to be asked Some Day as Captain of Our football team. Its a Honorable Job, and I want to be honorable most always.

Resolve five, to never, never tell stories. The old Dad Ma has got it in for fellows who fib to their Maws and Paws.

Resolve six, to not make ugly faces nor laugh at girls Any More. They cant help being Girls. Matchers made us what they are, and Boys should feel sorry for em.

I guess this is enuff for this year. So Be ring off and shut up my Resolve book till next year.

A NEW YEAR'S APPEAL.

Prisoners For Debt Used Day to Tell of Their Unfortunate Condition.

The newspapers of a century ago afford ample evidence of the cruelty and futility of one of the laws of the day—namely, the punishment of debt by imprisonment, says Alice Morse Earle. It was an utterly hopeless task for any imprisoned for debt, ever to expect to be released save by pardoning, and the sufferings of such prisoners was extreme, as they had no charity funds to draw upon to mitigate the woes and misery, the filth and horror of their surroundings. These unhappy men often chose the opening of the new year—a time of gladness hope to the world in general—to appeal for aid in their utter forlornness, and in the newspapers at the close of the year appeals for help printed through the pity of the publisher of the news sheet, and in early January sometimes humble thanks for gifts from generous citizens. Here is an advertisement from the New York Gazette, January, 1761.

Twice happy, whose tender Care believes the poor Distress.

When Troubles compass them around The Lord shall give them Rest.

We, the poor Prisoners confined in the Gaol of the City of New York, do take this public Opportunity of returning our most humble and hearty Thanks to our generous but unknown Benefactors for relieving us this severe Season when we were almost perished with Cold and Hunger, by sending two Quarters of Best, one Cord of Wood, Twelve Shillings in Money and three dozen of Loaves of Bread, which was fairly and justly distributed between us. And that God Almighty may give them Health and Happiness in the present Life and Eternal Happiness in the next are the sincere wishes and desires of THE POOR UNFORTUNATE PRISONERS.

Strange New Year Celebration.

What probably is the strangest New Year's rite is held in the Cevennes mountains, in southern France. At the last evening mass of the old year the herds and flocks of the peasantry are gathered before the portals of the little stone church high up on the mountain side and are blessed by the priest and sprinkled with holy water by the acolyte, who follows him in order that this sole wealth of the countryside may increase and prosper during the year to come. The sight of the holy water is wonderful. As the church bell tolls above them the frightened animals bleat and bellow and try madly to escape. First the oxen are blessed, then the cows, next the sheep and lambs and finally the goats and pigs.—Chicago Tribune.

New Year's Day in March.

New Year's day used to fall in March, not in January, and there was a good deal of sense in this, for, even as the world's first year was supposed to have begun in the sprouting of leaf and grass, so each New Year's day was set for the season when Nature began to wake after her winter sleep.

Dec. 31.

Best day of all the year, since I May see those past and know That if thou dost not leave me high Thou hast not found me low, And since, as I behold thee die, Thou leavest me the right to say That I tomorrow still may live.

With them that keep the upward way.

Best day of all the year to me, Since I may stand and gaze Across the grayish past and see So many crooked ways.

That might have led to misery Or, happily ended at disaster: Best day since thou dost leave me free To look the future in the face.

Best day of all days of the year

That was so kind, so good Since thou dost leave me still the dear Old faith is brotherhood: Best day since I, still striving here, May view the past with small regret And, undisturbed by doubts or fear, Seek paths that are untrod as yet.

—Chicago Record-Herald.

business and mammoth industries, are hit and hit hard. The fact that in most cases the recovery is exceedingly rapid is the only redeeming feature. Few of the resolution makers have been known to remain in dreamland later than noon of Jan. 1.

Perhaps, one reason, officials of the affected industries have made no effort to have the government take measures to prevent the spread of this New Year's disease to the younger generation, and to try to effect its cure in the case of present victims is that with recovery comes an increased addiction to the articles in question. This is another generally recognized symptom and is a secondary and psychological effect rather than a primary and physical.

In from five minutes to one week, statistics show, the disease usually runs its course. The victim becomes to himself again. He draws himself to his full height, voices the thought, "Aw, what's the use?" and resumes his normal mode of life with renewed ardor. If he's a smoker he smokes more often for a few days; then gradually habits become normal until the next attack gives a new impetus. This is shown by the consumption of cigars. During the first few days of January fever

THE ORIGIN OF DISEASE

(By Elizabeth Towne, in the Nautilus Magazine.)

All diseases have their rise in tension. Just think a thought of hate, and see how it makes you clench your hands. It makes you clench also your muscles and your nerves, all the way through. It sets up a tension within you that persists as long as the thought is held. As soon as you displace the hate thought with a love thought the tension is released. Watch your own sensations as you think certain thoughts and you will know that this is true.

Now a "mental cancer" is the result, not of a single hate thought entertained for a moment and then displaced by a love thought—it is the result of repeated hate thoughts, making a chronic state of tension somewhere in the body. This tension chokes off the blood supply, which brings new life and carries off effete matter. In other words, through tension the body is starved of its power to throw off effete matter. The tissue of a tensed spot become overcharged with "fatigue poison," making them exactly the right sort of culture bed for any kind of disease germs.

So, TENSION IS AT THE BOTTOM OF ALL DISEASE. I make this statement without fear of controversy.

AND THE CAUSE OF TENSION IS A THOUGHT OF FEAR, or of hate, or of HURRY, FLURRY, SOURRY.

To restate it, a thought of hate makes tension in the body. This tension affects most positively the "weakest spot" in the body. A thought of love sent in the same direction will lease the tension. But every thought of hate sent in the same direction increases the tension. This works automatically.

those engaged in codifying the children's laws of any state."—Athens Banner.

The people of this section feel very grateful to the Hon. Clark Howell, of Atlanta, and one of the two commissioners designated to select the Eastern Dixie Highway route through Georgia, for deciding in favor of the Savannah-Darien-Jacksonville route. Mr. Anderson, the other commissioner, favors the Fitzgerald-Waycross route. Mr. Howell gives some splendid reasons for favoring this route and we now feel more sanguine than ever that we will be on the Dixie Highway. All that is needed is to place all the facts before the full board of commissioners and let them decide it. We have no fear as to the result if this is done—and it will be done, we feel sure.—Darien Gazette.

Community Christmas trees seem to be quite numerous this year. This is a happy idea indeed. Every community should encourage this idea. There are hundreds of thousands of little ones throughout this land of ours who were not visited by Santa Claus, the good patron saint of all little children, Christmas morning. "It is more blessed to give than receive."—Telfair Enterprise.

The more "prongs" the Dixie Highway has, the better it will be for the state, because it will mean more good "big roads." It is an effort to play to all the winds may "blow" much good to all.—Valosta Times.

MRS. CHAS. PEDEN GAINS 27 POUNDS

Was Twice Examined and Each Time Was Told Operation Would be Only Hope.

"I have just finished my third bottle of Tanlac and have gained twenty-seven pounds," was the truly remarkable statement made by Mrs. Chas. Peden, residing at 550 Mill street, Hartselle, Ala. Mrs. Peden is one of the best-known and highly respected women of that thriving little city, where she has made her home for number of years.

"When I commenced taking the medicine," she continued, "I only weighed ninety-eight (98) pounds; now I weigh 125 pounds, and never felt better in my life. For years I have suffered with a bad form of stomach trouble, constipation and pains in my side and back. At times the pains took the form of torture and I was twice examined and each time I was told that I had appendicitis and that an operation would be my only hope. I had fallen off until I only weighed ninety-eight pounds and was so weak I could hardly get around.

"I had no appetite at all scarcely, and what little I did eat would cause gas to form in my stomach, which gave me palpitation of the heart, sick headaches and a dizzy feeling about the head. When these spells came on me I would get awfully nervous. I worried about myself until I could rest and sleep but little.

"I had fallen off until I was almost 'skin and bone,' and my strength and energy were slowly leaving me. I had a dread of the future and could see nothing but the operating table and knife. I had a perfect horror of an operation, but had made up my mind that it was either life or death, and prepared to submit to it. I had made all preparations for the operation and called on my sister to tell her good-by, as I did not know whether I would live to see her again or not. My sister begged and pleaded with me not to allow them to cut me and told me to wait and try a good tonic for a while. The next day as I returned from the consultation room I thought of what she said, and as I had heard so much about Tanlac I decided to try it as a last resort and stopped at Gilbert's Drug Store and got a bottle. Of course, I had lost heart and had no faith in the medicine, but to please my sister I made up my mind to take it, and, oh, what a happy day that was for me!

"I never returned for the operation, but just kept taking the Tanlac. Right from the start I began to feel better. The medicine seemed to take hold right at once. It had a soothing effect, and in a few days I felt no pain at all. I was so happy over the wonderful improvement in my condition that I sent for my neighbors to tell them how much better I felt. I sent for another bottle of Tanlac, have just finished taking my third bottle and feel like I have been made all over again into a new woman.

"As I have said before, I now weigh 125 pounds, and my improvement has been so rapid that none of my clothes are big enough for me. I will have to make them all over again. I now have a ravenous appetite, and my husband says I am simply eating him out of house and home. I have even gone back to my office, which I was told not to touch. Those terrible pains in my back and head have all disappeared and I sleep like a child. I am no longer nervous, and when I get up mornings I feel refreshed, cheerful and bright. I am now able to tend to my household duties, and I feel as if I had started life over again. My husband is highly delighted, and my recovery is the talk of the neighborhood. I do nothing but

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

Keep her locks youthful, dark, glossy and thick with common garden Sage and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling. Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

Superintendent's Talks to Schools

On Subjects of Interest to the Teachers, Pupils and Patrons

Let every man who can do it send every child of school age in at the opening of the school the first of the year. In many sections the schools are now half out. We certainly should take advantage of every school day that is given. In those sections where they began early in the fall and where they will be out early in the spring the children will be available for the purpose of making a crop next year. The uncertainty of conditions will cause many men to use his children in order to prevent making debts that he can see no definite way of paying. Now that schools will be out earlier than usual will give such men a chance to work his children just when he will need their help most and in that way will be able to make a crop and gather it again by the time school opens next fall.

Teachers, do not forget that we are called by the state authorities to meet in institute work the second week in January for three days 13-14-15. This is binding on all our teachers, and no local authority is in power to grant a release from this duty. Remember this plan to be present at the time indicated.

On last Wednesday evening the teachers of the Middle Ground high school gave an entertainment that was an enjoyable affair. Had picture exhibition and a box supper that resulted in raising about $70.00 with which they propose to make needed improvements. This school is being successfully taught by Prof. B. H. Ramsey assisted by Misses Rosa Womack and Daisy Averitt. Middle Ground still holds her position right at the top where the patrons of that community say the school must stay and it will.

Early in February there will be given a special examination to those who are without a license and who are entitled to take such an examination. Make ready for this examination. We do not propose to give but one special.

Prof. C. H. Parrish and wife gave a box supper and picture exhibition on last Thursday evening that was a success in every way. They raised about $80.00 for improvement purposes. The Ingleside school is coming to the front under the new management. They propose to be classed with our best schools in the way of equipment in the near future, and at the present rate of progress, they will be right at the front in a few more weeks. Recently added single patent desks and other things that were badly needed. Ingleside is on a boom.

The Rimes school house will be re-completed by time for school to open the 4th day of January. Miss Leona Groover will be principal next year.

COTTON MARKET

Some covering of short contracts was included in the census giving report. This was bullish, the total—10,808,254 bales prior to December 13—being rather smaller than expected.

In not a few quarters sentiment is bullish for a long pull, mainly on the theory that sooner or later the south must dispose of its accumulation of cotton. At present, however, there is no evidence that spot holders are anxious to sell.

Following last Saturday's sharply rally, price fluctuations were generally unimportant. Indeed the market drifted into the state of dullness usually witnessed during Christmas week.

Increased attention is being attracted by the steadily widening difference between New York and Liverpool prices. In some instances the differences have reached or exceeded 300 points.

Amendments to Cotton Futures Acts

The Secretary of Agriculture has amended his rules and regulations under the United States Cotton Futures Act by making changes designed to permit the filling of what are known to cotton exchange brokers as "replacement disputes," to reduce the amount of cost which may be assessed for hearing a dispute involving a small number of bales, and to lessen the clerical labor in connection with the determination of disputes.

The first change permits the party to future exchange contracts to refer to the Secretary of Agriculture disputes involving the grade, length of staple or quality of cotton tendered in replacement or other cotton previously tendered which has been rejected by the party receiving the tender. Complaints of stipulations in connection with these disputes may be filed on or before the fifth business day succeeding the date of the tender.

The second change reduces from $10 to $5 the minimum amount which may be assessed as costs in any dispute. No change is made in the rate where the total charge would be more than $5 based on the rates per bale set out in the regulations.

The third change makes it optional with the office of markets and rural organization, instead of mandatory as in the past, to furnish the parties with the examiner's memorandum of conclusions, this change having been made for the reason that ordinarily the formal findings of the Secretary are prepared and sent to the parties on the same date as the memorandum of conclusions, making it unnecessary in such cases to prepare and send out copies of the memorandum.

A Prayer

For the Eleven Thousand

which was written for the eleven thousand employees of the Central of Georgia Railway and contributed to the Right Way by Harry Stillwell Edwards, noted author of Macon, Ga.

"Almighty God we thank Thee that Thou hast brought us safely through another year to the day Thou gavest to us Thy Son for Friend, Counselor and Redeemer.

"We realize that we are a people of many occupations grouped around sacred trust, the prosperity and the lives of others; sacred because they are trusts imposed on our manhood and because on them rests the prosperity and happiness of many thousands of fellow beings.

"We know that the strength of our chain is its weakest link and the weakness of a railroad is in the individual, and that no man can be a weak link and dare look Thee in the face.

"Almighty God, Thou knowest our record for the years that have passed, our trials and struggles, our failures and achievements; that we have fought a good fight and, in the main, have carried, with Thy help, our trusts to safety. Now in the mercy and forgiveness of all our weakness look down on us, sustain us in the days of toil, preserve us in the hours of peril, and strengthen us in our endeavors to discharge faithfully every duty we owe to each other, to ourselves, and to Thee, and let Thy blessings continue to all who look to us for their happiness and duty bread.

And by day whether in cloud or sunshine, whether in storm or fair weather, be Thou with us. And by night, whether we lie down in darkness or under the stars of peaceful skies, be Thou with us our slumber song Thy benediction, our pillow a conscience that is clear. Amen!"

Doan's Regulate are recommended by many who say they operate easily, without griping and without bad after effects. 25c at all drug stores.—Adv.

STATSBORO'S SPLENDID VOL- UNTEER FIRE DEPARTMENT

And Her Inefficient Water Protection and Fire Plug Service to Back Them Up

Fortunate is the little city of a few thousand people these days of halocasts, etc., that have a body of men who will volunteer their services day or night almost gratuitously, toward the preservation of the city's and the citizen's property, when, without a moment's warning, they are called upon to risk life and limb in fire fights in which they have no interest whatever other than to save a fellow citizen's home. Statesboro has just such a group and they deserve every assistance that can ever be accorded them by the citizens and by the city government.

The fire Tuesday night painfully disclosed the quite inadequate water supply or rather the great necessity of more water plugs for fire service in that section of the city. The nearest plug to the Tuesday night fire was full five blocks away; there is mighty little chance to save any property from fire when it gets under good headway with such a distance to connect and lay hose. Only through the hard and efficient work of the fire department in saving the Outland house prevented a clean sweep of that, and the thirteen five room negro cottages immediately west of the Outland house. Statesboro's real estate values and her business district is of such importance and growing every day, to the extent that a modern fire fighting apparatus is the need of the hour. The costliest auto combination, hose, and engine with a day and night attendant, should be a cheap investment, and any tax payer in the city who would object to the fraction of a cent in added tax for the maintenance of the city's requirements in this respect would indeed be short-sighted of his own personal interest.

Deaths

J. W. Robinson, an old and respected citizen, of Dover, died Monday after a long and patient illness of asthma from which he was a great sufferer. Mr. Robinson was one of the first settlers at Dover, and frequently called the Father of Dover. He is mourned by many friends and relatives.

Mrs. Noah Hendrix, wife of Noah Hendrix, who resides near Metter, died at the local sanitarium Christmas night. Mrs. Hendrix had been in ill health for a long time and was a lovable and patient sufferer. The funeral services were held at Lotts Creek church and attended by a large concourse of friends, relatives and acquaintances.

BLOCK OF STORES ON NORTH MAIN STREET

Now Are Completely Filled

All the store rooms on North Main street bounded between West Main and Proctor streets are now occupied. The removal of D. Friedman to the old bank building corner of North Main and West Main, and C. M. Cail & Co. going in the store formerly occupied by Friedman completely fills the block and adds life and renewed energy to the commercial appearance of the block.

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form.

Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body; and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the salt food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building tonic, free from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try it.

SPLENDID SHOWING OF STATSBORO BANKS

Nearly 700,000 On Deposit Ending 1915

Statesboro banks are making a most gratifying report to their stockholders for the year ending 1915. Each of the three leading financial institutions report a substantial increase in deposits and net earnings. The First National shows an increase of nearly $50,000 in deposits over the year 1914. The Bank of Statesboro has a quarter of a million on deposit and the Sea Island also reports splendid increase in all departments. S. C. Groover cashier of the Bank of Statesboro is particularly pleased with the showing his bank has made. J. W. Johnston Jr of the First National bank states that their business has been especially satisfactory and predicts an era of prosperity for 1916 that will far outstrip any previous year for some time. R. F. Donaldson cashier of the Sea Island and president of the Statesboro Board of Trade is sanguine of a bright future for 1916 and is preparing to take advantage of the period of prosperity in store.

FIRE TOTALLY DESTROYS TWO HOUSES

And Partly Burns Out Another

Fire which started in the dining room of the residence occupied by L. L. Mitchell on Institute street totally destroyed the building together with its contents. Mr. Mitchell, whose family is away, returned to the house early Tuesday evening and retired. About an hour thereafter he was awakened, finding the rooms ablaze. He had just time to get in his clothes which was all he saved from the house. The flames soon ignited the adjoining house owned by H. Clark, which was unoccupied and this also was easy prey for the fiery king. The fire department arrived as promptly as could be expected at that hour of the night, but were handicapped by the very great distance from the fire plug to the seat of trouble some five blocks. When once they did get a stream of water to the fire they did valiant work directing their efforts at once on the Outland house which adjoined the Clark property; their prompt service saved this property; after it had been thoroughly water drenched they gave quick action to the house occupied by Ed Shuman which had commenced to burn and saved this property from total destruction. Shuman had, however, gotten his effects out of the house before it began burning. The house in which Shuman was living is understood to have been sold to Horace Waters but a few days ago. J. L. Clifton who had been living in the Outland house had removed about half of their effects to Clito where they are to reside and had but a few articles left which were quickly removed to a place of safety. The fire occurring so early in the evening attracted a great many auto parties of people who had not retired.

IMPORTANCE OF HEALTHY KIDNEYS

Statesboro Readers Should Learn to Keep the Kid- neys Well

The kidneys have a big work to do. All the blood in the body is coursing through the kidneys constantly to be freed of poisonous matter. It is a heavy enough task when the kidneys are well, but a cold, chill, fever or some thoughtless exposure is likely to irritate, inflame and congest the kidneys and interrupt the purifying work.

Then the aching frequently begins and is often accompanied by some irregularity of the urine—too frequent passages, sediment or retention. Thousands testifying to the wonderful merit of Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy for the kidneys only, that has been used in kidney troubles fifty years. You will make no mistake in following this Statesboro citizen's advice:

Mrs. J. B. Burns, 56 W. Main street, Statesboro, says: "A short time ago I used Doan's Kidney Pills and got good results. I can recommend them to others who suffer from kidney trouble."

Price, 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Burns had.

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS DINNER

To Prisoners in County Jail

Sheriff Mallard made glad the prisoners in the jail Christmas day by serving them with a special dinner in keeping with the spirit of the day and this was added to by Mrs. J. Z. Kendrick for the local W. C. T. U. who made up baskets of fruit and sent to the jail. Mayor Crouch and Miss Sadie Lee, of the city recorder's office, added also to these fruit gifts, so that those unfortunates who were confined behind the iron bars of the county's guard house were made as happy as could be expected on this joyous holiday under the conditions which they were compelled to live.

URIC ACID IN MEAT BRINGS RHEUMATISM

Says a Little Salts in water may save you from dread attack.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water. Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.
