GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR FIRST DISTRICT

To Be Taken Advantage of Through District Fair.

Editor Morning News: In pleasurable touch with the readers of the Morning News, as I have been for a number of years, I may be permitted to say that I have been watching with interest to see what course the chamber of commerce of the city of Savannah would pursue in the matter of J. R.
Miller's suggestion that a congressional district fair should be held in Savannah next fall.

I was pleased to learn that the committee which was charged with the duty of inquiring into the practicability of the proposition had submitted a favorable report and that the same had been adopted.

I understand that the fair will be held annually for four consecutive years. That is a capital idea.
The management will have something to work to, and the people will feel and manifest a lively interest in the undertaking.

Than the first congressional district there is not a district in the state that can offer a richer or a more attractive field for work in the interest of A. Number One Fair.

With McIntosh county searcely in the running, your ten counties annually produce 7,000, 000 bushels of corn, 500,000 bushels of oats, large crops of first class hay, over 700,000 bushels of sweet potatoes, 175,000 bales of cotton, not to mention sugar cane, vegetables, fruit, etc.

The poultry industry is rapidly becoming an industry, the number of pure bred milch cows is large, and there are from 12,000 to 15,000 hogs in the district.
It goes without saying that the girls' canning clubs, the boys' corn clubs, the boys' pig clubs, in the district, will figure conspicuously at the fair.

The chamber of commerce could not have found in the entire state a gentleman better equipped for the important undertaking than Mr. Miller, of Bulloch. He will bring to the work large experience and the requisite resources. fulness. If the people in the ten counties in the district will give him the hearty co-operation to which he is justly entitled the first fair of the first congressional district will prove to be a great success, and will guarantee the success of the three that will follow.

Your district has within its boundaries every essential to the success of the enterprise. It is not necessary that you should go outside for any man or men or any products anywhere. With the exception of the midday and similar attractions, your fair is to be a first congressional district fair. Cling to that idea.

It may not be out of order for me respectfully to suggest to those who have never grown crops with a special view to exhibiting the same at a fair that the thought is that not only can products usually grown in a county be placed on exhibition but products from crops which can be grown in such county.

That is to say, for example, new forage plants, new vegetables, new and untried varieties of corn, etc. Search the eastern seed catalogues for these new discoveries, buy some of the seed and sowing to what extent they are adapted to your soil and season.
As secretary of the Georgia State Agricultural Society, I write with pride and pleasure the steady increase within the past five years in the number of county and district fairs held each year in the state. The good which they do is incalculable. Yours respectfully, MARTIN V. GARDIN,

Secretary, Ga.

Fertilizer Notice.

I have on hand, in warehouse at Statesboro, full supply of Fertilizers manufactured by the Mutual Fertilizer Company, including the old reliable B-S, Cumberland and other brands. See me for fertilizers. See the nearest agent or phone me No. 46, States-boro. Thanking the people for past patronage, I am respectfully,

Overstreet Formally Placed in Race.

At a meeting of citizens of Savannah held in the court house at Savannah on Monday Hos. J. W. Overstreet was given a handsome endorsement at the hands of his own county people.
The meeting filled the court room to its full capacity and the enthusiasm was at fever heat. A number of citizens from adjoining counties were present and the reports from the other counties brought great encouragement from all sections of the district.
A committee of 100 from seven counties was named to conduct the campaign through all the counties of the first district.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Oliver, of Abbeville, spent several days this week visiting the family of Mr. E. C. Oliver, of this place.

These Little Tablets

Stop 19 Out of 20 Colds

Franklin Drug Co., in this city, is now able to supply Weeks' Break-up colds Tablets, the remedy which has had the remarkable record of checking 19 out of every 20 common colds.
The action of Weeks' Break-up colds Tablets is so reliable that you are sure to be an exceptional case and you do not get prompt relief, they WILL BREAK UP YOUR QUARTER—no more authorized them to do this.
This remedy is a clever combination of positive, quick-acting ingredients and it is a sure relief for all colds, "croup" and for those colds which are produced by congestion due to colds.

Weeks' Break-up-cold Tablets are easy to take and is a good idea to have a box handy and take a dose right when the cold starts in.
It is needless to warn intelligent people not to accept substitutes.
Insist on the genuine Weeks' Breakup-cold Tablets. Twenty-five cents at Franklin Drug Co.

PULASKI CARPENTER MAY BE DESERTED

Believed to be wanted at Pulaski, Ga., on the charge of wife desertion, Simon P. Green, 31 years old, was arrested yesterday afternoon at his rooming house, Thirty-third and Hab-ersham streets. Motorcyclist Ar-nor made the arrest.

A request to have Green arrested was sent to a friend of the family, who turned the information over to the police. Nothing of the charge was known by the friend. The arrest of Bulloch county will be communicated with by the police to ascertain what disposition is to be made of the prisoner.

Green told a reporter that he believed he had been arrested at his wife's request, and that he thought she suspected him of deserting her.
The prisoner has been in Savannah four days, according to his own statement, and has obtained work. He is a carpenter. That his departure from Pulaski was hurried or unknown to his wife, Green denied—Savannah News.

Col. R. Lee Moore is back from Savannah, where he spent the weekend on Monday to try criminal cases, a large number being set for trial. He has the distinction of having secured convictions in every case tried, with the exception of three—a record seldom equalled by any solicitor general.

For Sheriff.

I take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for sheriff of Bulloch county, subject to the democratic primary. It will be my highest ambition to serve the people faithfully, if elected, and I respectfully solicit the support of the voters throughout the county. Respectfully, JOHN T. JONES.

What Will the Harvest Be?

You only bank or spend the earnings from your farm. The important question then is, "What Will the Harvest Be?" Will you get a bale to the acre, or a bale to two acres?
It's the extra hundred pounds of cotton to the acre and the extra ten bushels of corn, at the same labor and fertiliser expense that makes the bank balance grow and provides the needed comforts of life.

Free : Fertilizer

One more boll per stalk fruited will pay your Fertilizer bill. The loss of the extra boll doubles the cost to you.

Are you getting free fertilizer or paying double? This is a very vital question to you because you reap the benefit or stand the loss, not the Fertilizer agent that sells you.

HERE IS THE PROOF:

"I will get 2 to 2 1/2 bales to the acre this year. I used B. & S. Special Sea Island Fertilizer at the rate of 500 pounds to the acre, putting in 500 pounds when I planted and 300 pounds when the cotton was about 15 inches high.

It is THE BEST GUANO I ever used, and I will use no other brand as long as I can get your B. & S.
Special Sea Island Fertilizer. I will give you the names of some of the men I saw saw the cotton growing.
Yours truly,
A. J. YOUNGBLOOD, Swainsboro, Ga.

We, the undersigned, have seen the cotton growing on the farm of A. J. Youngblood, 6 miles south of Swainsboro, in Emanuel County, Georgia, and must say, IT IS THE BEST WE EVER SAW IN THE COTTON BELT OF GEORGIA.

Card from Mr. Anderson.

Editor Statesboro News, States-boro, Ga.:
Dear Sir: I see a news item stating that I will make the race for Representative. I have never been asked by my friends to make that race, but have been asked to stand firm and ready to serve them in 1916. Therefore, I will not allow my name to be used for Representative under any terms. Respectfully yours,
C. H. ANDERSON.

Anderson Will Make the Race for Ordinary

In this issue appears a card from Mr. C. H. Anderson, which speaks for itself. Mr. Anderson takes occasion to answer the suggestion made in our last issue to the effect that there was good legislative timber in him, and comes out and makes his position plain.

He states that he is ready to serve his friends in 1916 in another capacity. The fact that he was one of the leading candidates for ordinary two years ago, and stepped aside for the present incumbent, rather suggests what he means by being ready to serve his friends in 1916.

It seems that we failed in catching a legislative candidate, but have been rather instrumental in flushing a candidate for ordinary two years hence. Any way, Mr. Anderson is all right, no matter where you place him.

Terrace Your Land.

The undersigned is prepared to lay off your terrace rows; will work for $1.50 per day, or 25c per hour. Parties needing me will send for me; I am at Mr. James Mixon's, near Blitch, Ga.
Respectfully, G. M. LOWE.

Infant's Death.

On Monday night, at their home near Upper Mill Creek church, James, the 10 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Donaldson, died after a short illness with croup. The funeral and interment was at Upper Mill Creek church on Tuesday afternoon. A large crowd of sorrowing friends and relatives of the family attended the funeral.

Compo-t Distributor for Sale

I have on hand, at the D. L.
Kennedy farm, near Jimps, good second hand compost distributor.
Will sell at a bargain.

E. M. ANDERSON,
Executor Estate of D. L. Kennedy.

Boy's Death

The 10-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Williams died at their home in the Forty-fourth district Saturday night, after an illness of about three weeks with typhoid fever.

The funeral was at Lower Lot's Lower Lot's Creek church on Sunday afternoon. A large number of sorrowing friends were out to attend the funeral.

Egg and Chicken

Thieves at Work

Statesboro is now beset with a proliferation of kids, both white and black, who not only roam the streets of the city at leisure, but make it a business to raid hen nests and chicken roosts. Several well equipped camps have been discovered, where the eggs are carried and boiled. The chickens and part of the eggs are carried to the stores and swapped off either for cash or candy. These depredations have run up an unit price has ceased to be a virtue. The merchant who trades for eggs from these kids and settles with them in cash, or pays in candy or fruit ought to know that he is receiving stolen goods.

People who have eggs to sell don't send them by small boys and exchange them that way. Now the average parent pays little or no attention to complaints about his boy's devilment and are slow to believe that their "innocent little Willie" would do such a thing. Some of them get insulted.

If the merchants don't want to sell their customers loaded eggs they had better use a little discretion about who they buy from.

Mr. C. E. Anderson and family, of Register, Route 2, will leave Tuesday for Concord, N. C., where Mr. Anderson goes to take up the work for the Watkins Medicine Company.

The Civic League's Lament

The cow is causing trouble in our little town.
Faces that once were smiling Are wearing new a frown.

The Civic League is burdened, She knows not what to do, Every time she takes a step She's greeted with a "moo."

She plans for parks and hedges, She thinks of flowers and vine, But when she would be so brave She's hindered by the kine.

She could improve the school grounds Lift the teachers tell her how The shrubs and trees when planted Would be eaten by the cow.

They say the League is dying; She's handicapped, 'tis true,
Her grip on life's tenuous, She's going to pull through.

Obstructions in her pathway, Which are not there to stay, She hopes for an election At a very early day.

And when the vote is counted And the stock has been removed,
She'll beautify our city Along the lines approved.

Civic League.

Large Crowd Out

to Hear Prof. Brittain.

One of the most representative crowds we have seen in Statesboro in some time was that which assembled here yesterday to hear the address of Prof. M. L. Brittain, State Superintendent of Schools.

Prof. Brittain spoke in the school auditorium, which was filled to its full capacity, the introductory address being made by Col. A. M. Deal, a member of the county board of education. Col. Deal spoke for about three quarters of an hour, making note of the fact that the large gathering before him was made up largely of school people, teachers and trustees from the schools of all sections of the county. Mr. Deal noted the fact that he only recognized eight or nine citizens of Statesboro in the large audience. The address was well received. The crowd remained in town during the day. It was probably true that every neighborhood in Bulloch was represented here.

Dwelling Burned.

On last Wednesday night, at 1 o'clock, the dwelling belonging to Mr. and Mrs. John Lee, on South Main street, was destroyed by fire.

When the fire was discovered by neighbors the entire roof was ablaze, and the sleeping couple were aroused just in time to escape through the window from their room, when the ceiling was giving away, with the flames beginning to pour into the room in which they were sleeping.

A few pieces of furniture were saved, but owing to the fact that the entire roof was afire, it was impossible to save much. The piano was saved, among some other things.

The origin of the fire is supposed to have been the work of rats. A policy of $1,200 insurance was carried on the dwelling and $500 on the furniture.

Morris-Rigdon.

On Saturday afternoon, at the residence of Rev. L. A. McLauren, Miss Ruth Morris and Mr. Daniel Rigdon were united in marriage.
Rev. Mr. McLauren officiating.

The marriage was a quiet affair and unexpected to the friends of the contracting parties. They are at home to their friends at the home of the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Rigdon.

The January quarterly adjourned term of city court is in session.
