GREAT OPPORTUNITY FOR FIRST DISTRICT

To Be Taken Advantage of Through District Fair.

Editor Morning News: In pleasurable touch with the readers of the Morning News, as I have been for a number of years, I may be permitted to say that I have been watching with interest to see what course the chamber of commerce of the city of Savannah would pursue in the matter of J. R.
Miller's suggestion that a congressional district fair should be held in Savannah next fall.

I was pleased to learn that the committee which was charged with the duty of inquiring into the practicability of the proposition had submitted a favorable report and that the same had been adopted.

I understand that the fair will be held annually for four consecutive years. That is a capital idea.
The management will have something to work to, and the people will feel and manifest a lively interest in the undertaking.

Than the first congressional district there is not a district in the state that can offer a richer or a more attractive field for work in the interest of A. Number One Fair.

With McIntosh county searcely in the running, your ten counties annually produce 7,000, 000 bushels of corn, 500,000 bushels of oats, large crops of first class hay, over 700,000 bushels of sweet potatoes, 175,000 bales of cotton, not to mention sugar cane, vegetables, fruit, etc.

The poultry industry is rapidly becoming an industry, the number of pure bred milch cows is large, and there are from 12,000 to 15,000 hogs in the district.
It goes without saying that the girls' canning clubs, the boys' corn clubs, the boys' pig clubs, in the district, will figure conspicuously at the fair.

The chamber of commerce could not have found in the entire state a gentleman better equipped for the important undertaking than Mr. Miller, of Bulloch. He will bring to the work large experience and the requisite resources. fulness. If the people in the ten counties in the district will give him the hearty co-operation to which he is justly entitled the first fair of the first congressional district will prove to be a great success, and will guarantee the success of the three that will follow.

Your district has within its boundaries every essential to the success of the enterprise. It is not necessary that you should go outside for any man or men or any products anywhere. With the exception of the midway and similar attractions, your fair is to be a first congressional district fair. Cling to that idea.

It may not be out of order for me respectfully to suggest to those who have never grown crops with a special view to exhibiting the same at a fair that the thought is that not only can products usually grown in a county be placed on exhibition but products from crops which can be grown in such county.

That is to say, for example, new forage plants, new vegetables, new and untried varieties of corn, etc. Search the eastern seed catalogues for these new discoveries, buy some of the seed and sowing to what extent they are adapted to your soil and season.
As secretary of the Georgia State Agricultural Society, I write with pride and pleasure the steady increase within the past five years in the number of county and district fairs held each year in the state. The good which they do is incalculable. Yours respectfully, MARTIN V. GAVIN,

Secretary, Ga.

Overstreet Formally Placed in Race.

At a meeting of citizens of Savannah held in the court house at Savannah on Monday Hos. J. W. Overstreet was given a handsome endorsement at the hands of his own county people.
The meeting filled the court room to its full capacity and the enthusiasm was at fever heat. A number of citizens from adjoining counties were present and the reports from the other counties brought great encouragement from all sections of the district.
A committee of 100 from seven counties was named to conduct the campaign through all the counties of the first district.

beville, spent several days this week

PULASKI CARPENTER MAY BE DESERTED

Believed to be wanted at Pulaski, Ga., on the charge of wife desertion, Simon P. Green, 31 years old, was arrested yesterday afternoon at his rooming house, Thirty-third and Hab-ersham streets. Motorcyclist Ar-nor made the arrest.

A request to have Green arrested was sent to a friend of the family, who turned the information over to the police. Nothing of the charge was known by the friend. The arrest of Bulloch county will be communicated with by the police to ascertain what disposition is to be made of the prisoner.

Green told a reporter that he believed he had been arrested at his wife's request, and that he thought she suspected him of deserting her.
The prisoner has been in Savannah four days, according to his own statement, and has obtained work. He is a carpenter. That his departure from Pulaski was hurried or unknown to his wife, Green denied—Savannah News.

Col. R. Lee Moore is back from Savannah, where he spent the weekend on Monday to try criminal cases, a large number being set for trial. He has the distinction of having secured convictions in every case tried, with the exception of three—a record seldom equalled by any solicitor general.

For Sheriff.

I take this opportunity to announce my candidacy for sheriff of Bulloch county, subject to the democratic primary. It will be my highest ambition to serve the people faithfully, if elected, and I respectfully solicit the support of the voters throughout the county. Respectfully, JOHN T. JONES.

What Will the Harvest Be?

You only bank or spend the earnings from your farm. The important question then is, "What Will the Harvest Be?" Will you get a bale to the acre, or a bale to two acres?
It's the extra hundred pounds of cotton to the acre and the extra ten bushels of corn, at the same labor and fertiliser expense that makes the bank balance grow and provides the needed comforts of life.

Free : Fertilizer

One more boll per stalk fruited will pay your Fertilizer bill. The loss of the extra boll doubles the cost to you.

Are you getting free fertilizer or paying double? This is a very vital question to you because you reap the benefit or stand the loss, not the Fertilizer agent that sells you.

HERE IS THE PROOF:

"I will get 2 to 2 1/2 bales to the acre this year. I used B. & S. Special Sea Island Fertilizer at the rate of 500 pounds to the acre, putting in 500 pounds when I planted and 300 pounds when the cotton was about 15 inches high.

It is THE BEST GUANO I ever used, and I will use no other brand as long as I can get your B. & S.
Special Sea Island Fertilizer. I will give you the names of some of the men I saw saw the cotton growing.
Yours truly,
A. J. YOUNGBLOOD, Swainsboro, Ga.

We, the undersigned, have seen the cotton growing on the farm of A. J. Youngblood, 6 miles south

Anderson Will Make the Race for Ordinary

In this issue appears a card from Mr. C. H. Anderson, which speaks for itself. Mr. Anderson takes occasion to answer the suggestion made in our last issue to the effect that there was good legislative timber in him, and comes out and makes his position plain.

He states that he is ready to serve his friends in 1916 in another capacity. The fact that he was one of the leading candidates for ordinary two years ago, and stepped aside for the present incumbent, rather suggests what he means by being ready to serve his friends in 1916.

It seems that we failed in catching a legislative candidate, but have been rather instrumental in flushing a candidate for ordinary two years hence. Any way, Mr. Anderson is all right, no matter where you place him.

Infant's Death.

On Monday night, at their home near Upper Mill Creek church, James, the 10 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Donaldson, died after a short illness with croup. The funeral and interment was at Upper Mill Creek church on Tuesday afternoon. A large crowd of sorrowing friends and relatives of the family attended the funeral.

Boy's Death

The 10-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Williams died at their home in the Forty-fourth district Saturday night, after an illness of about three weeks with typhoid fever.

The funeral was at Lower Lot's Lower Lot's Creek church on Sunday afternoon. A large number of sorrowing friends were out to attend the funeral.

Egg and Chicken

Thieves at Work

Statesboro is now beset with a proliferation of kids, both white and black, who not only roam the streets of the city at leisure, but make it a business to raid hen nests and chicken coops. Several well equipped camps have been discovered, where the eggs are carried and boiled. The chickens and part of the eggs are carried to the stores and swapped off either for cash or candy. These depredations have run on for some time and have ceased to be a virtue. The merchant who trades for eggs from these kids and settles with them in cash, or pays in candy or fruit ought to know that he is receiving stolen goods.

People who have eggs to sell don't send them by small boys and exchange them that way. Now the average parent pays little or no attention to complaints about his boy's delinquency and are slow to believe that their "little Willie" would do such a thing. Some of them get insulted.

If the merchants don't want to sell their customers loaded eggs they had better use a little discretion about who they buy from.

Mr. C. E. Anderson and family, of Register, Route 2, will leave Tuesday for Concord, N. C., where Mr. Anderson goes to take up the work for the Watkins Medicine Company.

The Civic League's Lament

The cow is causing trouble in our little town.
Faces that once were smiling Are wearing new a frown.

The Civic League is burdened, She knows not what to do, Every time she takes a step She's greeted with a "moo."

She plans for parks and hedges, She thinks of flowers and vine, But when she would be so brave She's hindered by the kine.

She could improve the school grounds Lift the teachers tell her how.
The shrubs and trees when planted Would be eaten by the cow.

They say the League is dying; She's handicapped, 'tis true.
Her grip on life's tenuous, She's going to pull through.

Obstructions in her pathway, Which are not there to stay, She hopes for an election At a very early day.

And when the vote is counted And the stock has been removed,
She'll beautify our city Along the lines approved.

Civic League.

Large Crowd Out

to Hear Prof. Brittain.

One of the most representative crowds we have seen in Statesboro in some time was that which assembled here yesterday to hear the address of Prof. M. L. Brittain, State Superintendent of Schools.

Prof. Brittain spoke in the school auditorium, which was filled to its full capacity, the introductory address being made by Col. A. M. Deal, a member of the county board of education. Col. Deal spoke for about three quarters of an hour, making note of the fact that the large gathering before him was made up largely of school people, teachers and trustees from the schools of all sections of the county. Mr. Deal noted the fact that he only recognized eight or nine citizens of Statesboro in the large audience. The address was well received. The crowd remained in town during the day. It was probably true that every neighborhood in Bulloch was represented here.

Dwelling Burned.

On last Wednesday night, at 1 o'clock, the dwelling belonging to Mr. and Mrs. John Lee, on South Main street, was destroyed by fire.

When the fire was discovered by neighbors the entire roof was ablaze, and the sleeping couple were aroused just in time to escape through the window from their room, when the ceiling was giving away, with the flames beginning to pour into the room in which they were sleeping.

A few pieces of furniture were saved, but owing to the fact that the entire roof was afire, it was impossible to save much. The piano was saved, among some other things.

The origin of the fire is supposed to have been the work of rats. A policy of $1,200 insurance was carried on the dwelling and $500 on the furniture.

Morris-Rigdon.

On Saturday afternoon, at the residence of Rev. L. A. McLauren, Miss Ruth Morris and Mr. Daniel Rigdon were united in marriage.
Rev. Mr. McLauren officiating.

The marriage was a quiet affair and unexpected to the friends of the contracting parties. They are at home to their friends at the home of the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Rigdon.

The January quarterly adjourned term of city court is in session.

One Cause for Lynching.

The respite from execution of the slayers of Mrs. Irby who were sentenced to hang yesterday in Atlanta is unfortunate. It was deemed best to make a change of venue in these cases for fear of lynching, and the people of Jefferson county were denied the right to try them for this reason. It was argued that the negroes would be promptly hanged in Atlanta and would be just as dead as if they were hanged or lynched in Jefferson county.

Now that a lawyer has applied for a new trial and a respite been granted pending this hearing does to defeat the purpose of the law, though there was nothing for the governor to do but grant the respite under the circumstances. This was why the people of Bulloch county were unwilling that the Hodges murderers be taken back to Savannah several years ago. They knew that some shrewd lawyer who might want to play in the limelight would file motions that would delay justice, and they took the matter into their own hands. The result is well known.

The poor defenseless woman whom they murdered was given no respite but paid the penalty of their savage brutality. She was brutally murdered by the devil in human form, whose guilt was clearly proven, and it is unfortunate that their execution is to be delayed one moment. They have forfeited their right to breathe this free air further and the delay in their case is just what would have happened in the case of the murderers of the Hodges family several years ago.

Court House Contract Has Been Postponed

The awarding of the contract for the proposed additions to the Bulloch county court house has been postponed until the first Tuesday in April. This will make it necessary to re-advertise for bids until that time.

The announcement of Mr. J. C. Jones for re-election to the office of County Treasurer appears in our announcement columns today. There is perhaps no more deserving popular man in Bulloch than Jims Jones, as he is known to most of us. He is now serving his first term, and the almost unbroken rule in Bulloch is to give a man two terms. Mr. Jones will probably have no opposition.

Statesboro to Get Public Building

By reference to a Washington dispatch appearing in the Savannah Morning News it will be seen that Statesboro's public building appropriation will be included in the sundry civil bill which is expected to pass at the present session.

This appropriation carries with it fifty thousand dollars for the erection of a postoffice building in Statesboro, on the lot already owned by the government on South Main Street. It is hoped that the bill will go through, after which active preparations will be made to advertise for bids and begin work on the building. It will fill a long felt want and be an ornament to that section of the city. Congressman Edwards has been a tireless worker in behalf of this bill.

Public Sentiment

Time and time again it has been shown that public sentiment is the highest law in the land. This has been emphasized again and again in the case of the liquor question in Savannah. Several parties were placed before the grand jury on the charge of selling whiskey, and the grand jury returned a no bill in seven cases yesterday.

Yes it is a notorious fact that whiskey is sold openly in Savannah. In fact there is no effort to conceal this, the average dealer taking it as a reflection if charged with running a blind tiger. They all say the place is not blind, but running with both eyes open. Now, why is it that no convictions can be had except in such cases as violate the local orders. The reason is that prohibition has been forced down Savannah's throat, without the consent of the people, and they are taking the law into their own hands; therefore, public sentiment is the controlling factor, as it always has been, and always will be.

Akerman Given Severe Sentence

Frank Akerman was convicted of assault and battery in the city court on Wednesday, and Judge H. A. Boykin, of Savannah, who presided in the case, imposed a sentence of five months in the county jail and $250 and cost of court. In the event the fine is not paid at the end of the jail sentence, then young Akerman is to serve an additional sentence of six months on the chain-gang.

The case is the one in which Chief of Police J. F. Olliff was severely stabbed one night during the poultry show here last November. The cases against the four other young men charged with complicity in the case were not pressed on payment of cost. Young Akerman has already begun to serve his sentence.

Judge Speer Will Escape Impeachment

It is the general opinion among those who are keeping tab on the trend of the Speer case that the distinguished judge will never be impeached at the hands of the United States senate, though a large volume of evidence will be submitted against him.

It is reported that one member of the congressional investigating committee that was sent to Georgia to probe the charges, will stand by the judge. This man is the republican member of the commission. If politics get into the case it will be practically impossible to pass an order of impeachment, as the senate to pass this order, and the democrats have only a bare majority. It is said that his reply to the accusations heaped upon him by the different attorneys was something rich. This will be a feature in his favor before congress, and in our opinion, he is far from impeachment.

Judge Speer is reported to be holding court right on regardless of the charges pending against him.

Some Things That Statesboro Has.

While other towns and cities are parading before the public what they are doing, it reminds us that right here in old Statesboro we have a pretty good sort of a town. Statesboro needs more enterprises, of course, and she is going to have more, but at the present time she has among other things the following to her credit, viz:

A population of thirty five hundred people, most of whom are white, and a large proportion of whom own their own homes. She is the largest town in the eastern part of the state with the exception of Savannah.

She has four railroads—that is lines running out of here in four different directions, with passenger trains running out of here and arriving sixteen times per day, eight in and eight out of the city.

She has four banks, with a combined capital and deposits of more than a million dollars. She has never had a bank failure in the history of the city.

She has the best public school system in the state, the city schools employing sixteen teachers, with nearly five hundred pupils; the best school building in this section of the state.

She has the first congressional agricultural school, carrying with it a one hundred thousand dollar plant and equipment, with two hundred pupils, coming from every county in the first congressional district.

Statesboro has 50 merchants, doing a business of more than a million dollars per annum. Her stores carry as complete a line of merchandise as can be found in the larger cities, and the prices will compare with any town of its size in the state.

She is the biggest mule market in the eastern portion of the state, more than eight hundred head having been sold here this season already.

Statesboro handles more fertilizers than any town of its size in the state, almost every company doing business in this section of the state having branch headquarters in this city.

She has perhaps the best class of homes of any city of its size in the state, and dozens of new buildings are going up now in all parts of the city.

She has a sixty thousand dollar electric plant and water works, the municipality furnishing the citizens with both light and water at a nominal cost.

She is now installing a complete sewerage system, the cost of which will be more than fifty thousand dollars.

She has a forty thousand dollar oil mill and complete ginners.

She has a good thirty thousand dollar brick hotel, besides a number of wooden hotel buildings.

Clever Little Combination Knocks Cold in Few Hours

You can now get rid of any ordinary cold in just a few hours by taking a couple of doses of Weeks' Break-up-Cold Tablets, which you can procure at Franklin Drug Co.

These little tablets are a clever combination of positive, quick-acting ingredients—so sure acting that while they will not cure every cold, yet in 10 out of 20 times the cold is stopped quickly.

So positive is the action of Weeks' Break-up-Cold Tablets that if you are not cured by the action of Weeks' Break-up-Cold Tablets, you can get your money back.

heavy Registration In Bulloch.

What is perhaps the heaviest registration of white voters ever known in this county at this stage of the campaign is recorded. With just sixty days yet in which to register there are just 2614 white registered voters who have availed themselves of the privilege, preparatory to voting in the approaching primary.

The chairman of the democratic executive committee has called a mass meeting for Wednesday next, and it is expected there will be a spurt in the registration of the voters following this meeting; especially so if there is an early primary called for county officers, which now seems probable. When all are on it is pretty certain that the list will run to thirty five hundred votes.

This shows that Bulloch county is growing in population at a very rapid rate. The list to date by districts is as follows:

44th District.....	169
45th District.....	193
46th District.....	110
47th District.....	183
48th District.....	227
1209th District.....	664
1320th District.....	167
1340th District.....	218
1323rd District.....	193
1547th District.....	159
1575th District.....	134
1685th District.....	127
1716th District.....	177

Since the 1820th district has been cut in two it looks like the 48th is going to take second place in the number of registered voters in the county. It ranks second to Statesboro district at this time.
